CLASS PROPHECY

Recently, while walking at the edge of town, I came upon a tent where some gypsies were camping. One of them insisted that I come in for a chat. When I told her that I was to be graduated from high school soon, she offered to prophesy for me the future of my classmates. I give to you the prophecies she made - who knows, in ten years they may be true.

Charles Adams is playing the bass horn in the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

Harold Barker is playing third base for the Columbus Red Birds.

Lloyd Bauer has married his girl friend of long standing.

Rose Anne Bostic is married to a local boy. She travels to Ironton every day to work.

CLASS PROPHECY

Bonnie Crace is doing interior decorating work in the New Hotel in South Webster.

Carl Crawford is driving a Greyhound bus. He recently saved the lives of his passengers.

Joe Dials is singing "Open the Door Richard" at the Coral Reef.

Joan Filkins is teaching at her High School Alma Mater.

William Howard is now well established as chief legal adviser to John L. Lewis.

Rosa Jenkins is in the hospital. She received a slight injury on her dairy farm.

Bob Kaltenbach is doing a profitable business in his exclusive Night Spot on Route 123.

Betty Kinker is working as a nurse on the night turn at Portsmouth General Hospital.

Norma Jean Kinney is working at the Greyhound terminal and it is reported she will be married soon.

Mary Jane Lemon is a nurse employed by her brother.

Emma Jo Maynard is working at Marting's in the Photography Department.

Catherine Morrison is the accompanist for Rise Stevens.

Karl Moore is playing the guitar for the Rhythm Rascals.

Betty Murphy, much to our surprise, is happily married.

Helen Newsome is working at the telephone exchange.

Barbara Schaffer is now raising registered cattle on her husband's farm.

Anna Mae Shumate has finished her course in business, College and is now employed at Portsmouth Steel Works

Glenn Shumate, after a brilliant basketball career at Ohio U., is accountant for Eastern Clay Products.

Arnold Smith is sailing the seven seas.

Richard Smith is third assistant carpenter at Eastern Clay Products

Madelyn Whitt is trying to persuade Emma Jo to travel abroad with her.

Walter Young has the name of being the largest mule trader in Ohio.

Roy Willis is starting in the cattle business after attending college.

The gypsy may be wrong but who can tell?

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1947 of the South Webster High School, being of sound mind, memory, and understanding, do make our Last Will and Testament in the manner and form following:

- I, Charles Adams, leave my artistic ability to Dale Shamhart.
- I, Harold Barker, leave my job as Bandy's shadow to Edgar Hamilton.
- I, Lloyd Bauer, leave my discarded collar-bone cast to Carl Sargent.
- I, Rosa Bostick, leave my nasal voice to John Kopp.
- I, Bonnie Grace, leave my nervousness and shyness to John Newsome.
- I, Carl Crawford, leave my clowning ability to Ray Tackett.
- I, Joe Dials, leave my singing ability to Helen Fenton.
- I, Joan Filkins, leave my weight to Sid Leive.
- I, William Howard, leave my opossum dog to Norman Murphy.
- I, Norman Howard, leave my ability to write poetry to Alice Larter.
- I, Rose Jenkins, leave my modesty to Vivian Lewis.
- I, Bob Kaltenbach, leave my mental and physical quirks to Marvin Kaltenbach.
- I, Betty Kinker, leave my ability to talk to Eleanor Adams.
- I, Norma Jean Kinney, leave my saying "Oh Kids" to Wilma Simmering.
- I, Mary Jane Lemon, leave my personality to June Crabtree.
- I, Emma Jo Maynard, leave my curly hair to Mattie Terry.
- I, Karl Moore, leave my good posture to Jolly Fields.
- I, Kate Morrison, leave my height to Donald Adams.
- I, Betty Murphy, leave my claim on all my boy-friends to Eileen Holmes.
- I, Helen Newsome, leave my cackling to Eva Bennington.
- I, Barbara Schaeffer, leave my prissiness to Marilyn Lewis.
- I, Anna Mae Shumate, leave my red hair to Irene Hale.
- I, Glenn Shumate, leave my kind, smiling face to Bennett Adams.
- I, Arnold Smith, leave my little girl to anyone who wants her.
- I, Richard Smith, leave my ability to make love to Lehman Crabtree.
- I, Roy Willis, leave my athletic ability to James Lambert.
- I, Madelyn Whitt, leave my blond hair to Betty Fulk.
- I, Walter Young, leave my ability to tell tales to Glenn Raynard.

CLASS HISTORY

In September 1943 approximately fifty boys and girls began their freshman year of high school. We were eager to do our best, and to contribute whatever we could toward making our class a successful one. Richard Smith was our president, and Mr. Havener was elected to be our adviser. During the year some of us joined the Glee Club and the Band.

In our Sophomore year we elected Catherine Morrison as president and Mrs. Eileen Donley as adviser. That year some of our boys played on the reserve basketball team, and Glenn Shumate, Richard Smith, and Roy Willis made the varsity. One of our girls, Barbara Schaeffer became a cheer-leader.

By the time we began our Junior year, our membership had decreased to twenty-six. We re-elected Catherine Morrison as president, and Mr. Harold Hagen for our adviser. Before us lay the task of raising funds with which to entertain the Seniors in the spring. We paid class dues, sold pencils, ice cream, pop, etc., and climaxed our goal with proceeds from our class play, "En Route to Happiness", directed by Mr. Hagen. Our Junior Senior banquet was given at the Cambrian Hotel in Jackson. During this year we bought our class rings, a purchase which always makes one feel nearer to his goal --- graduation.

At the opening of the senior year, we welcomed two new members, Roseanna Bostick and William Howard. We elected Howard for our president and Miss Ruth Harrel as class adviser. We will give "The Angell Brats" for our class play and expect to enjoy all of our commencement activities very much.

Six ex-service men by meeting certain requirements are now eligible to receive their diplomas with us.

Through the four years we have had representatives on the scholarship teams, both basketball and baseball teams, and in fact in almost all activities. It's with regret that we leave our Alma Mater, but to you who take our places --- success be yours.

The Reserve team did not enjoy very much success this season, but that is easily understood when we consider their size and inexperience. Most of them were members of the Freshman and Sophomore classes. Mr. F. D. Hyland, a graduate of this school and of Rio Grande College, was their coach.

Charles Adams - Charlie
To sit and draw is his delight
Some of his drawings are a sight,
But when he plays on his Bass Horn
It makes you glad that you were born.

Harold Barker - Eli
Dependable and always true
A friend in him you'll find
We hope that in the years to come
There'll be more of his kind.

Lloyd Bauer - Harry
Some days he's in a gloomy mood
And then he can't be understood
But when his girl has treated him nice
He acts like he's in paradise.

Nona Jean Beesler - Nonie
She is out
To have some fun
But of all the boys
She's true to one.

Rose Anna Bostick - Rosie
Little Rosie Bostick
Who came from Ironton way
She is very quite and shy
And doesn't have much to say.

Bonnie Crace - Jewell
Tall and stately
Pleasing voice
For some good man
She'll be a choice.

Carl Crawford - Nook
He beats his drum,
He's always witty
Hamburgers he fries
Are always pretty.

Joe Dials - Crooner
His ears are big
His nose is small
As for the women
He loves them all.

Joan Filkins - Josephine
She had her eyes
On married life,
So she became
Jonnie Filkin's wife.

William Howard - Bill
His hair is dark,
His eyes are brown:
Where there are girls
You'll find him around.

Rosa Bell Jenkins - Betty
She's innocent and very neat
At chewing gum she can't be beat
Her judgement is usually
Most discreet.

Norman Howard - El lobo
With a cute little grin
And eyes so merry
A twist of his chin
You know he'll not tarry.

Robert Kaltenbach - Rapid
He clowns and runs
About the room,
He also clerks
And uses the broom.

Betty Kinker - Shorty
Quiet, kind and helpful
Is always her rule
We need some more like her
To make good school.

Norma Jean Kinney - Sister Kinney
She's neat and sweet
And always smiles
She roams about
Through all the aisles.

Mary Jane Lemon - Janie
Mary Jane is her name
She is chubby and so coy
She doesn't fool with the Seniors
Because she has another boy.

Emma Jo Maynard - Joie
Her hair is blond
Her eyes are gray
In an arguement,
She has her way.

Karl Moore - Moron
Fair of face,
And broad of shoulder.
We predict great things
When he is older.

Catherine Morrison - Kate
Katie is what we call her
She has a fiancée
When she has her way.
She is as happy as she can be

Betty Murphy - Murph
Shy and sweet,
Another like her
Demure and kind,
Is hard to find.

Helen Newsom - Noosence
She's willing to work
And will any job tackle
But when she laughs
It sounds like a cackle.

Barbara Schaeffer - Babs
Her neat little body,
She surely does carry
Her formost question
Is "When do I marry".

Anne Mae Shumate - Red
With hair of red
But temper mild,
She is her mother's
Favorite child.

Glenn Shumate - Buck
As a general rule
He's late for school
But even so
He's nobody's fool.

Arnold Smith - Sam
He reads many books
And then goes to bed
But hates to be patted
Upon the head.

Richard Smith - Dick
With curly hair
And eyes of brown
On nights before ballgames
He paints the town.

John Weeks - Johnie
He went to the Navy
And then came back
And now he's running
Out of jack.

Madelyn Whitt - Moggie
Jolly and friendly
Always the same
Full of pep
And always game.

Roy Willis - Speedy
He's tall and dark
And not bad looking
His favorite phrase is
"Say, what's cooking"?

Walter Young - Dink
Short and windy
Full of fun,
A wolf in sheeps clothing
And always on the run.
