H. D. ROGERS & CO.,

(Late of BAKER, ROGERS & CO.,)

General Purchasing Agents & Commission Merchants

Merchants' Exchange Building, 22 W. Fourth St., Cincinnati.

Orders for all kinds of Merchandise and Manufactured Goods filled at the Lowest market rates; any information needed regarding prices or other matters connected with the trade promptly furnished.

Our Commissions for purchasing and shipping any desired article, will vary as to its value, and will in all cases be moderate—satisfaction in this respect will be guaranteed. Prompt and careful attention will be given to every order, large or small, and purchasers may feel assured that their interests will be faithfully attended to.

Purchasers not known to us, sending orders, will please inclose to our address about the amount of money they desire to have invested, either by express, draft, or Post-office order, and we will purchase the goods wanted, and ship the same as directed. If there is an excess or deficiency of money after the purchase is made (including a small commission), we will return or collect the same when the goods are delivered to the purchaser, or, if preferred, we will fill some orders by collecting on delivery.

When ordered, we will send samples, if possible, by express or mail, with quotations, and will forward the goods at the prices mentioned if there is no change in the market on the receipt of the order. If a decline takes place before buying, we will invariably fill the order at the lowest rates, and we will give notice if there is an advance, before purchasing.

Our office in the entrance of the Merchants' Exchange, 22 West Fourth Street, where its many members are constantly passing, gives us the best of facilities for exhibiting samples of Grain and Manufactured Articles, which advantage we offer to those desiring our services.

We call attention to the following notice from one of our city papers, which will explain more fully our method of doing business, by filling orders at the very lowest rates, and charging a small commission for each transaction made.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, March 13, 1869.]

"We desire to call the attention of merchants in the interior to the card of Messrs. H. D. Rogers & Co., which is published in another column. This firm proposes introducing a new business, namely: filling orders for any kind of merchandise or manufactured goods to be found in this market, charging only a broker's commission, thus enabling country merchants, manufacturers, farmers, and, indeed, all classes, to procure any article they may need, at the lowest cash price, without incurring the expense of coming to the city. And as Mr. Rogers is thoroughly conversant with the city trade, in all its departments, and one whose integrity and fidelity to the interests of his customers are of the highest order, no doubts need be entertained by those sending their orders to this firm, that they will be faithfully attended to."

Quotations furnished on application. Shippers and others forwarding samples will have their value ascertained, and an offer made, if practicable.

Trusting that in this manner of soliciting orders we will still merit the approbation of our many friends and customers who heretofore have sent us their frequent orders, and that merchants generally will find this a desirable and advantageous way of saving time, labor and money. We are, respectfully,

H. D. ROGERS & CO.

Like orders addressed to L. H. ROGERS & CO., 61 William Street, New York City, will have the same attention.

SHEPPARD'S PORTSMOUTH DIRECTORY.

PREFACE.

We present the first volume of Sheppard's Portsmouth Directory, to the citizens and business men in anticipation of its meeting with a flattering reception. The present volume is issued in a handsome form, well printed and bound in a superior manner, while the information it contains has been carefully and accurately obtained, and arranged in the book in the simplest manner. We have added to this Directory a list of Schools, Hotels, Court House, Manufacturing Establishments, &c., which will be found very useful. We have bound the work in cloth and gold, it is now being uniform with all Directories published by us. We return thanks to each and all our patrons, and assure them that we will still continue to represent faithfully the business interests of the city in our future editions of the work.

We now bid you all good-bye until our next issue,

And remain your obedient servants,

J. S. SHEPPARD & CO.

THE SINGER

STILL TRIUMPHANT.

At the Vienna Exhibition the SINGER received the Medal of Merit, the Medal of Progress, and three other Medals for superiority productions.

These are the Highest Sewing Machine Awards at Vienna.

The Singer received all the MEDALS awarded to either of the competing Machines, and two Medals more than any other obtained.

But immeasurably more valuable is as shown by sales—proved by sworn returns to the owners of the principal Sewing Machine Patents—which last year amounted to two hundred and nineteen thousand, seven hundred and fifty-eight (219,758) machines, nine out of ten of them being for Family Use. This is over 45,000 more Sewing Machines than were sold by any other company during the same period, and over One Quarter of all the Machines sold in 1872. These enormous sales are owing to the long-tested merits of the SINGER Machines, which meet the wants of the public in superiority and simplicity of construction, and capability for great variety and excellence of work.

Jurisdiction of Courts.—Justices of the peace have jurisdiction of civil actions of any value not exceeding $500, and concurrent jurisdiction with the courts of Common Pleas of any such over $100 and not exceeding $500. Courts of Common Pleas have concurrent jurisdiction with justices of courts from $100 to $500, and exclusive jurisdiction above $500.

Commencement of Suits.—Summons in a civil action before any of the courts is returnable to the sheriff of the county by him appointed, on the second day after its date; if issued to another county, the summons is returnable, at the option of the party having it issued, on the third or fourth day after its date. The answer or demurrer by the defendant must be filed on or before the third day after the date of the return of the summons, or before the fifth day after the return day of the summons if made by publication.

Execution of Judgment.—If judgment is entered for the plaintiff against real estate, it is a lien on the real property of the debtor within the county where the suit was brought, from the first day of the term. Judgments by confession, and judgments rendered at the same term at which the same judgment, lien such lands only from the day on which such judgments are rendered. A judgment cannot operate as a lien if execution is not issued within six years. If execution be not levied within six years from the rendition of the judgment, the lien of the judgment shall not operate to the prejudice of any other bona fide judgment creditor.

Execution.—All executions issued from the court of Common Pleas or Superior courts are returnable within sixty days from the date thereof, from a justice of the peace, within thirty days from the time of the receipt of the writ by the sheriff. The plaintiff may file a transcript of any judgment recovered by him before a justice of the peace, in the clerk's office of the court of Common Pleas, and if filed during term, it becomes a lien on the real estate of the defendant from the day it is filed; if filed in vacation, the lien commences on the first day of the next term thereafter. When two or more writs of execution against the same debtor shall be issued out during the term in which judgment was rendered, or within ten days thereafter, and when two or more writs of execution against the same debtor shall be delivered to the officer on the same day, he shall give preference to either of such writs; but if a sufficient sum of money be not made to satisfy all executions, the amount shall be distributed to the several creditors in proportion to the amount of their respective demands. In all other cases, the writ of execution first delivered to the officer shall be first satisfied.

Stay of Execution.—On judgments obtained before a justice of the peace, the defendant is entitled to a stay of execution for eight months on giving good security.

Proceedings in Aid of Execution.—After the issuing of an execution against property, and upon proof by the affidavit of the judgment creditor, or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the court of Common Pleas, or a judge thereof, or a probate judge of the county in which the order may be served, that the judgment debtor has property which he unjustly refuses to apply towards the satisfaction of the judgment, such court or judge may by order require the judgment debtor to appear at a time and place in said county to answer concerning the same, and may require any persons indebted to the judgment debtor to appear and answer concerning the same. The judge may order any property of the judgment debtor, not exempt by law, in the hands either of himself or any other person, or corporation, or duo to the judgment debtor, to be applied toward the satisfaction of the judgment.

Attachment.—The plaintiff in a civil action for the recovery of money may, at or after the commencement thereof, have an attachment against the property of the defendant and upon the grounds herein stated: 1st, when the defendant, or one of several defendants, is a foreign corporation or a non-resident of this State; or 2d, has absconded with the intent to defraud his creditors; or 3d, has left the county of his residence to avoid the service of a summons; or 4th, so conceals himself that a summons cannot be served upon him; or 5th, is about to remove his property or a part thereof out of the jurisdiction of the court, with the intent to defraud his creditors; or 6th, is about to convert his property or a part thereof into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; or 7th, has property or rights in action which he conceals; or 8th, has assigned, removed, or disposed of, or is about to dispose of his property or a part thereof, with the intent to defraud his creditors; or 9th, fraudulently contracted the debt or incurred the obligation for which suit is about to be or has been brought. But an attachment shall not be granted, on the ground that the defendant is a foreign corporation or a non-resident of this State, for any other claim than a debt or demand arising upon contract, judgment, or decree. When the ground of the attachment is that the defendant is a foreign corporation or a non-resident of this State, the order of attachment may be issued without an undertaking; in all other cases, bond must be given in a sum not exceeding double the amount of the plaintiff's claim.

Exemption.—The family homestead of each head of a family shall be exempt from sale on execution on any judgment or decree rendered in any cause of action accruing after April 9, 1869. When the homestead consists of a house and lot of land that will not bear a division, the plaintiff in execution shall receive, in lieu of the proceeds of a sale of the homestead, the amount over and above $100, annually, which shall be adjudged by appraisers as a fair and reasonable rent for the same, until the debt, interest, and costs are paid. In case the debtor is not the owner of a homestead, he is entitled to hold exempt from levy and sale personal property not exceeding $500 in addition to the amount of chattel property.

Statute of Limitations.—Civil actions, other than for the recovery of real property, can only be brought within the following periods after the cause of action shall have accrued: Actions upon a specialty, or any agreement, contract, or promise in writing, within fifteen years; an action upon a contract not in writing, express or implied, within six years; actions for trespass upon real property, within four years; actions for the recovery of real estate, within twenty-one years.

Assignments.—Any person may make an assignment for the benefit of his creditors of all his property, money, rights, or credits, to a trustee. The trustee must file the deed of assignment in the Probate court within ten days after its delivery to him, and enter into a bond, in such sum and with such securities as shall be approved by the judge, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. The trustee shall file within thirty days after his appointment, in the office of the probate judge, an inventory verified under oath of all the property, money, rights, and credits of the assignor which shall have come into his possession or knowledge. The property comprised in the inventory shall be ap-

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Bad Debts.

No position in the world requires a greater amount of ability and prudence than that of the merchant. No profession demands closer attention and more constant supervision, and in none is there so large an amount of apprehension and anxiety. The career of the merchant is essentially a game of skill. Without ability it is almost impossible he should succeed, and without the strictest attention to details there is no hope of success. Yet how little does it seem that a merchant should labor all the year round to accumulate profits, and find at the end of the year that the balance to his credit is greatly lessened by bad debts. He labors to no purpose for the extension of his business, if the result of increased exertions is counterbalanced by increased losses. There is no department of business which requires greater watchfulness, and none in which there is greater liability to failure, than in granting credits. The firm that continuously assumes hazardous accounts is certain to collapse. The experience has been, and always will be, that no matter how profitable may be the prices obtained, they will never compensate for improper risks. Besides the prospects of positive loss from weak accounts, the anxiety and increased exertion which they necessitate is most trying.

Don't Fall Soon Enough.

The trouble not infrequently is, that those who fail, do not fail soon enough. They have gone on from year to year wasting their assets in a vain attempt to buoy themselves up when in a sinking condition, and it is the secret of the poor dividends which estates have universally yielded, that the stoppage which was inevitable had not sooner taken place. It is better for themselves, better for their creditors, better for the whole community, that failures which must come, should come before assets dwindle, goods are sacrificed at reduced prices, and mercantile morality is outraged.

Long-Winded Credits.

Country merchants know better, than we can tell them, the utter folly of a long-winded credit business. Experience shows that hardly any rate of profit can stand for losses by bad debts. The embarrassment and anxiety incident to a wide-spread credit business is one of the inevitable misfortunes to which the unwise trader is subjected. It is not well for parties who sell on credit, to think to consider the feasibility of adopting at least monthly payments, if not entirely the cash system. Since the war there are numerous establishments doing an exclusive cash business, and it is not infrequently claimed that the money due by the consumer to the credit-giving merchant finds its way into the cash store. The temptation of low prices has been too great to be resisted; and it may account in some degree for the extreme slowness which has characterized the collection of outstandings, that the small amount of money about in some localities has been absorbed by the cash establishments. This consideration, in addition to all other, should induce those who give extended credits to attempt a reform. A cash system for a retail business is the only true and safe one.

Sound Doctrine.

"PAY AS YOU GO."—This little maxim has been the basis of the savings of the world for ages; supported by no pertickler pretensions, no high rhetoric, cadence or pompous period, but brimfull and running over with practical philosophy and plebeian sense, adapted to the latitude and longitude of every human knitter. It contains within its fore-blessed monosyllables an abundance of wealth; it is fortune's stepping stone, and a lustre of credit may be distrusted wherever it goes. It is the right bower of economy and maid of honor, the pleasure—fillz the day hours with quietude, and keeps the ballast from the nite dream. "Pay as you go" is the rule you will know how fast yuro a going, how fur you will go, and when 't is time tow stop. Trade will be when they meet you, and det with its hunger, it will starve on yuro trail. "Pay as you go" is the law of luxury and chastens want, adds dignity to the man and grace to the rich man, wrongs no man, and tis tow all. Here is an antidote for the philosopher's stone; here is a magic for the miser; here is a heaven for every sized lump. Yung go, and when you gits old you will not be other virtues will sartly cluster about you, and when natur hands in her last bill you will be prepared to "pay as you go."—Josh Billings.

The Three C's.

Character, Capacity and Capital are the elements of success in all mercantile pursuits. If you are wanting in an applicant for credit, the merchant will be a satisfactory customer stand his feet. Look out for the three C's.

The honor of an honest man, as he goes, and when he dies—therefore, conditions should be in writing.
