Miss River Days Pageant 2nd Runner-Up Taylor Weaver

The theme of the Miss River Days Pageant was "Leading Lady in a Movie, a Black and White Affair" with Taylor portraying Wilma Flintstone. Prior to the Miss River Days activities, Taylor conducted fundraisers, contacted local businesses for sponsorships, and participated in community service projects. Her project, "Operation Baby Buckle", included the contestants giving car seats and safety information to expectant mothers. After the traditional River Days Parade, her participation in the pageant included a personal interview, an on-stage question, dance routines and a speech about her community service project. Taylor shared that "Being in River Days was a great experience that taught her hard work, dedication, and improved her self-confidence in public speaking." Taylor represented WHS well as she earned 2nd Runner-Up in the Miss River Days Pageant.

SOC II and District Champions VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Pirates claimed the SOC Division II Championship with a 50-36 win over Oak Hill. There's a saying that it's difficult to defeat a team three times in one season. In the sectional championship, the Pirates met Valley for that third time. It took a double overtime to pull out the victory, 68-61, for the Pirates to claim the title. At OU the Pirates advanced to the District Final as they defeated the top-seeded Peebles, 63-58, in overtime. Though Ironton had defeated the Pirates by 18 points in the regular season, the Pirates beat the Fighting Tigers, 58-52, to claim the District Championship. WHS (18-5) faced the Portsmouth Trojans at the Convo in the regional semi-final. For the Pirates, their tournament play ended in the 39-45 loss. The Pirates held a 39-36 lead with 2:40 remaining, but didn't score in the final two minutes of the game. Coach Tom Barrick was named SOC Coach of the Year and Andy Stegman earned the SOC Player of the Year Award. SOC II First Team honors went to Andy Stegman and Webb Ballard while Second Team honors went to Austin McBee, Brandon Schankweiler, and Shane Ward.

Kalyn Bailey

Kalyn,

It seems like it was only yesterday when this picture was taken. You are now ready to explore the world. We have had so much fun watching you go from this pretty little baby to a pretty, special, young lady. We are so proud of you. You will always be our sunshine. Before you go, there is something we want you to always remember:

We will love you forever.

We will love you for always.

As long as we are living,
our baby, you will be.

Love,

Your Family

Can't believe it's time for you to graduate. You will leave behind several great memories to cherish forever. Your smile looking up at the fans at the football games was priceless, your dedication and skill on the soccer field was amazing and your actions in the cheerblock was so much fun to watch. No matter what you were doing to represent the Pirates, you made your family so proud. Now is the time to follow your dreams and continue to work just as hard to be that person, and player that you have worked so hard to be. We are so glad that you were that Pirate you always wanted to be. Best of Luck at Notre Dame College! We love you!
