SUMMER

The Echo staff was represented at the annual Taylor-sponsored yearbook workshop held at Morehead State University. Angie Cole, Kathy Mills, Mary Mullens, Glenda Simmering, Carl Chasteen, and Joe Steiff spent the week studying, swimming, bowling, and eating watermelon. The kids survived the week of practical jokes (like some one taking the mattresses and pillows) and arguments and are already making plans to go back again next year.

Summer pages sponsored by Harold Hagen (construction) and Jerod and Floyd Hagen (Hagen Insurance Agency).

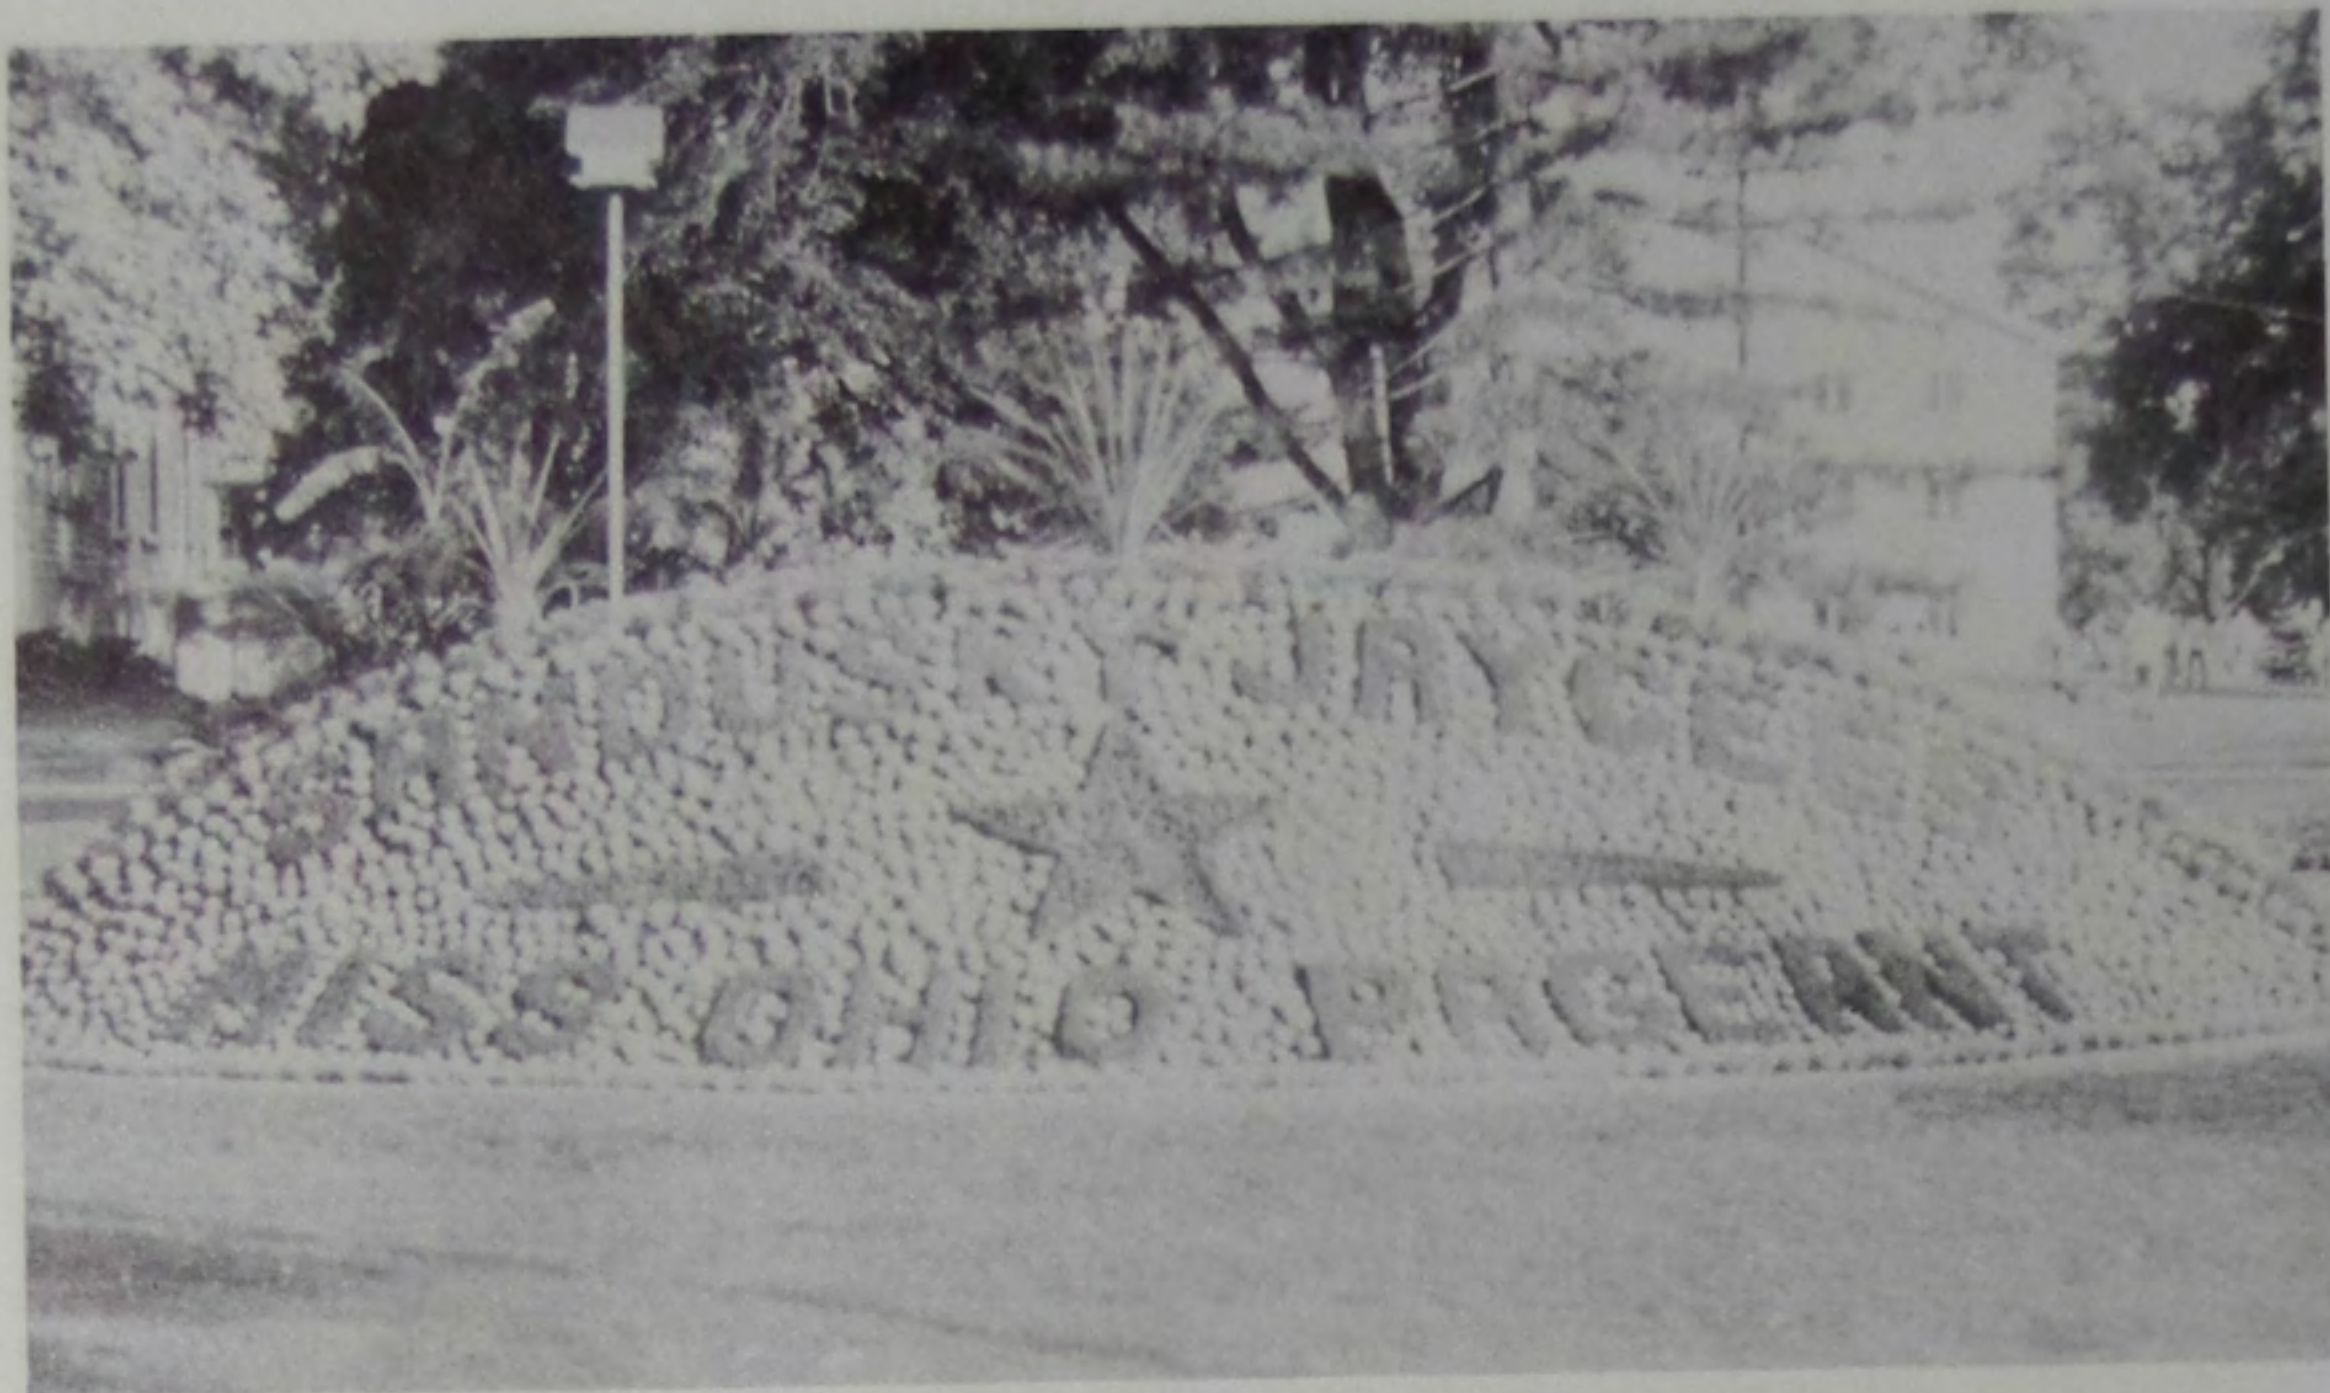

... And The Heat Goes On!

It is often said that the world loves a clown but we say that the Jeeps love a parade and a fair. Heidi reigned as Scioto County Junior Fair Queen, and the Jeeps (Marta, Heidi, Jim, and Joe) brought home blue ribbons for their fair projects. Heidi and Marta received "outstanding of the day" at Ohio State Fair.

Terry In Miss Ohio Finals

Over one hundred Websterites went to Sandusky to give Terry their support in the Miss Ohio Pageant. The band gave their support by placing second in the parade competition.

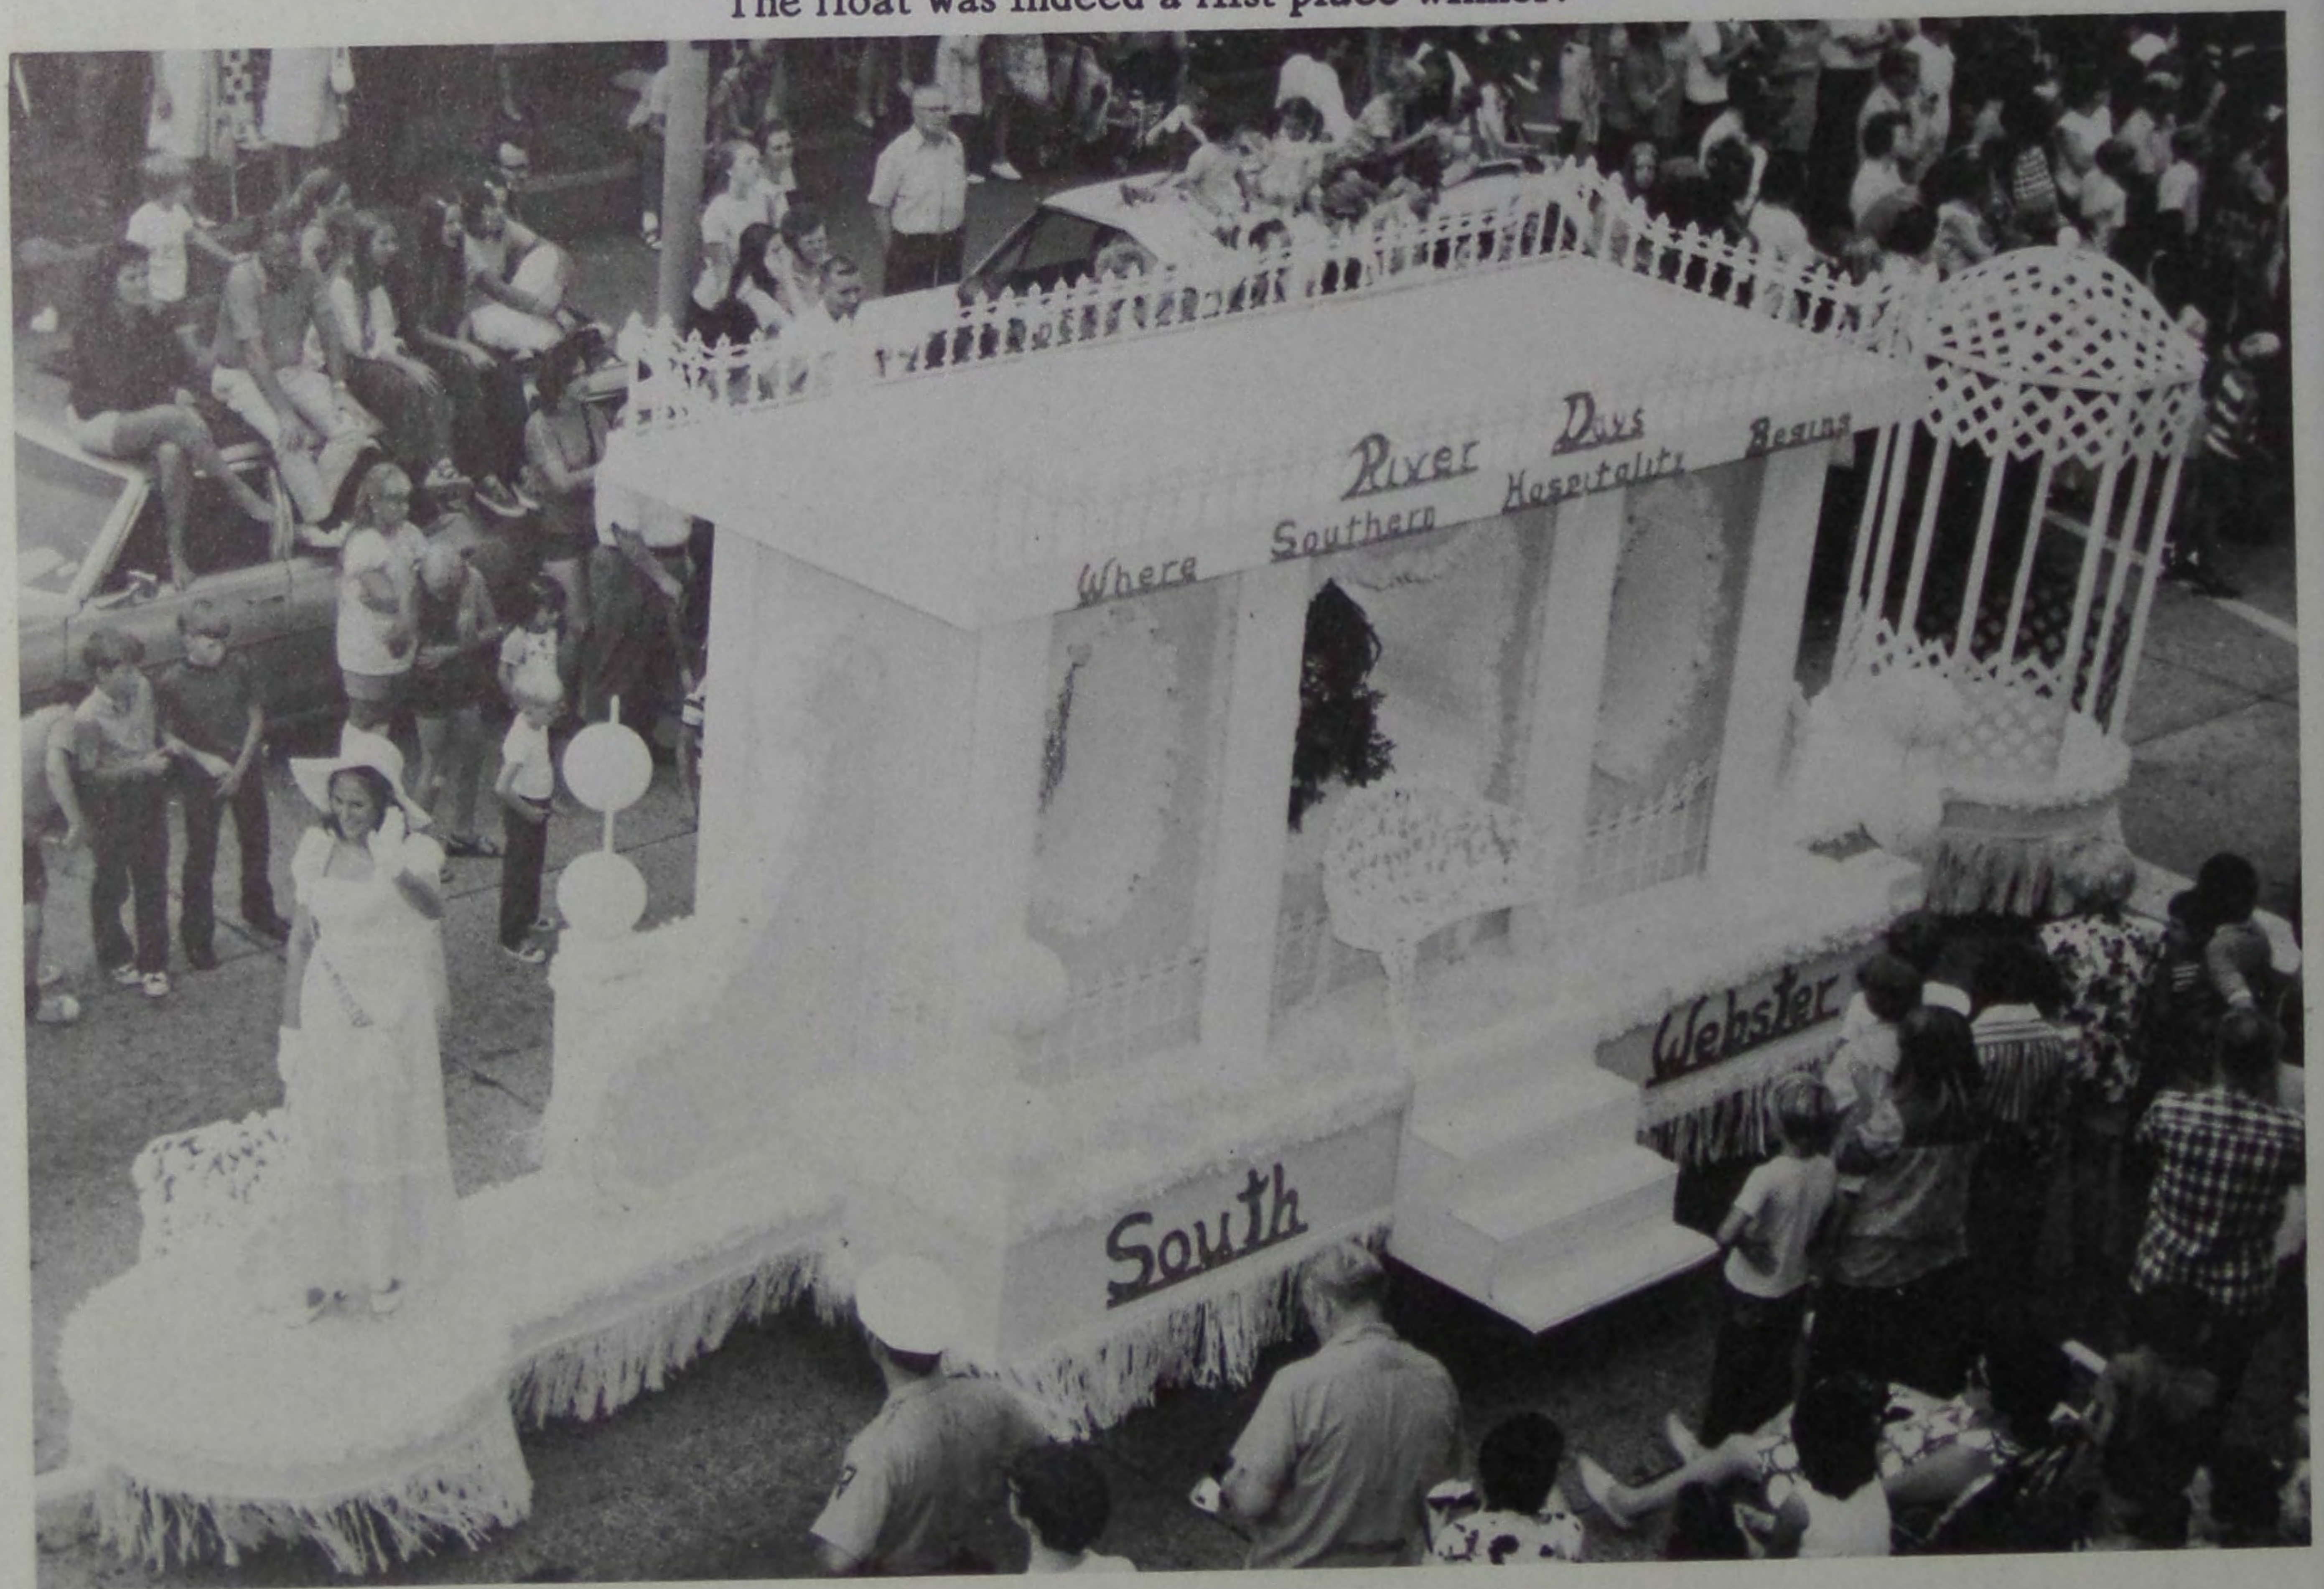

1972 River Days Celebration

The song says "We're rollin' on the river," but we're marchin' BY the Ohio River in the annual River Days Parade in Portsmouth. The parade was only part of the many exciting festivities . . . popcorn . . . carnival rides . . . cotton candy . . . beauty pageant . . . hot dogs . . . band competition . . . and in answer to our "Emergency" call - Robert Fuller.

The float was indeed a first place winner!

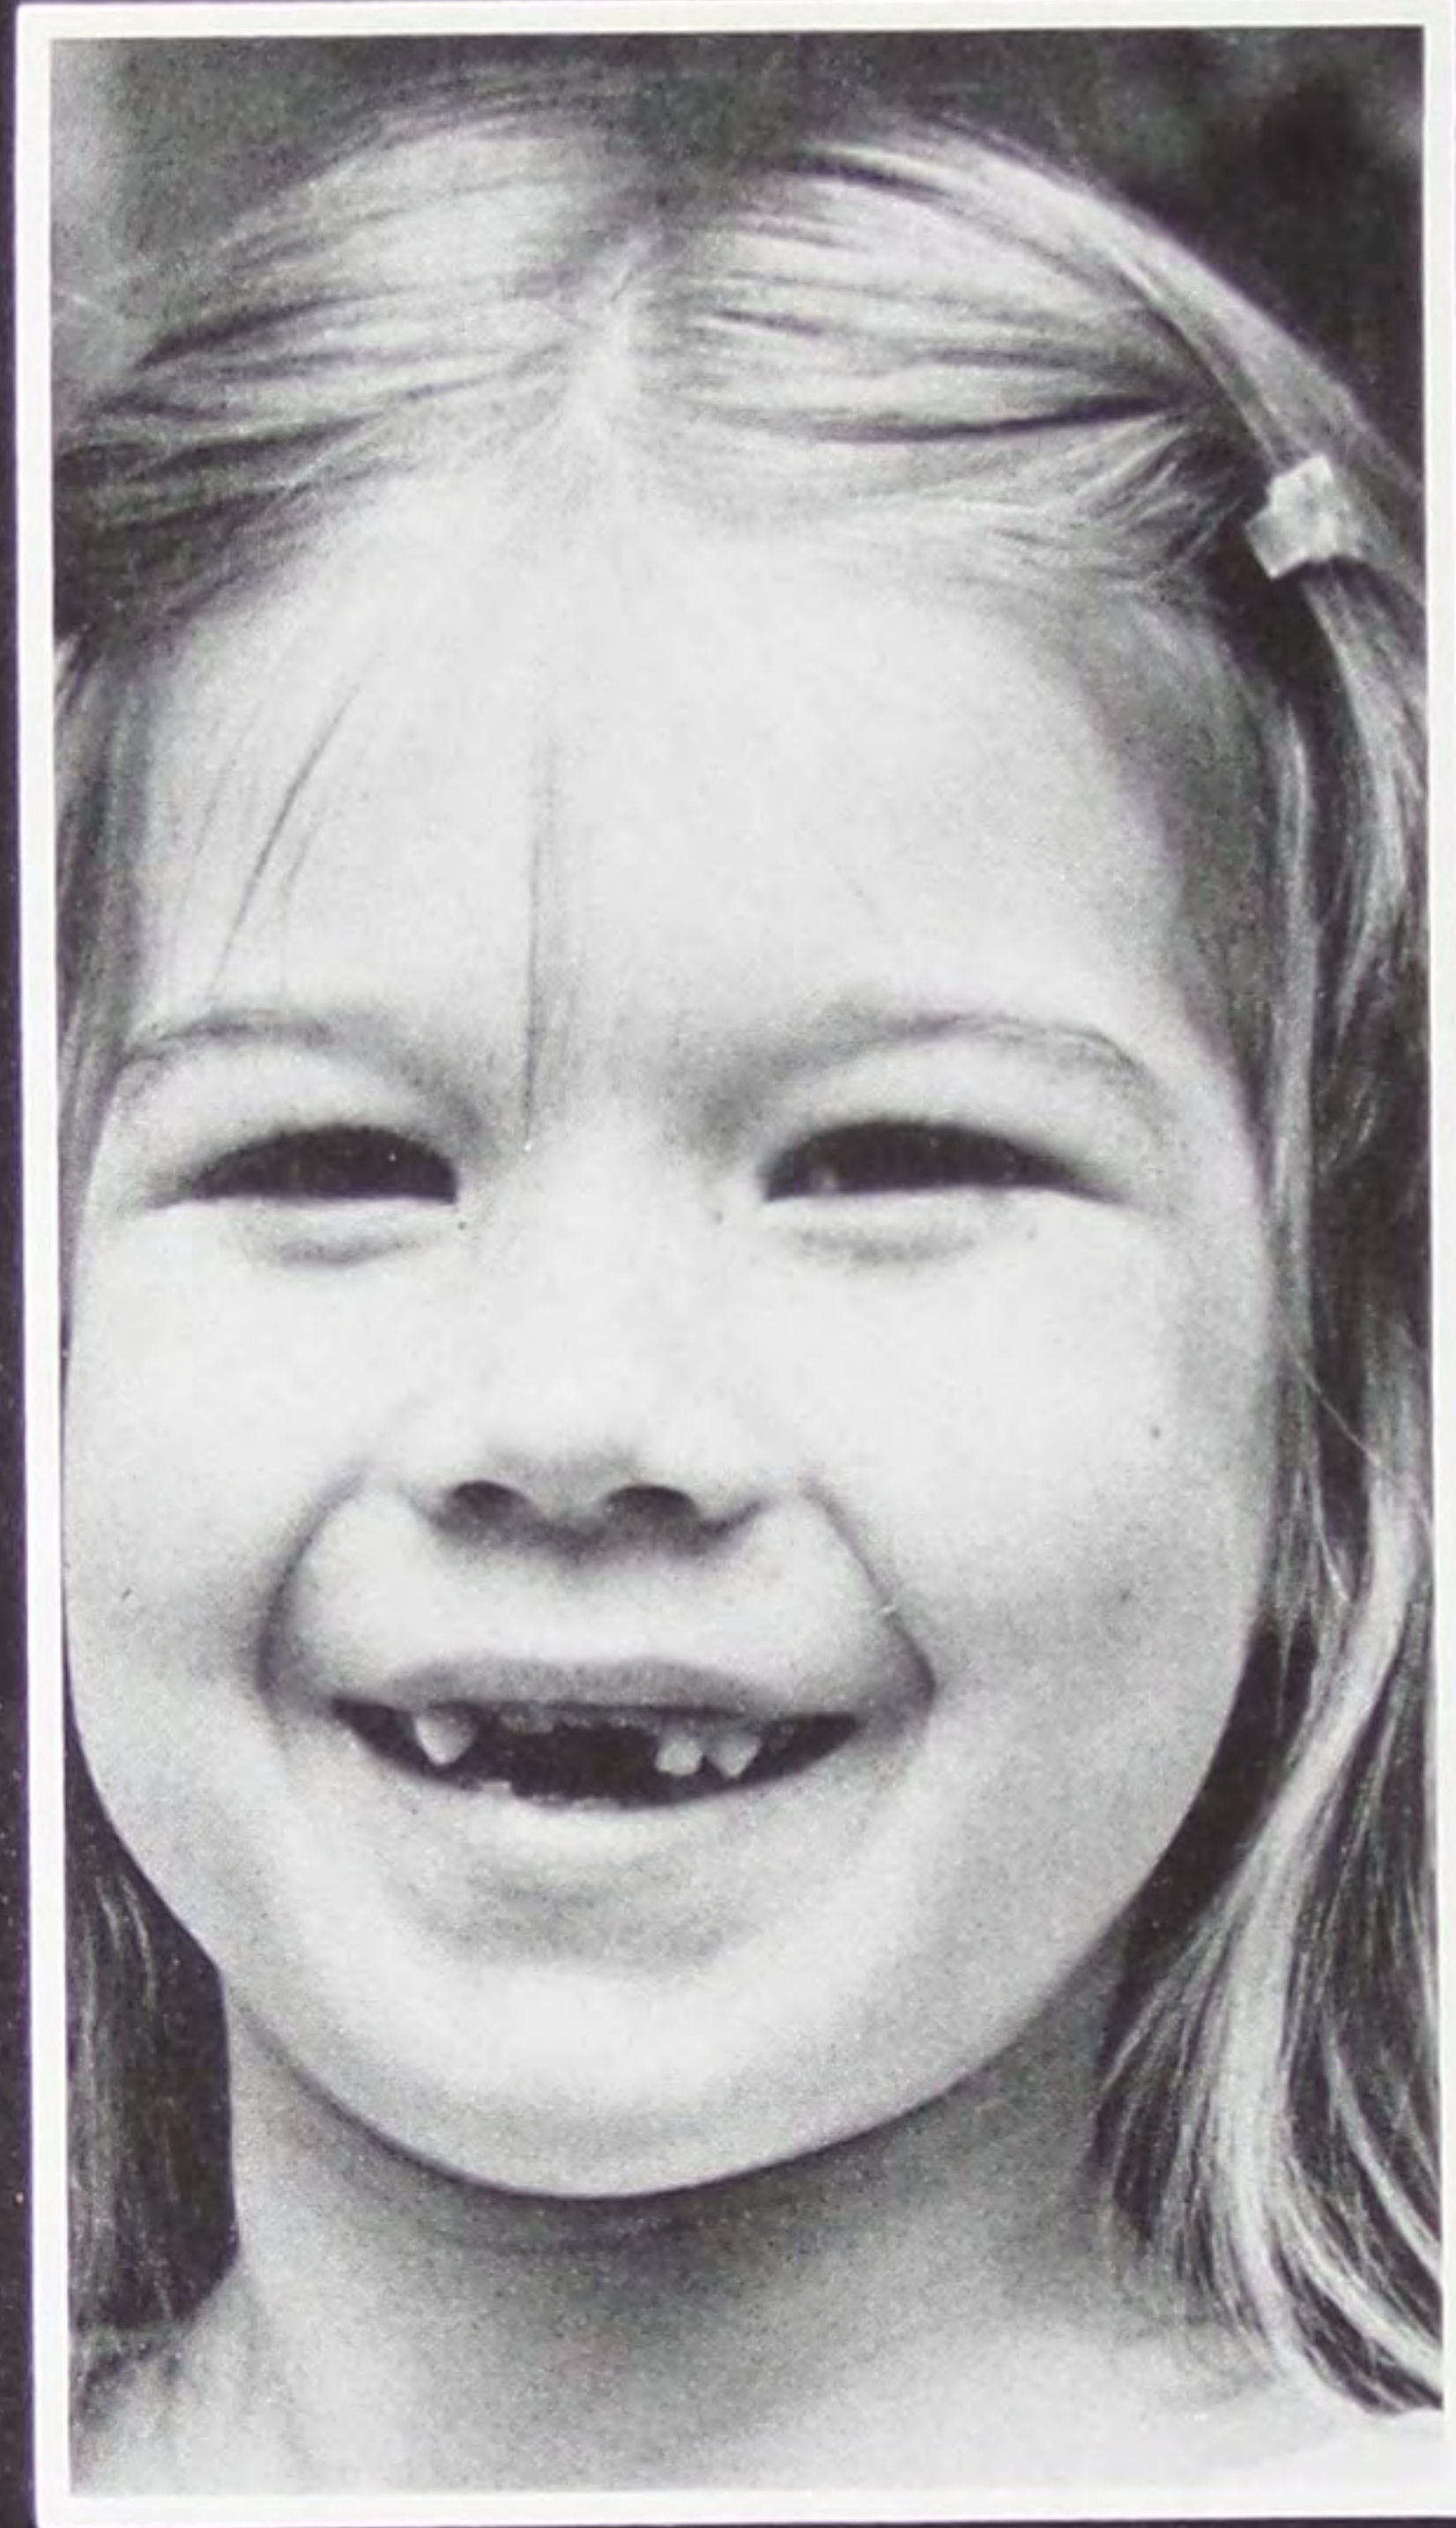

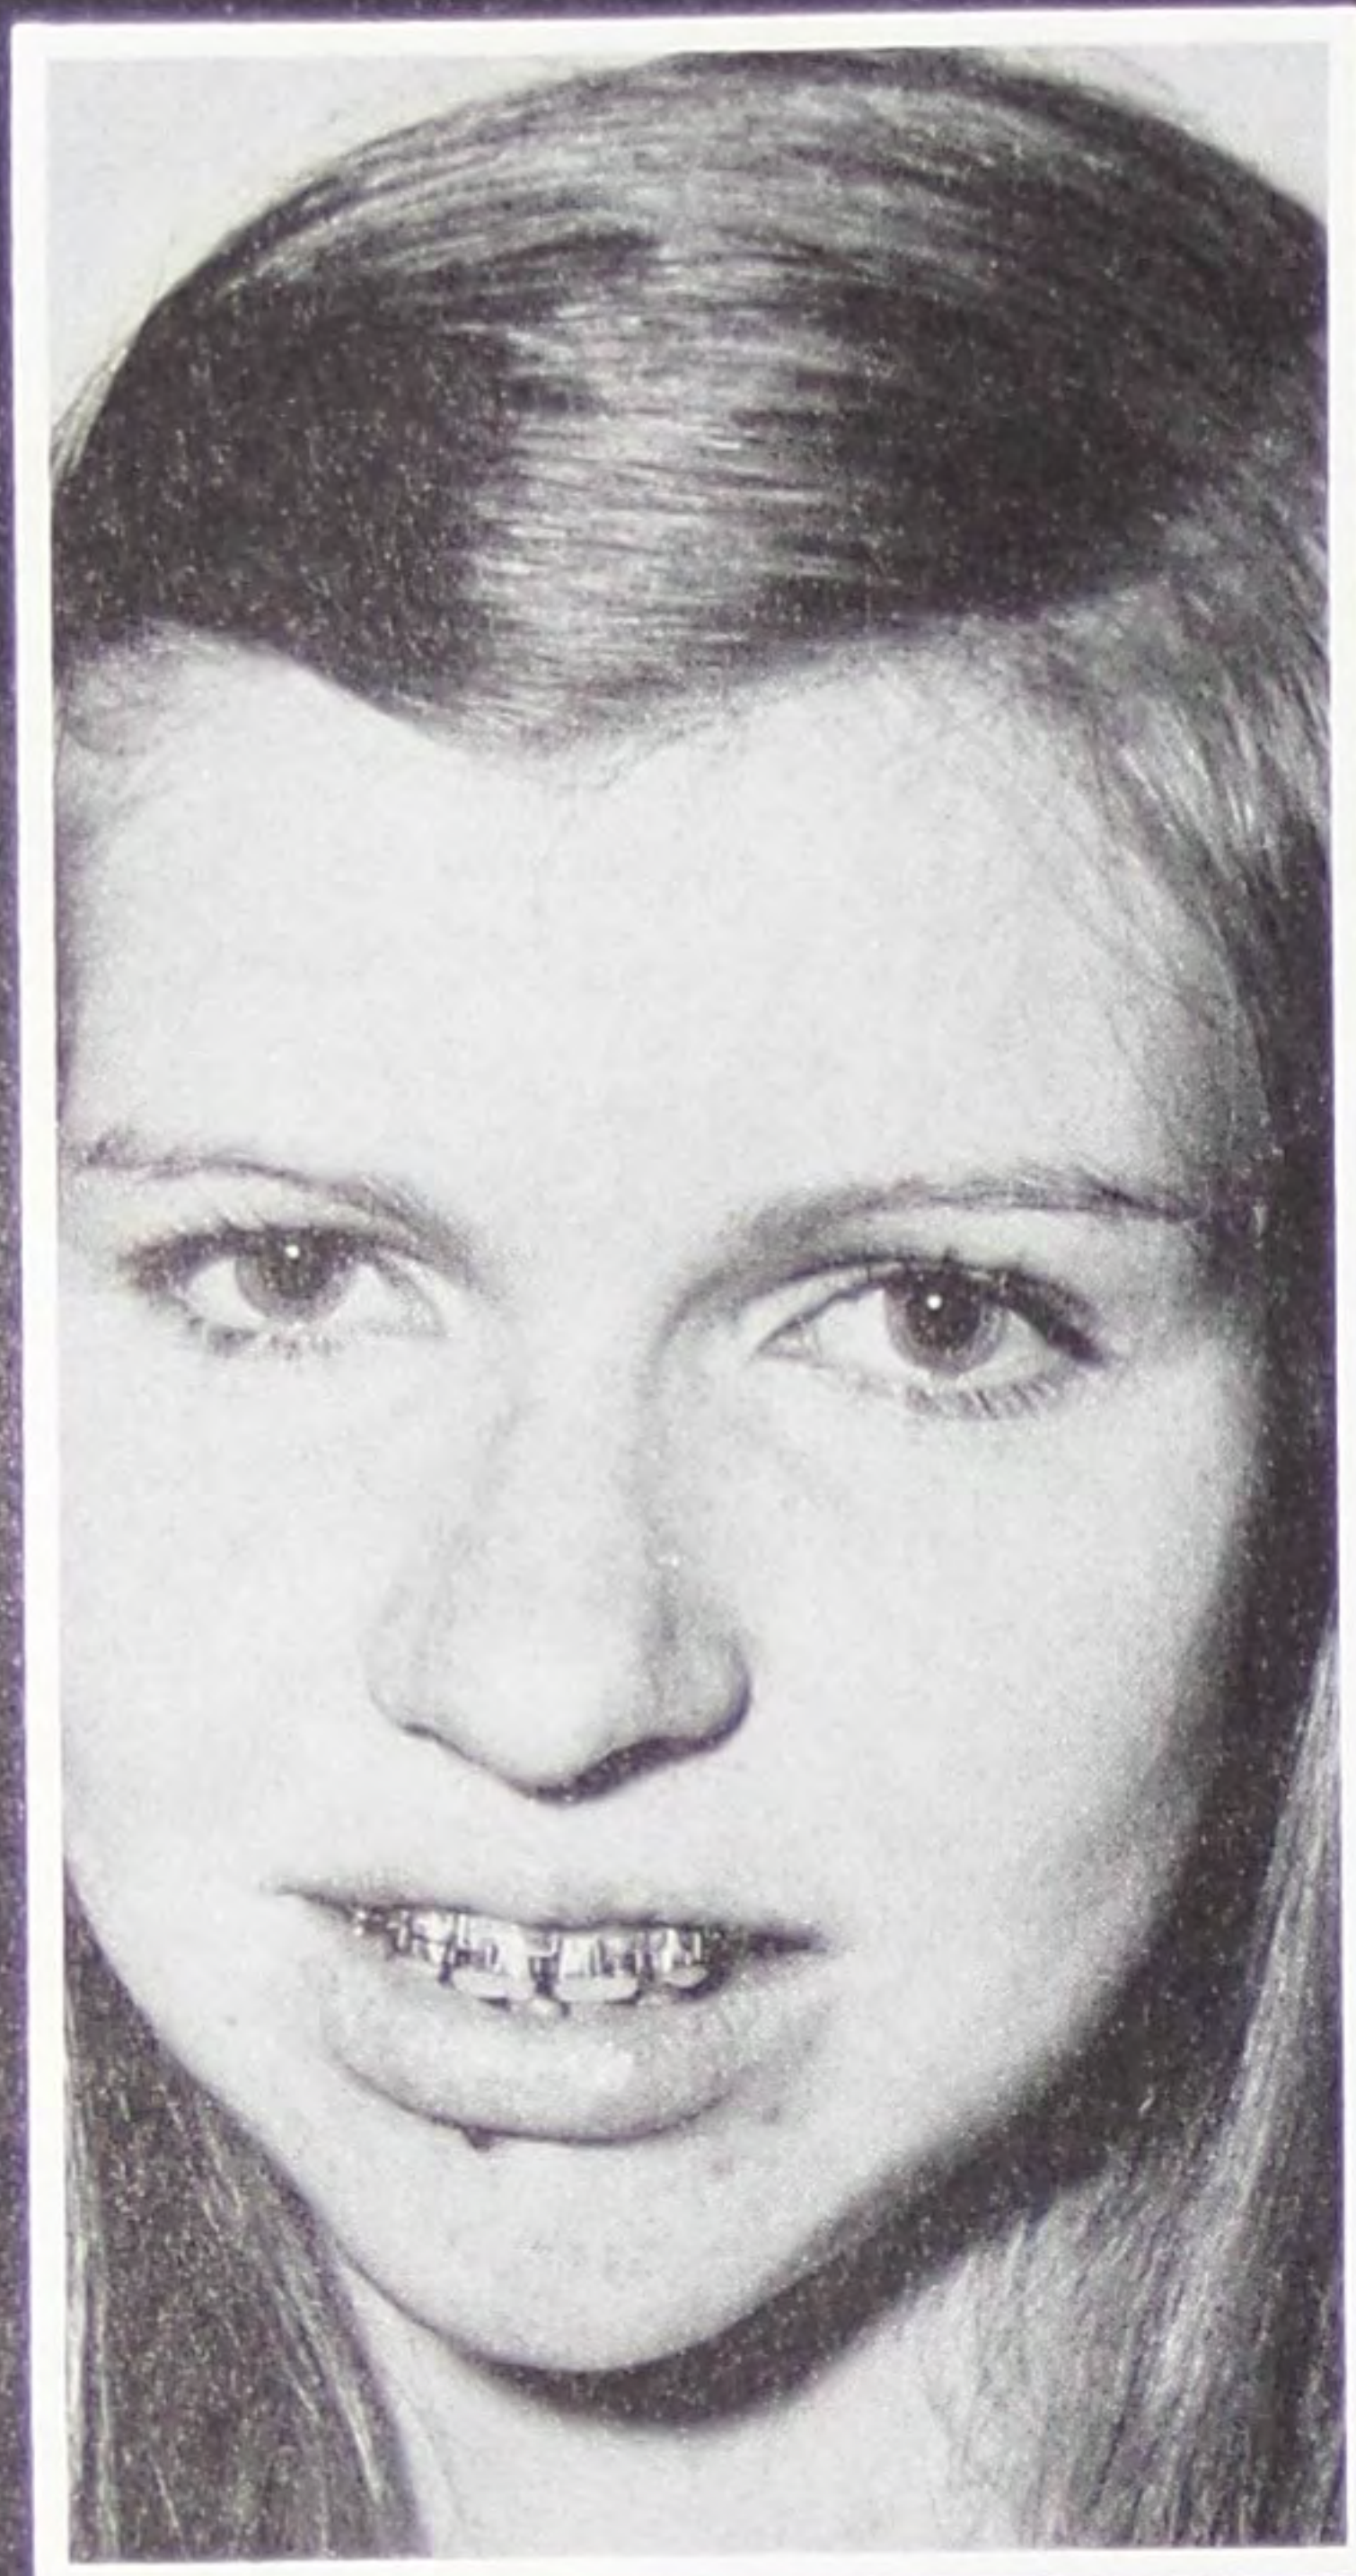

QUEEN CANDIDATE: HEIDI HAGEN

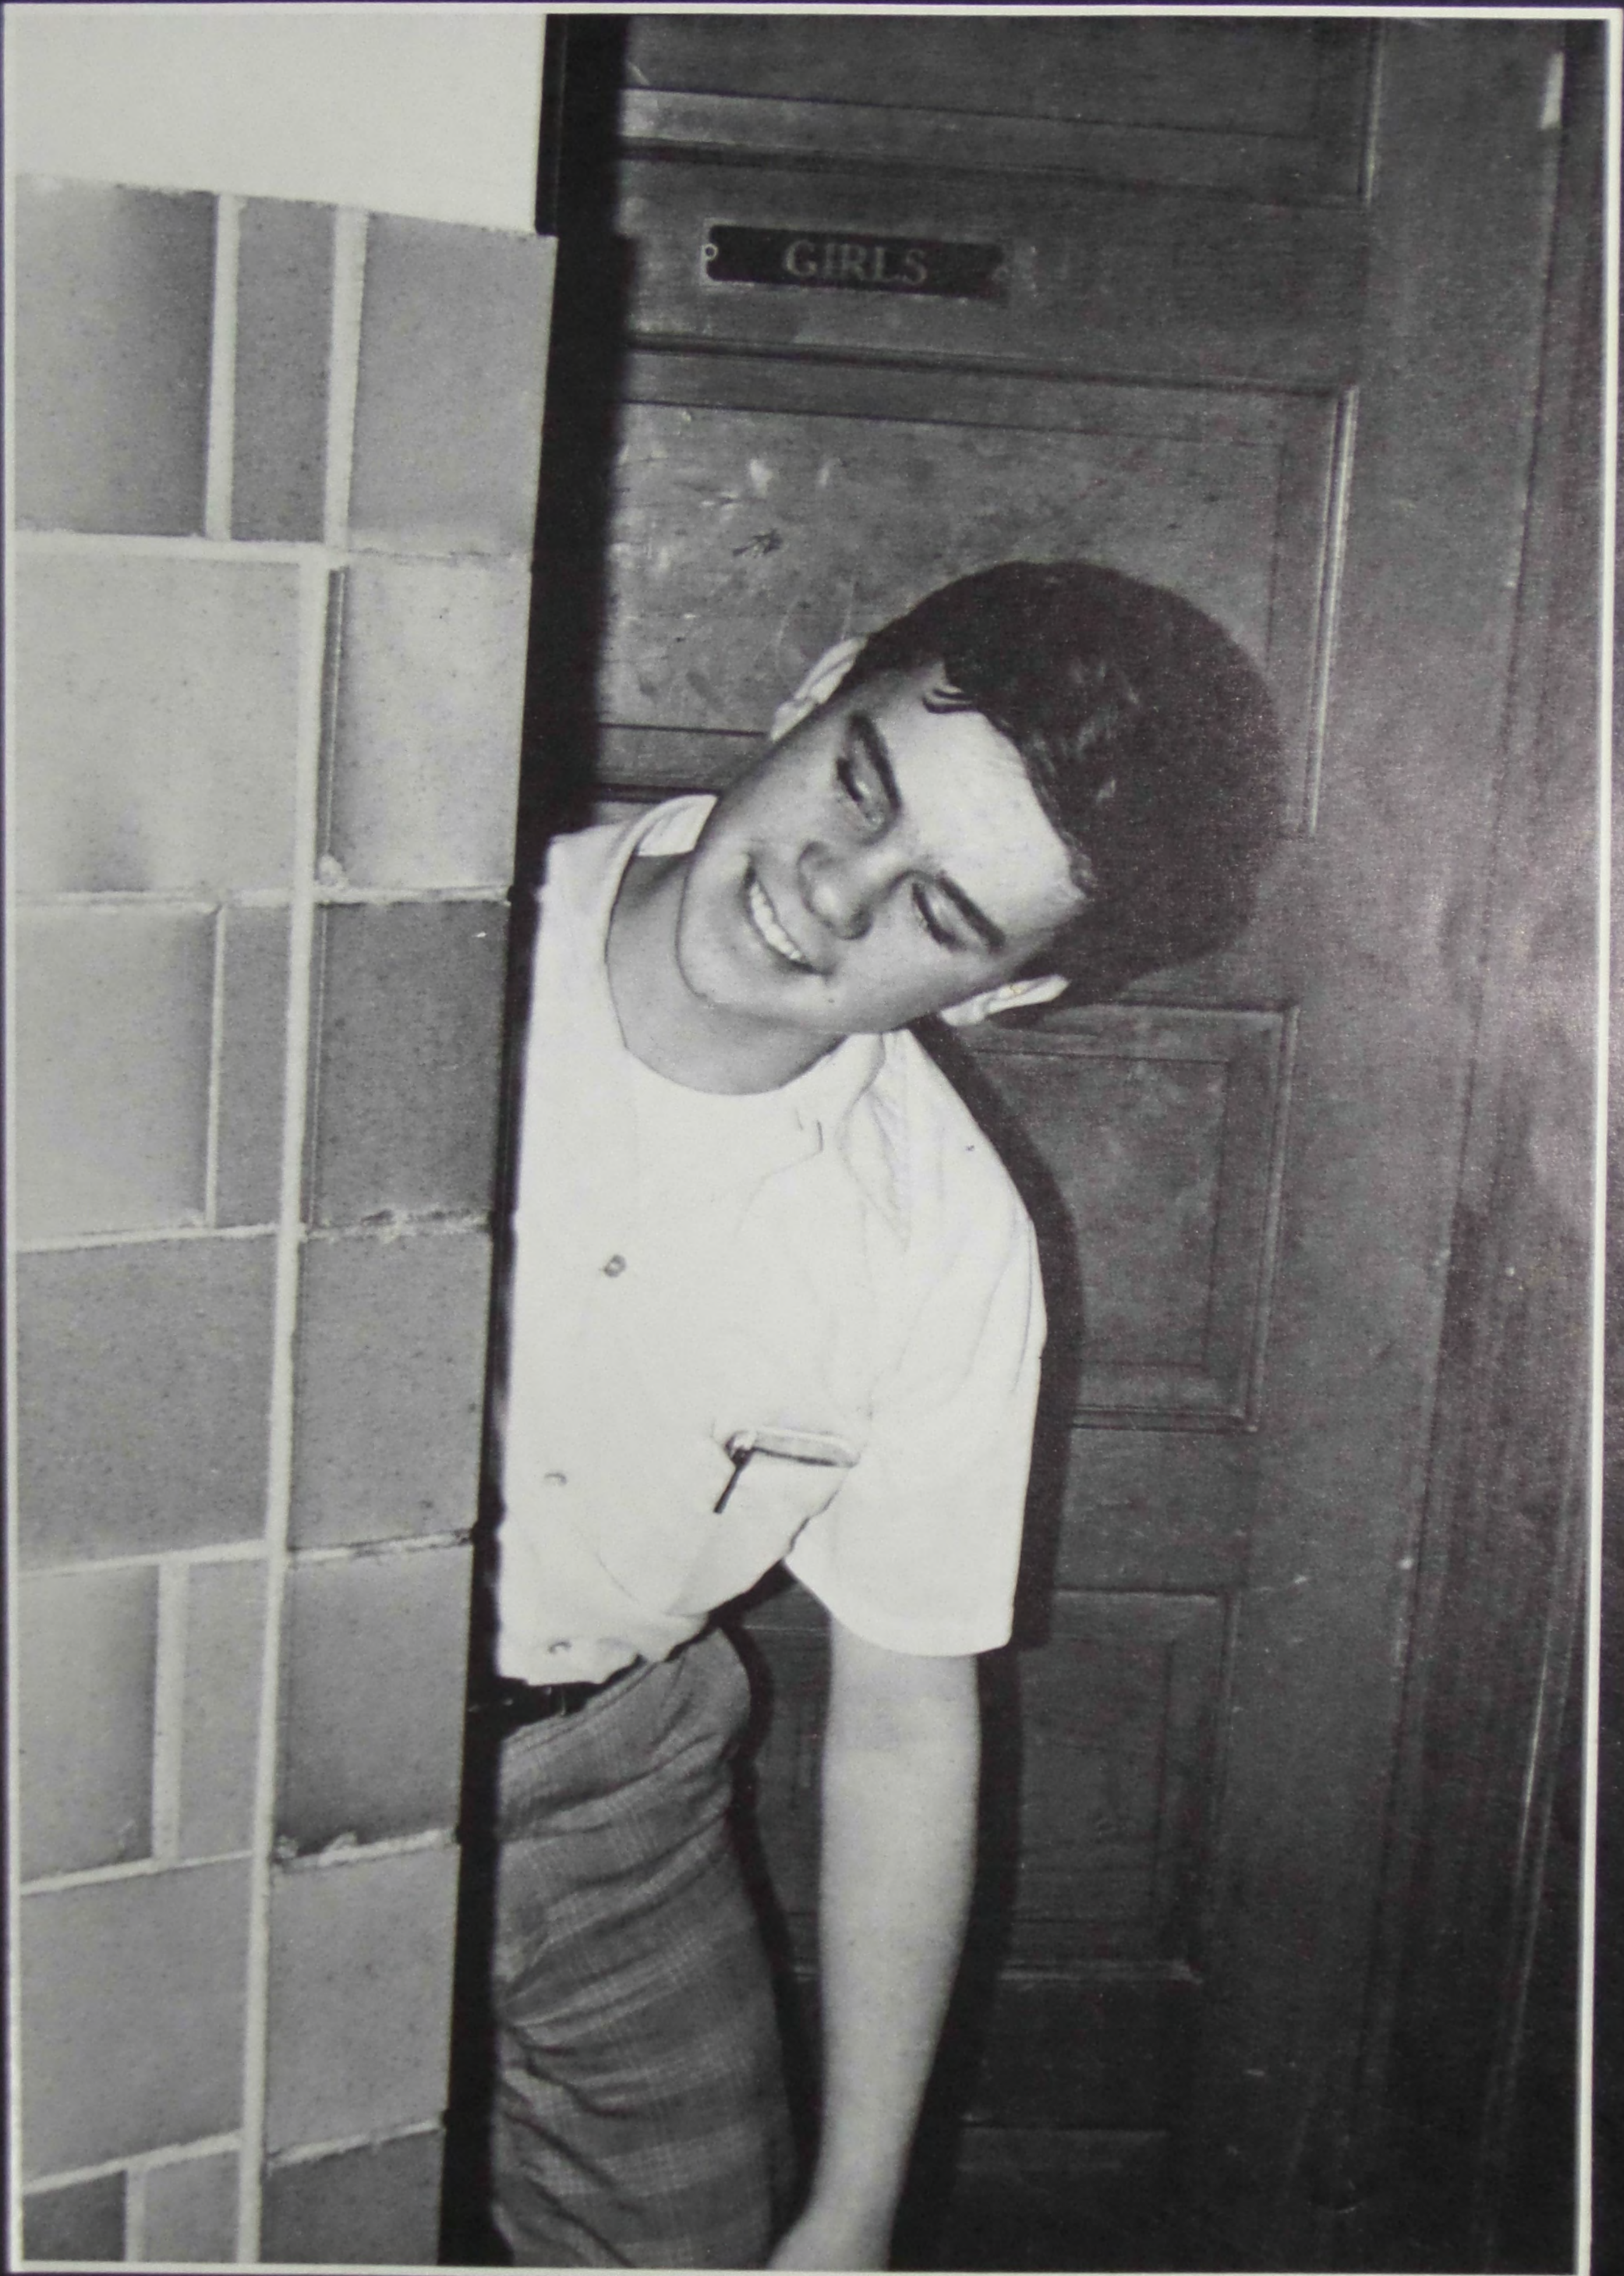

Rhonda's last parade as 1971 River Days Queen.

FALL

Yesterday, all our troubles seemed so far away . . .

. . . Now it looks as if they're here to stay.

Today's Special: Yesterday's Leftovers

Through the lips, past the gums, lookout tummy, here it comes.

. . . Oh, how I believe in Yesterday.

Thirty-cents, eh! What kind of meat are they using?

The way of dancing has changed over the years. In the 1700's they danced the Minuet. In the 1800's it was the Waltz. In the early 1900's it was the Charleston; in the 1940's, the Jitterbug. In the 50's, 60's, and 70's it is the, well, I don't know what to call it, but one thing is noticeable, the dancers are further apart now. I like the old ways. So! Let's get it together, Man!

Work well done and its just reward, sunshine, rest and love - these are the desiderata of happiness. In one fashion or another we see them somewhere afar in our path; and the vision keeps us in good humor with the world and with ourselves. "Sometime," we say, "we shall come to our own - sometime." And meanwhile life grows stiller and stiller, rebellion settles to submission, great ambitions turn to simple things. Though we have been roughly awakened from the intoxication of youth's enchanted visions, if we have learned our lesson well, may we still find a cheering ray of light in the shadows of evening, and go with calm faces among our neighbors and our friends.
