Prophecy

We Doneece Patton and Janet Wickline, at the end of our "happy days" in high school, have been wondering what the future holds for the brilliant class of '52. So, as we gaze into our crystal ball, we'll let you see what destiny has in store for our geniuses.

The year is 1965, the place is New Boston, Oh-Ho. We see a modern structure stretched across Glenwood Boulevard, so--New Boston, finally got a new high school. As we enter the building, someone in an awful rush bumps into us. It's Imogene Staten. She explains that she's in such a hurry, because she and Audrey Skaggs are the co-truant officers and that Audrey has over-slept again. Those girls were never on time for anything. We go in, where we see Judy Curry who is coaching football now. Judy gives us all the latest school gossip. Jack Sexton is teaching Government and Economics, he was always interested in those subjects. Just then, we see a big explosion. Judy tells us not to be alarmed, that it's just Professor Willis Martin, the school physicist splitting another atom. Before we left, we decided to drop in and visit the principal's office. Here we found Judy Shonkwiler who proudly announced that she had taken over the physical education department. We weren't in the least surprised, she did that in high school. Judy told us that Bob Jones had advanced from office boy to principal, and that Carl Pierce was his assistant. They weren't in the office, and we couldn't wait around for them. I wonder though, if Bob is still the same old Cassanova that he used to be, remembering all those sophomore hearts he broke when we were seniors. As we were leaving the school we heard sweet soft music coming from the band room. We knocked at the door and who but Sam Jenkins stared us in the face. He told us that Mr. Wiget had a slight case of deafness and Sam had to take over.

We thought we'd stop in Joe's and have a coke, before we went any farther. Who should we find but Rita Lou and Nancy. Nancy told us that she had gone into the "Buckle Business." Janet announced that she was running for "Miss American Restaurant." Undoubtedly she would win again, as she had held this title for ten consecutive years. Rita and I told them that we were starring in "The Golddiggers of 1965." We always did like big cars and "catmen." We all had a big pow-pow. We always could make a lot of noise when we got together. We decided to take a ride. As we left Joe's who should be standing on a soap box in the middle of the street but Tunis Baxter giving a campaign speech for Clyde Glendon Blevins, candidate for "dog catcher." Glen, you can't win with "Tunie" campaigning for you. We piled into an old Model "A" parked out front, and took off. We stopped to buy gas at Hoppy's to find that Frank Maple was now proprietor. The business wasn't big enough for him and Hoppy both so Hoppy left. As we were waiting for Frank to fill the tank, a city bus passed and Bill Stapleton was driving. He had taken his father's place and was now owner of the Bus Line. We were then ready to go. We almost ran into an old man as we pulled out of the gas station, he wasn't hurt--just stunned, it was Joe Jenkins. That's what you get for teaching Barney Oldfield Patton to drive, Mr. Jenkins.

The four of us got him into the car and started for the nearest doctor. Soon we saw a shingle, that read, James Sheridan, M.D. When we entered, we met Nelle Lemaster. She told us she was Jim's office nurse. After Jim did all he could for Mr. Jenkins, and he got away--we sat down and started talking. Jim told us that he and Gary Boren were what you might call partners. He explained that Gary was a Mortician. He said he did all he could to promote Gary's business. Now I understand what the M.D. stands for--Mad Doctor. We learned that Jack Kegley was the editor of one of New Boston's leading Newspapers, and Ronald Smith was his ace reporter and photographer. Jim told us that Mary Ann and Howard had finally taken the fatal step. They had also purchased the Ohio Theater and Goof was running the pop corn machine. We asked Nelle what Mary Gambill was now doing. She told us that Mary has given up hopes of marrying that little blue-ford and has started a home for "old maids."

We thought we'd leave Jim with his "patience," so, as we passed a local unemployment center, who should we see, standing first in line, but Bill Semones and Tom Royster. The doors hadn't opened but Tom explained that they like to get there every week before the crowd arrives. Those guys always were the aggressive type. They said they were still confirmed bachelors. Bill told us that Charlie Bond was operating a beauty salon just down the street. Since we were passing we thought we may as well drop in. Two of Charlie's clients were under the dryers. We talked with him for a while and was surprised when Donna Thompson and Joyce Adams popped out--an invention of Charlie's. Donna told us she was running an advice to the lovelorn column in Jack Kegley's paper. We asked Joyce if she was still an old maid. She was quite offended. I guess we said something wrong. They told us Geneva Shepherd had finally married and was living in Kentucky. We also learned that the Steven Sisters--Mary and Lillian, were doing a song and dance act and had become very famous. Incidentally, Charlie told us that Frank Sturgill was playing the lead in a famous Broadway hit. He developed all his talent back in high school in our Senior Class Play.

We went next door to the reducing studio run by Margaret Hughes. Bouncing up and down on one of the exercise horses, was Pat Hileman. She told us she had to get in shape for the big game. She was now playing with the Cleveland Browns, her manager, Jerry Tindall told us. What's that coming in the door--a firetruck, no wait, it's Vivian Cornwell with red hair. We didn't recognize her as she has lost her girlish figure and she comes to Margie's once a week to try and get it back. She told us that Phyllis Clevenger was appearing tonight in the Championship bout for "heavy-weight" wrestler. Margie told us that Carole Cinereski was now disc jockey for 1260 Bandstand. We bid them good-bye and climbed in our Model "A" and continued on our way.

As we were driving along the boulevard, we saw a used car Lot. The owner was Don Evans. He was really in the money, selling Model "A" Fords. They're still the latest fad. We pulled over as we passed Anna Ruth Cooper dressed in the uniform of the United States Air Force. She told us she was home on a thirty-day furlough before she was shipped overseas. Anna Ruth told us she saw Sarah Estep down town and she was now an elementary school teacher. We bid her farewell and started on our way. Someone asked about Dean Lyles--he's doing the same old thing --"Nothing."

Our Crystal ball is fading but the Class of '52 will never fade! We'll always be around!

Doneece Patton and Janet Wickline

CLASS HISTORY

We, the class of '52, after twelve long years of hard labor have reached our senior year.

In the year of 1948, 80 happy-go-lucky boys and girls entered their freshman year at Glenwood. The advisors for our freshman year were Miss King and Mr. Rickey. The officers were Doneece Patten, president; Bill Perry, vice-president; Mary Ann Schwable, secretary; Colleen Wooten, treasurer. We held a Halloween Party in the study hall and it was enjoyed by all.

We started the sophomore year with 67 students, who seemed very eager to begin. The advisors were Miss Mitchell and Mr. Duncan. The class officers were Howard Gilliland, president; Jim Sheridan, vice-president; Jack Kegley, secretary; Bob Jones, treasurer; Judy Curry and Dee Sturgill, reporters.

Our junior year began with only 50 students. We all thought it would be our most exciting year. Our advisors were Miss Mitchell and Mr. Washington. Our officers were Jim Sheridan, president; Ruth Ann Schamburger, vice-president; Jack Kegley, secretary-treasurer; Rita Lou Cooper, reporter. We ordered our class rings in September and received them in November. As Juniors we greatly added to the savings in our treasury by working very hard at the concession stand at the various athletic events. We planned to use the money for some sort of educational trip during our senior year. "My Favorite Girl Friend" was our class play which was presented in March. The biggest event of our junior year was the Junior-Senior Banquet, which was held at the Chez Paree on May 25. We all worked very hard to make it a big success.

Then, at last, the time came when we found ourselves seniors with only 44 students seeking their diplomas. Our advisors were Miss Wheeler and Mr. Caudill. Our officers were Jack Sexton, president; Mary Ann Schwable, vice-president; Phyllis Clevenger, secretary; Charlie Bond, treasurer. We held a picnic at Roosevelt Lake at the beginning of the school year. Our class play "Mother is a Freshman" was held on April 3rd and 4th. All through our senior year we worked very hard on the annual and we realized it could not have been a big success without the help of our advisor, Mr. Huffman.

The conclusion of our senior year and high school career, was the Junior-Senior Banquet and various picnics, along with our graduating exercises.

We looked forward to graduation which meant our school days were over. We will never forget our teachers and dear old Alma Mater. We are "Not at the top; but climbing".

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1952, of the city of New Boston, county of Scioto, and state of Ohio, being of sound mind and memory do hereby publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any wills heretofore made by us.

I, Joyce Adams leave my last name to my sister, Erma. We must always start the Senior roll call with an Adams.

I, Tunis Baxter leave my right arm to Bill Duncan. Don't forget those nightly rubdowns, Bill!

I, Glendon Blevins leave my record of "If I Had the Wings of an Angel" to Charles Dunn. Slow that car down or you will have.

I, Charles Bond leave my curly black hair to Sandra Brisker. It only takes a few minutes each night for the rinse, Sandy.

I, Gary Boren leave the school property to Don Rankins because Mr. Warren says, "You jist can't take it wiff ya."

I, Carole Cinereski leave my letters to Phil Phillips to Suann Morris. You must learn to write first, Suann.

I, Phyllis Clevenger leave my puny build to June Skidmore. I also leave my crown to some lucky junior girl.

I, Anna Ruth Cooper leave my temper to Ella Jane Aldridge. Ella Jane could use it.

I, Rita Lou Cooper was going to leave something to Shirley Jones but I decided I was going to need it all. Besides Shirley has enough anyway.

I, Vivian Cornwell leave my blond hair to Jackie Jackson. One thing is sure, I'm taking Paul Dick with me.

I, Judy Curry leave my service boyfriends to Beulah Mingus. It takes quite a few letters.

I, Sarah Estep leave my ability to grab that eight o'clock bus to Jack Clevenger. It's going to be a long ride down Glenwood.

I, Don Evans leave my after hours of "basketball" in the alley to Harold Daniels.

I, Mary Gambill leave my "baby sitting" to Joan Lands. Personally I don't think that's the proper name for it.

I, Howard Gilliland leave my sincere attitude to Billy Jo Gilliam.

I, Margaret Hughes leave my singing ability ? to Peggy Finney.

I, Sam Jenkins leave to James Wolfe the authority to watch over Mary Ellen Lester.

I, Robert Jones leave my way with the women to Terry Crisp. I don't believe he needs it.

I, Jack Kegley leave my ability to grow tall to John Hanson. Stretch every night, and don't go with real short girls.

I, Nelle Lemaster leave my special driving ability to Joyce May. Always remember to give that famous start signal.

I, Dean Lyles leave my extra height to Wayne Bowling. Wayne needs it so badly.

I, Frank Maple leave Hoppy's Service Station to Donald Briggs, Roger Goddard, and Ralph Powell. It will take three to run it.

I, Willis Martin leave everything that isn't nailed down to Dwight Cotton.

I, Doneece Patton leave my shoes to Ron Sheridan since we wear the same size. Don't mind the feminine look, Ron.

I, Carl Peirce leave my school books to Richard Fox. You don't even have to open them at Christmas, Richard.

I, Thomas "Diz" Royster leave my shyness to Fred Smittle. We all know you need it, Fred.

I, Mary Ann Schwable leave my ability to hold my man to Shirley Cooper.

I, William "Whopoo" Semones leave my nickname to some Junior who is willing to earn it. Keep working, Fred Adkins.

I, Jackie Sexton leave writing supplies to Shag Newman. Make a report on Callie every day, Shag.

I, Geneva Shepherd leave my long hair to Regina Kegley. You'll have to get rid of that poodle, Regina.

I, Jim Sheridan leave my place as valedictorian to some Junior. Gary and I have to hurry to take over the Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis Show.

I, Judy Shonkwiler leave my wonderful use of the English language to Freda Martin. Don't let anyone hear you practicing, Freda.

I, Audrey Skaggs leave my drivers license to Doris Green. They have it down at the police station, Doris.

I, Ronald Smith leave my noisy personality to Calvin Wellman. Maybe the teachers can put up with him for a whole year.

I, Sonny Stapleton leave my promptness to school to Bill Lutz. You'll have to get up with the chickens to beat that tardy bell.

I, Lillian Stevens leave my good attendance record to Bill Oster. Remember, they have assembly about every other Friday, Bill.

I, Mary Stevens leave my boyfriend's Mercury to Don Gulley. You may have to convince him, Don.

I, Frank Sturgill leave my Professor role in the class play to Ralph Ramey as he did alright for himself this year.

I, Donna Thompson leave the Navy to Rosemary Cockrell. The fleet's in, Rosemary.

I, Jerry Tindall leave my night life to Bob Smith. Remember to get home in time to go to school, Bob.

I, Janet Wickline leave my yodeling ability to Joan Belveal. Oh, well, we all have to go some-time.

FOOTBALL

The magnificent "Tigers" started their football season out with a BANG, BUT in the wrong direction. They lost their first game of the season in the S.O.C. Preview of a new rival, the Washington Senators.

The Tigers next came up against a very powerful Chillicothe eleven. In this game the Tigers were out classed but not out played, even though the Tigers lost by the score of 32-0.

Then the Tigers, under the guidance of Coach Paul Davis, began to show their ability. First the Tigers walloped Coal Grove 25-7. Then the next game the Tigers defeated a highly rated Waverly squad 24-7. This game added confidence to the Tigers spirit.

Now the Tigers were really rolling and it proved to be a sad day when the Tigers met with their ex-rivals Portsmouth East. This game was an easy victory for the Tigers. The final score read New Boston - 19, East - 0. The next game was with the Wheelersburg Pirates whom they Walloped 46-19.

The "Tigers" now knew their ability. But when they met with the Ironton "Tigers", their hopes were a bit shattered. The Tigers from Glenwood still put on a fine show, as they gained 378 yards on the ground to the Ironton eleven's 187 yards. The final score read New Boston 7 Ironton 48.

The game of the year had now arrived. They invaded their new rivals, the Washington Senators. This game determined the S.O.C. champs, and was a thriller to the end. The Senators won by a score of 20-19.

The next encounter the Tiger eleven had, was held the following week with the Chesapeake "Panthers". This was the Tigers home game and was played with snow on the ground. But even the snow could not hold back the Tigers as they walloped the Panthers 48-26.

The Central Catholic Titans were our next victims. This game was predicted to be close, but ended up far from it. The Tigers had an easy victory with a final score of 37-7.

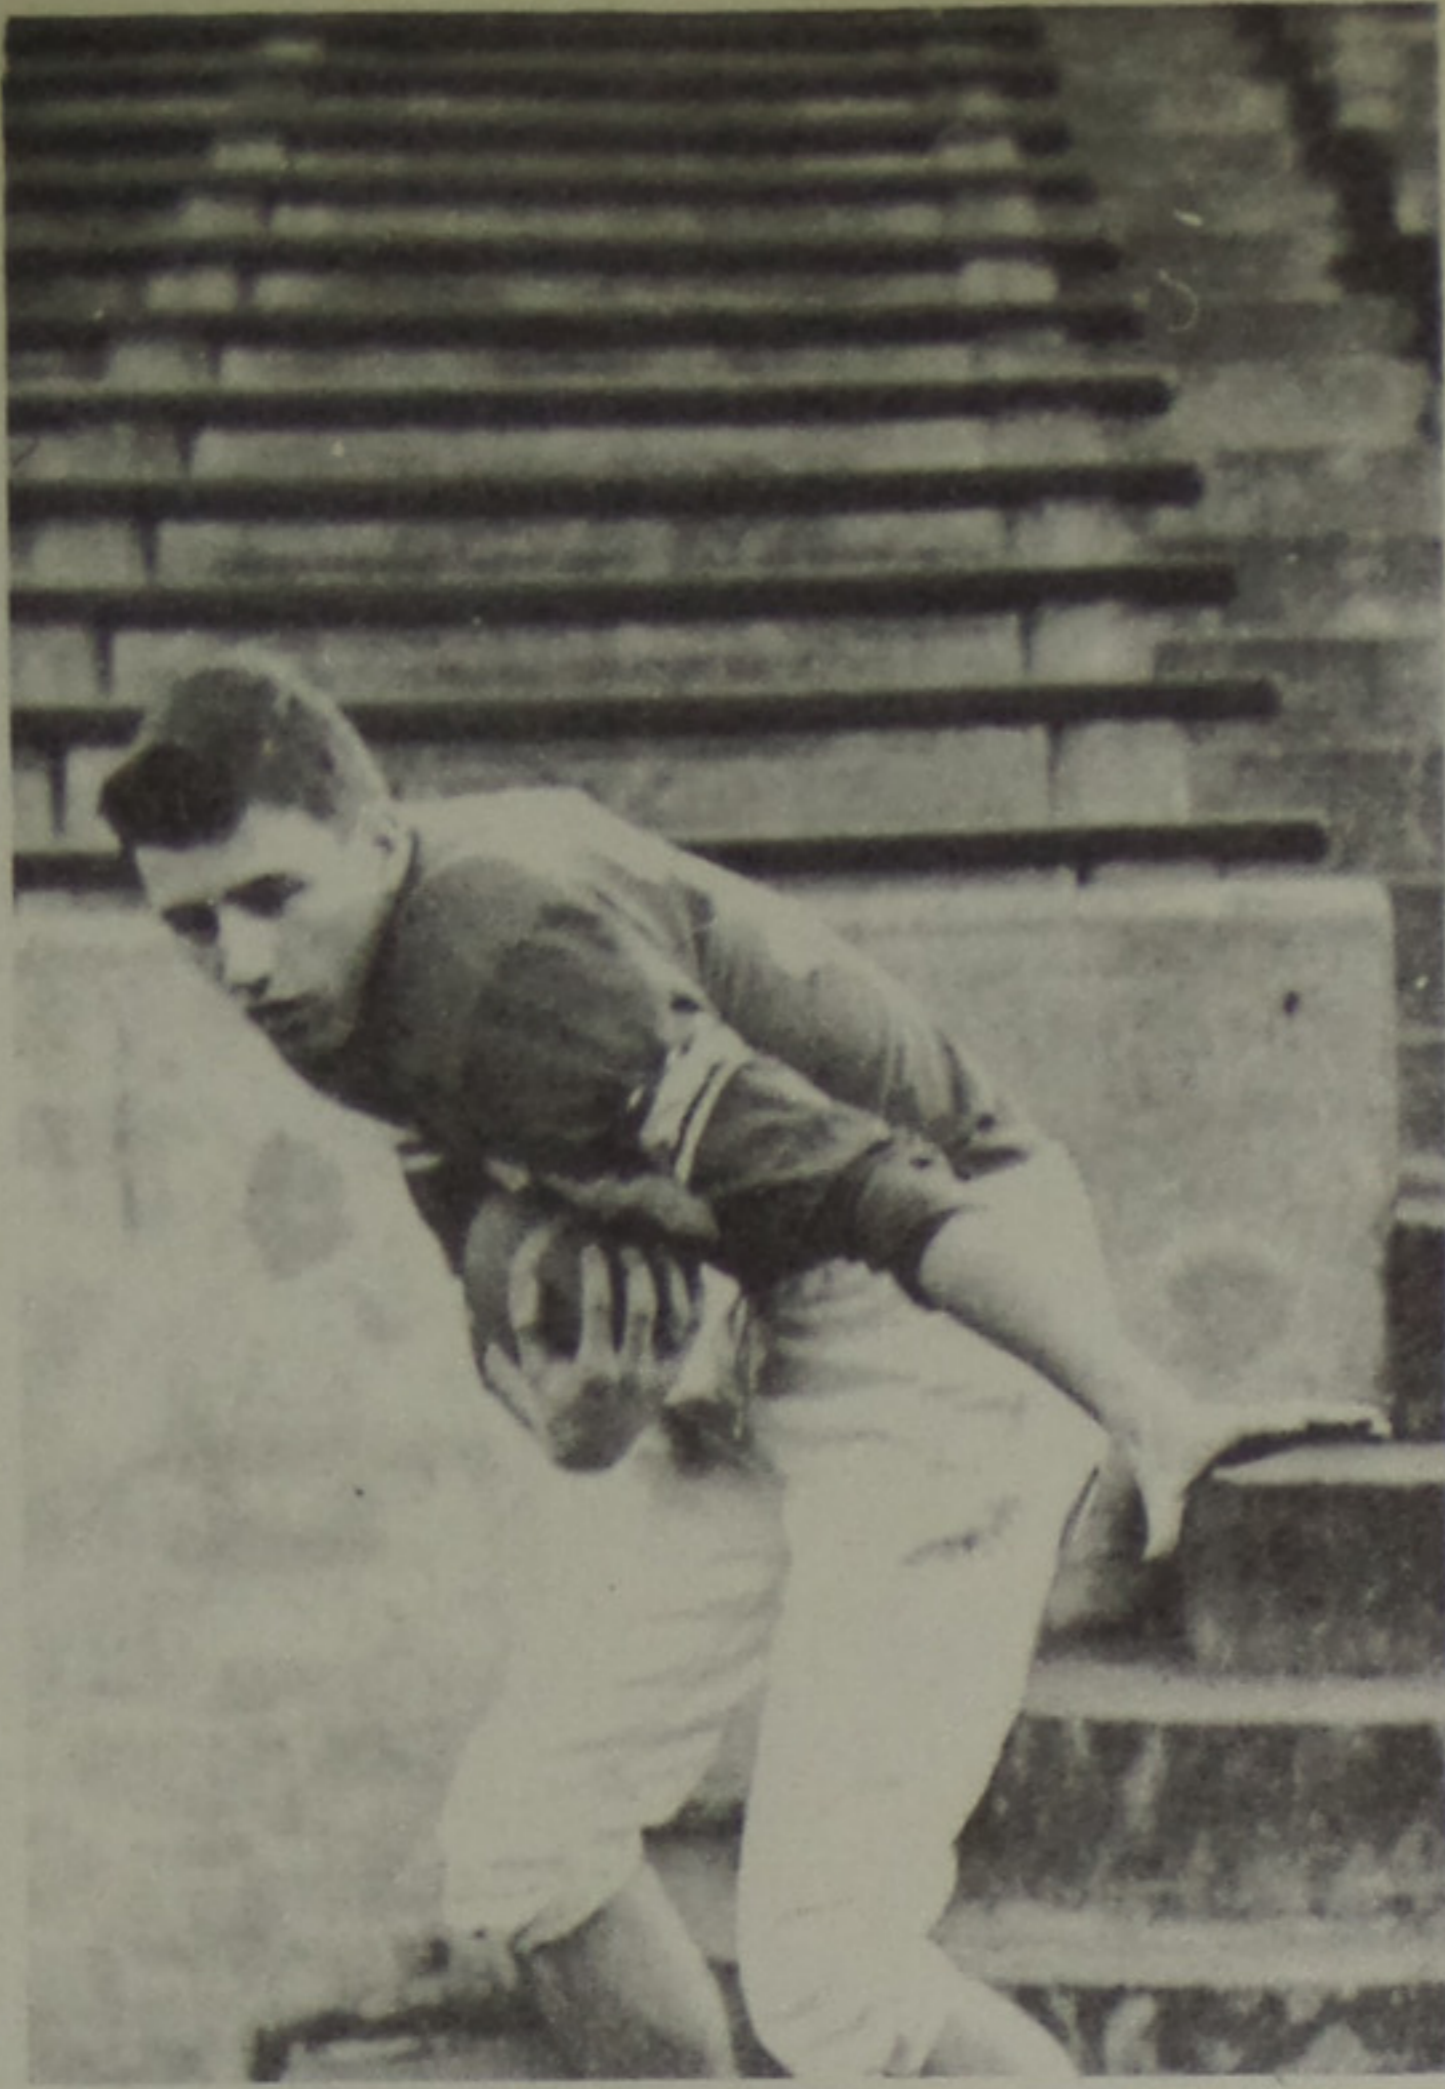

The last game of the season arrived with Cambridge offering the opposition. The Tigers had the Cambridge eleven plenty worried the first half, but were not able to hold their lead. They lost the game by the score of 43-19.

The season record thus stood New Boston 6 wins and 4 loses.

The coaching of Paul Davis and Robert Huffman invaluable to the Tigers during their football season. Coach Davis is resigning after this year and will be hard to replace. However we will be fortunate in having Assistant Coach Huffman back next year.
