Dedication

Mrs. Gladys Riley

We, the Senior Class, wish to show our appreciation to Mrs. Riley by dedicating the "Redbird" of '56 to her.

Certainly there is no other that deserves it more than she.

She has served her school and community for many years as an elementary teacher. She has taught school here for 31 years.

It is a well known fact that child's first few years of life are the most important in getting it started on the right foot. We feel sure that many children have been assured a happier, brighter future because of Mrs. Riley's kindness and understanding toward them.

We're proud of you, Mrs. Riley and we're especially proud to have you in our school system.

A sage man once remarked that it is too bad that youth has to be wasted on a lot of young people.

The observation of this wise man is not as contradictory as it might appear. It is a fact that young people do not have the maturity to take advantage of the wonderful opportunities that are theirs by the fact alone of being born in a democratic country such as ours. They are not sufficiently experienced to understand the wonder of all the things that are happening to them and around them.

This yearbook will serve as a record of many memorable occasions that will, in years to come, take on additional value and meaning.

The purpose of this yearbook is to preserve a record of moments of youthful living in order that they may be projected into the future as a happy, living testament of what happened during these years. This book preserves for the future the essence of life lived now, in order that in years to come it may be cherished, remembered, and more deeply understood.

Today, this yearbook has only limited value as a record of your high school life. If you preserve it, in the years to come, it will become a treasure to be cherished by each of you.

Class History

In the fall of 1944, approximately forty half-happy, half-frightened six-year olds were shown to the first grade room, the same room as the fourth grade occupies now. Before we progressed very far the grade school building lay in ashes. We were forced to spend the remainder of the year in the Christian Union Church basement.

Of the group that started out nine remain: Ray Arnold, Clarence Brown, Charles Penn, Kenton Riley, Shelby Cox, Norma Essman, Melva Jamison, Elizabeth Mitchell, and Barbara Penn. We nine who remain owe a debt of gratitude to Mrs. Riley.

We breezed through the second grade in the Sunday School room of the Methodist Church with Mrs. McCollister as teacher.

We spent the third grade in the basement of the Methodist Church with Mrs. Mains at the helm. Naomi Bach joined us in the third grade. In this year most of the "fussin and fighten" started. I don't think we could forget about the huge rock which we were constantly arguing over.

We started the fourth grade in a new room in the new grade building. Mr. Kuhner was our teacher.

During the fifth grade the band was organized. Mrs. Foster was our teacher.

In the sixth grade Mr. Taylor Took over as Principal. Mrs. McDaniels was our teacher and we gained George Thurman and Phyllis Parsley.

During our Junior high years we gained Edgar Whitt, Louise Davis and Irvin Davis. How teachers put up with us I'll never know. I guess we thought we owned the school since we were in Junior High.

Then the big year came, our freshman year. Foster Euton, Margaret Euton, Jim Guilkey, Jerry Platzer, Fern Redoutey, Janet Emmons, and Avonell Smith came up from Union. That was the year of young romance.

Gertrude Redoutey and Wanda Fife joined us in the sophomore year. As juniors we worked hard toward our trip to Niagara Falls.

What one of us will forget "The Daffy Dills," our Class Play, which Mrs. Miller directed.

Now we're Seniors. We've lost several to matrimony, many have been left to classes behind and many have moved away or quit school.

We've been quite busy this year with our Class Play, the Annual and social activities. In these past years, we've come in contact with many people, people who have helped us through discouragement and have helped to make our days brighter.

It is our hope that we may make other peoples lives brighter as we continue through our lives.

We, Seniors, wish to thank all the teachers who have had to put up with us through these twelve years. You have all understandingly looked after us as we have tried to grow up and we hope we may ALL become useful citizens.

Again we say, "Thanks".

Class Prophecy

Well, here it is 1966. My how time flies. It's been ten years since I graduated from OHS. Seems like yesterday. I wish I knew where all the gang was now.

Opps! There's the phone. Wonder who that could be? It couldn't be hubby--he hasn't had time to get to work yet.

Hello! Who? ! ? ! NORMA ESSMAN! Well, I was just thinking about you and the gang. Have you heard anything from any of them lately?----- Gee, it was good to talk to Norma and get caught up on the news of the Class of '56.

Norma's a nurse at the Grant Hospital here in Columbus. She said she had been taking care of JERRY PLATZER and JIM GUILKEY for the past week. They had a wreck at the Speedway and got bruised up a bit but they'll recover soon with her as their nurse.

She also told me that IRVIN DAVIS and EDGAR WHITT are joint owners of the "Can-Can" Club at Dayton Ohio. Their star dancers are NAOMI BACH and WANDA FIFE.

SHELBY COX is married now and has two little Specks. (She married Carrol of course.)

AVONELL SMITH is running for Democratic senator from Ohio and BARBARA PENN is Republican candidate. May the best OHS graduate win.

CLARENCE BROWN is the owner of a dancing school in New York. His star dancer is KENTON RILEY.

CHARLES PENN has taken Billy Graham's place in Evangelistic work. He is now known as the world's greatest Evangelist.

FOSTER EUTON is starring in Hollywood as "Tarzan"--- Don't beat your chest too hard Foster.

In the way of sports, I found out that GEORGE THURMAN and RAY ARNOLD are star players of the New York Yankees. Ray is known as "Slamming Ray Arnold" and George is known as "Babes Thurman".

Also, I learned that GERTRUDE REDOUTEY is taking the place of Liberace. She plays from continent to continent.

MELVA JAMISON and ELIZABETH MITCHELL are the worlds greatest ballet dancers. They own a ballet school at Hartford, Connecticut.

LOUISE DAVIS is the 'Star of the Hit Parade' on color television. She is a great hit.

JANET EMMONS is now an airplane hostess for the Pan American airlines. They have had more passengers now than in any of their former years.

MARGARET EUTON and FERN REDOUTEY are champion women wrestlers. They are noted coast to coast as "Killer Margaret" and "Mad Fern".

Well, the class of '56 has surely come up in society---one way or another. But me? Well, I'm just normal (for a change). I'm married and have two little girls. My name is -----

Phyllis Parsley
