LOOK! You have seen these words in the gym. LISTEN! You have heard these two words spoken boldly, enthusiastically by your coaches and your teachers.

Notre Dame's history attests to many accomplishments that reflect pride and desire — academics, sports, social and spiritual achievements.

We must not rest on past history, but boldly move into the future with the same spirit that empowered previous classes to reflect the philosophy of Notre Dame. As stated in the last paragraph of our school philosophy, "We desire to help our students develop positive self-images to become effective human beings who are self-knowing, self-accepting, just and responsible to themselves and to those with whom they share the earth."

The qualities of pride and desire must not be mistaken for false notions of personal gain and self-fulfillment, which is "egotism", a crass and crude attempt to prove you are somebody.

The Pride and Desire of Notre Dame will remain alive each time you choose to turn these pages and peer at Pride in helping at the Special Olympics, and Desiring to always help those in need.

these pictures of people, activities and events.

As you dream some nostalgia of your days gone by, say a little prayer that Pride and Desire remain more than a motto, but continue to be a quality of life to be lived out, a dream come true that will bring peace, happiness and health to each person who has, and will, pass through these halls of Blue and Gold.

With Pride and Desire, leave the past now, and go forth to share it with the world.

Father David Gwinner, Chaplain

Pride is receiving a pin for National Honor Society, with Desire to always do my best.

Pride is having alumnus Chuck Ealey, retired quarterback of the Canadian Football League, return, and the Desire is to reach for the stars as he has done.

Pride is winning the first district softball title in the school's history, and Desire to do our very best whatever the endeavor.

Pride is playing in the State Playoffs for the first time in the history of the school, and Desire is to always improve upon what you have achieved.

PRIDE AND DESIRE

Pride is having Lou Holtz, coach for the University of Notre Dame present a personalized football and give a pep talk to our football team, and Desire is to achieve the personal and professional success as he has.

Pride is being a gift bearer at our last school mass as a student, and Desire is to always be willing to participate in the mass.

Pride is being a candidate in Miss River Days, and Desire is to represent our school with dignity. Left: Kristin Urgan, Miss River Days candidate for 1986; Right: Susan Varacalli, Miss River Days candidate for 1987.

STUDENT LIFE

FOOTBALL HOMECOMING

Homecoming was a week long celebration at Notre Dame High School. Activities during that week included: the wearing of school colors on Blue and Gold Day, donation of canned goods for the food pantry at St. Monica's Church, creating ideas and implementing them for the hall decorating contest. Also held was a Hush Day when only academics were discussed during classes, and only football was discussed in the halls between classes by the football players. A Tiny Titan essay contest was held, in which the Notre Dame Elementary students wrote an essay on wanting to be a Titan. The winner was selected and invited to have lunch at our school and was introduced to the fans during half time of the football game. Voting by the student body to select the queen and her court also took place that week.

On Friday evening, a pep rally was held. At the pep rally, class skits were performed and a special routine was presented by the cheerleaders. Winners of the skits and hall decorating contests were announced, as well as the homecoming queen and her court.

On Saturday night during the halftime of the football game, the queen and her court were presented.

After the football team posted a 12-7 victory over the East Tartans, a dance was held at the Catholic Adults for Youth building. The Homecoming week activities were co-ordinated by the Student Council.

On the evening of February 20, between the junior-varsity and varsity games, our Homecoming Court was introduced, and Marianne Russell was crowned as queen.

An all school election earlier that day had determined the selection of a senior girl to reign as queen.

After posting a 69-43 win over Clay, the student body and guests enjoyed the Homecoming Dance held at the Catholic Adults for Youth building. Music for the evening was provided by Tim Shepherd, a local disc jockey. The student council organized and sponsored the Homecoming events.

The cheerleaders worked together to make the hoop for basketball homecoming.

SENIOR FAREWELL

As time passes by as it always does

And weeks turn into years,

We'd like to reflect on our high school days

Our sorrows, joys, and fears.

It seems the time has gone so fast

And soon we all must go,
But as the years keep moving on

The things we've learned will show

We've shared so much together

And although other things may pass,

The memories of our high school years

In our hearts will always last.

Sincerely,

Class of '88

MASSES

Hopefully, what will become a tradition was started this year. That being, the celebrating of mass with one class from our school and one class from Notre Dame Elementary, at different times during the year. By the end of the school year, every class in both schools, had celebrated a mass together. Masses were also held for all Holy Days this year. The beginning of Advent was celebrated by the lighting of the Advent Wreath, and a candle was lit each week by a different class.

During Catholic Schools Week, our school and Notre Dame Elementary once again combined to celebrate mass at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church. Bishop James Griffin was present to celebrate that mass. Afterwards, Bishop Griffin visited with students and faculty at our school.

Junior, Jerry Kovac, Receiving communion from Fr. Gwinner, Chaplain, at a mass in the chapel.

The last mass of the year, was celebrated in the school gym.

Chaplain, Fr. Gwinner, stands with sophomore, John Holsinger, waiting for the processional to begin.

May Crowning

Each May, Mary is crowned to show our devotion to her. On Wednesday, May 20, together with Notre Dame Elementary, the statue of Mary was crowned on the front lawn of our school. As Mary was crowned by second grader Julie Weems, the elementary children with assistance from the high school students, placed flowers at the foot of the statue. The ceremony was attended by many grandparents and parents also, and with the students, they joined in singing traditional songs honoring Mary.

TEENS ENCOUNTER CHRIST

Teens Encounter Christ, a week-end retreat for high school juniors and seniors, held in Columbus, was attended by many students this year. Those students holding memories from a T.E.C. weekend are: front row Bill Werner, Bitta Burmeister, Angie Hock. Second Row: Jerry Kovac, Beth Melcher, Craig Bruch. Third Row: Carl Eichenlaub, Chris Bauer. Back row: Susan Varacalli, Chris Connors.

We reflect on our past and look forward to the future, and hope that we have sufficiently prepared ourselves to become successful, contributing members of society. We take with us, our religious training, which has been instilled in us both at home and school, to guide us in whatever our endeavors may be. There are moments of joy and moments of fear as we look forward to a new beginning in our lives, but with confidence in knowing the bonds of friendship formed here, will last a lifetime. So we step forward, looking for new challenges, setting new goals, and pray we will be successful.

On August 6, 1986, I stepped from a plane in Columbus, after a long flight from my home city of Hamburg in West Germany. At that time, I didn't know what to expect. Everything was different, and I didn't know anyone. Within those next days, I met many new people who were so kind and friendly, and they helped me soon forget my fear of being separated from my German family and friends. A lot of people ask me what my greatest experience here in America has been, and they expect to hear something about cultural exchange, which was in fact a very important part of my year here in America, but the best experience was being with my host family the Schoonovers, my friends, and the school community. You all accepted me without any prejudice, and with so much friendliness. I grew to love your country and you "crazy" Americans, and I know I'm going to miss you a lot after my return to West Germany on July 11, 1987.

Thanks for letting me be a part of your school community and for being my friends. You all made this year very special and an experience I will never forget. You should be proud of your country and also of your school.

Love you all,
Britta

ACTIVITIES

MAKING THE GRADE

There was quite a variety of classes from which the students could select a course of study. The social aspect of school was enjoyed by all students, as they mingled between classes, enjoyed the "non-study" study hall, or stayed for a game of ball after school. However, they also realized early in the year, that the academic aspect of school would be demanding, and to succeed in school, it would be necessary to "make the grade."

Junior Karen Reed is busy typing an assignment during Mrs. Apel's Typing Class.

During French class the students often listen to the language tapes.

Seniors Bill Werner and Trish Anderson are diligently working on a final exam.

Doing dishes is a routine procedure in the Home Economics class, as demonstrated by juniors Brett Young, and Michele Noel, as Beth Melcher observes.

Junior, Susan Varacalli and Senior Roger Donini are busy drawing a chisel in Mechanical Drawing class.

Junior, Jon Born is measuring the width of a board before sawing it, in Woods II class.

Senior, Chris Bauer proudly holds his French project, a church.

Freshman, Lisa Nelson uses the library to obtain additional information regarding a class topic.

Petty Officer, first class, Jess Crockett, speaks to Mr. Welch's American History class regarding the setting of goals, and how to achieve them.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Members are selected according to qualifications of character, service, leadership and scholarship. To be eligible for membership, a junior must have a 3.5 cumulative grade average, and a senior must have a 3.2 cumulative grade average. The National Honor Society inducted four new members this year. They were: Seniors Jaime Bailey and Andy Pierron; Juniors, Chris Connors and Mary Beth Tacker. Dr. Steve Fitzter, a 1969 Notre Dame graduate and local dentist, spoke about qualities needed for success in all aspects of life. Guests at the tapping ceremony included representatives of area chapters of the National Honor Society, parents of new inductees, faculty and students of Notre Dame.

This year's participants are Beth Melcher and Jerry Kovac.

GIRL'S STATE BOY'S STATE

While at Boys/Girls State, Beth and Jerry learned about the laws of state government, and along with the other students participating, made up their own laws and elected their own government officers. The dates for Boy's State were: June 13-21 at Bowling Green State University. Girl's State was held June 20-27 at Ashland College.

JUNIOR HONORS

The students selected for Jr. Honors program have attained the highest cumulative grade point average. They are involved in numerous activities with students from other Jr. Honors programs in area schools throughout the year. Some of the programs in which they participated this year were: Ohio State University campus tour which included the School of Dance, Computer Lab and Music Department. They visited Battelle Institute also, while in Columbus. They heard different speakers on a variety of topics. The last visit of the year was to the State Capitol in Columbus. There they heard several politicians talk, and had a question and answer session with them. Chris Connors stated, "The program was a good learning experience."

QUIZ BOWL

Do you know amendment VIII to the Constitution of the United States? The goal of the Quiz Bowl team is to answer questions like this, and many other questions under rapid fire questioning during a match. Quick recall, and quick reflexes to hit the buzzer first, are necessary to succeed in a match. Teams with which Notre Dame had matches this year were South Webster, East, West, Minford, Clay, New Boston, Wheelersburg, Northwest, Portsmouth, and Green. The schools participating would host three matches to be held at their school, during the school day. Our Quiz Bowl team practiced often, at which time they had mock matches.

The Notre Dame Quiz Bowl team represented our school with dignity and pride. The co-captains for the team were: Roger Donini and Chris Connors.

They need time to relax and clown around a little, too.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Among the many activities in which the Student Council participated were: Assigning decorating responsibilities for both basketball and football homecoming, and other events involved with homecoming. The Student Council approached Mr. Elcesser, principal, regarding a school dress down day. As a result of discussion, every Wednesday was designated as "jeans or shorts day", for those students receiving a perfect conduct score on their report card the previous quarter. This is an example of how the Student Council and Administration can work together effectively.

The Student Council also held a book fair in the Spring. According to president, Beth Glockner, "It was time consuming but it was worth it." Beth made the statement in reference to her year as president of Student Council.

OHIO SCHO- LASTIC TESTS

Twenty-five students chose to be tested in all aspects of academic studies. With pencils ready early on May 2, the testing began. As if being nervous about the testing wasn't enough, several of the test takers also were anxious about the prom to be held that evening. In spite of nervousness for whatever reason, four of the students did place in their respective subject areas. Students receiving district recognition were Chris Connors for Algebra II, and Jeannie Schoonover for English 10. Also, Angie Glockner placed in French in Division V, and Denise Bailey placed in Spanish in Division VIII.

HIGHLIGHT

Bill Werner and Sallie Kirby worked together on a final layout.

The Highlight staff worked busily preparing a school newspaper for us each week. If there wasn't someone asking questions such as, "What is a Spiaggia?", someone was asking what you wanted in your Christmas stocking. There were interviews, movie reviews, sports items, and articles always keeping us up to date on what was happening at Notre Dame. The staff learned many things about publishing a paper and perhaps it will guide some of them into a journalism career one day. Mrs. Betty Apel is the adviser for the Highlight Staff.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Five seniors received memberships in the Notre Dame Chapter of Quill and Scroll. It is an international honor society for high school journalists. Seniors only are eligible for membership, and they must maintain an A average in journalism. Those selected this year were: Andy Perron, Sallie Kirby, Jan Gerken, Trish Anderson, Bill Werner.

They were presented a sterling key chain. Bill Werner, editor, received a gold editor's pin.

YEAR-BOOK

When it was decided to have a yearbook after an absence of one the previous two years, many students were excited and wanted to be a part of it becoming a reality. Many students worked long hours selling the advertising and were very successful at doing that. Students also helped prepare the layout sheets and took pictures. It was soon realized that to have a yearbook to be proud of, it would take a lot of work and patience. Things finally began to materialize and the finished project was sent to the publisher, with students anxiously awaiting the arrival of the book in September.

FRENCH — SPANISH CLUB

The French-Spanish Club had many activities this year. Their first event was a Christmas Dinner party. The members enjoyed foods that were native to the French and Spanish speaking countries. After dinner, the members had an opportunity to break the home made pinata. On March 28, several members entered their projects in the Language Fair held at Ohio University. Several of those members were rewarded with superior and excellent ratings. Senior Dawn Robinson received superior rating for her model of a formal French garden. Sophomore, Carmela Iovina also received a superior rating for her project, which was a very colorful OJO. Sophomores Shannah Cook and Jill Weems received excellent ratings for their pig pinata, and for a drawing of the Arc de Triomphe, respectively. Two clubs projects also received ratings. The Big Bird pinata received superior, and the Opus pinata awarded an excellent rating. The grand finale for the club was an end of school year dinner and softball game at Mrs. Riepenhoff's home. Other activities this year include a fashion show and a short play presented by the Spanish II class. They both took place at the Home-School Association sponsored International Dinner.

OFFICE WORKERS

The office workers make a real contribution to the school day. They assist Mrs. Deskins with collecting, typing, and distributing the absentee sheets. They answer numerous phone calls, deliver messages and run other errands. Without the office workers the faculty and staff would not accomplish all that they do!

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club is a very busy group of students. They decorated every player's house, as well as the coaches houses, before every Southern Ohio Conference game, and state playoff game. They delivered bags of cookies and candy when they decorated. They made locker signs before football and girl's and boy's basketball games, as well as volleyball. They were an enthusiastic group and brought a lot of spirit to the school. Mrs. Kathy Milligan was the adviser for the Pep Club.

NOTRE DAME FOOTBALL

What a year!

The Titans started the season with an impressive 25-0 victory over North Gallia. It was just a preview of what was to come.

Winning the Minford game 30-8 was another outstanding team effort and kept the momentum going. The only loss of the regular season schedule, was handed to us by East Knox, with a score of 27-20. They recovered from that loss quickly and proceeded on to win their fourteenth Southern Ohio Conference crown, with a come-from-behind 20-14 overtime victory over Valley.

The most successful season since 1971 became a reality, with a 20-0 victory over Northwest.

A team rich with football tradition and many loyal fans, looked forward to playing in the State Playoffs for the first time in the history of the school.

Emotions were high before, during, and after the game against Berne Union. The Titans posted their seventh shutout of the year winning 7-0 in a memorable defensive game.

The eventual state champions, Newark Catholic, brought our season to an end by defeating us 3-0 after a defensive battle in the State Playoffs.

Fr. Patterson was the team Chaplain this year.

Andy Pierron, Jim Born, and Carl Eichenlaub, were selected to play in the North-South Bowl game at Chillicothe, to be held in June. Coach of the year of the Southeastern District, Mr. Randy Martin, will assist in coaching the South team, comprised of athletes from Scioto County schools.

Coaching staff includes; Front: Mr. Randy Martin, head coach. Back row: Mr. Gene Welch, scouting coach; Mr. Joe Albrecht, Mr. Ed Schmidt, Mr. Dave Tobias, assistant coaches.

Words from Coach Tobias. Optimistic! This year's team ended its season with an overall record of 8-8, and a 6-8 record in league play. "As I reviewed the season's final statistics I saw some very positive production." Our team out-hit their opponents, a .301 average to a .245 average, with 132 hits, to their 106. The team averaged 6 runs a game, while yielding only 385 earned runs per game, and averaged almost 7 runs per game. They said we couldn't field a ball as we gave up almost 4 unearned runs per game, off 50 Notre Dame errors." Even with the problems of errors, the Titans were able to knock off teams like Clay, Wheelersburg, New Boston, and Northwest. New Boston and Northwest were eventual District and Regional Tournament finalists, respectively, this year. Team members that are graduating this year, are Jim Born (.310 batting average), and Andy Pierron (.300 batting average). The Titans are looking forward to an even better season next year, and plan on being contenders for the league championship in the Southern Ohio Conference.

We set our goal to win a district championship which we achieved, and then lost to the eventual state champion in regional play. Next year our goal will be to win an S.O.C. championship and a regional championship. It will not be easy, but certainly possible, with the fine team that returns for the 1988 season. I thank the team for the fine effort this season and I am looking forward to an even better effort next season."

CHEERLEADERS

The Cheerleaders began working together as soon as school was dismissed last June, in preparation for camp. The camp which they attended this year was in July, and took place at Rio Grande College. The cheerleaders shared the dorms with cheerleaders from other schools in Ohio, who were also participating. The camp was presented by the National Cheerleading Association. While at 'Camp America', new cheers and routines were learned. Our squad was rewarded for their dedication and hard work, as they earned two first place ribbons, and two second place ribbons for their performances, as well as several spirit awards. They continued to work hard together, fine-tuning their cheers and routines in preparation for football and basketball season. Their hard work and perseverance paid off, as they did a great job cheering for our teams and creating spirit with our fans. Mrs. Carolyn Kovac was advisor for the cheerleading squad. At the Athletic Banquet, awards were presented to: Jaime Bailey, Blue and Gold award; Michele Noel, Most Improved Cheerleader; and Christie Weber, Pride and Desire.

PRIDE AND DESIRE

Junior, Beth Glockner has the task of cleaning out a locker full of a school year's accumulation.

COLOPHON

The TITAN was published by Herff Jones Publishing Company, in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. There were 133 books printed, with 104 pages in each. The cover was an embossed smokey blue Leathertex, as the base material, applied with blue foil on Rich Gold silkscreen. The binding was Smyth-sewn, and the paper used was 80 pound matte. Gold end sheets were also used. Type used was Chelsea Light for headings and divider pages. Chelsea Black was used for the senior chart toppers list. Garamond was used for captions and copy.

The staff would like to thank the following people and organizations, for making this book possible. Thanks to Mrs. Lois Connors, Mrs. Chris Sand, and Mrs. Judy Weems, for helping with lay-outs, and proofreading; Mrs. Amy Fleming for her typing; and Mrs. Rosie Pierron, for taking book orders. Thanks to the mothers and students who worked so diligently selling ads; Mr. Dwight Cropper, adviser, for his guidance and support; and Mr. Doug Ramsey, for his assistance with photography.

Thanks go to 'Georgian Studios', for taking many pictures. Acknowledgments to the 'Portsmouth Daily Times', and 'Community Commons', for donating pictures. Thanks to 'Billy Graham Studios' for taking and developing pictures for us, also. Thank you to our advertisers for their ads. Thanks to the teachers, for their patience in allowing their classes to be interrupted for picture taking, and meetings.

A very special thank you goes to a special lady, Mrs. Joy King. Without her encouragement, guidance, and broad shoulders, this book may not have become a reality. We wish her continued success as a sales representative for Herff Jones Company.

A special thank you also goes to Mr. John Elcesser, for his co-operation, and for being instrumental in establishing the Titan yearbook staff.

Crying, yet smiling, senior Trisha Anderson, in the middle, shows mixed emotions of graduation, as she hugs Malisa Sand, and Karen Reed.

Smiles and congratulations were the final order of the graduation ceremony for Jaime Bailey, and Carl Eichenlaub.
