Spirit of '42

Our Flag, the Flag of Liberty
The Flag that flies for you and me;
Upheld by Right from day to day --
The Stars and Stripes are here to stay!

OUR SCHOOL — IT'S SPIRIT . . . . .

Valley's school spirit has reached a new peak. With undaunted determination and spirit we have forged ahead. Great have been our victories because great have been our efforts. We have been inspired by our high ambitions to be at the top and have done our duty in attaining it. We have pledged our hearts and strength to keep the banners of the Purple and Gold waving. Our worth has increased because our cause has been noble.

DEDICATION

WE, THE CLASS OF '42 WISH TO DEDICATE THIS ANNUAL TO ALL AMERICANS IN THE ARMED FORCES. WITHOUT SUCH LOYAL AND DETERMINED CITIZENS AS YOU, AMERICA WOULD NOT BE THE GREAT DEMOCRACY SHE IS TODAY. SO TO YOU IN OUR ARMED FORCES WE SAY, "KEEP 'EM FLYIN' !" - WE MUST AND SHALL WIN!

Principal Norman C. Roettger aids and directs the entire Valley Rural School system. Evidence of his executive ability is shown by the efficient, well-organized management of the school district.

Front row: Left to right: Mr. Earl McKenzie, Mr. Sandy Phillips.
Second row: Mr. Louis McKinley, Mr. Earl Stevens, Mr. Walter Malone.

BOARD of EDUCATION

To the Board of Education goes the credit for the management of the entire school. This group receives little or no reward for its work, save the satisfaction of materially aiding the progress of education in the district. Giving unselfishly of their time and energy, they promote the efficiency and progress of the school system.

The officers are: President, Earl McKenzie; Vice-President, Walter Malone; Clerk, Sandy Phillips.

"OUR TWELVE YEARS OF SCHOOL"

Senior History

We were really proud when we were six years of age and permitted to begin our school life for which we had waited so many years. In fact it was the big day of our life. And oh! how glad we will be when we are out.

We were directed through the first six grades of school successfully and accomplished a great deal. Our next stepping stone was Junior High. All seemed to grasp it very well because we entered the Senior High School eighty-seven students strong. The freshmen officers were: President, Marie Gamble; Vice-President Rudolph Ward; Secretary-Treasurer, Ruth Zeune. We were no exception because we were called "green freshmen" just as those in the past had been.

The sophomore class party and play "Dotty and Daffy" were important events of the sophomore year. The officers of this year were: President, Charles Stir; Vice-President, Alice Jane Collis; Secretary-Treasurer, Deelena Smith. There were also five girls on the basketball squad including Irene Glaze, Betty Snedaker, Ruth Kinstler, Josephine Flannery, and Annabel Rockwell.

The not-to-be-forgotten occasions of the junior year were the class play, "Damsels In Distress" and the Junior-Senior Banquet at the Cameo held May 9, 1941. Officers included the President, Charles Stir; Vice-President, Harold Fetters; Secretary-Treasurer, Deelena Smith.

During our senior year, our Varsity and Reserves won the Scioto County Championship with the help and co-operation of the following senior boys: Ralph Arrick, Charles Stir, Bill Purdy, Rudolph Ward and Francis McHarg on the varsity. The reserves included Robert Doll and Harold Brigner, with the assistance of two managers, Carl Kibbey and Robert Johnson.

There have been several seniors honored in scholarship tests including Ena Double, second in Shorthand 1; Alice Jane Collis, first in Typing 1; and Marie Gamble in English. We have some who have perfect attendance honors such as Bessie and Bettie Young, twelve years each; Mary McDaniels, ten years; and Anna Louise Landrum, nine years.

We are well represented in the band, orchestra, glee clubs and other musical organizations. There were several who participated in the All County Music Festival and took part in the Christmas program.

"A Letter To The General", a royalty play, was selected as the senior class play for this year. This is a farce comedy based on the lighter side of Army life. The play as a whole is patriotic and is especially appropriate at this time.

Our senior class is the largest to enter and graduate from Valley High School in its entire history. We are grateful to have urged so many to take advantage of the great opportunity which we Americans have been given free and now we leave our thanks and gratitude to all who helped to make our graduation possible.

We are looking forward to Baccalaureate, and Commencement, after which our names will no longer be recorded as students at Valley Hi. The senior class officers are: President, Charles Stir; Vice-President, Carl Kibbey; Secretary, Marie Gamble; Treasurer, Josephine Flannery.

ANNABEL ROCKWELL.

CLASS WILL

At this time you are summoned to be present for the reading of the last will and testament of the class of 1942. We, the members of the class, being sound in body and in mind, hereby do solemnly declare this to be our last will and testament.

We bequeath to the Junior Class our "Spirit of '42." Use this spirit in the future to help our fighting forces to "Keep 'em Flying". To the Sophomores we bequeath all our pep in high school activities, and the Freshmen we leave a wish that in years to come they will learn the traditions of this worthy institution and carry out the high principle for which it stands.

To all those, who are not above mentioned, we leave our courage and patriotic feelings for our country.

I, Francis McHarg, bequeath my hard seats in study hall, in which I never could sleep in comfort, to Elmer Reynolds.

I, Bob Johnson, bequeath my job as business manager to Donald Staten with lots of luck—he'll need it.

I, Mary Margaret Widdig, bequeath my shoes, worn out by distributing absentee slips, to Brabson Miller.

I, Opaline Hilliard, leave to the school as a whole my thousand tons of hot air, so that it may rise to a higher level.

I, Everett Moone, leave to future seniors the good old chapel seats, with the hope that they will have the same pleasure we have had in leaving chapel first.

I, Marie Gamble, leave my superior intelligence to Wilbur Walker so that he may get good grades for a change; of course it won't be wasted.

I, Maurice Harwood, will my love for cute girls to Bob Smith.

I, Jean Estep, bequeath my treasured joke-telling to Mary Jane McKinley.

I, Louise Gibson, will my ability to carry five subjects well to Rozella Turner.

I, Mary Jean Rupert, will my love of a good time to Garnet Looney.

I, Deelena Smith, will my million dollar smile and my profile to Majorie Wiley.

I, Dorothy Yuenger, leave my friendly disposition and ability to flirt with anyone, to Margarene Williams.

I, Beulah Conley, leave my love for Macbeth and Shakespeare to Tennyson Horton.

I, Marie Walker, bequeath my humor and snappy comebacks to Thomas Rickey.

I, Jane Beebe, leave my lusty cheering at basketball games to any other loyal booster.

I, Ena Double, will my ability to master shorthand to Anna Barklow.

I, Anna Mae Carter, give my love for writing short-stories to any future author who wants it.

I, Lucy Conley, leave my quiet disposition to Joan Lowe

I, Charles Waddell, give my flivver (and tires) to any one who needs them more than I do.

I, Harold Brigner, leave my fluent use of ten-dollar words to Eugene Beebe.

I, Ralph Arrick, will my famous southpaw shot to "Flash Beasley."

I, Ruth Barber, will my fiery temper and glamour to Eileen Clark.

I, Ruth Bloomfield, leave my happy-go-lucky disposition to Mable Ruth Eblin.

I, Alice Jane Collis, will my initiative and leadership to Dorothy Jean Stratton.

I, Henrietta Wolfe, leave my soft drawl to Mary Jo Heath.

I, Bettie Young, will my record for perfect attendance to John Adkins.

I, Bessie Young, will my ability to make straight E's to Carl Webb.

I, Georgia Channel, leave my pert voice and long fingernails to Fred Freauf.

I, Robert Doll, leave my glistening black hair and love for jitterbugging to Bill Clausing.

I, Rudy Ward, leave my ability to create a good laugh in English, and my intense interest in the Classics to Edward Horton.

I, Rosemary Schleinhege, bequeath my liking for a tall, blond, handsome senior boy to Violet Bruce.

I, Rosemary Underwood, bequeath my ever-present smile to Norma McCall, who might easily give it to someone else.

I, Irene Glaze, give my liking for office work and basketball to Dorothy Kennison.

I, Anna Louise Landrum, will my 5 ft, 8, more or less, of Venus proportions, to Faye Lawson.

I, Ruth Kinstler, give my long black curls and black eyes to Janet Freauf.

I, Edith Rhoden, leave my quiet manner and typing speed to George Kimbler.

I, Louise Buckle, bequeath my sweet and shy manner to Ina Jane Glaze.

I, Mauna Carroll, leave my library work and willingness to help others to Helen Cantrell.

I, Mable Clausing, will my ability to get along with almost everyone to Junior Stevens, who doesn't need it in the least.

I, Carl Kibbey, leave my ability to keep an audience roaring at my long yarns to Clifton Weichman.

I, Joan Blakeman, leave my music and my remarkable eyelashes to Roger Bradshaw, who could get along without either.

I, Annabel Rockwell, bequeath my hobby of poetry writing to Rudolph Carter.

I, Josephine Flannery, will my demure smile and dimples to Jackie Kearins.

I, Eloise Skeldon, leave my love for changing boy-friends with the changing of jaloppies, to Dorothy Colegrove.

I, Bill Luckett, leave my blond, wavy hair to Junior Preston.

I, Juanita Hill, will my expressive brown eyes to anyone who needs them—incidentally, they're quite an asset.

I, Rosella Riddlebarger, leave my shortness to Joan Bradshaw—use it if it isn't too late.

I, Mary McDaniel, will the deep love, admiration, and respect of a certain C. C. C. boy to Kate Benner.

I, Harold Fetters, bequeath all my gorgeous Clay girl friends to Raymond Murphy.

I, Mary Kathryn Walls, bequeath my curly hair and my interest in farming to June Conley.

I, Edith Smith, bequeath my happy, ear-to-ear smile and all those extra pounds to Doris Jean Dunham.

I, Bill (Romeo) Purdy, will my muscular 6' 2" to Benny Wright.

I, Betty Snedaker, leave my acting ability to Louella Pyle.

I, Charles Stir, leave my ability to make a speech at any time to John Atkins.

I, Ford Stambaugh, will my blushing shyness to Max Warner.

I, Quentin Van Dyke, leave my figure to Joe Slye, who's rather on the thin side.

I, Carl Wilson, bequeath my perfect dignity to Ronald Kimbler.

I, Garnet Lintz, leave my blond hair and big blue eyes to Lowell Gray, providing he will vamp all the Junior girls.

I, Nettie Grimshaw, bequeath my ability to do office work to Phyllis Hill.

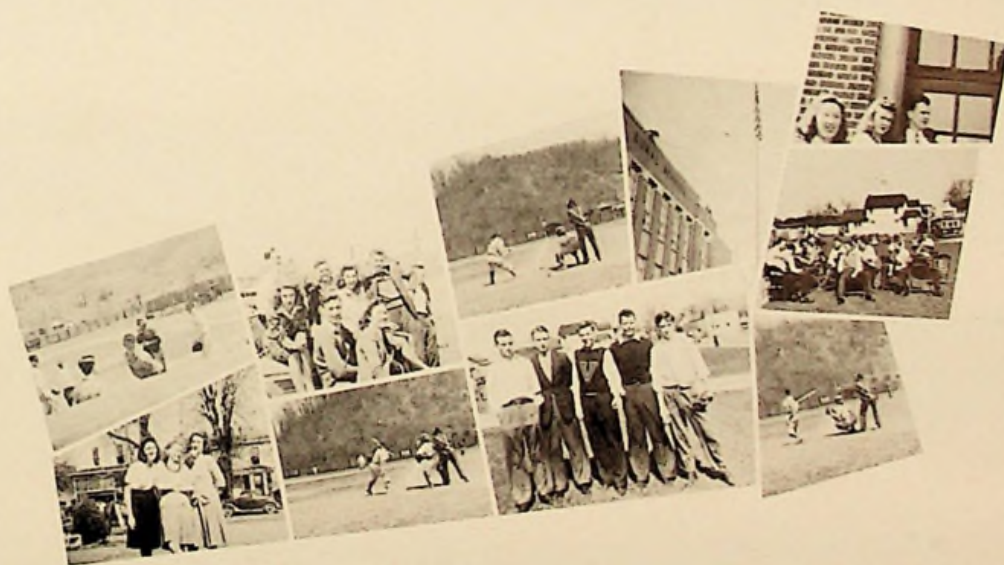

Witnesses:

1. Deelena Smith
2. Eloise Skelton

Signature: Marie Walker

The foregoing is the legal will of the Class of 1942, and we do solemnly declare that we published and executed this in the presence of the lawful number of witnesses.

In witness whereof: we, the Class of 1942, the testators, have to this will set our hand and seal.

CLASS PROPHECY...1942

We met Charles Stir yesterday standing on the steps of the Nation's Capitol. After twenty years he still retains the same prankishness as when he ushered in the "Spirit of 1942." With his cordial familiarity, he asked if we could spare the time to have dinner with him. "You see," he said, "I have appointed myself as the secretary of the 1942 graduating class of Valley High School and have made a record of the achievements of each member."

Not having seen any of the old class for some years, we asked him to go right through the roll and tell us what each one was doing.

"Gladly, gladly," said he.

"To start at the beginning," said Charles, "Maurice Harwood is in Cincinnati. Rosemary Schleinhege is there too, clerking in a department store. You haven't heard Alice Jane Collis singing over the radio! Then you don't know that she recently signed a $10,000 contract with the Metropolitan? You know about Charles Waddell, of course. For the past fifteen years he's been the chief staff photographer for the Times. Who? The two Youngs? Bessie and Bettie are living in Chicago. Bessie is a teacher, Bettie, oh yes, she recently set a new record in short-hand speed."

Just as Charles finished speaking, a very pompous — looking individual glancing neither to the right nor left of him, stalked by in solemn dignity.

"Who's that?" we whispered.

"That," said Charles with a wicked grin, "is none other than Rudy Ward, the United States Attorney-General. Didn't you know that he was appointed to that office?"

"Say," we said, "whatever became of Juanita Hill?"

"Juanita?" grinned Charles, scratching his head thoughtfully. "Oh, yes, she's a nurse in a large hospital in New York."

"Speaking of New York, quite a few of our classmates have located there. Bill Purdy is a doctor in the "same" New York hospital. Ruth Barber is a Broadway star. Her latest success is "Two Bees or Not Two Bees," written by Anna Mae Carter, who received the Pulitzer Prize for drama. The stars of the play "Alone" are Harold Fetters and Josephine Flannery, and strange as it seems, the costume designer is Georgia Channel. Also in the cast is Betty Snedaker and Marie Walker who are known for their famous comedian roles.

"Say, did you know that the New York Yankees have three Valley boys among their best players: Bob Johnson, who is thought of as a coming Babe Ruth; Ralph Arrick a stellar first baseman; and one of the greatest pitchers of modern times, Carl Kibbey?"

Suddenly the strains of a military band penetrated the air and the Marine Band went swinging by.

"In a musical way, Jane Beebe is playing in an all-girl orchestra. Francis McHarg is the Notre Dame basketball coach and lost only two games last year. Mauna Carroll is the Cleveland Plain Dealer's brilliant foreign correspondent, while Rosella Riddlebarger is the staff "sob sister." Rosemary Underwood is bookkeeper for Lucy Conley's and Edith Smith's "Short Order Sandwich Shop." I have also heard that Quentin Van Dyke is an aviator with Ford Stambaugh serving as head mechanic. A feature attraction in the Hi Ho Nite Club is the glamorous Dorothy Yuenger."

"Last week when Everett Moon's "Sump-tuous Circus" was here, I noticed that Carl Wilson was the ticket taker, Ruth Bloomfield is a trapeze artist, and Nettie Grimshaw is the star of the "big tent."

Charles paused for breath as a lanky individual catapulted up the steps and into the capitol.

"Isn't that Deelena Smith?" we inquired.

"Sure," Charles grinned. "Only she's the Honorable Senator from Ohio, now she's protesting Justice Eloise Skeldon's decision which outlaws three-wheeled baby carriages.

"A real super saleslady is Jean Estep, who sells cosmetics for the Kinstler Kosmetics Kompany for which Garnet Lintz recently wrote the slogan: Kiddies Klatter for Kinstler Kosmetics. In the women's clothing field may be found Anna Louise Landrum, who is an exclusive buyer of millinery for Blakeman's Beauty Salon. The Salon is now using two products invented by former Valley students, a new lipstick by Mary Jean Rupert and a novel vanishing cream by Opaline Hilliard. Mabel Clausing is a seamstress there, while Irene Glaze is one of the better clothes models."

"Shifting our attention to Hollywood, we discover that many former "Valley Highers" are doing well in the movies. Bob Doll recently won the Academy Award for his direction of Marie Gamble in "Soles for Sale," a Mediocre Production. Mediocre, you know, is headed by Bill Luckett as President and Harold Bringer as Chairman of the Board of Directors."

"In the miscellaneous classification we find Edith Rhoden a detective, Annabel Rockwell a Physical Education teacher. In the nursing field we discovered Mary McDaniel, who is a nurse at White Cross Hospital in Columbus. Beulah Conley has become a school teacher, while Louise Buckle is the owner of a pottery stand on Route 23. Ena Double and Louise Gibson have established quite a reputation for their Commercial work here in Washington. Finally, Mary Margaret Widdig and Mary Kathryn Walls are housewives and live in Portsmouth. Last, Henrietta Wolfe is a librarian located here in Washington."

"Well," we said, "All the old people seem to have done pretty well in conquering the world."

"Yes," said Charles "and me, too."

"You?"

"Yes, I am the new President of the United States."

JUNIORS

On September second the Junior Class of 1942-43 were again brought together for another year of school activity. After the officers and advisor were elected, they started the year by having a class party in the school gym. With the aid of a string quartet the party was highlighted by square-dancing. Their annual candy sales were soon started and the largest amount was sold by Junior Preston and Glenn McNamer.

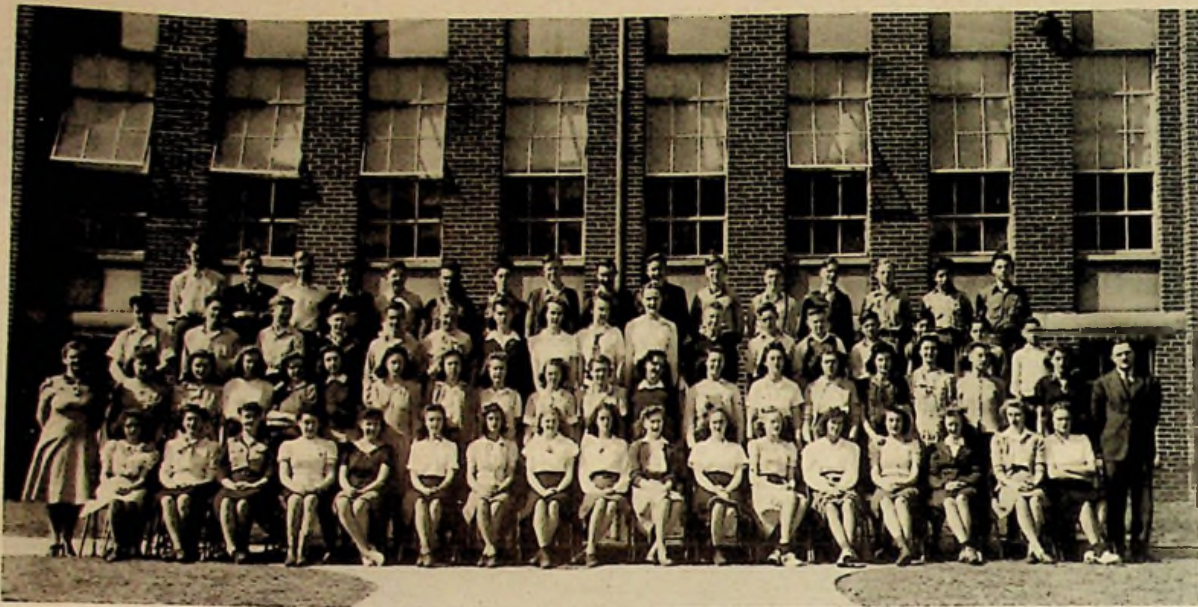

Valley's Reserve Team won the County Tournament. This team was made up largely of Juniors. One of the members of the class, Junior Preston, was fortunate enough to make the varsity. At the Thanksgiving game with Green Township they chanced off a turkey.

After the Christmas vacation, their advisor picked the class play. Tryouts followed and the cast was picked. The class play was a grand success and the cast and director were rewarded for their efforts.

At the annual scholarship test, the Junior Class was represented by Margarene Williams, Dorothy Colegrove, George Kimbler and Norma McCall. On May 15th, the Junior-Senior Banquet was held with the Juniors playing host to the Seniors. This wound up a very successful year for the entire Junior class.

SOPHOMORES

Members of the sophomore class are noted for their ability for service throughout the school. They are proud of their achievements and have definite musical, artistic, and dramatic ability.

Their party was held in October and their class play, "Johnny Get Your Girl", March 11. They were represented by many students in the band and glee clubs. Two members were on the Reserve Championship Team, and Joan Bradshaw won $7.50 in stamps for rating second in an essay contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and the American Legion. Her essay was entitled "Why We Should Buy United States Savings Stamps and Bonds".

The sophomores ended their school year by entering six students in the scholarship test, which was held at Wheelersburg. The students were: Joan Bradshaw, Betty Lou Short, Doris Bogan, Ruth Alley, Opal Buckner and Howard Benner.

They have an enrollment of seventy-five.

FRESHMEN

Entering school this year the freshmen had an enrollment of seventy-one students, so is one of the largest classes in the senior high.

They started their fall year by having a weiner roast in October.

They have followed the tradition of being called "Green" freshmen, but have proved their ability for outstanding activities during their first year.

They have many students in the band and glee clubs, and rated one member on the Reserve Championship Team.

The freshmen regret that Norma Nell Rockwell was forced to leave school due to ill health.

They sent five students to the Ohio Scholarship Test. The students were: Miriam Jeffers, Alice Slye, Carl Bringer, Bob Millar, and James Young.

PORTSMOUTH SCHOOL AND OFFICE SUPPLY COMPANY

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The music department consists of the following organizations: junior and senior bands; mixed chorus; girl's and boy's glee club; and junior chorus.

Instrumental instruction begins with the tonette band in the fourth grade, the junior band follows with membership in the senior band as the final goal.

Eleven members of the Valley senior band were part of the All County Band this year, under the direction of Mr. Rex McCowen, County Music Supervisor. Those who were in the county band were: Trumpets, Norma McCall, John Atkins; Clarinets, Joan Bradshaw, Mary Ellen McKenzie, Doris Jean Dunham, Leslie Blankenship; Saxophone, Max Warner; Trombones, Harold Kuhn, Chester Williams; Alto Horn, Marjorie Wymer; Sousaphone, Ronald Kimbler.

In November, the music department sponsored a carnival in which many students in the school participated. Georgia Grace Channell and Harold Fetters, elected by popular vote of the senior class, reigned over the carnival. All those who helped with the carnival were entertained later with a skating party and spaghetti supper.

December 18, the music department sponsored a Christmas program at which the high school band assisted. The first six grades and the members of the music department stressed the Christmas story as told through carols and Biblical selections. An instrumental ensemble of four trombones and a baritone horn assisted. The same program was broadcast over station WPAY as part of the Scioto County music program.

February 12, the upper building and the seventh and eighth grades broadcast the second program of the Valley Rural District in the county program. "Famous Birthdays in February" was the theme of the broadcast.

Forty-five members of the musical organizations at Valley High School took part in the annual Scioto County Music Festival held on May 1.

The annual spring concert of the department was held April 24. The Upper Building used May Day as the theme for their part, while the fifth and sixth grades presented a patriotic pageant. The high school groups offered musical compositions which they had studied throughout the year.

The members of the music department assisted at the basketball games, the assembly programs, the junior class play, the senior class play, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

LIBRARY STAFF

"Dreams, books, are each a world; and books we know, are a substantial world; both pure and good."
 —Wordsworth.

A library is a center of learning for everyone who knows how to read. Acquire the "browsing" habit in your school library. Spend your leisure time in your library getting better acquainted with all its resources.

The ability to find information in a library is an important part of preparation for life.

We receive most of our books from the Bookmobile and have had over one thousand books in circulation this year. The Board of Education supplies the library with monthly magazines; and has also spent over $75.00 for new books. All librarians volunteer their services for the entire school year.

N. Y. A.

Several of our students are working on N. Y. A. under the direction of Mr. Roettger. The girls work in the library and office, the boys clear the playground and work in the gym; both are on hand when any faculty members need them. They are always co-operative and efficient; their work is a compliment to them.

     tin Van Dyke, Carl Wilson, Bill Luckett, Bob Johnson.

Again the class of "42" displayed their extraordinary dramatic talent in the presentation of "A Letter to the General" under the direction of Mrs. Anna C. Pabst, assisted by Mrs. Chestora Carr.

The story is centered around army training camp life. Herbert and Elmo, rivals for Irene, have been drafted. Herbert arrives at camp with a letter to the general and the intention of rising just as fast as "pull" will do it—since even Elmo has "promoted" himself to a captain.

A hint of some of the comical situations: that "cullud" boy Randolph and his mix-up with the cash register; the hardboiled sargeant "falls" for Jane; the Captain's courtship with jittery Dora; Miss Titus attempts to keep her glasses from falling off; Elmo's escape from Irene by walking out with a bucket over his head; and the flirtatious Herbert kissing Randolph—by mistake! Fun, speed, and laughter—all ending on the right note of patriotism. Credit must go to the supporting cast who portrayed their various parts in an excellent manner.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Well, they did it again! After scoring a hit with their class play last year as sophomores, the junior cast gave another four-star performance this year when they presented "Look Me in the Eye" under the skillful direction of Mr. Comer.

Opening the play with a few bars from "Deep in the Heart of Texas", the juniors proceeded to prove to the audience that hypnotism as a cure for the troubles of a pair of newlyweds, who have married against the wishes of their relatives, is a good deal of a quack remedy.

The comedy was brimful of plots, chock-full of laughs, generously sprinkled with sprightly dialogue, and will remain long in the memory of everyone as a "swell play".

SOPHOMORE CLASS PLAY

Besides all their other talents we found the sophomores also excel in the field of acting. Under the capable direction of Miss Valley Davis and Miss Carrie Vallance, "Johnny Get Your Girl", with laughs galore and added Indian tom-toms for mystery and thrills, is chalked up among the successful plays of this year.

MEMORIES

We never realize the best things in life until they have passed us by. There are so many little things that happen every day over which we laugh or cry; things that slip from our memory in a week but somehow come back to us in future years and seem more realistic than ever.

School, its fun and work, are things no one can take from us. They will live in our memory forever. That certain "swell" teacher; that trying rival; cramming for semester exams and our sigh of relief when the passing grade is attained. All these will be refreshing recollections some day.

Every school has its individual traits; whether it's the slang of the students or a jitterbugging craze. At Valley, it seems to be many things: moron jokes, chapel on Friday, bright red nail polish, good books from the library, pep-colas, our love for Conley's yum-yum hot dogs and our spirit at the tournaments, which couldn't be excelled by any of our rivals.

Fully realizing these things the annual staff is using this page to record Valley's many characteristics and good times.

Do You Remember?

That Everett Moon was a wizard at current news dates and figures?
That Jane Beebe never missed a basketball game?
That Mabel Ruth Eblin never got upset by anything?
That Dot Colegrove was quite popular with the opposite sex?
That Charles Stir would never stick to a steady girl friend?
That certain group of senior girls who just couldn't resist the movies on warm afternoons?
Max Warner's frequent pranks; which were just as frequently resulting in a trip to the office?
Marie Walker's wise-cracking in Civics class, which never failed to bring forth laughs?
Anna Louise Landrum's ability to remember the words of any song?
John Sisler rating heavy applause for his clarinet solos in Chapel?
Mary Jo Heath wearing that old denim army hat on rainy days?
Some of the girls adding "ch" on every word? Very exasperating to our elders.
Sawdust in our shoes at the carnival and a line a mile long to the honest-to-goodness fortune teller?
Bill Purdy sporting his flashy and stylish purple sweater? It was eventually taken over by the "only one."
Mrs. Pabst's swift flow of German when she's vexed or especially pleased?
Beulah Conley's daily references to "Doc"?

Pep meeting with short speeches from all the squad? It certainly helped!
Ralph Arrick's breath-taking over hand shots? Always present when we needed them.
Dewey Wright's undying love and wide-eyed admiration for Carl Webb?
Our vigorous singing of every song imaginable on the "Booster Bus"?
"Valley Will Shine Tonight" constituted a fair warning to our opponents that the "Indians" were approaching.
Mr. Roeltger saying after the McDermott defeat at the tournament "We did it before and we can do it again?" It certainly proved true.
The loud thump Johnny Purdy made when he hit the floor on "Go Valley Go"?
Mr. Sloan's witticisms in chapel?
Norma McCall, after nine months in lab, still pouring water on acid?
Violent explosions!
Mary Jane McKinley's pigtails?
The fifth and sixth grades patriotic pageant, "What so Proudly We Hail"?
It gave us all renewed determination!
Phyllis Hill singing "White Cliffs of Dover"?
The fight between classes for the flag, with Mrs. Stroud always near the top?
"Slack Day" at school?
Mr. Comer's enthusiasm over his plays?
Frequent skipping of seventh period study hall by a certain red-haired senior girl?
Marie Gamble's unconcerned and modest references to those abundant E's on her report card?

Play practices after school with the junior's candy bars hitting the spot?
Jean Estep's endless stream of jokes?
Janet Freauf wearing that smooth shade of dark lipstick with nail polish to match?
Miriam Jeffers coming breathlessly down the hall—late again?
Junior play skits—with Rudolph Carter turning hot and cold; and Norma McCall not a bit embarrassed?
Our friendly group singing on chapel days which always left you with a "warm" feeling? "Shortnin' Bread" was tops!
Bob Smith and Carl Webb arguing in lab over who performed the experiment last week?
Anna Barklow's love for creating new styles?
Alice Jane Collis rushing hither and thither for the last minute annual write-ups?
Ruth Barber's drawings of beautiful girls with "just right" figures?
Jo Flannery looking "keen" in a bright green sweater?
Mauna Carroll's faithful work in the library?
William Bogan stirring the hearts of chapel listeners when he read "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address"?
Harold Brigner nonchalantly rattling off his five new words for the day?
Corky McHarg's somewhat drowsy answers in English class?
Carl Kibbey's side-splitting yarns in chapel?

B IS FOR BOYS; THE BEST IN THE COUNTY.
S IS FOR SPORTS; WE CERTAINLY RATE.

SCIOTO COUNTY CHAMPIONS

Bill Purdy, the tallest of our boys, playing center, did his part in scalping our opponents with his ability to shoot one-handed shots.

Ralph Arrick was high score man of the season making a total of 376 points. He will certainly be missed next year.

Francis McHarg, Valley's midget player did much for the team's success; "Corky" is better known as "greased lightning".

Rudolph Ward did good work at the rebound and had fine defensive play.

Charles Stir showed excellent floor work and proved to be one of the best guards in the county.

Robert Preston was especially good on the rebounds. We expect great things from him next year.

Eugene Beebe makes most of his points under the basket. A fast break is one of his outstanding points.

Don Staten's dribbling is a one way ticket to 2 points.

CLIFFORD PURDY

INDIANS ON "WAR PATH"

*The boys are on the floor, the ball is in the air,
The referee is ready, and the coaches pulling hair
Now the game is done; the better team has won
Then dusk sets, we're glad it's all in fun.*

The 1941-1942 basketball season opened with our near rival Minford, the Indians emerging victorious 36-26. As the season progressed the team spirit grew high, the fans became very enthusiastic, and the coach could see that the team had the proper coordination to win games. The squad consisting of five senior lettermen and several junior boys were handicapped by their size and height; nevertheless, they finished third in the Scioto County League with two Class A schools competing for honors.

Then came the classy Scioto County Tournament. With cowbells ringing and cowhorns blaring, the Indians were determined to give South Webster, last year's winner and a pre-tourney favorite, 'a run for their money'. Opening slow with a one point victory in the closing seconds of the game over Green Township, the Indians came back to down Otway 38-23 in their second game. Then the 'fur started to fly'. McDermott, tournament darkhorse, had upset South Webster by a ten-point margin and met the Indians. The Tigers were able to down the Indians in an exciting overtime game 34-32 to put them into the finals. In order to get into the finals the Valley cagers met the Jeeps of South Webster. It was the day for the Senior 'Indians' as they went on the 'War-path', and at one time during the game they enjoyed a 29 point lead on the Jeeps with the final score being 50-33. Before 'cooling off', the Indians came back in the evening, scalping the Tigers 31-21 to take the Scioto County Championship which was the second championship since the history of the county tournament, the other being in 1934. It was the second county championship in one day for the Valley team as the reserves won their title from Clay 28-27.

Next came the district tournament at Waverly, Valley taking Buckskin of Ross County to the tune of 48-24, then meeting McDermott for a fifth time during the year defeating them 34-23. In the semi-final contest with Western Rural (Latham) of Pike County, the tournament winner, the Green and White emerged victorious 45-28. In the consolation game which was the last game for the purple and gold, our Indians put on an exhibition for the fans. Trailing throughout the game and six points behind (27-33) with four minutes remaining, they started and when the gun sounded the score was Valley 36—Peebles 33.

The Indians wish to express their appreciation to their coach, Mr. McKenzie, for his fine work this year. This being Mr. McKenzie's first year as athletic coach at Valley, they realize that it is an especial honor to be called "champs."

RESERVE CHAMP TEAM

The 1941-1942 reserve basketball team gave an account of themselves all during the season winning 15 games losing only 3 in the league for the co-championship with Washington, then they took the district reserve tournament at Lucasville, stopped Washington in a special game 37-20, and won the county reserve championship from

Clay 28-27 to bring home four beautiful trophies to the school.

The boys on both squads deserve much credit for their hard work and many practices during the season and had it not been for their co-operation the teams could not have achieved the Reserve and Varsity Championships of Scioto County.

BASEBALL

Comes spring—comes baseball. Spring with warm sunshine, wraps thrown aside, and lines of boys throwing baseballs hard and swift to one another. Baseball season has started in this same way for as many years as we can remember—it is just another characteristic of Valley.

The team this season is composed of mostly upperclassmen who have two or three years experience to their credit.

After a crowning basketball season the boys promise to give of their renewed strength and spirit to make this an equally successful baseball season.

CHEERLEADERS

We salute our cheerleaders for their fine work this year. Under the direction of Fred Freauf, head-cheerleader, they have developed into five of the best in the county. Because of their ability to keep the gym resounding with lusty cheering, Valley was credited with having the heartiest and most loyal cheering section at the county tournament. Bouquets to Johnnie Purdy for his outstanding determination and cooperation.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association was organized in 1930 and is composed of all lettermen of the school. Each year the club sponsors a banquet in honor of both basketball squads. The association expresses sincere appreciation to students and faculty members who made the "Booster Bus" possible this season. The officers for this year are: Ralph Arrick, President; Robert Smith, Vice-President; Alice Jane Collis, Secretary-Treasurer.
