The publication of the 1965 Senatorian has been both a pleasure and a challenge to all of us. To the teachers, students, and above all, the advertisers, Osborne Laboratories, and Taylor Publishing Company, we wish to express our appreciation for making this edition of the Senatorian possible.

We hope that you will find in these pages warm and happy memories of classmates, teachers, and activities that were a part of your school life at Portsmouth West High School in 1964-65.

EDWARD R. McCOWEN
County Superintendent of Schools

Mr. McCowen
B. S. Degree, Ohio University;
Master's Degree, Northwestern University;
has attended Otterbein College and Harvard University

Mr. McCowen said in a statement to us: "The rural schools in Scioto County expect a continued growth in enrollment during the years to come.

We shall steadfastly continue to meet the ever increasing demands of our youth. It is realized by all the difficult and trying times our seniors will be faced with as they leave these halls of learning.

The United States of America will be stronger by these seniors taking their place in our great democratic society.

We shall continue to upgrade all curriculums and school facilities for the welfare of each student, with a stronger society always our goal."

Becky certainly was in a hurry to get to school this morning. Oh, that's right it was the Honor Society Initiation.

There's not one second to waste in Mrs. Gillette's first period Shorthand I class. Is that right, girls?

Junior Class Candid

"No crowding; I waited as long as you did."

"You've got it backwards, Eddie, we're having our picture taken."

"No wonder we're happy. At last the hall is empty and we can get a drink."

"Guess who they're dreaming about."

All dressed up with someplace to go.

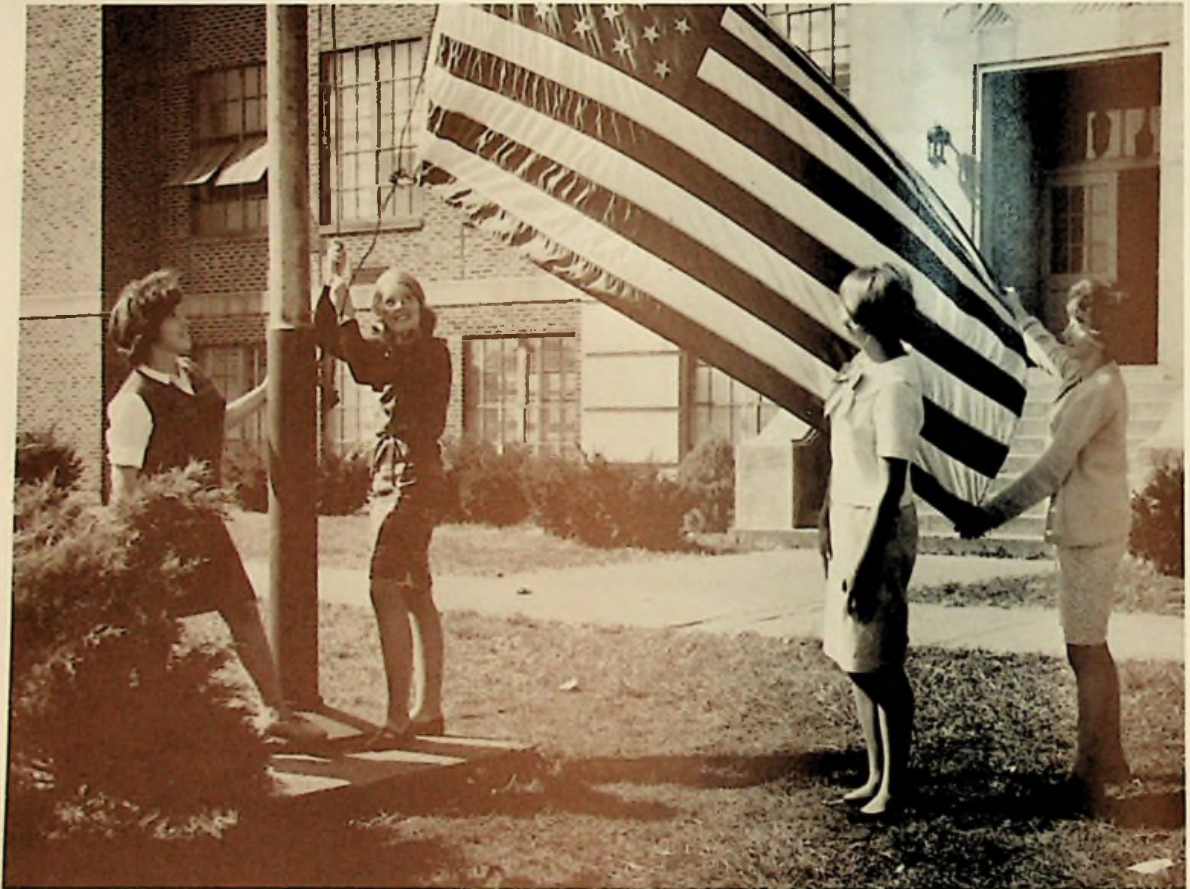

"Now let's see. Were you guys the victims of a water gun battle?"

What do you think of the Latin initiates hair styles? Kathy doesn't need to say. We can see it in her expression.

Candid

Mr. Reiser checks drawings made by class members in Shop I.

"Who said my dress is too long?"

"Now let's see. Where am I in this picture?"

These boys are after the last victim in a fast game of dodgeball.

These three Roman ladies display their costumes from the Latin Club's first annual banquet.

Mrs. Brickey and Gretchen are finishing up the last business of the day.

Famous Words

"and in this corner . . ."

"Boy my feet hurt"

"Well, that's one less to feed."

It takes a little longer to get to class this way.

"Oops! Goofed again."

"YEA! WEST"

The basketball coaching staff has helped earn its share of trophies for our display case. For our first successful season in many years, we would like to congratulate the men who helped to make it possible. Pictured left to right are Mr. Dautel, Reserve Coach; Mr. Lundy, Head Coach; and Mr. Stone, Freshman Coach.

Varsity managers Steve Rapp and Jim Milstead check equipment for our championship team.

Mike Howard, Gary Pollard, Steve Risner, Eddie Boggs. Mike and Eddie were All-stars S.O.C. All-stars and Honorable mention as well as Scioto County All-star awards were given to these varsity members.

Gary Pollard and Peggy Smalley both have maintained 4. averages throughout their high school careers. Both have received scholarships to Miami University. They were presented $25 scholarships by the local chapter of the National Honor Society.

Science Fair

Ken Hamilton displays his Grand Prize entry in the school science fair. In district competition his entry received a Superior rating and in state competition the numerical analyzer received an Excellent rating.

Ed Salsbury displays a school, district, and state winner, also. We have heard that Eddie melted several flies in the trial runs of his rockets.

Award Day Assembly

Senior members of the yearbook staff receive recognition

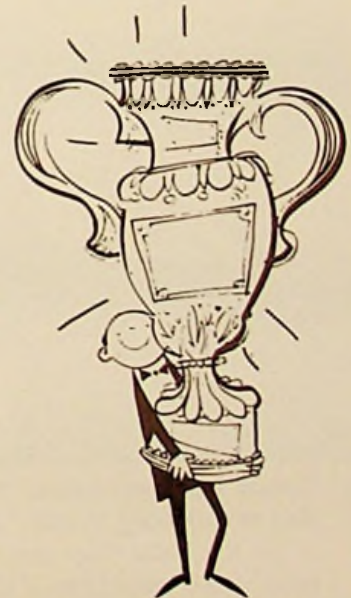

Mr. Morgan presents Denis Simon an award as an outstanding musician for his last year in the band.

Janie Smalley receives the first-place trophy in District-State-Scholarship Test competition.

Marilyn Payne is presented the Betty Crocker Award as the most outstanding homemaker.

School Helpers

These students are only a few of those who performed the duty throughout the year of selling candy in the gym during lunch.

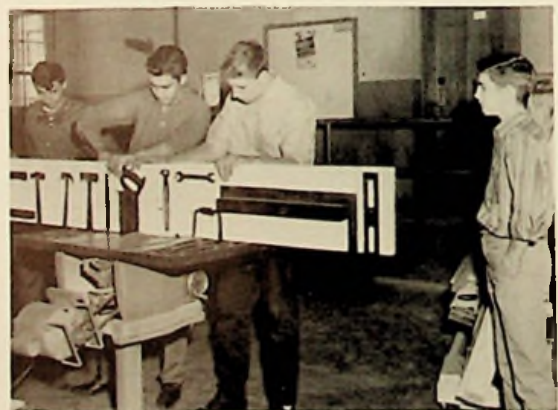

Another typical scene during the fourth period lunch break is the purchase of ice cream from these girls, Diana Galimore, Linda Howerton, or Karen Lovenguth

Another duty that we may not be aware of is the raising and lowering of the flag performed here by Dave Hale and Dick Royal.

If these girls seem happy, it's because they're collecting money. Money, that is, for the Junior Class magazine campaign which helps finance the prom.

These boys are constructing new tool display racks for the shop.

Do You Remember?

LOYAL, LOYAL TO OUR WEST HIGH

Blue Beard and his gang

Will you be mine?

Guess Who?

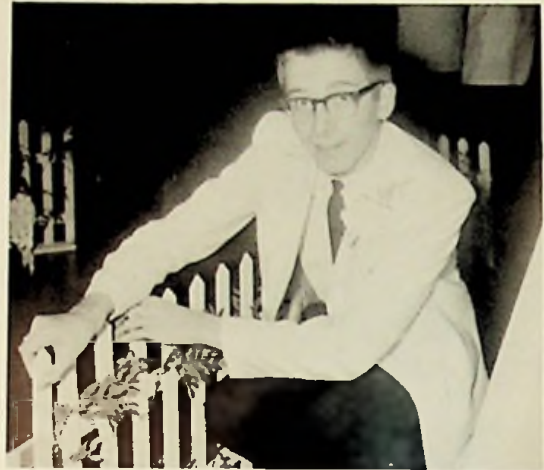

Supergirl! You've arrived just in time.

"In The Misty

"Me? . . . Dance!!!"

"Oh! Just putting it back."

"They were just here a minute ago."

"Then what happened?"

"Where'd everybody go?"

Moonlight"

The band played on.

There's Rich!

I could have danced all night!

Have you heard the one about . . .

The gang.

Senior Trip

Anticipation

Male chorus?

Off to kiddy-land

Wait for me!

Hey, girls, follow that boy!!

Baccalaureate

America's Future?

". . . and as you depart . . ."

Baccalaureate
Sunday, May 23, 1965
It certainly was hot.

"I can remember when . . ."

Graduation

"Next."

The Little "Angels"

"That's that."

Thank Goodness!

Graduation

"Look, Mom, I made it!!"

"Just a few more steps."

"Just wait till I get old."

Beginning of the future

. . . Another day

The End

. . . Another week

And a very successful year.
