Day of Emory's

July 7, 1890
A very warm day, the sun all day at one Elmer, I was
was a good deal
as bad.
It rained last night, terrible hard and in fixing up rain
night.

July 2.

A warm day. The

July 3.

A warm day
The were up early and began pumping about 5 o'clock and got down about 4.

He worked hard
I went home
after supper.

Uncle Mack was here and Lewis and Willie.

Mack stayed all night.

July 2.

A nice forenoon
but a shower
afternoon.
It rained hard
several times.
We took a load of hay up to the ranch, and then started
for Mr. Hamner
with the press.
Smith got out
over the bank
and started, so
he left it.
I eat my dinner
at Mr. Hamner's.
The boys went to the ranch. I did not take any 4.

I am trying to clean the ranch, a very fat chick, the boys stayed all night at
Mr. Hamner's
last night.
When they come home, I'll set them to getting a lot more.
Pa came home after dinner and had

July 5.

Went out of my place when we left of down to
Mr. Hammer
On our way down they met Julia
who told us
of Arthur's death
then we got home. George had been
and told them
of his death Jan. 1st and you appointed
pall-bearers Smith would not serve.

July 6.

A nice day
A little storm every cool at night.
I got ready
and went down to the Sadoll Philip going up
the lane
the barn. I saw the house
It was a sad night. Arthur who left her
few months ago, could now brother. He died in Chunchuter, K. A. where he had been conversing for a number of company at Cleveland, O.

He went away
carrying his valise, but came back by the power of some one else.

He was stayed
by Jim. Capt. J.
George & he went to visit Mathew, Frank Newlon
and I were the pulling across the way - having in the duty granyard. A few of my boys walked back to eat my dinner with George & I left

I had a car home. This was a memorable day. At the breakfast table
this morning
I heard Pat return from his being the first time I ever heard him call on the name of the Lord.

July 7.

A marshy day.
Gene & I took the rest of the trip up the river, down to the Hammer.
We passed a little over 2 turn after getting
up. The first time I ever saw the hammer.

We started to haul up the water at.

July 8.

A very warm
day. The river with the big hammer.
We got along
slowly.
I stayed all night with the hammer
for the first time.
Why get up
later.

July 9.

A fine day.
A nice puzzle
game.

I have finished
up packing
for Hammond.

He had 10 tons
of 99 pounds.

Weight. I covered the machines over
the main crane

house - got her
in time for supper.

They had hauled the wheat and were cutting

to hauling hay.
I hung on a raky huge the rest of the evening.

July 10.

A nice day.
It was very cool, but slight

for this time in the year, I snow
all the forenoon

we started a stack of dry wood, & taking over the hay down in the bottom

so we can pull it from the main crane

with a chain

and a couple of dozen chains
to take to work
tomorrow.

July 18

A very cool night
The days are nice. We stacked hay today.

Got the most of the hay up
to the
went to town then returning with their children
They got back about 9 o'clock in the evening.

July 19

A very cool night
The day is still pleasant Got a spear
of a hawk a few rows of potatoes.

Went to down
a lot of hay
by a man
down
a large tree of the
to the
the
this evening.

July 13.
It looks like
rain this morning.
But did not rain until evening.

Mattie and I went up to hunt Rana.
Hunt box was there. The same time in the evening. The same time on the evening.

David & Lucretia Lemore was up to board the train.
They went home
in the evening
after the rain.
Smith came home.

July 14.
A nice day.
But not a good day. It was cloudy. I went down to Mr. Haman to let him know about a car for his hay.

After I came back
I showed straw
service plants.
Lloyd came up about noon.
He stayed all
night.

July 15.

A nice day. It was cloudy and felt like rain.
It was very
warm about noon.
Got a hard rain was coming on us.
The wife is taking a cold. She was not ready to put up till
in the afternoon
noon.

Goldie's family came out here
and stayed
all night.

July 16.

A warm day.
Smith & I plowed and hauled the manure out.
The three went to stacking.
It began to like rain but the grass was
dry. The lacker started Pa mowed till noon.

July 17,

a nice day cooler than the preceded day. Smith & I cut oats till noon. Jim & I stacked hay all day. Squirt & Smith helped us. Pa went down with the horse.

Lilly went down for the mail. The mail with Cordelia's came. She got a letter from Susan. Mother mailed the

July 18.

A nice cool breeze blowing The trees were blowing at our oats. We worked at them all day.

Hubert worked in Squirt's place after supper.
Pa got back at supper time.

July 19.

A nice cool day.
It was very
cool last night
Pa cradled Ada
all supper time.
Pattie, Smith &
I went over on the Chappell
to church. Bro, Anderson preached.
He has been gone for several years since
he has been here. Smith & stayed all night with David.

July 20.

A nice warm day. It was very cool last night.
Pa all went over to church this morning. The girls rode over in the express.
David, ~~Smith~~,
& I walked over. I went over to Mr. Jenkins
for dinner.
Stayed there til
church time.
We got home about
midnight.
Pa was over and came home with us.

July 21.

A nice cool day.
The finished our cows. But grass
level was down.
He intends going south.

Patty came home.
Lib Lemmon came home with her
She eat dinner
with us.

July 22.

A nice cool day.
Very cool at night. We are working in our
hay. Ben took a load of Dr.
Hammer's hay
to the switch.
Ben finished the car-load.

He cut grass all day yesterday and to day.

A good deal of hay down.

July, 23.

A cold rainy day I went down to Mr. Hamner to see about the hay.
Sent the bill
to Mackwell, and wrote a letter to Mr. Mather.
It rained all day.

After I came back I began another and in
Mr. Mather.
Thinking they are now not sufficient.

July, 24.

A cloudy cool day. It rained
for an hour
all the forenoon.
The rest of the day was clear and I had to patch
the barn roof
I finished up Mather's letter.

July 23;

A nice day.
He finished
another stack
and started another one.

He went
of the bays put up hay

evening.

He stayed all
night.

July, 28.

A nice day.

The afternoon was very warm.

He hauled in our oat and black hay the rest of the day with one team.
The pedler & Land
left this morning.

Lewis also left.
He took his grip
and started for Cumberland Gap.

July, 29.

A nice day
The nights are cool and the days warm.

We are still putting up hay Pa finished
cutting the grass over across the creek.

July, 30.

A nice day.
Barnes & I hauled hay all day.
It rained in the afternoon after noon. But the rain stopped the work
till the sun
dried it off.
A male Quail was down to see about
the hay.
We went home after we had
by the afternoon John Hentzel and Emmie & family
got supper here
this evening.

July 31
A nice day
It is warm weather.

We hauled in hay all day.

Pat cut grass
all day.

Smith started
over to Skipton Pa.
to see about
the corn

We put Tom Charlton out to told him the corn had come

He came back with him and spent the evening here. I going to bed early.
