Snow flurries were flying in New Boston as the juniors began prom planning. April 26 seemed very far away.

The prom was held aboard the "Ole Susannah" from 7:00 until 10:00.

The couples were entertained by DOA while cruising the Ohio.

Pink and Grey were selected by the juniors as their class colors. Everyone received pink and grey arm bands and memory books.

The evening was warm and beautiful. Many couples found themselves enjoying the open upper level deck between dances.

After arriving back to the Court Street landing the couples rushed home to change and try their hand at bowling. The after prom concluded at 1:00. It was the perfect ending to an unforgettable evening.

FAR BEYOND

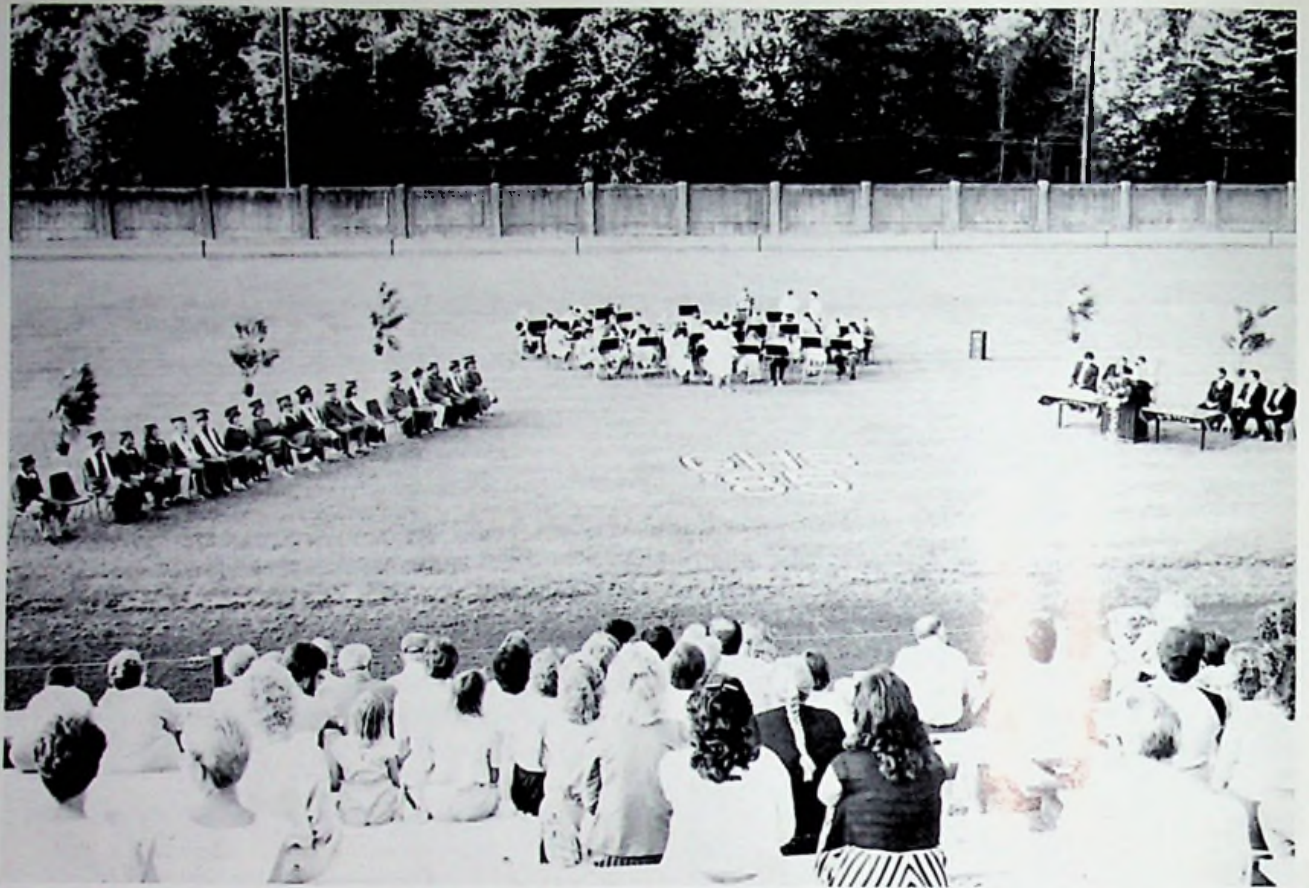

Far beyond the school we've known,
Far beyond our town
What of you and I what will we be Where are we going and what will we see Searching our minds for some truth to reveal what thought were fantasy
What now is real.

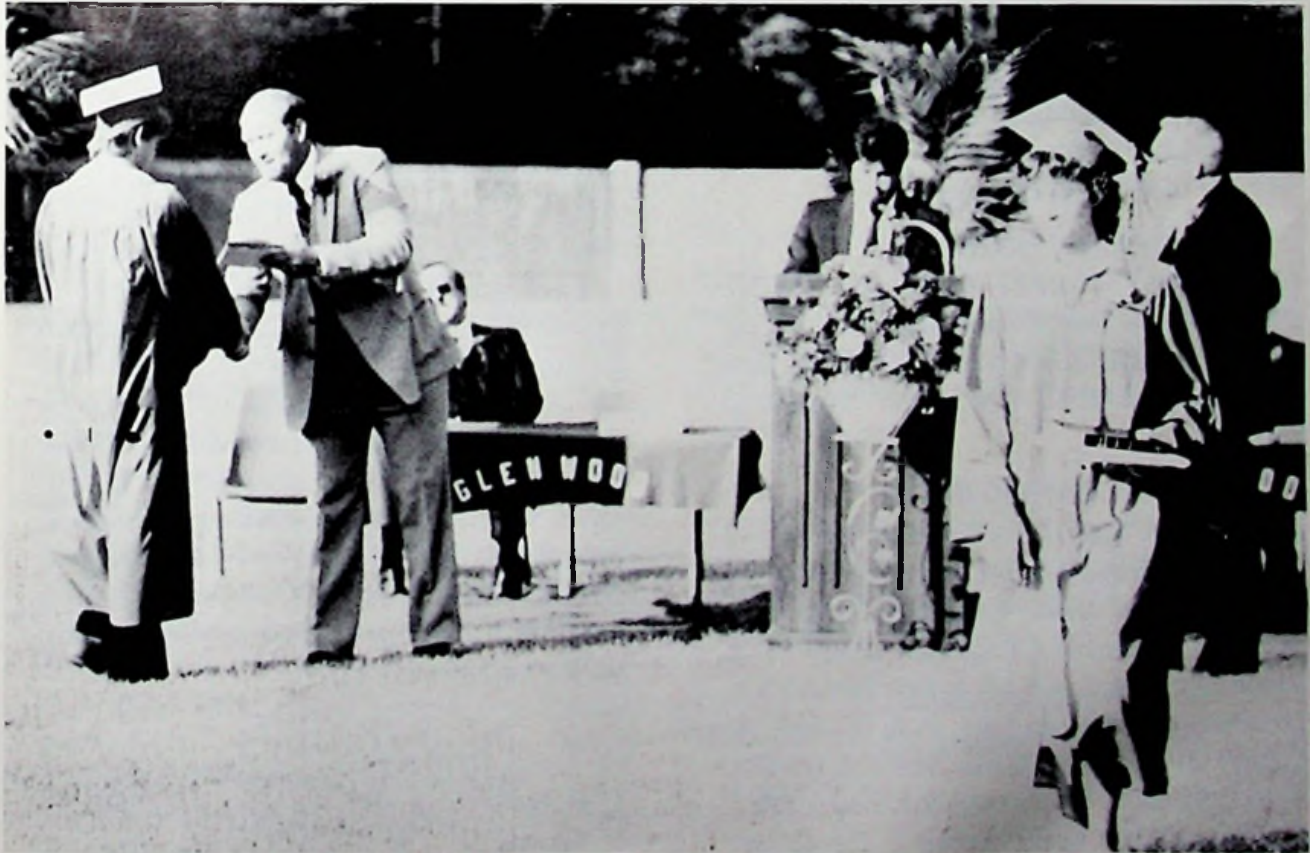

Far beyond this school where we learned,
Far beyond these halls,
We realize that teachers were there who cared to make it begin, what we thought would last forever has now come to an end.
Searching our part for things that we've learned is it our life or just something we dreamed

Far beyond this school we've known,
Far beyond our dreams,
What kind of world are we going to find, will it be real or just all in our minds
What of you and I what will we be,
Where will we be going and what will we see.
