JAMES N. WARREN, Principal

Principal's Message

Education, as never before, is of the utmost importance in the life of every boy and girl today. It is an evident fact that no person is even considered for any responsible position unless he or she has a minimum of a high school education.

Questions that are most commonly requested by all employers and colleges are:

1. Has the pupil attended school regularly?
2. Did the pupil get along well with fellow classmates and teachers?
3. Grades attained in high school?
4. Did the pupil graduate?
5. Number in the graduating class and the rank of the graduate?

It is the personal responsibility of each pupil and parent to see that the individual learns to the maximum ability. If there is a weakness in the home, it is usually detected in the child; the child may show his maladjustment to existing every day situations.

It is imperative that all parents check each grading period to note the progress of their children. If satisfactory progress is not noted, the teacher should be contacted immediately for an appointment. A child's progress may be assisted by an analysis or discussion between the parent and the teacher.

Senior Class History

In 1955, one hundred and one eager freshmen enrolled at Glenwood. They were led by President, Bob Fox; Vice President, Elmer Blevins; Secretary, Kay Clevenger; Treasurer, Judy Martin. Martha Maple represented the class as Homecoming attendant. Our sponsors were Mr. Barrett, Mr. Caudill, and Mrs. Havener.

After our summer vacation we returned in the fall to begin our studies as sophomores. Class officers were: President, John Hoover; Vice President, Kay Clevenger; Secretary, Bob Fox; Treasurer, Don Carter; Reporter, Norman Roberts. Seventy-one sophomores were represented by Alice Willis as Homecoming attendant. Class sponsors were: Mr. Darling, Mr. Bond, and Mr. Washington.

Mr. Bond and Mr. Caudill were sponsors for sixty-eight anxious juniors. Class officers were: Bob Fox, President; John Hoover, Vice President; Marvin Jenkins, Secretary; Elmer Blevins, Treasurer; Rodney Stone, Reporter.

Our Junior Play, "The Thursday Murders," was directed by Mrs. Campbell. The cast consisted of Bob Fox, Marvin Jenkins, Frank Stidham, Joe Harr, Ralph Bussey, Elmer Blevins, Terry Highfield, Shelby Travis, Donna Jamison, Mary Sowards, Janet Meenach, Tylitha Lewis, Judy Martin, Janice Lytten, Donna Bell, Pat Fetty, Kay Clevenger, and Emily Sheridan. Our Junior-Senior Prom was held at the Elks Country Club. Our theme was "Sayonaro."

At last, 1959, finds us sixty-three proud seniors. Mr. Bond and Miss Wheeler are our class sponsors. Class officers are: President, Bob Fox; Vice President, Larry Hale; Secretary, Emilie Gregory; Treasurer, Pat Fetty; Reporter, Kay Clevenger.

Our Class Play, "Meet Me at the Prom," was held February 13, and was directed by Miss Wheller. The cast consisted of Kay Clevenger, Donna Jamison, Bob Fox, John Hoover, Rodney Stone, Emily Sheridan, Norman Roberts, Pat Fetty, Collette Clark, Judy Martin, Harold Cullum, Larry Hale, Nova McCleese, Bonita Webster, Connie Hanners, Janet Daniels, and Emilie Gregory. Student Directors were Ralph Bussey and Judy Griffin.

Senior Class Will

- I, BONNIE ADKINS, leave my height to LEROY FRAZIER.
- I, HELEN BARKLOW, leave my quiet disposition to JERRY "BOOGER" JONES.
- I, PAT BATES, leave my loud mouth to BRENDA JACKSON. Gargle with Listerine for a clear tone.
- I, DONNA BELL, leave my musical laughter to NANCY BRIGGS. Remember, Nancy, three hours practice every day.
- I, JUNIOR BLEVINS, leave my ability to figure out girls and leave them alone to STEVE ROSS.
- I, RALPH BUSSEY, leave my ability to get out of Science Fair to JOHN WILLIAMS. Being in good with the teacher helps.
- I, JANET CALLENDAR, leave my courage to walk out of Mr. Hellyer's class to CAROLYN MOLTON.
- I, COLLETTE CLARK, leave my ability to get along with Mrs. Campbell to CLARENCE BURCHETT. All you have to do is be late for class, walk around the room, and talk.
- I, KAY CLEVINGER, leave my ability to live closer to school than anyone and still be late to KEN HOSSMAN. Remember, Ken, you have to get up at 8:29 to make it.
- I, HAROLD CULLUM, leave my ability to get along with the Wheelersburg girls to KENNETH IMEL. It helps if you live there.
- I, JANET DANIELS, leave my position as Flag Bearer to PAUL HARR. "Get those knees up, Smiley."
- I, TOM DAVIS, leave my control in taking Milldale curve at 95 m.p.h. to DON LOCHBAUM.
- I, RAYMOND DRAKE, just leave, and think I'm lucky to do that.
- I, PAT FETTY, leave my giggle to RAYMOND PRIODE. All you have to do is be crazy.
- I, BOB FOX, leave my position as President of the Senior Class to BILL THACKER. Remember, Bill, cooperation helps.
- I, EMILIE GREGORY, according to tradition, leave my crown to some lucky junior girl.
- I, JUDY GRIFFIN, couldn't think of anything to leave so I'll just take everything with me.
- I, SANDRA GROH, leave my haircut to DIANE CORNWELL. All you need is nerve and a sharp razor blade.
- I, LARRY HALE, leave my nickname "Blind John" to JIM GROH. A good cane is the only equipment you need.
- I, CONNIE HANNERS, leave my beautiful two-tone hair to TOM MANUEL. Pure peroxide and ammonia will do the trick.
- I, JACK HARPER, leave my brilliant mind to JO ANN FRY. The "Ideal" is a wonderful place to study.
- I, JOE HARR, leave my ability to play chess to DICK DEMPSEY.
- I, TERRY HIGHFIELD, leave my ability to make good grades to TERRI THACKER. Study late into the night.
- I, JOHN HOOVER, leave my parking space in front of the school to Mr. Warren. Remember now, "no parking on the yellow line."
- I, WATSON HUGHES, leave my trumpet playing ability to PAT MESSER. Try to grow a mustache to strengthen your lip.
- I, JACK ISON, leave my ability to "charm" Mrs. Campbell to anyone who has the charm and good looks to do it.
- I, DONNA JAMISON, leave my position as Captain of the National Honor Society to BOB MARSHALL. "A verse a day is the only right way."
- I, CARL JARVIS, leave my position as "Chief Milkman" to GLENNA LEWIS. It helps if you have a cow.
- I, MARVIN JENKINS, leave my place in Glee Club to RON GILES. Remember a few tra la la's help keep you in voice.
- I, TYLITHA LEWIS, leave my housekeeping ability to CONNIE WALKER. All you have to do is marry an undertaker.
- I, RAY LUTZ, leave my ability to live in the Pool Room to PENNY SOWARDS. Remember the white ball is the cue ball.
- I, JANICE LYTTEN, leave my ability to keep a secret to ROSIE MARTIN. Tape over your mouth helps.
- I, JUDY MARTIN, leave my ability to take Mrs. Clerico before the board to SHARON GILLEY.
- I, BOB MARTIN, leave my nickname "Colonel" to ROGER PAYTON. You must tell at least six war stories a day.
- I, MARTHA MAPLE, leave my ability to sew a button on the same side as the button hole to BRENDA PENNINGTON.
- I, PAT MATHIS, leave my figure to JAKE CINERESKI.
- I, NOVA McCLEESE, leave my ability to know so much about football to JOYCE GREEN. I think you yell when we make a basket.
- I, KENNETH MESSER, leave my ability to make good grades to PAUL LEWIS. All you need is a smart wife.
- I, JAMES MINGUS, leave my ability to get married in my senior year to GARY TACKETT.
- I, FRANK PERKINS, leave my loud disposition to EVERETT MORRIS.
- I, DONALD PORTER, leave my ability to remain free of girls until my senior year to any junior boy who thinks he is smart enough.
- I, GARY PLUMMER, leave my Portsmouth girls and all my money to LARKIN SMITH.
- I, PAT RUHLMAN, leave my out-of-town boyfriends to JANET VAUGHN. Remember, letters are cheaper than phone calls.
- I, NORMAN ROBERTS, leave my ability to have hair to RICHARD DUNHAM. Brush it four times a day.
- I, BILL RUARK, leave my ability to smoke in my house to EARL STEWART. Keep at it, you'll get the courage someday.
- I, BETTY JO SEXTON, leave my ability to miss four days of school out of five to PATTY THOMAS. Staying up late keeps you in good condition to do this.
- I, EMILY SHERIDAN, leave my ability to get in and out of trouble to MARILYN COMBESS. You've got a good start, Marilyn; keep up the good work.
- I, MARY SOWARDS, leave my position as "Court Jester" in Darling's Kingdom to MICKY STURGLL.
- I, RON SPEARS, leave my membership in the "House of David" to STEVE JENKINS.
- I, DONNA STATEN, leave my long hair to JOE CORNWELL.
- I, FRANK STIDHAM, leave my ability to be in everything at school to all the juniors.
- I, RODNEY STONE, leave my curly hair to WAYNE RIGGS. Remember a Toni once a month gives you that casual look.
- I, RAY STANLEY, agree with my buddy Drake, and just leave.
- I, SHELBY TRAVIS, leave my position as head majorette to Mr. Grabham. "To the left, MARCH!!"
- I, SHIRLEY VAUGHN, leave my nickname "Mange" and my beautiful hair to BRENDA PHILLIPS. A soaping a day keeps the fleas away.
- I, ADAM WALK, leave my regular attendance to EDWARD MATHIS.
- I, BONITA WEBSTER, leave my driving ability to LARRY SUTHERS. Free lessons in night driving.
- I, ALICE WILLIS, leave my ability to be the first one engaged in the class to CAROLYN GULLEY. Watch those farm boys.
- I, FRED WOLFE, leave my ability to get along with all the senior girls to MARK COBURN.
- I, DON YOUNG, leave my jokes and "Mad" magazines to any junior who is brave enough to use them.

Senior Class Prophecy

At the close of the century I, Captain Video Roberts, returning to Earth after a successful expedition to Mars, decided to visit my old home town, New Boston.

Upon my arrival, I went to my old hangout, "Joes," which was now a cocktail lounge, managed by Joe Harr and Jack Ison. The featured attraction for the lounge was the fabulous Pat Bates. I was served dinner by the head waiter, Terrance Highfield.

Stopping by the old theater, which was now managed by Ray Lutz, I was fascinated by the new movie, "Bearded Lady," starring Ron Spears. To my surprise Marvin Jenkins was the usher.

I then saw the old Alma Mater, which had expanded up Glenwood. Visiting, I was met by the new Principal, Raymond Drake. I learned from him most of the faculty consisted of very old classmates; John Hoover, Helen Barklow, Carl Jarvis, Nova McCleese, and Don Young. I was surprised to find Shirley Vaughn and Bonnie Adkins still searching for "Formosa" in Ohio.

I returned to my hotel which was owned by Harold Cullum. The elevator boy, Larry Hale, told me Collette Clark, Janice Lytten, and Donna Jamison had just opened a new nursery school. After an interesting talk with Larry, I entered my room to find the maids, Donna Bell and Connie Hanners just leaving.

Picking up the newspaper, I read about the new singing sensation "Fats" Blevins. I also read about the coming Rose Bowl Game between Coach Messer's Lions and Coach Wolfe's Dragsters.

In the theatrical section I noticed Ralph Bussey was directing a new play, "Peeping Tom," starring Tom Davis and Judy Griffin.

Leaving my hotel, I decided to view the town of old memories before returning to space. Greatly to my surprise I found Deacon Stidham still carryout boy at Emmetts, but he expected to be raised to cashier any day.

Hailing a cab, I was driven around town by John Horner, who was now owner of the Boston Cab Company. Ray Stanley, Watson Hughes, Gary Plummer, and Bob Martin were his drivers.

A loud noise took my attention and there was Rodney Stone, firechief, and his crew: James Mingus, Adam Walk, Bill Ruark, Don Porter and Frank Perkins.

Jack Harper was police chief; his deputies were: Martha Maple, Patty Mathis, Pat Ruhlman, and Mary Sowards. I asked him why the women deputies; he said that it built up the morale.

I also noticed a large beauty salon, managed by Pat Fetty and Tylitha Lewis. From them I learned about all the happily married people; Betty Sexton, Donna Staten, Bonita Webster, and Sandra Groh.

I learned of a new Hot-Rod Association consisting of Kay Clevenger, Janet Callender, Judy Martin, and Manless Daniels.

Returning to the hotel, I watched a television program, "Tugboat Annie," starring Emily Sheridan. Shelby Travis and Alice Willis did commercials.

The next morning I left the old town of memories.

Before blasting off at Cape Canaveral, I received news of the election of my old friend, Bob Fox, to the presidency of the United States.

Football Season

Even though Glenwood was hampered by injuries, the Tigers made a good showing by posting a S. O. C. record of 3-2-1 in taking third place.

In the first game of the season Glenwood traveled to Wellston to meet a much bigger squad. The Tigers tried very hard but Wellston's size proved to be the main factor in their 36-6 win over New Boston.

In their first S. O. C. game the Tigers downed Wheelersburg 24-8. Fred Wolfe scored one touchdown while Ken Messer scored two and threw a pass to Richard Dunham for the other.

In their second S. O. C. game with Piketon the Tigers posted an overwhelming 54-6 victory. Steve Ross scored five touchdowns while Ken Messer, Fred Wolfe, and Junior Blevins scored one each.

Notre Dame took over the S. O. C. lead by downing an injured New Boston squad. The Tigers, with five regulars out with injuries, should be given credit for their terrific battle in their 8-0 defeat.

In a non-conference game, Glenwood matched South Point in touchdowns, but extra points proved to be the difference. Ken Messer scored two touchdowns and Fred Wolfe scored one in the 24-20 defeat.

Waverly dropped New Boston to third place by beating them 16-8 in our Homecoming. Ken Messer scored our lone touchdown in the losing cause.

New Boston quickly bounced back to down West 24-6. Steve Ross led the Tiger scoring attack with two touchdowns with Fred Wolfe scoring the other.

Glenwood played a better game than their 24-14 score indicated in their loss to Rock Hill. After a scoreless first half, Fred Wolfe matched the Redmen's first two touchdowns, but the Tigers couldn't match their third, which came late in the final period.

New Boston came from behind with Steve Ross scoring a touchdown in the final quarter to give the Tigers a 6-6 tie with East.

AWARDS FOR ALL-STARS. The Southern Ohio Conference held its annual awards assembly Thursday in New Boston, home of its 1958-59 basketball champion, at which the all-stars were honored. The Tigers were titlists for the fourth straight year and coach Homer Pellegrinon of New Boston won the coach of the year nod for the third consecutive time. Each player holds his all-star trophy and Jack

Highlights of '58-'59 Basketball Season

Coach Pellegrinon and his Tigers kept the reputation of Glenwood's Basketball team in perfect condition in the '58-'59 season. The Tigers rolled to a perfect season record while capturing their fourth consecutive S. O. C. championship. The Tigers had a 16-0 season record and moved their S. O. C. victories to 20 straight.

The Tigers also moved to the Regional Tournament at Athens with six more victories before being beaten by Lynwood-Jacksontown, who later captured runner-up honors in the State Tournament.

The combined record was 22-1.

The Tigers placed Joe Harr, Jack Ison, and Leroy Frazier on the S. O. C. All-Star Team.

Harr and Ison also played for the Class "A" County All-Stars.

Frazier was a member of the All-State's third team. Harr received honorable mention. Harr also won the team's Most Valuable Player Award.

Coach Pellegrinon also shared in the honors by receiving the Coach of the Year Award for the third straight year. This is the third year for the award to be presented.
