We have quite a cast of characters here at Clay.

Ms. McGlone is hard at work on her computer.

Mr. Warnock just loves cafeteria duty.

Mrs. Scott looks really busy.

It doesn't look like a good time to get sent to ISS.

Mrs. Redden must have met the yearbook deadline.

What a smile!

Goggle-mania?

Is Mr. Warnock speechless??

Mrs. Brammer looks happy. Prom and Homecoming were both great!

School Work

Another Biology II project...

Matt and Coach Schomburg get ready to give blood.

Jill and Natasha work on a collage in Journalism class after the events of Sept. 11th.

Megan is working, but what is Kayla doing?

This was a "Kodak moment".

Teamwork

Only Mrs. Deal could get Zach to work like this.

Even Lance is studying!!!

Doesn't this project deserve an "A"?

Come on, Becky, help me pretend I'm doing homework.

Yes, I do look good.

Jenny tries to cheer Lance up.

Senior Katie Hempill gives Jessica and Courtney her secrets to success.

Nice smile, Amanda.

Yeah, we're cool.

Hey Josh, what should I say?

Becky and Dre are ready to play.

Smile!

Jake and Sarah dance the night away.

"I'll be there for you..."

v2002

< Stealing much of the headlines were the events on and after Sept. 11th. More than 3,000 people lost their lives at the twin towers of the World Trade Center, the Pentagon and aboard the four hijacked commercial airliners. Also getting the spotlight were the rescue workers and volunteers who were recognized by all Americans as heroes. Sadly, it also marked the end of R&B sensation Aaliyah, another one of the Beatles' fab four, George Harrison, and legendary comedian, Jack Lemmon. <

George Harrison, and legendary comedian, Jack Lemmon. <

VIGILS

An outpouring of emotion was expressed from coast to coast by a nation in mourning.

RUDY GIULIANI

The NYC Mayor's words and actions were a pillar of strength in a time of crisis.

FUND-RAISING

Our nation's youth displayed to the world their patriotism and compassion by donating blood and raising monetary contributions in a number of creative ways for the victims and their families.

Newscom

< After Sept. 11, sitcoms offered plenty of laughs. "Undeclared" centered on quirky college roommates faced with the freedoms of being away from home for the first time. The bewitching comedy, "Sabrina," conjured up strange changes as she became a college sophomore. "Gilmore Girls" explored the odd relationship between a mom with a heart of a teenager and a teenage daughter that acts like an adult. "Angel" used its dark humor to reveal the twists and turns of a vampire avenger in L.A. <

> NEW SITCOMS > "Scrubs" puts a wildly inventive and hilarious spin on hospital life. Instead of assaulting viewers with jokes, "Bernie Mac's" life unravels in unexpected, offbeat ways while he raises his sister's kids.

Country music got a kick from Tim McGraw who was named CMA Entertainer of the Year, while ears couldn't get enough of newcomer Alicia Keys' "Songs In A Mirror." >

< What were the haute fashion trends? For starters, low-rise jeans were in. And credit Madonna for causing people to switch from the baseball cap to the tattered, straw cowboy hat. The look changed after Sept. 11. People showed their true colors with the return of Old Glory and by wearing "I Love NY" t-shirts. The hair: rough, tumbled and tousled emerged to contrast elegant styles for a balanced look. For zooming around, let's not forget the shoes. >

<MICHELLE KWAN <As four-time World Champion, six-time National Champion and Olympic silver medalist, Kwan puts her best skate forward, combining technical skill with artistry and grace, as she set her sights on the gold.

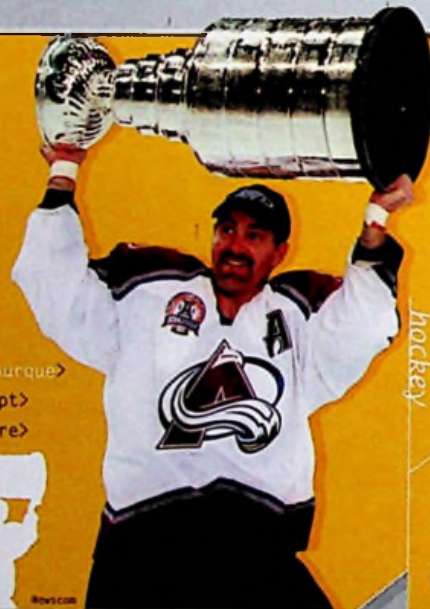

> Recapping a few sports highlights: the thrill of getting a 22-year monkey off Ray Bourque's back made the Avs' 3-1 championship victory over the Devils extra sweet. And let's not forget the World Series where the Dbacks (after losing two dramatic games in extra innings to the Yankees) claimed the championship with a 3-2 win in game seven. His Airness also returned to the hardwood, this time sporting 23 on a Wizards' jersey during the 2002 All-Star Game <
