Senior Mentorship Program

The Senior Mentorship Program was designed to recognize academic excellence and to offer opportunities for career experiences. Selection was based upon grade point average.

Tomorrow's Leaders

Aaron Fetters, Tyler Haney, and Kim Pack were chosen as Tomorrow's Leaders 1994. This is a national award given to fewer than one percent of seniors throughout the nation. Participation was based upon grade point average, application, and a written essay expressing each student's idea of a futuristic society.

A New Addition To The Senior Class

Yasuko Nichole Watanabe

Minford was lucky to have Yasko Watanabe, a Japanese exchange student, during the 1994 school year. Yasuko lived with Mr. & Mrs. Doug Pack and their two children, Kim and Jim Doug, on Kinker Road in Minford. Yasuko experienced many American customs during the year: dressing as a package of M & M's for Halloween, playing girls' basketball, going to the prom, not to mention making a host of new friends such as Ginny, Brenda, and Mindy.

1993 River Days

"For me River Days was a wonderful experience. Many people said it would be a lot of fun but what they did not consider was all the time, effort, and hard work that was involved. I met many new people from all walks of life, gained many new friends and gained self-confidence. The biggest thrill for me was the confidence and backing that you all gave me from the beginning (selecting me) to the end (River Days night)."

1994 Falcon Yearbook Staff

Changes, changes, and more changes! The 1994 Falcon Yearbook Staff started another school year without an advisor. It then went from having none to having three! Needless to say, by the time everything settled down, it was after Christmas and we were behind.

It has been our intent to get as many pictures as possible in the yearbook. We hope you like our ideas and that you will be tolerant of our mistakes.

We would like to thank Kim Pack and Brenda Blaine for helping us get started.
