A SPECIAL PERSON

1964-65

Mrs. Ramona Horton . . . Dean of Women . . . Teacher . . . Friend

The above titles all describe a very special person at East High School. Mrs. Horton was forced to miss a large amount of the 1981-82 school year due to an extended illness.

Mrs. Horton first came to East in the fall of 1960 and has become a special part of all the students and faculty at East.

Being a graduate of the University of Kentucky, she is an avid fan of the Kentucky Wildcats and is even known to have sat before a television set dressed in a Kyle Macy t-shirt cheering him on to victory.

She is a very strong family person and loves playing with her grandsons. During the summer, her entire family goes to the beach and enjoys the outdoors.

Her hobbies include music, reading, and needlepoint.

One time when asked what she wanted to do in the future she replied, "At my age, to stay cool, calm, and collected."

Mrs. Ramona Horton is all of the above. She is greatly loved and respected by all who know her.

FACULTY

Congratulations on your completion of another year toward earning your high school diploma. The seniors have reached this goal through hard work and their "stick to it" attitude, and I am hopeful that all students aim for this same goal.

The 1981-82 school year has been exciting. We have had many successes and few failures, but must now look forward to the future. I want to thank the student body for a good year. We have a lot of pride at East, and I see no reason to not continue this fine tradition.

SANDY PENCE

Miss Phyllis Madeira presented Kevin Click with the 1982 Sandy Pence Award during the Senior Class Night.

Kevin became the eighth young man to receive the award since the first award was presented in 1960. It had been since 1975 that a young man had received the special award.

The senior award winner is selected by voting of the faculty. The characteristics upon which selection is based include citizenship, service, and general helpfulness to the school.

JUNIOR CUP

Mr. Lou Carson presented Darren Fain with the 1982 Junior Cup Award during the underclass honors assembly held at the end of the school year.

Again selection is done by voting of the faculty and the qualities for selection are the same high standards as for the Sandy Pence Award.

Darren will keep the cup for a period of one year and it will then be presented to the new junior award winner.

KATHY HOCK CROWNED 1981 FOOTBALL HOMECOMING QUEEN

LIVING IN A FANTASY

Escort Danny Montgomery

The football homecoming was October 23, 1981, with East hosting the Valley Indians. The East band set the mood for the special halftime ceremony by playing "When You Wish Upon a Star."

Queen Kathy Hock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hock, was escorted by Danny Montgomery. Her court included: Senior Attendant: Karen Hock escorted by Bobby Weaver; Vo-Tech Attendant: Kim Jones escorted by Tim Boyer; Junior Attendant: Terri Hoover escorted by Richard Joyce; Sophomore Attendant: Terri Dials escorted by Tom Imm; Freshmen Attendant: Stacey Shumway escorted by Joe Evans.

Kathy was crowned by Julie Flinders, the returning 1980 Queen. Her flower girl was Heather Odle escorted by crown bearer, Ryan Chamberlin. The Homecoming Dance was sponsored by the Pep Club on October 24, 1981. The dance was to honor the Queen and her court. The theme this year was "Living in a Fantasy." The stage was magically converted into Snow White's cottage complete with five of the seven dwarfs admiring the girls. It was a very special night for all and will long be remembered.

One very special memory of the 1981 homecoming will be the fact that it was the first time in the history of East High that twins were in the court as Queen and Senior Attendant.

"YOU MAY TAKE THE

The Portsmouth East Marching Band was very successful in all of its competitions this year. The season began in August when the latest edition of the band was first assembled. After two weeks of hard practice the band went to Camp Crescendo in Lebanon Junction, Kentucky for a week of training. Their work certainly paid off when the Marching Tartans took the field of competition; they returned home with awards from every competition they attended. The trophies received were: Vinson Contest: 2nd place band, Barbourville Competition: 2nd place band and 2nd place rifles, Ashland Contest: 3rd place band, Paintsville Apple Day Festival: 1st place band, best percussion, best auxiliaries, best field commander, superior rating, Russell Marching Band Competition: 1st place band, best percussion, and best field commander.

The band prepares to take the field at Russell.

SIXTY-NINTH CLASS BEGINS CHAPTER...

GRADUATION

On May 31, the finishing touches were completed on chapter twelve in the lives of the graduates of 1982. Reverend Fred R. Mann, pastor of Berean Baptist Church, gave sound advice in his address for a successful plot to be completed by the graduates in their books of life.

The combined choirs, under the fine direction of Mr. Mark S. Williams, performed "My Wish For You" and "Silver Wings" both by John Carter.

Reverend Robert D. Rider, Sr., of the Sciotoville United Methodist Church, offered the invocation and benediction.

Nancy Smith, Valedictorian

TARTANS' PRIDE

Mike Burke

Mike Horsley

Mike Burke was unanimously selected the Outstanding Lineman of the Year by the SOC Division I coaches. He was our offensive and defensive lineman of the week many times this season. His other honors include defensive tackle on the Southeastern District Team I, AP Special Mention All-State, and UPI Honorable Mention All-State.

Mike Horsley played quarterback and fullback for us as an offensive player, but has also led the team the past two seasons in tackles. He was selected as Defensive Lineman of the Year at East. His other honors include being selected to the SOC I All-Star Team and the Southeastern District Team I for the past two years, and Special Mention All-State this year.

1. Paul Bailey and Darrell Hood move in to tackle a Valley receiver of the kick-off. 2. Bart Taylor, Tim Faulkner and Mike Burke race to tackle a Kyger Creek player. 3. Paul Bailey is tackled by a Valley Indian as he returns the punt.

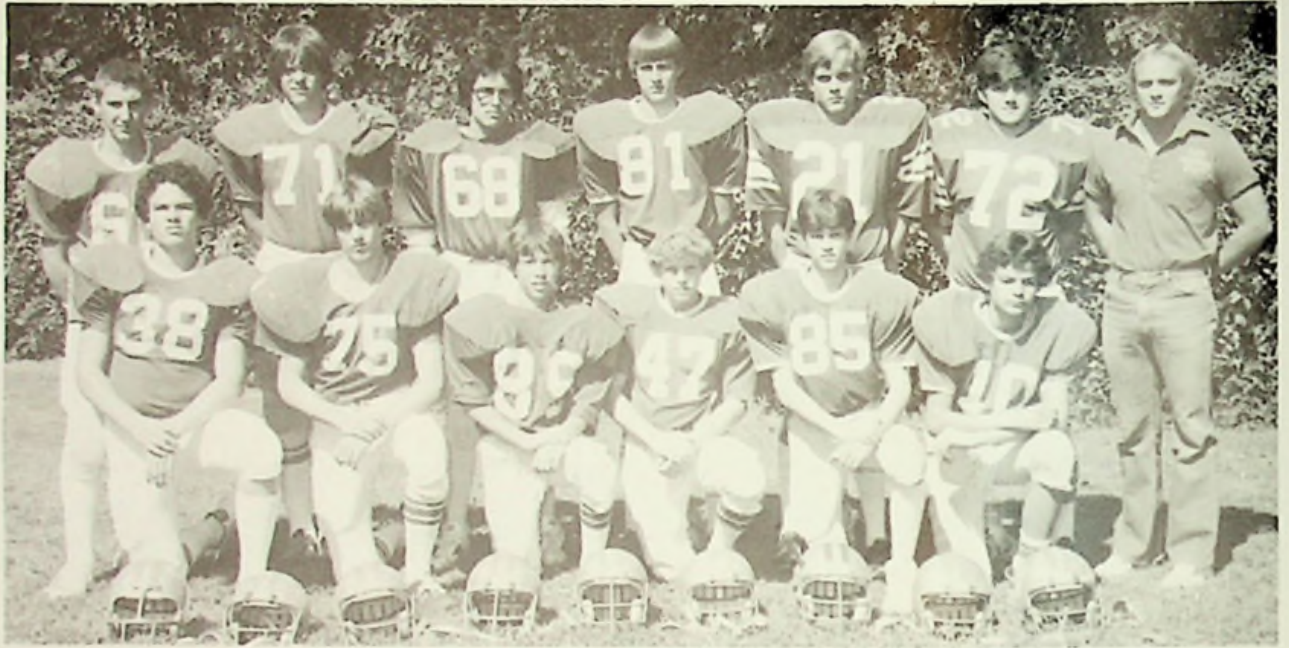

1. Paul Bailey tries for more yardage against Kyger Creek. 2. East adds to the pile of Kyger Creek players. 3. Mike Horsley, Todd Martin, Phil Frump, Mike Burke, and Darrell Hood all combine to down Kyger Creek. 4. Coach Coriell calls the key play as Brett Napier watches the action. 5. East goes down for the count against Kyger Creek. 6. Bart Taylor returns the punt from Green.

The 1981 varsity volleyball squad achieved a .500 season with 22 total matches played. East advanced to the championship game at sectional tournament, but lost to the top seeded Oak Hill squad.

The varsity squad is to be commended for their winning efforts as the starting squad had only one player with previous varsity experience. The 1981 starting squad was comprised of five seniors, thus forcing the future 1982 squad to have a rebuilding season.

The boys' 1981-82 varsity basketball team ended with a 12-10 winning season. They are to be praised for playing hard the whole season. Even when they lost, they never gave up trying to win.

For Head Coach Rick Hopkins, it was very rewarding. Coming from a family of very successful head basketball coaches and after serving as a reserve coach at Portsmouth High School for three years, it was a gratifying experience of success in his first year at the helm. One important asset to the winning season came from the good senior leadership on the squad. The team improved with each practice and each game. Another asset to their success was the high level of school spirit behind them. The biggest wins of the season were with Green at home and with South Webster in the first game of the sectional tournament. The spirited East fans helped make the difference between a victory and a defeat.

HAIR STYLIST — MARSHA SKINNER

MAKE-UP CONSULTANT — SUSAN MEADE

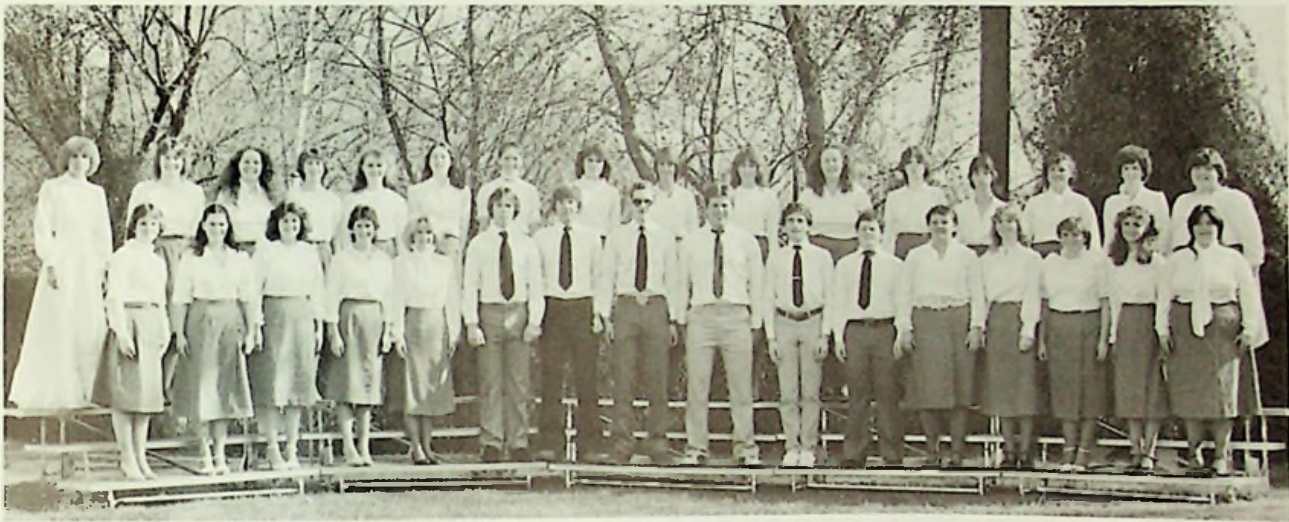

On March 25-27, the East High Vocal Music Department, directed by Mr. Mark S. Williams, in six performances led us over the rainbow and into a world of enchantment and delight.

We sympathized with the lost Dorothy as she tried to find her way back home. We gasped in wonderment upon seeing the munchkins and the good sorceress of the north. We trembled with fear at the sight of the wicked witch. And we watched with amazement as a scarecrow, a tinman, and a cowardly lion all became heroes while we grew to love them.

Once again, through the magical combination of music and a stage, we were thoroughly entertained by the excellent performances of the students of Portsmouth East High School.

Shawnee Lodge

Friday Evening

May Fourteenth

Nineteen Hundred Eighty Two

On Friday, May 14, the juniors and seniors gathered at Shawnee Lodge for the 1982 Junior-Senior Prom. They ate a delicious catered meal and then danced away the evening to the music of James Hamilton.

The after-prom was held at the Rainbow Bowling Lanes.

PROM COMMITTEE

PROM WAITERS AND WAITRESSES

1, 2, and 5. A night of dancing was enjoyed by all who attended and listened to the fantastic music of James Hamilton. 3. A delicious meal was the beginning of the night to remember. 4. Tammy Hollback and Tom Imm welcome the guests to the 1982 prom.

1. Emily Jenkins adjusts her date, Tim Boyer's tie while taking a break from the dancing. 2. Even Mr. and Mrs. Knapp danced away the evening along with Ted Bear and his date. 3. Charlie Holsonback and Vicky Artis enjoy dancing. 4. Miss Madeira reminisces with seniors Dave Brown, Angie Bussey, Carla Clark, and Kevin Click. 5. The faculty relaxes and enjoys the almost summertime evening on the balcony. 6. President of the junior class, Kathy Picklesmier crowns Dawn White as the 1982 Prom Queen.

 Chocolate Cake
 Coffee          Soft Drinks

1 and 2. Prom guests make themselves at home at the banquet table in the lobby of Shawnee Lodge. 3 and 4. Charlie Holsonback, Howie Sherrett, Jeff Coldiron, and Tom King enjoy the lively dinner conversation as do the other prom guests at Shawnee.

Always and Forever

Always and forever
 Each moment with you is just like a dream to me
 That somehow came true
 And I know tomorrow
 will still be the same
 Cause we've got a life of love that won't ever change.

And every day love me
 your own special way
 Melt all my heart away with a smile
 Take time to tell me you really care
 And feel sad tomorrow together
 I'll always love you... Forever, forever.

There'll always be sunshine
 when I look at you
 Something I can't explain
 Just the things that you do
 And if you get lonely phone me
 And take a second to give to me the magic you make.

1. Susan Nelson, Darren Fain, Tim Faulkner, Chris Montavon, and Ted Bear wait in line for the banquet table. 2. Mike Lewis and his date enjoy a quiet moment together and admire the interesting Indian mural. 3. Everyone enjoyed dancing, especially Prom King and Queen Mike Horsley and Dawn White, who at the time did not know that they had won. 4. Mr. Carson, Mr. Knapp, Mr. Hopkins and his date, Elizabeth Masters, enjoy the balcony and the uninvited prom guest.

PEOPLE

IN THE COMMUNITY

Forrest (left) and Maurice (right) Johnson, brothers, have been in the business of providing service to the Sciotoville community for 42 years. They started in business on March 6, 1939 at the end of the Depression. Both are graduates from East High School and during their long time of service, many East students have obtained part-time jobs with them. When asked why they liked serving this community, they responded, "It's the best."

CLOSING

WHO WERE THE "1982 TARTAN PEOPLE?"

Well, they were the students, the administrators, the faculty and staff, the musicians and the vocalists, the athletes, the parents, the advertisers, and many, many more. They were all of us who were involved with the life of Portsmouth East High School.

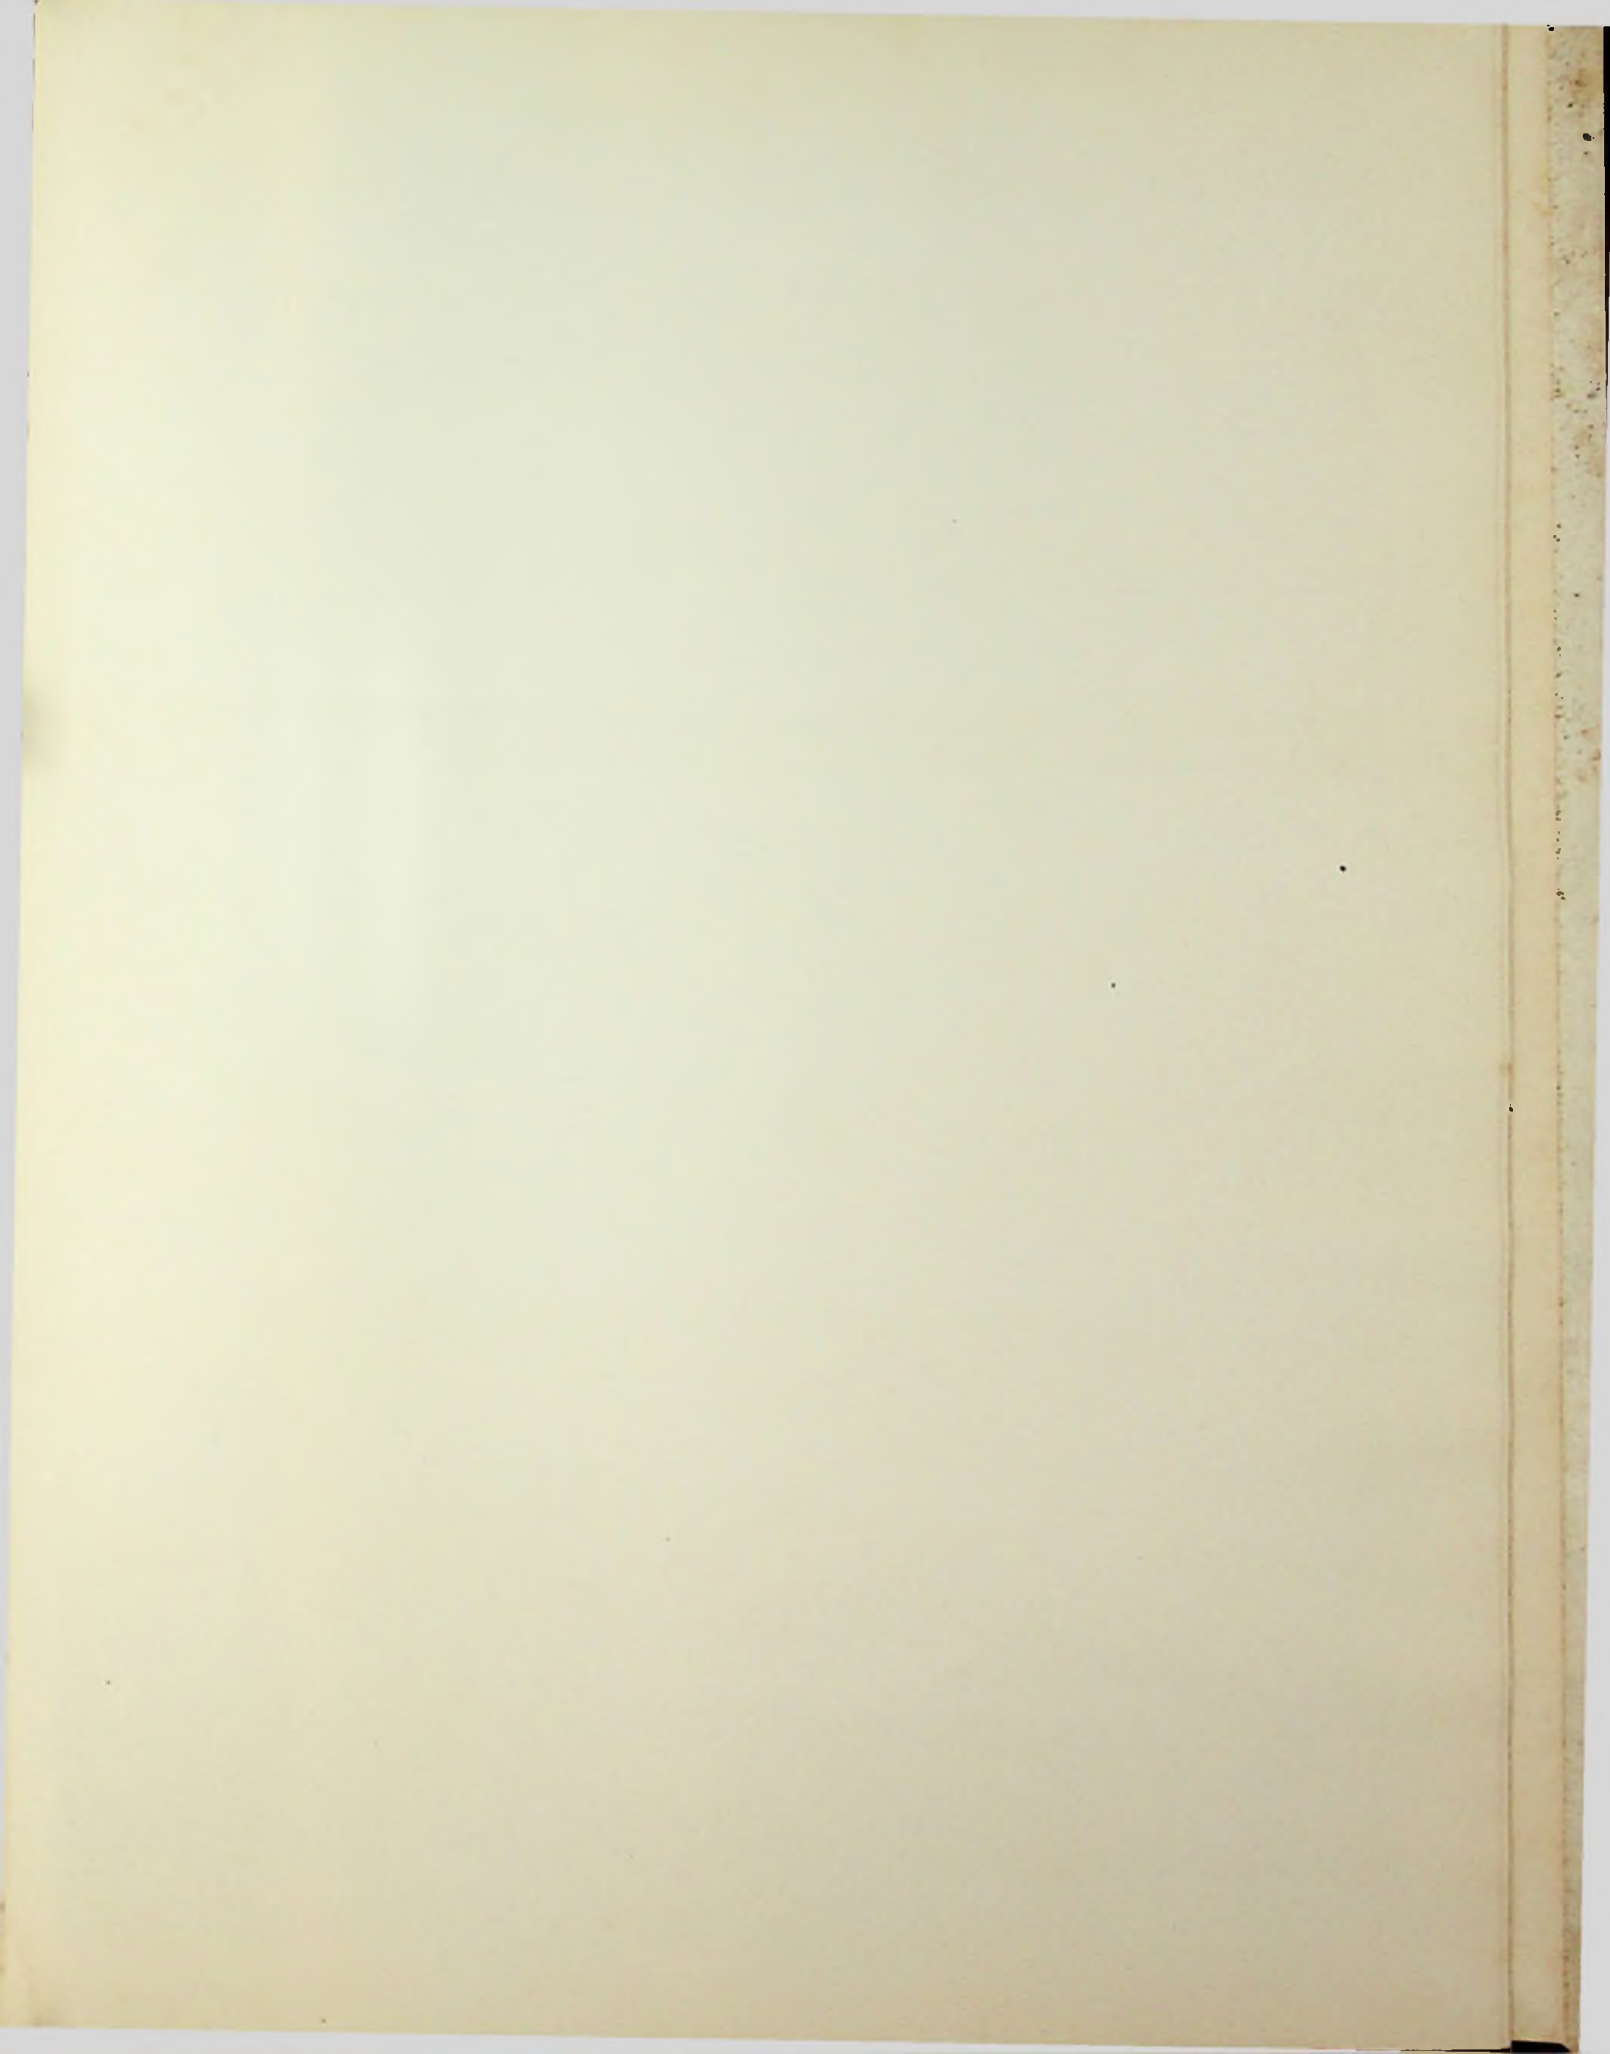

And maybe even more important, guess who else was a "1982 Tartan People"?
