River Days 2006

Bethany Hess

Bethany would like to thank all the students at Clay High School for giving her the opportunity to represent them this year. "I am so glad I had this experience."

Aaron Bihl was Bethany's "knight in shining armor" in the parade and her escort in the pageant.

Bethany looked beautiful for the evening gown portion of the pageant.

Bethany walks across stage during the introductions at the pageant.

YB: What was your most memorable experience?

B: Volunteering in Wheelersburg for the Challenger Baseball League. I liked helping children with handicaps.

YB: What do you feel you've gained from this experience?

B: I learned how to manage my time better. I wasn't late for anything all summer!

YB: What motivated you to be Clay's River Days candidate?

B: When little Tara Evans was the Clay candidate and I wanted to be just like her. I thought the pageant looked like a lot of fun, so ever since I've wanted to be in River Days.

YB: Was it worth it?

B: It was a lot of work, but it was also a lot of fun working on the float with my friends and meeting all the other candidates.

YB: Would you do it again?

B: Yes, I would.

YB: What advice would you give to future River Days candidates?

B: Don't procrastinate. The sooner you get your float done the better because you have 12 community service projects with the pageant. Also just be yourself. Don't get up on stage and pretend to be someone you're not. Just be yourself.

After Prom

The After Prom was held at the Life Center. Activities included casino games, volleyball, basketball, corn hole and swimming.

MARCOLO

Marcelo leans against a tree on the Elks Golf Course on one of our 7 snow days.

Marcelo and Micah both have birthdays in April. They celebrated both at Toro Loco.

Marcelo Moreno is a foreign exchange student from Sao Paulo, Brazil. He speaks English, Spanish and Portuguese and understands Italian. He hopes to be a doctor. He lives with Micah Redden and his family.

Sao Paulo is the third largest city in the world, so it was quite different here in Scioto County. One thing Marcelo missed greatly was public transportation. Since he cannot drive he had to rely on Mr. and Mrs. Redden, Micah or other friends to take him places.

Marcelo had many "firsts" here in the United States. He saw snow for the first time, went sledding, built a snowman and even got to go snow skiing at Winter Place in West Virginia.

Marcelo played on the soccer team and the tennis team while here. In soccer, he averaged one goal per game. He played #3 singles on the tennis team. It was his first time playing tennis. He played squash in Brazil and so caught on very quickly.

Sonja poses at Alexandria Point with the Ohio River at her back.

Sonja Neuendorf is a foreign exchange student from Kiel, Germany. She lives with Lori and Mark Scott. Sonja speaks German, English, French and understands Norwegian and Latin.

Sonja played on the soccer team, earning a spot on the All-District Girls' Soccer Team. She also played on the girls' basketball team. Even though Sonja is 6'3" she had never played basketball. It was a new experience for her and she caught on very quickly. Sonja was also elected Senior Attendant for Homecoming. She plays the flute and made the All-County Band.

Sonja has been learning to cook and makes very good omelets, according to Mrs. Scott.

Even though Sonja is a senior here, she still has 3 more years of high school left in Germany. Sonja will miss seeing all the different kinds of vintage vehicles here. Gasoline is $7 per gallon in Germany so fuel efficient cars are driven mostly. In Germany hugs and kisses are always given upon greeting. Sonja misses that friendliness.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

THIS YEAR'S NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY TAPPING THEME WAS "ARMY". THE FOUR SENIOR MEMBERS TAPPED FOUR NEW MEMBERS, TWO JUNIORS AND TWO SENIORS. THE CURRENT NHS MEMBERS PARADED THROUGH THE HALLS WAGGING CAMPS AND WHEN THE TIME CAME TO TAP A NEW MEMBER THEY BLEW THEIR WHISTLES AND STORMED INTO THE CLASSROOM. THE NEW MEMBERS' FACES WERE PAINTED AND THEY HAD TO WEAR THEIR ARMY T-SHIRT, AND SOME OF THEM EVEN HAD TO DO PUSHUPS.

T

he 2006-2007 Volleyball Season had it's ups and downs. This was Coach Jill Tipton's first year to coach the Varsity team. It seemed hard because they never had a straight line-up without the setter being sick or their trash player being hurt. They ended the season with an overall record of 16-8.

KNOCKING DOWN THE COMPETITION

This was the "Year of the Seniors." With 7 seniors on the squad, the underclassmen saw very little playing time. The team motto was "discipline, dedication and determination." Focusing on that motto helped the team develop a mind set to get better every game and to be playing their best at tournament time.

One of the highlights of the season was beating Waterford in the district semi-finals. It also felt great to beat East to win the sectional championship.

Justin Craft and Kent Robinson made 1st team All-SOC. Ryan Cucore made 2nd team All-SOC. Robinson made 2nd team All-District. Robinson and Cucore were team MVPs.

Whitney,

We are so very thankful for your life, your silent strength of character, your endurance and most of all your faith. Your favorite verse is Isaiah 41:10. It is a life verse; it will lead, guide, sustain and comfort you. Your sense of humor has given us joy and laughter. They say dynamite comes in small packages and you're our sparkler. We look forward to the plans the Lord has for you. Keep Him first and enjoy life!
