

THE TROJAN

83

PHS Alma Mater

TROJANS

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater, faithful guide of youth,
Holding high amid the darkness -- duty, light, and truth!
Portsmouth High ----- Portsmouth High -----
It resounds above the sky.
When thy sons and daughters sing thee praise,
We love thee, Portsmouth High!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater, proudly may we cheer,
Red and blue and Trojan Warriors mighty, brave and dear
Portsmouth High ----- Portsmouth High -----
Growing cheers roar through the sky.
Then we pledge our loyal hearts to thee,
We love thee, Portsmouth High!
When, beloved Alma Mater, memory recalls
Bygone days of youth and friendship in thy stately halls
Portsmouth High ----- Portsmouth High -----
Still it rings above the sky,
Faithful sons and daughters sing thy praise
We love thee, Portsmouth high!

E.L. (Buzz) Pogue

Edward L. (Buzz) Pogue is retiring after 35 years in the field of education, 24 of them at East High School where he taught social studies and physical education. At East Mr. Pogue was also the football and basketball coach. The next three years were spent as vocational coordinator at McKinley Middle School, then two years as principal there as well. Portsmouth High School was fortunate to have had Mr. Pogue as principal for the past six years. PHS wishes you the very best, Mr. Pogue! Thank you for the guidance, wisdom, and support to students and faculty as well.

We Will Miss You,
Mr. Pogue!
