JEEPS ARE NUMBER 1

Our Jeeps went to the sectional tournament in Portsmouth with high spirits. We first met Notre Dame, we defeated them. We met East, we beat them. We met Valley and we scalped the Indians. We are number one in Scioto County.

Every Coach's Dream!

His first game scoring over 100 points even if the scoreboard isn't big enough to show it!

Enthusiastic Cheerleaders . . .

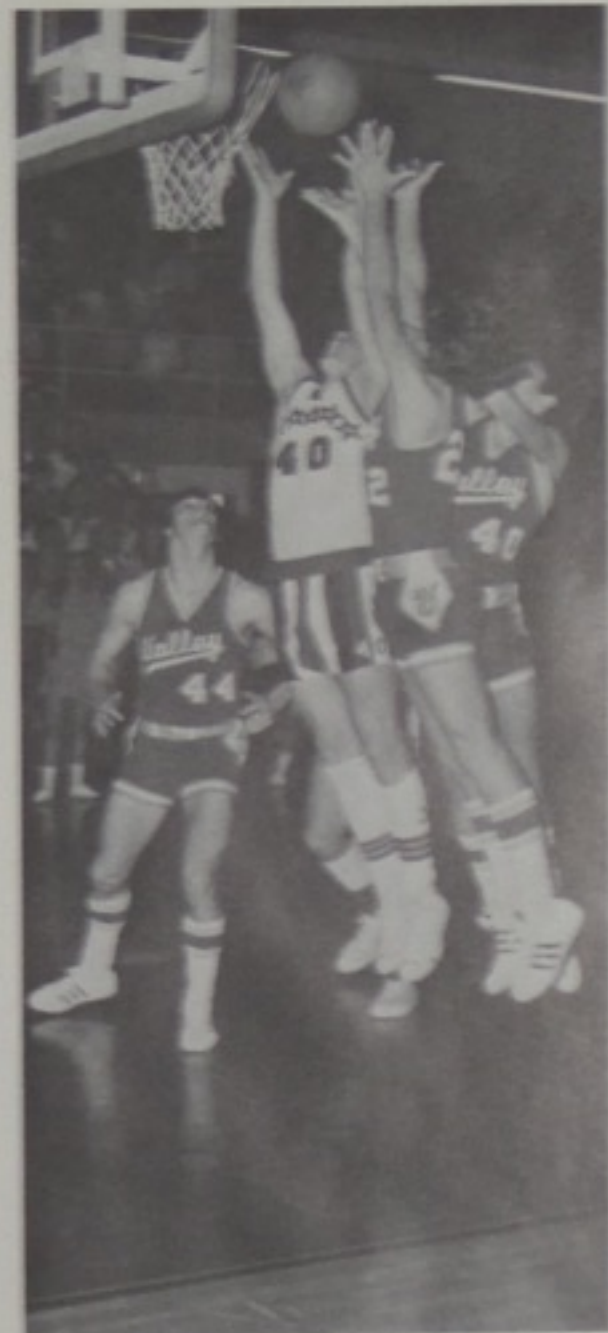

. . . and an optimistic crowd;

a good team;

good shooting;

receiving "Coach of the Year"
award;

expert advice;

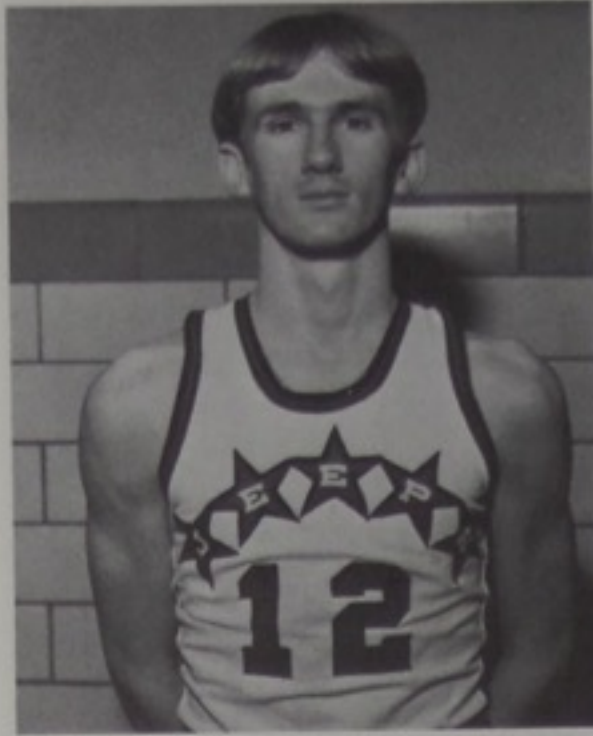

and a good captain of the team!

River Days is the time when all area schools get together to show off their beauty and talent. Trudy Bostick designed the winning float for South Webster - first place; the marching band received a first place award; and Donna Rice, by the end of the year, became first runner-up in the Queen contest.

We Believe in Music

"I surrender! I surrender!" . . .
These were the words said after seeing and hearing our band.
Although this is only a supposition it must be partially true for our band won second at the Miss Ohio Competition and first at River Days this year.

Seasons in the Sun

There's Got to Be a Morning After!

I Honestly Love You.

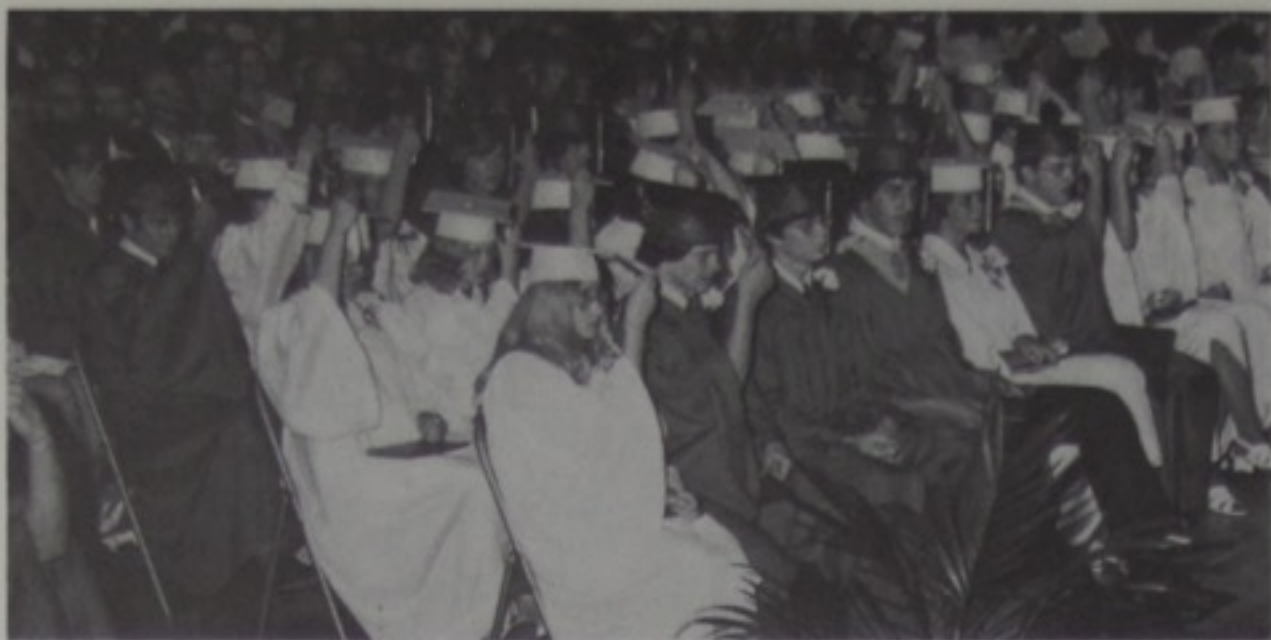

Tell Me Something Good.

Midnight at the Oasis.

The days of autumn
these moments warm
was it too beautiful?
The love we share
The dreams we dare
was it too beautiful?

We've Only Just Begun . . .

The days of autumn splendor,
those moments warm and tender,
Was it too beautiful to last?

The love we shared together,
The dreams we dared together,
Was it too beautiful to last?

Walking hand in hand,
the dawn discloses
we were dreaming of a land
where love reposes,
but castles made of sand,
like winter roses,
are fated to die,
like you and I.

Where are those sweet Septembers?
The joy my heart remembers?
Lost in the shadows of the past.
Why did that dream go by so fast?

Was it too beautiful to last?
