Dedication

Our yearbook, the last big project of our high-school days, is dedicated to Miss Phyllis K. Madeira. She has planted herself permanently in the hearts of students and faculty by her friendly and co-operative manner.

She has distinguished herself as a teacher, but, more than that, as a friend. Miss Madeira has given her time willingly in helping us to achieve our ambitions.

In addition to her classroom activities, she has helped us with our class plays and has always been ready to offer her advice in any problems that confront us. Her splendid example of understanding and helpfulness has been an inspiration to us.

Foreword

Last October when the Russians launched the first man-made Satellite, our country was greatly surprised and shocked. Forty years ago Russia was a shambles and America was the dominant nation of the world beyond question. But what had happened since then? Was the free world losing the race in science? What could we do to regain lost ground and forge ahead? Was something seriously wrong with schools?

In January the United States successfully launched the famous Jupiter, and then all of us felt immensely better. However, we realize now that the race is just getting under way, that it probably will go on for years, and that each of us must help if we are to win.

We now know the hard way that we can not sit back and coast on our old victories. With only one-fifteenth of the world's population living within our borders, we have got to work with all our ability and strength to maintain ourselves whether we like it or not. Our money and wealth have not bought the peace we want. Our A-and H-Bombs have largely served only to make our enemies work all the harder to get these weapons too.

We have come to see that our schools are our first line of defense. Every person, a student as well as an adult, must get tough with himself. The old fable about the race between the tortoise and the hare may be kid stuff, but its moral never contained more meaning than today.

Knowledge requires a lot of good hard work just as anything worthwhile does. Nearly four centuries ago Francis Bacon wrote that knowledge was power, and this twentieth century is an age of power.

School Board

Duvendeck, and Mr. Wesley P. Ridenour. Dr. Duvendeck and Dr. Swope retired from our school board, January 1958.

Mr. H. W. McKelvey

Mr. McKelvey is completing his ninth year as superintendent of the Portsmouth School system. During his tenure of office, the Portsmouth City School system has continued to improve. Our school board and Mr. McKelvey have worked together to create a 6-3-3 system in our city schools.

Mr. McKelvey received his A.B. degree from Ohio University and his M.A. from Ohio State University.

Mr. T. W. Smith, Principal

Mr. T. W. Smith is completing his 17th year as principal of East High. Next year he will assume the role of principal of East Junior High. Mr. Smith's tenure as principal of East has had a tempestuous history. He was head of East during the war years and the readjustment period following. The consolidation of the two local high schools has been Mr. Smith's most recent problem. Many parents of present East students sat under the teaching of Mr. Smith. He is greatly admired by the students and faculty for his constant efforts in the field of scholarship. Mr. Smith is very interested in the students of his school and is always prepared to counsel them in their curricular problems and to aid them in selecting courses which will benefit them in the future.

He also serves in the capacity of advisor to the Student Council. An Ohio University graduate with the A.B. degree, Mr. Smith received his M.A. degree from the University of Cincinnati.

Ray Thompson, Attendance Officer

The cloak-and-dagger man around the school is Ray Thompson, who, in his official capacity as attendance officer, tracks down those foolhardy souls whose names are found on the truant list. This is Ray's second year at this job.

His spare time (when he has it) is taken up by his wife, Patty, and their three children.

Ray attended Cedarville College where he received his Bachelor of Science degree. He also attended Ohio University.

Dean

Helen Taylor Moore

Dean Helen Taylor Moore, our yearbook advisor, has been dean of girls at East High for 18 years and a member of the Portsmouth teaching staff for 31 years.

A friend of all the students, she is always ready to give her help and advice. She is respected and admired by the faculty as well as the student body.

Among her many other duties, she serves as advisor for the Girl's League and the Tri-Hi-Y.

Mrs. Moore received her A.B. degree from Miami University and her M.A. from Ohio University.

Mr. Jacob Frowine, Guidance Counselor

Always eager to talk with the students, especially those who are college-bound, Mr. Frowine has become a familiar face at East.

His duties entail such things as counseling seniors on college courses, finances, etc., and administering aptitude, vocational preference, and intelligence quotient tests.

Mr. Frowine's spare time is occupied by a number of activities, including golf.

His education includes a B.S. degree from Wilmington College, and a B.A. and an M.A. from Marshall College.

Monnajeane, as she is called by the student body, is the smiling countenance one encounters as he enters the office of the Principal. Before coming to East she was a private secretary both in Columbus and Portsmouth. She is a graduate of East and, so, is acquainted with the problems which arise during a normal school-day. Her charm and efficiency make her a "favorite." She also performs the duties of a housewife to her husband, Jim.

History of the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Eight

In the fall of 1954, the class of '58 entered East High School with an enrollment of 125. Our class officers were: Tom Moorhead, president; Janice Krainz, vice-president; Judy Humphrey, secretary; and Donna Rowe, treasurer. Our money-making projects were: a shamrock dance.

Our freshman attendant to the homecoming queen was Janice Krainz and Ellen Gilpin was our candidate for the Yearbook Queen. Ten members of our class won places on the scholarship team. The '54 roster of the football team had 11 of our boys. They were: Ronnie Kirchner, Ray Moore, Dale Bahner, Wilbur Johnson, Dave Rose, Elmo Keller, Virgil Whisenant, Ed Reinhardt, Blaine Chamberlain, Arthur Vogel, and Doug Farmer. Our classmates on the reserve basketball team were: Dale Bahner, Ray Moore, Paul Bauer, Dave Atkins, Ronnie Kirchner, and Tom Moorhead. Our members on the baseball team were: Ray Moore, Blaine Chamberlin, Doug Farmer, and Carl Burns, Virgil Whisenant, Jerry Williams, and Denny Mullins.

Our sophomore year, we chose as officers: Ellen Gilpin, President; Tom Moorhead, Vice-president; Ruth Humphries, Secretary; and Karen Crabtree, Treasurer. Our class advisors were, and, with the exception of Miss Whitehouse, still are Edward Pogue, Christine Heer, Elizabeth Whitehouse, and Helen Basham.

During the winter, we sold name stickers, and on February 21, the class sponsored a dance in celebration of the birthday anniversary of George Washington. We also had a skating party. Our homecoming attendant was Judy Humphrey and Donna Rowe was the candidate for yearbook queen. Anne Hensley and Judy Humphrey were chosen junior varsity cheerleaders. Our class was represented on the scholarship team by 16 members. Seven of our girls were waitresses at the Junior-Senior Prom. These included Barbara Beasley, Carolyn Hale, Janet Kemp, Wanda Mullins, Nella Bradley, Ruth Humphries, and Barbara Gee. The sophomores on the football team were: Paul Bauer, Ray Moore, Arthur Vogel, Ed Reinhardt, Wilber Johnson, Gary King, Ronnie Kirchner, Blaine Chamberlin, Doug Farmer, and Dennis Hoerr. The reserve basketball team was composed of 8 of our members among others. They were: Paul Bauer, Dave Rose, Dale Bahner, Dannis Hoerr, Tom Moorhead, Ray Moore, Ronnie Kirchner, and Carl Burns. Ronnie Pack served as manager of the team. Members on the baseball team were: Gary King, Emory Parker, Dave Atkins, Carl Burns, Wilbur Johnson, and Ray Moore.

As juniors, we chose Paul Bauer president of our class. Other officers were: Dona Dever, Vice-president; Ellen Gilpin, Secretary; and Barbara Gee, Treasurer. Miss Madeira replaced Miss Whitehouse as a class advisor. Our projects for this year included publication of the school newspaper, "Blue and White"; with Carolyn Hale as Editor-in-Chief and Gary Blackburn as Assistant Editor; the football concession stand, a dance, and the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

Ellen Gilpin was chairman of our magazine sale. Homeroom captains were Donna Rowe, Tom Moorhead, and Joan Allard. High salesman was Jean Boggs. Our attendant to the homecoming queen was Marilyn Fowler. For the first time, there was a king to accompany the yearbook queen. Our candidates for this honor were Dona Dever and Dave Rose. Ovid Young was selected to be the junior editor of the "Tartan." Sixteen of our girls were chosen for the Tri-Hi-Y.

Barbara Gee, Carolyn Hale, Tom Moorhead, and Ovid Young were elected to membership in the National Honor Society. Dona Dever replaced Judy Humphrey as a varsity cheerleader. We presented "Desperate Ambrose" as our class play. It was directed by Miss Baily and Miss Madeira. It was given in East Auditorium. The scholarship team was made up of 7 members of the junior class in addition to the others. Marilyn Fowler was our only member of the majorette squad. Ovid Young was our school's delegate to the World Affairs Institute in Cincinnati. Adrian Spearry attended Buckeye Boys' State. Barbara Gee was a representative to the Youth in Government project in Columbus. Ovid Young was the recipient of the Delphic Literary Society's junior cup. Our members on the football team were: Wyatt Cooper, Paul Bauer, Dave Rose, Ronnie Kirchner, Gary King, Doug Farmer, Ray Moore, Elmo Keller, Ed Reinhardt, and Willard Mullins, Art Vogel, Blaine Chamberlin. Ovid Young, Barbara Gee, and Gary Blackburn attended a journalism workshop on the campus of Ohio University. Juniors on the basketball team were: Dale Bahner, Ronnie Kirchner, and Tom Moorhead. Our only classmate who played on the baseball team was Wyatt Cooper.

Our senior year found us planning a dance, producing a yearbook, selling school dolls. We elected Adrian Spearry to lead our class. Gary Blackburn was chosen Vice-president; our Secretary was Anne Hensley and Ellen Gilpin served as our Treasurer. Donna Rowe served as President of the Girls' League while Barbara Gee was carrying on the same duties as President of the Tri-Hi-Y. Ellen Gilpin was chosen as homecoming queen by the student body. Jill VanBibber was the senior attendant. Jerry Porter won the East "I Speak For Democracy" contest. Ovid Young was drum major of the East Marching Band and attended a drum major camp in Syracuse, Indiana. Senior majorettes were Marilyn Fowler and Karen Crabtree. Captain of the cheerleaders was Anne Hensley. Ruth Ann Willis was president of the Bible Club. Members of the football team were: Blaine Chamberlin, Paul Bauer, Dale Bahner, Dave Rose, Dennis Hoerr, Gary King, Doug Farmer, Ronnie Kirchner, and Ed Reinhardt. Ovid Young was president of the Science Club the 1st semester, Adrian Spearry served as Lab Assistant and Barbara Gee was secretary-treasurer. We had 8 members of our class on Student Council on which Tom Moorhead served as President. Seven seniors were inducted into the National Honor Society. They were:

Senior members of the cage squad were: Dennis Hoerr, Dave Rose, Ron Kirchner, Dave Atkins. Wanda Mullins was our Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

After-Game Dances

These after-game dances were the first in the history of the school. They were held in the cafeteria and sponsored by the Girls' League.

Best Personality

Donna Rowe

Popular, pleasing personality, although a slight shy, is Donna. Her popularity gained her the presidency of the Girl's League and Vice President of the Tri-Hi-Y. She has been on several scholarship teams and is an A student.

Adrain Spearry

Everyone likes Adrain because of his friendliness and willingness to help. He was selected to attend Boy's state his Junior year. His popularity with so many people gained him the presidency of the Senior class.

Best Mannered

Barbara Gee

One of these rare people who bubbles like ginger ale. This quality made friends for her wherever she went, and helped this girl obtain the presidency of the Tri-Hi-Y. She is also a member of both the Student Council and the National Honor Society.

Gary Blackburn

"A mirror of courtesy." With the accent of efficiency, Gary, has tackled many jobs and always comes out on top. He is the Vice-president of his senior class, ads manager for the 1958 annual, and a member of the band.

Most Poised

Ellen Gilpin

Feminine grace and royal poise are combined in this girl. Her pert friendliness and diversified abilities were expressed through sincere enthusiasm. She was chosen this year's homecoming queen, was secretary of her class, a member of the Student Council, and a member of the band.

Tom Moorhead

His election as president of the Student Council shows he has not only many friends, but also much ability as a leader. He is also the president of the National Honor Society, and a member of the scholarship team.

Most Likely to Succeed

Carolyn Hale

She has high ambition and is worthy of praise. She has excelled in almost everything she has attempted and has used her time wisely to excel in all her undertakings. Her service, as editor of the school newspaper, is a fine example of accomplishment through initiative and hard work.

Ovid Young

The quality of paramount interest in Ovid's personality is the ever-ready willingness to perform any meager task with perseverance. He has influenced many of those around him with his creative ideas and candid manner. He has displayed his leadership as editor-in-chief of the yearbook, secretary of the National Honor Society, and as a four-year member of the band.

Loudest

Judy Kinker

She talks like a revolving door and is as inquisitive as an x-ray. She is a very good sports fan. You can always find her on the front row, center. She is a member of the Girls League and Pep Club.

Harold Roof

Perpetual humor, wit, and a stimulating nature are meager enumerations of his attributes. You can also find him on the front row, center. He is always the life of the party.

Class Chatterbox

Retha Sisler

Her mouth moves with the rapidity and regularity of a modern machine. Almost anytime, day or night, she can be found conversing on every imaginable topic. She displays a vivacity unmatched by few, and is logical choice for class chatterbox. Retha has been a four-year member of the Girls' League.

Edward Reinhardt

Ed, the other half of our class chatterbox "team," can match the wit and garrulousness of anyone with whom he comes in contact. Ed has exerted his energy by serving on dance committees and playing football. He received honorable mention on the S.O.C. All-Star voting. "King Edward" definitely merits his title as a chatterbox.

Most Inquisitive

Nancy Mershon

With emphasis on efficiency and with an eye for both the serious and the humorous side of things, Nancy never fails to leave a good impression. She has held offices in several of the clubs; such as the Girl's League, the Tri-Hi-Y, and the Chem-be-sci Club.

Dorsey Rudd

Dorsey can ask more questions in a shorter length of time than any one. He played on the football team and was manager two years for the team.

Peppiest

Anne Hensley

Anne has been in several activities in the four years she has been in high school. She has a very nice personality and talks her way through anything. She was junior varsity cheerleader and varsity cheerleader.

Dave Rose

Dave is a very good sport and has a friendly personality. He has played on the football squad, was co-captain of the basketball team and played on the football team.

Cutest Couple

Patty Haller

Patty and Gary have been going steady for three years. They both live in the same community. Patty was in the Junior class play and is a member of the Tri-Hi-Y and the Girl's League.

Gary King

Gary played on the football squad and the baseball team. He had one of the leading roles in the Junior class play.

Best Athletes

Marilyn Fowler

Eager to participate in all activities that her time would afford, Marilyn found many outlets of her vitality. She is interested in all sports and has played in the Girl's Intramural Basketball Tournament. She is an officer of the Girl's League and has been a majorette for the last two years.

Paul Bauer

There is something about Paul that everyone likes. This intangible quality has opened many doors, through which he has passed to achieve such honors as both the President of his class and a member of the Student Council in his junior year, and as a versatile athlete. He has played all three sports in school.

Our Most Shy Seniors

Jill VanBibber

In school she is calm and demure, but a little shyness is not a discredit to anyone. Even though she may seem shy, she really is a very friendly girl. Jill was chosen senior attendant to the homecoming queen and is a member of the Girl's League.

Douglas Farmer.

Doug is winsome in both smile and action, but is a little reluctant in making friends. He would rather wait awhile. The quiet reassurance of his loyal and amiable attitude is a welcome trait.

Best Dancers

Priscilla Duncan

A youthful charm characterizes Priscilla, but her quiet judgment and firm adherence to principle inspire respect. A true artist, she can recognize fundamentals while still appreciating delightful non-essentials. Pris is Vice-president of the Girl's League, a member of the Tri-Hi-Y, and a fine dancer and singer.

Ron Kirschner

Ron has gained recognition not only as a good dancer, but as a good all-round athlete and a fine sport. He is admired by his teammates and by their popular vote was chosen the most valuable basketball player and was on the All-Star Basketball Team. He also played football.

In the picture at the right are the assistant cooks at the East High school cafeteria. They are, Mrs. Helen Cole, Mrs. Shepherd and Mrs. Ethel Burke, respectively.

Cafeteria

When the East High lunch room opened in September, it was the answer of a number of years work and wishes of the citizens of the community. The beautiful dining room will seat 188 students. The kitchen, as well as the serving bar, is modern in all respect. Five women prepare and serve the luncheon to both high and elementary students and the faculty of East High School.

Mrs. Melvin, supervisor of public school lunch rooms in city schools, plans all menus and aids the kitchen supervisor in the purchasing of food.

Our lunch room comes under the Federal Public School Lunch Room and Surplus Commodity Program of Congress. Many surplus foods are distributed to our school monthly. The amount and kind of food depends upon what is available in the state at that particular time. Each day's menu must consist of certain basic food values. This is set by National and State Nutritionists. The city health and food inspectors make periodical checks of the kitchen and the way the food is handled. Each cook must pass certain health examinations.

This year's senior class presented a dance over which an Autumn Queen reigned. Miss Judy Birkhimer was chosen Queen by the student body. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Birkhimer, 1235 Mayo Street, Sciotoville.

Doug Farmer, Miss Birkhimer's escort is shown, crowning her as the Queen of the Autumn Dance. He also presented her with an autumn corsage and a pearl necklace.

Mr. RUFUS PERKINS

Mr. Rufus Perkins is completing his tenth year as custodian of the school. Previous to that he was employed for three years as custodian of Garfield Grade School. He also has engaged in Interior Decorating. "Perk" is always willing to do more than his share to promote success. He is held high in the esteem of all the student body.

Mr. GEORGE SPRECHER

In the earlier part of last spring, George began his new duties as a custodian of East. Preceding this he has been employed as both a driver and a truck driver. He is now employed part-time as a gasoline attendant at the Shell Station. George is always cheerful and good-natured in his services.

Ovid Young was chosen by the faculty to receive the Delphic Literary Society's Junior Cup for the year 57-58.

The Cup is presented each spring to a member of the junior class who has made many contributions to his class and school.

Character, leadership, scholarship, co-operation, and athletics are considered in the selection of the winner. This coveted cup was presented at the annual Senior Day assembly.

Ovid has been on English scholarship teams for four years, is a member of the National Honor Society, served as editor of the Yearbook, drum major of the Marching band, and has been a member of the student council.
