Our Alma Mater

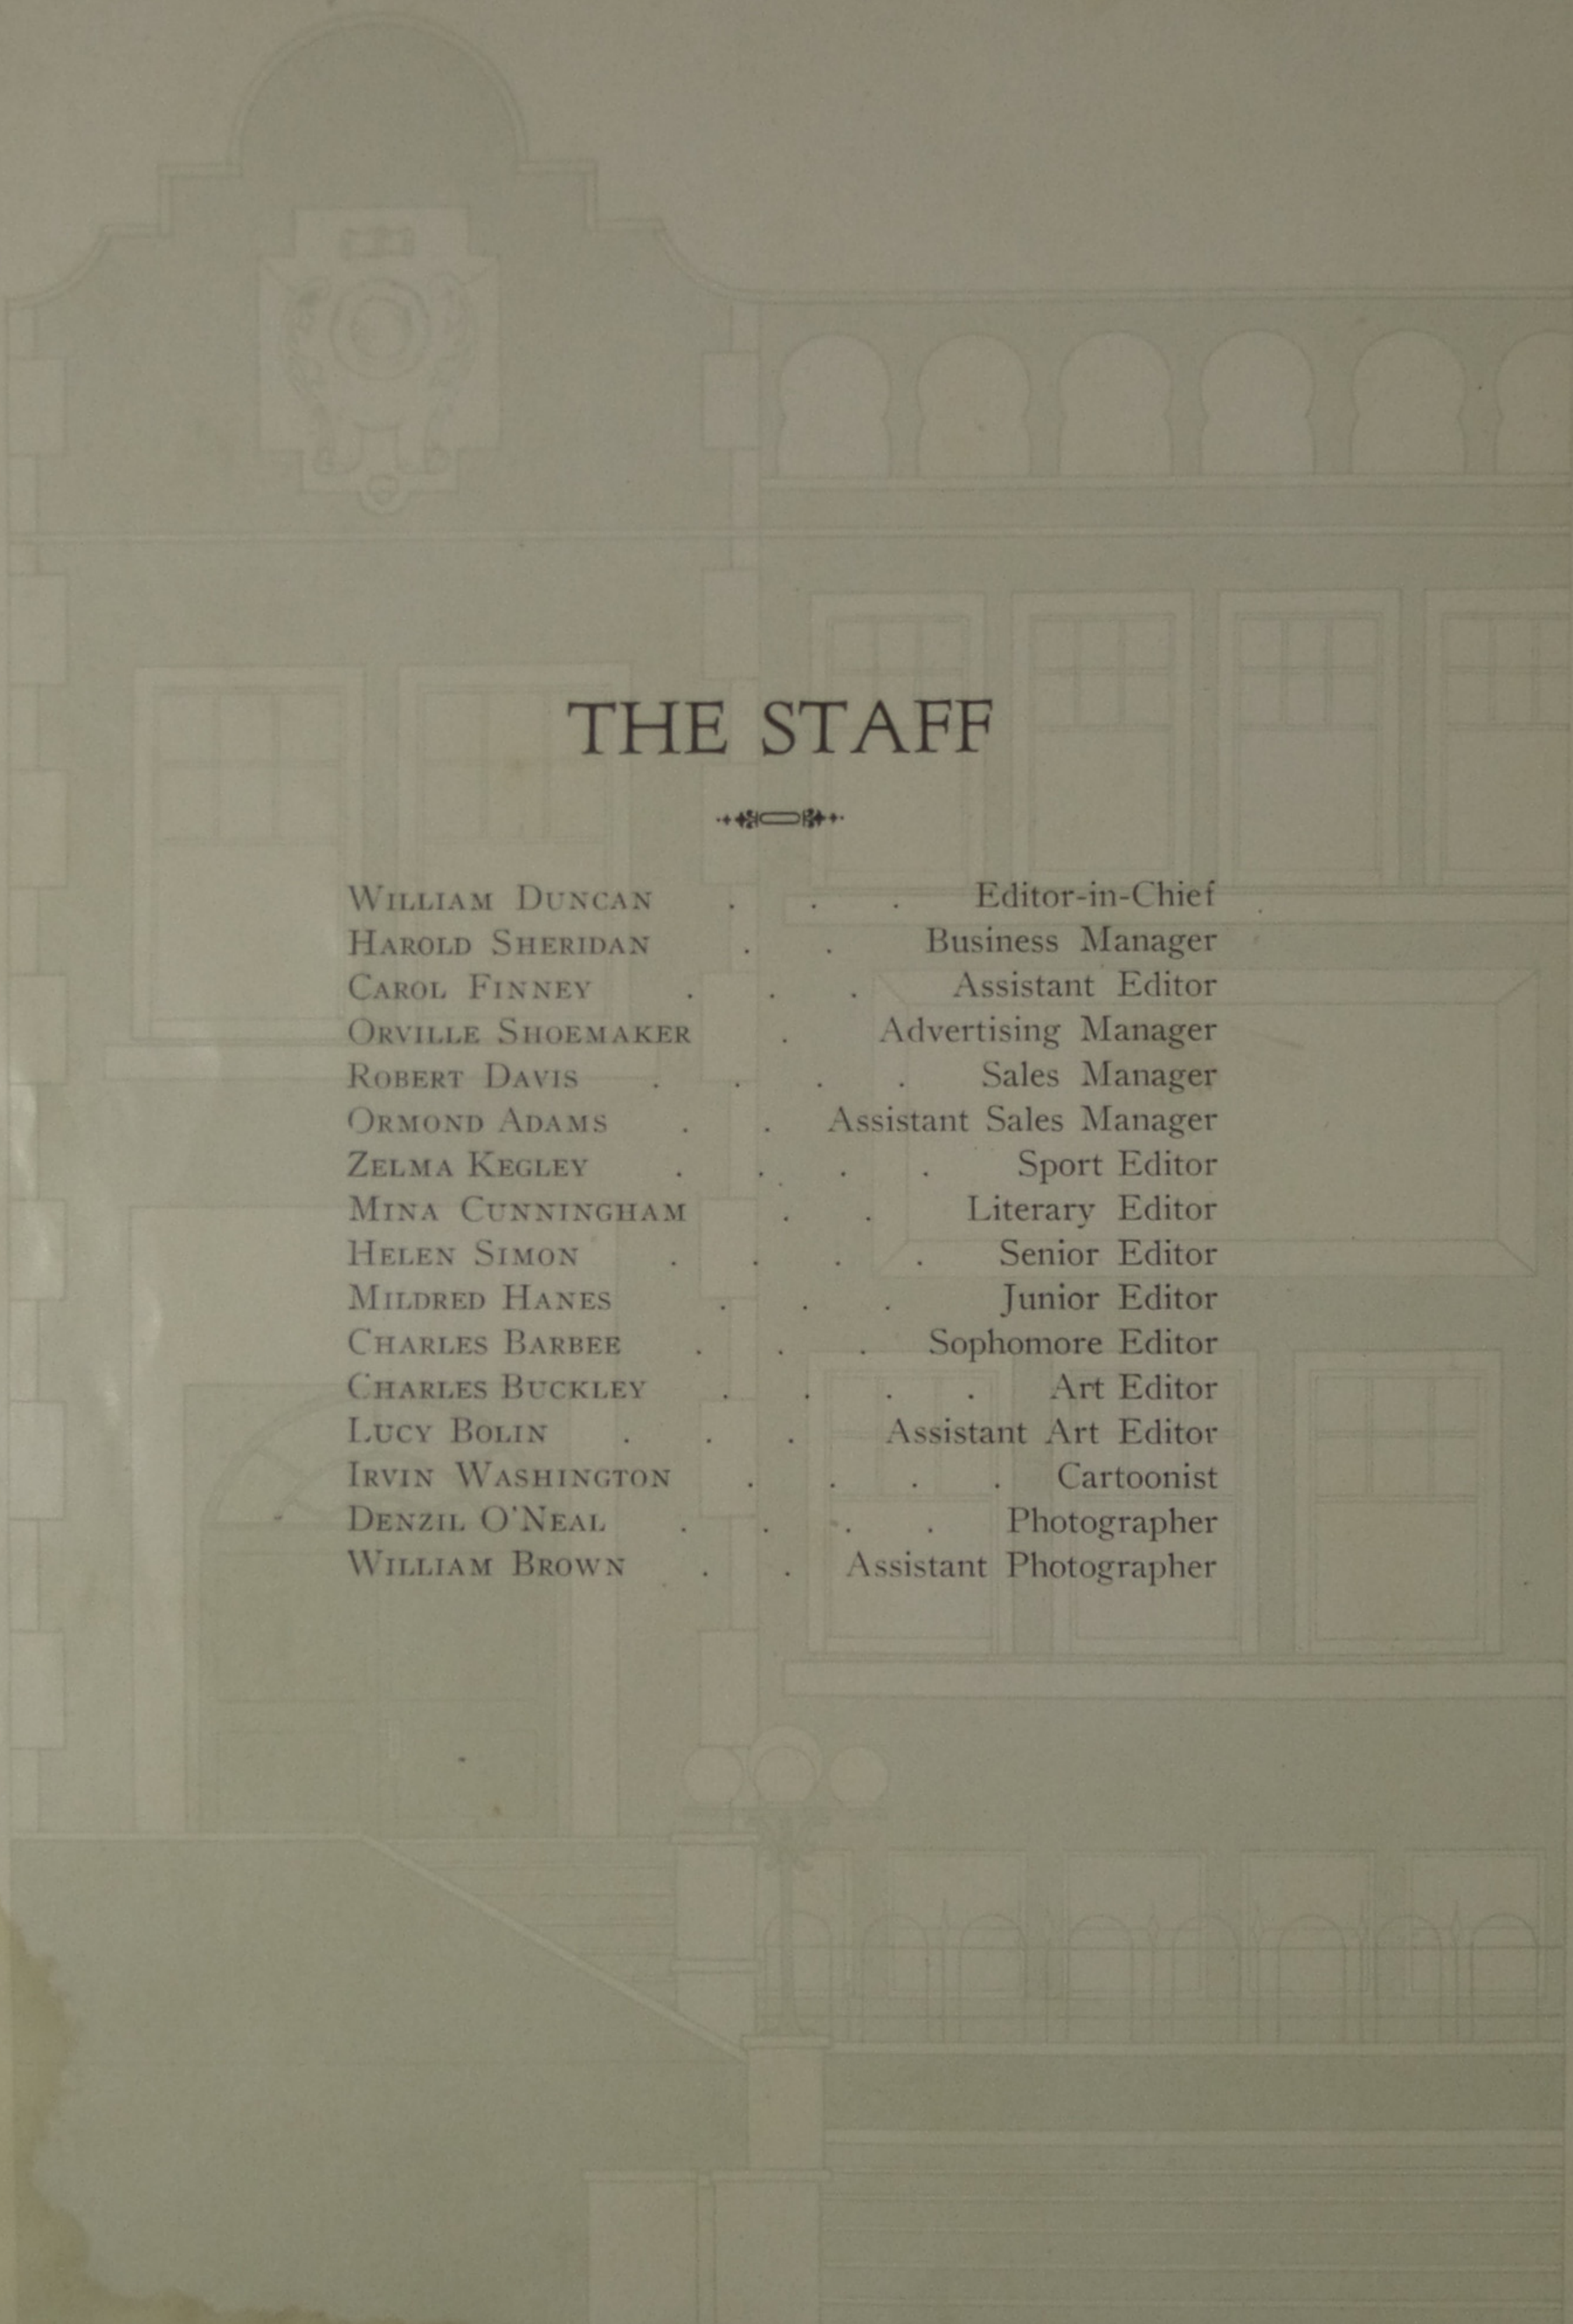

SCHOOL SONG

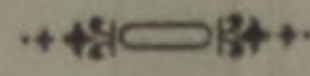

Scarlet stands for bravery,
Gray stands for might;
For Alma Mater dear,
Go right in and fight.
Ever we'll play the game,
Win the victory;
And then our lives will gain
Strength and poise from thee.

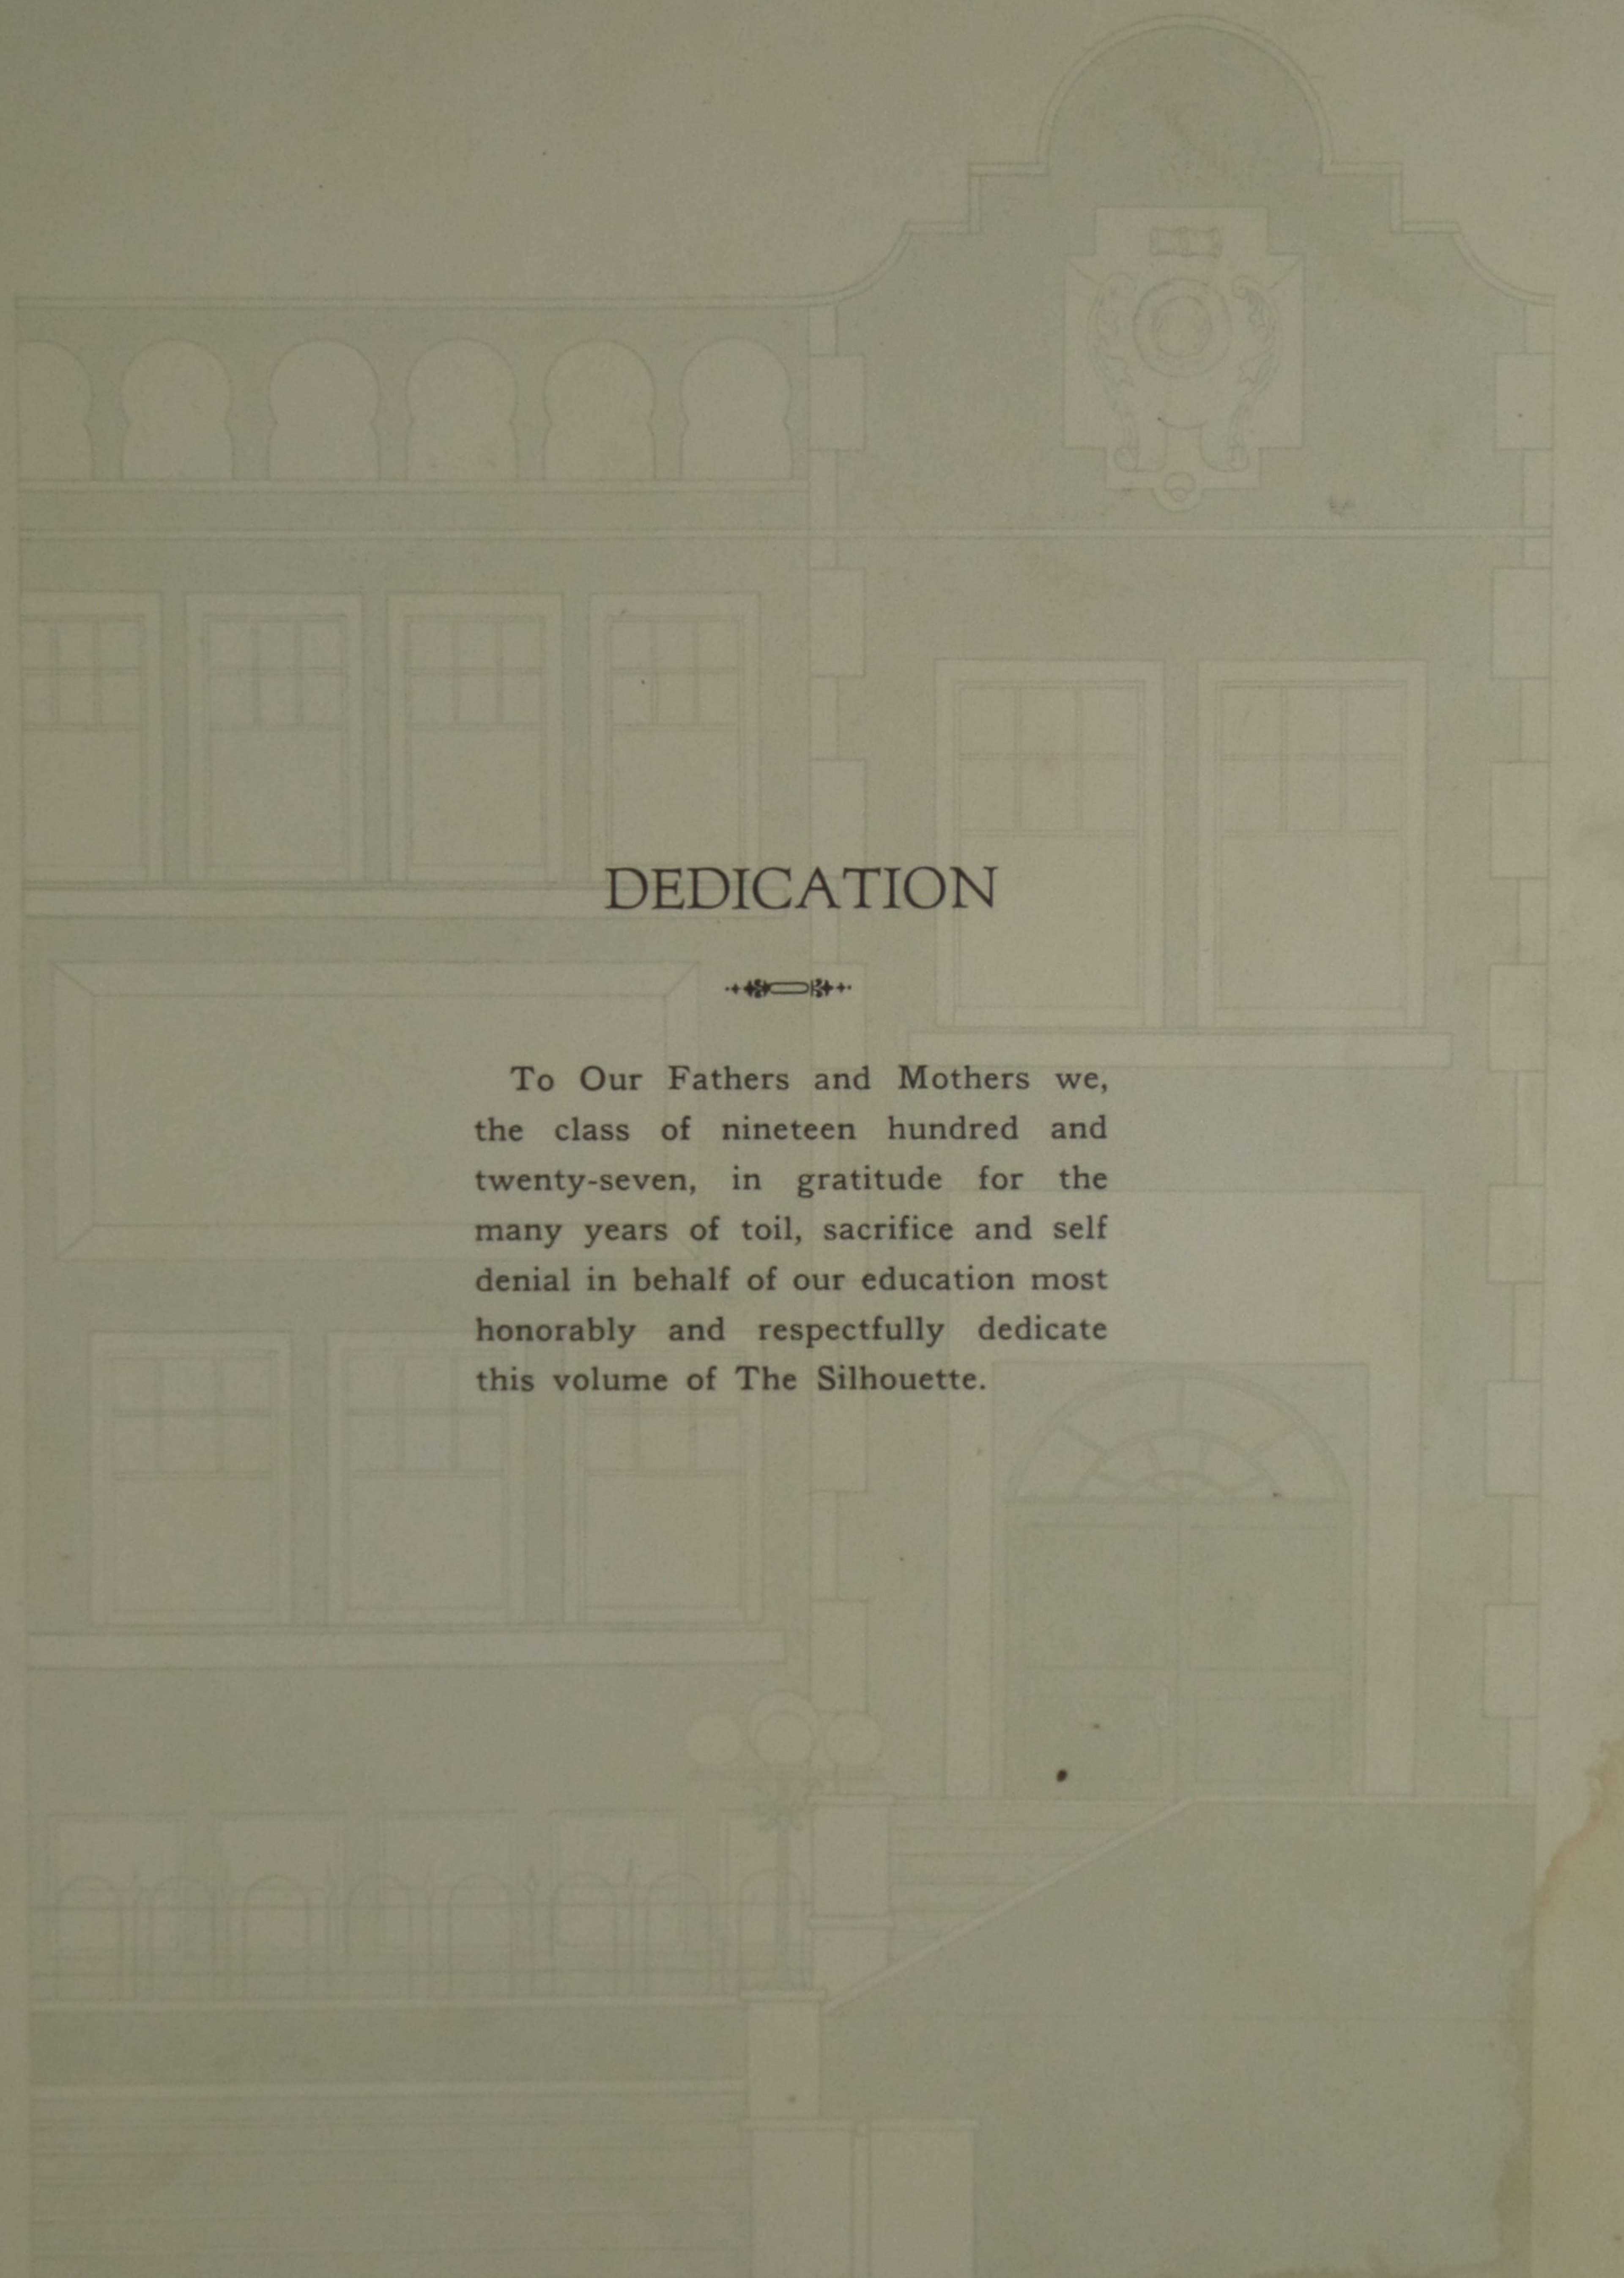

Let us then be ever true,
To Glenwood dear;
Let Scarlet and the Gray,
Fill our hearts with cheer.
Though distant we may roam,
Thoughts will linger still,
On school days spent within
Glenwood by the hill.

TO portray events as they happen with full cognizance of their value involves the fine discrimination of a real historian. Yet the staff of an Annual confronts such a problem in the compilation of their year-book.

If in future years, a perusal of this volume shows lack of perspective, balance and unity of purpose, let it be remembered that in its preparation, time for reflection and polish was not available.

Rather may you approach it in that spirit of reminiscence, that will enable you to cast aside for the moment the stern realities of today and enjoy to the utmost those youthful fancies and anticipations of yesterday. In short, may it echo that sentiment so dear to every mature mind:

"Backward, turn backward, O Time in your flight, Make me a child again, just for tonight."

To the students of Glenwood, and especially to the class of 1927, I extend congratulations for your past achievements and best wishes for your future success.

D. E. ROSS, Superintendent.

The Senior Division faculty never forgets lunch served to them once a week in the dining room of the Model Apartment.
No wonder they all seem happy on Monday.

These are the members of the Junior Division
faculty, who have charge of the 7th, 8th and 9th grades.

Miss Pfau believes in comfort by the fireside. Why shouldn't she? Her motto is, "Contentment and sociability is half the battle of life." The picture convinces one that she is living up to it.

Miss Wheeler seems to enjoy a moment's peace. But we do not wonder. If the students would torment all the teachers as they do Miss Wheeler, they would retire for a year before again taking up the responsibilities of teaching.

Imagine Mr. Higley spending an afternoon in a palm grove with a master's graduating gown on. Day by day in every way the world is getting funnier and funnier, especially in California.

Mr. Kirk, principal of the Junior Division, has quite a job grading papers, or maybe he is looking over a list of absentees, as students usually have a tendency to inhabit the La Roy if they are going to have a quiz.

California sure is a queer place. Trees there grow so large that tunnels are cut through them, but who would have thought that Mr. Higley's bus had passed through one?

Miss Nothstine may yet become a jockey, for she appears to have quite an affection for the gym horse. She is here shown in the gymnasium taking the roll of the Physical Education class.

This couple is always happy even though Miss Pollitt does have an awful time trying to convince Mr. Rankin that Vanceburg, Kentucky, is a better place than Martins Ferry, Ohio.

Mr. Root's ambition is to become a ship builder. He receives all the practice he needs, in the manual training room. In the picture he is shown working at his masterpiece, which he has decided to call "The Ace."

Mrs. Slusher has a terrible time making students believe that the crooked little marks she teaches them to write will aid them in later life. Here she is shown testing their knowledge in that line of work.

Mr. Bender and Mr. Elliott may often be found in earnest conversation. It is difficult to say what they are talking about, but nevertheless their talk must be pleasant, judging from the picture.

ADAMS,
ORMOND SLOAN

Activities: Basket Ball 1-3-4;
Penrod 1; Twelfth Night 3;
Silhouette 3-4; Annual 4;
Tennis 2.

Favorite Expression: "Oh,
Heck!"

Motto: "Do or die."

Likes Most: Bananas.

Favorite Pastime: Giggling.

Ambition: To be a chauffeur for a millionaire.

"AWKIE"

"Awkie," a real thoroughbred of the old corncracker state, upon receiving his new Remington Special at Christmas time, immediately began planning a trip to his native state to hunt ducks. The way in which he is handling fire-arms proves that he is quite an old hand at the game.

"LEC"

Mr. Douglas, manufacturer of world famous shoes, began this work at the early age of seven. Although "Lec" didn't get started quite as early in life, he is a willing worker, not knowing the meaning of failure and great hopes are held for his future in the shoe business.

BENNER, LESTER CLAYTON

Activities: Tennis 2; Annual 4; Basket Ball 1-2-4; Cap't. of Skeeters 2; Penrod 1; Twelfth Night 2; Silhouette 2-3.

Favorite Expression: "Well, "

Motto: "God is Love."

Likes Most: To play tennis.

Favorite Pastime: Driving a Ford Roadster.

Ambition: To become famous.

BOLIN, LUCILE DIANA

Activities: Silhouette 4; Annual 4; Basket Ball 3; Librarian 3-4.

Favorite Expression: "Why Youngin'!"

Motto: "I Can."

Likes Most: Good grades.

Favorite Pastime: Reading.

Ambition: To be a teacher.

"LUCY"

Everybody will be quite surprised to learn that this is Lucy's favorite pastime. We all thought that she would rather be driving a certain little Ford roadster or maybe listening to the interesting conversation of its owner. Oh well, maybe neither Ford nor owner were available at the time the photograph was taken.

"BILL"

"Bill" can be seen most any day in summer sitting on the bank with his can of fish-bait beside him, enjoying his favorite sport with a clear conscience, knowing that no work or lessons will have to be made up because one has taken time off from school in order to have a little enjoyment.

BROWN, WILLIAM BENNETT

Activities: Class President 1; Penrod 1; Twelfth Night 2; Annual 4; Orchestra 4.

Favorite Expression: "Gee Whiz."

Motto: "Time alone reveals a world of happiness."

Favorite Pastime: Fishing.

Likes Most: Base Ball.

Ambition: Time will tell.

PRESIDENT
Harold Sheridan

VICE PRESIDENT
Joseph Price

"CRUMIE"

"Crumie" seems to be waiting quite impatiently for the green light. Such a short time means nothing in the lives of most young people but they are precious golden moments to him when the old clock hand is nearing seven and quite a distance to go yet. "Crumie's" special route is between New Boston and Sciotoville.

CAMPBELL,
CLIFFORD

Activities: Basket Ball 1-4;
Favorite Expression: "Absolutely!"
Motto: "Buy Low and Sell High."
Likes Most: Hard to tell.
Favorite Pastime: Driving a Ford Sedan.
Ambition: To be an Architect.

CUNNINGHAM, MINA VIOLA

Activities: Librarian 1-2-3;
Silhouette 2-3-4; Annual 4;
Class Secretary and Treasurer 4;
School Secretary 4.
Favorite Expression: "Coming to Church Tonight?"
Motto: "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth."
Likes Most: To work.
Favorite Pastime: Singing.
Ambition: To become Private Secretary to a Banker.

"TOOTS"

Mina is one of those students who thinks that school is a place for study and hard work. She is never seen roaming about the building seeking mischief, no siree! She remarked that her pet ambition was to become private secretary to the president of some bank because, well—there is money in it.

"BOB"

A devoted son, following in the footsteps of his father, "Bob" is planning on starting in the motion picture business for himself soon after graduation. He has been looking about for a suitable location, which, so far, seems to be Huntington.

DAVIS,
ROBERT SAMUEL

Activities: Penrod 2; Charm School 3; Annual 4.
Favorite Expression: "I hate to tell you."
Motto: "Absence makes the heart grow fonder."
Likes Most: Why ask?
Favorite Pastime: Going to Huntington.
Ambition: To Get Married.

DUNCAN,
WILLIAM HOWARD

Activities: Silhouette 1-2-4;
Annual 4; Basket Ball 1-3-4;
Foot Ball 2-4; Lightnin' 4.
Motto: "Take it easy."
Likes Most: To loaf.
Favorite Pastime: Hanging around the River.
Ambition: Most anything.

"BILL"

Carpentering isn't the most dignified position in the world but it at least is an honorable one. "Bill" seems to be enjoying his work very much. If he keeps on he may have a hand in the building of the new wing which is to be added soon.

CLASS ADVISOR

Martha H. Pollitt

SEC'Y AND TREAS.

Mina Cunningham

GRANDISON,
THELMA MARGARET

Activities: Glee Club 1-2, Librarian 4.

Favorite Expression: "Go Ahead Cha'ley."

Motto: "Music before Studies."

Likes Most: Dates (?)

Favorite Pastime: Playing the Piano.

Ambition: To be a Concert Pianist.

"TILLIE"

"Tillie" believes that practice makes perfect. If true, we may hold great hopes for her future as a wonderful musician, sharing honors with Paderewski, Grieg, Zerny and even Harry M. Snodgrass, that is, if nothing happens to interfere with her musical career.

"ALIBI"

Home-loving girls who can cook and sew are making quite a hit these days. No doubt "Hilda" has her reasons for learning the domestic arts—maybe for the sake of being able to prepare delicious dishes—maybe because she is pretty sure to capture the heart of some old-fashioned swain.

JENKINS, HILDA THELMA

Activities: Glee Club 1-2, Librarian 4, Lightnin' 4.

Favorite Expression: "Oh My!"

Motto: "Be Modest."

Likes Most: Chemistry (?)

Favorite Pastime: To chum with "Tillie."

Ambition: To be a trained nurse.

KEGLEY, ZELMA LOUISE

Activities: Silhouette 4, Annual 4, Librarian 2-4, Glee Club 1, Class Secretary, 1-2, Vice-President 3.

Favorite Expression: "You All."

Motto: "Pleasure before Business."

Likes Most: Skeet Sheridan.

Favorite Pastime: Entertaining Skeet.

Ambition: To become a Modern Housewife.

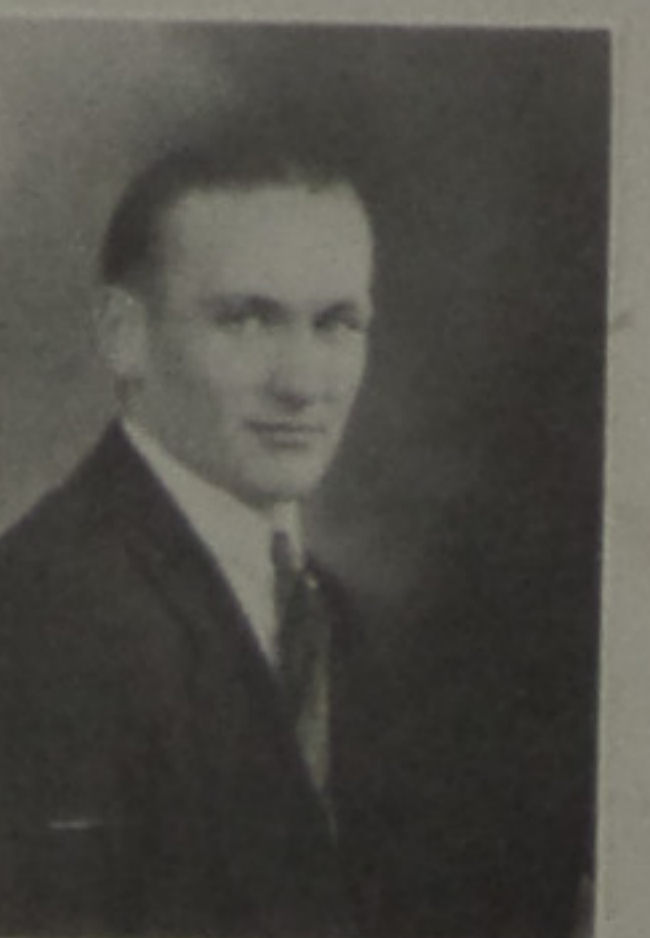

"KENTUCKY"

It seems as though Zelma and "Tookie" her dog are great friends, but there is someone in Glenwood High that takes the place of Tookie as her greatest friend. Zelma is one of those dependable, true-loving, earnest girls, but when asked her motto she at once responded. "Pleasure before Business."

"KEMPY"

Of course no one knows just what Kempy's object is in becoming such a modern Sampson or cave man. Having been able to make quite a record for himself as a shiek and heart-breaker at Glenwood, there is no doubt but that he will likewise make good against the competition in the cruel world, that is if he doesn't take women too seriously.

KEMP,
CARL ROBERT

Activities: Basket Ball 3-4, Football 4, Tennis 2, Lightnin' 4.

Motto: "Sow your wild oats while young."

Likes Most: Wild Times.

Favorite Pastime: Basket Ball.

Ambition: To be a brilliant Student.

CLASS PROPHET
Mina Cunningham

CLASS HISTORIAN
Clifford Campbell

"PEGGY"

Denzil has been at the old game of photographing so long that it has ceased to be a drudgery for him and he seems to have enjoyed the trips about New Boston and the surrounding country taking snaps for the old year book. By his willingness and unceasing toil, he has proved himself quite an asset to the annual staff.

O'NEAL,
DENZIL FRANKLIN
Activities: Penrod 1; Annual 4; Lightnin' 4.
Favorite Expression: "What's the history lesson, Lec?"
Motto: "Smile and the World Smiles With You. Snore and You Sleep Alone."
Likes Most: To drive an Ajax.
Favorite Pastime: Taking Snapshots for the Annual.
Ambition: To become a Photographer.

PRICE,
JOSEPH HAROLD

Activities: Vice President 4; Penrod 1; Basket Ball 2-3; Silhouette 2-3-4; Orchestra 4; Capt. Skeeters 3; Lightnin' 4.
Motto: "What do we care for expenses"
Favorite Expression: "Gee-min-ee."
Favorite Pastime: Arguing.
Likes Most: Athletics.
Ambition: To grow up.

"JOE"
"Joe" is the sort of person who takes life as it comes, never worrying, never grumbling. What matters it in his young life if some of the pages are printed wrong or even upside down as is sometimes the case? He has found that the furnace hides quite a few printer's mistakes.

"SKEET"

Boys will be boys. This snow-balling is great sport when one is in the right mood and prepared for battle, but really it is most trying on one's nerves when taken unaware. By the hilarious look on "Skeet's" face he must be having great fun. Who do you suppose was the innocent victim?

SHERIDAN,
HAROLD MILER
Activities: Basket Ball 1-2-3-4; Foot Ball 2-3-4; Capt. Basket Ball 4; Silhouette 3-4; Annual 4; Class President 2-3; The Charm School 3; Orchestra 2.
Favorite Expression: "It won't be long now."
Motto: "Love one girl and like all others."
Likes Most: Zelma.
Favorite Pastime: Candying.
Ambition: To become a Coach.

SHOEMAKER,
ORVILLE

Activities: Foot Ball 3-4; Silhouette 3-4; Annual 4.
Favorite Expression: "Look at that muscle."
Motto: "Renew thy physical strength."
Likes Most: To be busy.
Favorite Pastime: Lifting weights.
Ambition: To become a prominent business man.

"SHOEY"
One would hardly expect this of "Shoey," the strong man, but if he becomes as efficient in this business as he is in selling advertising, he will prove quiet an asset to any employer, providing he doesn't try any of his strong-man feats while serving or washing dishes.

CLASS WILL
Helen Simon

CLASS GRUMBLER
Joseph Price

SIMON,
EMMA HELEN
Activities: Annual 4; Silhouette 4; Book Store Mgr. 4; Librarian 4; Lightnin' 4.
Favorite Expression. "We ain't proud."
Motto: "While there's life there's hope."
Likes Most: You'd be surprised.
Favorite Pastime: To tell jokes.
Ambition: To run a street car.

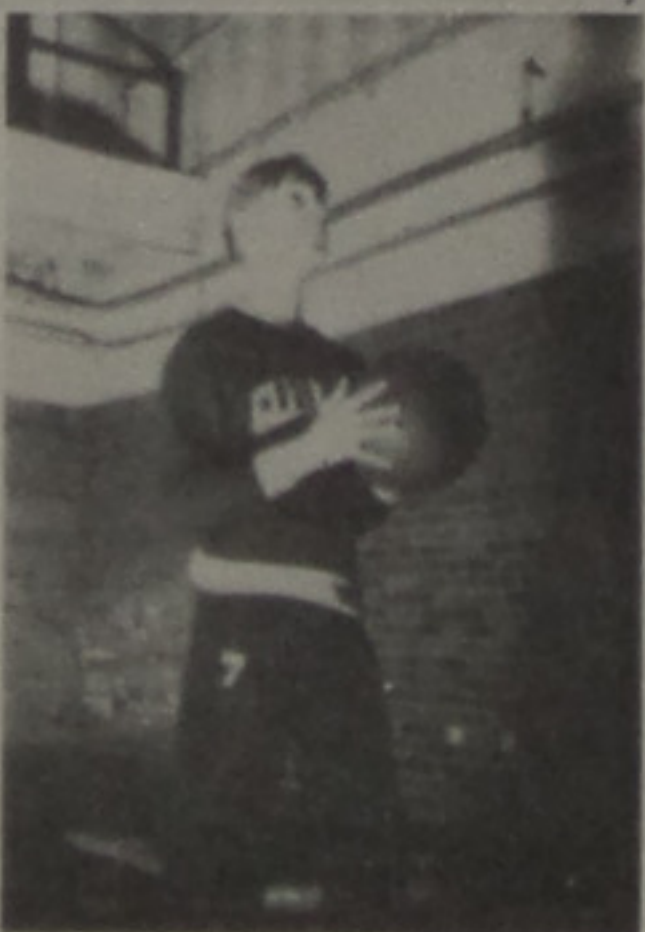

"COUNTRY"
If "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," not so with "Country." She no doubt is typing some joke for the Silhouette or Annual—maybe making plans to accomplish her one great ambition—anyway, she doesn't seem bored with her work.

"DOC"
"Doc" surely doesn't believe in spending many tiresome years in College to learn his trade. He is getting his practice right at home under the supervision of Dr. Cheney. He mustn't be criticized too severely for being absent from school so much for maybe he is out making calls. If so, he sure has a rushing business.

TAYLOR,
KNOWLE WALTER
Activities: Penrod 1; Twelfth Night 2; Silhouette 1-2-4; Lightnin' 4.
Favorite Expression: "Another Blowout."
Motto: "Hit 'em with a smile."
Likes Most: To play hooky.
Favorite Pastime: Fixing tires.
Ambition: To be a Pharmacist.

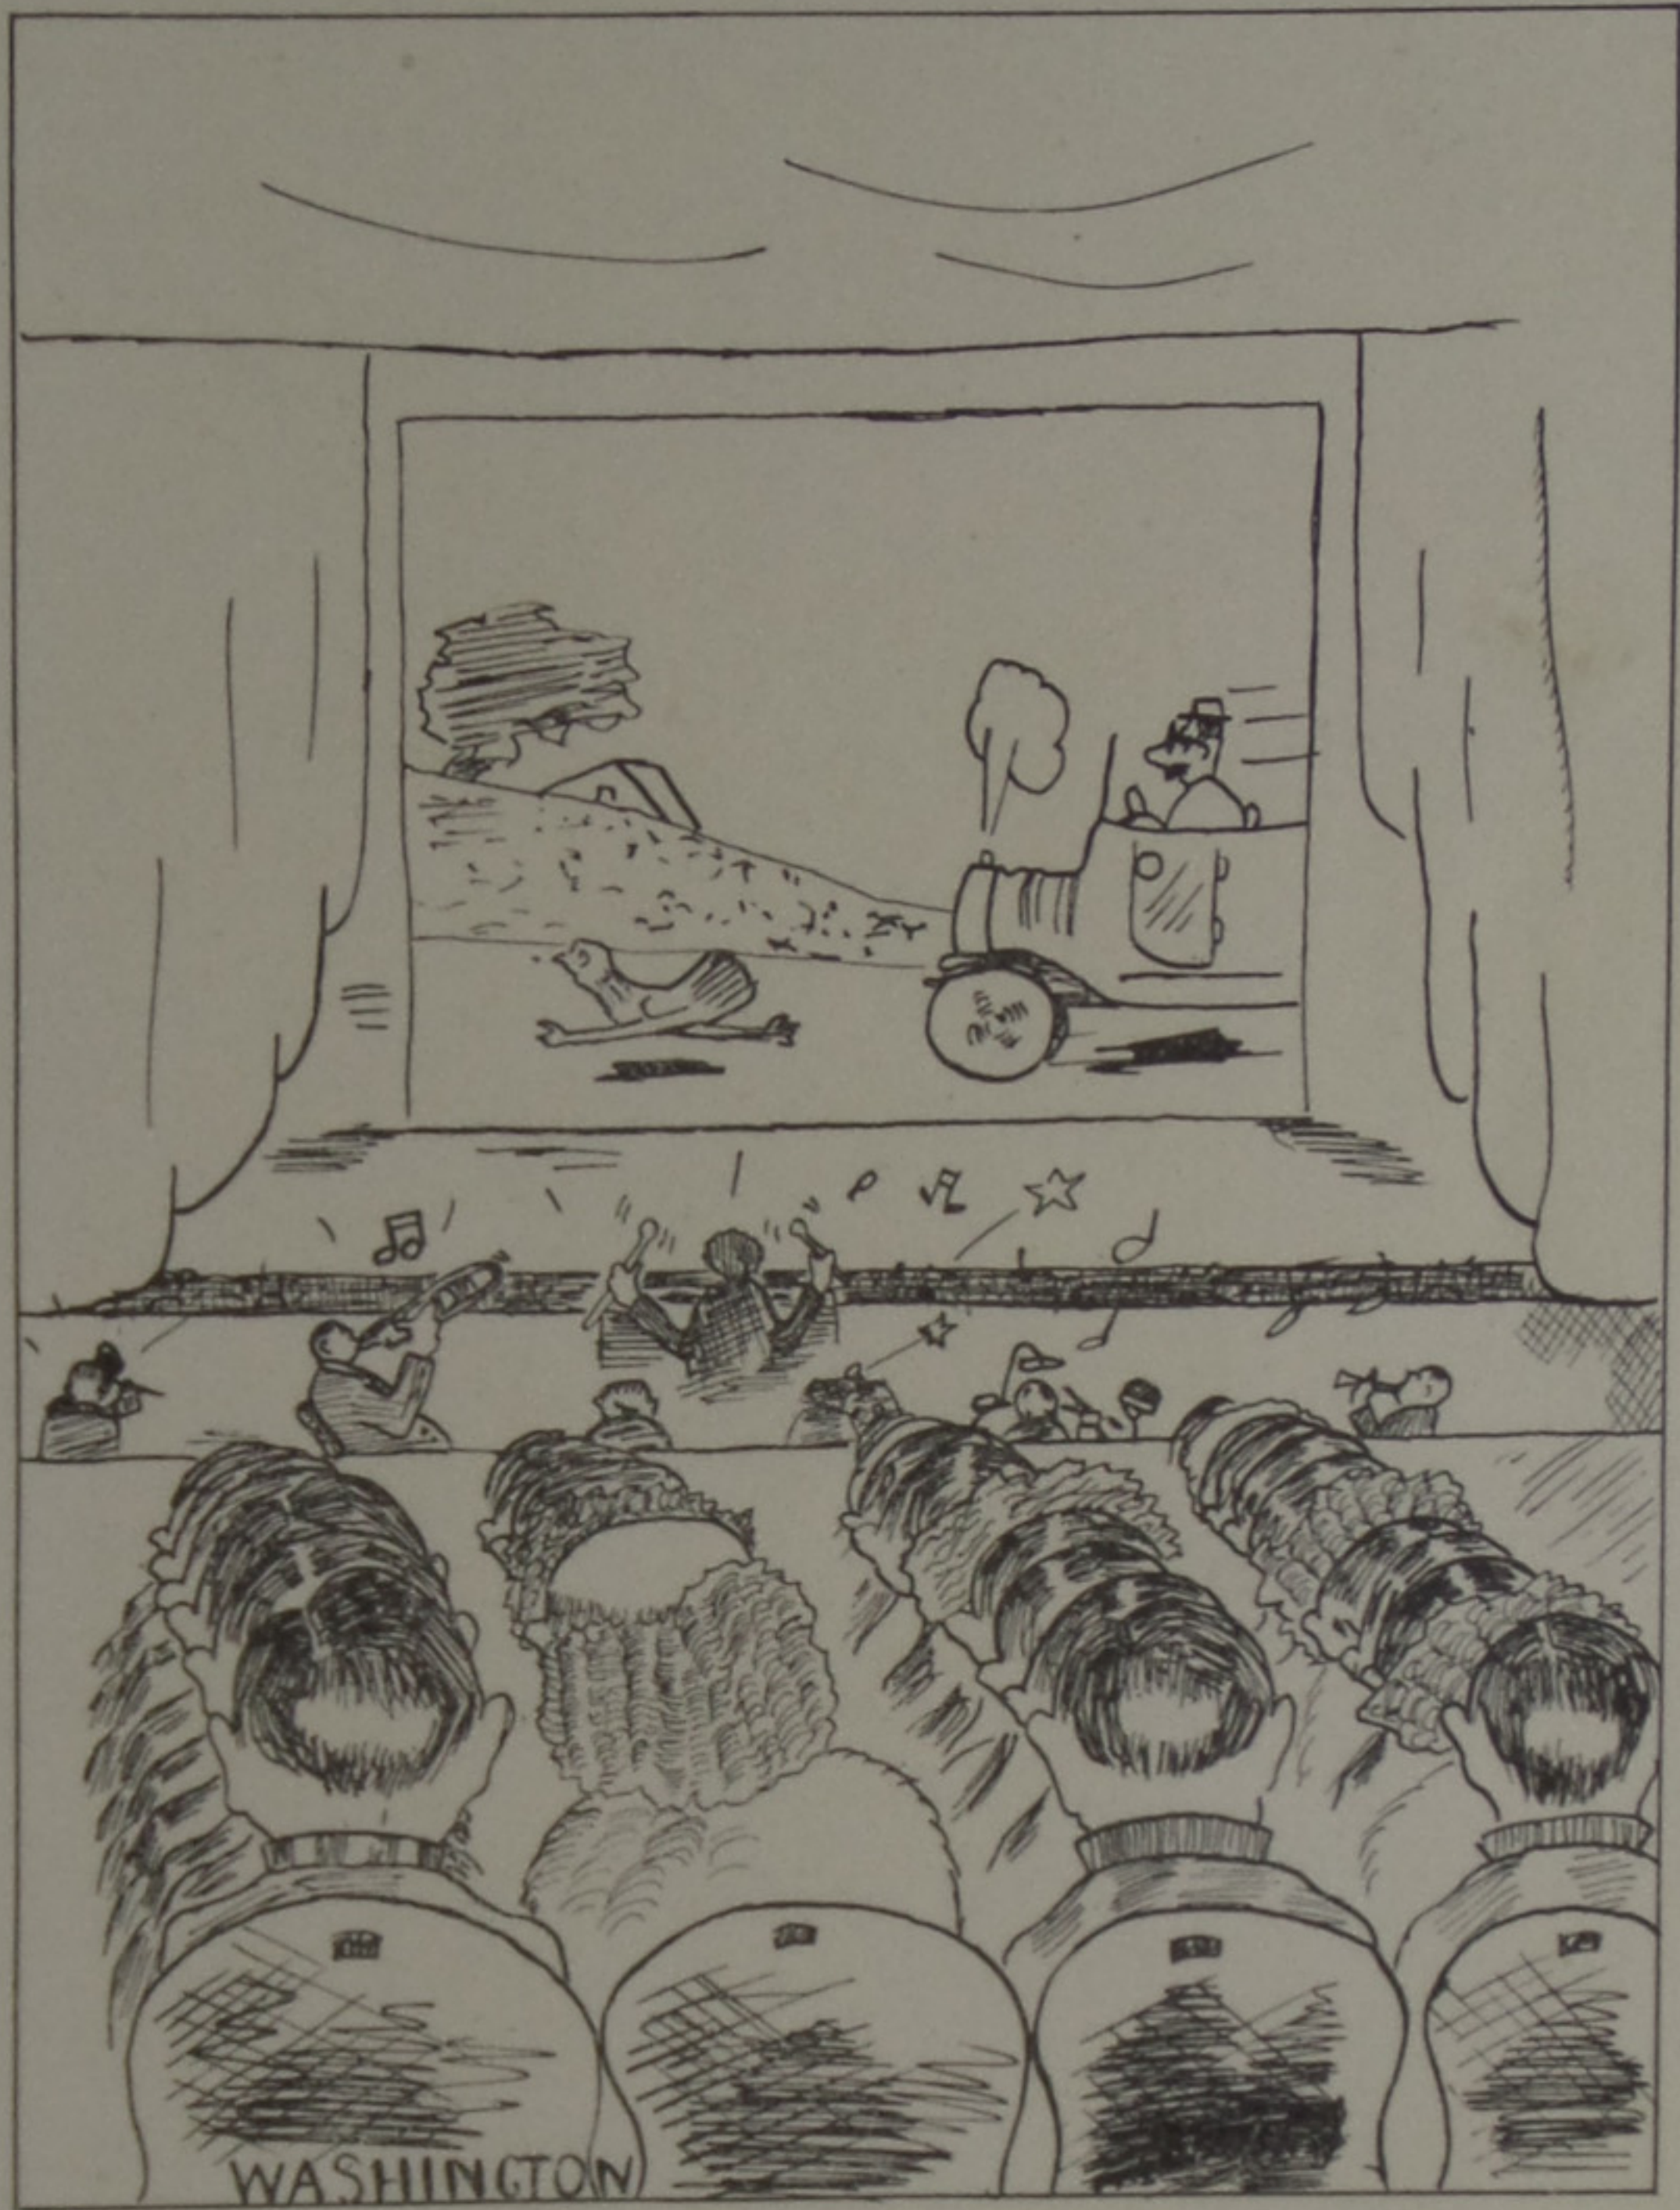

YORK,
ROBERT WESLEY
Activities: Foot Ball 2-3-4; Basket Ball 1-2-3-4; Capt. of Football 4; Tennis 1-2; Annual 4; Silhouette 3-4; Penrod 1; Twelfth Night 2; Class Treasurer 1-2.
Favorite Expression: "Crazy Boy."
Motto: "Late to bed and early to rise."
Likes Most: His girl.
Favorite Pastime: Sleeping.
Ambition: To swim the English Channel.

"DUTCH"
"Dutch" seems very intent in making this shot help roll up the score. No doubt it is a good one as he seldom misses. If the saying, "Practice makes perfect," is true, he surely ought to be an A-1 player, for he has been at the old game for four years.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The Juniors started their social activities by giving a Christmas Party in the gym. The decorations were in keeping with the holiday spirit. Games and music by Orville Harris, Leona Cottle and Clyde Colvin were a source of entertainment for everyone present. Presents were given to all. Snapshots were taken of the group.

In January we enjoyed a party at the Divide. After the sleighing party, we gathered round a large bonfire where we enjoyed toasting weiners and marshmallows. We returned home in Glenn Fitch's truck.

We expect to have one of the finest banquets which the Juniors have ever had. We want the Seniors to have the most wonderful time in their lives at the banquet,—one that they will be proud to remember and talk about in years to come.

Junior Party

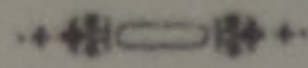

When we Juniors entered high school, we knew little about organization and activities. We soon learned. Some of the star foot ball and basketball players are members of our class. They are: Raymond Hall, Fields Bender, Franklin Aldridge, Clyde Booth, Jack Cummins and Clifford Curry. Susie Pellegrinon and June Abraham have been on the high school team.

Other members of the class have won honors for the sort of work in which they excel. Douglas Cooper is Editor-in-Chief of The Silhouette; Ruth Roberts is one of the well-known cooks in the school. Everyone knows that Attelia Pellegrinon is an expert in dressmaking. Dorothy Henry and June Abraham are noted for their typing for the school paper; Mildred Hanes is the school bookkeeper while Susie Pelligrinon and Leona Cottle are known for their ability in their school work.

REMEMBER?

Remember the days, kids,
Way back in September
When we came to school
As Freshies,—remember?

The day when we thought
All Seniors were haughty,
All Juniors were smart
And Sophomores naughty.

And a Freshman, we thought,
Should keep to his place,
And never make a noise,
Nor show his green face.

We went to the woods
Our weiners to cook,
And quenched our thirst
By the side of a brook.

We had the best picnic
In all the whole school,
And soon taught the world,
That a Freshman's no fool.

As Juniors, we lead
In all kinds of work,
For our creed as a class
Is "We don't shirk."

Our dues we do pay,
Our pies we do sell,
Our party went big
And our candy-well, well!

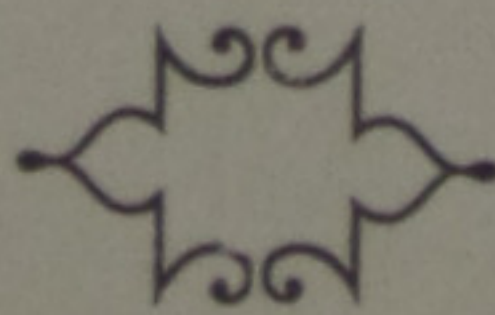

Our rings we have bought
Tho we're not Seniors yet,
And a thing we can't do
We haven't yet met.

Our girls, they are fair,
The fairest of all;
Our boys, they are strong,
And answer Glenwood's call.

We supply the school's teams
With men of the kind,
That never are afraid,
Nor come out behind.

To banquet the Seniors,
In pomp and style;
To make them happy,
"We'd walk a mile."

And when we are gone
And this history an ember,
We know they'll all say
"Those Juniors! Remember?"

THE SOPHOMORES

SHERMAN BICKETT is one of those Sophomores, who spent most of his time taking vacations, but he has settled down now ready for business. He was a member of the foot ball squad and is a promising athlete.

CHARLES BUCKLEY is a real member but no one ever looks at him that way because he is seldom in any of the classes. "Buck" has good and sufficient reasons for not being there. We claim him as the only cartoonist in the Senior Division.

CHARLES BARBEE was elected president of the Sophomore class, but we do not know if he is the inventor of all the pranks played by this class. "Chad" was a guard on the Skeeters team.

BEULAH BOLIN, when she gets started laughing, laughs all over. "Boots" is the jolliest girl in the class.

ALMA BRADY is one of our smallest girls but nevertheless she is a student for the Sophs to be proud of.

ELMON CAUDILL is a new one in the Sophomore ranks. As he hails from old Kentucky, it was hard to understand him but he is improving rapidly and will soon be taking out naturalization papers.

KENNETH CAULLEY is said to be the biggest mistake in G. H. S. but he has a good tenor voice and there is no reason why he should not be valued by it.

HELEN CHASE is the baby of the Sophomores. We don't mean the smallest member, but the youngest. She is a very good cook.

JOSEPH COLVIN has a very hard time keeping the girls off him, especially one little junior. Joe served as Editor-in-Chief of the Silhouette, and on the varsity basket ball squad.

OPAL COTTLE, the smallest member of our famous class, made its name by making grade books disappear. Opal sure can make good light bread.

TRUXTON CRULL is a great cabinet maker. He is little but mighty. One of the things he has the most fun out of is to tease Miss Wheeler in History class.

GLADYS DAVIS, the only girl who has ever been an officer in the Sophomore ranks, is an all round athlete, especially skilled in basket ball.

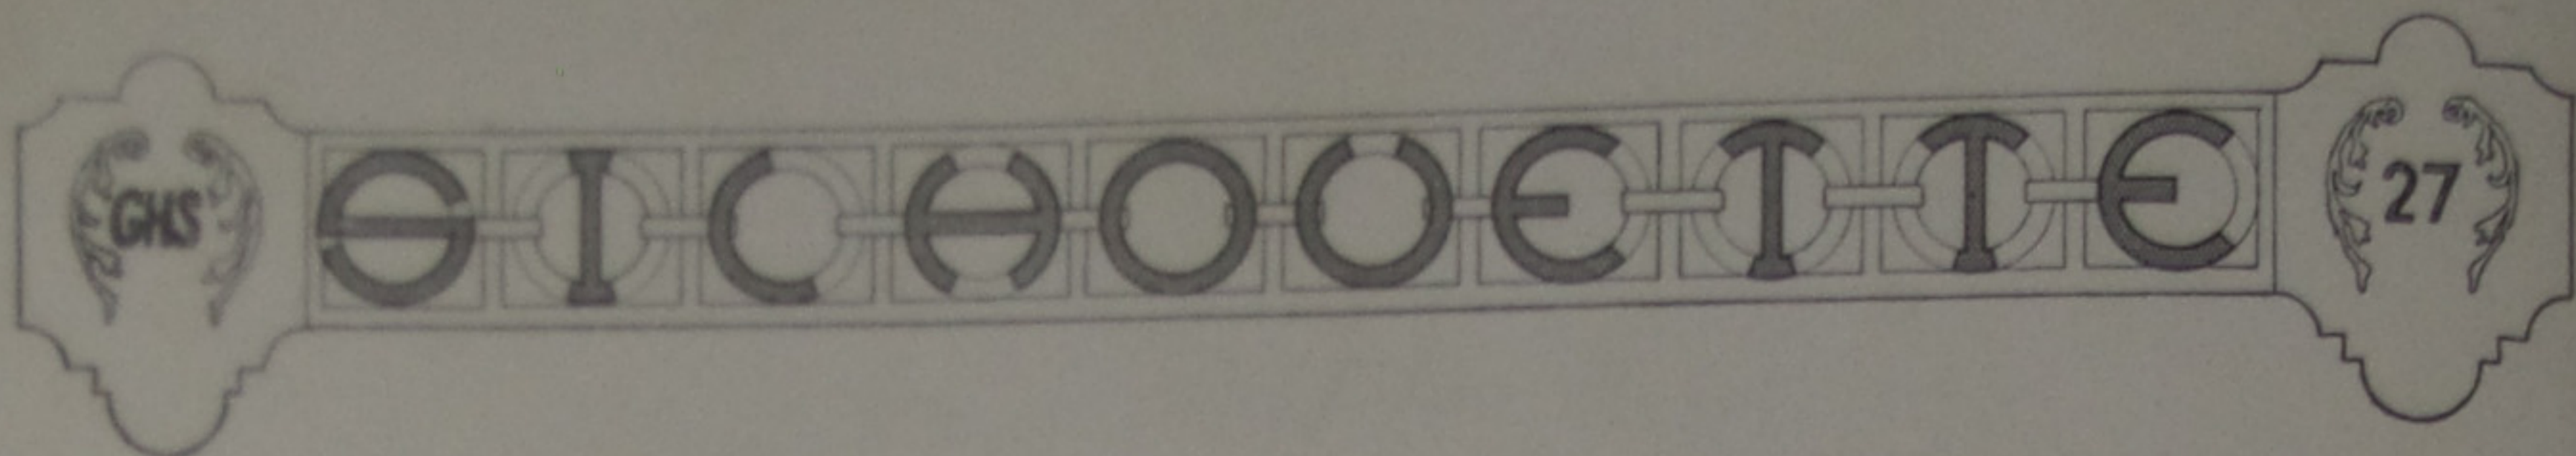

LUCILLE DAVIS is the vamp of the class. Who can blame the boys for falling all over each other to get a smile from Lucille?

MILDRED DUNFEE has her troubles in History II. If she doesn't know her lesson she gets bawled out for talking most of the period.

LILLA MAE ELKINS is the prettiest girl in the Sophomore class. She is a brilliant student, with a changeable disposition, but it is usually a sunny one.

FOSTER ELLIOTT is our class secretary. "Fos" is a good scout and a promising athlete. He was a member of both foot ball and basket ball squads and is out for track.

BERNEICE EVANS proves herself to be a good hostess by giving a lot of parties. Her motto is "Never worry about to-morrow."

CAROL FINNEY is a popular member of the class, and a very brilliant student. "Snooks" is assistant Editor-in-Chief of the annual and takes several extra curriculars.

GERTRUDE HELFENBEIN is the most stylish girl in the class, because she is so slender. "Trudy" took part in the intra-mural games, playing forward.

EDGAR JONES was a busy student during the year. He played on the Skeeter team and was sports editor for the Silhouette.

MILDRED KAUFFMAN is the hardest working girl in the class. She takes three subjects. Mildred is our amateur dancer.

BEECHER LESLIE is a member of both varsity squads, who has a smile for everybody and is always ready for a good joke.

FRANCES LESTER is a good old gal, but if she gets mad, watch out. She is in style with her long hair.

RALPH McCOY is the class's greatest scientist. What he doesn't know about CO₂ and SO₄ and all those formulas would make a book. He is another cornet player in the orchestra.

GEORGE McMANUS was doing fine in basket ball till he had his shoulder broken, but that didn't break his spirit. "Mac" is a good sport and always in for a good time.

THELMA MOORE is so witty she can hardly stay in the class. She had a hard time deciding which course she wanted to take, but finally got straightened out.

DONALD NORRIS doesn't shine in anything but devilment and it just sticks out all over him, but laying all jokes aside, "Fat" is a good worker—when he works.

LAURA OLIVER is the most popular girl of our class, as all students and teachers like her very much.

HARLAN POOLE plays a banjo in the school orchestra. Although no one can hear him he just keeps plunkin' away on it.

EARL SCHMID is our famous Math bug, but please don't ask him where he gets his problems. He plays a cornet in the orchestra and adds much volume to it.

GEORGE SANFORD is the class historian. He knows almost as much about History II as Miss Wheeler. George is also a good grocer, but he eats up most of his dad's profit.

WILLIAM SIMON is only good for one thing and that is to work in the Manual Arts Department. If he keeps on he should make an expert carpenter some day.

EUGENE VASH is the class radio expert. When anything goes wrong with someone's set they go to Vash for help. He is also a promising guard on the hardwood court.

DAISY WALLACE is a loyal old student, who doesn't like to see things that give the school a bad name. She specializes in biscuit making.

EDWARD WINTERSOLE, member of varsity football and basket ball squads, is a good natured fellow. When he starts something he never quits till he has finished it.

RUTH GRAY, CARROL HENSON, ORVILLE HARRIS and NEWT PACE have withdrawn from school to start working. HELEN OTTNEY has moved to Toledo, where she will resume her school work.

UPPER ROW—Blanche Shoemaker, Joe Abraham, Stanley McManus, Donovan Sloan, Harry Graham, Raymond Schmid, Harold Sutton, Delbert Thompson, Howard Cooper.

Glenn Lewis, Irene Harper and Floyd Coburn have a right to be good students for they live in the days of Abraham who resides across the aisle from Isaac. They quarreled, so Virginia came along and administered a Booten. Sloan's liniment was applied and then the Cooper made a barrel in which they floated across the Bays, listening all the while to the music of Irene, the Harper. From the shore of the Bays a Wrenn began to sing and Isaac saw a Ruby. Floyd said, "Let the Co. Burn, I shall go thru the Glenn over to Virginia where Little John Lives, and there John and I shall search for Moore precious stones."

Blanche, the Shoemaker, became hungry and Harry fed her Graham's crackers. Claris took her for a ride in the Davis car. As they drove along they met Joseph and Mary of 9A and 9B. They were journeying to the place where the indians killed Crawford. When they arrived on the spot they said Oleta fellow see, but Severino began to Pell-e-grin-on them, Raymond Schmid them, Willard ad-Meyered but Lucy became angry and said, "Ah, Hel-fen-bein."

Harold said, "Big boy there's Sutt-on your face."

"No, Skinney, my face is Blanched," was the reply.

"Yea, Skinney, the Wind'll blow you away. You better get back into the water; you look Yeley to me."

After all this section 9B dined At Kins the German. He said to his daughter in the German brogue, "Ruby Fitch Lutz Moore to eat and we shall be Gladys can be."

The class said, "Mac-man-us, like Paul Jone's Bonne Homme Richard, then let Pettry her might."

UPPER ROW: William Vash, Morris McGee, Charles Starret, Paul Duncan, Lowell Morris, Corbett Stapleton, Charles Fitch, Alexander Wallace, Leo Jones, Mabel Potts.

SECOND ROW: Eugene Harr, Homer Harris, Katherine Erhart, Roy Davis, Arthur Pellegrinon, James Warren, Elmer Weaver, Harold Moore, Willis Kayser, Dorothea Charlton.

The beginning of the school year '26-27 found a multitude of eighth grade pupils eager to return and enjoy the benefits of school life. Of this large number a part came into 8-B assembly.

The class is justly proud of many of its members for their scholastic ability. Among these may be mentioned Dorothea Charlton, Estalena Rickey, Matt Loper, Charles Starret, Catheryn Ehrhart, Leo Jones and Eugene Harr. There are others deserving of notice, for instance, Dorothea Charlton as the most popular girl, and Leo Jones as the most popular boy.

When it comes to excuse making, none surpasses George Dodd, who can make them almost as fast as he can talk. In naming the laziest member of the class we hesitate, for this is spring and many of us are afflicted with the fever that is so prevalent at this time of the year. It seems hardly fair to pick on some little curly headed fellow because he happens to feel worse than any of the rest of the class.

As for athletics we are not to be outdone. We have a group of boys who never say fail. They are the same hard workers in the gym or on the athletic field as they are in the school room. A few have had their mettle tried on several occasions. They are: Wintersole, Wallace, Jones, Fitch, Pellegrinon, Starret, Morris and Dever. We are here for the purpose of going over the top and making a real success in school life.

SECTION 8A

UPPER ROW: John Henson, Vincent Meyers, Edward Burkhardt, Ronald Green, Theodore Wilson, Raymond Hardy, Clyde Colvin.

SECOND ROW: Helen Stapleton, Ruby Cassity, Virginia York, Esta Shover, Velda Ehrhart, Aline McManus, Jesse Price, Dorothy Smith, Ida Welsh, Frank Dodd.

LOWER ROW: Ralph Smith, Homer Danes, Julia Briggs, Edith Lester, Irene Harper, Garnet Patton, Josephine Curcio, Hazel Dailey, Edna Crum, Homer Walton.

September of 1926 saw the gathering together from the four corners of New Boston (plus the "highways and hedges" round about) in room 201 a group of about thirty-five boys and girls. This was the beginning of our second year at Glenwood and we had pleasant anticipations for the future.

Now at the close of the term, when we begin checking the results, we find that Aline McManus and Vincent Meyers are almost unanimously chosen as the best scholars. The most popular girl, Della Hardin; most popular boy, Clyde Colvin; giver of most excuses, Homer Danis. The class wishes to make honorable mention of Irene Harper, who left our ranks through the medium of a double promotion at the close of the first semester, and is now a Freshie. We were also represented on the boys varsity basket ball team by Floyd Brown. In the Junior Division play, "Always in Trouble," "Misery Moon, the Hoodooed Coon," is played by Clyde Colvin; Paula Maleek, the Bolsheviek, by Della Hardin; and Pat Keller, the ticket seller, by Raymond Green.

This section was always very much alive when it came to orchestra work. We feel confident that there couldn't have been an orchestra at all if it hadn't been for Jane Hammes and Vincent Meyers to toot cornets. In naming the conspicuous students, we must not fail to mention the two composers—by the name of Clyde Colvin and Edward Burkhardt—who wrote and delivered an original song for the Thanksgiving program.

SECTION 7B

UPPER ROW: Paul Bowen, Elmer Indorf, Arthur Fannin.
 SECOND ROW: David Graham, John Killen, Robert Moore, Charles Newman, Austen Lee, Wilbur Foster, Bert Gambill, Florence Meyer, Elizabeth McKinstry, Viola Cottle, Carl Brannon, V. R. Bierley.
 THIRD ROW: Eloise Clarke, Ivory Hamilton, Pluma Childry, Virginia Sisson, Nell Moore, Fred Wolfe, Gladys Carver, Grace Roberts, Mary Ottney, Adine Morris, Minnie Yerardi, Elzadah Adkins.
 LOWER ROW: Bertha Hunter, George Kelso, Hildreth Walker, Kenneth Everman, Edna Cottle, Lottie Glenn, Mary Henning, Sarah Morris, Albert Reed, Gardner Mershon, Roy Dutiel, Harry Saunders.

As this is our first year in Glenwood our history is brief. During our short stay, we have shown a willingness to work, and we have many real students within our ranks. Regarding scholastic ability, honorable mention is made of Viola Cottle, Virginia Sisson, Minnie Yeardie, Florence Ruth Meyers, Paul Bowen and Elizabeth McKinstry. By a vote of the class, Eloise Clark was chosen as the most popular girl, and Kenneth Everman as the giver of the most excuses.

We have taken an active part in all the activities which the school offered. The faculty were forever keeping their eyes on us to keep us from going to extremes. We gave our full quota of chapel entertainments, and would gladly have given more if we had been permitted. Almost the entire section came out for basket ball at the beginning of the season and was represented in all the Junior Division intra-mural teams. This section also boasts of a girls team made up entirely of members of its own class. "The Kittens" were allowed to scrimmage against the Varsity team every Monday and Friday evening, and what they lacked in size they made up in aggressiveness.

We are real glad that we have so much of our school life yet before us, and if you want to see real things happen, just watch 7-B during the next few years.

SECTION 7A

UPPER ROW: May Abraham, Flora Adkins, Lila Maple, Reatha Moore, Louella Shonkwiler, Olive Cooper, Earl Shope, Floyd Warner.

SECOND ROW: Wallace Booten, Mary Harding, Mary Blaum, Evelyn Huffman, Elmer Abrams, John Pendelton, Charles Chaff, Helen Sheridan, Thelma Oliver.

LOWER ROW: Earl Rockwell, Joe Marion, Jesse Oliver, Clara Henthorn, Alma Kazez, Eva Shonkwiler, Ruth Robertson, Maggie Pace, Harold Lockbaum, Robert King, Albert Ridinger.

We are the section of the Junior Division that has had to assemble in room 50 on the first floor, while all others of the department were allowed to assemble upstairs. But even if we were isolated, we have tried to let Glenwood know that we were here.

When Miss Pfau sent out a call for volunteers to fill up the depleted ranks of the Home Economics class, Joe Marion immediately offered his services and was accepted. We also have girls with nerve enough to tackle Manual Arts, and they made everything from reed baskets to bird houses.

By a vote of the class, Mae Abraham was chosen as the best scholar; Ruth Robertson, the most popular; Flora Adkins, the quietest; and Wallace Booten as the giver of the most excuses. This class was also represented on the girls' varsity basket ball team by Ruth Robertson and in the school orchestra by Edwin McKenzie.

Since this is our first year at Glenwood we should not be expected to make an outstanding showing, but we want to have accomplished enough here for a real writeup by the time we graduate in 1932.

ATHLETICS

ROME RANKIN, Director of Athletics

This is an era marked by the growth of physical education in general and athletic sports in particular. It is an age which is witnessing the construction of thousands of field houses, gymnasiums and playgrounds. The beneficial results derived from well-regulated athletics can be summed up in two objectives: improvement in health and improvement in general social efficiency.

It would be a regrettable fact if only a few played the games while thousands looked on and never engaged as participants in the great American sports. The slogan of all athletic directors and coaches should be, "Athletics for all." Every student should participate in some form of athletic activity. The ideal athletic spirit is the inner urge to high mental and physical development and self expression, the desire for strong robust manhood and womanhood, the willingness to give without thought of repayment and lastly, that heart-born loyalty that welds all of these things into one big throbbing, impelling motive. It stands for everything in life that is fine, and true, and sane, and just.

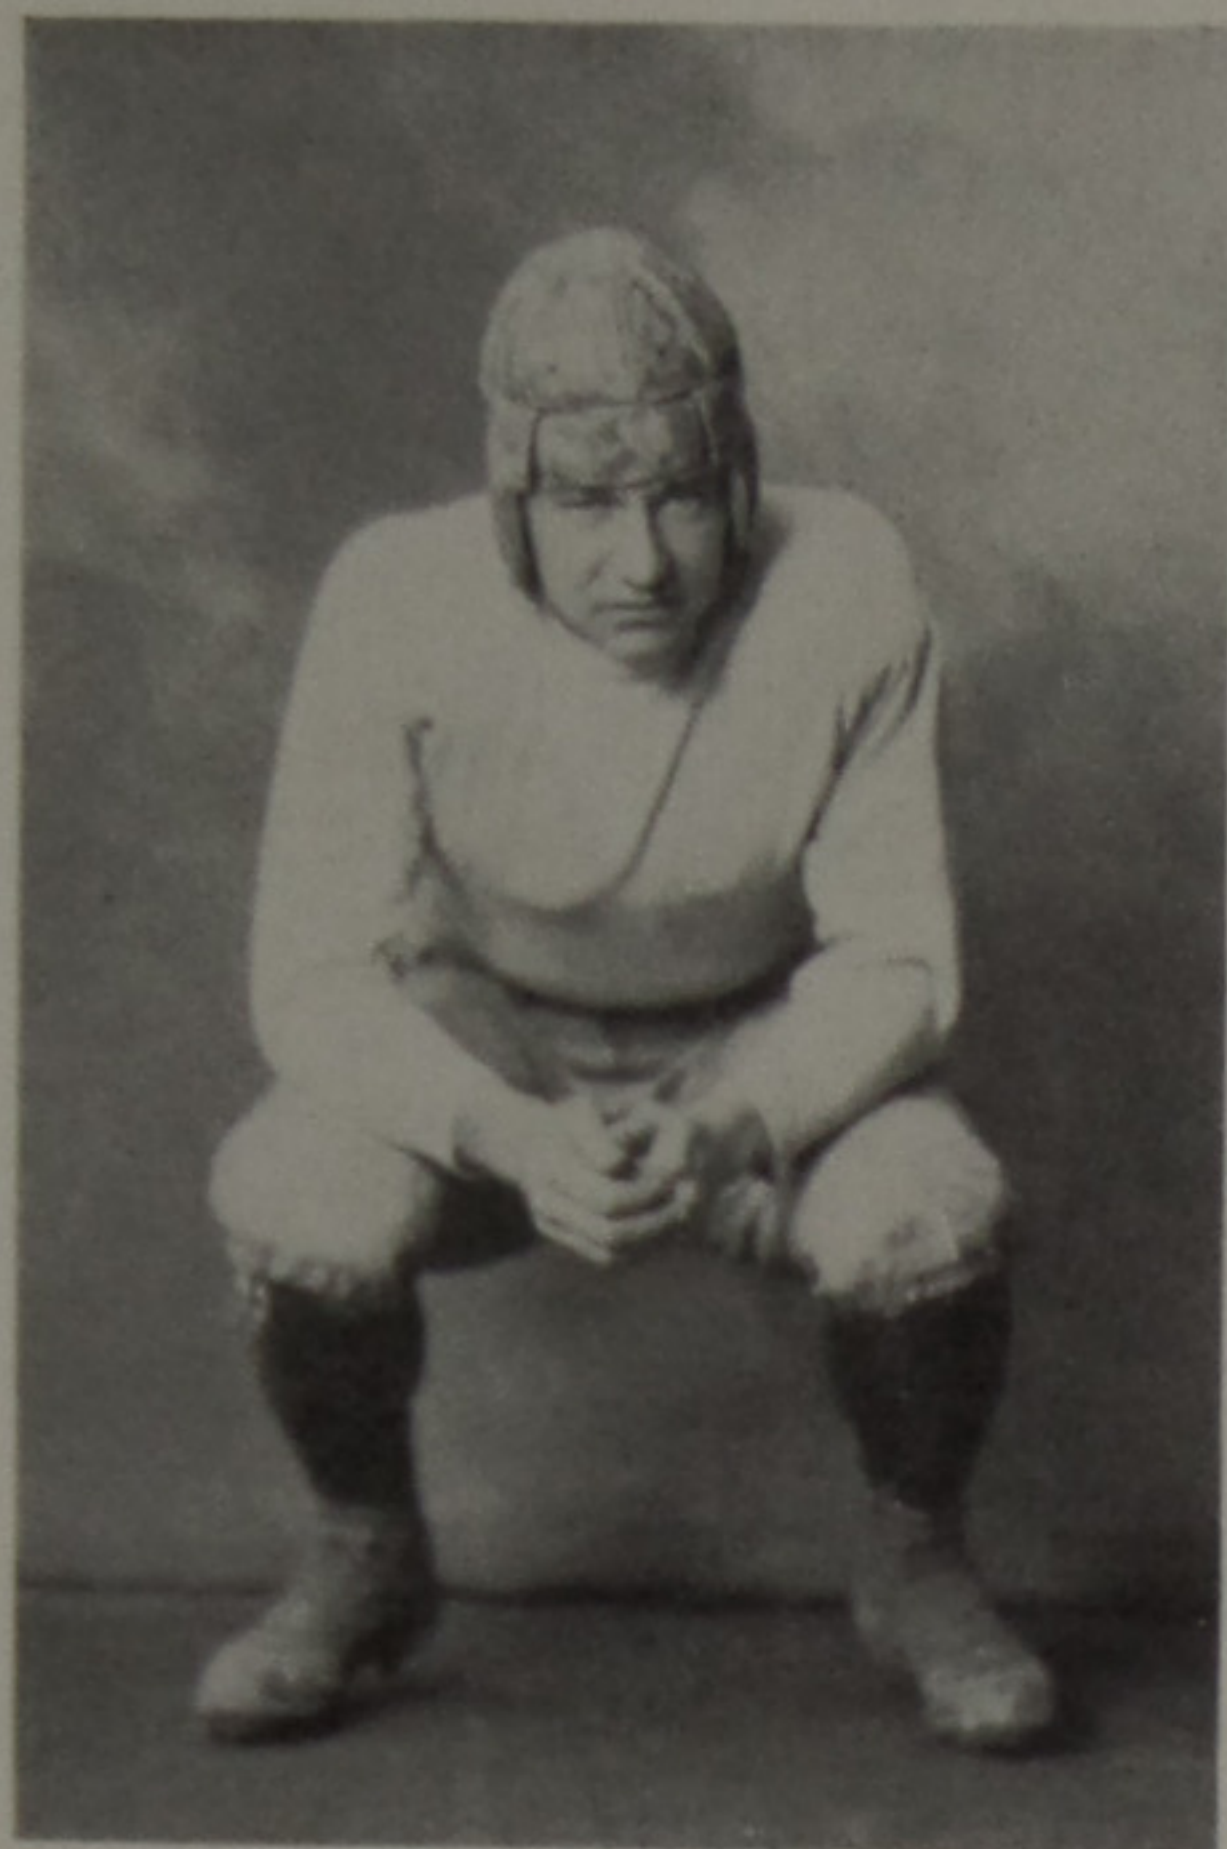

With these ideals in view the athletic program of Glenwood was built. In an athletic way this has been the most outstanding year, not from the standpoint of another undefeated football team, nor a basket ball record of eleven victories in fifteen starts, but from the standpoint of the number of students participating in sports. The first intra-mural basket ball league was organized in which every boy and girl who wished to play, from seventh graders to seniors in high school, played every week. This, with a senior high varsity, Skeeters and Junior team, makes about one hundred and fifty boys and girls who enjoyed and profited by the game. The intra-mural tournament was held at the end of basket ball season with fifteen teams playing for one or more of the eight beautiful trophies.

Twenty-eight boys reported for foot ball practice last fall, a far greater number than ever before, in fact, about one-half of the total enrollment of eligible boys. Spring foot ball practice was held with thirty-one candidates reporting. Fourteen boys were carried on the varsity basket ball squad. This is Glenwood's first year of track, with fifteen candidates reporting for the first work-out. Among these are many promising men. Sixteen volley ball teams were also organized this Spring, while twenty-one boys and girls reported for tennis.

The Southeastern Ohio Athletic League admitted Glenwood as a league member by a unanimous vote. As far as varsity athletics are concerned this is probably the greatest step ever taken by Glenwood and a great honor bestowed upon a small school.

The athletic year of 1926-27 has been remarkable for the advancement of minor and major sports. These sports are primarily for the betterment of Glenwood students. It has been gratifying to me to see the wonderful spirit of support and cooperation shown by students, faculty and Board of Education. We glory in our past athletic achievements, and we welcome our future athletic advancement, believing that athletics will make Glenwood a better high school and New Boston a better community in which to live

ROME RANKIN.

COACH RANKIN

ASSISTANT COACH ELLIOTT

During his three years at Glenwood Coach Rankin, by his skill in coaching and the experience he received under such coaches as Pat Dwyer, Red Roberts, Fielding Yost and Knute Rockne, has been able to work wonders with limited material. He has produced teams of which both he and Glenwood may well be proud.

The foot ball teams which he coached have gone through three seasons without a defeat. His basket-ball teams have made for themselves records which are to be found in few high schools. Coach Rankin has sent his squads into fifty-three games, forty-five of which were won.

Mr. Rankin makes it one of his foremost aims to instill in the minds of his men the value received from the co-operation, good fellowship and manly training which is derived from clean sports.

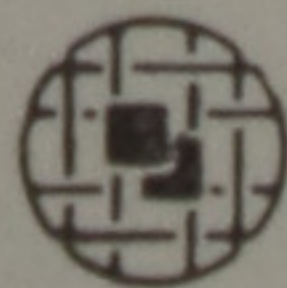

He is a coach who understands his men and who takes much interest in their development; being one of the gang, standing by them in their time of need or discouragement and never asking or expecting them to do anything which he refuses to do himself.

Ralph Elliott, a graduate of the class of '21, is an efficient athletic trainer who has proven his faithfulness to the squads in foot ball, basket ball and track. He has been present at practice in rain or shine, taking care of all injuries with the skill of a professional M. D.

Mr. Elliott shows much interest in the training which the fellows receive and stresses the point that the benefit they derive from clean sports will be of much value to them in later life.

He has had real experience as a coach. The Junior Division basket ball team is a fine example of his work along this line.

He assisted Coach Rankin in the different track activities by very capably taking care of the shotput, discus and javelin.

REVIEW OF THE SEASON

The graduation of Bowen, McManus, Wintersole, and McCann and the loss of Haws and Harmon during the first week made things look anything but bright, but after three weeks of intense training, Coach Rankin whipped up a team of inexperienced men into a very promising squad.

South Point was met in the first game on a field that rivaled the scenes of the 1913 flood. The Glenwood gridgers triumphed over the South Point eleven 13-0. This was not a full length contest however, as the opponents coach removed his team from the field during the second quarter because of the muddy field.

Holy Redeemer was decidedly out played and out fought, the final score being 46-6. The Glenwood team showed mid-season form, holding the Irish to one touchdown.

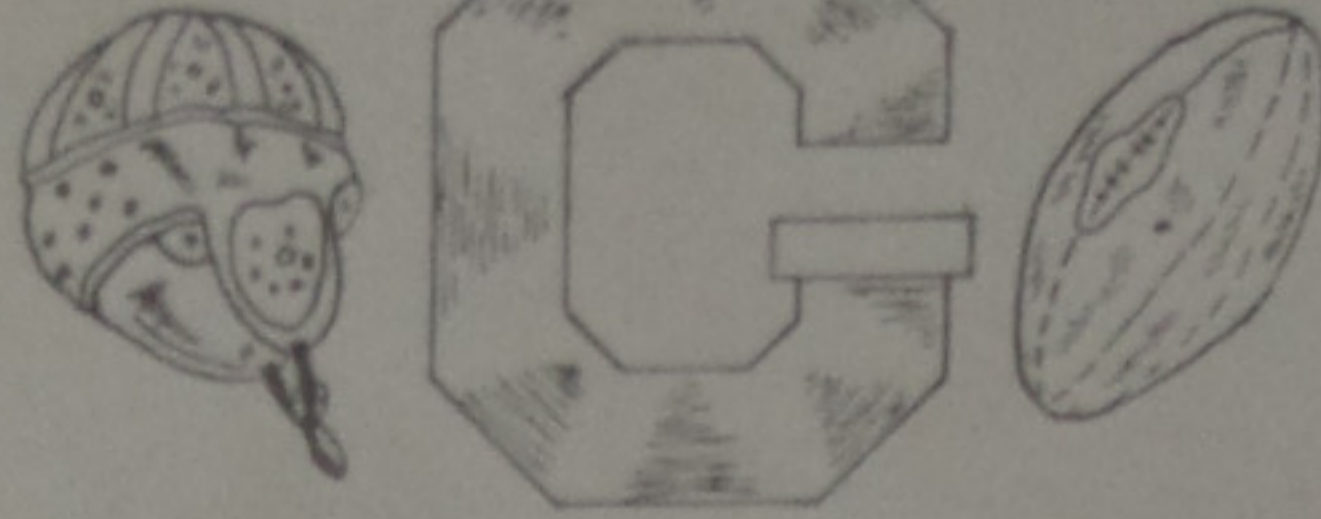

The Waverly gridmen were the next victims of the scrappy Rankinmen when they were defeated by a score of 25-6. The aerial attack of the Scarlet and Gray proved too accurate for the Pike Countians.

The Glenwood men traveled to Oak Hill and met their ancient rivals on a rain soaked field, the final outcome being 0-0. This was in every sense of the word an offday for Glenwood and they played the poorest ball of the entire season in this game.

Battling a larger and more experienced team, the big Red machine turned in the best game of the season from a foot ball standpoint, when they defeated Russell 66-0.

Winding up their 1926 foot ball season in a blaze of glory and bringing to a close their third season without a defeat, the New Boston gridgers defeated the fast Pedro team 19-0. Pedro threw real scare into the Glenwood fans, taking the kick-off and marching straight down the field in repeated thrusts, only to be halted on the twenty yard mark.

Rome Rankin,
Coach

Robert York
Captain

RAYMOND HALL,
Center

"Jack" was especially noted for his combination of defensive and offensive ability. He possessed the rare ability to diagnose plays, thus stopping many of them before they were under way.

EDGAR JONES, End

"Ed," another man from the Sophomore ranks, capably held one of the end positions. He has a foot ball heart and with another year of playing should make an ideal man of whom Glenwood may well be proud.

CARL KEMP,
End

"Kempy's" specialties were smearing interference and spilling end runs. He was also a good receiver of forward passes and could be relied upon to assume his share of the responsibilities in the hardest fight.

BEECHER LESLIE,
Full Back

"Beech" was a real battering ram and line bucker. His blocking ability made it possible for the backs to get away for many long gains. He is a real fighter and player in every sense of the word.

HAROLD SHERIDAN,
Half Back

"Skeet," although a small man, very capably filled his position at left half. By his broken field running and receiving of passes he proved himself quite an asset to the team. He was a hard fighter and a clean, all-around athlete who could always be relied upon to do his share.

ORVILLE SHOEMAKER,
Guard

"Shoey," an exceptionally fast player for a large man, proved to be a source of strength to the team. The opponents always found it impossible to make any yardage through "Shoey." His trusty toe made many points after touchdowns.

ED WINTERSOLE,
Tackle

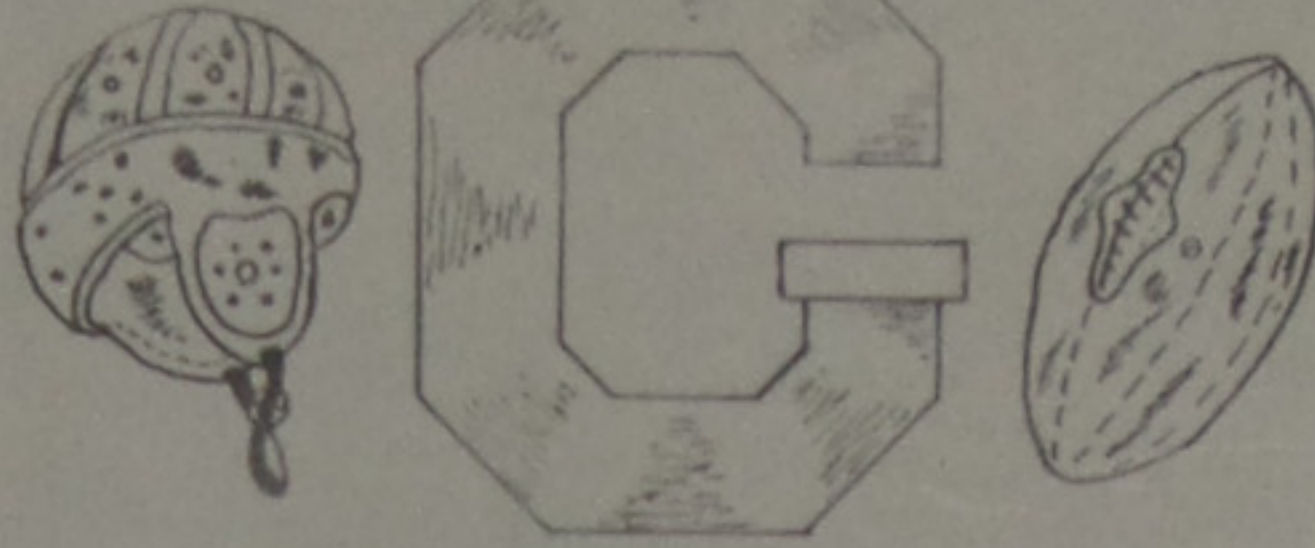

"Ed" was the giant of the line and one of the fastest men on the team. He was a hard worker and a real fighter and by his trusty toe, punted Glenwood out of many holes. Ed has two more years in which to show his foot ball ability.

ROBERT YORK,
Captain, Quarter Back

"Dutch" had a tough job indeed filling Bowen's position, but he, by his earnest desire to make good, proved to be a very capable leader and a quarterback of whom Glenwood is proud. He was a hard fighter and a clean player, specializing in making short end runs.

Nelson Slaughter
Manager

Ralph Elliott
Trainer

NELSON SLAUGHTER
Manager

"Rat" proved to be a very efficient man at managing the team, willingly taking the blame for everything from forgotten footballs to injured players, but often relying on his never-ending supply of alibis to get him out of many scrapes.

FRANKLIN ALDRIDGE,
Quarter

Although this was "Goofy's" first year out for foot ball, he was a valuable man at quarter. With that never-say-die spirit which he possesses he should develop into a valuable player.

FIELDS BENDER,
Half Back

Fields was an outstanding and almost indispensable man on the team because of his brilliant open-field running. Fields was a wonderful ground-gainer and the hardest man on the squad to tackle. He has another year on the gridiron.

JOSEPH COLVIN,
End

Although this is Joe's first year at foot ball, he is a hard trainer, a clean fighter and one of the most promising athletes in the Sophomore ranks.

JACK CUMMINS
Tackle

Jack was the real Gibraltar of the line. His favorite pastime was killing plays before they were hardly started. He was a very valuable man on the offense, always ready to make the holes for the backs.

CLIFFORD CURRY
Tackle

"Cliff," after a year's rest, again took up practice for the old game and developed into a tackle of the highest calibre. Because of his size and aggressiveness he was a very valuable man and one who should be a tower of strength to next year's team.

WILLIAM DUNCAN,
Tackle

Although "Bill" was handicapped by inexperience, he would have become a wonderful lineman had he taken up the old game earlier. Despite this lack of experience, he showed real foot ball ability and when called upon, always delivered.

FOSTER ELLIOTT,
Guard

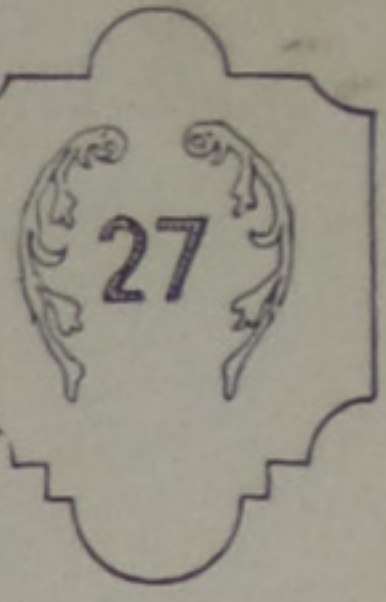

"Fos," in his first year at foot ball proved to be a valuable man, a running mate of Shoey as guard. He was a hard fighter and a clean player and Glenwood expects great things of him.

THE VARSITY

With three letter men around which to build a team, Mr. Rankin, by putting his men through some real training and hard practice, soon turned out a basket ball team of the highest calibre.

Building his team work around the short-pass, Meanwell system, Coach Rankin developed a team which could score twenty to thirty points against stiff opposition.

Glenwood defeated St. Marys in the first game of the season, 30-20 in a loosely-played contest. One of the Scarlet and Gray mainstays was out of the game on account of ineligibility.

The Rankinmen enjoyed only one week of Christmas vacation as they returned a week early to prepare for their hard schedule. Waverly was met and defeated 27-25 in a hard-fought game.

Getting off to an early lead the Scarlet Hurricane won its third game by defeating Pedro 29-12.

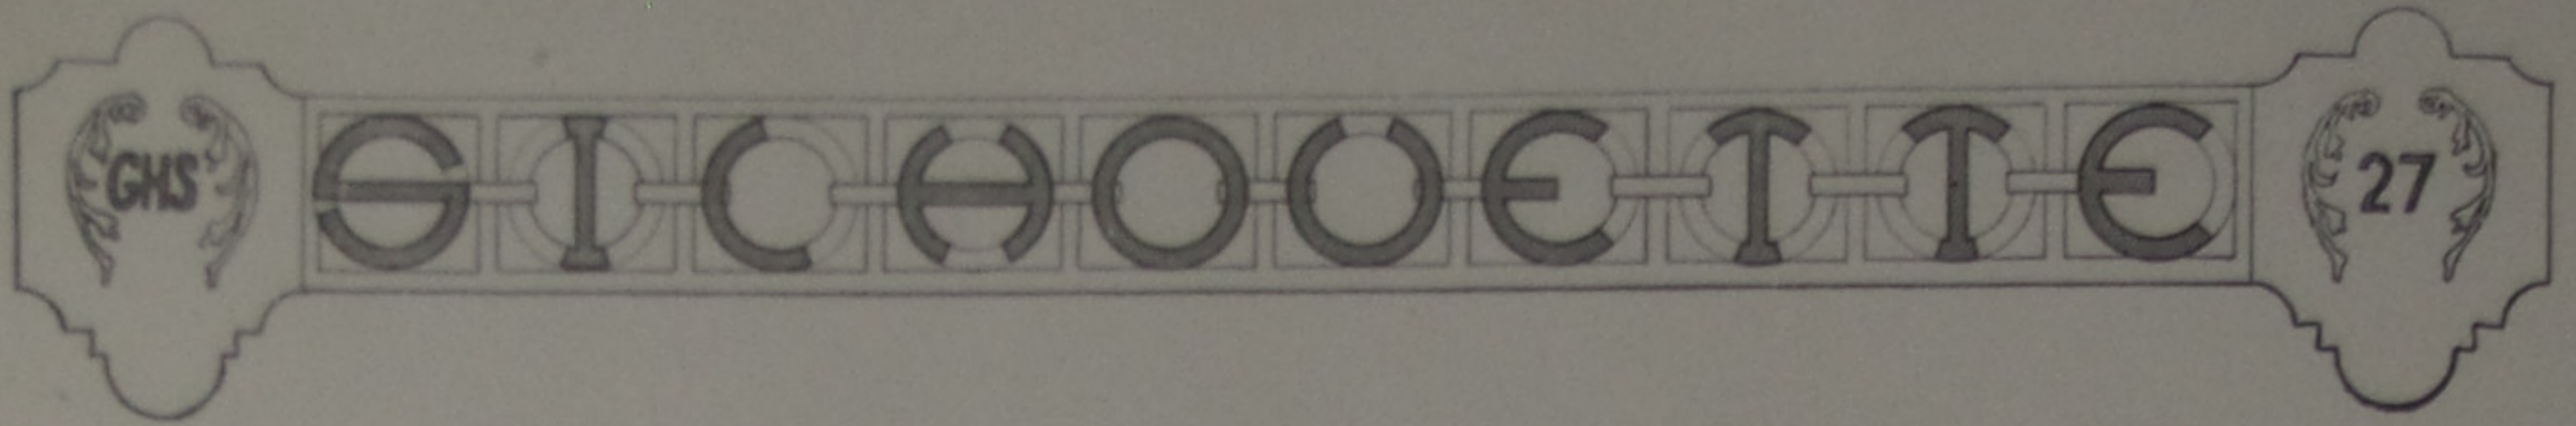

Mt. Sterling handed Glenwood their first defeat. The rangy boys from up-State produced a finished team which defeated Glenwood 21-17 in the final minutes of play.

Showing dazzling speed and displaying an attack which their opponents could not check, the big Red team defeated Wellston 25-9.

Traveling to Waverly, Glenwood met their second defeat 27-32. The Scarlet and Gray quintet led in the first quarter, but the small floor proved too great a handicap.

Playing an offensive game throughout, the fast gray-clad warriors defeated Russell 32-15, making their fifth victory of the year.

The Rankin-coached machine took a hot tilt from the Sciotoville quintet, when they defeated them 27-15.

The Scarlet and Gray basketeers met and defeated Aid in a hard-fought battle by a score of 17-16. This game was a real thriller from start to finish.

The Glenwood quintet travelled to Jackson for their second league game, only to be defeated by a score of 20-27.

Beaver was the next victim of the Glenwood warriors, being defeated 25-18 in a loosely-played contest.

The Rankinmen started their scoring machine to working early in the contest, defeating Hillsboro 34-19. The Hillsboro lads were completely outclassed in pass work and shooting.

The Glenwood net busters next met and defeated the fast Hamden quintet 35-11. This was Hamden's second defeat in 17 games.

In one of the fastest and most thrilling games of the season, the Glenwood lads met and defeated McDermott 32-31. The teams were very evenly matched and the battle was nip-and-tuck, going into two extra periods.

The fast Lebanon champions next met the Scarlet and Gray cagemen and in a closely played contest defeated them 38-28. The Glenwood lads made a good showing, but were outclassed by the Lebanon quintet in the final quarter.

Hamden got their revenge on the Glenwood quintet in the Athens tournament, by defeating them 29-23. This marked the close of Glenwood's season, with a record of eleven games won out of sixteen played.

Harold Sheridan

Orville Shoemaker
Manager

HAROLD SHERIDAN
Captain-Forward

This is "Skeet's" third year on the first team. He is a wonderful leader and plays a splendid game at right forward, having a mania for tossing the ball through the hoop. This is his senior year and it will be very difficult indeed to find a man who can fill his position on next year's squad.

ORVILLE SHOEMAKER,
Manager

"Shoey" has proven himself the most capable basketball manager that Glenwood ever had, performing all tasks, from feeding the squad to keeping them in good spirits, with the same air of dignity and assuredness. Some one will have a tough time trying to fill his position next year.

CARL KEMP
Guard

"Kempy," possessing the rare combination of both offensive and defensive ability, played a fine brand of basketball in his two years on the team, proving himself quite a menace to the man he was guarding. He will graduate in June, thus leaving a vacancy which will be hard to fill.

ROBERT YORK,
Forward

"Dutch," by his splendid passing and shooting, proved himself a valuable man to the team and when in action gave his guard something to worry about. This is his last year at Glenwood and he will be greatly missed next year.

RAYMOND HALL,
Center

When it came to putting up a hard fight, "Speedy" was right there with the goods, proving himself an invaluable man on the defense. Although he was lost in mid-season on account of injuries he will be back next year to help defend the honor of the Scarlet and Gray.

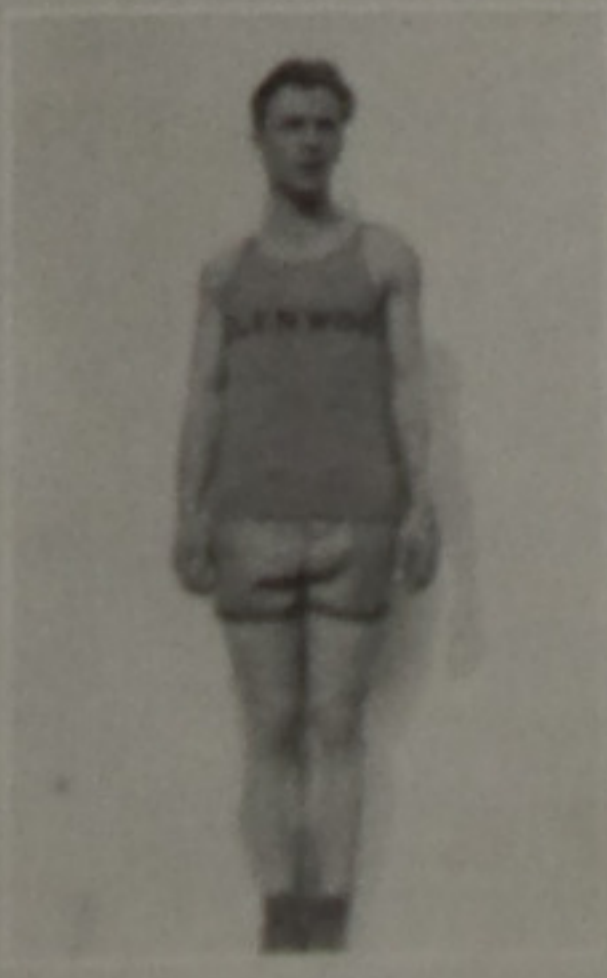

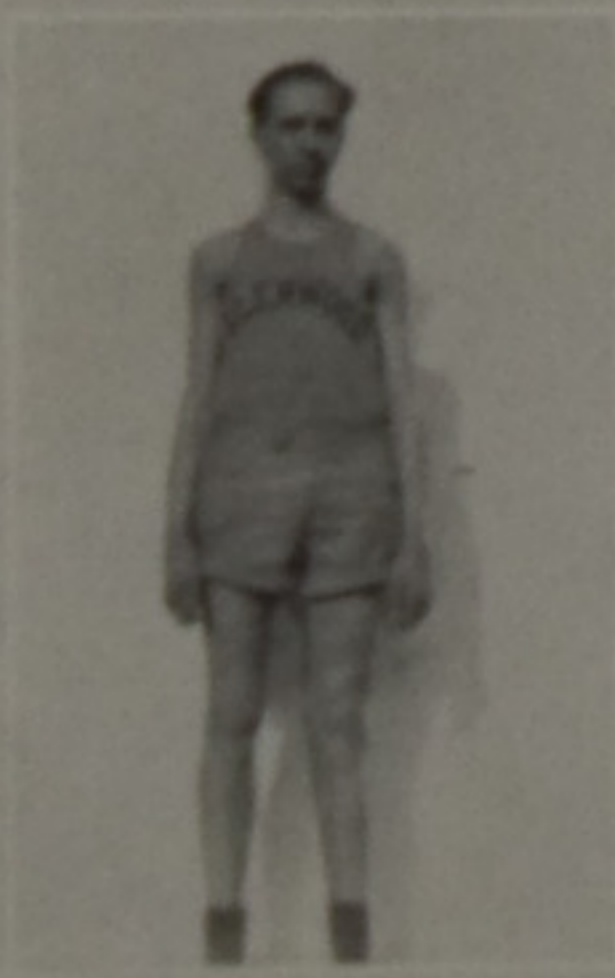

WILLIAM DUNCAN,
Center

Although this was "Bill's" only year on the hardwood floor, he put up a clean, hard fight and played like a veteran, never losing sight of his man and proving a source of trouble to his opponents. Bill is in the senior ranks.

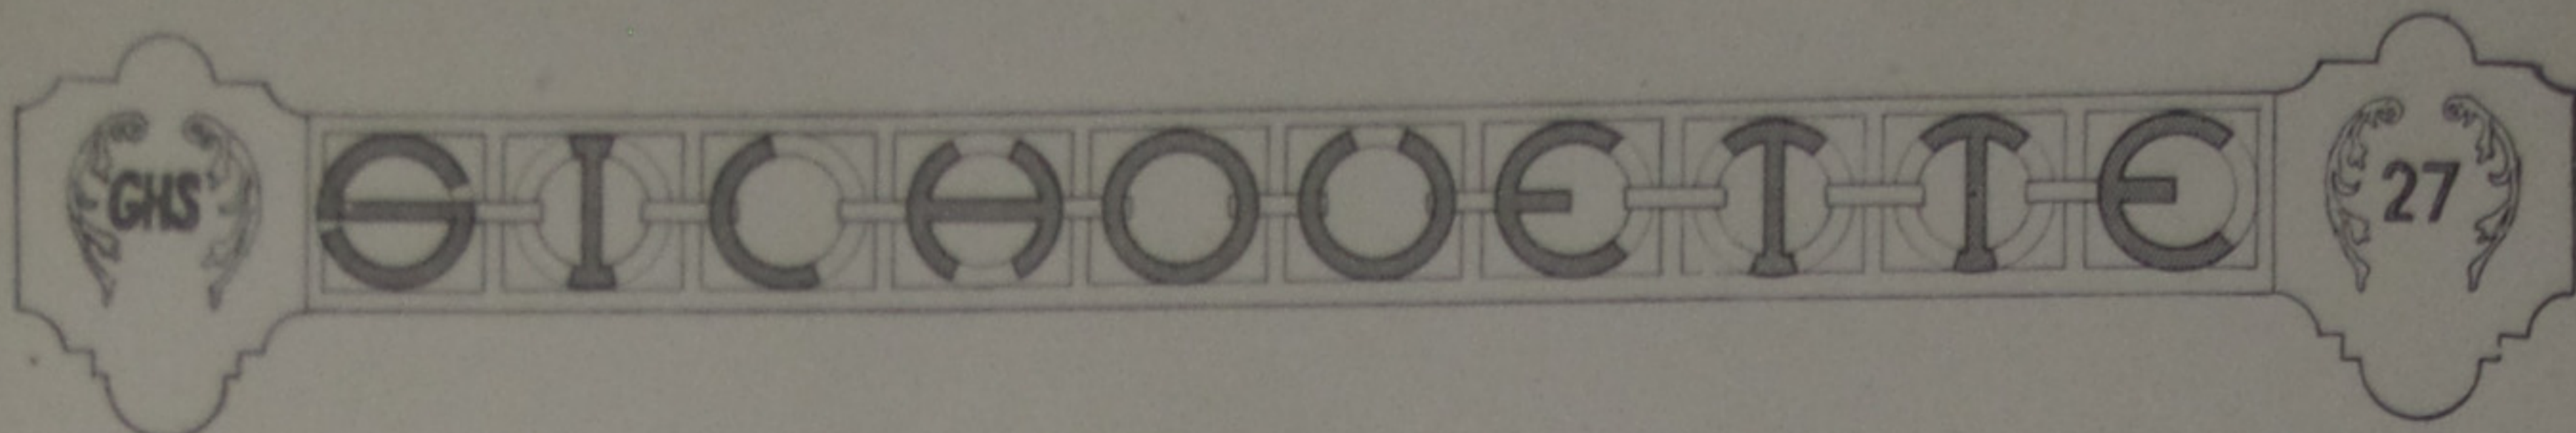

CLYDE BOOTH,
Forward

"Shiner" started his high school career by reporting for basketball practice. Although he failed to make a regular position on the first team, he is back again with the same old fighting spirit and is quite a wizard at basket shooting and pivoting. He will be with Glenwood another year.

EDWARD WINTERSOLE,
Guard

Ed's wonderful physique made him an ideal man for guard. This was his first year on the varsity squad. Playing at stationary guard, he put up a real fight, preventing many would-be pointers by his alertness and careful guarding. Ed has two more years to fight for his Alma Mater.

TRACK

This was Glenwood's first year at track, but at the first call for track members, twenty-five stalwart sons of Glenwood reported.

Despite their inexperience and their poor track, their first meet resulted in an overwhelming victory, scoring 42 out of a possible 60 points.

The track teams were participants in a dual meet which was held at Waverly, and the Southeastern Ohio League, held at Logan.

After their second defeat, the Skeeters began to pick up speed and added seven straight victories to their record. They wound up their season in a blaze of glory by defeating Portsmouth Hi's second team.

The Skeeter team was organized by Mr. Higley for the purpose of providing experience for boys who are too light to make the varsity squads.

The Junior High School boys have had a very successful season. They played twelve games, winning ten and losing two. The games lost went overtime and were lost by only one point.

Hensley and Pellegrinon did splendid work as forwards, and Elliott proved his ability in jumping center. Kreuger, as usual, kept up his reputation as guard, being ably assisted by Brown and Wintersole.

Brown and Wintersole are the only two of the varsity team who do not leave the Junior Division this year. The others will, no doubt, represent Glenwood next year in the Senior Division.

We feel that this is the best team the Junior Hi has as yet turned out, and we are expecting to watch with pride their progress in the future.

JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS

UPPER ROW: Mr. Kirk, coach; Louella Ross, Ruth Robertson, Anna Levine.

LOWER ROW: Mabel Rolfe, Lucille Helfenbein, Gladys Bays, Patricia Hacquard, Mary Ellen Pennington.

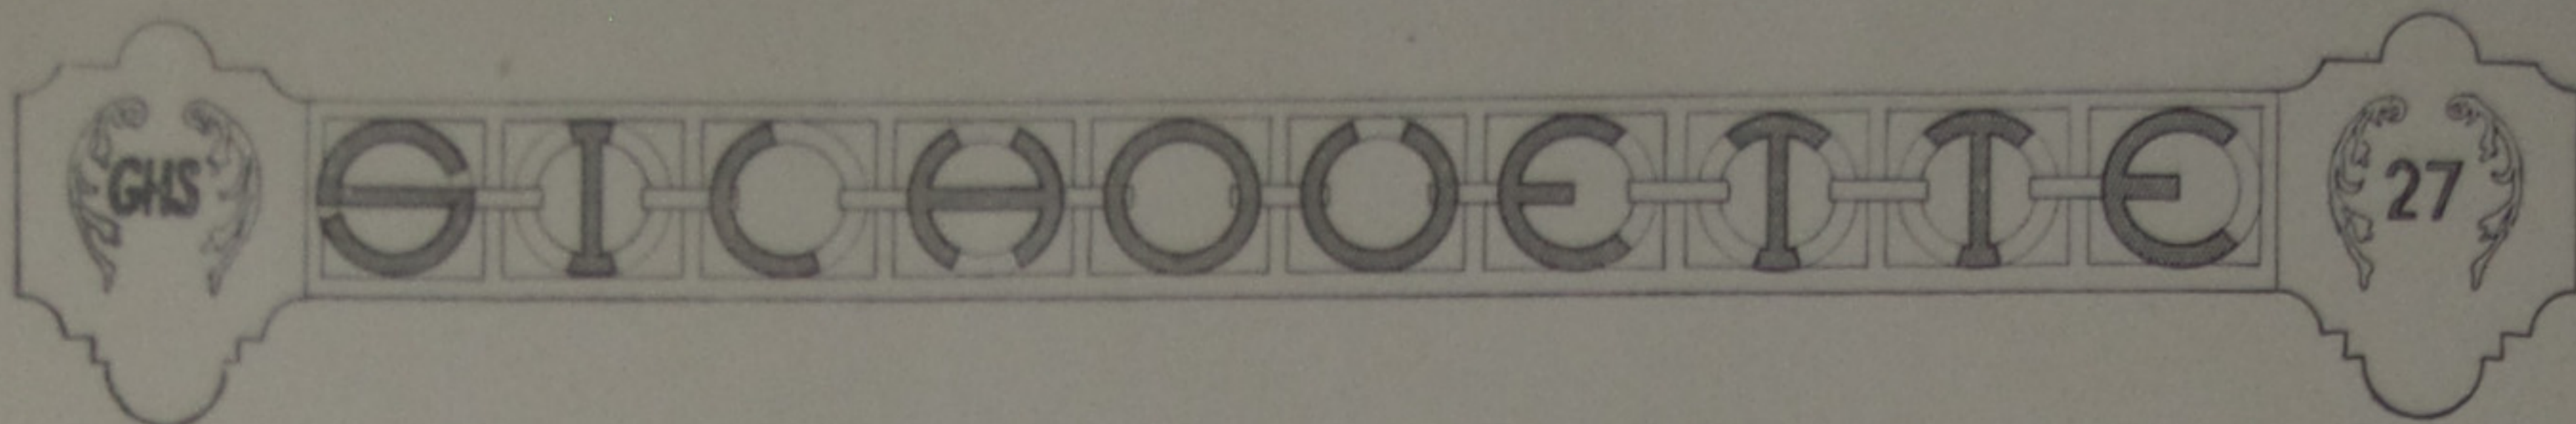

Although the Junior Hi Division was late in getting organized and had difficulties in securing a coach, at the last minute Mr. Kirk agreed to coach the team himself. With their late start, they played eight games during the season, winning three and losing five. The calibre of the teams played was far above that of any other schedule of the Junior Division, all being of Senior Hi rank, three of them varsity teams, to say nothing of Portsmouth Alumni. The Stockdale team was runner-up in the Pike County tournament.

The team members are very proud of their record this year and will wear their blue and gold letters with pride.

INTRA-MURAL BASKET BALL

This is the first time in the history of Glenwood that an attempt has been made to put across an intra-mural program in basket ball.

Mr. Rankin had charge of the program, which was carried out so successfully. He was assisted by Miss Nothstine and Mr. Elliott.

All students from seventh graders to seniors, were given a chance to play basket ball. By their hard work and co-operation they helped to make this program a success.

At the close of the season, prizes were awarded to the winners of the tournament and the teams ranking highest in percentage of games won.

THE ORCHESTRA

UPPER ROW: Joseph Colvin, Clyde Colvin, Kenneth Caulley.

SECOND ROW: Earl Wolfe, Joseph Price, Edward Wintersole, Willard Meyer, William Brown, Vincent Meyer, Ralph McCoy, Earl Schmid, William Simon, Orville Harris.

LOWER ROW: Herbert Levine, Raymond Hall, Estalene Rickey, Anna Levine, Henri Schnabl, Instructor; Mary Ellen Pennington, Esta Shover, Harlan Poole, George Adams.

This year marks Glenwood's first real experience with an orchestra. The Board of Education employed Henri Schnabl as instructor, a position which he most capably fills.

The orchestra made its appearance in chapel early in the year. It also played for a concert given by the Oak Street School and the play, "Lightnin'", staged by students of the Senior Division.

A bright future awaits the orchestra as most of its members are made up of Junior Division students who will be with the school for several years. Its members are very grateful to Mr. Higley for this successful organization because had it not been for his helpful advice and co-operation, it probably would not have been in existence today.

Some of the leading members are: Clyde Colvin, Earl Wolfe, William Brown, Ralph McCoy, Estalene Rickey, Anna Levine, Willard and Vincent Meyer, Earl Schmid and Kenneth Caulley.

THE ANNUAL STAFF

UPPER ROW: Irving Washington, William Brown, Denzil O'Neal, Robert Davis, William Duncan, Charles Buckley, Harold Sheridan.

LOWER ROW: Ormond Adams, Orville Shoemaker, Zelma Kegley, Helen Simon, Mildred Simon, Lucy Bolin, Mina Cunningham, Nelson Slaughter, Lester Benner.

Members composing the annual staff, mostly seniors, found out shortly after their organization that an annual meant hard, sincere work.

Lester Benner resigned as Editor-in-Chief because he could not give the time necessary to put out a good annual. With the election of William Duncan as Editor and the training of the staff, they were soon put on their feet again.

Annuals from various colleges and schools were secured and read by the staff, which was eager to get help and advice from any source. These annuals were read over and over, especially by the Literary and Sports Editors, but none seemed to satisfy their desires for an annual that would be different from all others.

"To put out an annual, of which the school could be proud and one to which other schools would have to look up," was the motto of the staff when they began their work. Whether or not this has been achieved is not for them to decide, but rather by those who may glance through its pages. At least the staff may say "we did our best." The staff is somewhat handicapped, this being their first experience in publishing an annual.

THE SILHOUETTE STAFF

UPPER ROW: June Abraham, Ormond Adams, Nelson Slaughter, Joseph Price, Charles Buckley, Beecher Leslie, Irving Washington, Isaac Morris, Zelma Kegley .

LOWER ROW: Mina Cunningham, Harold Sheridan, Helen Simon, Dorothy Henry, Franklin Aldridge, Hilda Jenkins, Lucy Bolin, William Duncan, Joseph Colvin, Robert York.

After a great many difficulties in getting The Silhouette staff organized and finding a student who would take upon himself the responsibility of Editor-in-Chief, the decision was finally made by a senior, Martha Pendleton, who accepted the responsibility until the end of the first semester, when she withdrew from school, thus leaving the staff helpless again.

With the beginning of the second semester, Joe Colvin, a Sophomore, was selected to fill Martha's place. Joe stayed by the job and did good work so far as it went but he, like others, resigned. His place was filled by Douglas Cooper, a Junior. "Doug" did his work well until he became affected with spring fever and of course you know what that means,—he was relieved.

Carl Kemp, another senior, realizing the real deep need of an editor responded to the call for assistance, and now fills the place of Douglas.

THE SILHOUETTE STAFF

The annual staff has come to the conclusion that publishing an annual isn't quite the snap they thought it would be. They have found out that annuals don't just happen.

Standing around and wishing for a year book won't bring one with gilt edges.

The staff has discovered the fact that so many hours of work must be spent writing and re-writing articles, that the members imagine they have annual for breakfast, dinner and supper and annual sandwiches between meals. Time and hard work brings an annual, not a wish and a smile.
