DIRECTED BY

Cleo P. Rittenhouse

Janice Knight and her father are residents of a small town where Janice works in the local bank. She is engaged to Jeff, who is completely "blah" but yet he is steady and dependable. Janice thinks she might marry him. Suddenly, Steve is back in town. Steve has returned from New York where he has become successful on stage and radio. Janice is torn between the two beaus. Finally when peace loving Jeff knocks Steve out, Janice's true feelings are out in the open.

seniors in washington, d.c.

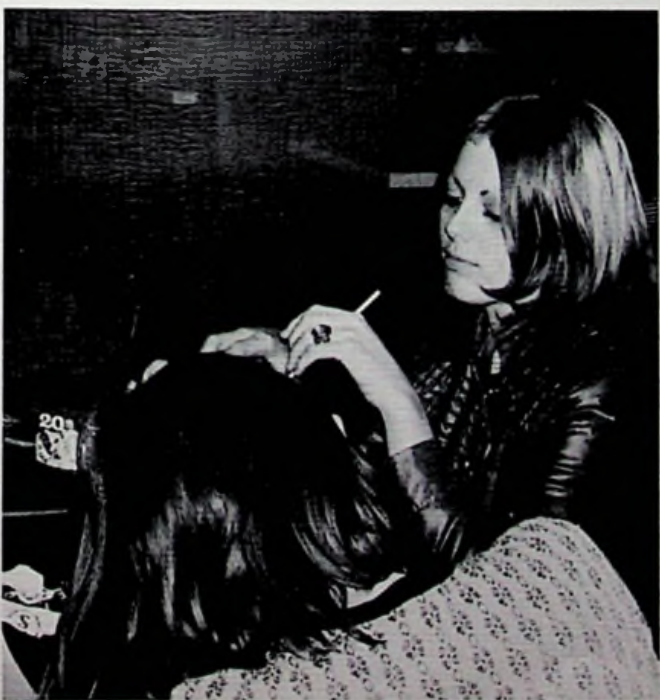

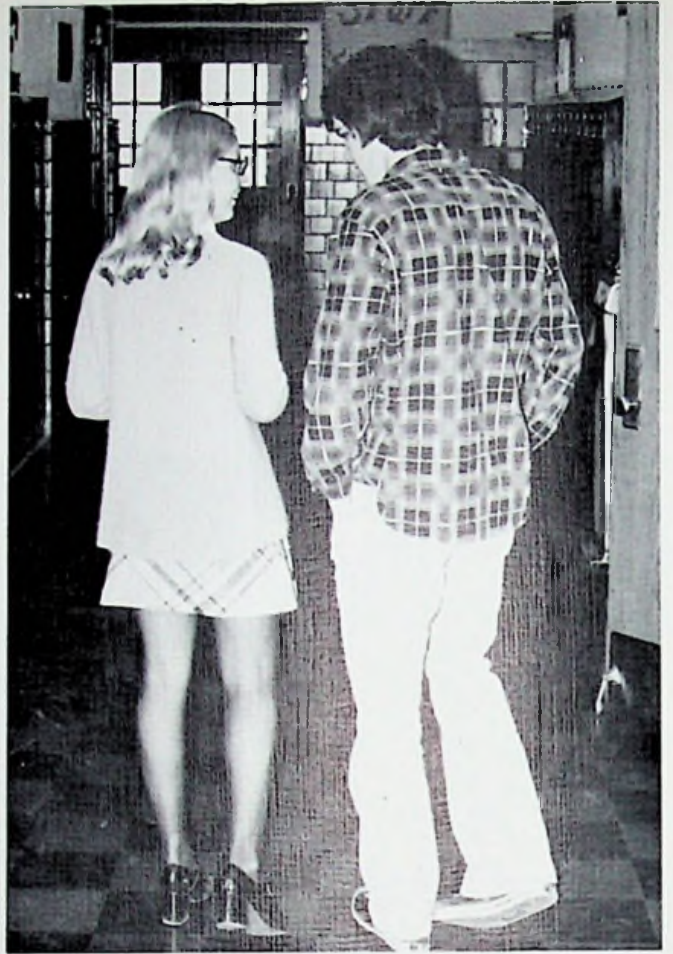

You came in the beginning perhaps looking for something hidden in this great unknown. Suddenly it hits you that everything was natural, easy, and classmates became more . . .

You soon noticed that life sort of revolved around this place. Events, activities, experiences . . . all spring from this one world . . .

You were always seen together laughing, exploding, sharing a hope. Imagining one without the other became unreal . . .

But those years were cut short, and you went your way and they went theirs perhaps thousands of miles apart, yet always remembering that once you were . . . friends.
