Cory Sykes looks as though he's working on the sewing apparatus in Mrs. Pennington's home economics class. In all actuality Corey has not been in home economics class since his freshmen year.

Looking Toward

Jake Porter attends the football homecoming dance. Jake was a valuable asset to the football and Boys basketball team.

Nick Dunlap disguised himself as a woman of the streets and Jared Strickland in full nun regalia this was just for Mr. O'Bannion's drama class. Mr. O'Bannion on the other hand wasn't available for comment

Billy Hoover and Chad Blevins do a little bit of "wrestlin'" at the football banquet. The football team ended the season with a 5-5 record.

At the Pep-rally Daren Eichenlaub and Jason Osborne dress up as Falcon cheerleaders. They some how enjoyed the experience.

Cassie Stall get's the crowd up and on their feet during a time-out against the Valley Indians. The cheerleading squad got two new advisors, Kim Taylor and Carolyn Kitts.

Tomorrow

Whitney Montgomery and Heath Honaker work along with Carla Butler and Whitney's parents to get her float ready for Riverdays.

Amanda McCallister demonstrates her ability to land into a protest. She was first coming home from land camp.

Searching Beneath the Surface

Buddy Scuff, aka Super Doof, poses for a picture just before saving a baby from a burning building. He was really dressing up for Super Hero Day during basketball homecoming spirit week.

PEOPLE

Coleman demonstrates their acting skills as they were... was just one example of their many...

*J*erod Cable works on finishing wiring his extension cord. This was one activity that was for the Sophomore Orientation.

*J*ordan Franz pauses for a moment during geometry. Geometry was a challenging class for math students.

Finding Ways to Make the Grade

J.D. Copas makes use of the sewing skills he learned in Mrs. Pennington's Personal Development class. He was also able to pick up some cooking skills.

Jared Strickland acts like a ballerina in Mr. O'Bannon's Drama class. He seemed to be a natural for the art of delicate dancing.

Academics

Eve Porginski and Jason Osborne enjoy playing with mentally handicapped students in Peer Listening class. They were both exclusively chosen for that class.

Junior Nick Powell works on a project for Vo-Tec. He spent half of his day at the high school and the rest at SCJVS.

John Chatfield and Josh Cottrell goof off in Mr. Burton's class. Both of them enjoyed the class throughout the semester.

Erica Thomson, Nicole Kremin, and Rachel Estep unsuccessfully attempt to look busy in Mr. Jones' Cultural Literacy class. The three seniors shared many laughs during their last year.

Senior Clayton Kitts pulls away as his mom leans in for a kiss during Publications class. Afterward, his face matched his red shirt.

Nathan Van Kirk and Cory Sykes listen attentively to Mr. Jones as he is lecturing the class. They never really accomplished much though.

“Oh my gosh!” screams Mark Justice, as Mr. Jones punishes him for a wrong answer. Mr. Jones' classes were “long and feared” by the students.

English and Publications

To many, english is just the language that we speak; but the students of Northwest have gained a deep insight into the innerworkings of not only our language but also the many authors and poets who have helped to shape our society. Due to the uncompromising determination of such teachers as Mr. Jones, Mrs. Hambrick, Ms. Weaver, Mr. Burton, Mr. O'Bannion, and Mrs. Davis, students have ventured into a world where learning and excitement collide with explosive results. Students have walked hand in hand with the greatest minds in literature, from Shakespeare to Oscar Wilde, from Beowulf to The Great Gatsby. We have lived, learned, and loved thanks to our english teachers and their neverending study of the most powerful weapon, the written word. Did you ever hear someone say something about the Publications class and, after many hours of deep contemplation, you realize that you have no idea what Publications is? Without Publications, there is a 99% chance that you wouldn't be reading this book right now. Publications' main aim is to produce a yearbook that fairly and accurately represents the school and all parties involved therein. Publications is also responsible for the "publication" (Get it?) of the school newspaper. Students who participate in Publications learn valuable skills such as working together and interacting with folks of the business ilk. Although it sounds corny, the lessons learned in Publications are lessons that can be carried throughout life, and you can take that to the bank!

Junior Michael Sweeney works through Mrs. Moore's assignment. Obviously he was relaxed in the Computer Applications class.

Computer class and History Class. Oh what a sound. These two classes are steadily changing, and will keep changing as the years wear on. The only thing that will stay the same for these classes is the constant need for them, to the students in school. The kids need to know everything from what Washington did do be voted in to become president by his people, to how to use a computer to type out an application. If these classes would ever become obsolete, society would crumble. So we should thank our teachers that teach these classes (Mrs. Moore, Mr. Bouyack, Mr Glenn, Mr. Green, Mrs. Patrick, and Mr. Doddridge) for helping us learn these things.

History and Computers

Brothers, Matt and Derek Cotton, are busy doing their World Geography assignment. They always had fun in Mr. Doddridge's class.

Freshman Arion Collins and Sophomore Brandy Carver seem to enjoy Mr. Doddridge's World Geography class. Although Brandy looks as if she is frustrated.

Senior, Cory Sykes supervises Steven Skaff and Devan Adkins as they perform their experiment on their artificial environments.

"How does this thing work?"; Michael Gadd asks a confused Celeste Fite. These two were setting up a microscope in Mrs. Kuhn's Environmental Science class as they began experimentation on their artificial environments.

Sophomore Crystal Cole works on her Algebra I assignment in Mrs. Throckmorton's class. Crystal also participated in Cross Country.

Working intently, Mathew Hall records his data into his logbook. He was testing chemical reactions in Mrs. Kuhn's Earth Science class.

Math and Science

Mr. Orlett, Mr. Hagen, Mrs. Little, and Mrs. Kuhn. All of these names should remind you of one of two things. Math or Science. It is these two subjects that remind us of "blowing stuff up" and figuring out the answers to extremely complex equations. These subjects are fabled to be the ones that will help you all through your life, no matter what you hope to become. Classes such as Physics, Chemistry, Algebra, and Geometry will pop all of the time. It is the small things in these classes that come around later and get you. The things that you did not even know that you learned.

Enthusiastic juniors, Josh Keeney and Mitchell Thomas weigh chemicals in Mrs. Kuhn's Environmental Science class. This was only the first step in an experiment on chemical reactions.

Sophomores Emily Bradford and Ashley Enz attempt to do Mrs. Little's Applied math assignment. The two seemed to be doing quite well.

As a part of Ms. Taylor's JOGS class, Jennifer Bobst helps an elementary student read. This was also part of the Ohio Reads Program.

The Peer Listening class happily gathered around their instructor, Miss Smith. She brought joy to many a student's life.

Jobs for Ohio's Graduates, or JOGS, is a program that High School students can take to prepare themselves for the work force. The task of preparing the freshmen and sophomores to go out into the harsh world is very difficult, and it is handled by Mrs. Rase. For the students who missed it their freshman and sophomore years, or if they want to carry the torch further, Miss Taylor is the tamer of the junior and senior lion.

The Peer Listening kids are a group of a different breed, These kids are all kept in line by Miss Smith. They go to the grade school and the middle school M.H. classes. The peer listeners effectively become big brothers or sisters, and teacher for these kids, all at the same time. They help them with their homework, play games with them, and teach them other fundamentals of life. The Peer Listening students have a great amount of humanity and love in their hearts to be able to do this. They give brightness to the friends, families, and most importantly, the children themselves.

JOGS and Peer Listening

Sarah Raisin helps an elementary student to finish a puzzle. The peer-listening students go over to the elementary every day to tutor the children.

Naysa Oppy and Alyssa Gardner enjoy a break from their JOGS class. The two were often found "just sitting there."

Jason "Ozzy" Osborne smiles into the camera while standing in front of the latest project they did in JOGS class. Ozzy always had a smile for the camera.

Peer Listeners are tutoring elementary students. All students were exclusively chosen after applying for Peer Listening class.

Steve Cable and Jimmy Harper play an intense game of soccer in Miss Smith's Gym class. They played a variety of sports throughout the year.

Tiffany Brigner claims her win in the Badminton game. Badminton was a popular activity in the Advanced P.E. class.

After losing a volleyball game, the P.E. students had to do crunches to make up their loss. Playing volleyball was always favored by the students.

P.E. class is enjoying a volleyball game. Miss Smith made them do push-ups and crunches if they lost.

Health & P.E.

Blood, sweat, and tears, that is what it takes to get through the Physical Education, or P.E., class at Northwest. Well, probably not the tears, and hopefully not the blood, but definitely the sweat. Northwest students who enroll in P.E. are in for a barrage of sports from the well-known, such as basketball, to more obscure offerings like pickleball. P.E. is taught by both Mr. Heagerty and Miss Smith for a semester. Students who have taken P.E. can then move on and take Advanced P.E., which is taught by Heagerty. In the advanced class, students participate in more hands on sports and less instructions are given. Basically, students are expected to know the rules and what they can and can't do. Either class is challenging, and both will benefit a student in more ways than a person would think.

Walking hand-in-hand with P.E. is the Health class. Health is taught in the same block as P.E. by whichever teacher happens to be your P.E. teacher. In Health, a person learns about everything that has to do with staying fit and healthy (hence the name), from drug usage to sexually transmitted diseases. The arc of moving from learning about such things as exercise and eating right to actually applying some of these techniques in P.E. is rather breathtaking and may take a while to get adjusted to. Trust me though, you will be happy that these classes are taught together, and you can take that to the bank!

Jimmy Harper cracks down on the books in Miss Smith's Health class. The class was only in Health for half of the block.

Apparently, Mr. Burton, Spanish and English teacher, takes a bribe from Brian Hunter. No, more than likely, Brian paid Mr. Burton money for his basketball camp.

Brittani Adkins, Nickie Carrington, and Kim Brannon are working on their pinata. Ms. McGinnis always had fun projects for her Spanish classes.

I am now going to write about foreign languages. Don't get confused, I'm not writing in a foreign language, I am simply writing about the foreign language classes at Northwest High school. We have two foreign language classes. One is Spanish and the other is French. Spanish ranges from Spanish 1 to Spanish 4 but French is only French 4 because Mrs. Hannigan was the only one who taught French and she left after last year. Now a Mr. Ginn teaches French. He is from Peebles and he is a retired teacher. He comes in one block a day and teaches the kiddies French stuff. Everybody says he is really cool. I don't know for sure. I never trust French people. They like Jerry Lewis. Mr. Burton teaches a Spanish 1 class every year and Mrs. McGinnis teaches the rest of the Spanish people. She is a really cool teacher because she actually cares about her students and she teaches very well. She is really a great teacher. One of the best I've had in school. Spanish is cool because you get to eat and you do fun activities and you learn a lot about Mexico and other Spanish-speaking countries. I highly recommend taking Spanish with Mrs. McGinnis. It really will change your life and you can take that to the bank!

Foreign Language

Andrea Sadler puts the final touches on her pinata for Mrs. McGinnis' Spanish I class. Her students always enjoyed making the colorful festive decorations.

How appropriate, exchange student, Andre Quednau, holds up his German dictionary in French class. That is probably not the most unusual thing he had done in that class.

Mrs. McGinnis explains how to play Pick-2 to her Spanish class. The game is a Spanish version of Scrabble.

Mr. Ginn, just at Northwest High School for this year, gives two thumbs up, in French class, to motivate his students. How appropriate then, the sign "Don't Ever Give Up", over his head.

Josh Cottrell and Brandon Hoffer measure the ingredients for their recipe in Mrs. Pennington's Resource Management class. The students cooked many times throughout the year.

Mr. Lilly holds a pretend wedding for Ashley Harr and Gary Davis. This assignment involved all of Ms. Reynolds' Family Relations class.

Maggie Miller stirs her food in Mrs. Pennington's Resource Management class. All of the students looked forward to the fun cooking days.

Ms. Reynold's Personal Development class models their prom apparel for the camera. The students were given twenty minutes to make these out of newspaper.

Personal Development

If you want to learn how to cook and sew, then Personal Development/Resource Management is the class for you. But many people think that this is all you do, but the skills that you learn in Personal Development/ Resource Management go far beyond these tasks. Through the leadership of either Ms. Reynolds or Mrs. Pennington, students learn such things as time management, leadership skills, and group dynamics. Utilizing a series of group activities and selective awareness, these teachers educate their students, and prepare them for many of lifes trials.

Nick Newman sews his project together for his final project in Ms. Reynolds' Resource Management class. Every student decided what they wanted to make for themselves.

Laura Hess and T.R. Beery gather ingredients for their meal in Mrs. Pennington's class. Cooking was just one of the many hands-on activities the students participated in.

Eve, April, Crystal from Drama I show their "new personalities" at character's day in October. They all had to stay in character the entire day.

Vee Wildforester and Becky Powell pretend to argue in Mr. O'Bannon's Drama I class. The two enjoyed learning high quality acting skills.

The Chorus class performs their annual Christmas concert. Traditionally the seniors wear white stoles and underclassmen wear red stoles.

Justin "Big Pun" Isaac packs Nick Dunlap on his back as he runs back and forth across the stage or the seventh time. Mr. O'Bannon, the Drama I instructor, felt it was necessary that he get this aspect of the play perfect.

Drama and Chorus

Great actors such as Sean Connery and Meryl Streep, and the vocal greats such as James Hetfield and Aretha Franklin are born in the Drama classes, and the Chorus classes of high school. These people are all helped by teachers such as Mr. O'Bannion, and Mrs. Moore. These teachers help kids find and nurture their hidden talents, except of course for those whose talents are hidden so well they prove impossible to find. In those cases, O'Bannion simply yells for more push-ups and Moore suggests lip-synching. This happens seldomly, though, because these teachers know how to help these kids, and bring out the best in them.

Carrie Harness performs a solo at the annual Christmas concert. Carrie just enrolled in the High School as a freshman.

Morie Montgomery paints on an invisible canvas using her hand as a palett in Drama I class. The students were often given prompts such as this.

Melissa Osborne, Amanda McAllister, and Brittni Yeardi group together for a quick picture on the way to competition. The band went on many trips during marching season.

Senior David Bradford walks off the field carrying the wrong instrument. The Band members often practiced at their houses as well.

Claudia Erpenstein, Michelle Hubbard, Hannah Grierson, and Sara Flenner smile gleefully after a great performance at Virginia Beach. Band competitions were always nerve-racking for all of the students.

Chad Stump tips his hat to the photographer before a football game. Chad was one of the bands field commanders.

Band and Flags

Every year when the football season begins, All Northwest supporters come out to the games they wonder if our band can top what they did last year. I am talking about Band and color guard. These two classes/extracurricular activities are taught and led by Mr. Robert Mascari and Ms. Kathy Jo Reynolds. Both have been teaching for a while. And over the past few years they have become quite well at instructing The band and color guard. In competition the band did well. To a successful season Ms. Kathy Jo Reynolds and Mr. Robert Mascari goodluck in the future.

Industrial Tech.

Jimmy Shackart cuts a piece of wood on the band saw in Mr. Boyer's Home Maintenance class. The student's had to be very careful with every machine.

Casey Sword and Robert Shaffer work on the computers in Mr. Jenkins' Home Maintenance class. This was probably the hardest part of the day.

Daren Eichenlaub and Nick Dunlap work on a computer for Home Maintenance class. The students worked on various projects.

Shawn Hoffer details Zach Evans project in Mr. Boyer's Industrial Technology III class. The students were allowed to decide what they wanted to make.

Shawn Archer and Eric Skiver do book work in Mr. Boyer's Industrial Technology I class. After they gained a background in wood-working, they were permitted to use the machines.

Josh Spriggs works on this model house in Home Maintenance class. This was a very tedious project.

Seth Montgomery completes a light circuit in the Electricity class offered at SCJVS. This was his first year there.

Adam Smith works on his assignment in his Tech-Prep class at Vo-Tec,.....or does he? He looked awfully suspicious.

Junior Tyson Butler strips a wire as a demonstration for visiting sophomores. He learned other skills like this in the Electricity class at Vo-Tec.

Ashley Montgomery gives a manicure in the Cosmetics class. This was her second year at Vo-Tec.

Vo-Tec

Bruce Slusher works on audio equipment on a sunny day in autumn. This was his first year at Vo-Tec.

Ryan Holsinger and Nick Shepard, both underclassmen at SCJVS, are preparing a wall to be painted in home maintenance class. After finishing the whole room, they were proud of their accomplishment.

Sports

Senior swimmers, Clayton Kitts and Claudia Expenstein, pose for a picture in between workout. The swim team's year was rough, because of the coaches zero tolerance policy.

Daven Eichenlaub runs down a West running back at Portsmouth West. Daven, along with other seniors, are among the few that had Mr. Smith as coach their Freshman and Sophomore years.

Senior Ashley Phipps waits for the softball game to get underway. The softball team had a very successful season coming 2nd in the S.O.C.

Noah Stiverson waits to finish pursuing the soccer ball into the net. Noah was one of the few soccer four year players.

Varsity girls congratulate on the misses and hits. The Girls Basketball Team was one of the closest teams in recent years.

Doug Thompson bases out while waiting on a pass from one of his team mates. Doug was very involved in sports this year, running Track, playing Basketball, and hitting hard in Football.

Wanting A Win

Varsity Cheerleaders wait for the picture to be taken before they begin the next cheer. The cheerleaders had a new start with their two new advisors, Mrs. Kim Taylor and Mrs. Carolyn Kitts.

Dwayne Smith jumps for the gold. Dwayne was very successful during his track career.

Volleyball 2000

This year the girls had an exceptionally good season. Coach Smith said she enjoys coaching these girls, they had a lot of fun and they weren't afraid of a little hard work. The Lady Mohawks started off at the Ohio State University volleyball camp and finished district runner-up. The girls ended the season 17-6. This year the Lady Mohawks had two seniors, Lannin Moore and Heather Bradbury. Heather also set match high record with 28 kills.

Lindsey Stidham attempts to set the ball for a huge spike, her remarkable performance won her a spot on the all S.O.C. team this year.

The girls prepare to receive the ball from the other. Their hard work and dedication paid off at the end of the season.

Eve Ponginski, Heather Bradbury, and Lindsey Stidham watch the ball hit the other side. Heather set a new school record of 281 kills on the season.

With gloves in hand, the girls wait for Ed to get done talking before they can take infield. They were fashionably late for many games due to talking coaches.

Senior Amanda Mitchell waits to field a smashing line drive hit straight at her. Cat like reflexes often help to play in the hot spot of third base.

And Heather Bradbury strikes out another!!!! From here on out Bradbury's jersey will be hanging in the hallway in Northwest High School, all-state pitching honors her sophomore and junior year.

Ashley Phipps gives a stop sign, straight back to Heather after the catch. She took it hook, line, and sinker, but now she's outta there!

This year the Lady Mohawks strived more than ever for success. Throughout the season the race for S.O.C. was between the Lady Mohawks and the Lady Senators. Tied with only two losses, the final Southern Ohio Conference game was lost by the mohawks. Northwest gained a solid 2nd place finish and had broken an all time record for number of wins in a season. This year the Lady Mohawks will be losing four valuable seniors. Jenny Lewis (first baseman), Amanda Mitchell (third baseman), Ashley Phipps (catcher), and Heather Bradbury (pitcher). Three of the four seniors received scholarships to play at the college level.

Bottom: David Bradford, Shawn Lenegar, Matt Whitaker, Josh Book, Zach Simon.

Sophomore, Zach Smith, prepares for the bottom of the ninth inning or at least it looks that way by the look of the exhaustion on his face. Zach also was part of the football team, where he was the only sophomore that started varsity.

Brian Hunter is seen here with a shovel in his hand. The baseball team had garden tools in hand more than the bats or gloves. Brian was part of the golf team, also coached by Mr. Heagerty.

Seniors, Heath Honaker, Jared Strickland, Noah Stevenson, and Justin Sevest stand in a pose for a picture before departing for an away game. All four were starters on the baseball team throughout the season.

Seeking a Life Beyond School

Student Life, what does it mean? A life everyone lives, growing up, making friends, finding yourself, and more importantly preparing for the future. Throughout high school many students go through a lot of changes and undergo tons of pressure. Although their is so much confusion during high school many claim it is the best time of their lives. Attending dances, games, hanging out, and enjoying life from a point of view that will only last so long.

Dewayne Smith, Amanda Koch, Michelle Blankenship, and Ashley Simon take a lesson in hair care. All four were in Publications.

YMCA! Jason Osborne and Daren Eichenlaub give a little dance for the football team. The Mohawks went 5-5 this season.

Student Life

Brad Hart, and Nick Newman await the pep rally to begin. They were all freshmen this year.

Riverday's 2000 "In The Beginning"

River Days 2000 could have never had been better! Whitney Montgomery represented Northwest High School proudly. Many people came together to give her all their support. Whitney said, "It was a lot of work, but it all turned out pretty good." The theme of the float was "In The Beginning...." Whitney and others decorated the float with live plants, real rocks, and active water. There was a swing placed above the water where Whitney sat and waved gracefully to all the viewers, behind the swing was an apple tree looking real as could be. In the tree they had placed a very life like snake for extra looks. The reality of the float won the judges over, allowing Whitney to receive the title for N.W.S. with "Best Float Overall". The pageant went well and so did the parade. Much time was needed to make sure everything was the best that it could possibly have been. Whitney would like to let next years contestant know that much effort, time, and thought is needed for the whole ordeal, but would like to say good luck!

Whitney gives a smile of success with her trophy. She and all of her supporters worked very hard.

Whitney and her boyfriend, Neath Konaker, stand proudly with her float. They were preparing for the parade.

Whitney rides through the parade wearing a beautiful smile and leaves. Her float's theme was "In the Beginning"

Jesse Carter gives Queen Alicia the traditional kiss. The two have been close friends all throughout high school.

Senior attendant Larrin Moore and Jason Jenkins proudly pose after accepting her award. Larrin's hair was styled by 'Charm and Chatter'.

Crystal Willow, Alicia White, and Larrin Moore await the ceremony. Crystal attended SCFVS.

Alicia stands with her escorts. All senior players participated in the ceremony.

When Dreams Come True

The 2000 Football Homecoming ceremony was definitely a dream come true. Homecoming Queen Alicia White and her court had one of the most exciting and hectic nights of their lives. The queen and her court walked across the field to the music "I Believe In You", by Joe. The queen and attendants were dressed in school colors. Alicia in white, senior attendants in red, and all other attendants in navy. Although the Mohawks did not come out victorious, the ceremony and the dance were beautiful and a great success.

Queen Alicia White hugs her little sis Faith before the crowning. Faith was always there to give Alicia support throughout the year.

School Spirit and Dance

Many students at Northwest have always enjoyed being able to show their school spirit. They usually do this by participating in the events held for spirit week or attending the dances that are usually in the cafeterium. Spirit week is during the week before homecoming games and the traditional ceremony, following a homecoming dance. Having spirit week is a great way to get the players pumped and going. During spirit week students are given the option of participating in any of the following, hat day, super hero day, pajama day, mismatch day, and red, white, and blue day. Many students enjoy this opportunity to show their Mohawk pride.

Ashley Carr, Mandy Taylor, Crystal Lute, and April Neal show us their school spirit by wearing their pajamas to school. They all participated in Drama 9.

Alicia White and Amanda Koch prove that they are proud Mohawks by dressing up as Quail Man for spirit week.

This I promise you...

For some the night was a game interrupted by a ceremony including girls in nice dresses. To others this is a night that comes only twice a year, once in football season and once in basketball. The student body at Northwest High School voted Senior Amanda Perlusset as our 2001 Basketball Homecoming Queen. Along with the other seniors attendants; Tiffany Stidham and Amanda Mitchell, Queen Amanda dressed in white. Dressed in blue were the other four attendants; Eve Porginski representing the junior class, Heather Emmons representing the vo-tec junior class, Chrissie Wermuth representing the sophomore class, and Megan Powell representing the freshman class. "This I promise you..." by N*SYNC was chosen as the theme song. Following the game was a dance provided by the 2001 Cheerleading Squad. It truly was night the girls will always remember.

Heather Emmons, Amanda Perlusset, and Eve Porginski share a smiling embrace as they enjoy the evening of homecoming.

Evening With the Arts

*E*vening With the Arts is only held once a year. This year, Evening With the Arts was held in our high school gymnasium the night before our senior prom.

Student's writings, drawings, paintings, and poetry are featured, judged, and displayed with a ribbon. Not only are student's works shown off, talents are as well. Student's also sing, dance, or play musical instruments. Despite all of the excitement for prom, Evening With the Arts was setup and took back down in just the right amount of time to put up decorations. As for Northwest's Sixteenth Annual Evening With the Arts, it went wonderfully.

*T*he pride team performs their complete show at Evening With the Arts. They traveled to different districts throughout the year.

*S*arah Staker gives an overall excellent performance for the evening. She has been involved in dance for years.

Chad Stump plays a solo for all those gathered at the school. He was a drum major both his junior and senior year.

Senior Elana Holt sings solo "Please remember me", LeAnn Rimes. She was given a two thumbs up.

The pride team demonstrates what drugs do to one's life. Hopefully everyone got the message.

Ashley Kachford gives the camera a warm smile before attending prom. She played basketball and ran track as well.

Dwayne Smith and Cassie Stull stop and take a break while dancing the night away at prom. The two were good friends throughout school.

2001 Prom

Northwest prom 2001 was held in the gymnasium for the first time ever. Everyone had their doubts about the outcome, but it all was a success after all. The decorations were great. The students who participated in decorating were very creative and outspoken with their ideas. It took much compromising to make things work and look just right. The 2001 prom theme was Secret Garden, which was proposed by Whitney Montgomery. The colors for prom were lavendars, which was great for the color of dresses that were out this year. As many will agree, the night was definitely a night to remember.

Lauren Applegate and Jared Strickland smile for the camera, they were on their way to go get a bite to eat, before returning to prom.

Erica Thomson, Melissa Lopez, and Crystal Alexander start the evening off right by putting a smile on their face. The three of them were all seniors.

Graduation 2001

This year's graduation was a very solemn and joyous afternoon. The gymnasium was packed full of family and friends, here at Northwest. While some seniors felt sorrow in leaving all that they have ever known behind, others were anxious to get out and open the doors of opportunities. The underclassmen, who attended, held their breath and said goodbye to the friends that they had known for so long. Parents held their heads high, fought back the tears, and hoped for the best upcoming future ever. The crowd attending was also proud and respectful. Overall we would just like to send out best wishes to all those graduating in the class of 2001.

Jared Strickland smiles proudly after graduation. He was extremely happy to be out of high school.

Renee Stowers and Erica Thomson give each other a quick hug after graduation. The two were both in track.

29 Years and I'm Gone!!!

Steve Jones began his career in 1971 at Minford, but we won't hold that against him. In 1972 he began his career here at the High School, which is now the Middle School. Fresh out of college, Mr. Jones was very clean cut and on to something different, something new. In his words he was "3" when he started teaching. He was never a "Normal" teacher. If you have ever had one of Jones' classes you would know what's not going on. Now as his last year draws to an end, we say farewell to a Teacher who has touched so many, in so many ways. So now give Mr. Jones a long farewell from the Class of 2001.

Mr. Jones' Farewell to Mr. Green

Mr. Green says he really want to play
In fact he has a tee time everyday
But when morning comes, his wife does call
And says, "Timmy can't go and hit the little white ball.
He has barns to build and fences to mend
Maybe I'll let him go next weekend."

And to this, we must say Goodbye to another Year and to the Class of 2001

NEWS TREND

YOU ARE HERE

This is the "Age of Connectivity" and you're in it.

You are everywhere, thanks to the Internet.
E-mail a friend in Banglor, shop for cool shoes at some European e-tailer, or even watch a web-cast concert from overseas, and all from your desktop.

The world's getting smaller.
Might even feel crowded at times.
Chill. Look for signs along the road to help you find your way in this brave new world...
and enjoy the ride.

What a golden year for sports.

Michael Johnson won two gold medals in the 400 meter and 4 x 400 meter relay in the Sydney Olympics. (Must have been the shoes.)

Multiple medals also went to Maurice Green and to Marion Jones, who took home three gold and two bronze.

She's the first woman to win five medals in one Olympics.

Tiger Woods did it again. And again. And again.

As the PGA Tour Player of the year, he placed first in tournament after tournament, including the U.S. Open, the British Open and the PGA Championship.

The golden girls of soccer settled for silver in Sydney.

Under a Shaq attack.

Shaquille O'Neal, with Kobe Bryant, shot the Lakers to victory against the Indiana Pacers in the NBA finals.

ONE GAME SET MATCH

Lance rules. Armstrong conquered the Alps and silenced cynics, winning his second consecutive Tour de France. His comeback from cancer makes him a double role model, to athletes and cancer patients alike.

The "Subway Series" made baseball big news. For the first time in 44 years the New York Yankees and the New York Mets went head to head at the World Series. New York came out on top. (As in Yankees.)

The Williams sisters continued to take the tennis world by storm. Rivals on opposite sides of the net, they're unstoppable as partners.

Venus topped a stellar year with wins at Wimbledon and the U.S. Open. She took the gold at the Sydney Olympics in singles, and paired with Serena to take the gold in doubles as well.

It wasn't in the stars. The New Jersey Devils took the Stanley Cup back from the Dallas Stars after their nail-biting double overtime victory in game six.

D-FENSE!
The Baltimore Ravens gave them the edge and a 34-7 win over the New York Giants in Super Bowl XXXV.

What goes around comes around.

Look behind the technology hype and you're sure to find recycled trends.

Oh, the irony.

It's the 70s all over again.

Large tinted lenses make for look-at-me sunglasses and disco-era hairstyles return with "wings" and feathered bangs reminiscent of Farrah Fawcett's famous locks.

A new twist is the bright burst of hair color, maybe a leftover from the punk and glam rock resurgence last year.

STATE OF

REFRESH

A rhinestone belt holds up your denims? Glittery studs on your faded jeans?

Totally.

England's Prince William took a "gap year" before college, following his mother's example of service and humanitarianism.

His volunteer and environmental work in Chile shows that the man who will be king is a true prince of hearts.

For the guys, the mop top is back with the "shag" hairstyle.

The bed-head hairstyles of Ricky Martin and Kevin of the Backstreet Boys is typical of the macho look many stars like.

Leather whatever.

Leather is everywhere. Leather pants. Leather boots.

Everything else sparkles and shines.

We heard lots of wedding bells.

Two Backstreet Boys got hitched, Madonna married her Guy.

Catherine Zeta-Jones, wed Michael Douglas, and Jennifer and Brad tied the knot.

Caution. Heavy traffic ahead.

As in new millennium traffic. It seems like the more info there is, the harder it is to be informed. Technology promises a bright new age but it's still hard to communicate.

Some things never change.

The Pope journeyed to the Holy Land and prayed for peace, while conflicts between Israelis and Palestinians raged.

Allegedly linked to the unrest, the USS Cole was bombed off the coast of Yemen. This year we remember with honors entertainer Steve Allen, actors Walter Matthau, Jason Robards, and Alec Guinness.

WHAT'S NEW?

And the nation waited 36 days for the drama of the 43rd presidential election to unfold.

Another first. After court battles and recounts, Florida's 25 electoral votes were finally awarded to Texas governor George W. Bush in the closest presidential race in history. In another dramatic sequence of events, tensions between U.S. and Cuba rose over the custody battle of 6-year-old Elian Gonzalez who was finally reunited with his father and sent back to Cuba amid anti-Castro protests.

Crash. Technology and music went head to head, as 19-year-old

Napster co-founder Shawn Fanning battled the music industry over copyright usage of downloaded music.

Firestone tires exploded on highways across the nation forcing one of the largest recalls in history.

Hillary Clinton stepped out of the White House and into the U.S. Senate, a first.

Television gives a crash course in life lessons.

The nation tuned in to see who would be voted out in this summer's biggest smash "Survivor".

The ultimate SURVIVOR, Richard Hatch, beat all odds in order to outlast his island mates.

ANYTHING 'ON'?

In shows like "Roswell" and "Angel," to survive means getting rid of the bad guys.

They showed that we all experience feelings of alienation, but we are not alone.

In fact, putting up with siblings, family issues and struggling to "find ourselves" are common denominators for us all.

Inventions topped inventions.

This year, we saw cable lines not only enhance television but surfing speed and e-commerce as well.

Electronic organizers rock.

From the palm of your hand you can check e-mail, invest in futures or buy a present for Mom.

Oh yeah, and get organized.

The newest digital cameras have greater picture quality as well as roomier disk space, while the next generation MP3s are smaller, faster, more portable, and provide better-than-ever sound quality.

Toyota was among the future-thinking car companies to introduce hybrid cars.

Half -electric and half gasoline-powered, these new wheels will eventually be as easy on the pocketbook as they are on the planet.

Playstation 2 and the latest Nintendo made the virtual world more entertaining.

SHOCKING!

Performers

like Hoku and Jakob Dylan of the Wallflowers emerged from the shadows of their famous parents.

Blink-182

lets their California style influence their wardrobe and music, which led them to an MTV music award for "All the Small Things."

Globalization

has had a profound effect on the style-music industry. Latin's back with a bang with the return of Carlos Santana and the rise of Enrique Inglesias along with Christina Aguilera's release of a Latin-style CD this year. And we saw Ricky Martin going global with a tour reaching as far as Austral-Asia.

On the local scene, many underground performers have been rocketed into the mainstream, as was Moby, the one-time New York DJ, with the immensely popular "Play," image is everything.

LIVE BABY LIVE!

Madonna came alive (what else is new) with her new "Music," reinvigorating her original dance-music roots.

Unbelievably, this mother of two has topped the charts for some three decades now.

Her concert,

performed in a London pub, was one of the most-watched events on the Internet to date.

And with MTV, VH1, Napster, and others, the faces of today's performers are seen live everywhere.

For pop princesses like Britney Spears, Christina Aguilera and Aaliyah, as well as the ubiquitous boy bands, image is as big as (maybe bigger than) their music.

For performers like the Backstreet Boys, LFO, 98° and especially *NSYNC, style is the substance of pop.

Check out their live shows.

Legendary actor Robert Redford stepped behind the camera to direct the mystical golf movie "The Legend of Bagger Vance."

Will Smith plays Vance, the wise caddie who guides golfer Matt Damon through more than just the perfect golf game.

REEL LIFE

Rack up another hit for Jim Carey. Irresistible even when he's covered in green from head to foot. The Whos in Whoville are a must-see in Dr. Suess's "How the Grinch Stole Christmas."

There was something for everybody on the big screen this year. claymation genius brought the chickens of Tweedy's farm hilariously to life as they worked up a plan to fly the coop in "Chicken Run." "Shanghai Noon," with Owen Wilson and Jackie Chan heading out West to rescue Princess Pei-Pei, played by Lucy Liu. And Buzz Lightyear came to the rescue, and beyond, leading the troops on a mission to bring Woody back in "Toy Story 2." "Pay It Forward" proved it's possible to change the world and it doesn't have to be a big thing. Kevin Spacey, Helen Hunt and wonderkid Haley Joel Osment inspired us all to do a favor or two or three and make this world a better place.

X-termination avoided, thanks to the X-Men.

Enlightened Professor Xavier provides a safe haven for the world's newest and most persecuted minority, a group of mutant, genetically-gifted human beings called the X-Men. Their struggle against hostile Government agencies and mutant supremacist Magneto made "X-Men" one of this summer's biggest smash hits.
