Getting Ready

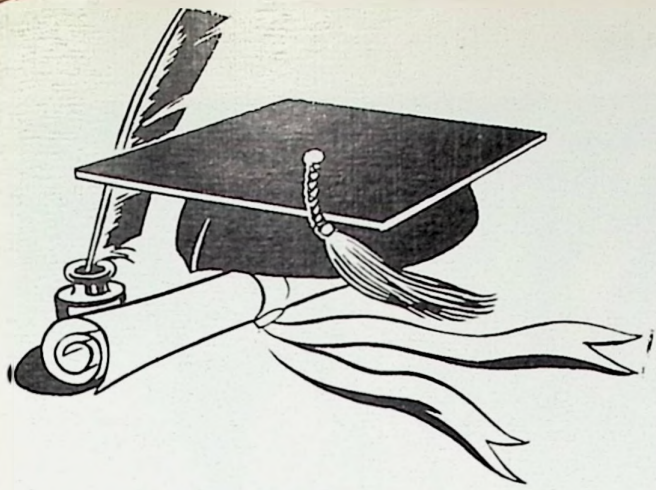

Anxiously Awaiting

Be sure and stay in step.

Mr. Nibert was presented a plaque for his direction of the school plays.

Jeff was Valedictorian this year with a 4. average.

Susan was the Salutatorian.

Rev. "Mac" Nicholson was the guest speaker. He is the minister of the Valley United Methodist Church.

Senior Achievements

The Senior class picnic at Carter Caves was really terrific—even in the rain.

The class play was really a lot of fun-for everybody.

Santa's little girl.

The members chosen to enter the Hall of Fame Band were Steve, Barb, Kevin Wayne, and Lori for their individual talent and/or hard work.

Mr. Billups chose Brenda and Jeff for the John Phillip Sousa award.

Kathy placed 7th in the State Bowling competition.

Lori received the Soroptomist Youth Citizenship Award, the Outstanding Science Student award, was editor of the yearbook, and was awarded a public speaking award.

Jeff received a scholarship to Rose Hallum University of Science and Technology in Indiana.

Debby and Linda will be going to Dallas, Texas in August for an expense paid week. Each of them received first place in state art competition.

John was a page in the House of Representatives last summer and was President of the NHS this year.

Roxanne received a Mother's Club scholarship (Steve received the other one), a Presidential scholarship and several other aids.

Phil was awarded the most improved art student award.

A "Watermelon Man?"

The chorus really sounded beautiful at the Spring Concert this year.

Debbie looks embarrassed over her bowling game.

The National Honor Society enjoyed the Reds doubleheader, especially since they won.

Cutting the cake.

Grand Award Science winner - Matt Cottle

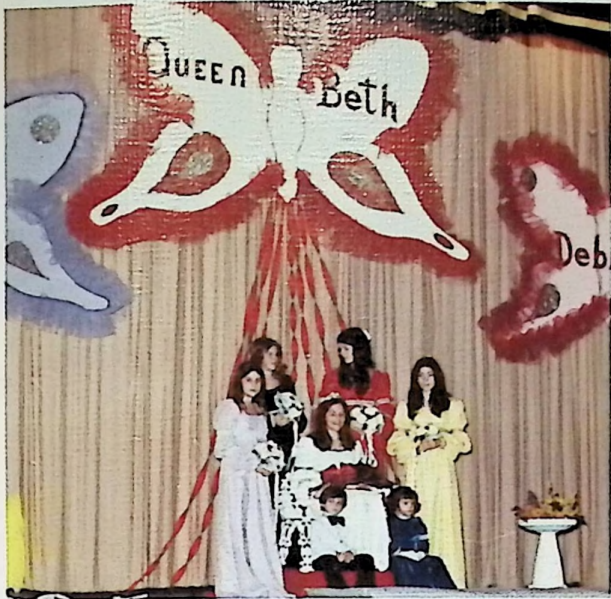

Santa and his helpers.

Daryl's "robot" dance was a big hit at the prom.

Wasn't Homecoming pretty?

Spring is here.

We're on next.

Huh??.

Hill Billy Bear meeting some new friends.

Taking a rest from dancing.

Many of the band members participated at All-County.

Mr. Billups, directing traffic?

Making sure everyone makes it back from State competition.

Getting a "good" rating isn't bad when you consider that only ten bands in our class made it to State.

Before we played, there wasn't much to do for an hour.

The steak dinner wasn't bad either.

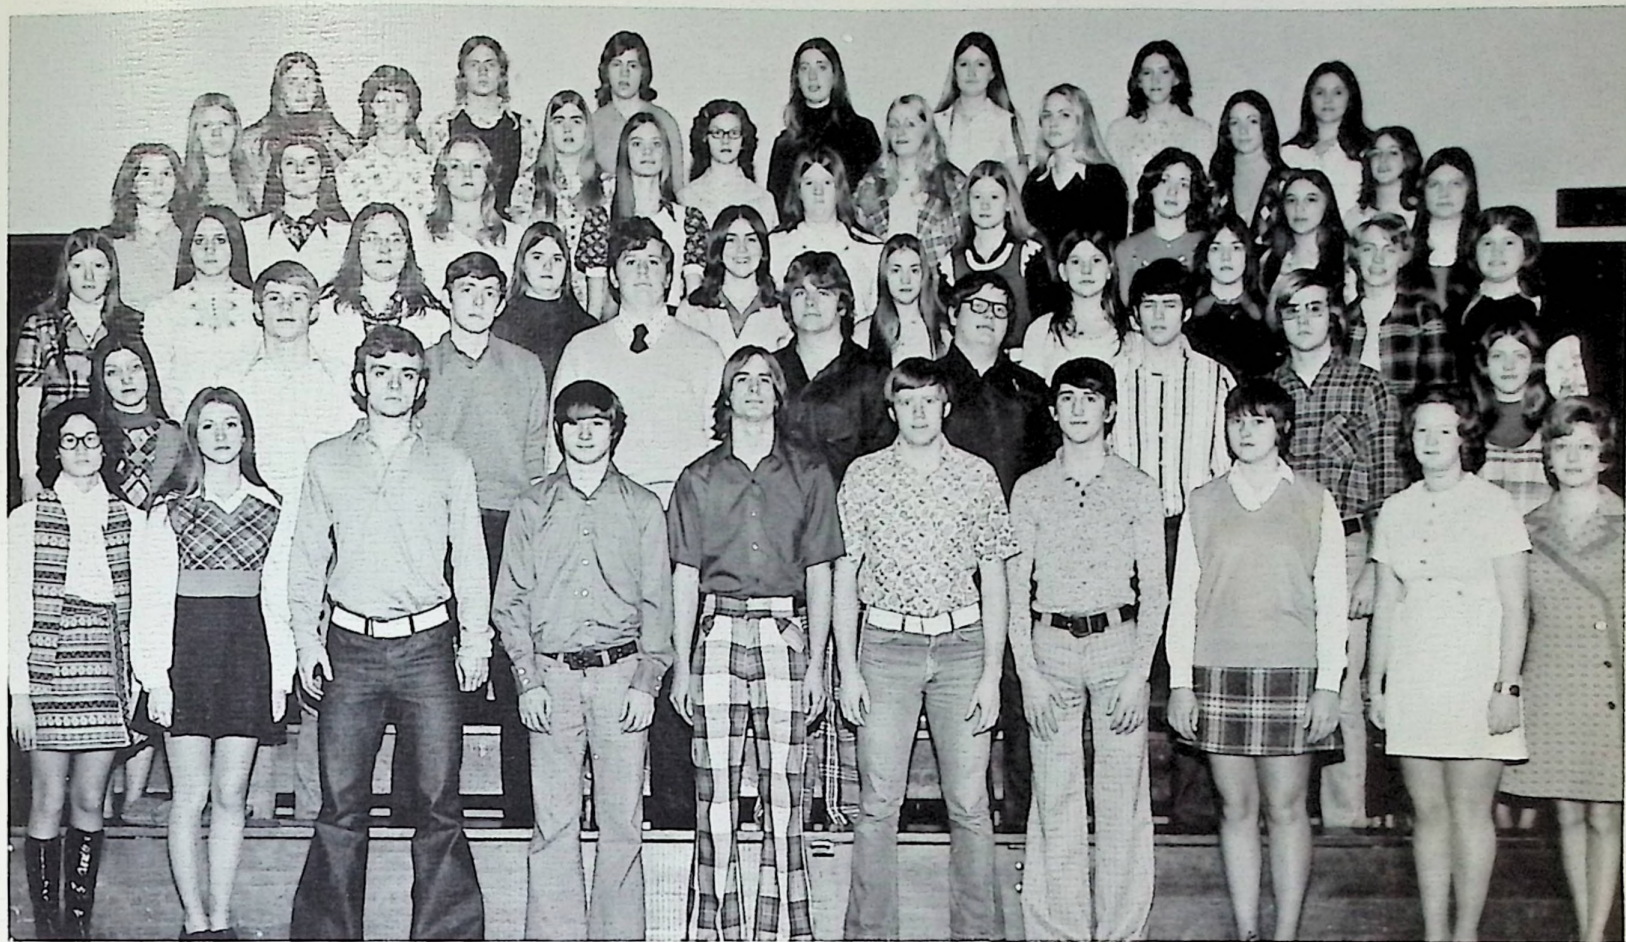

74 The Spring Concert went really well - a lot better than Christmas.

Clay was Riverdays Honors Band.

Panther Staff

Joyce tediously worked on the Sports section.

Beth was noted for her terrific organization while working on the Junior section.

Mr. Stone tried very hard to ignore all of us.

Our "hole".

Kathy squeezed in and did the Jr. High and Sophomore sections.

Jane did the Freshman section.

Lori stuck her nose into everybody's sections. She did the Activities, Senior, part of the Faculty, and was editor this year.

Mark preferred to work at home with his friend.

Library Staff

Mark S., Richard H., Tim C., Matt C., Gary S., Doug L., Bret C., Lori G.

Mrs. Bender felt that her two hard workers were Doug and Tim.

Practice makes perfect!

The two Debbie's had the job of putting up the flag.

Resting at play practice.

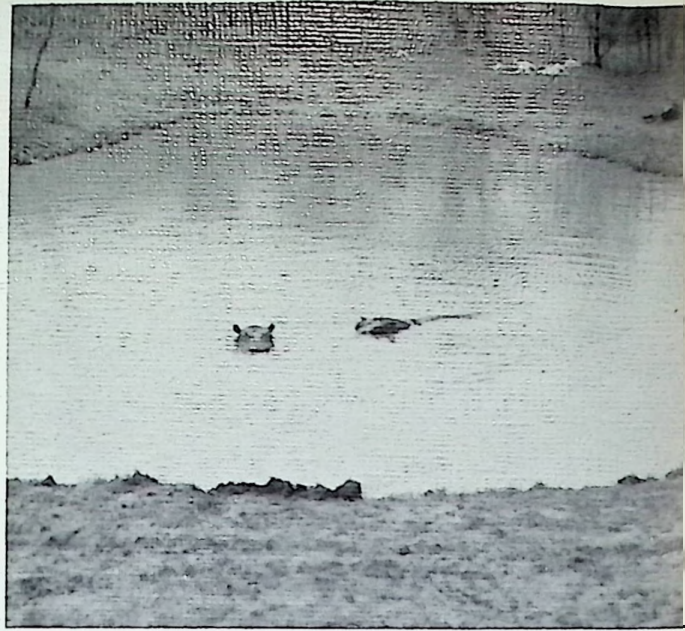

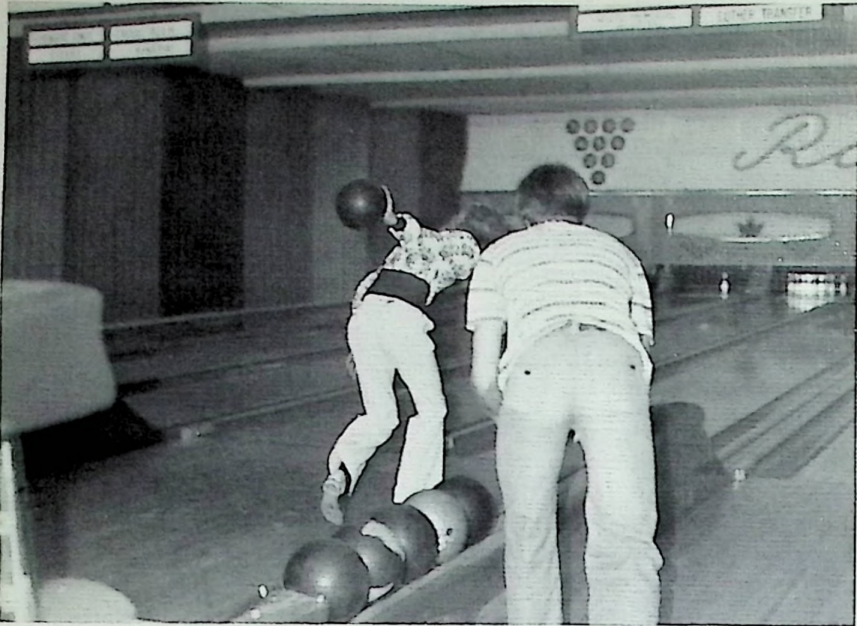

Scenes from the Freshman-Sophomore.

Cheers!!

Good Shot!!

Seniors???

Wasn't he cute?

Mary and Tom Porter - Truckin' along.

Peek-a-boo

Kevin Harris and Anna Ashmore at the 1963 Homecoming.

Susan Lenyo - and Tom.

Debbie Widdig

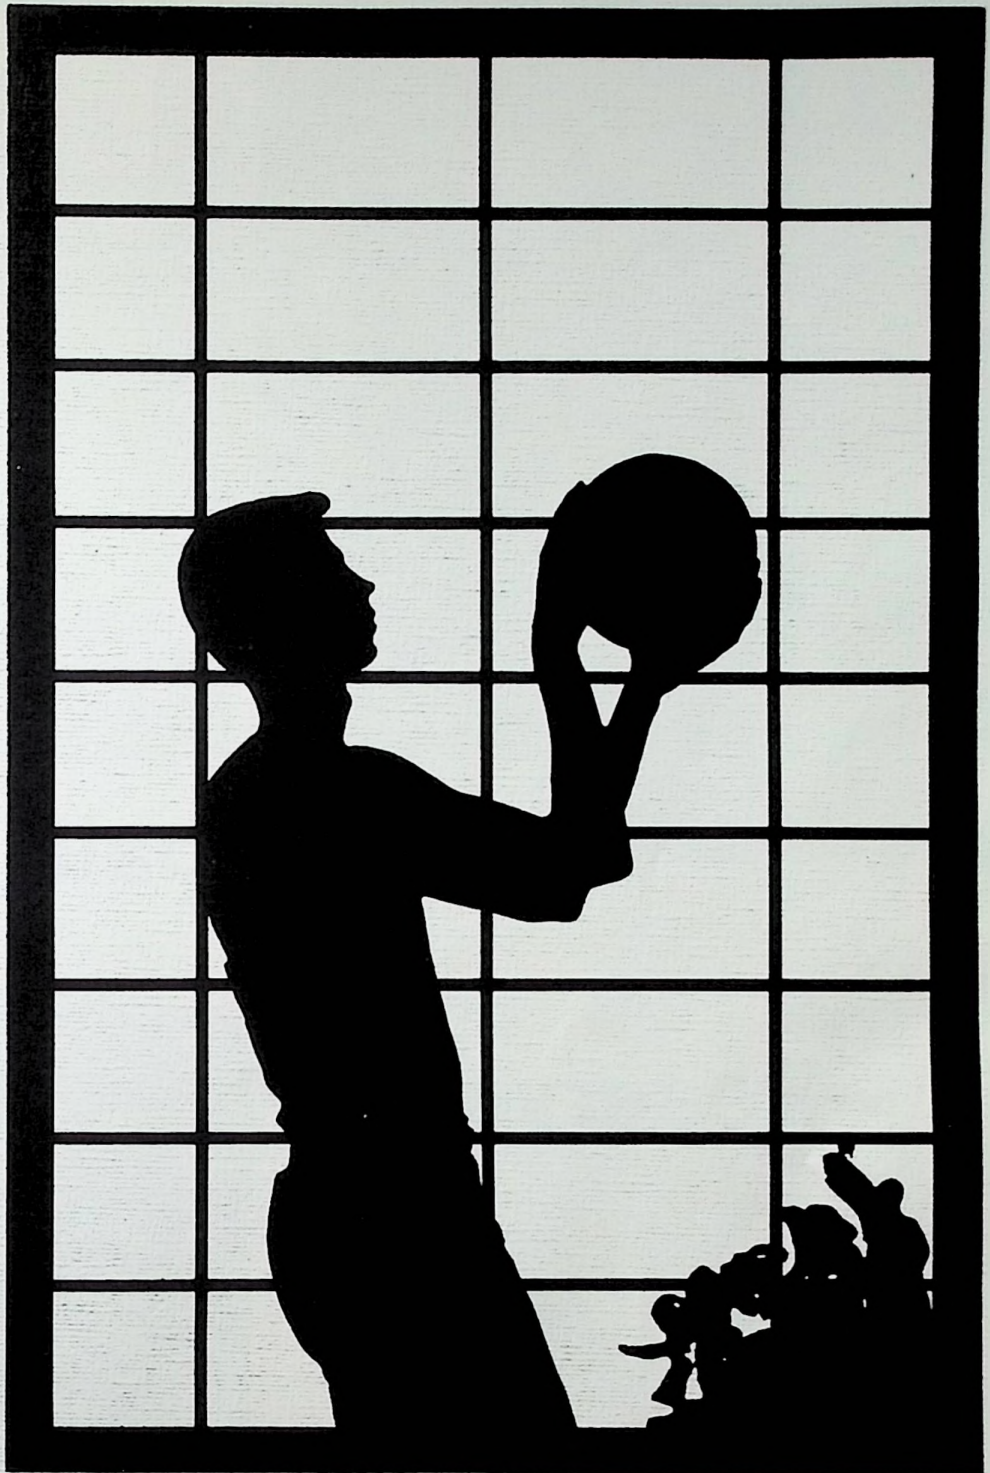

Mark Hunter with no hair!

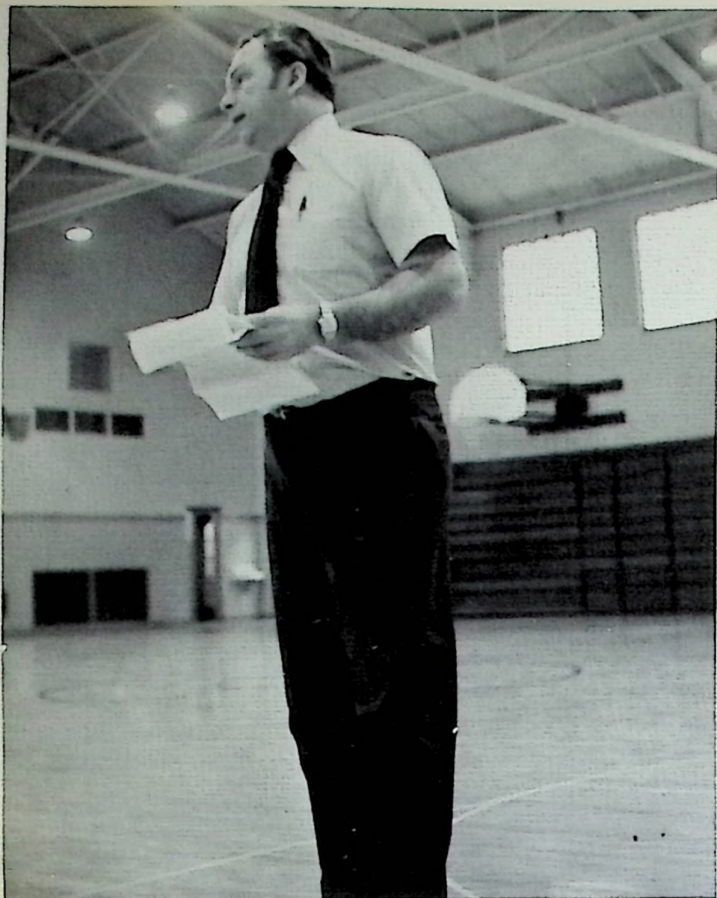

Lori Grose enjoying her swing set.

Varsity

Mr. Justus showed his unique talent again this year by bringing our Panther team the winning SCL trophy. His fine ability and leadership marks him as a very respected man to his team and all the student body.

Reserve

This was Mr. Blevens's first year coaching at Clay. His team was young and needed much coaching. The team worked hard, but somehow they didn't get going until the last few games. Better luck next year!!

I'm ready when you are.

Height like his would really be terrific in the basketball team.

Unfortunately the cheering sections for the baseball team were rather small.

Girls basketball had a really good season this year.

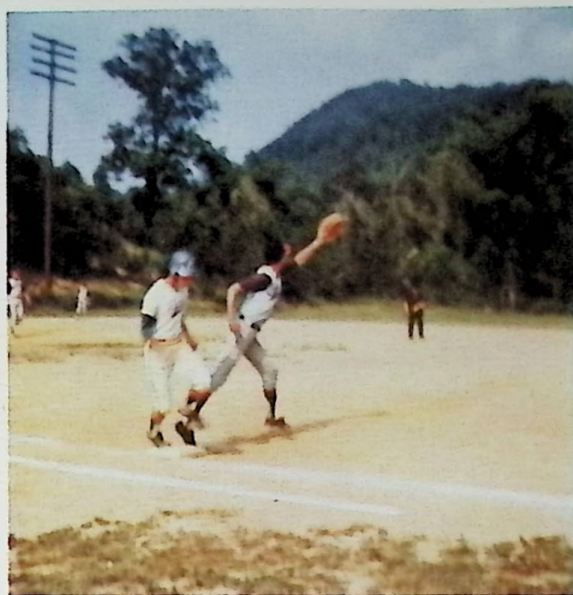

The boys basketball and track isn't very well represented here, but without pictures, there isn't much you can do. Sorry fellas.

C-L-A-Y!!

Sports In Technicolor!

Safe by a mile!

Ready, set, go!

Bounce the ball, don't kick it!

The baseball team had a good season. Congratulations!

Panther basketball fans were most pleased when this photograph appeared in the Times. Senior Jeff Justus is being presented the trophy which signifies that he was chosen First Annual Scioto County Player of the Year for 1974. Dale Wortman, sponsor of the award is presenting the trophy. Jeff's personal achievements in the sport which merited his receiving the honor begin with the new school records he has set, these being 81.8% freethrow percentage; 49.1 field goal percentage; 170 assists; and his average of 19.6 points per game. Prior to his being selected Player of the Year, he was voted a representative of the 3rd team, All-State; 1st team, All-District; 1st team, Tri-County League; 1st Scioto County League; and Scioto County Player of the Week. Surely as the Player of the Year trophies continue to be awarded through the years, Scioto County will remember the 1st recipient of this ultimate honor, Jeff Justus. And the rest of us here at Clay are proud of Jeff, that he has shared a part of his achievement with his school.
