The End of the Beginning

Friendship's gold
 That never turns to rust,
 The gold of wisdom,
 Love and hope and trust,
 The gold of quiet,
 And the gold of peace,
 The gold of living
 With its rich increase,
 God's gold of faith,
 The gold of true success,
 And most of all, the gold of happiness.

Talking was a big thing in all study halls especially for Cheryl and Drenda.

Miss Martin's Health classes were always fun and everyone learned a lot.

Studying?

The candy sales were the big thing for us this year and everyone worked hard selling their candy bars.

Something new for the freshmen their first class meeting where several things were arranged.

“75”

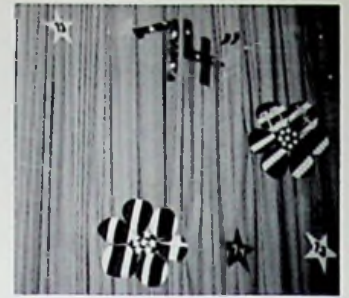

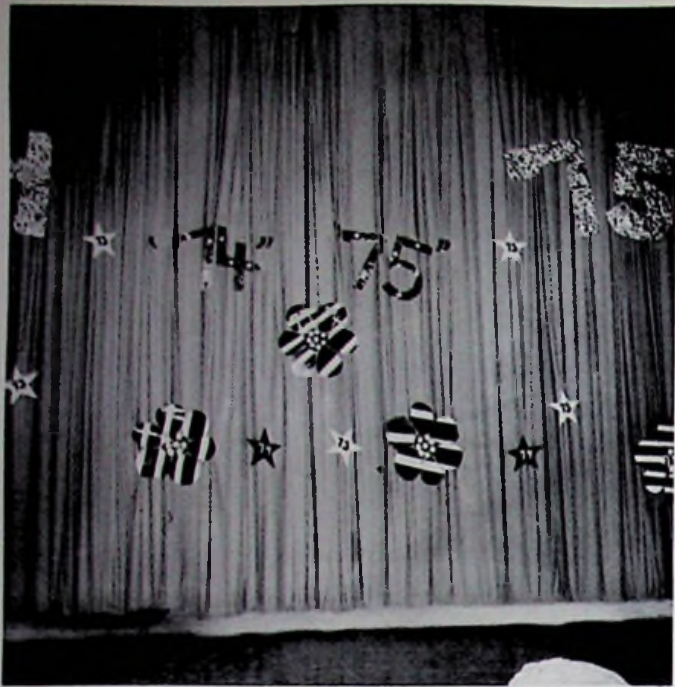

The freshman boys helped Mr. Simon with his Jr. High Phys. Ed. classes ...

The first dance of the year showed a big turnout for the freshmen.

The freshmen worked hard in all their classes to keep up their fine work.

Freshmen worked hard all year getting ready for the dance ...

And at the Dance

The girls keep getting ready all night ...

The boys just had to wait!

Everyone liked the slow dances best.

"75" is the best year.

Ethyi Rock played at the dance and was very good.

Don't just stand around!

Homecoming Dance "1972"

CAN YOU REMEMBER??

Could anyone forget Homecoming "72" with our queen and her court? The big evening began with the reservers defeating Minford 45 to 38. Then that special event began. Freshman attendant Bonnie Herles attired in a royal blue gown, entered to the song Super Star escorted by Tom Clausing. Next came Debbie Kight, Sophomore attendant, wearing a baby pink gown. She was escorted in by Ron Vastine to the theme from Love Story. Following Debbie came Pam Flanagan, the Junior attendant. Pam's gown was turquoise and she was escorted in to the "Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet" by Jeff Gleim. The Senior attendnat was Gail Grimshaw who was escorted by Jeff Gwynne. She was attired in a deep purple dress. Finally, after her attendants were in place, Queen Connie Herles, with her escort Greg Downing, entered. As Love Means played, Missie Martin and Kelly Flanagan brought Connie her crown and roses to proclaim her Homecoming Queen. After the ceremony, the varsity went on to defeat Minford. The evening ended with a dance sponsored the the Student Council in honor of the 1972 Homecoming Queen and her court.

Prom "72"

Debbie welcomes all juniors and seniors to the 1972 Prom.

Prom Host and Hostess were B. Barrett, M. Gable, D. Justice, and S. Vice.

This year's Prom was preceded by a dinner at the Ramada Inn.

RIGHT: Faculty and Administration enjoyed dinner too.

Alright, Randy, one's enough.

Action!

Smile.

Turn around David you said enough!
