SENIOR TRIP

Col. 1.
Whoa Bus Driver!
No Nukes Is Good Nukes
The Jerk(s)

Col. 2
Temporary Blind Child
Where We Stayed

dark halls, spit balls,
walking in the rain;
cold rooms, bent spoons,
drive us all insane.

shiny braces, stolen bases,
recording in Spanish class;
getting excused or being abused,
forgetting the classroom pass.

being tardy, or a smarty,
detention in study hall;
chewing gum, or being a bum,
pushed off the high school wall.

gym class, tarnished brass,
selling candy bars;
fire drills, paint spills,
piling into cars.

best friends, busted pens,
class ring time is here;
twirling and parading,
at assemblies we can cheer.

signing tiger yearbooks,
writing essays and reports;
adding up accounting,
playing dangerous sports.

prom plans, school exams,
roaming in the halls;
writing notes, trading coats,
learning Newton's law.

football games, paper planes,
carving in the desks;
throwing rocks, fixing clocks unexpected tests.

It won't be long before we'll be gone,
but our spirits will never ever say goodbye to the quiet halls of Glenwood High.

— Pam Gulley
