SCHOOL

LIFE

Mr. Hansgen with his BUSINESS ARITHMETIC CLASS

Miss Maderia's ENGLISH CLASS

Mr. Pogue's WORLD HISTORY CLASS
Who's Doing the Work? SPEECH CLASS

BEST MANNERED
Marilee Thomas and Jay Schneider

Marilee's and Jay's manners are above reproach. Courteous and cheerful, they are quite an asset to our school.

Looks don't deceive when it comes to Marilee for her sweet disposition matches her face. Her cheerie smile fills many a dreary day for she is our sunshine. She has sung in the Glee Club, managed the Junior Class Play and also served as Tartan Attendant her freshman year.

A knight of the 20th century, Jay is a living example of the perfect escort. Besides receiving admiring glances from ladies in distress his activities include such organizations as the Hi-Y, of which he is President, the Chem-bi-sci and the National Honor Society.

CLASS CHATTERBOXES
Pat Welch and Charles Ankrom

Consistently chattering like a couple of squirrels, Pat and Chuck have something to say to anyone, at anytime or anyplace.

Besides keeping everyone informed on what's new at East, Pat has taken over the duties of Pep Club President. She also sings in the Glee Club.

Chuck keeps everyone in stitches when he isn't busy cat-napping. He has been in the band for four years and is really a mean guy with those drumsticks!

BEST DANCERS

Carolyn Salyers and Larry Warnock

Separate they are great, but together they're the greatest.

Carolyn puts expression and life into her everyday routine as well as in her dancing. She does her tasks with a smile and one of her main activities is the Annual Staff.

Larry is the male half of the team which won the dancing cup for 1958. He exhibits fancy footwork on the basketball court, as well as the dance floor.

PEPPIEST

Gail Roney and Jim Smith

Gail and Jim are, more likely than not, right in the center of what ever's cooking. Both are leaders either in or out of school.

Gail, a varsity cheerleader, is quite a morale builder. But beside her peppier self, there is another Gail which is sometimes serious and thoughtful. Such a Gail presides over the Tri-Hi-Y meetings which build strength and character within it's members.

Jim has played on the football squad the three years he has attended East and also a little basketball. This year he's undertaken the job of Senior class president. There's more to "Smuffy" than meets the eye. Cutting capers is his specialty but his brain is working all the while.

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

Kay Hartlage and Darrel Grose

Both members of the National Honor Society, Kay and Darrel are "tops" with their classmates as well as in their school work.

Kay has a head on her shoulders--her heart's in the right place too. A few of her many activities include: Student Council, scholarship team, and Chem-bi-sci.

Darrel has a rare sense of humor that wins friends instantly. He has displayed his ability in such offices as Blue & White editor, Tartan editor and member of the scholarship team.

BEST ATHLETES

Jerry Wolfe, Carl Payton, and David Gullion

Good sportsmanship prevails wherever these three happen to be. It can be said that they are gracious winners as well as good losers.

Jerry has played football for 3 years, and basketball for 3 years. He was also chosen Tartan King his Junior year.

Carl has fought his way through opposing lines for 2 years. He is quite a clown off the field, but he takes football seriously.

Dave has played basketball for all 4 years. This year he served as captain of a football team he had just joined. He also has been on the baseball line-up for 2 years. A friend to everyone and everyone is a friend to him.

CUTEST COUPLE

Geraldine Hiles and Darrel Spence

Gerry and Darrel could well be classified as "Childhood Sweethearts" for they have been "going steady" since their grade school days. Congenial, both in manner and spirit, they make friends wherever they go.

Geraldine was senior attendant at this year's home coming. She has also been an active member of the Girls' League for four years.

Darrel, a playful character, has taken an active interest in sports this year and held the position of "half-back" during football season.

BEST PERSONALITY

Becky Novitz and Richard Powell

Becky and Richard display a friendly interest in everyone. There is a magnetic quality about their smile which makes everyone they meet want to be their friend.

Becky's reign as Tartan Queen reveals how well liked she is by her classmates. They all find her easy to get along with and fun to be around.

A four - year member of the band, Richard has an ear for music. His readiness to help if the need arises is another characteristic, along with his gay manner, that rubs off on everyone.

MOST INQUISITIVE

Phyllis Ratcliff and Harry Kegley

Curious? Yes! But you can't sum up such delightful characters in one word or even in half a dozen of words.

Phyllis wants to know everything that's going on but who can blame her? Fun to know and informative to talk with. She is a member of the Girls' League and also the Tri-Hi-Y.

Harry is just full of questions--like What? When? How? and Why? There is seldom anything going on that he doesn't know about. A member of the National Honor Society, Harry also plays in the band and is a member of the Hi-Y.

SHYEST

Wanda Withrow and Louie Schomburg

"If silence were golden, they'd be millionaires."

However, their shyness does not hinder their activities.

Although she keeps to herself, Wanda, Vice-President of the Pep Club, makes friends without much difficulty. And once the ice is broken, you'll find her as loyal a friend as anyone would want.

The strong silent type describes Louie to a T. Active in such sports as football and basketball he also is an ardent fan if unable to play.

BEST POISED

Donna Clifford and Roger Evans

Looking as if they stepped from the pages of "Vogue," these two lend an air of distinction to the halls of our Alma Mater.

Donna, with her regal poise makes you want to place a book on her head, or more appropriately, a crown. She served as a home coming attendant in '57 and has no trouble making or keeping friends.

As President of the student council, Roger's position demands that he keep his best foot forward. Although he is more comfortable in a slouch, the minute he stands, graceful height is added to prestige. Roger is also President of the Speech Club and a member of the Hi-Y.

MOST STUDIOUS

Sally White and Eddy White

Sally's and Eddy's high Scholastic records prove that they are willing to work for their rewards. This and the fact that they usually sit back and observe instead of trying to run everything makes us sure that they'll get ahead.

Sally, reserved and quiet wherever she may be, an air of sophistication prevails. She participates in many activities such as the Tri-Hi-Y and she has been a regular member of the scholarship team.

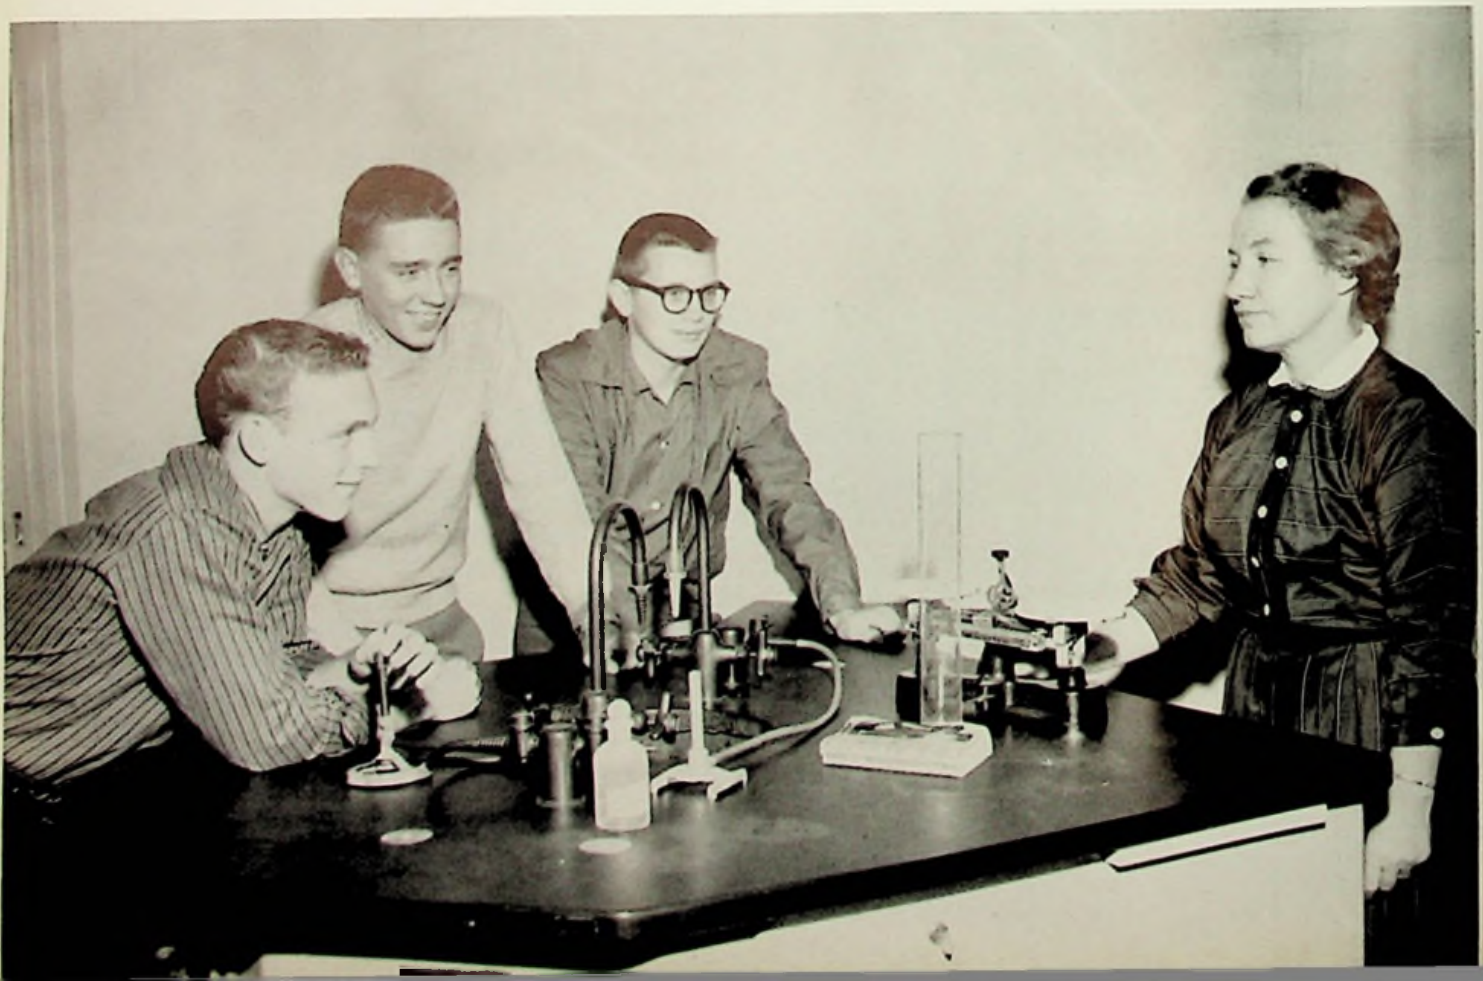

Eddy, a regular member of the scholarship team, ranked Number One in the Senior Scholarship tests. Although a bit shy, he is well liked by everyone.

CROSSING THE BAR
by Alfred Tennyson

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moan-
ing of the bar
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and
foam,
When that which drew from
out the boundless deep.
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness
of farewell
When I embark;

For though from out our
bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot
face to face
When I have crossed the bar.
