TIGER

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the success of any business and for the protection of the interests of all parties involved. The text outlines the various methods and systems used to collect, store, and analyze financial data, highlighting the benefits of modern accounting software and digital record-keeping.

In the second section, the author explores the challenges faced by businesses in the current economic environment. It discusses the impact of market volatility, inflation, and changing consumer behaviors on financial performance. The text offers practical advice on how to navigate these challenges, including strategies for cost management, revenue diversification, and risk mitigation.

The third part of the document focuses on the role of leadership in driving organizational success. It discusses the importance of clear communication, effective decision-making, and the ability to inspire and motivate employees. The author provides examples of successful leaders and their strategies, emphasizing the need for adaptability and resilience in the face of uncertainty.

Finally, the document concludes with a discussion on the future of business and the role of technology. It highlights the potential of artificial intelligence, automation, and data analytics to transform traditional business models and create new opportunities for growth and innovation. The author encourages businesses to embrace change and invest in technology to stay competitive in the long run.

1992 TIGER GRADUATION

We, the class of 1992, never thought that this day would come. When it did we couldn't believe that it was here.

We woke up to find it was drizzling outside, that was the last thing we wanted to see because we wanted an outside graduation.

Our valedictorian was Heather Loper. She delivered a touching speech on the past, of all the good times the class of 1992 have shared and what the future may hold.

Our salutatorian was Peggy Conkel. She spoke of the separate ways our class may go but no matter what each of us may do we'll always keep each other close at heart.

We met at school at 7:00 to take pictures and get ready to say good-bye to Glenwood for the last time that we would be together. Right before it was time to march, we spent time reminiscing and talking of the good old days. It seemed like no time when it was 8:00 and it was time to take the walk towards a whole new world. Although the class of 1992 will no longer be a part of Glenwood High School, it will always be a part of us.

Heather Loper, 1992 valedictorian, walks down the aisle.

Peggy Conkel, salutatorian, gives her farewell speech.

Scott Carter poses for a picture before getting in line.

Darren Harr smiles to family and friends.

Bobby Gartin seems to checking to make sure his shoes are tied.

Peggy Conkel receives her diploma.

Jeff Gulley helps hand out the programs.

Pat Phillips seems a little depressed that the end is near.

Bobby Gartin seems to be relaxed.

Michelle Conn gives classmate Chelsey Bishop a good luck hug.

Amanda Hart seems glad that the time has come.

Brian Bayes receives his diploma.

STUDENT LIFE

RIVERDAYS

I've always wanted to be in the Miss River Days Pageant since I was a little girl. The day Mr. Bentley called me into his office a sigh of relief fell over me when I found out I wasn't in trouble. He told me I was chosen to represent Glenwood High School in the River Days Pageant. I was so excited!! Throughout the summer, I was very busy. We had practice every other Saturday. I also had to attend various activities such as parades and pool parties. The most exciting part was when I got to ride in an airplane at the airshow. We also got to usher the Miss Shawnee and Miss Portsmouth pageants. It seemed as if the day of the pageant would never come, but when it did it felt like it would never end. I woke up the day of the parade to find a beautiful day that quickly turned to clouds and rain. After the parade I went to my interview. I was really nervous, but I had practiced over and over so I felt pretty confident of myself. Finally the time to walk out on stage in front of all kinds of people had come. It was so exciting. I felt like a queen. I was really happy to see all of my fans and family in the 3rd and 4th rows. Even though I didn't place in the pageant, I had the best time of my life. I made many new friends and enjoyed all of the activities.

1992 JUNIOR & SENIOR PROM

The theme for this year's prom was "Set the Night to Music", and that's exactly what the students did. At 12:15, the juniors and seniors were getting ready to look their best. The girls were paying to get their hair and make-up done and the guys were picking up their tuxes and washing their cars to make this night special. It all began at 7:00 with the Grand March and all the couples were sparkling from head to toe. Many parents and friends gathered to see the special evening begin. At 7:30 smiles were lightened up for the cameras as pictures were being taken. While some were getting pictures, others were getting a head start on the magnificent dinner. Once everyone had their bellies full, they kicked off their shoes and were ready to boogie! By 10:00, everyone was tired and ready to take a break. Ryan Taylor read the class wills to get a few laughs. Soon it was time to leave and now all we have are our memories. To the juniors, the seniors say thanks for the beautiful prom and for the memories.

DEADLY ERNEST

All through history infants have had the name Ernest bestowed upon them, and it's safe to assume the recipients of said moniker have grown up and found their niche in life the same as the Johns and Bills and other millions of labeled pedestrians that parade along the avenue of life. There's nothing startling or even unusual about the name — except to one Henry Gilcrest. You see, just the name Ernest sends Henry into shock. It all started when Henry's boss fired him and his girlfriend threw him overboard and Aunt Ethel ordered him from her boarding house because of no rent money. Well, poor homeless, girl-less and jobless Henry, spending the night in a park, meets one Mr. Bumpus. He pours out his troubles to Mr. Bumpus who tells him life has dealt him a miserable blow and he has a friend named Ernest who, for only $17.83, will get poor downtrodden souls like Henry out of their misery. So Henry, in his pitiful, forlorn condition, pays the money, goes back home and finds (1) Aunt Ethel is ready to forgive him, (2) his girl wants him back, (3) his boss has given him a raise, (4) life was never better and — BOING — he remembers he's paid his last cent to someone named Ernest to get him out of this world.

Heather Loper " Henry Gilcrest, that boy."

Michelle Conn "Henry is the most is thoughtless.."

Shelly Robinson " Mother, are you asking me to drop dead?"

"What in the world is Henry babbling about now?"

Tia Pauley "I wonder where Henry is now?"

Rachel Fetty and Heather Loper "I'm sure Henry will be happy to see you Dr. Earnest."

Shelly "I had to fish two of Henry's socks out of the hamper, and I do mean fish."

Ryan Taylor and Ryan Cornwell "...I don't have anything to live for..."

Chelsey, Amanda, and Emily "Would you like to join us for a murder, Henry?"

"Well, I've packed my bags, I guess I'll be leaving."

Mandy Page "You see, mom, I was up to bat see, and I kept a steady heat on it see..."

Darren Harr "I'm from the roughest, toughest, wildest part of the west."

Carrie Bishop and Ryan Cornwell "Sleepy, you ain't nothin' but a thoid grade moron."

TIGER SOCCER

The Tigers lost many valuable players when the 1991 class graduated. With many new players, the Tigers used their time to rebuild their team. They played a good season. Coach Chris Porter felt that we were a good team against larger schools.

The Tigers were involved in a lot of close games, they never gave in without a fight. In the tournaments we played close games, going into several overtimes. The Tigers finished second in the conference. We lost to the district champions, Alexander.

Ronnie Foit concentrates on throwing the ball in to a fellow player.

Tim Porter has the ball and is heading for the goal.

RESERVE VOLLEYBALL

Many of our girls dream of playing varsity volleyball, however, they must begin on the reserve team. While on the reserve team, the players are able to learn and develop the skills to move on to the varsity team. Coach Burnside spends a great deal of time with the team and it shows in our varsity players. Some of the players on the reserve team also participate on the varsity team.

Crystal Cooley goes down to return the ball.

VARSITY

The Lady Tigers had a great year finishing it with a 17-4 record. The highlights of the year was defeating Eastern after three challenging games on home court. This major win had promises of an S.O.C. tie. Their promises were darkened by a loss to Notre Dame. Still it was a good year; they finished second in the S.O.C.. The Lady Tigers had to put their disappointments behind them. The tournaments had arrived. They faced Clay in the Sectional competition. Heather Loper served fifteen straight points. They were Sectional Champs. The first game in the District playoffs was Kyger Creek. They won this and had to play a second match against Western. Their loss to Western made them District runner-ups.

Michelle Conn, Heather Loper, Shelly Robinson, Shay Whitaker, and Deann Potts begin their warm ups.

Michelle returns the ball to the opposing team.

Heather sets the ball for her teammates.
