Oct. 5.

After spending a delightful evening was bringing our pleasant trip to a close when I received from a cannon ball in my breast, the shell known as G. B.

After discharging my rifle, which was my first time, I saddled my horse and homeward bound.

Oct. 6.

A rainy morning. Cleared up and got cooler. I felt all over in spots all day. He hauled corn out of the bottoms. I got to bed a little earlier than a common. I slept in the barn last night. On awaking I heard them laughing about the old boy getting up.

Oct. 7.

A cloudy ball day. The turned our first furry for wheat to day. Pa went to town.

There were 4 sheep here.

Two stayed all night. Press. Horganit Rose.

14 years ago to day Pa started from the sweat.

Aunt Rye's.

Pa went up to mill. They broke the buggy. Lilla
trayed up them
I harrowed in wheat the rest of the time.

Oct. 18.

A nice day but
The wind made
it disagreeable.
The furnace was
so hot & running.

Smith & I
took on an expedition
by punching out
that we was on the eve of

celebrating a party.

He gave them
the slip and
went to the box
where I remained
the night.

Oct 19

A cool cloudy

Rained & snowed
a little during the day. The first snow this year. He worked at the cribs all
day. Pa is layed
up with the rheumatism.
I have not got read of my cold. Drank
a lot of pepper
tea this evening.

Oct. 31.

A cold day.
Snowed more to day than it
did yesterday
but nothing to talk about why
it is the first
snow this year.
Pa is better of his Rheumatism
They have wet
all day at the cribs. Potter & Smith started to town this evening
intending to drive all night. Think of it, 9
