River Days 2007

Our 2007 River Days candidate was Sam Page. She is the daughter of Joe and Tammy Page. Sam is the catcher for West's successful softball team. She has also participated in basketball, volleyball, and cheerleading. She enjoys shopping, swimming, and hanging out with her friends. This summer Sam was involved in twelve community service projects, including her favorite, the Challengers League for handicapped children. She wants to take this opportunity to thank all of her sponsors and the PWHS student body for all of their support. In the future, Sam plans to attend Shawnee State University in the Physical Therapy Assistant program.

Center: Sam smiles with a cutie before the parade begins.

SENIOR MEMORIES

When Ashlee Ratliff's sugar was low and she tackled me on the ground and started punching me in the band room.
-Heather Murphy

I'll never forget my freshmen year when I fell down the stairs and Olivia Morgan came running behind me yelling, "Don't laugh at my friend!" - Amber Windsor

I thought that Abe Lincoln was black and soon everyone knew about it. -Megan Turner

Being football homecoming queen and getting to ride in a Lamborghini! - Cassie Erlenwein

On college fair day me, Megan J., Britany, Erin, Carrie, and Justin were in Wal-Mart at 8am watching "Ratatouille". Then on our way out Justin thought it would be fun to sit in one of the kiddie rides and got stuck. Yes, we have pictures! -Michelle Stockham

Oh geez, my memory would have to be my sophomore year when I pulled the chemistry shower at the Webster game and flooded the whole basement. There... I confessed! -Ashley Elliot

I remember from softball getting a black eye from a pop up in right field and being pregnant and nobody believing it.
-Kayla Smith

At our home competition freshmen year the band got a J. All of us ran out onto the field jumping up and down hugging each other and crying.
-Britany Moore

Cinco de Mayo party with Mrs. Kibbey. -Brandon L. Moore

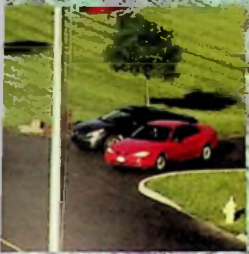

Me, Heather Murphy, and Ashley Stevens were sitting in guard room and Heather cut my nose and eyelid open with a pvc pipe so I had to wear a turtle band-aid on my nose. -Ashlee Ratliff

One day I got inside my locker and shut it then forgot my combination so Amber spent 10 minutes trying to get me out. -Olivia Morgan

Well I'll definitely never forget when I busted my head open at a basketball game Jr. year and had to get staples! -Kayla Ballengee

The time when we were all walking down the hallway after lunch and Ashley Monteith had made Larry Cooper mad and he made her do a front flip in the hallway in front of everyone. -Katie Parlow

SENIOR CANDIDS

For the senior prank, seniors parked their cars in the teacher parking lot. They block the parking lot so no teacher could get in. It was very funny and gave a lot of people a good laugh!

Left: Trevin Coleman stops by the office, to pay Mrs. Monteith one last visit.

Right: The seniors in chorus sing one last song together at the spring concert.

Taking It To The Limits

Once we accept our limits, we go beyond them.

Albert Einstein

Dream big dreams. Imagine that you have no limitations and then decide what's right before you decide what's possible.

Brian Tracey (The Treasury of Quotes)

"I'M NOT GOING TO LIMIT MYSELF JUST BECAUSE PEOPLE WON'T ACCEPT THE FACT THAT I CAN DO SOMETHING ELSE."

DOLLY PARTON

"I seldom think about my limitations, and they never make me sad. Perhaps there is just a touch of yearning at times; but it is vague, like a breeze among flowers."

Helen Keller

The only limit to our realization of tomorrow will be our doubts of today. Let us move forward with strong and active faith."

Franklin D. Roosevelt
(FDR Speaks)

"When in a hole, stop digging."

Sanjeeva Ananthan

"I COULD BE BOUNDED IN A NUTSHELL AND COUNT MYSELF A KING OF INFINITE SPACE."

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

Genius may have its limitations, but stupidity is not thus handicapped."

Albert Hubbard
