IN MEMORIAM

In memory of South Webster High School, we the student body, sincerely and respectfully, dedicate this Annual, "The Echo of 1941." After the catastrophe occurred and we viewed the charred and blackened walls of our school crumbling, we realized the full significance of it all. Never again would we be privileged to attend this school, because it had been destroyed, but many happy and delightful memories still remain to help us continue successfully through the years of responsibility to come.

CLASS MOTTO LIFE IS WHAT WE MAKE IT

Life is what we make it,
As the years go by,
Always face the sunny side,
Lift your chin up high.

Life is what we make it,
In this world of sin,
Always be a victorious loser,
As well as one that wins.

Life is what we make it,
Each and every day,
Help others lift their burdens,
O'er this rough and rugged way.

If some days get so dark,
They seem to make you pine,
Remember after the darkness,
The sun will always shine.

CLASS PROPHECY

Recently we strolled into the classroom and turned on the radio. Strange voices, weird music, issued forth and we heard these words. . . .

This is Station F. U. T. U. R. E. predicting the lives of the 1941 graduating class of S. W. H. S.

Turning the radio louder and gathering closer, we heard this:

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH!

Catherine Adkins, formerly employed at Lazarus Dept. Store in Columbus, has eloped with Eugene Hunter, the great magician.

James Hughes, the renowned explorer, is lost. When last heard from he was in the western section of Africa. Rescue planes are now searching for him.

Professor Henry Turner of University of Paris has just returned from his honeymoon at Niagara Falls but forgot to bring his wife home.

The Exclusive Style Shop at Fifth Avenue, N. Y. opened with a flourish last night. It is managed and owned by Vivian Skaggs and Virginia Willis, professional models.

Lorraine Potts has just returned from studying music abroad. She will teach at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music

James Shope and his beautiful stenographer, Helen Mustair, left on the China Clipper Monday evening to establish a banking system in "Pongo Pongo."

Ruth White, a nurse at the St. Mary's hospital, has just discovered a cure for Spring Fever. (Boy! did we need it. But it's too late.)

Marjorie Mault is teaching physical education at South Webster High School.

Glen Sparks is the coach at South Webster High School.

Florine Ball, who has completed her college course, is teaching school at So. Webster. We hear that she is having trouble with the nice-looking boy students.

Leslie Hoffman, a prominent lawyer of Ohio, owns half interest in an insurance company in Chicago, Ill.

Gretchen Adams is very happy with her job as hostess on the American Airlines.

Fred Wagner is in Hollywood at present. After signing a contract with M. G. M. studios, he will compete with Henry Aldrich in a new picture "The Walking Encyclopedia."

From Phoenix, Arizona, we hear that Leslie Queen, owner of the Bar X Ranch, has just hired a new foreman, Walter Wilburn.

John Davis, owner of the "Martinique Night Club," has just eloped with a New York debutante. They plan to spend their honeymoon in Honolulu.

Challis Bandy, the famous night club singer, is now touring South America. It is known that he's planning to marry in the near future.

Claude Estep, the algebra teacher of South Webster High School, has accepted a job as sports writer for the "Daily Chronicle."

Irma Hunley is the beautician who beautifies many of the lovely models at the Ritz Beauty Salon in New York City.

Marcella Herbst has won world wide fame because of her latest novel, "Our World of Enchantment."

Guy Potts won the award as being the best motion picture producer in Hollywood.

Alta Lemon, a bookkeeper employed in the Selby Shoe Co., has eloped with her boss.

Employed in the "La Conga Night Club" is none other than Jessie Adams. She plans to visit relatives in Florida in the near future.

Our great baseball hero, Daniel Lawson, Jr., has just signed a contract to play with the Detroit Tigers.

Richard Russ, our famous comedian, has returned to the U. S. after making a tour through South America.

Sara Parsons returned home recently after competing in a State Typing Contest in which she won first prize.

Leonard Smith is having difficulty in his ministry in France because of the beautiful girls.

Donald Piguet--"he's in the army now!"

Verna Taylor, secretary to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is traveling abroad.

Evelyn Kanouse, the great English teacher, is teaching at South Webster High School.

Nellie Williams, a noted singer and dancer, is touring England and is very popular with the British soldiers.

Hazel Weaver, who has won fame because of her lovely voice, sings at the Metropolitan Opera House once each week.

Mary Hollback, a stenographer employed in the Wheeling Steel Corporation, has just eloped with the office boy. They will spend their honeymoon in Scioto Furnace.

Wilbur Hanes, who has completed four years of college, will take his place among the teachers of Clay Twp.

And then the speakers voice seemed to fade away. Could this really be the future speaking? Who knows?

CLASS HISTORY

In September nineteen hundred thirty-eight about seventy boys and girls assembled eager to start on their quest of knowledge for the year. To reach our goal no task seemed too great and no problem too difficult. We probably were as green as any other Freshman class but after a while we began to show some ability and broke into scholastic, athletic, and social life. At our class election Alta Lemon was elected president and Mr. Harold Hagen our class adviser. We had class parties and a weiner roast near the close of school. When choosing a cheer-leader we found Vivian Skaggs could really yell. Before the close of our Freshman year Virginia Willis was chosen majorette of our High School Band.

As Sophomores we started the year with an election. Florine Ball was elected president and Miss Frances Ault, adviser. Many of the boys entered into the athletic activities and several of the girls signed up for basketball. We were proud to boast of placing three Sophomore girls on the first team: Marjorie Mault, Mary Hollback, and Lorraine Potts. Several of our members had the honor of being outstanding pupils that year. Leonard Smith ranked highest in the Elimination Test in Biology in Portsmouth. We had class parties and weiner roasts to make our Sophomore year thoroughly pleasant.

We entered our Junior year with our membership decreased to about forty-five. We elected John Davis, president, and Mrs. Marcella Stevens Donley, class adviser. We sold Xmas cards, candy, pencils, etc. in order that we might give the Seniors a good banquet. We had several parties and near the end of the school term we gave a class play, "Mary-Go-Round," under the direction of Mrs. Donley. We lost several of our prominent members who were bound by the ties of matrimony, thus decreasing our class number to forty-one. Three of our boys were placed on the basketball team which won the County Tournament. Two of our members, Nellie Williams and Marjorie Mault, won first and second places in shorthand in the county and then represented this school in the district test at Athens. The Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the Rendezvous. Later we enjoyed a movie at the Columbia Theatre. The word "finis" was stamped in all our minds for this was the end of our Junior class activities.

In our Senior year John Davis was re-elected president. Miss Ruth Harrel, who was chosen class adviser, has proved to be a very good one. Two prominent cheer leaders, Vivian Skaggs and Marjorie Mault, are members of our class. The day that our class rings and name cards came, our hearts beat faster for we realized then that our school days were numbered. Our class has now decreased until we have but thirty-eight to say goodbye to South Webster High in the formal manner.

At the end of this school year we leave our good will and best wishes to the Juniors who we know will step into our shoes and will carry on the work next year as Seniors.
