TIGERS 2002

Glenwood Tigers...Glenwood Tigers...Glenwood Tigers...

2001-2002 school year started off Hot, Hot, Hot! The Soccer team was out of control this year with 11 wins and 4 losses. They were smoking! Heather Waugh was our Cross Country and Track team captain and represented GHS with great ability and pride. Our own Kalyn Sudhakaran was crowned Miss GHS for Homecoming Days and boy were we proud.

On September 11, 2001 our country, as we knew it, changed in a matter of minutes. The twin towers in New York were the target of terrorists. Our school watched in horror as the day unfolded. As a school, community and country united in patriotic pride, combined our resources and efforts for the victims and their families.

The Olympic torch passed through New Boston as our students lined the streets to see this once in a lifetime event. The pride we all had in our hearts as the torch passed by we will never forget.

The Christmas season was soon upon us and gave us a break from our hard work at school. The cheerleaders came back ready to start the count down till graduation. The boys basketball team was steaming, they were the highest scoring team in the state. We were pleased to have our girls basketball team bring the program back on the court this year and look forward to seeing them out next year. Our Quiz bowl team burned every buzzer the school owns. They won their division in the county bowl.

Mr. Dettwiller did it again with the help from his boys and two girls. The baseball team clinched the state title. The girls volleyball team, were Sectional Champs, and District Runner Ups. Finally Graduation Day arrived with much excitement and anticipation of what their future holds.

Senior

A HOT car for two HOT students Shelic Ridgeway and James Bishop were voted "best looking" for the Senior class of GHS 2002!

Bryan Eaton received most likely to succeed from his classmates. This was a "wise" guy to pick since he was the valedictorian of 2002.

Does Chris Goins really think he is going to read all those books one day? His classmates think so they voted him most studious.

Superlatives

Top: Melanie is your car hot yet? You have been on that phone for the last two hours. Yes! you guessed it Melanie Clark is the most talkative senior of the class of 2002. Bottom: Ishia Swords and James Appleton striking a pose for the best dressed seniors. James is the best dressed but when it comes to dance moves he resembles John Travolta. It has been said Ishia has over 400 shirts, and 200 pairs of pants half of them still have tags on them.

Top: Do we offer bowling or hula hooping as a sport at Glenwood? Cody Bender and Lori Colley are voted the best athletes of the class of 2002. Cody also received athlete of the year this year. Lori received several awards this year for her hard work during the volleyball season. Bottom: Staci Lute and Daniel Kirkendall no doubt are the biggest flirts around these hallways. Daniel can always be found near a crowd of girls. Staci likes to flirt over the Internet.

GLENNWOOD SENIORS

Melanie and Lori are sad to sing their last song together in the chours.

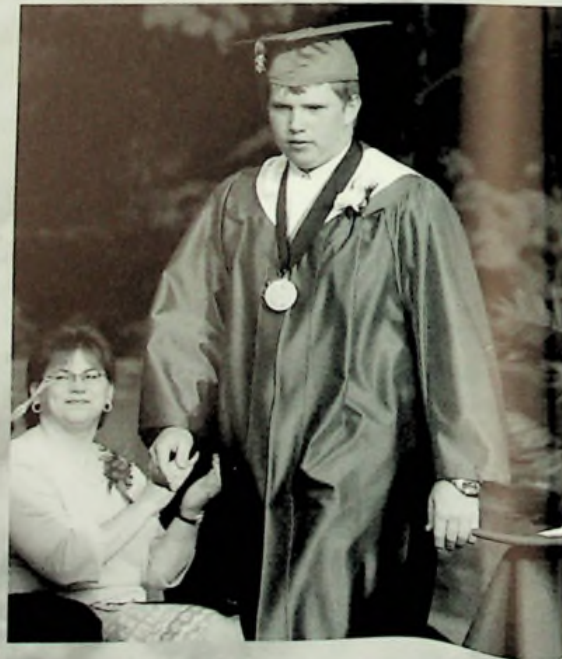

Saluatorian, Mike Taylor walking back from his heartwarming speech.

Principal Melinda Burnside, Speaker Georgia Dodd Purtee, Board President Elaine Evans, Superintendent Lowell How...

Adam Kurtz, Shelie Ridgeway, and Staci Lute sing "Friend to Friend, Heart to Heart" along with the other chorus members. This was a very fitting song for life long friends, it was also very emotional for the Seniors to sing.

Valedictorian Bryan Eaton thanked his teachers, staff & family for helping the class of 2002 through school. Bryan touched the crowd with his speech about his cousin Shel...

Clever directing Glenwood High School Senior Class
It's So Hard to Say Good-Bye to Yesterday".

Georgia Dodd Purtee Graduate. Class of 1962 "The Many Forks in the Road".

Superintendent Lowell Howard hands Melanie Clark her Diploma.

Sam Kurtz received the John Philip Sousa Award. He also played in the Honors Band.

Ishia Swords joins her fellow band members to play "Dare to Dream" directed by Mr. Pierce.

Chris Mohr four year high school band member plays his saxophone during the Commencement.

Cody Bender smiles as he receives his diploma and a handshake from Mr. Howard.

The last hurrah... Caps are tossed high into the blue sky as the Class of 2002 is officially graduated from good ole Glenwood High. Fare Well My Friends.

Ms. Burside reads the names of the Graduates as Mr.
Howard hands out the diplomas with a handshake.

Congratulations Seniors Good Luck in the future
The halls of Glenwood High School will never be the same without your smiles and laughter.

LOOKING BACK

Senior Prophecy

It's been twenty years since graduation, and I'm back in New Boston for the Class of 2002's reunion. It's been a long time since I've seen these guys, and I can't wait to find out what they are doing now.

The Class of 2002 has quite a few celebrities in it.

*Ryan Adkins recently starred in a made-for TV movie, called My Two Dads.

*John Ruggles is currently endorsing his new brand of shoe, Air Ruggles.

*Bryan Eaton and Chris Goins have made a big splash in the wrestling world as a vicious tag team.

*Mike Taylor is a professional street bike racer and even has his own video game. Mike also on the side acts as P.Daddy's stunt double in the star's music videos.

*Shelie Ridgeway is now a designer on the show, Trading Spaces. She is joined by Mike Thrasher, who is the show's carpenter.

*Megan McQuithy is the lead reporter for MTV. You can find her 10 to the hour, every hour, right there on the MTV News.

*Staci Lute has her own psychic hot line. She's so successful that she put Miss Cleo out of business.

*Chris Lewis is a member of Congress and plans to run for the Presidency.

*Adam Kurtz replaced Dr. Phil, Oprah's on-air psychologist. Dr. Adam has tripled Oprah's ratings in the last two years.

*Daniel Parker and Cody Bender have teamed up as movie critics and have quickly risen to Siskel and Ebert status.

*Rhonda Buckley is now a professional karaoke singer.

*Eva Henderson is the lead diva in a band that the show PopStars created. Rumor has it that she is going to pursue a solo career.

*Waylon Lucas is a member of the Secret Service. One day, he might be protecting President Lewis.

*Christy Barber has a prosperous 5th Avenue shop, Barbers Barbers. It is said that she is very picky in choosing her clientele. She supposedly turned down the number one rated movie star due to his dandruff.

*Kyle Henson just recently won Survivor 25 Antarctica. He still looks a little frostbitten.

*Michael Pierce is the manager of the Yankees, and he even has his own bobble head doll.

*Bryan Hensley, better known as Iron Chef USA, is a very popular TV chef.

*Justin Bittinger owns Shorty's, which is now a Hollywood chain.

*Lori Colley handles all the first aid emergencies in his shop.

*Casey Nolan is a professional Frisbee golf player. He appears in commercials endorsing Power Aide and Right Guard deodorant.

*James Bishop is a choreographer to the stars. His video, James' Dance Moves, which includes his new pop and lock routine is now on sale.

*James Stapleton is the mayor of New Boston.

*Daniel Kirkendall owns the Burger King Corporation and likes to be addressed as his majesty.

*Angel Benner is now Judge Angel since she took over Judge Judy's show.

*John Conschafsk is now the US Ambassador to Poland.

*Nick Phillips is the manager of a large telemarketing corporation.

*Chris Mohr is a world-renowned architect. He specializes in fun houses.

Some of the former tigers have chosen a life out of the spotlight.

*Melanie Clark is a Glenwood teacher who is married to a preacher.

*Justin Webb is a local fireman, but to the delight of many children, he is better known as Sparky the fire dog.

*Unfortunately, Ishia Swords is not in attendance today. She is an AAA tour guide, and has been missing for several days. She was last seen leading a tour bus across Georgia. We're sure she will turn up eventually.

*As for me, Kalyn Sudhakaran, I'm currently the janitor at the Taj Mahal in India. Good Times. So I guess the Class of 2002 is doing great! I can't wait to see what the next twenty years will bring.

Last Will and Testament

Daniel Kirkendall, of extravagant mind and body, leave Kyle Tilley the ability to play the game and not get caught. Also to BJ Darling, I leave his mother's car to drive people home on those late night adventures. To Jacob Moore, I leave a bottle of Nair and a razor. Also, last but not least, I wish all of the juniors good luck in their senior year and the rest of their lives.

Cody Bender, of brilliant mind and superman-like body, do hereby leave: BJ Darling- window for his door just in case it breaks. To Derrick Dunaway - a ride to his Grandpa's house. To Josh Stapleton - I leave the co-ownership of New Boston. Jacob Moore - an ice pack for his head just in case that knot comes back.

Justin Bittinger, of corrupted mind and ape-like body leave: Josh Stapleton--the ability to keep his cool in Advanced PE, Kyle Tilley--my laughter, Derrick Dunaway--the ability to count, BJ Darling--my basketball skills.

Christopher Goins, being of sound mind and body leave Tom Toft all of my Quiz Bowl knowledge. I also leave Jon Phillips my accounting skills.

Adam Kurtz, being of sound mind and elfish body do hereby leave Miranda Campbell my wonderful singing ability. You really loved it! To Erica Adkins, I leave my spot on the tennis team and to the entire junior class, I leave good luck for next year.

Lori Colley, being sound mind and elaborate body leave: Amber Raikes- the ability of trying to be sneaky but not always succeeding and the HUNK of my senior class, Mike Pierce. Don't ever forget all the fun times we have had. I could not have asked for a better friend. Good luck next year! Dasha White - I leave you my accounting dollars. Spend them wisely, Jacob Moore - the ability to plow down whomever you want to in gym class. Thanks so much-I didn't have to participate for a whole six weeks in gym class. Kyle Tilley, Josh Stapleton, BJ Darling- the ability to always confiscate other people's used, dirty, and tight gym clothes out of the away lockers to wear in 7th period gym class. Brett Luenger- the ability to keep a friendly attitude. The rest of the junior class I wish the best of luck. Enjoy your senior year-it goes by too fast.

Eva Henderson, being of independent sound mind and body hereby leave Miranda Campbell and Erica Adkins my unyielding, unending friendship. To Rebecca Holbrook, I hereby leave my independence and self-assurance, and to the rest of the junior class I wish of good luck in their senior year.

Shelie Ridgeway, being of sizzling sound body, and mischievous mind hereby leave to Tosha Meenach a pair of cheeleading shorts- don't forget these! Dasha White I leave my wonderful singing voice although I don't believe you'll need it. Derrick Dunaway, I leave my study hall pass, but most of all to the Class of 2003, I will leave you with this, your senior year goes so fast, don't take it for granted.

I, Kalyan Sudhakaran, being of "A Beautiful Mind" and little brown body do hereby leave the whole junior class my extremely coveted New Kids on The Block cd, Hang Tough. To Aimee Taylor, I leave my jackrabbit quickness, my sandals (all season footwear), and after I'm done with it, the scary tick mole on the side of my face. Derrick Dunaway, I leave a phone call and a scary "BOO". Amber Raikes, I leave a body builder flex at the volleyball net and the ability to "kick it up a notch." Dasha White, I leave the "BAM!" Josh Stapleton, I leave a Burger King ball and my own widely loved version of Johnny Angel. Eddie Swords, I leave an endless supply of smiles. Finally Jacob Moore, I leave my secret knowledge of the O.J. Simpson trial.

I, Angel Benner, being of sound mind and short body, do hereby leave Miranda Campbell my everlasting friendship and to Erica Adkins I leave the memory of our bumper car experience at Gaddyland. To Becky Holbrook, I leave my ability to loosen up and have fun no matter what and to the rest of the juniors, have a great senior year!

I, Ishia Swords, being of soothing sound, wonderful body and intelligent mind, leave Erica my notebook for all the times I borrowed paper from her. Tosha my pompoms for all the times she lost them at other schools. Amber a hair tie because every game or practice she asked for one. Dasha my makeup mirror and blush because she always used mine. Scott my surgery skills and S2 to have for the Shake Shoppe. Aimee my wedding planner. John all my Geometry notes. And Lucas a pencil for all the times I borrowed his and never gave it back. I also leave to the rest of the junior class their rights to be called a senior finally, and to be good role models for the rest of the school and good luck through the rest of their lives.

I, Staci Lute, being of sound mind body leave to Tosha Meenach my cheerleading bag and the ability not to lose her things. To Dasha White, I leave the ability to do the hedgehog and not to stutter names. And also to the class of '03 good luck in the future.

I, Bryan Eaton, of appealing body and not so normal mind hereby wish the junior class much luck in life. I wish to leave BJ Darling my ability to jump, so maybe if he adds mine to his he can finally dunk it. I wish to leave Derrick Dunaway my speed because he can never have enough. I am leaving my Quiz Bowl knowledge to Aimee Taylor and Tom Toft so they can repeat our championship. I wish to leave Eddie Swords my spot in the front of the stretching group for the baseball season. I also wish to leave him my customized jersey, in case he gains a few pounds in the off-season.

KALYN SUDHAKARAN

I want to thank you all for choosing me to represent our wonderful school and for giving me an opportunity of a lifetime. I also want to thank everyone who helped me during the summer. A big thanks to Mrs. Thompson for creating my Rocky outfit for the parade. The theme for this year's pageant was, "A Night at the Academy." There were so many movies to choose from to base my theme on but with the help of Mr. Mayberry and Miss Burnside I eventually chose Rocky. Aimee Taylor, my trusty referee and Bryan Eaton, the unconscious opponent, really made my float a "Knockout". They stuck by me even when a bug flew up my nose causing me to finally break down from all the stress right before the parade started. Each school had two cheerleaders representing it in what turned out to be an amazing dance routine. Shelie Ridgeway and Ishia Swords did a fantastic job representing Glenwood. This year, we needed an escort to go along with the Academy theme. Picking my escort was not a tough decision. I chose Cody Bender, my best friend I could ever have for. Having Cody on stage with me made me feel comfortable, and I was able to be myself. Thank you Cody! The ultimate theme of the night was being named Miss Congeniality. The other contestants were the best part of River Days. I made lifelong friends and they mean a lot to me. When they announced that I was the 2001 Portsmouth River Days Queen, I was shocked. I hadn't even planned on winning. The only things I wanted were to represent Glenwood well and not to fall down on stage. I completed one of my goals, but I barely succeeded in staying upright. Whoops! I'm honored and I want to thank you all again for supporting me. (Kalyn) Kalyn Sudhakaran and Cody Bender hold their position while waiting for the other candidates to be announced. Kalyn picked her longtime friend Cody to be her escort.

For the nautical portion of the River Days competition, Kalyn gives us a closer look at her love of fishing. Kalyn enjoyed sharing her fish tale with everyone in the crowd.

MISS RIVER DAYS 2001

Bryan Eaton, Aimee Taylor, and Kalyn wait at the Spartan stadium patiently for the parade to begin. The theme this year was "A Night at the Academy."

Kalyn Sudhakaran is in the hot seat when she gets ready to give her speech. She coolly presented a wonderful speech with her topic "Don't judge a book by its cover."

Kalyn struts her stuff in the dancing portion of the River Days Contest. She and the other River Days contestants worked hard to perfect their dance routine for the judges.

Kalyn displays her crown and trophies. She not only won River Days, which hasn't been won by New Boston in 12 years, she also brought home the Miss Congeniality.

PLAY

Glenwood High School Drama Club had two performances this year. They had a skit at the Christmas program and then they performed the play The Boardinghouse this past spring. The play was directed by Ms. Kalyn Sudhakaran, Assistant Director: Aimee Taylor, Sounds and Lights: Chris Moles and Faculty: Mr. David Tevis. The cast included Chris Lewis as Mr. Harry, Aimee Taylor as Tweenie, Ryan Adkins as Mr. Richards, Angel Benner as Martha Willis, Eva Henderson as Gladys Kline, Chris Goins as Dr. Sni-Fell, Bryan Eaton as Dirk Shadow, Brandon Hemming as Vern Shadow, Kalyn Sudhakaran as Ivy, Matt Marshall as Maxwell Fliesenhooper (a.k.a. That Guy). This was a very successful play that was enjoyed by all.

SECTIONAL CHAMPIONS

Someone please help me, I cannot get out! Daniel Parker somehow, someway finds himself all caught up in the net. Daniel was an important asset to the team.

Cody Bender, Justin Bittinger, James Bishop, Casey Nolan go through pre-game warm-ups. The senior captains focus on the game ahead of them.

Just a little off the top! Derrick Dunaway trusts Cody Bender as he gives him a close shave before the game. Several players shaved their heads for the SOC Championship game New Boston vs. Clay.

Mike Taylor dribbles the ball to get his legs nice and loose during warm-ups. Mike came back this season to help the Tigers to a sectional championship, and more than a great season for the Tigers.

Senior Chris Goins got the Tiger Award this season.

Lori Colley received 1st team S.O.C. and won the team's Defense Award.

Kalyn's hard work and attitude won her the Most Attacks Award.

Aimee Taylor won the Most Assists and Best Service Percentage Awards.

Dasha White puts all her power behind the ball while she spikes it. Through the season Dasha became aggressive spiking the ball. She received the Most Aces Award for the Lady Tiger volleyball team at the awards ceremony.

G.H.S. CHEERLEADERS

Dasha White, Christy Peck, and Sara Wolfe start a cheer, "Glenwood tigers get on your feet". This year the fans really got involved in cheering at the ball games.

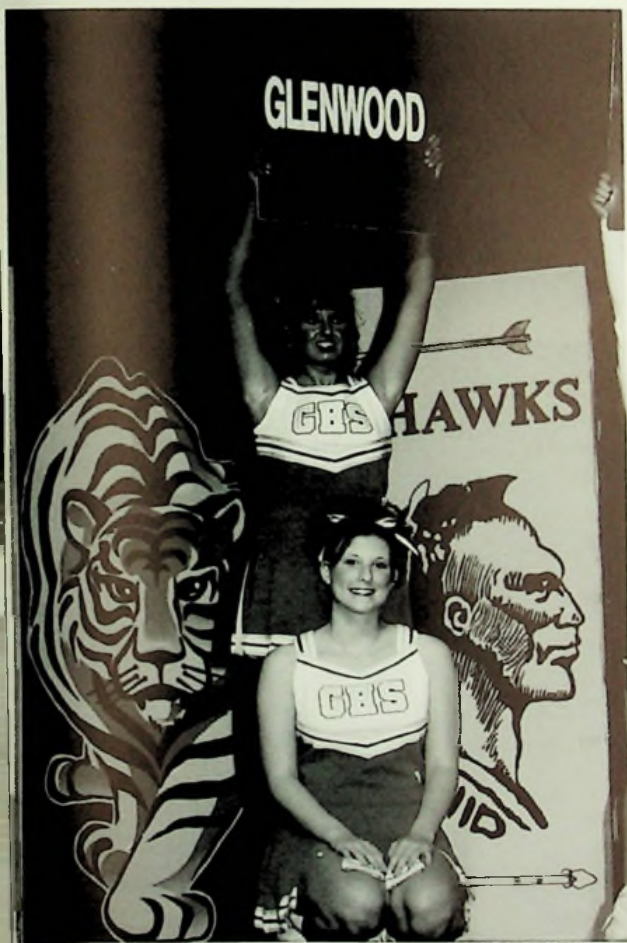

Seniors, Ishia Swords, Staci Lute, and Shelie Ridgeway get ready to cheer for River Days. These girls have been the "The Three Muskateers" throughout cheerleading.

G.H.S Cheerleaders attended Morehead State University cheerleading camp. The team won the award spirit stick.

The Varsity girls before the game, huddle together to talk about what cheers they would do for that game.

Ishia Swords and Shelie Ridgeway were selected to represent New Boston in the River Days Pageant. They had lots of fun being part of this dance and showing their tiger pride. No one could out do "The Girls".

Amber Raike starts the cheer off with enthusiasm. These girls were very supportive to the Basketball team. They helped encourage the Boys Varsity Basketball team.

Boys' Varsity Basketball

Zach Messer gets ready to throw the ball in bounds finds Cody Bender open. Cody Bender takes the ball down the court and passes it off to B.J Darling for two points.

Senior Cody Bender jumps high to block a shot by a Clay player, and he misses. This game was New Boston v's Clay, it was also our homecoming night and we won.

The team rallies in a huddle in the middle of the floor before the beginning of the Piketon Glenwood game.

Aaron Spriggs takes a break after coming out of the game. The bench looks on to see a win for New Boston.

The Volleyball team is warming up for a home match. The girls worked hard this season and are looking forward to next year.

Taking a breather from the fast paced game the girls wait on the bench for their turn to get back in the ball game and win.

Kara McCreary and Tiffany Hosey hold up their Ohio State baseball on the trip home from watching the girls Ohio State game.

Coach Quillen talks about his team on meet the team night. Mr. Quillen coached both the girls and boys basketball teams this year.

Coach Angie Dettwiler hands out awards to the junior high volleyball team during the fall sports awards program. Mrs. Dettwiler hopes that the girls come back out to play hard next volleyball season.

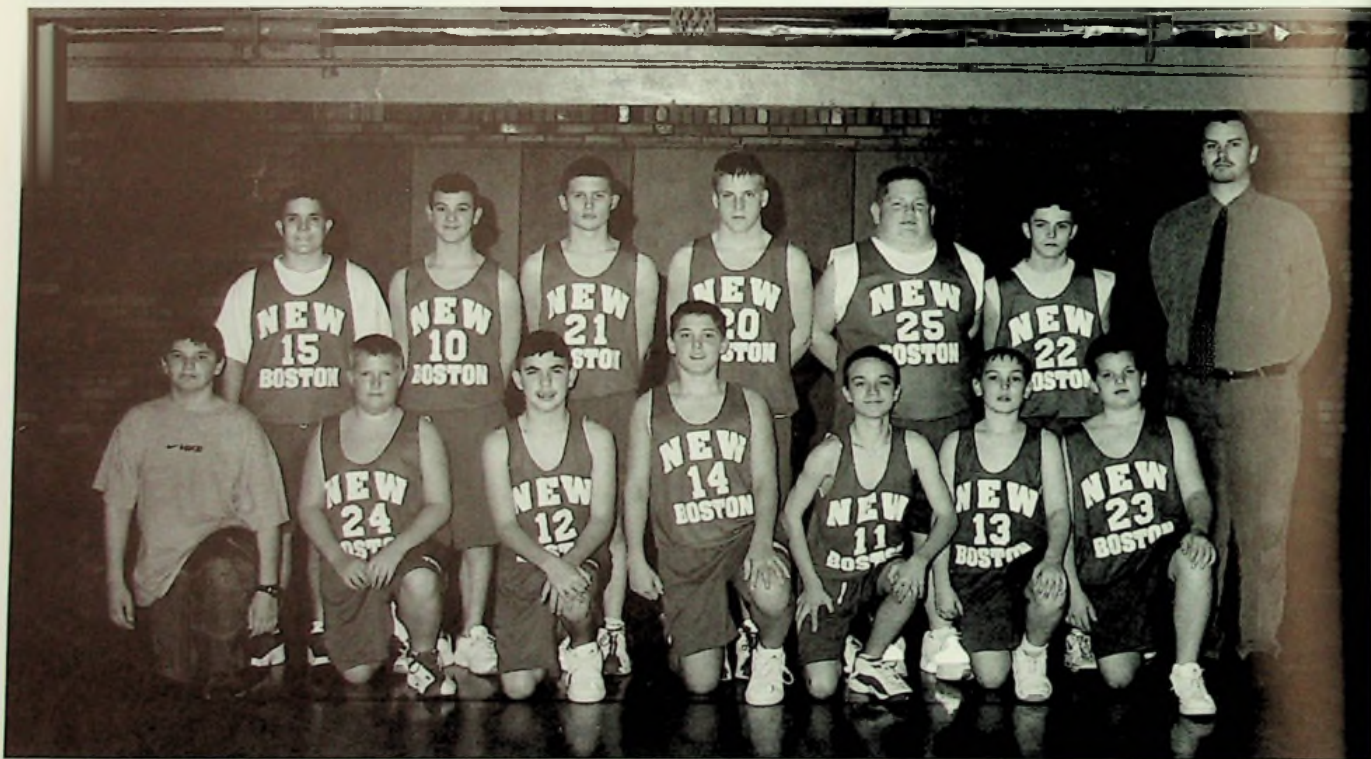

Mr. Fultz and Mr. Quillen took the jr. high and high school girls team on a road trip to watch the Ohio State Girls Basketball team play. After the game they went into the locker room to meet the team.

Junior High Cheerleaders: First row Jenny Pierce, Labree Johnson, and Stephanie Rose. Second row Kimberly Harding, Ashley Bowling, Sara Tolbert, Tiffany Hosey, Kendra Willey, and Tara Caldwell. Third row Dec-Dec Justice, Tosha Buckely, and Courtney Hess.

Sizzling Junior High

Michael Mohr, on you marks, get set and he is off to the races. Michael trained hard this year during the junior high track season.

Junior High Jessica Waugh get ready to release the discus into the air. Jessica placed nearly every meet she competed in this year.

Isha Swords was always a loving child with a big heart. If she saw a bug she always wanted to set it free. Isha was always wanting everybody to be happy and laugh. This has always been easy for her to make people laugh. She is grown now but the loving and compassionate person is still there to bring joy and laughter to our hearts. I thank God for my little girl that will always be in our hearts and we will always love you. Good Luck, Love Mom & Dad < Stealing much of the headlines were the events on and after Sept. 11th. More than 3,000 people lost their lives at the twin towers of the World Trade Center, the Pentagon and aboard the four hijacked commercial airliners. Also getting the spotlight were the rescue workers and volunteers who were recognized by all Americans as heroes. Sadly, it also marked the end of R&B sensation Aaliyah, another one of the Beatles' fab four,

George Harrison, and legendary comedian, Jack Lemmon.>

VIGILS

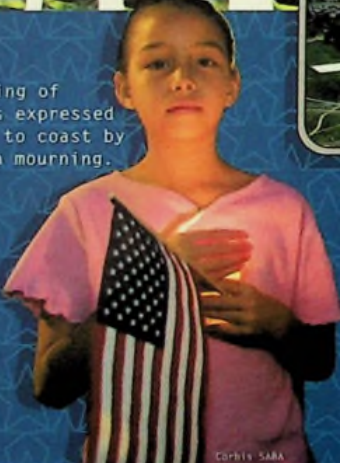

An outpouring of emotion was expressed from coast to coast by a nation in mourning.

RUDY GIULIANI

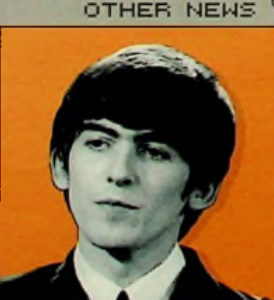

The NYC Mayor's words and actions were a pillar of strength in a time of crisis.

FUND-RAISING

Our nation's youth displayed to the world their patriotism and compassion by donating blood and raising monetary contributions in a number of creative ways for the victims and their families.

< After Sept. 11, sitcoms offered plenty of laughs. "Undeclared" centered on quirky college roommates faced with the freedoms of being away from home for the first time. The bewitching comedy, "Sabrina," conjured up strange changes as she became a college sophomore. "Gilmore Girls" explored the odd relationship between a mom with a heart of a teenager and a teenage daughter that acts like an adult. "Angel" used its dark humor to reveal the twists and turns of a vampire avenger in L.A. <

> NEW SITCOMS > "Scrubs" puts a wildly inventive and hilarious spin on hospital life. Instead of assaulting viewers with jokes, "Bernie Mac's" life unravels in unexpected, offbeat ways while he raises his sister's kids. Parenthood will never be the same.<

< As with everything else, it was a strange year for music. How else can you describe the success of the soundtrack "O Brother, Where Art Thou?" and Michael Jackson's less than "Invincible" return as the King of Pop? But that didn't stop 'NSync, Britney Spears, Usher and the like from commanding the airwaves. Country music got a kick from Tim McGraw who was named CMA Entertainer of the Year, while ears couldn't get enough of newcomer Alicia Keys' "Songs In A Mirror." >

> O-TOWN >

Selected from nearly 2,000 hopefuls, this boy band lived out their musical dreams before the eyes of millions of viewers in the reality show, "Making The Band." Making it big after a hit single, "Liquid Dreams."

< It was another blockbuster year in Hollywood. "Pearl Harbor's" stunning special effects were a big hit. Singer Mandy Moore teamed up with Shane West in a sweet, idealistic love story that brings out the young romantic in everyone. Speaking of true love, young and old fell head over heels for "Shrek." Also in the field of computer-generated optical illusion, "Final Fantasy" proved to be another artistic masterpiece. In contrast, Angelina Jolie brought the video game "Tomb Raider" to life, transforming into the tough archaeologist/adventurer Lara Croft. <

< Technology continues to evolve at dizzying speeds. More compact and personal, mp3 players are killing the portable CD star. Now, CDs and mp3 files ripped off the net can be transported from the PC to your ears anywhere you go. Not to mention, portable DVD players let you catch your favorite movies on the run. Dean Kampen also unveiled the Segway Human Transporter that totally reinvents the wheel. Apple is changing the way people view technology with a new iMac designed around a 15-inch LCD flat screen. Amazing. <

> VIDEO GAME SYSTEMS > Microsoft's Xbox went head-2-head against Nintendo's GameCube and Sony's PS2 for control of the multibillion dollar game console market. Each delivers speed combined with graphically rich gaming environments that further blur the line between virtual and actual reality.

< What were the haute fashion trends? For starters, low-rise jeans were in. And credit Madonna for causing people to switch from the baseball cap to the tattered, straw cowboy hat. The look changed after Sept. 11. People showed their true colors with the return of Old Glory and by wearing "I Love NY" t-shirts. The hair: rough, tumbled and tousled emerged to contrast elegant styles for a balanced look. For zooming around, let's not forget the shoes. >

The world's best assembled to compete at Salt Lake City. New events included the skeleton, where athletes steered their sleds headfirst. Women's bobsleigh was also seen for the first time. Five events were even added to nordic combined and shortened from two-day to one-day races. Plus, the 1500-meter short-track speed skating was unveiled. In snowboarding, the giant slalom was replaced by the parallel giant slalom as snowboarders raced head-2-head in a single-elimination format.

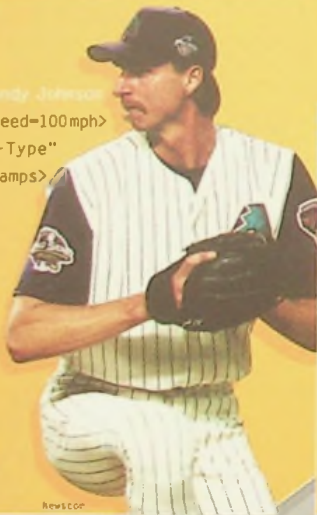

<MICHELLE KWAN <As four-time World Champion, six-time National Champion and Olympic silver medalist, Kwan puts her best skate forward, combining technical skill with artistry and grace, as she set her sights on the gold.

> Recapping a few sports highlights: the thrill of getting a 22-year monkey off Ray Bourque's back made the Avs' 3-1 championship victory over the Devils extra sweet. And let's not forget the World Series where the Dbacks (after losing two dramatic games in extra innings to the Yankees) claimed the championship with a 3-2 win in game seven. His Airness also returned to the hardwood, this time sporting 23 on a Wizards' jersey during the 2002 All-Star Game.<
