1940 - 1941

Dear Janie,
I feel honored to be able to write in your book. You're one swell kid Peggie and I wish you
the best of luck!
Love

SENIOR PRESIDENT Dave Gardner

STARTING AT THE BOTTOM, so to speak, is Pat Mitchell, new football coach and civics teacher, who is shown giving some gentle hints on the use of the toe.

IN THE DEPARTMENT OF SCIENCE new faculty members are E. Stanley Melick (left), who teaches chemistry, and Lowell Adams whose interest is biology.

Band's Boatripe: Bonfire Features Pep Rally

COMBINING the pre-season football bonfire rally and the Band Boosters' boatripe proved to be a great success, as shown by the large group of fans present (above).

THROUGH THE SUPER-STRUCTURE, the band was snapped while playing a stirring march, under the direction of Dick Bauer, to entertain the crowd on the steamer "Senator". The boatripe was given for the benefit of the band uniform fund.

KENTUCKY HILLS and the U. S. Grant bridge, seen through the bow of the excursion steamer "Senator", provide a picturesque view.

and Roy McGovney outfit two Trojan players at practice.

COACH MITCHELL is instructing Trojan linemen in the fine arts of "submarining" and blocking.

CHARLES SAMSON,

Men's Singles Champion and Junior Singles Champion, shows the championship form which won him these high tennis honors.

OFF TO A GOOD START are these Betty Lamp Club members who, with their sponsors, are picnic-bound.

Trojan Talk

Students walk up the gangplanks, teachers get their pilot instructions, the anchor is hauled on board, and we embark again on the big ship as school begins on September 9.

Trojans practice once a day now instead of twice daily—school must be a blessing to some people! Freshmen are taught new football yells, and echoes of "Yea, Trojans" resound through the halls . . . After a hectic week of anxiety and suspense the new band uniforms arrive for almost everyone but Dick Bauer. Those outfits of blue and red, with a military cut, add greatly to the color and enjoyment of the football games . . . By the way, thanks, Trojans, for your 32-0 victory over Columbus East.

Gardner, Tierney, Russell, and Fultz are elected class officers.

Sounds as if we're going to hear "El Rancho Grande" from the Spanish classes all this year, too . . . An inquisitive senior asks Mr. Melick how many elements haven't been discovered yet! . . . Free Echoes as Echo and Trojan campaigns begin—a lot of readin' for $1.80—Durham lads give the Trojans some of that southern punch, and we lose, 21-0.

Padded cover or unpadded? That's what a lot of minds are pondering as Trojan campaign warms up and third week of school begins . . . Miss DuPuy finally breaks down after three years and consents to take the peppiest of all peppy home rooms, 201, on a picnic to Lake Roosevelt, and what do you know—rain almost spoiled it! . . . Mr. Stewart puts five exclamation points after that long awaited statement—"The history work-books are in"! . . . Period of torture for prospective G. A. C.'s begins—white dresses, braided hair, long black stockings, and—initiation! hm! . . . The sinks in Chemistry lab leak through the desk drawers!! . . . Lots of girls jumpin' around in jumpers and jerkin' on jerkins as new fashions make their appearance in school . . . Oh, yes, Dick Bauer's still waiting for his band uniform.

Trojan Talk

Hospitable Springfield gave us not only the keys to the town and the stadium, but also a 28 to 7 feather in our cap, although that 99 yard run for Springfield gave Trojan fans listening at home a real scare (Sept. 27) . . . G. A. C. final initiation at the Fair Grounds.

Mascot Bill Apel brings luck as Trojans invade Chillicothe to pull down a 27-0 victory (Oct. 4). Mrs. Apel celebrates the occasion by treating each member of the team to a piece of cake in honor of Oattie's and Bill's birthday . . . Members of Miss Kauffman's French classes sign to correspond with fellow students in French colonies. Girls invariably ask for something "tall, dark, and seventeen".

McDermott seems to have contributed a real jewel to the Junior Play—Joan Vonderembse . . . The G. A. C. and Chemistry Clubs have been meeting on the same nights—rather inconvenient for members of both clubs. The G. A. C. finally solved the problem by inviting the Chemistry Club to come down and see their movies . . . Akron South players (after being defeated by the Trojans 19-5 (Oct. 11) were lost from the fold after the game. Their coach finally found them—imagine!—at the Hi-Y dance.

Revellers are still talking about Paul Eddie Smith's interpretation of Ann Sheridan at the Revellers' Picnic. He was dressed effectively, from the low-backed formal to the lipstick which got smeared all over Charlie (Johnny Gardner) Chaplin's face . . . The biggest upset of the girls' hockey season was recorded when the Sophomores defeated the Juniors 3-1. Seems too early to predict a presidential victory, but feminine party workers pass out buttons along with their best smiles. Maybe the prettiest smile will turn the tide . . . Trojans battle for a 6-0 win in a snow skirmish at Youngstown (Oct. 19) . . . Is this summer or winter?

P. S. Mournful Middies meet masterful Trojans and suffer a 12-0 defeat (Oct. 18).

1940 Grid Summary

Seven wins, three losses, and a lone tie game gave the Portsmouth Trojans a better than average record for the 1940 edition of the grid machine. The lads opened the season October 13 with a bang as they ran, passed, tackled, and blocked like champions to humble Columbus East, 33 to 0. One week later, however, Durham, N. C., brought one of the most powerful teams seen in these parts for several years to Trojanland, and the southerners took advantage of a blocked kick, a costly fumble, and a pass interception to gain a 21 to 0 victory.

Journeying to Springfield the next Friday the Red and Blue bounced back into the win column with a smashing victory over Springfield, 28 to 7, and continued their winning ways on the road at the expense of Chillicothe, 27 to 0, on October 4. Akron South invaded Municipal Stadium the following Friday and became the fourth victim of Coach Jenkins' charges, the final score being 19 to 6. Snow proved a stumbling block at Youngstown, and the highly favored Trojans barely managed to eke out a 6 to 0 victory over Chaney.

Middletown, always a tough foe but weaker than usual this fall, was beaten by our boys, 12 to 0, on the Middies' own field, but on November 2 the Trojans staged a "track meet" with Huntington East, a new opponent on the schedule, who absorbed a 47 to 0 drubbing. Ironton, traditional up-river rival, on November 15 refused to allow the game to be cancelled even though miserable weather conditions prevailed, and on a snow-covered field managed to hold the selected Troymen to a scoreless tie. Thanksgiving night the Trojans were humming the popular tune, "Can't Get Indiana Off My Mind" after Hammond's juggernaut came out on the long end of the Turkey Day score, 14 to 0. The Jenkinsmen agreed to play Toledo Waite in a charity bowl post-season clash November 25, but life proved anything but a "bowl of cherries" as the Indians in their own back-yard soundly trounced our injury-riddled eleven, 39 to 6.

Fifteen Seniors played their final game for P. H. S. against Waite and will surely be sorely missed next fall by Coach Paul Jenkins. However, considering the unseasonable weather which gave us early snow and late high temperatures, along with the countless injuries which plagued the squad all season, it was another fine chapter in Portsmouth grid history.

HEADING THE TROJAN BOARD OF STRATEGY are Assistant Coach Pat Mitchell, Head Coach Paul Jenkins, and Assistant Coach Willard Ellsesser.

DANGEROUS NEXT YEAR is descriptive of the present third team varsity—First row: J. Campbell, J. Jones, W. Midkiff, D. Wales, B. Middleton, B. Zeune. Second row: B. Boling, D. Monk, E. Hayes, B. McKinney, F. Berry, J. Noel.

CAREFREE CARETAKERS of the gridders are varsity manager Jim Henry, trainer Charlie Combs, and varsity manager Harold Leightenheimer.

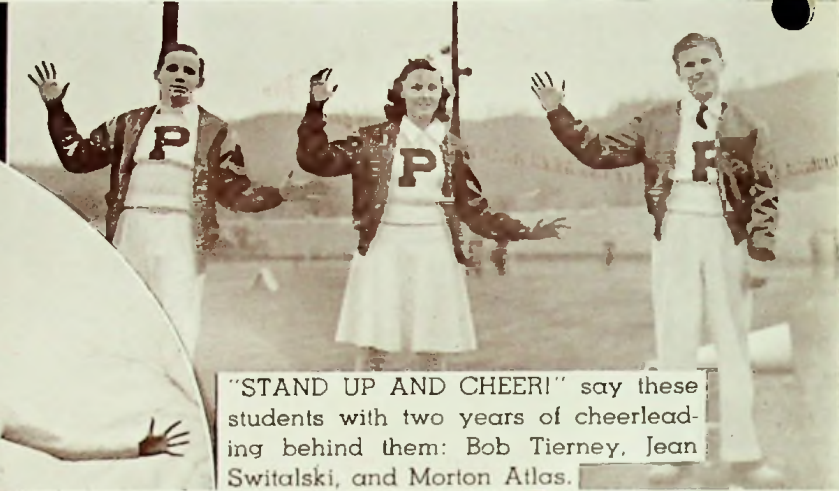

UNIFORMS, BALLS, AND HELMETS are only a few of the important pieces of equipment handled by reserve managers C. Brady, J. Stayer, G. Davis, C. Miller, and R. McGovney. Absent: G. Armbruster.

Cheerleaders: Models Of Life In The "Rah"

SENIOR SUPER-CHEERERS in the yelling department of P. H. S. are Marjorie Griffin, "Goog" Drew, and "Speed" Schuyler.

"STAND UP AND CHEER!" say these students with two years of cheerleading behind them: Bob Tierney, Jean Switalski, and Morton Atlas.

NEW PROTEGES prove their worth as Freddie Freauf, Betsy Townsend, Anne Duvendeck, and Dottie Watkins "give out" with a few cheers.

Trojan Talk

November started right with a vacation as teachers went to an out-of-town convention... No longer can boys make jokes about girls' not understanding football. At a recent G. A. C. meeting Coach Pat Mitchell taught the girls many Trojan football plays.

Trojans exhibited their talent by defeating Huntington East 46-0, after the game had been postponed from Friday to Saturday on account of rain... The Junior play, "Balmy Days", is pronounced a big success by students... The Hammond boys have a time at the P. H. S. Band Dance.

Who predicted poor attendance at the Ironton game? Everyone was there with muffler, blanket, galoshes, and thermos bottle. However, the snowy field held the score to 0-0.

The Thanksgiving Day game against Hammond Indians saddened our hearts with its 13-0 defeat. The long list of casualties left the team with little to be thankful for... Novel drawings on the board and special talks by Rev. Hyde and Bob Tucker advertised Book Week... Congratulations to Basil Curnutte and Bill Henderson on their nomination for appointment to Annapolis... Sygam Chapter of Hi-Y is now declared champion of the Hi-Y Football League. Sygam defeated Acme Chapter 14-6, thus winning two games out of three.

Senior tests keep every one wondering whether he will be classed as a moron or imbecile. Maybe we have some geniuses! A crippled Trojan team traveled to Toledo to be defeated there by a score of 29-6. Ah well! 'twas all for charity!

And the Trojan Staff wishes the merriest of Christmases to everyone.

Trojan Talk

"I wouldn't give 2 cents for that!" Such a remark couldn't apply to the December Every Pupil Tests. Oh no?! However the tests meant a welcome release from regular studies . . . Prize "jitterbugs" are Dick Rutman and Aldene Henry, who won the Jitterbug Contest at the Senior Dance. Door prizes were awarded to Tom McMahan and Betty Storm. Lucky people!!! . . . Betty Brooks was so worried for fear that there would be no refreshments at Photoplay Club that she hounded Jack Murchie, the president, for days before.

Y-Hi girls did their good deed by furnishing a basket laden with good things for a poor family . . . Students left classes before vacation with smiles on their "pans" and candy canes in their "paws" . . . Having rested for two weeks, the Portsmouth High School Trojans usher in the new basketball season by forcing the Marietta team to bow before them to the tune of 21-19.

Santa Claus visited the Christmas Assembly and presented amusing gifts to students amid applause and cheers. Mr. Stewart certainly had to dig hard for his cuff-links . . . Peedoo Head's mustache almost caused convulsions in the audience during the Christmas play. Billie Brunner wants one too . . . Trojans ran up a score of 38 to 22 over Akron North. They did a good job of keeping the 6ft. 5in. Akron center on his own territory . . . Acme Hi-Y "Good Times" party was pronounced a big success by those who attended. Boys had to pay $1000 to tag their favorite gal.

Trojans walked all over the Dayton Roosevelt team by defeating them 40-30. Del Rice scored 18 points for high scoring honors! . . . Dances, parties, and Christmas Trees cooperated to give all of Portsmouth a superlatively fine vacation and to start a Happy New Year.

Twelve Teams Toppled By Ellsesser's Lads

Review of 1940 - 41 Basketball Season

Despite the fact that many ardent fans hesitated to predict the future after the mid-semester graduation of Captain Del Rice, Ken Brady, and Don Horton, our fighting Trojans went on to compile a better than average record of twelve victories and four defeats for the 1940-41 season. It was Coach Peggy Ellsesser's first year at the head of the coaching helm.

Opening the campaign against Marietta at Grant Gym on December 20, the red and blue managed to nose out the Tigers, 21 to 19, and followed with a 38 to 22 win over Akron North one week later. Dayton Roosevelt, first Southern Ohio League foe, bowed to our inspired warriors, 40 to 23, as Del Rice looped 18 points, and local interest soared as Sciotoville, Chillicothe, and Ironton crumbled before the Ellsesser-coached steamroller by the respective scores of 38 to 12, 41 to 12, and 52 to 26. Rice carved a niche in the P. H. S. hall of fame when he scored 27 points at Ironton. Springfield, recognized as one of the state's top-ranking quintets, found the Trojmen definitely "on" and the Wildcats "hit the skids" to the tune of 49 to 21. High point-getters were Joe Babcock and "Sparky" Echols with 10 each. The next night away from home, having played Ironton, Springfield, and Middletown all in the same week proved too much for our lads and they suffered their first defeat at the hands of the Middies, 35 to 26.

A "breather" in Huntington East, whom the Trojans soundly shellacked, 41 to 9, ten points of which were counted by Herb Swern, gave the "new" team valuable experience, and things looked even brighter when they tripped Ironton, 41 to 12, for their ninth win. However, those same undefeated Middies wrecked Portsmouth's chances of sharing the S. O. L. title when they completely outclassed P. H. S., 37 to 19. Ottie Apel did the best for Peg's five with 7 markers.

Springfield shared second place in the S. O. L. with our boys by virtue of their last-minute victory over them, 36 to 34. Dayton Roosevelt also proved hard to handle, but Bill Williams' basket in the last ten seconds gave the margin for a Trojan win, 29 to 28. Huntington Central handed the Ohio youths their fourth setback, 45 to 39, but Zanesville bowed to Ellsesser's boys in a thriller, 27 to 25.

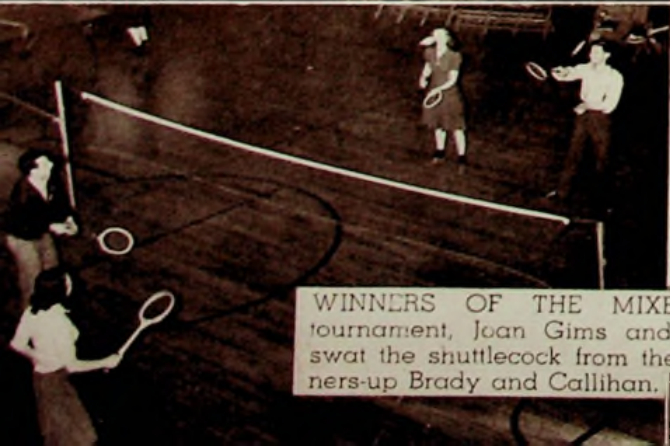

The Trojans humbled Chillicothe, 33 to 30, in the final game of the regular season, and March 8 begins the fight at the South-eastern District Tournament as a stepping-stone to the State Championship!

M. GRIFFIN, G. A. C. PRESIDENT, presents candy prizes to ping-pong champions J. Doll and D. Rice, and badminton blue-ribboners J. Gims and D. Eisnaugle, who were also second in table tennis.

HARD-WORKING VARSITY MANAGERS B. Friel and H. Leightenheimer pack up equipment at Grant Gym.

WINNERS OF THE MIXED BADMINTON tournament, Joan Gims and Dick Eisnaugle, swat the shuttlecock from the far court to runners-up Brady and Callihan.

Trojan Talk

And so began February, the shortest month of the year . . . The Girls' League Valentine Tea Dance, with nickelodeon, refreshments, 'n' everything was acclaimed on all sides. . . Spectators were so numerous at the Middletown-Trojan game, that the band was nearly crowded off the stage. Tragic finish—Middletown won. Not so tragic finish—Middletown warriors were "fixed up" with dates with several Portsmouth belles. . . Many were the sighs heard when Jeanne Switalski married Jay Marting during the Revellers' play, "Double Door". Betty Hamner gave such a realistic performance that a few timid freshmen actually produced goose bumps.

Business at the lunch counter suffered a noticeable reduction for a couple of days before the Hi-Y Weight Dance. Each girl was weighed as she entered the dance hall, and her escort had to pay 1c for every pound she weighed over 100 pounds. There was quite a fight over who was to take Rosemary Heinisch (She weighed only 98 pounds). . . Trojans went out of town to be defeated by Springfield, but made up for it by defeating Dayton Roosevelt. . . Syrian-American Salom Rizk held students spellbound by his stirring address on America and Americanism.

"Let's be more courteous." This, the motto of P. H. S. Courtesy Week, has really produced an improvement in the attitude of pupils. Each student tries to be more friendly and courteous to his neighbor.

The Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra came to Portsmouth to give not only one evening performance, but also a pair of afternoon ones for students. Quite a marvedous and unusual opportunity for music lovers! . . . Zanesville lost to the Trojans in a hard-fought game in spite of their "good-luck" haircuts.

The voice of the people (especially the feminine contingents) is lamenting the fact that Leap Year Day doesn't come every February!

HAIL AND FAREWELL were the sentiments expressed by associates and students as Coach Paul Jenkins was presented a billfold containing a "small fortune" as he left P. H. S. to assume a new position as football coach at Male High School in Louisville.

Trojan Talk

Ah, spring! Spring fever and "sich"!... "Don Alonzo" finds his treasure in dear old P. H. S. after a long, hard search with the aid of "Bring 'em back alive" Bill Sowers and Bob Stone... The district tourney causes many nervous breakdowns with its "rip-roaring" contesting. Hoarseness is the general feature... A big crowd "falls" for the Freshman skating Party. There are thrills and spills galore—just the "ups-and-downs" of Freshman life!... Miss Burton of H. R. 217 defies the fates and displays flying squirrels. The high school nuts, however, are still safe... Everyone and his cousin attend the Sophomore Dance to swing to the music of Quinn Snyder's orchestra.

Students get sweet revenge in speech class with imitations of various teachers. Some characters are even recognizable!... P. H. S. walks away with honors in the district one-act play contest. Maybe we have some Clark Garbos or Greta Gables in our midst! After graduation comes to trek to Hollywood. Now James Stewart's in the army—who knows???? Vacation at last! But, oh, fateful hour!!, scholarship tests ahead, too!! Intellectual seniors may take them. Irony?... Have you purchased a Greek War Relief button? Selling these buttons in the theatre lobbies affords new experience for Photoplay Club members, doing their bit for democracy... Speaking of foreign affairs, Mr. Paul Moritz speaks to Town Hall members about Chinese college life.

Y-Hi forms new chapter! There are induction ceremonies in the Second Presbyterian Church and last, but not least,—initiation of the new members!!!... P. H. S. auditorium is the scene of a sparkling assembly for Mr. Paul Jenkins who is leaving Portsmouth High to be coach at Male High School in Louisville. Popular teacher-legislator, Mr. James McElhaney is present. Trojan staff sends a belated farewell to Coach Jenkins. Good Luck, Coach!!!!

"HERBY" SWERN, TROJAN FORWARD, dumps in a one handed shot which helped nose out Greenfield, 36 to 30, in the crucial semi-finals game of the district tournament at Athens.

HAIL THE CHAMPS! Coach Peggy Ellsesser eagerly grabs the winner's trophy after the Trojans tripped Marietta, 40 to 39, in the overtime game of the tournament finals. One point, the difference between Lakewood (Ness-coached) and Portsmouth in the first round of the State Tournament completed an exciting series: score, 36-35.

SUNDAY COSTS FIVE PESOS, winner of the district one-act play contest lends Mexican atmosphere to P. H. S. stagecraft as M. Griffin, J. Williams, B. Hamner, J. Gardner, and M. B. Southworth reach a dramatic climax.

Trojan Talk

Balmy breezes and hot summer weather greeted us this month, but not in time for spring vacation. Tennis, green leaves, and 8:30 sunsets! Lunch counters ran out of pennies as the students got their 2 cents ready to take the inevitable Every Pupil Tests...Hi-Y and Y-Hi clubs joined forces to bring P. H. S. the annual Easter services.

Portsmouth is gonna be the "Dogwood City". P. H. S. co-operated by planting a few dogwood trees on our lawn in an impressive ceremony...Mr. Melick, after trying to stick some little balls representing atoms together for ten minutes only to have his work collapse completely, said, "Oh well, the compound was unstable anyway"...Mr. Leach's own production, "Harem Scarem," provoked peals of laughter from spectators at rehearsal. The blushing maidens, some drafted from the football team, include Josephine Babcock, Pauline Craden, Carline Phipps, and Roberta Haas, who have several snappy dances worked up...Measles and mumps hit the alma mater, with many sufferers in quarantine. Even scholarship team members—Ruth Ann Peake and Dickie Moore, for example—couldn't out-smart the germs.

A double cast for the senior play, "June Mad," was chosen amid cheers...Echo received first place rating from the C. S. P. A. "Congrats" to this year's staff...Girls attended vocational conference sponsored by the Girls' League.

Girls' Glee Club traveled to Columbus to compete in the State Contest. They returned with a rating of excellent in time to attend the Hi-Y Spring Formal. Incidentally, Aldene Henry, a senior, was chosen as Hi-Y queen and presented with a Hi-Y pin whose border consists of fifteen pearls!...The Annual Coed Dance, the only formal "girls-take-boys" dance of the year, was certainly a treat—was it a Dutch treat? Vegetable corsages were prevalent.

To close with a quip, we give to the world Mr. Leach's spoonerism: the history scholarship team, Kelly and Sheets—Shelley and Keats!

PERSISTENT PESTS are these "Fleas", tournament victors and also basketball league winners of the freshmen and sophomore boys' gym classes, who are pictured here after staging a last-half rally to outpoint the "Wildcats" in the tourney finals, 14 to 10: (front) Bill Pressler, Captain Glenn Russell, Stu Frew; (back) Earl Hayes, Charles Donaldson.

NEWLY APPOINTED HEAD COACH Peg Ellsesser and eager gridders limber up before starting a strenuous spring football session.

ENDOWED WITH RELIGIOUS ZEAL, the Y-Hi and Hi-Y clubs collaborate to present Holy Week services. Shown here are Thursday's participants: (seated) J. Marting, J. Murchie, J. Switalski; (standing) C. Knost, accompanist, J. Snook, soloist, P. E. Smith.

"I HOPE THAT I MAY NEVER SEE P. H. S. WITHOUT A TREE"...To forestall this "catastrophe" and to beautify our "campus," school officials and students assist in the planting of dogwood trees in celebration of Arbor Day.

AMERICAN LEGION ESSAY winners, Richard West, freshman, Tom Titus, senior, scrutinize the work of the man of whom they wrote in their compositions, "Lincoln and the Constitution."

SENIOR VETERAN of three years is ace racqueteer Bill Friel, who closes his brilliant career with the completion of another fine season's record.

TINY SOUTHPAW "Red" Cooper, number two man this year, seems destined to give enemy netters plenty of trouble.

TOP TENNIS STAR is Marjie Griffin, senior, whose style is the envy of lookers-on.

Trojan Talk

We've built ourselves up to a terrible letdown; we thought it could never happen here, but it did! It's June!!!...G. A. C. chose Joan Gims "as best athlete and sport" at the annual banquet...Many couples attended the girl-take-boy shindig...Extra! Extra! Miss Dupuy had a fake birthday party! Homeroom 201 sprang a surprise party on their advisor on her bestowed birthday, May 9—ice cream, cake, presents, flowers, 'n' everything, even singing "happy Boithday to youse"...

No one fell overboard on the senior boat ride. An enormous crowd swarmed the decks. With sore feet and tired limbs the students returned to Portsmouth...Senior English classes did a little research work to find out what they did when mere infants. Reason? Each senior had to write an autobiography...Most everyone reported that this time the subject for his theme was interesting...National Honor Society received 53 new members into its fold and rechristened itself the Emily Ball Chapter in honor of a former teacher.

Mr. Dale suddenly announced that senior grades would be closed the next day, letting that class out a week earlier than they had anticipated. However, chemistry students came back to try a few experiments and to blow up the laboratory...Senior Play was a huge success with a double cast playing to huge crowds both nights. Marj Griffin nearly knocked Dick Eisnaugle off the couch when she slapped him during one scene.

The annual Junior-Senior Prom was pronounced the best yet. Everyone turned out for it...The baccalaureate speaker, Dr. William Johnson, gave seniors a few pointers on what to do now that they've left the protection of P. H. S.

The last week of school is always a daze. We vaguely recall the Senior Picnic, with everyone stuffing himself, Commencement exercises, a grand talk by the speaker, Dr. Albert E. Wiggam, with tears from the girls, and the Alumni Banquet and Dance..."And so to bed".
