

Homer Lake Spickelshwaite

Pellett
PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

ALBUM

Those teaspoons sterling were the Salter's.
In the kitchen drawer

Judge Satters

Home now the site of S.S. Co.
formerly the old 6th St. school

My Dad Richard Micklethwait

Examination

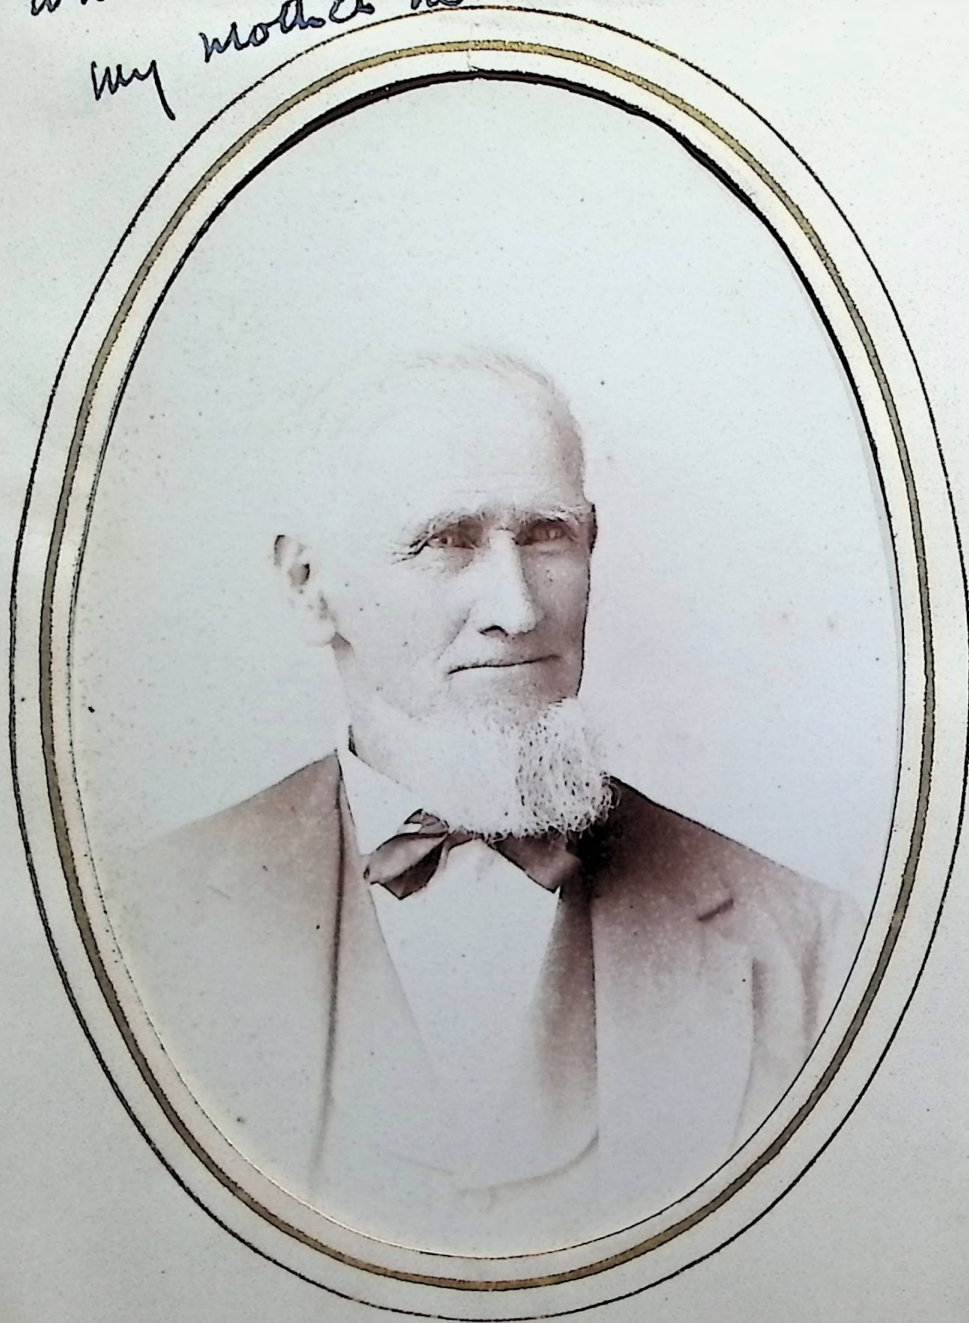

My Mother Rosanna
Stockham M.

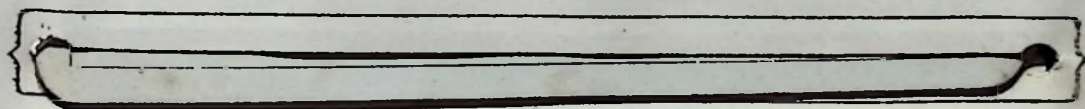

Nathanay.

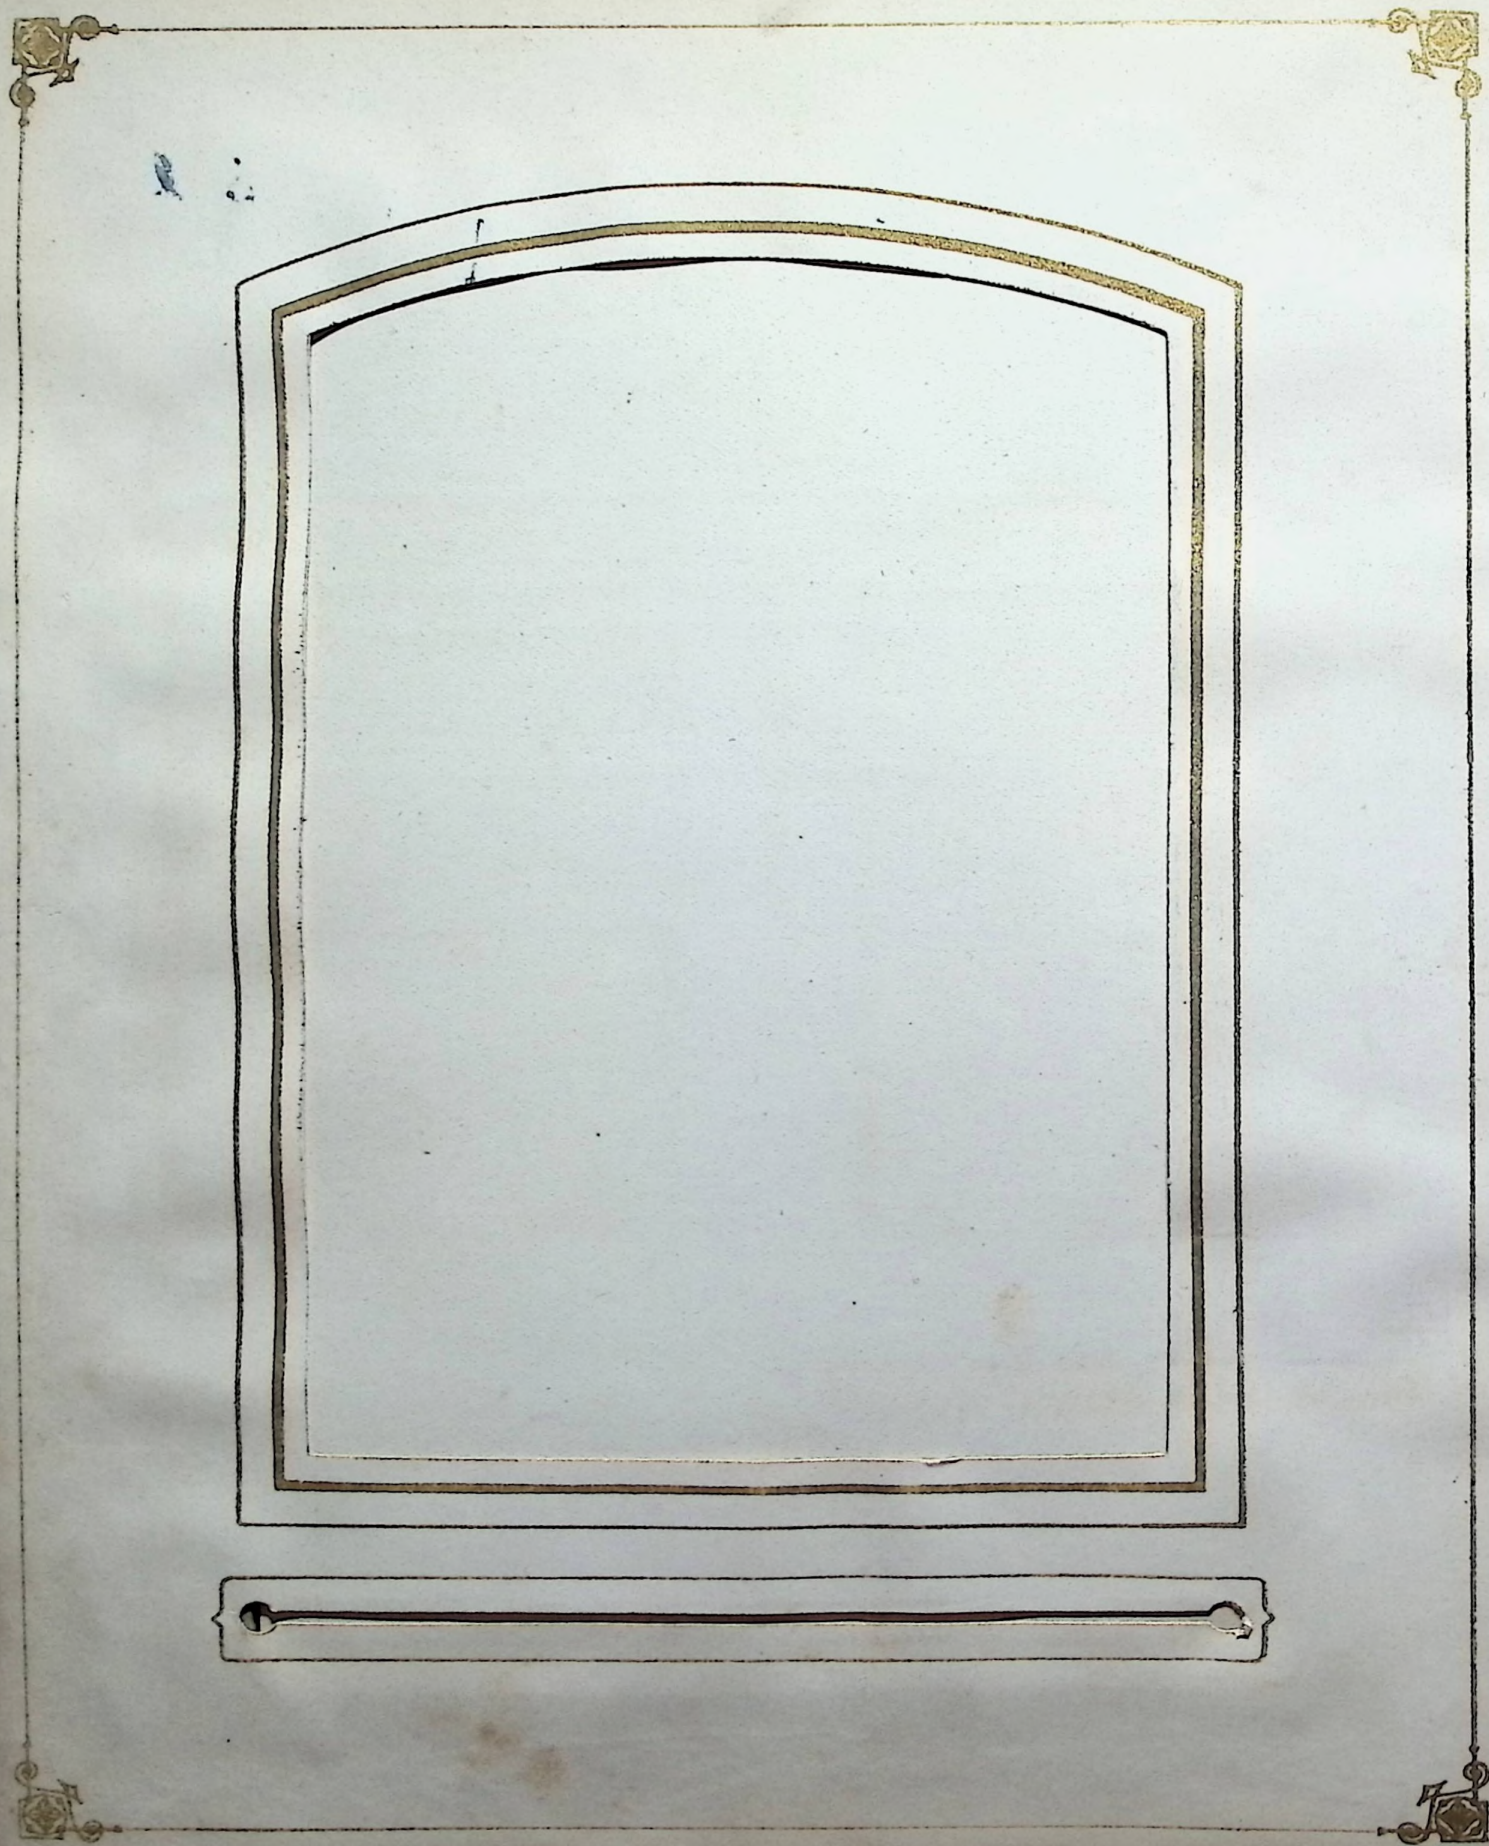

Portsmouth, O.

old Grandpa Stockholm
who hung himself
my mother never would tell me

Grandma Stockham Deserves all the credit for raising eleven children

Annie Byers M.
my father's first wife Died of a miscarriage

Oscar's father
my Uncle Will

Buried in the old Greenlawn
Cemety

Aunt Helen Stockham
Uncle John's 2nd wife Vesta's Mother.

Uncle John, S.

uncle Joe stockham
↓

"Duck" Smith fife
Ira Crull } snare
Caleb Crull } drums
Uncle Joe & big bass drum

played the big bass drum in the Harrisonville Drum & fife Corps.

Uncle Mart
 Michlettswater
 Harrys father
 G.A.R.

Sam Stockham Sr.

my mother slept in front of the house on Second St where it was born and she said "your Uncle Mart awakened me every morning by pounding on Geo Freshel cafe across the street."

kept a quilt store in Harrisonville, O. - now Minford.

Uncle Martin Violet

Aunt Carrie Violet

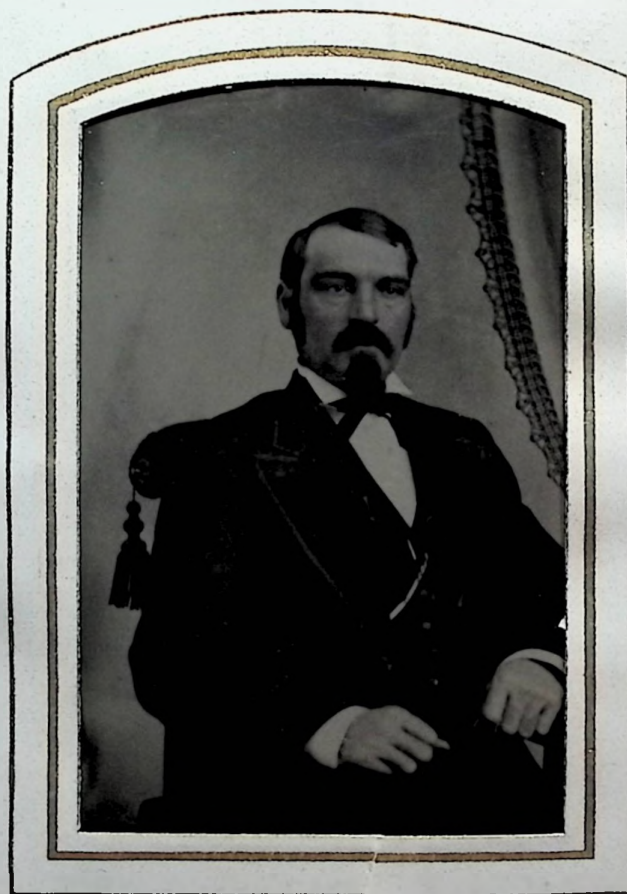

↓ operated upon for gall stones in Minford by a Dr. Ricketts of Cincinnati. Died at H. an soon after operation. I don't remember him.

I can remember a trip we took in the fall (7 or 8 yrs) to the Dewey family at Jasper.
a fairly important stop in the old Ohio Eric Canal. Also old Kate Robinson a fleshy domestic who made wonderful clonets.

Mother

Dad

Homer's dad John

Photo.

Chas' Mother Laura Gilbert Kendall

1700.

Uncle Chas Brown
Aunt Etta S. Brown
Son Joe Brown

* Uncle Chas. went west to die of Asthma. Lived to be 80 some years old.

Uncle John Stockham
Too good on Sunday and not good enough week days

a good starter but a poor finisher.

Geo. M. Appel
↓
Margaret Wilkie father

Katherine Stockham

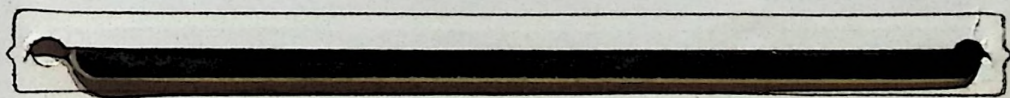

Vesta Stockholm

Vesta & Russell Stockham

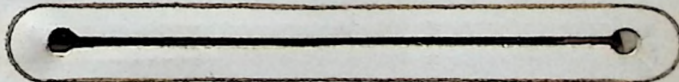

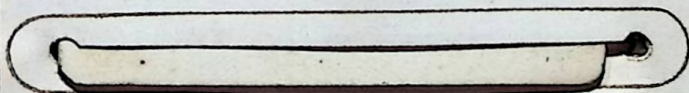

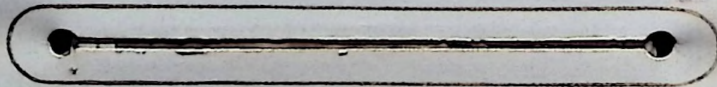

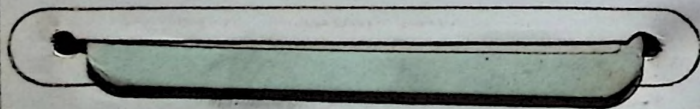

Callie & Joe Zaler

205

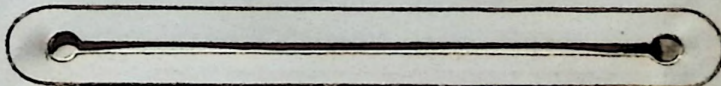

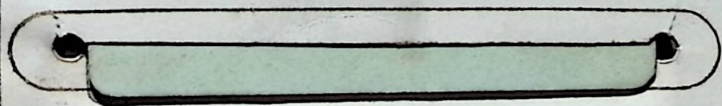

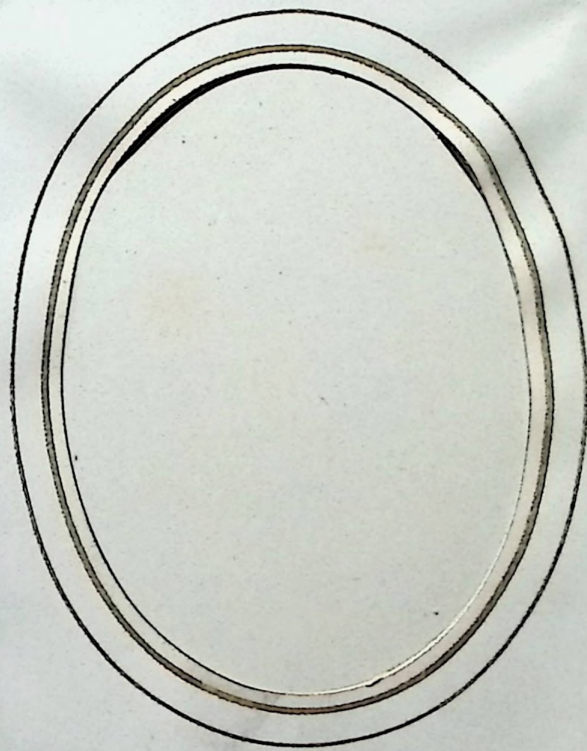

DELL DITCH

Julia Spradley

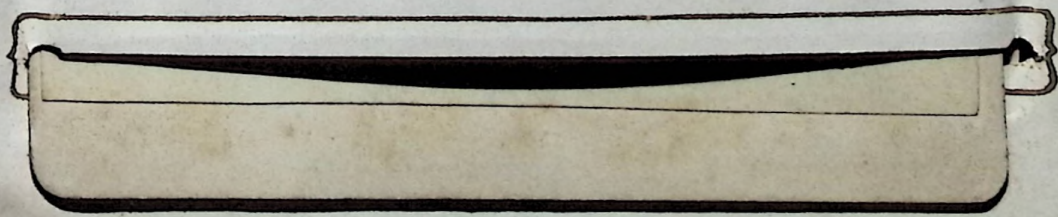

General Tom Thumb and Wife, Commodore Nutt
and Miss Minnie Warren,
the identical costumes worn before Emperor Louis Napoleon Emperor Eugene, at the Palace of the Tuilleries, 29, 1864.

Louise Flanders Jackson

my mother

Kathaway.

Portsmouth, C.

