SENATORIAN

When you are old and grey and full of sleep
And nodding by the fire, take down this book
And slowly read, and dream of the soft look
Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep.

We Dedicate
This Book
to a Man
Who Is Himself Dedicated

Mr. James M. Morgan

Hats Off to Mr. Morgan!

Today and every day the toast is to Mr. Morgan. His title? Well, he has no need of "title." Everyone knows him. This man has extended himself to the boundaries of Ohio and on to Washington.

Mr. Morgan! That is his name and that is what he is called. This form of address shows that Mr. Morgan has won our love and respect by reason of his character, personality, endeavors, and achievements.

Our band director has been acclaimed and honored by state, city, and community. We, the staff of the 1966 SENATORIAN, wholeheartedly join in honoring Mr. James M. Morgan. In sincere appreciation of all he has done for West band and West school, we proudly dedicate this book to him.

S P I R I T

Within the earthy walls of every school building there sleeps protected a fragile life called Spirit. Like plants it can awaken, grow, and mature if nurtured; like other plants it can easily die.

Our plant, SPIRIT OF '66, did not die. Responding to the personal, stimulating inspiration of the teachers, the pruned, fertilized, and sun-touched Spirit pushed on to luxuriant growth. It crept down the school corridors; it permeated each room. Its tender tendrils grasped every student; its shoots entwined every phase of school life. Abundant flowers of achievement and distinction burst into bloom. The strong plant withstood competitive enemies. It was not defeated; it stood proud and loyal.

The SPIRIT OF '66 was West. It was a unified, democratic, positive Spirit that bloomed brightly and profusely during the 1966 school year. The SENATORIAN staff has attempted to guide you through this year. This is our story of Spirit.

The Footsteps of Spirited Senators

Some of the girls do One, two! Up, down! in gym class. And, some of the girls don't!

Standing on the corner, he watches all the boys go by.

Tall and slim, Rick Ferrell tips it off.

Will Echo Forever

It is the men and women
boys and girls
so poured in and out
all day
That give the building
a soul of dreams
and thoughts and memories.

Carl Sandburg

Three murderesses look the part: Pati Vicars, Susie Salem, Cindy Shultz.

With cuties like these available, who wouldn't transfer to West?

In any position the cheerleaders are easy on the eye.

Many are the rewards of do-it-yourself skills: a wife? a husband? Linda, Rosalyn, and Guy get ready!

SPIRIT OF '66 Inspires

Geneva Windsor smears one football player, Jim Woods.

Capricious Donna Brown is escorted by top scorer Rick Ferrell.

Veteran West mother, Mrs. Biggs, and graduate daughter Cindy wear their laurels well.

Students to a Challenging, Fun-loving Year

There is . . . much growing and going here: up and down stone steps the sound of feet running; a riot
of cries and whistles in the field
where the wind blows.
Today I love everything that goes shouting,
singing,
loving,
into the air!

Sister Maris Stella

Superintendent McCowen Speaks

We, as educators, must stop the decay of our society. We must face our new challenges and opportunities with a firm stand, keeping in mind that we can improve education.

The present and future difficult problems with which we are and will be confronted will take great ability, wisdom, foresight, determination, and fortitude if we are to accomplish what must be accomplished.

I want to take this opportunity to congratulate the seniors who are about ready to take their place in our great democratic society. Through hard work, and above all, faith in God, all things can be accomplished.

Local Superintendent Salutes the Graduates

Members of the graduating class of 1966, you are to be congratulated upon your success thus far. I sincerely hope that you will meet the problems of the day with a determination such as your pioneer forefathers had when they were conquering the obstacles confronting them on their way west. The resources and possibilities of America are great; may each of you rightfully claim your share, and in the future may each of you strive for better homes, better schools, better churches, and better communities in which to live.

The Principal's Message

We at Portsmouth West want to provide for the all-round development of each student's potential. Although our primary educational goal is the development of thinking ability, it cannot be assumed that all other goals will be achieved without any effort on our part. It is hoped that through the activities provided by our school the students will be better prepared to meet the challenges of our ever-changing world.

Mr. Nickel, counselor, suggests plan to Gene Ridout.

Teaching Staff

Much of the inspiration for the SPIRIT OF '66 has come from the members of this year's amiable faculty. Capable, unselfish, and energetic, these men and women have "pushed" us in their roles as instructors in the classroom, as advisers for organizations, and as supporters of student activities. We owe them, and gladly give them, our gratitude.

Valedictorians

This year West had three students to attain valedictorian rating in their graduating class. Throughout their high school careers, these students have maintained 4. averages. Ratings are determined from the final yearly average in each subject. Besides being presented with twenty-dollar checks from West's chapter of the National Honor Society, the trio received honor scholarships from Findlay College in Findlay, Ohio.

Senior Honors

To attend Holzer Hospital in Gallipolis, Sharon Vaughters will use a $500 nursing scholarship awarded to her by the American Legion 40 and 8.

Eddie Salsbury was offered four football scholarships: University of Cincinnati, Marshall University, Miami University, and Morehead State.

From Marshall University Steve Rapp received a $375 scholarship.

Gregg Peed was awarded a $900 scholarship for chemical engineering by Ohio State University.

Gary Cooper has accepted a $500 football scholarship from Dayton University.

Preparing for a wild initiation is a delight for first semester officers: Paula Windle, secretary; Sharon Vaughters, vice-president; Becky Creech, president; Pati Vicars, treasurer.

Examining new gold stoles to be worn by the seniors are the second semester officers: Charlott Kitchen, secretary; Linda Perry, treasurer; Cindy Keibler, president; Sheri Thomas, vice-president.

The National Honor Society

No scholastic honor conferred by the school excels that of membership in the National Honor Society. The Amy Mitchell Chapter was established at Portsmouth West High School in 1942. Membership in this society is based on scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Candidates eligible must rank high in each of these four categories.

Fund-raising projects this year included a dance and a bake sale. The proceeds were used to finance a community project of taking children from the Hillcrest Home on an afternoon excursion to the Laroy Theatre. With the remaining funds the society presented a twenty-dollar check to each of the three valedictorians.

The Honor Society was under the able supervision of Mrs. Mary Gillette until March, when Mr. Nickel filled in for the duration of Mrs. Gillette's leave of absence.

The children weren't the only ones who enjoyed the afternoon.

Mrs. Ressinger recognizes Pamela Sowards, the junior FTA member with the most hours of service.

Outstanding dramatics club members are delighted with their honors—and with Mrs. Orlett, adviser! Determined by popular vote of the club, certificates were awarded as follows: Jim Easter, best actor; Edna Smith, best supporting actress; Rhonda Kuhn, best actress; and Tim Daum, best supporting actor.

Students who earned the A or B Honor Roll rating for five six-week periods stand for deserved recognition at the Awards Assembly.

Special mention should be made of the thirteen students who were on the A Honor Roll for the school year: Cathy Anderson, Tim Daum, Debra Davis, Brenda Dillon, Stephanie Distel, Janis McCoy, Allan Nickel, Debbie O'Dell, Becky Rice, Nancy Shelton, Sharon Vaughters, Paula Windle, and Geneva Windsor. To achieve the "A" rating for a grading period, a student may have one B; all other grades, however, must be A's.

Two students, Cathy Anderson and Brenda Dillon, have an additional distinction—straight A's in each subject for the entire year.

Mutually happy are Mrs. Comer and Carmen Bowles, who wrote the best paper in the Betty Crocker future homemaker examination, thereby meriting the award.

Pointed out by Mrs. Ressinger for their unselfish service totaling hundreds of hours are senior FTA members: Marilyn Morrow, Steve Penn, and Edna Summerfield (not pictured).

For being the outstanding student in Home Economics III, Gail Bolton is given the Crisco award.

I'd like to go on record . . .

The coaching staff and I were very proud of the attitude with which our boys played this year. We went into the season with three starters returning; the twenty-six boys who stayed, came to play.

We felt that the turning point of the season was the come-back win against East. When our boys drove 74 yards and scored with 42 seconds to go, we knew they had what it takes to win the tough ones.

Although we are never satisfied unless we win them all, the entire student body should be proud of these boys because they represent the school with pride.

Varsity Basketball

Okay, coach, the white spot's me. Now, where're the cheerleaders?

Since you asked me . . .

The 1965-66 basketball season was a success even though I believe it could have been more successful. Our team started slow, thus losing three of the first four games. A rapid improvement, however, resulted in our winning the next seven games and made us contenders for the SOC crown. When Waverly defeated us by two points and eliminated us from the SOC race, we lost our momentum and started downhill. We were beginning to hit our stride again when the season ended. We were a good team, but I think we could have been a great team with a little more teamwork and self-sacrifice. I believe that West can look forward to an even greater season next year, for we have two starters, Rick Ferrell and Steve Mignerey, whose return should provide us with a good working nucleus.

West rooters always looked forward to watching this year's feisty and spirited reserve players. Hard practices brought about a steady improvement in skill and teamwork, and even though they finished with a 7-10 record, the boys should be praised for trying their best. Mr. Williams, too, should be commended for building a team which showed hustle and a determination to win in spite of the odds. Certainly West High can be proud of its fighting reserve team.

In my opinion . . .

The past baseball season was one of elation and sorrow. The most exciting win of the season came in the Sectional Tournament when West won a 1 to 0 extra-inning decision over previously undefeated Wheelersburg.

The most disappointing game of the season was our loss to Ironton in the finals of the Sectional Tournament. A win would have placed us in the district at Athens, Ohio.

Nevertheless, the season was a great success because the team displayed a remarkable attitude toward winning. Most evident of all was the great sportsmanship the team showed throughout the season.

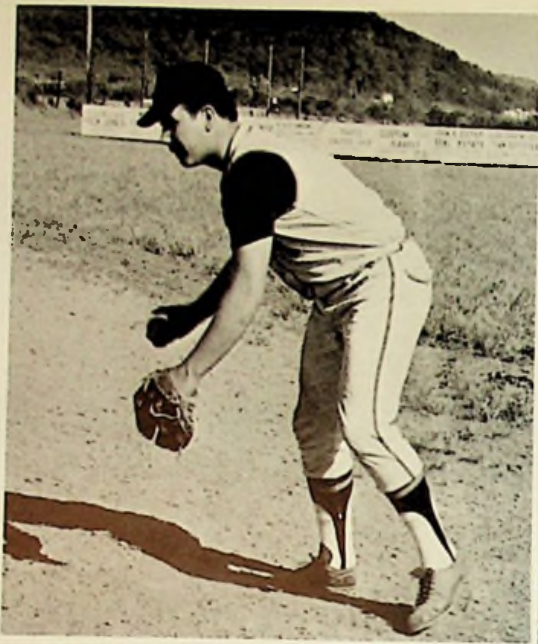

I would like to thank the team for playing a wonderful season and, most of all, for being the finest gentlemen that I have seen on a ball field in many years.

In football the boys must participate in eighteen quarters; in track they must make one point per meet; and in basketball and baseball they must be members of the varsity teams. Managers, too, earn letters after two years of service.

ORGANIZATIONS

Annual Staff Strives to Capture SPIRIT OF '66

Four deadlines with their last-minute flurry of activity have been met, and we offer you the 1966 SENATORIAN.

Careful thought and considerable time have been given to creating a yearbook which we hope the students of the school will enjoy and appreciate. Numerous suggestions, disagreements, compromises, and finally, decisions have determined this book. The planning and organization have been governed by a desire to give each event just yet dynamic coverage and at the same time to keep within the budget. We have tried to reproduce our school year through interesting pictures and write-ups. New concepts in design have been employed in an effort to create a book with a technique all its own.

We give recognition to and we thank the following students for their ideas and contributions: Tim Conley, Becky Creech, Tim Daum, Jim Easter, Bonnie Gallimore, Zora Howell, John Hoover, Pam Ledingham, Gregg Peed, Linda Perry, Steve Rapp, Dave Rice, Susie Salem, Dave Smith, Nancy Sparks.

To Miss Margaret Orlett we offer our sincere thanks for her untiring leadership, originality, and inspiration.

This is a book of which we are proud.

1966 SENATORIAN Staff

Checking the assignment chart, Editor Brenda Dillon informs the members of the staff about their jobs for the next deadline.

Linda Major and Sue Hill, typists, are busy performing the often boring, often entertaining job of typing the pages of the annual.

Always worried about the financial affairs of the annual, Business Manager Sharon Anderson makes a final total of the money obtained from advertisements.

Copy Editor Sharon Vaughters stares into space hoping to find a strong ending for a write-up.

Nancy Tackett carries out the tricky job of cropping a picture for a layout.

Looking over a roll of students' pictures, Martha Sibcy prepares to cut out one to use.

Marsha Mowrey carefully draws one of her many layouts on a triplicate.

Isn't it pleasant when Miss Orlett isn't here?

SENATORIAN Advertising Salesmen

"Oh, my aching feet!" This old complaint soon became a painful reality to the advertising salesmen as they faithfully trudged along with a hope of success. Setting out with high spirits (after all, they were getting out of school!), they quickly learned that not everyone wanted to buy. Undeterred, they kept on. They did a great job and brought in fifteen hundred dollars for the SENATORIAN.

"Get your money in before January 14th!" became the desperate cry heard on the school front. Making numerous appearances in each of the homerooms, the subscription captains took orders and collected money from students and teachers. These captains greatly helped tally four hundred and eighty-five orders and should be commended for their fine work.

Student Council

The student council consists of one representative elected from each homeroom. Its main purposes are to provide an opportunity for students to discuss school problems, to promote the general welfare of the school, and to develop school pride, an interest in school work, and school spirit.

Although it was organized late this year, the council performed various school duties and sponsored a dance to raise money for pins.

The following students are members. ROW 1: S. Sowkulech, D. Norman, C. Anderson, N. Blake, J. Adkins, D. O'Dell, B. Gallimore, secretary; T. Daum, treasurer. ROW 2: B. Shaw, B. Folsom, J. Oakley, S. # Youth for Christ

Winning more souls to Christ is the primary objective of the Youth For Christ Club. Its motto is "teens telling teens the timeless truth that Christ died for their sins." The devoted, hard-working members participate in religious ceremonies at school and at youth rallies. The weekly meetings often feature guest speakers and lively skits. Other activities are the daily prayer meetings before school and the decoration of the bulletin board at Christmas and Easter.

SENATORS' PAGE

"Start the presses rolling!" is the frantic cry that can be heard as "paper day" creeps up on the staff of SENATORS' PAGE. Each edition alerts the students to an awareness of their school life.

Under the supervision of Mr. Rowland and Cindy Keibler, the PAGE has given more and better coverage. Students now look forward to catchy columns on personalities, mads and fads.

Future Teachers of America

Furnishing a continuing supply of teachers for Ohio schools is the major objective of the William F. Snook Chapter of the Future Teachers of America. Its many and hard-working members perform such duties as filling in for absent teachers, grading papers, and assisting in various school and community projects. Two of the latter this year were the Cancer Drive and the Heart Fund Drive. Money-raising projects included selling car stickers, tee shirts, and stationery. Part of the proceeds was used to buy books for the library.

The members total the hours that they spend while performing their tasks. As a reward for two hundred hours' service, they receive an FTA pin. Those with the most hours are honored at the end of the school year.

The members also take trips to such educational places as the Columbus Center of Science and Industry and the Ohio State Museum.

With Mrs. Ressinger's direction, the FTA has become an active club. Its program enables students to become familiar with the teaching profession and helps them to evaluate themselves in relation to teaching as a career.

Librarians

West's library under the guidance of Mrs. Ressinger offers an increasingly more complete and useful source of research for our school.

Student librarians benefit greatly from direct participation. Aiding students with the location of specific information and taking charge of the circulation desk, these librarians give worthwhile service to all. They also help in selling school supplies and in fund-raising campaigns to purchase books for the library.

The efficiency and congenial atmosphere in the library must be attributed to Mrs. Ressinger's devotion and personal concern for the students and the school.

Primus Inter Pares

The Latin Club experienced a progressive year developing a greater understanding of and appreciation for the classics and their relationship to our language.

The club enjoyed the planning and sponsoring of three bake sales, a dance, and a car wash as fund-raising projects.

The highlight of the year was the annual banquet for which the students revived the Roman custom of meals on a grand scale. Courses consisted of appetizers, fruits, meats, and cheeses—all served appropriately by slaves. At the banquet the members brought to life the ultimate in dress fashions during old Roman days. The costumes were magnificent, revealing the cleverness of the members in designing copies of Roman apparel. Debbie Prince, richly dressed in softly flowing cream-colored folds, earned first place in the costume contest.

Mr. Moles' guidance made the club's endeavors easier and his interest made achievement more desired.

Members share delicious food and refreshing drink at the Spanish-Latin picnic.

Whether slaves or patricians, all enjoyed the banquet.

El Círculo español

OFFICERS: Chuck Kitchen, vice-president; Debra Davis, treasurer; Cathy Anderson, secretary; Mike Vaughters, president.

Picnics, plays, piñatas, pins and penpals! Entering wholeheartedly into their many projects, the dynamic members of this year's Spanish club pursued their aim of understanding and becoming better acquainted with Spanish customs and the Spanish language.

Picnicking at Greenbo Lake was the favorite activity for many. At the fall picnic the freshmen provided entertainment with their version of "The Three Billy Goats Gruff" and "The Three Bears." The students had translated these stories into Spanish and at the picnic presented them as outdoor dramas. The sophomores had their turn at the spring outing when they enacted SERENATA DE GUANAJUATO, a two-act play about the foibles of a North American tourist in Mexico.

Partying figured largely in the calendar of events. The Christmas party complete with piñata and bullfight gustily depicted Spanish customs. At the Valentine party the students enjoyed playing not only Spanish dance music but even more, the game "Besemos."

Another project undertaken was finding a penpal in Orizaba, Mexico.

Mrs. Orlett's imaginative and enthusiastic supervision has made the year novel and pleasant. Thirty-seven members proudly wear the pin of El Círculo español.

Purina Chow makes friendly bears! So learned Ruth Ann Busso, playing Goldilocks to Spanish bears: Baby Bear, Steve Humble; Papa Bear, Richard Hughes; Mama Bear, Stephanie Distel.

Olympians

Only spirited souls determined to work, to pay, and to "spout" retain membership in the celestial order of Olympians.

The club has contributed one hundred dollars to West's library, it has financed the cleaning and dyeing of the stage curtains, and it has provided thirty copies of LITERARY CAVALCADE for the class use. A tape recorder was the club's first gift to the school.

Even without the deservedly earned dramatics club pin, members truly like being Olympians. Thanks to the hard work of the members and of their adviser, Mrs. Orlett, this club has brought great enjoyment to West.

Supporting school activities and improving the spirit at West throughout the year are the major functions of the Senateers. Members of the group were present at all football and basketball games, yelling cheers in a manner that was unsurpassed in co-ordination. Preceding games, these students posted victory signs in the halls to build enthusiasm.

This year the Senateers awarded a trophy to tearful Becky Creech for her untiring efforts as head cheerleader. For the benefit of the annual, the Senateers also sponsored Al Mann at the basketball homecoming dance.

Peppy members have greatly helped to instill students with the spirit to attend games and to swell the cheering.

Senateers practice big-league manner.

Sherry Easter poses in her dress which she made and modeled in the annual style show.

"The way to a man's heart is through his stomach." This propaganda provides busy home economics girls with initiative for learning to cook. Students are taught the general and fine culinary arts by Mrs. Comer.

The wish to sew well motivates the girls towards serviceable projects. An opportunity to learn to sew straight seams, alter garments and, yes, even darn socks is given all. Outstanding dress projects were self-modeled at a county-wide style show held at Wheelersburg High School. These and other student projects were displayed at a spring tea given at West for the girls' mothers.

Cooking and sewing are not the only skills acquired by home arts students. Throughout the year they participate in many activities which serve to encourage their interests in building good, stable, attractive homes.

Punch for the tea given by the girls is being prepared by Mary Thompson and Judy Covert.

Brenda McGue displays the festive tree skirt that was her project.

Industrial Arts

In this "do-it-yourself" age, Mr. Davidson and Mr. Reiser are the men at West who teach the industrial arts boys how to do it. After an enthusiastic six-week designing period, the boys eagerly go to the shop to develop their plans. Tools interest these homeowners of tomorrow; a new portable belt sander aroused a hearty reception and a request for similar equipment.

Before applying a finish, Paul Galloway uses a hand sander on his cherry gun cabinet.

Utilizing the new portable belt sander, Sam Preston carefully smooths one side of his birch storage chest.

Vocal Music

Portsmouth West has been honored for the past thirteen years to have as its choral director, Mr. Thomas Giles. Upon his arrival, Mr. Giles founded a large singing group which steadily improved under his instruction. Owing to many engagements made by various clubs, church organizations, and gatherings, Mr. Giles formed from his cast selected singing groups. Originally they were the Top Twenty, Mixed Ensemble, Boys' Ensemble, and Mixed Chorus. After much work, dedication of time, and fine direction, these groups have established records of "superior" and "excellent" ratings on both local and state levels. One group, the Top Twenty, is now known as the Top Twenty-four, but it still carries the feeling and impact of Mr. Giles' first selection. We congratulate Mr. Giles and his choral groups for their past achievements and wish them greater success in the future.

Epitome of Spirit of '66 — West Band

No one can deny that 1965-66 was the year for Portsmouth West Band to shine. Who can ever forget the thrill of seeing the bandsmen, clad in flashy black and orange uniforms, march across the football field playing "West High Blues."

"West High Blues," composed especially for our band, is one of numerous difficult arrangements mastered by our musicians. Further proof of excellence was their execution of Shuman's "George Washington Bridge" at the Spring Concert. Mrs. Morgan's faith in the ability of his students has claimed their unstinting effort and zeal.

The West Band unfailingly displays precision and spirit in parades, celebrations, band days and concerts. Flooding the bandroom are many first and second place plaques and trophies. A clamorous and tearful reception of the invitation to represent Ohio in Washington, D.C., at the Cherry Blossom Festival Parade indicated the pride and pleasure our artists derived from an honor that proclaims our band's superiority.

OFFICERS: Rich Flaker, president; Skip James, vice-president; Brenda Dodds, secretary; Colin Fannin, treasurer; Butch Stall, freshman representative.

Delighted with the symphonic sound of the group, Mr. Morgan planned a concert for May 24th, but it was canceled because of a conflict in schedules. We are looking forward to an appearance of this group next year.

The Stage Band, composed of selected members of the varsity band, performed at the annual Spring Concert. The audience was well pleased with its rendition of "Exodus Theme" the arrangement of which was done by Mr. Jim Caudill and Mr. James Morgan. Concert listeners especially enjoyed soloist Colin Fannin's playing "Young Man with the Blues."

It's pregame time at a bustling varsity basketball game. The fans' attention abruptly shifts from their conversations to the Magnificent 7 who are striking up our school song.

The music resounds throughout the gym, and the vigor and vitality with which it is played is transmitted to all. Clapping and swaying to the catchy rhythms, the fans show their enthusiasm. The ball players, stirred by the vibrant notes, are spurred on to fight and to win. The Magnificent 7 has given another home game a lively start—their "Sweet Georgia Brown" sure has honey!

Portsmouth West High Band Invited To Cherry Blossom Festival Parade

PORTSMOUTH—The Portsmouth West High School Marching Band has been invited to march in the National Cherry Blossom Festival parade April 16, 1966, in Washington.

The band, selected upon the basis of previous awards and performances, by the Festival Evaluation Committee, was given preliminary qualification through geographical location and prior application.

The band, a consistent winner in competitive performances the last three years, is directed by James M. Morgan.

THE RISE in popularity as a marching unit started in 1963 when the band claimed an excellent rating at its first competitive contest in Ironton. A year later, after another excellent rating at Wilmington, the group returned to Ironton and won the top rating of superior.

Performances in the Portsmouth Sesquicentennial and the River Days parade, in competition with 15 to 20 neighboring bands, gave the West High congregation top awards, following a 1964 River Days rating of second in a long lineup of competitors.

Dale W. Gillette, Scioto County High School supervisor, who organized the first Portsmouth West marching band, expressed pride in the unit's selection for the Cherry Blossom parade.

THE INVITATION is believed to be the first for a Portsmouth area school to participate in the event.

Expenses of transportation, lodging and miscellaneous costs are to be paid by band boosters fund raising projects, and special contributions from nonschool sources, Mr. Morgan said.

CREDITS FOR marching have listed the Jackson Apple Festival, Circleville's pumpkin show, Ashland, Ky., Shrine parade, Coney Island band festival at Cincinnati, Marshall University band day at Huntington, W. Va.;

Not a wrinkle out of place.

Have you seen the two new cute boys?

Do you think a finger in the throat would help?

We'll play this one; you rest.

Shiny shoes will get you a job!

Is it really Jackie Kennedy?

But I don't want to graduate!

You heard me—no football.

Just what I need—a drink!

So they did run out of money!

The clinging vine type always finds possibilities.

No money! No car! No date!

What did you say your name was?

Mirror, mirror, on the wall, who's the fairest of them all?

Stop! No more than five inches above the knee!

The skins we love to touch . . .

Completely satisfied with their efforts, Cindy Keibler and Brenda Dillon proudly gaze upon their Grand Award winner. The girls should also be commended for receiving a superior rating in district competition at Athens.

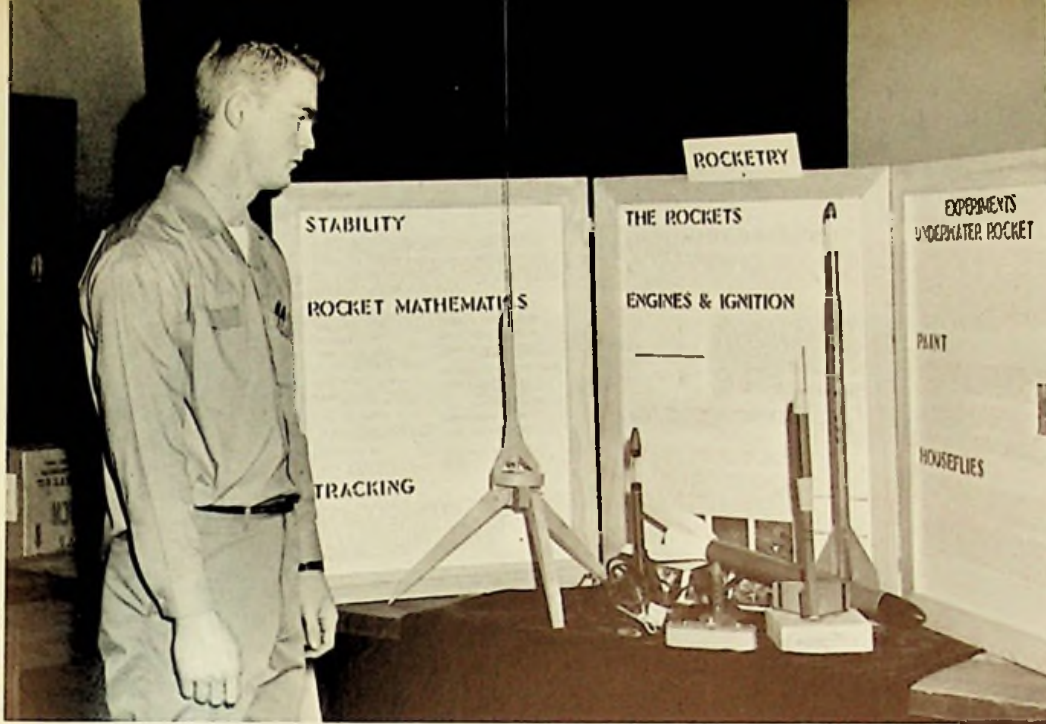

Gary Bates' first place winner illustrates the use of neon and argon essential in the sign business—Gary's hobby.

Science Fair

Holy science projects! What's this? Blast furnaces, lie detectors, neon signs, rockets, a calf heart! Yes, these are a few of the ingenious projects displayed at West's 1966 Science Fair. All entries were judged in each of the following areas: scientific thought, creative ability, thoroughness, clarity and dramatic value, and technical skill. Judges for the event were Mr. Ketter, Mrs. Dailey, and Mr. Swain. Congratulations to all participants and especially to Mr. Ketter, the organizer of the fair.

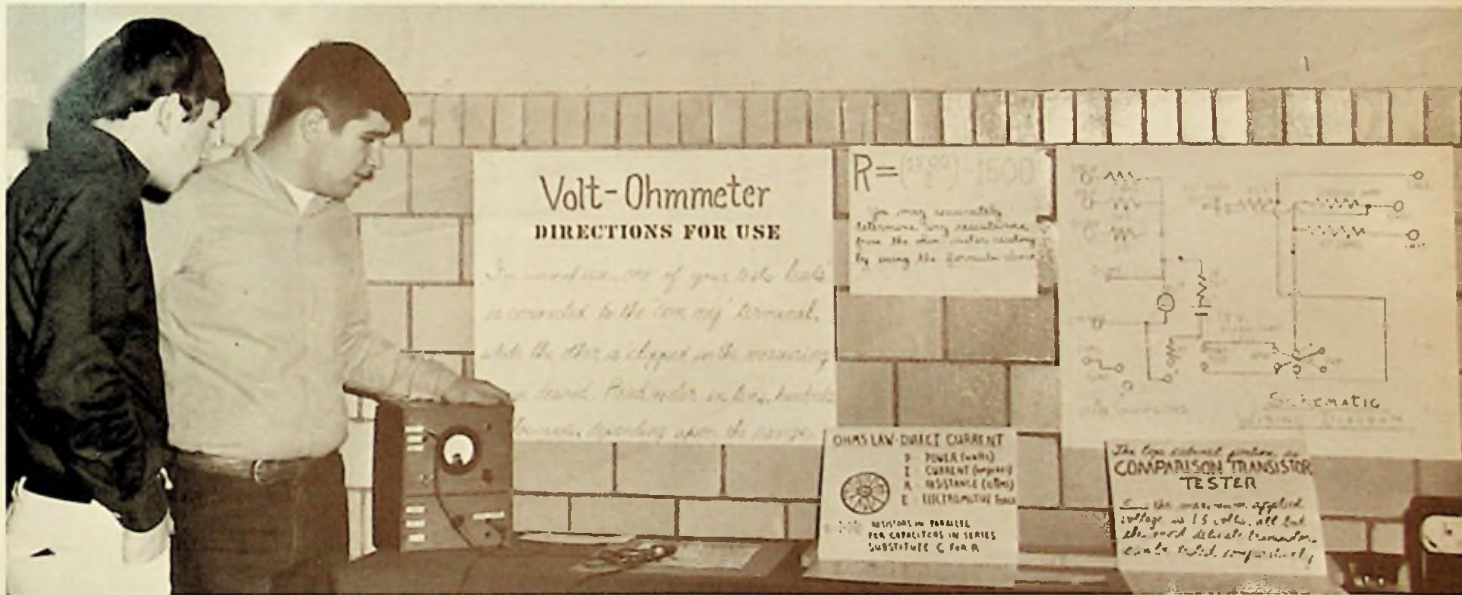

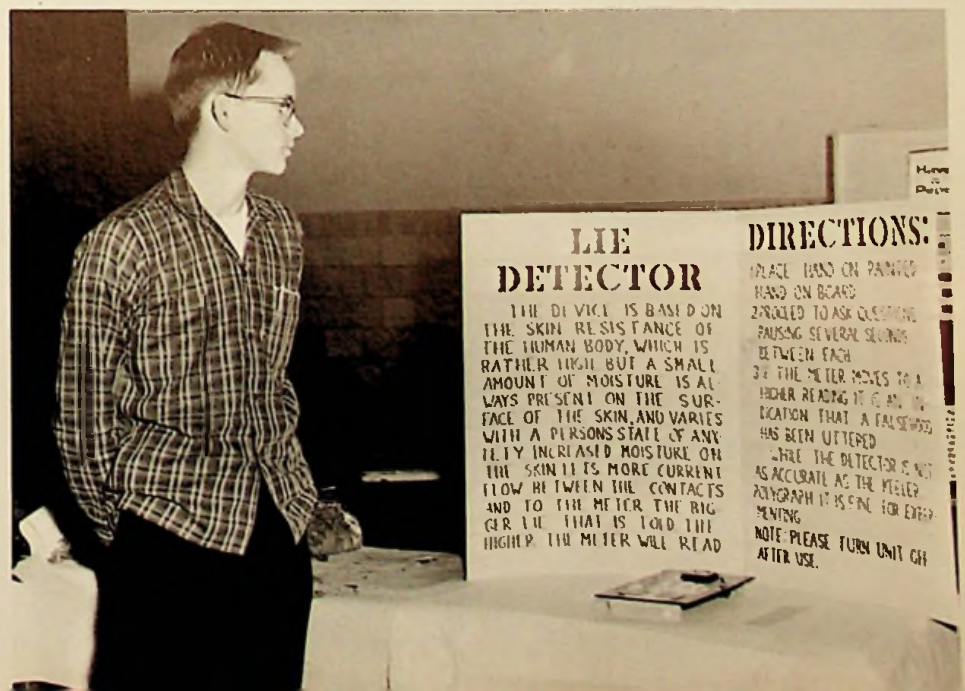

Fortunately we have rocket men like second place winner Eddie Salisbury—most of us are out in space.

Jerry Rollins and Steve Rapp are available to answer any questions on their third place Volt-Ohmmeter exhibit.

Alan Kennedy put the finger on many students with his lie detector. His entry brought a thrill to whoever tried it and a fourth place award to Alan.

Debate

Janie Smalley
 Tim Daum
 Cindy Biggs
 Mr. Rowland
 Jim Collins
 Edna Smith
 Jim Easter

Any student at West is eligible for the debate team. There are no entrance requirements such as a certain scholastic average. Once a member, however, a debater must be willing to spend many hours in research, writing, and practice.

This year's resolution was: That the Federal government should adopt a board of arbitration in labor management disputes in basic industries. The negative was represented by Janie Smalley and Tim Daum, first team, and Cindy Biggs, alternate; while the affirmative was upheld by Edna Smith and Jim Easter, first team, and Jim Collins, alternate.

The team accompanied by the coach, Mr. Rowland, attended a seminar at Portsmouth High School and participated in the district tournament at Chillicothe.

Representatives in Competition

DAR

The DAR test, sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution, was taken this year by Geneva Windsor and Sharon Vaughters. The girls were in competition with students across the nation. The test was based on a knowledge of American government. Geneva, who placed highest in our school, was presented with a certificate for good citizenship at the annual Awards Assembly.

Typing

Paula Windle, Brenda Harkless, Carol Cook, and Janis McCoy represented West in the county typing contest at Clay High School.

School Helpers

The school helpers, a group of students who voluntarily assume responsibilities for various services, are greatly appreciated by the student body and the administration.

ASSISTANTS TO MRS. BRICKEY: Susie McCleese, Patricia Wolfe, Nina Williams, Cindy Shultz, Linda Perry.

ASSISTANTS TO MR. NICKEL: Sandy Kamer, Marilyn Morrow, Virginia Fuhr, Edna Summerfield.

ICE CREAM SELLERS: Bonnie Gallimore, Barbara Lindsey.

FLAG RAISERS: Delbert Mathews, Tom Collins.

Home Economics Girls Bow in Style Show

Showing off nicely for West are the girls who modeled their creations at the county-wide annual style show held March 25th at Wheelersburg High School: Judy Covert, Linda Messer, Rusty Kemper, Gail Bolton, Sherry Easter, Diane Brown, Mary Thompson.

Buckeye State Representatives

Sponsored by the American Legion and the Auxiliaries, Buckeye Boys' State and Buckeye Girls' State are similar yet separate projects that give high school students an opportunity to learn government firsthand. Representatives are selected from all over Ohio. During the course of a summer week, a model state complete with state offices, departments, and legislation is organized and run. Everyone has a job be it governor or street cleaner, and everyone learns invaluable lessons from direct participation in the affairs of the Buckeye State.

Flying High at River Days

River Days, a recent attraction in the Scioto County area, finds its origin in the Korn Karnival which was a fall festival observed in Portsmouth for many years. Those days were filled with boat races and numerous activities. River Days, as the event is now called, is one of the outstanding celebrations in the United States. For a week in early September, the city is filled with an air of excitement. Snappy marching bands and famous television personalities come to participate in making the National Outboard Races a thrilling week in the River City.

Becky Creech, chosen by the student body, represented West at the 1965 Labor Day celebration. During her many public appearances, Becky, poised and gracious, brought honor not only to herself but also to our school. We are very proud of Becky and would like to congratulate her on being selected first runner-up in the Miss River Days contest.

Miss Becky Creech

Miss Flame

A siren wails in the background. The annual parade celebrating Fire Prevention Week proceeds through West Portsmouth. The highlight of the parade is Miss Flame and her court, a group of girls selected by the student body at West. Besides being featured in the parade, these girls are honored at a West football game. This year it was wet and muddy at that West-Notre Dame game, but the weather did not dampen the spirits of Miss Flame and her attendants. Kathy presided regally during a week filled with the spirit of our community and West.

Mr. Bill Diller, Fire Chief, presents Kathy with a trophy and red roses.

Miss Kathy Miller

Olympians Experiment With New Genres

All Olympians strive to learn something about every phase of dramatics. Play selection, costuming, make-up art, stage management, and production form nuclei of interest for every member. For variety and information the club chose to present to the student body a tragi-comedy, a pure farce, a "cheer the Hero, hiss the Villain" melodrama, and a barber shop quartet.

Denise Pennington trained her three actresses and produced "Not My Cup of Tea," a murderous one act tragi-comedy. James Collins took over the entire production of "The Plot to Assassinate the Chase Manhattan Bank" (a one act, third place prize-winning farce in a national 1963-64 playwriting contest). Karen Staggs, Sandy Kamer and everyone who conveniently could, added touches to the one act melodrama, "Switched at the Crossroads." Completing the entertainment was a barber shop quartet with "go-go" girls who waved signs "laugh," "boo," and "applaud," thus inviting the audience to take part in the fun.

No dramatic club member was without a job. Besides actors and singers there were scrub women, decorators, repairmen, buyers, and announcers. Everyone earned his pin.

And our new number—"Just for a handful of silver, he left us."

"Not My Cup of Tea"

Juniors host
Polynesian Night

Curious spectators gaze enviously at the lovely girls in beautiful flowing gowns and the handsome boys as they approach the Elks City Auditorium to enter a Polynesian dreamland. As the couples near the entrance, their steps quicken to the beat of the McCoy-Waddell Orchestra. The guests are pleasantly surprised. A host dressed as a beachcomber presents each girl with a colorful lei and a gentle Polynesian kiss, while a hostess adorned in a vividly flowered sarong welcomes each boy in the same warm Polynesian manner.

Creating an atmosphere enhanced by soft lights and gaiety are appropriate decorations giving an exotic air of happy Polynesian life. The tables are covered with fine nets and laden with treasures of sea shells, coral chips, and tiny palm trees. A picturesque volcano attracts everyone's attention while a variety of gaily colored tropical birds hover overhead.

The Polynesian menu consists of Pirates Prize (fruit on a stick), Beachcomber Salad (cheese salad sandwich), Filet of Sow (ham sandwich), Diced Bamboo (chicken salad sandwich), Lobster Shells (potato chips), Hawaiian Nectar (punch), Caribbean Flair (cakes), Shark's Teeth (nuts), and Coral Chips (mints).

As the band plays "Blue Velvet," the guests proceed to leave treasuring all the warm moments and happy recollections of the wonderful Prom.

Commencement . . .

A Day to Remember

As the Class of '66 marches across the stage to receive diplomas, many feel varied and mixed emotions. As they return to their places, a few tears are shed for this—the climax of their high school career.

With this one cycle of education and life completed, most have learned what responsibility and self-dependence mean. Thus each is eager with anticipation and anxiously looks forward to the start of a new cycle of his life—college or an occupational career.

The lives of the graduates have been molded by many hands—those of administrators, of teachers, and of parents. No matter what their career choice may be, the seniors' future lives will be greatly influenced by their days at West and the knowledge gained there.

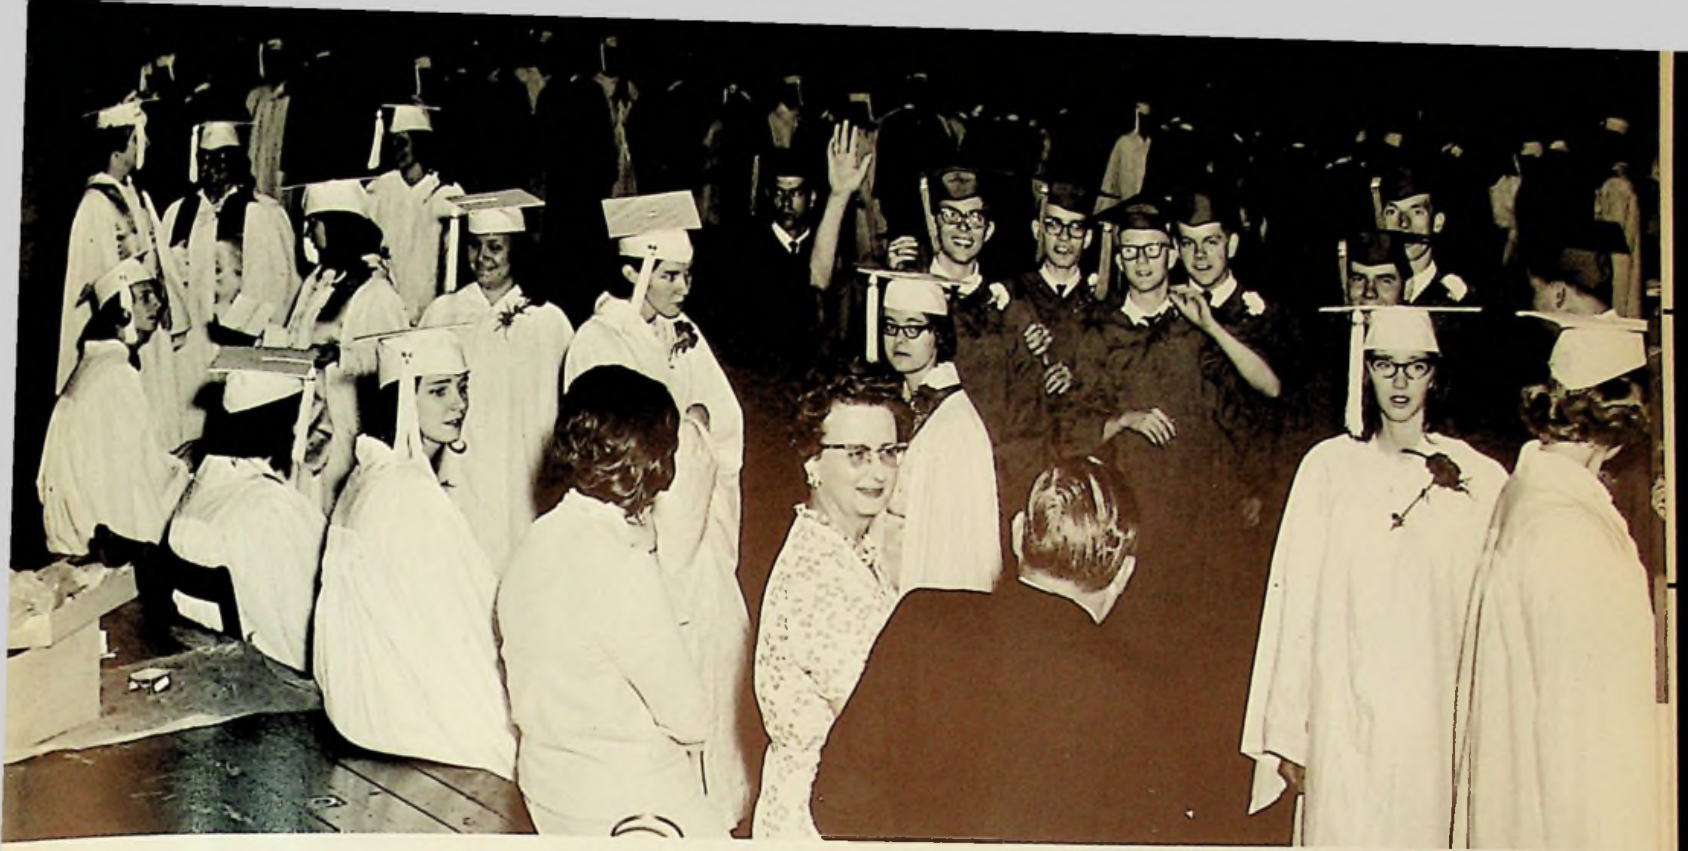

Though for many seniors high school graduation is the culmination of their formal education, their school years will serve them well in their chosen vocation. As the graduates enter the harried world of today, they will treasure their last years at West as golden.

A feeling of accomplishment comes to Tim as he accepts his diploma.

With tears and smiles,
Debbie receives the final benign touches.

Procession time, May 22, 1966, is approaching; some are happy, some are sad.

A senior speaks . . .

No drag racing!

Now for the first time, the graduates realize that this is the beginning, not the end.

*Progress Is A
"Two-Way Street"*

THE GROWTH of any company depends, to a large degree, upon the community in which it is located and upon the attitude of the citizens of that community. For it is from that community and from those citizens that a company must gain strength, build its work force and develop its future. Thus, the more understanding the community is toward its industry and its problems, the more cooperative and loyal the citizens who comprise its work force, the better the company's chances for continued growth and expansion.

ON THE OTHER HAND, the growth of any community and the development of a bright future for its citizens depend equally as much upon the day-in-day-out successful, profitable operation of its industry. For from that industry stem jobs and paychecks today, employment opportunities for tomorrow, local purchases, community service contributions and vitally essential tax dollars.

OBVIOUSLY, THEN, the growth of a community and the growth of industries within that community are inseparably bound together, one dependent upon the other. And progress becomes a "two-way street".

LOOKING BACK, Detroit Steel is proud of the contributions it has made to the betterment of the Greater Portsmouth community and to the benefit of the citizens as it has pursued an unbroken 15-year course of growth and expansion . . . over $150,000,000 invested to provide one of the most modern, competitive steel mills in the U. S. . . and an annual employee payroll that is currently running around $24,000,000.

Remembering . . .

'Tis better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all.

Formula for good grades.

Going, going, gone! To the highest bidder for two dollars!

It's right out in my locker!

All the big men of the nation got their higher education in the little old red . . .

They call it that good ole mountain dew!

An act of God—good for five days only!

Rule 12: Are your blinds always straight?

The north corner still holds firm after twenty-six years.
