PHILOSOPHY OF PORTSMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL

WE BELIEVE:

that school is life and must teach life;

that to live—not exist—we must be aware of life, life temporal and life spiritual;

that to live these lives we must learn to know ourselves, our world, and the worlds before our own day, so that we may seek and help others to seek the most useful place for each of us in the society of our contemporaries;

that the fullest, happiest life comes from service to others and work well done;

WE BELIEVE:

that "the American way" is the highest temporal system of life yet developed;

that the way of life as taught by Holy Scripture is the highest spiritual system;

that officials can teach only as they practice;

that students can learn only as they use;

that if either expects courtesy, fairness, dependability or honor he must have these qualities as he must have them for true happiness and success;

WE BELIEVE:

that information is not knowledge; or knowledge, wisdom;

that fame is far less important than honor;

that, beginning with our school and going on to our world, if we can leave both better and more beautiful than they were transmitted to us, we shall have finished our course.

THE PROTECTED CITY . . .

on the shores of the Ohio stands securely to proudly preserve the traditions of the Graduates of Portsmouth High School . . .

FRESHMAN CLASS

There were 360 Freshmen filling eight homerooms this year at P. H. S. In October we chose as our leaders Steve Clark, president; Tommye King, vice president; Phyllis Gordon, secretary; and Loretta Hooser, treasurer.

We made our entrance into the high school social life at the Freshman mixers where Senior Honor girls and senior boys taught us to dance. After that it was pretty easy sailing.

Our Freshman council with its 15 members met with our sponsors, Miss Caroline Mackoy and Miss Marie Trowbridge, to plan our activities throughout the year.

The outstanding students of our class in scholarship were Joyce Meeks, Sam Ray, and Suzanne Harvey.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

We entered P. H. S. in 1945 as a group of wide eyed freshmen. We elected Dave Gambill, president; Mitzi Levine, vice president; Bill Stidham, secretary; and June Hensge, treasurer, to lead us.

For our 1946-1947 year we chose Ben Smith our president; Charles Mohl, vice president; Joanne Kelley, secretary; and Rachel Hopkins, treasurer. With Miss Margaret Anderson's assistance, we held our annual Sophomore dance.

Following along in the footsteps of Dave Thomas is David Gambill to add glory to our class. Joanne Kelley, Betty Jane Poehlin have made our chests swell with pride as we followed them through the cheers of this, our second high school year. High students of this year's class were Dorothy Yaeger, Jerry McNamara, Janet Moore, Alice Frantz, and Mary Margaret Maze.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

JUNIOR CLASS

In the autumn of '44 we crept through the doors of Portsmouth High School very perplexed and diffident. However, we soon worked out of this dilemma and settled down to organization. We chose Bill Apel, president; Eugene Hackworth, vice president; Mary Ellen Scott, treasurer, to lead us through our initial year. Our class sponsor was Miss Carolyn Mackoy. A skating party highlighted the social activities for the year.

As veterans of one year we elected Jack Batterson to carry the presidential burden. Bill Apel was vice president; Bob Mucha, secretary; and Mary Ellen Scott, treasurer. Miss Marie Trowbridge was our class sponsor. A sophomore dance and a skating party were our primary social activities for the year.

As juniors we showed an unprecedented ability for earning money. We sponsored P. T. A. dances, after-game dances, a dance after our class play, and two large informal dances. In addition we launched a magazine subscription drive which proved highly successful. Our class play, "Strictly Formal", was a success despite hazardous weather conditions. Leading us through our third year were James Henderson, president; James Barry, vice president; Carolyn Hodge and Sue Miller, secretaries; and James Spriggs, treasurer. Miss Mary Krausz, whose guidance made all this possible, was our class sponsor. In keeping with tradition we concluded our social activities for the year by financing and arranging the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Jack Batterson and Joan Conley were co-chairmen.

SENIOR CLASS

1943. Freshmen. Need we say more? Our officers that year were James Noel, president; Cynthia Edwards, vice president; Sarah DuPuy, secretary; and Carolyn Dill, treasurer. Our sponsor was Miss Genevieve DuPre.

During our Sophomore year, under the guidance of Miss Marie Trowbridge, we successfully gave the Bobby-Sox Hop. Richard Nettles was president; Cynthia Edwards, vice president; Mary Lou Elkins, secretary; and John Fisher, treasurer.

"Junior" showed Pop P. H. S. "what he could do" the third year. We presented "Don't Take My Penny," the biggest financial success in years, and gave a lavish Prom with a southern plantation setting. We were led that year by Dave Baker, president; Helen Anne Hazelbeck, vice president; Joyce Scurlock, secretary; and Maggie Legas, treasurer. Miss Mary Krausz was class sponsor.

Robed for our role in life, we bowed for the last time on the stage of adolescence as seniors. We chose Lawrence Daniels, president; George Chucuales, vice president; Helen Anne Hazlebeck, secretary; and George Hill, treasurer. Our senior class play was successful. Miss Hazel Wyant and Miss Octavia Shinkle were our sponsors.

TROJANS OF 1946

Football Trojans of the 1946 season had high hopes of an undefeated season when the Board of Education hired a new regime from the state-famous Massilon High—Paul E. Brown coaching setup. Augie Morningstar got the nod for head coach and chose for his assistants Mike Byelene for line coach of football and Billy Rohr for basketball and baseball pilots.

Red and Blue started off the season like a house afire, winning their first three games by sizeable margins; but then the red clad warriors fell to three tough clubs—Mansfield, Huntington East and Charleston Stonewall Jackson.

Although these defeats hurt, the Trojans came back with resounding victories over Chillicothe and Middletown. The Middies racked up 14 points in the first period but the Trojans won out 33 to 14.

Ironton handed Scarlet and Blue a 25 to 13 defeat, but the injury-plagued eleven took it out on Glenwood the next week 52 to 0. Ashland fell 13 to 7 on the season's Turkey Day attraction.

Bob Journey earned a position on the Big "7" first at the pilot position; Walt Green, Jim Molster and Dave Thomas gained second team berths. Walt Green placed on an All-State grid team.

Portsmouth 40, Ceredo-Kenova 6; in Municipal Stadium.

The Trojans inaugurated the Morningstar-Byelene regime at Portsmouth High School with a resounding 40 to 6 shellacking of a game, but bewildered, C-K eleven. A bad case of fumbleitis plagued the scarlet-clad warriors throughout the first half; but Green, Thomas, and Company overcame difficulties sufficiently to rack up six counters.

In the second period Dave Thomas carried the pigskin from the 7 for a 93 yard touchdown; Gib Clowe went over from the 7. Then came C-K's lone TD.

In the second half Bob Journey went 65 yards, Dave Gambill danced, ran and dodged 74 yards, Clowe hit tackle for 45 and Gambill hit tackle for Trojan TD's.

Portsmouth	0	13	21	6—40
Ceredo-Kenova	0	6	0	0—6

Portsmouth 41, Charleston 13; in Municipal Stadium.

The Trojans came back from a 13 to 13 tie at half-time to trounce thoroughly the Mountain Lions from Charleston High. It was a victory revenge for the 1945 last minute defeat and was done up red for the mothers on "Mothers' Night".

The Lions kicked off to the Trojans after the half-time preps. Clowe took the oval on the 12 and reversed to Dave Thomas who sped up the sideline for a Red and Blue marker. Clowe intercepted a pass and lateraled to John Thomas on the 45; the husky Trojan center sped over the goal for a Trojan TD. Other scores by Clowe and a Journey-Anderson forward netted Trojan markers. John Thomas converted five times.

Portsmouth	13	0	21	7—41
Charleston	0	13	0	0—13

Portsmouth 20, Springfield 14; at Springfield.

Springfield High nearly upset the applecart at Evans Stadium before about 9,000 fans in a thriller from start to finish with fumbles nearly causing the defeat of the victorious Trojans. The Wildcats led 14 to 0 at the half and had reached the visitors' 7 with only a minute remaining in the tilt.

After an exchange of punts in the second half Dave Thomas raced 92 yards for the initial Trojan marker. Journey and Clowe alternated for 41 yards with Clowe going over from the 1. Clowe ripped off 64 yards through tackle to assure the Trojans No. 3 victory.

Portsmouth	0	0	13	7—20
Springfield	7	7	0	0—14

Portsmouth 7, Mansfield 14; in Municipal Stadium.

The supreme test came when the highly touted Mansfield Tyger entered Municipal Stadium October 4 to defeat the locals before 6,894 spectators, the largest recorded crowd for quite some time. The Tygers had too much experience, speed, and beef for the Red and Blue to cope with but had to cash in on the breaks to take the tilt in a hard fought struggle.

Dave Gambill fell on a Trojan fumble in the end zone for the lone Trojan TD in the fourth period; John Thomas converted for a 14 to 7 final.

Mansfield	7	0	0	7—14
Portsmouth	0	0	0	7—7

Portsmouth 13, Huntington East 25; in Municipal Stadium.

The Trojans dropped No. 2 to the Highlanders when they lost to the weather man who off-set the fast breaking "T" with a muddy gridiron. The Trojans led twice in the tilt and gained honors as being the first to score against the "seven blocks of stone" from up river way.

Clowe went 30 yards climaxing a 65 yard drive early in the game for the first Trojan score, but back came Felty after a recovered Scarlet and Blue fumble to tie the tilt up. Dave Thomas dashed 50 yards for another Trojan score, but back came mud-draped Felty to go 16 yards after another of the Trojans' 13 fumbles had been recovered by the visitor for a Highlander tally. Felty tallied twice more before the final gun.

Huntington East	7	12	6	0—25
Portsmouth	13	0	0	0—13

Portsmouth 6, Charleston Stonewall Jackson 13, at Charleston.

For the third straight week the Morningstar carriers met their match, this time from the Charleston Stonewall eleven. After a drive to the 11, the Trojans pushed over the first score of the contest when Clowe dived over from the 2. John Thomas missed the point after. Red and Blue held a six point edge over the Red and White of Charleston for two quarters of play.

Dave Thomas left the tilt in the third period because of cuts received from "digging in" on a glass-trown gridiron, the result of a bottle tossing fracas of the night before. The generals made two TD's in the final to hand defeat No. 3 to the Trojans.

Charleston	0	0	0	13—13
Portsmouth	0	6	0	0—6

Portsmouth 36, Chillicothe 27; in Municipal Stadium.

Morningstar and Company got back on the band wagon in the seventh contest of the season to knock off Chillicothe on muddy Municipal Stadium in a tilt in which ten touchdowns were scored. The Trojans scored six with no conversions; the Cavaliers mustered four and three points after.

Passing proved a favorite of both teams as this offense collected markers for Trojans and Cavalier alike.

Portsmouth	6	18	0	12—36
Chillicothe	7	0	0	20—27

Portsmouth 33, Middletown 14; at Middletown.

The Portsmouth Trojans displayed the form that led them to three early season victories as they upset the favorite Middletown Middies in their homecoming tilt. This Trojan victory evened the Middie series through the years with six wins, six losses and six ties.

The first quarter brought the 6,400 homecoming crowd into hysterical joy as the Middies gathered 14 points. Second quarter left the home squad with a one point advantage. After the half the Trojans came back to the gridiron to whip the Middies with the most lop-sided score of the Portsmouth-Middletown series.

Portsmouth	0	13	6	14—33
Middletown	14	0	0	0—14

Portsmouth 13, Ironton 25; in Municipal Stadium.

The Orange and Black from Tanktown took revenge for their Trojan defeat on an otherwise perfect record for the 1945 season after a half time score of 7 to 6 in favor of the Trojans. The Tigers came out of the half huddle with a new offense which they hadn't showed all season and massacred the Red and Blue for the first time in many years.

Sparks, Clowe, Journey and Gambill carried the mail for the Trojans.

Ironton	6	0	13	6—25
Portsmouth	7	0	0	6—13

Portsmouth 52, New Boston 0; in Municipal Stadium.

This contest between the two top local grid teams was a one-sided affair as the Trojans took out on the weaker Glenwood eleven what they couldn't do against the Tigers the week before.

Portsmouth scored early in the first and then later on in the quarter, but the offensive subsided in the second period. New Boston penetrated to the Trojan's 15 but that was as far as they cut the host's forward wall. A pass offense netted the Trojans 13 markers in the third canto and 27 points in the final.

Portsmouth	12	0	13	27—52
New Boston	0	0	0	0—0

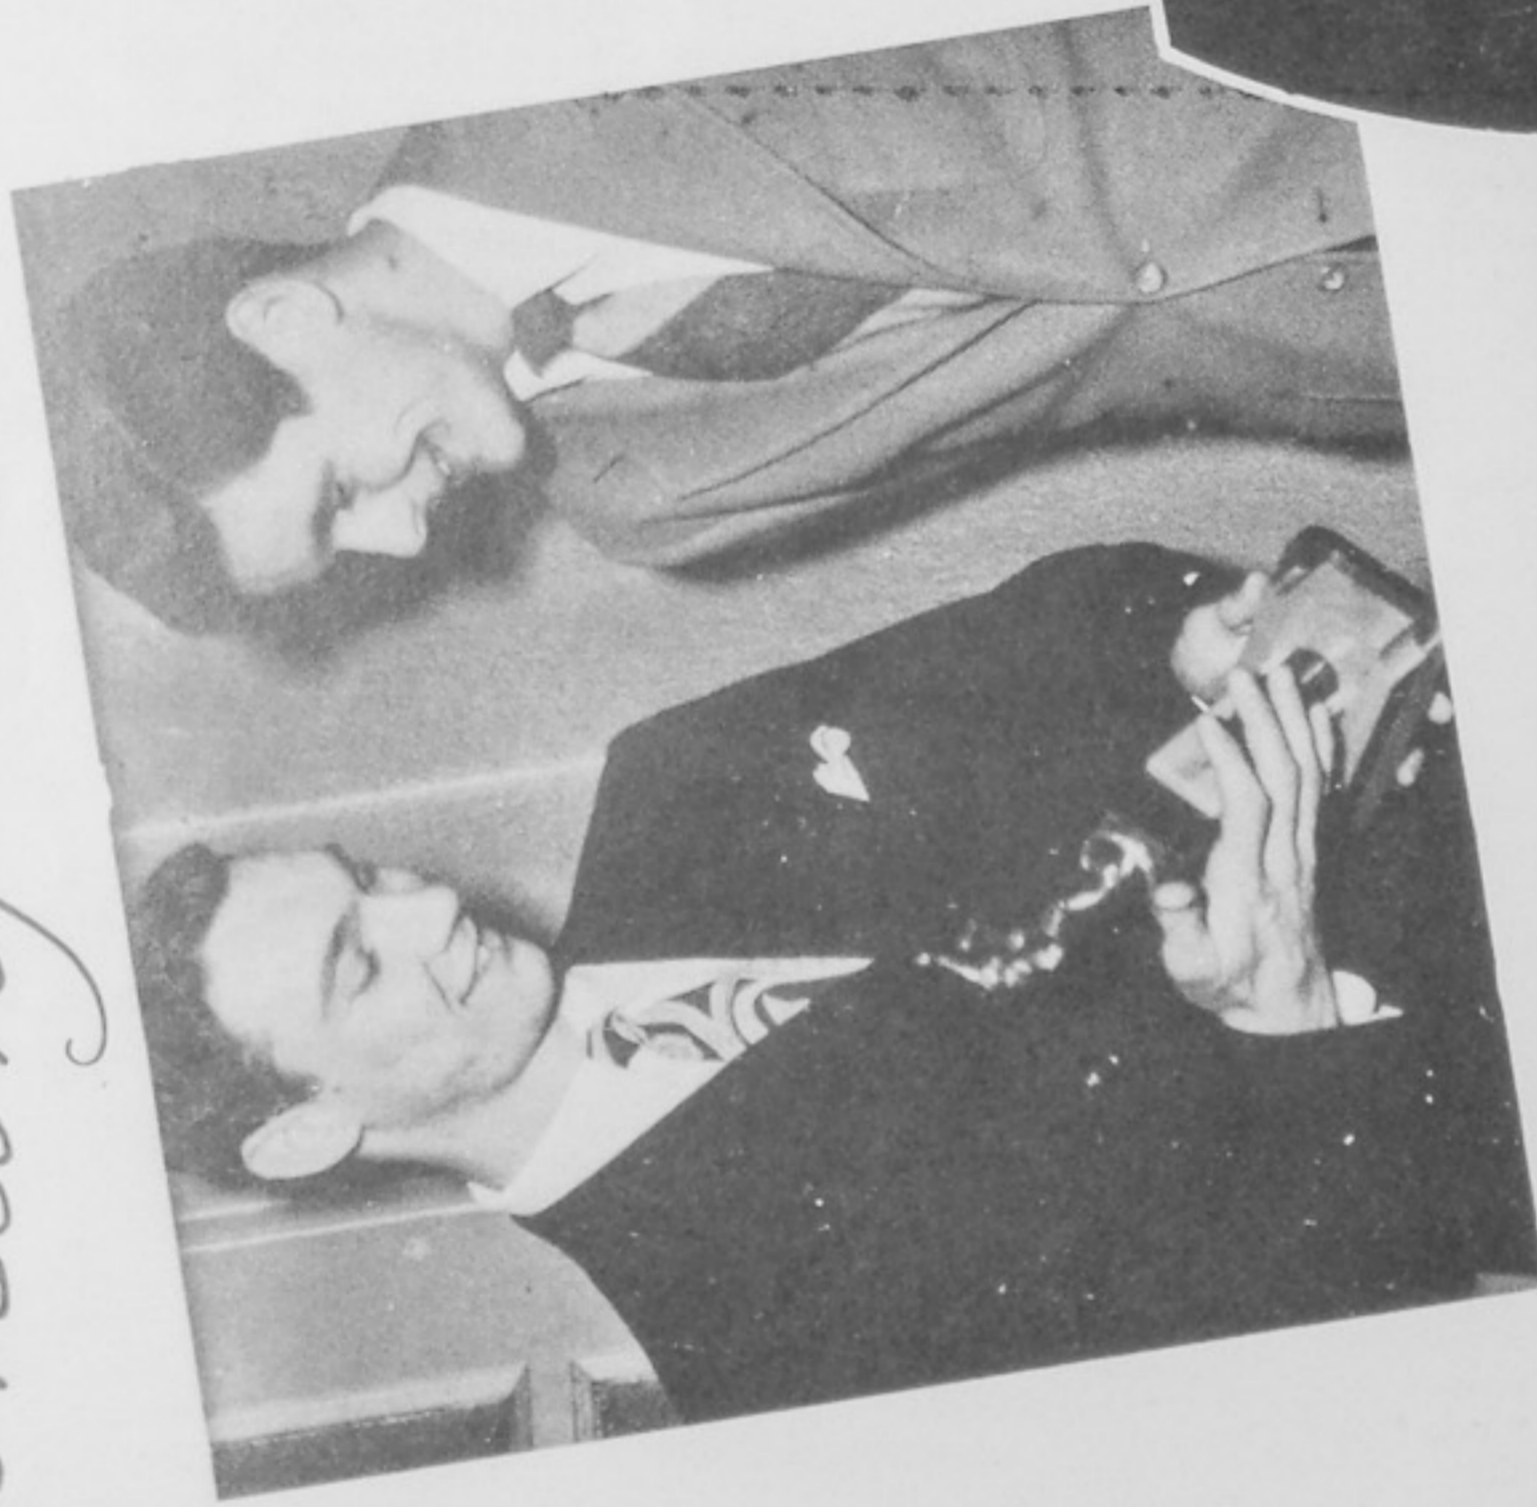

Portsmouth 13, Ashland 7; at Ashland.

The Trojans traveled to Putnam Stadium to close the books on another football season on Turkey Day with their seventh win of the campaign, No. 2 in the Big "7". 6,000 fans sat in the sun to watch the Journey-piloted Trojans close up the Big "7" competition for the grid year.

The men of Troy cashed in on a break in the first period when Cassidy recovered an Ashland fumble on the host's 23. Sparks made the TD from the 4. John Thomas' toe proved its worth. Blanton scored for Ashland in the second; Callahan converted. The Trojans scored in the third from an 80 yard march down the field on seven plays of straight football.

DEANS' ASSISTANTS

The Deans' Assistants act as private secretaries to both Mrs. Eleanor Cookes, dean of girls, and Mr. Ralph Elliott, dean of boys. Assistants also give minor first aid, always with the help of the deans. Deans' Assistants are junior and senior students who have grades of "B" or more and who express a wish to be of service.

JUNIOR CLUB

The special purpose of the Junior Club, sole club in Portsmouth High School open only to colored students of the junior class, is to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom for colored students. This Prom is given at Washington School on the same night as the one at P. H. S. and with the same chaperons. The dances are held separately in order that colored students other than juniors and seniors may be invited to the Prom at Washington School. To meet expenses, the Junior Club has had dances of its own and has been donated money by the school P. T. A. It has a number of plans for activities in the future. William Fleming is president; Wanda Robinson, vice president; Mary Grayson, secretary; and Shirley Ferguson, treasurer. Every junior colored student is a member of Junior Club. VOCATIONAL COMMERCIAL PROGRAM

Commercial cooperative class, open to seniors in the commercial course, was organized again this year for the first time in three years. Miss Jean Salladay, coordinator, had charge of the course. As in previous years, students spent three periods in school and the rest of their day on the job applying their education and at the same time acquiring a preliminary view of the functions of a business office. Class work for co-ops included advanced shorthand and transcription, typing problems, business mathematics, filing and work with special machines such as calculators, comptometers, dictaphones and mimeographs.

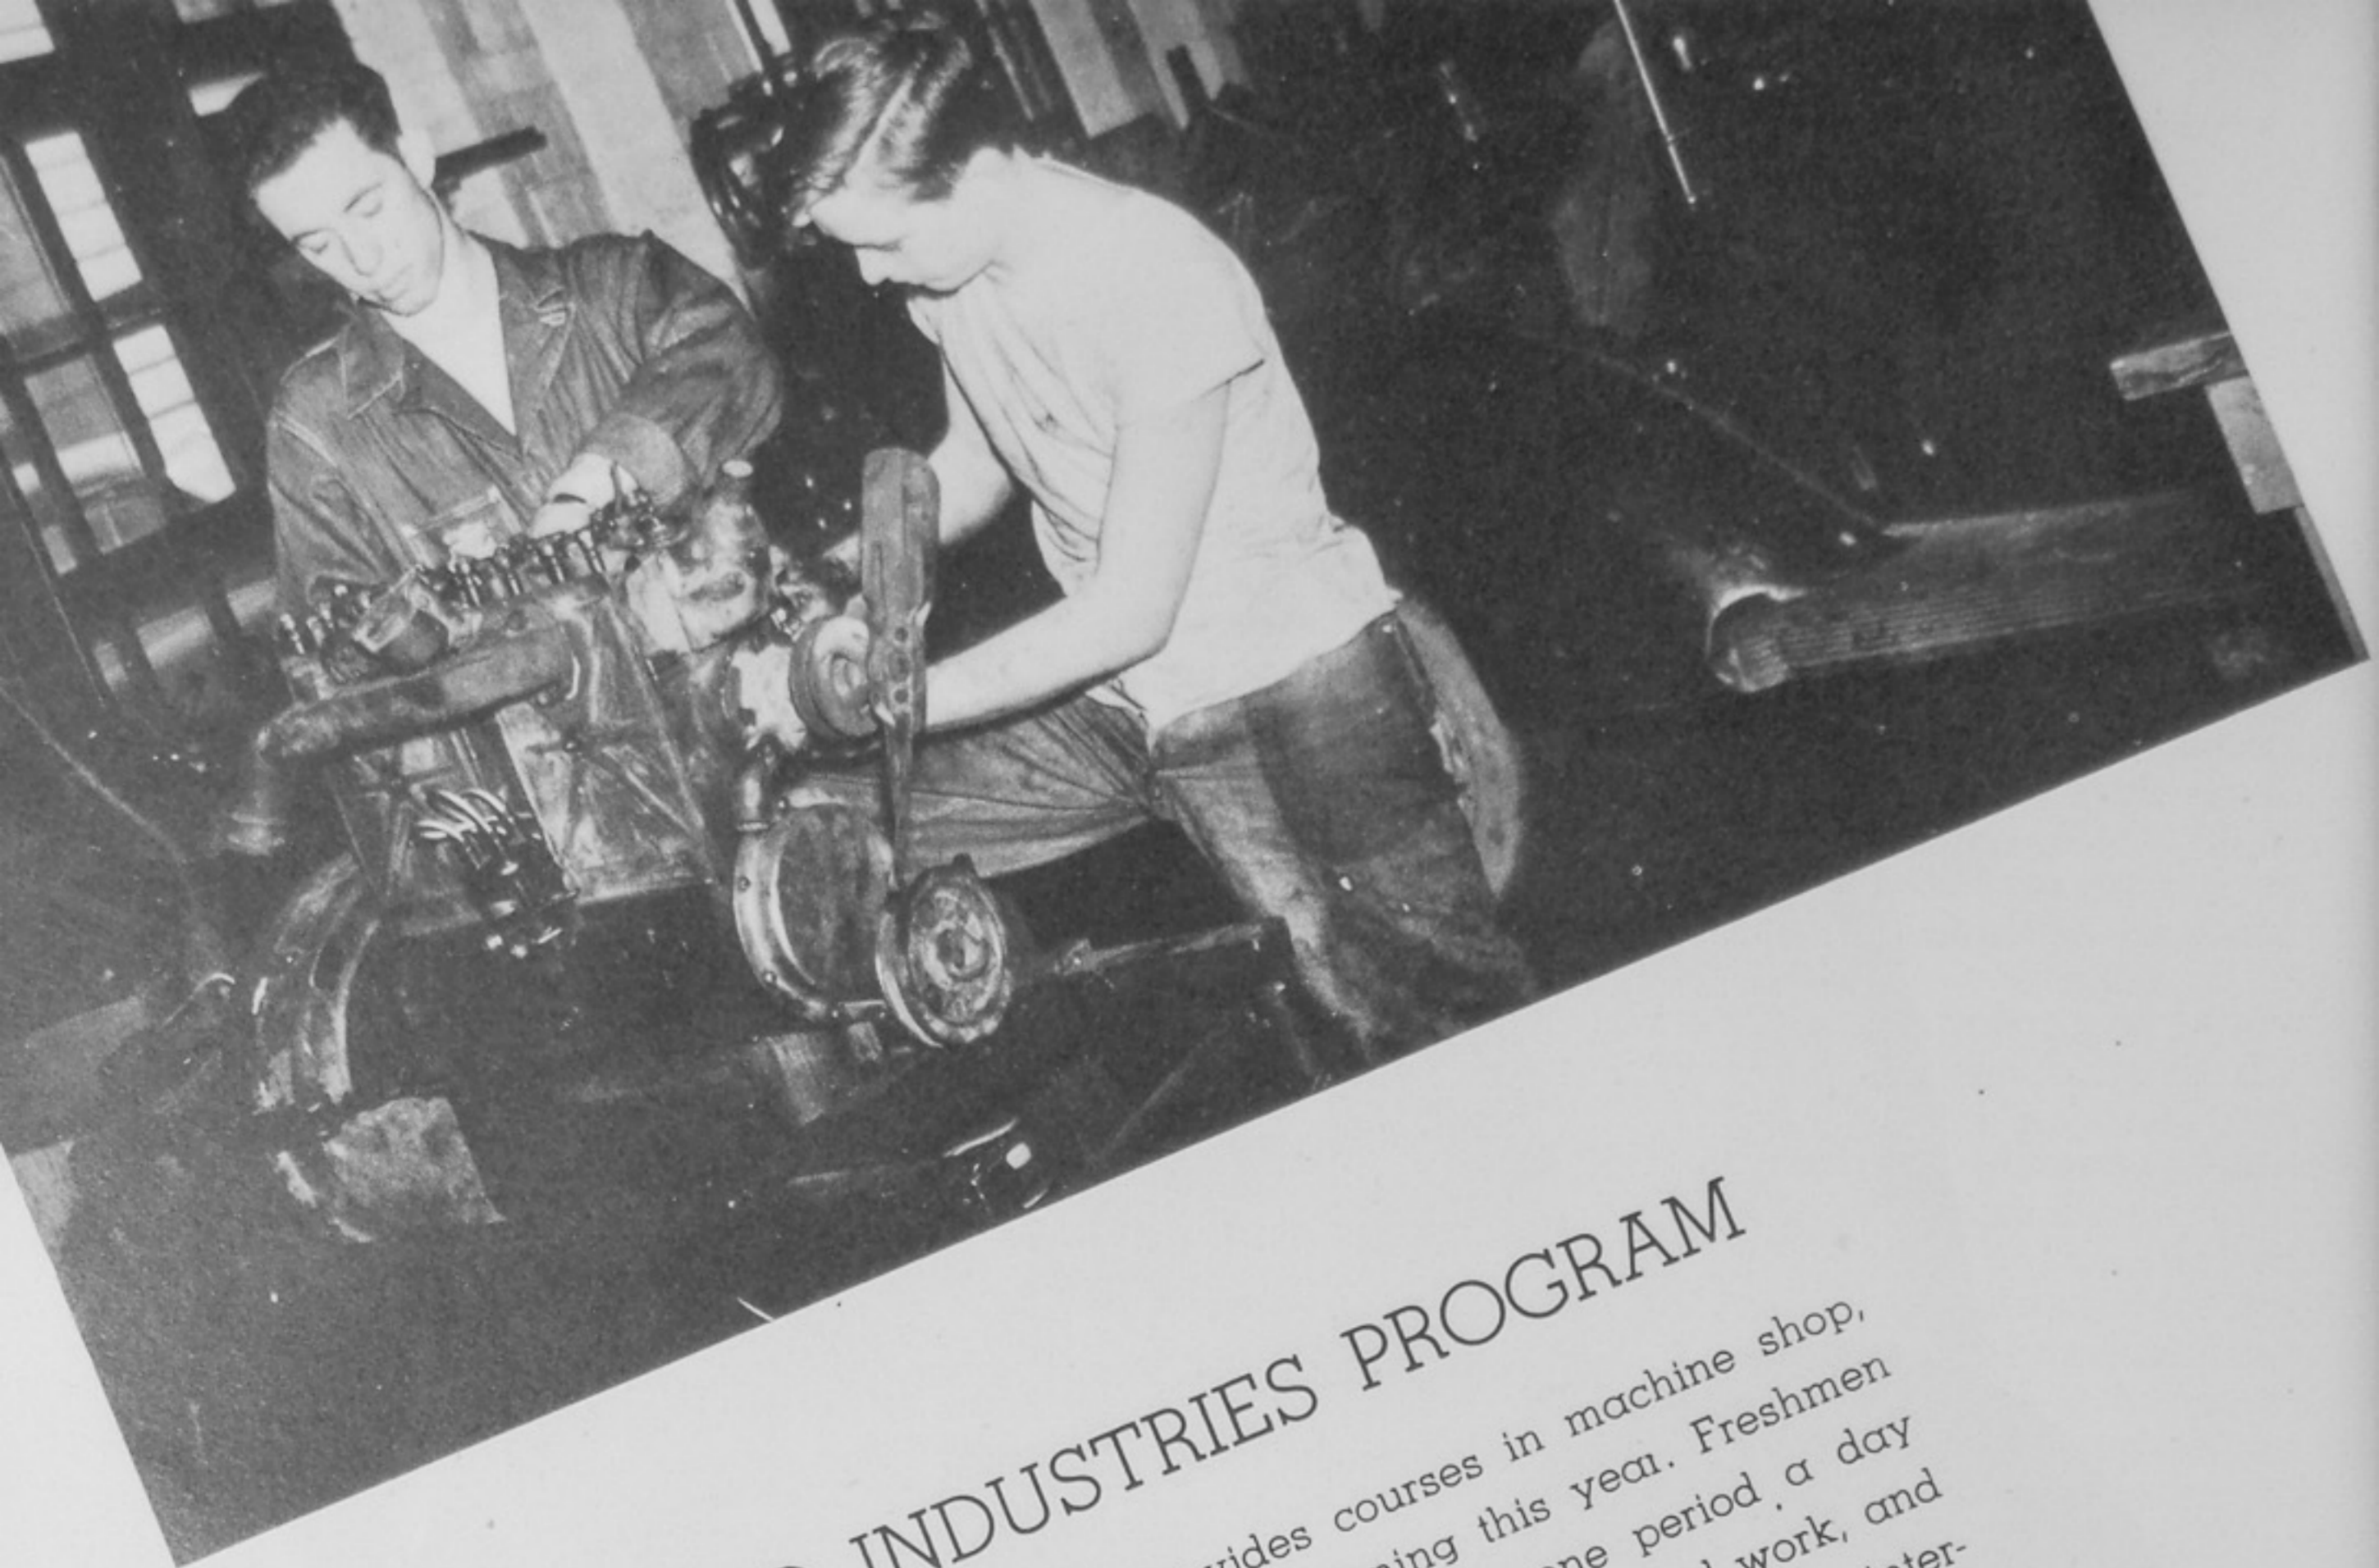

The class organized a club to further the business studies and social relations. They met once a month for dinner meetings at the Wilmere Tea Room.

VOCATIONAL DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

Distributive education was revived as a course this year with Miss Sarajane Conway as coordinator. Students organized a Junior Retailers of Ohio club and sent Don Bowen and Dick Nettles to the fall meeting in Columbus of the state organization. Dick, president of Portsmouth club, was elected district president and vice president of the State. He planned and presided at the meeting of the Southern district in March and represented that district at the national convention in Memphis, Tenn. Other officers for the local chapter are Don Bowen, vice president; Mafalda Curcio, secretary; and Bernadine Pidcock, treasurer. D. E. students study mornings and also learn by working afternoons in local stores. Since the job makes after school meetings impossible, the club has had dinner meetings at the Wilmere every six weeks.

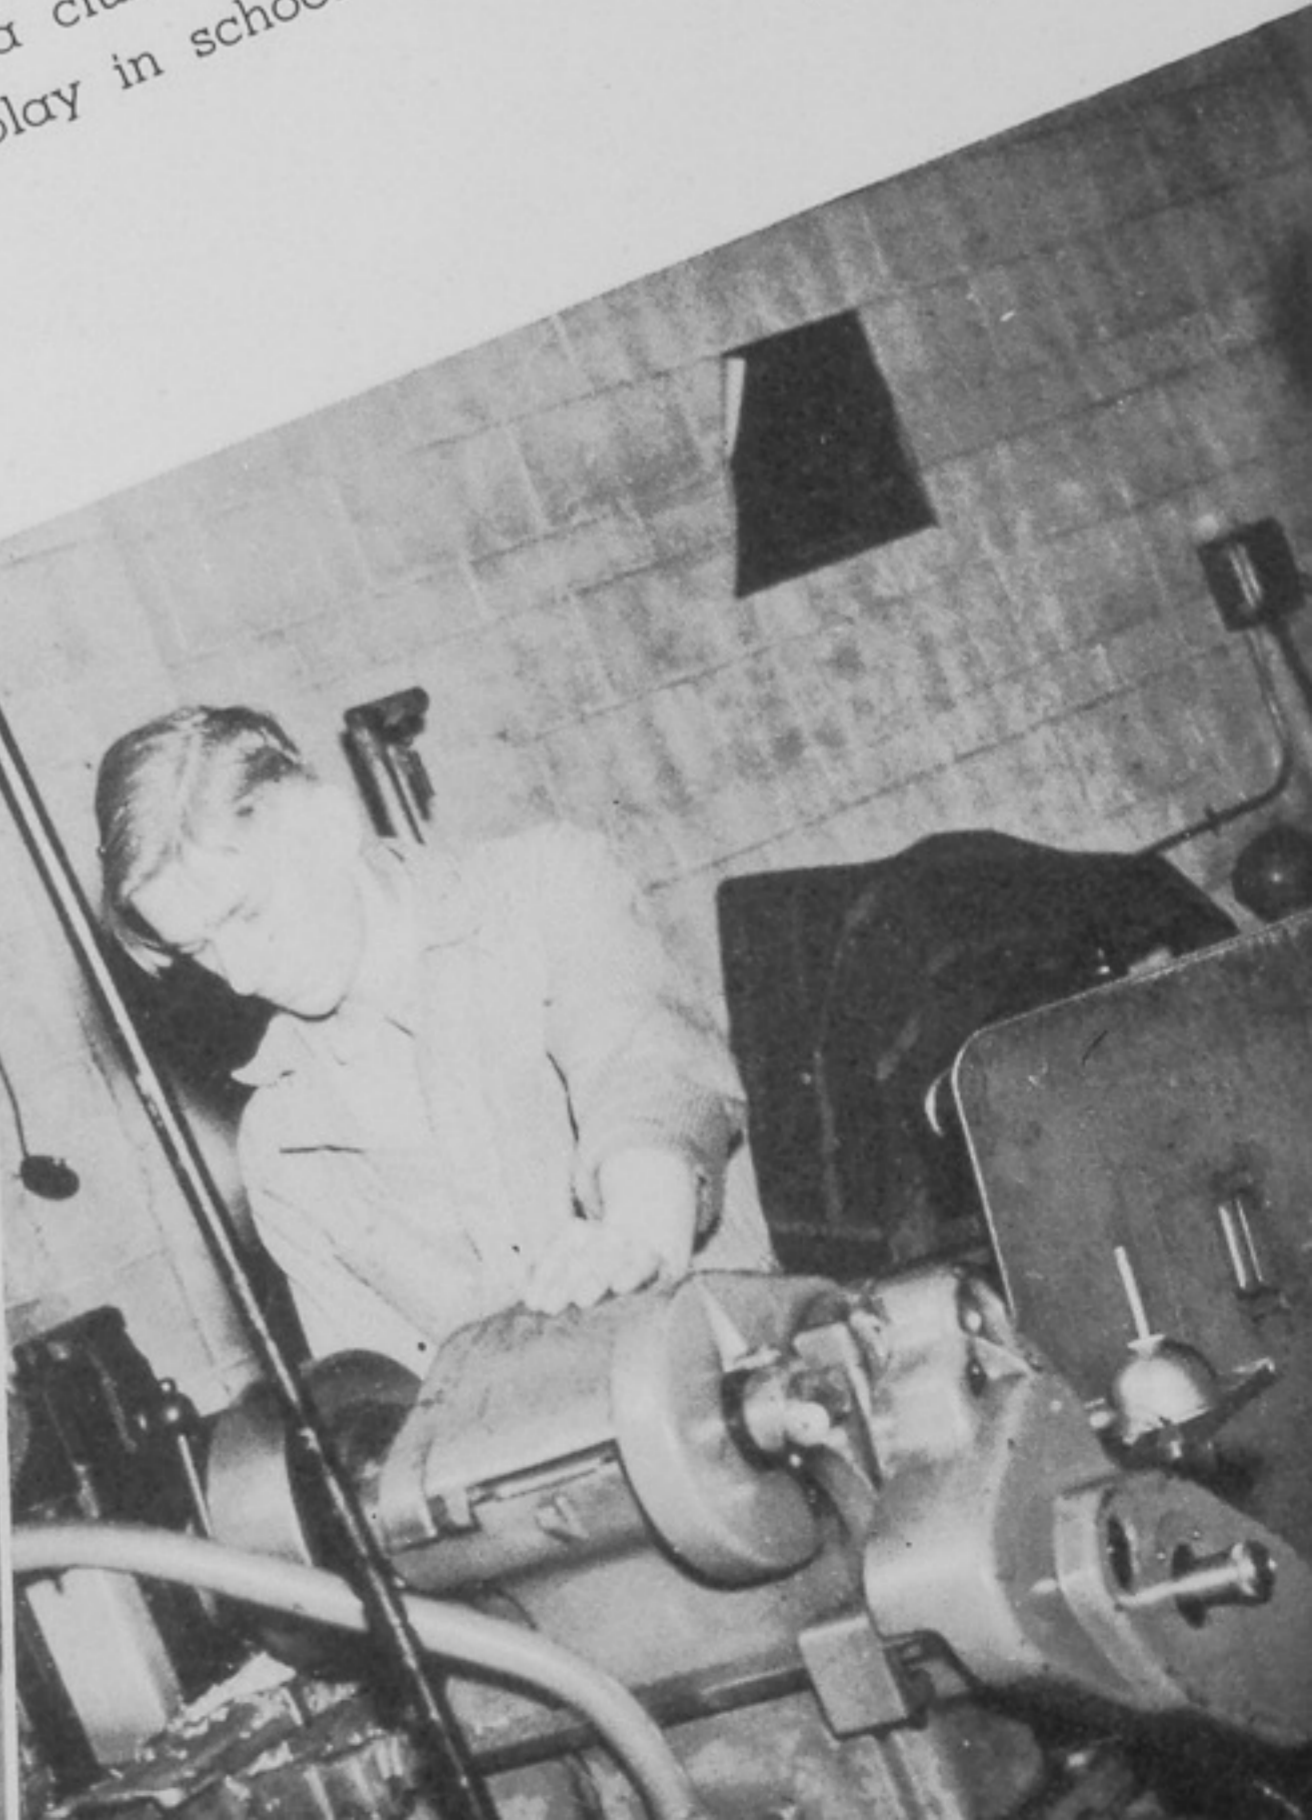

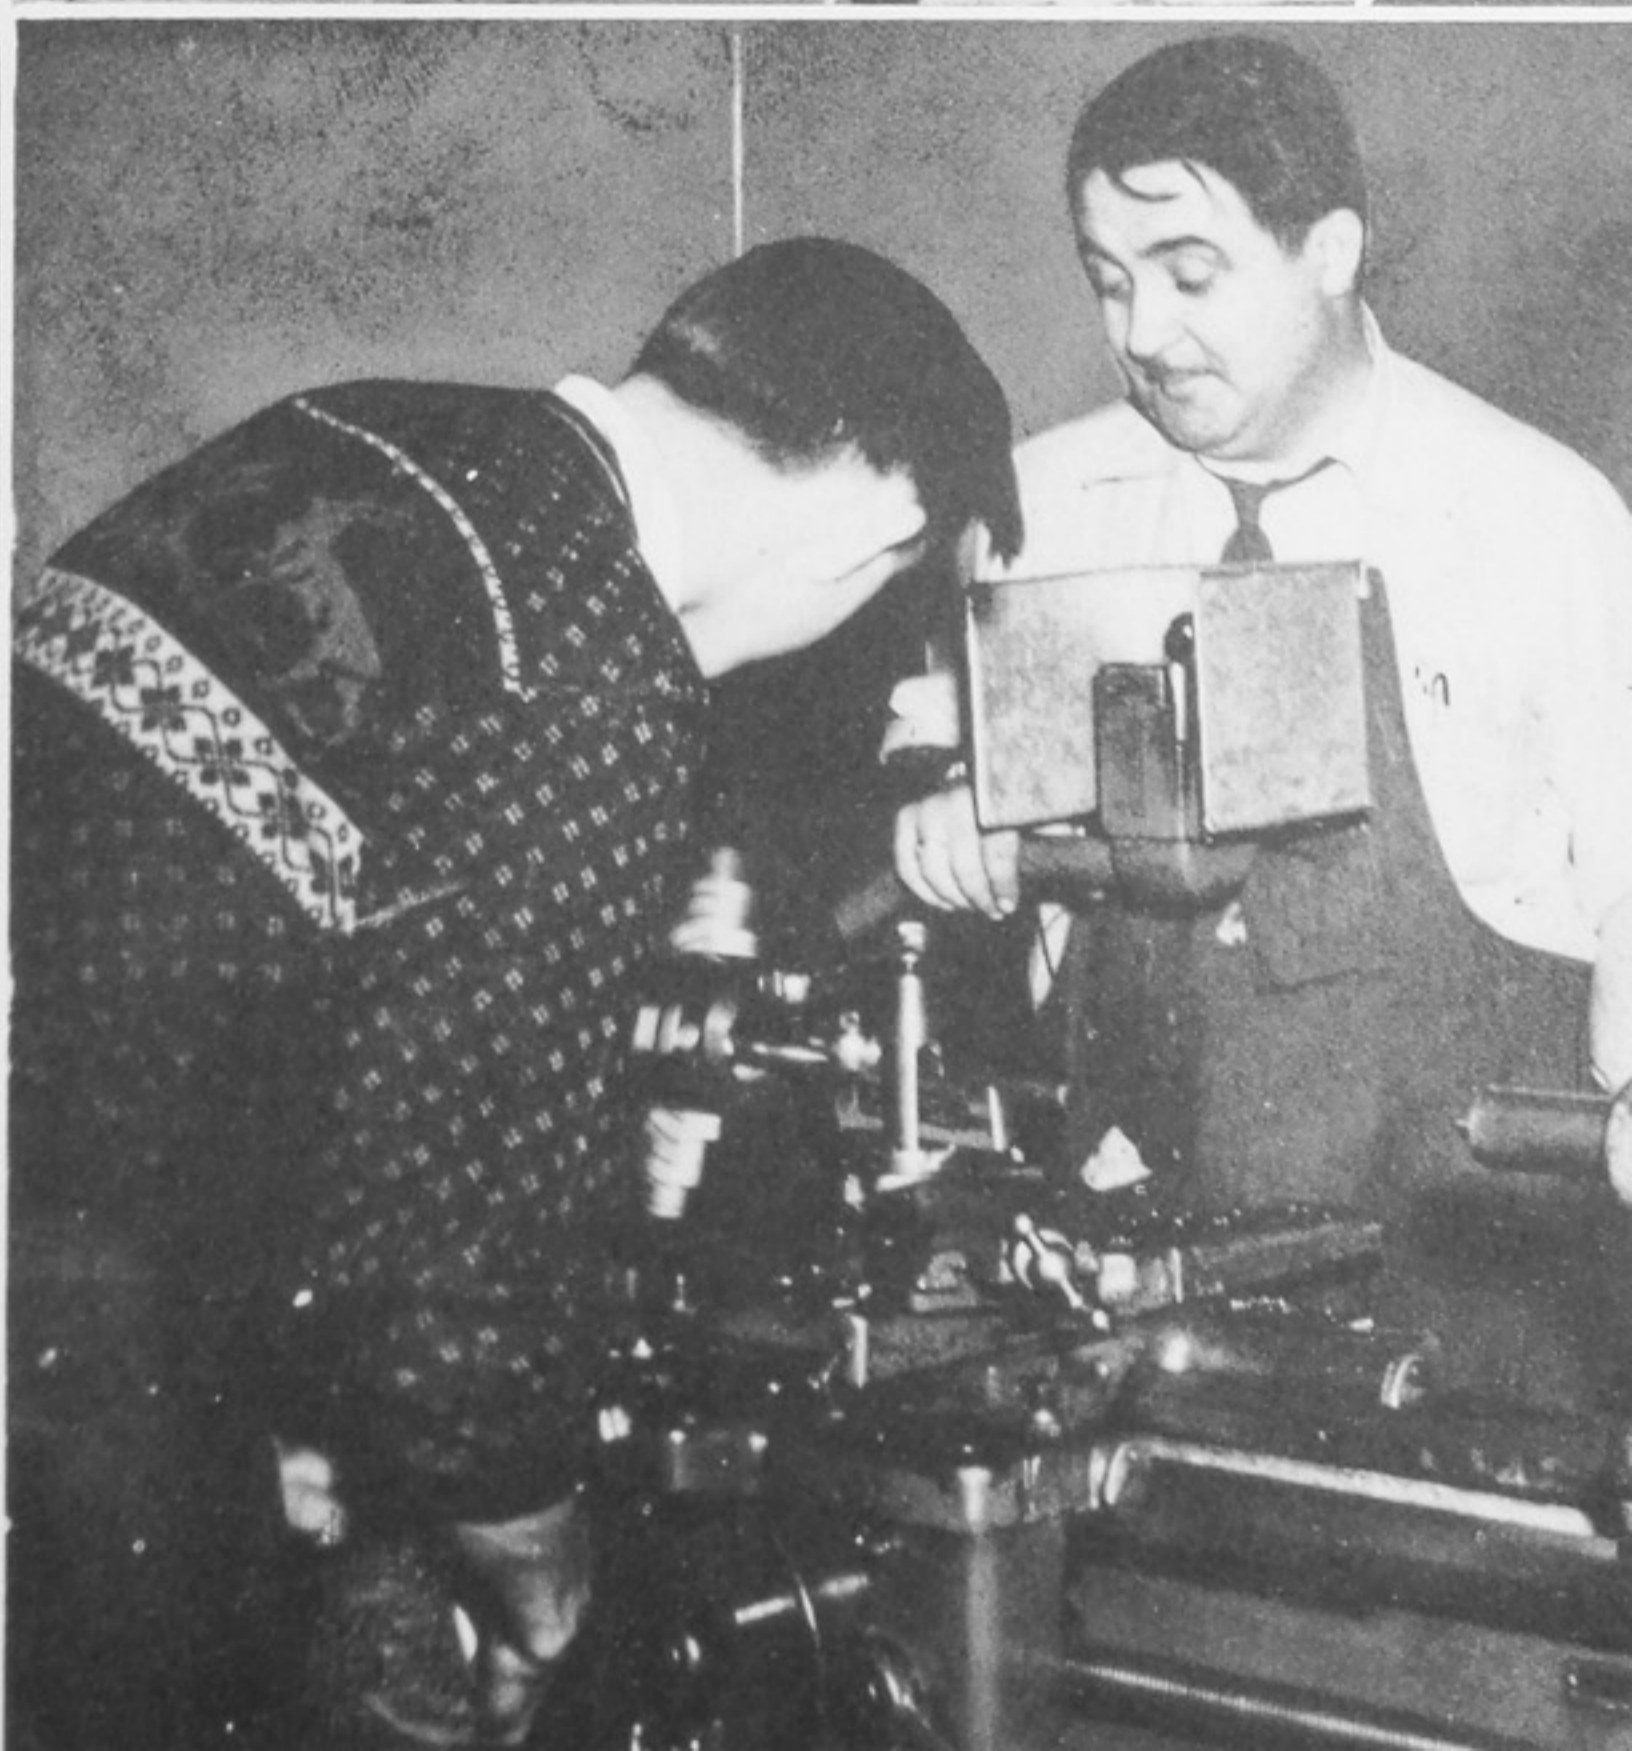

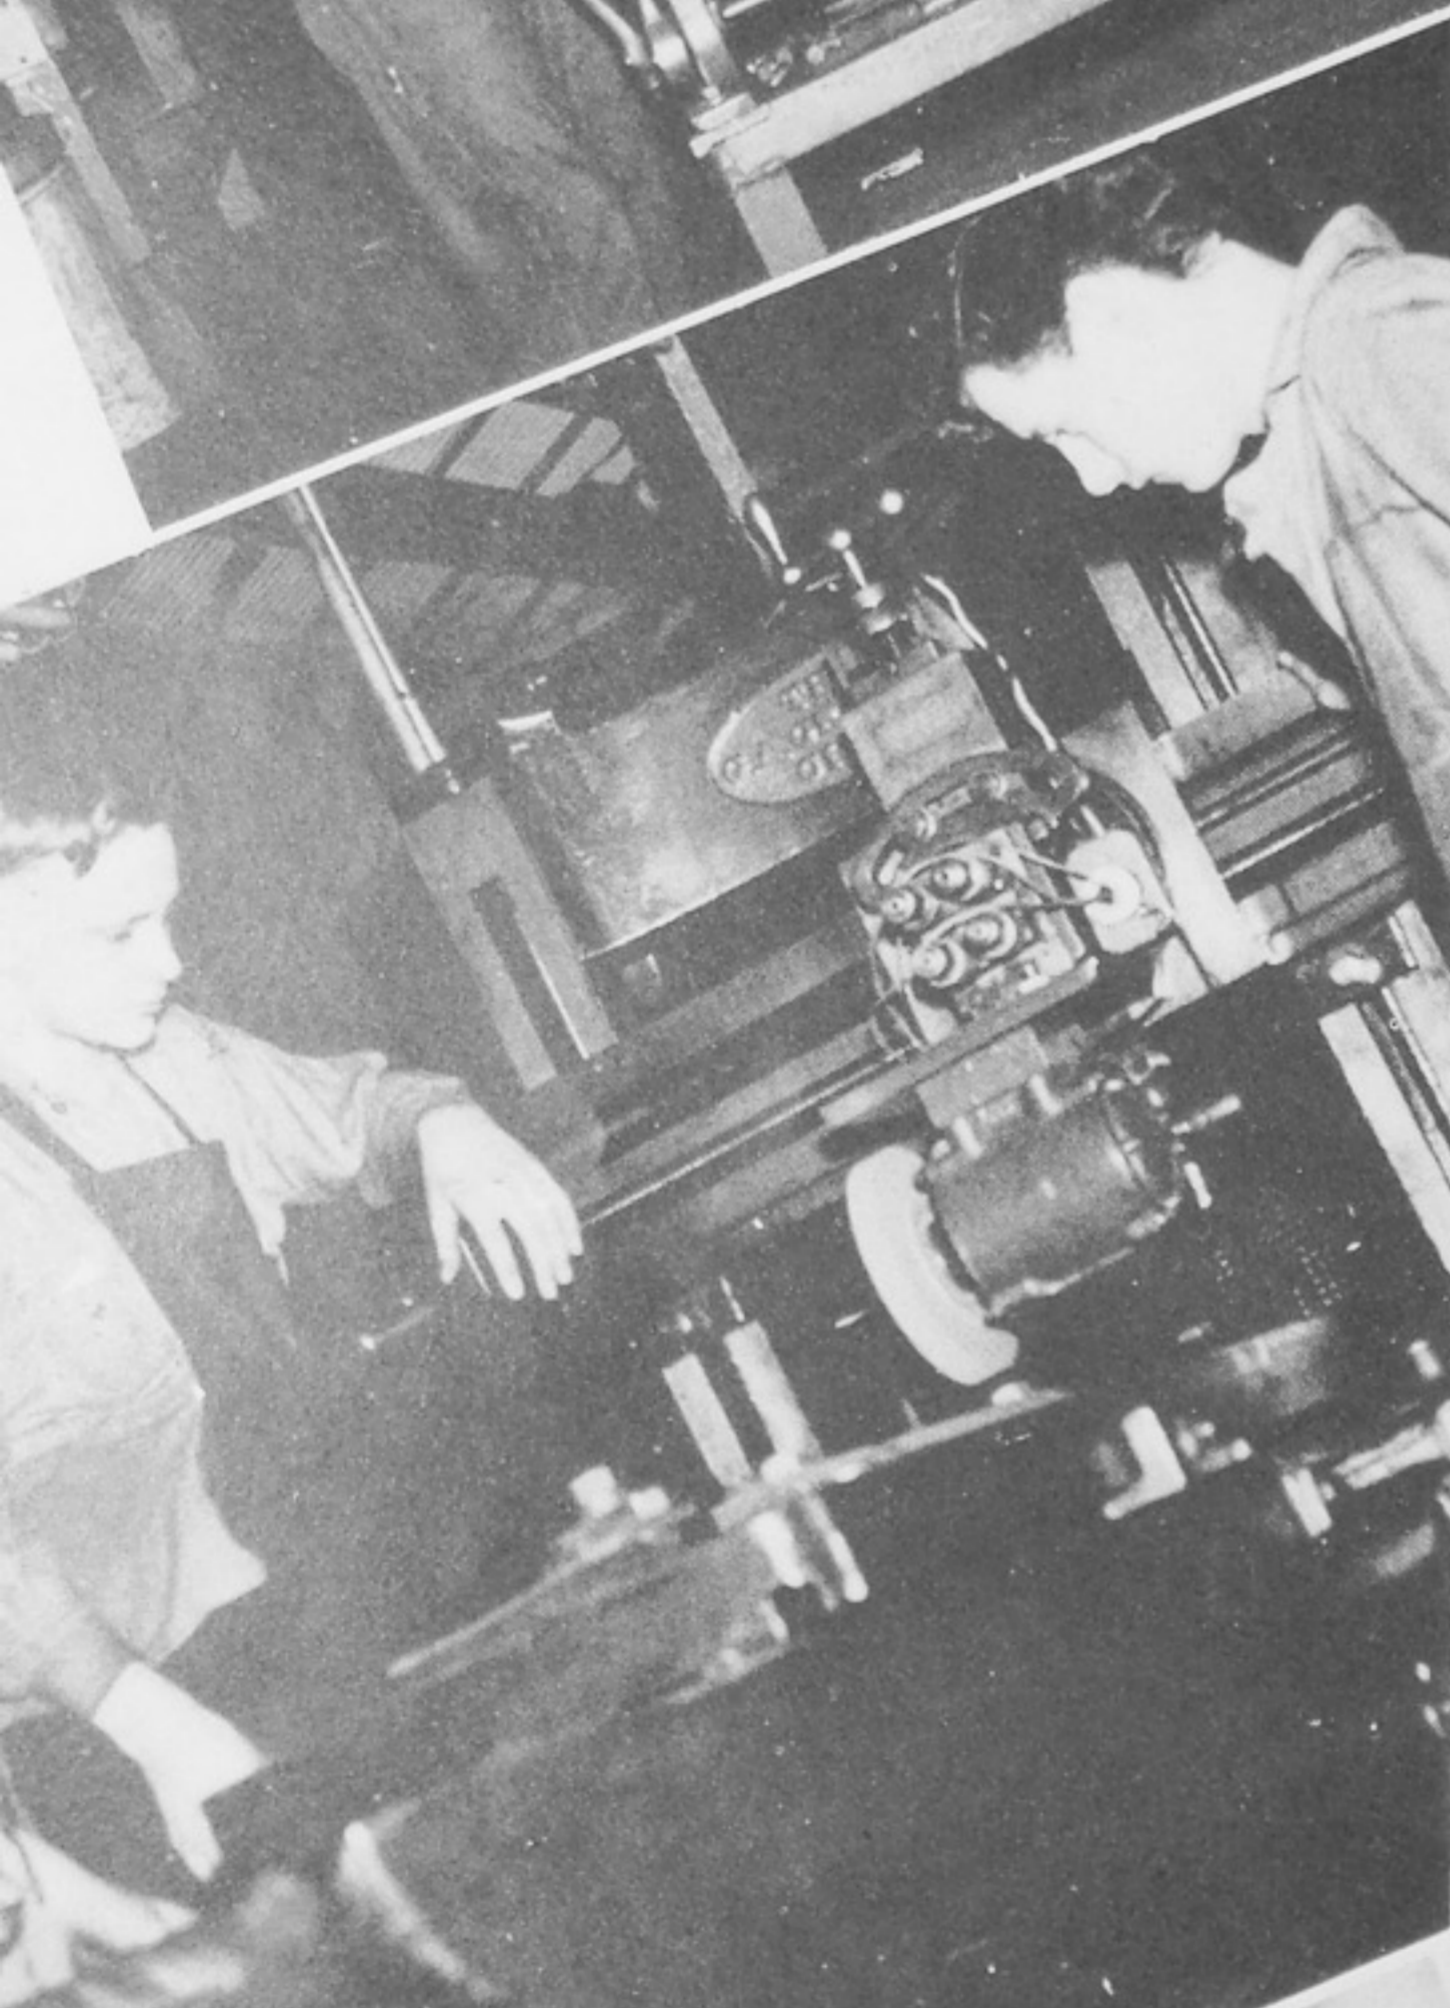

TRADES AND INDUSTRIES PROGRAM

Trades and Industries department provides courses in machine shop, automotive and sheet metal repair and air-conditioning this year. Freshmen have a pre-vocational orientation course which devotes one period a day to textbook study giving a preview of auto mechanics, sheet metal work, and machine shop. Joseph Yonovitz, coordinator, is pictured at the right interviewing a student. Working with him are Walter Thimmes, Owen Burkhardt, Dent Rowson, Robert Overturf, Forrest Spears, and James Shawver. Trades and Industries classes also organized a club and divided into basketball teams for intra class games and for play in school intra club tournament.
