The New Generation

THE NEW GENERATION

New hairstyles — wild fashions — different dating traditions — the everyday use of computers — all these changes and many more make the teens of today, the students of East High, "The New Generation".

We are a generation of teenagers who strive to do our best and achieve our goals. For some of us these goals include going to college, having a successful career, and being happy. In our dreams, plans and predictions, we look ahead to a tomorrow with promise.

Enjoying the music and decorations, Kim Hutchinson and Jim Oakley anticipate dancing at the Football Homecoming, Oct. 4.

On this and the following pages you will see pictures of "The New Generation" that define and illuminate the past school year. These pictures reflect a time of happiness and sorrow, silliness and creativity, changes and traditions. These are memories in a scrapbook; to us, East is a way of life.

We share a common thread with the past but we find our world everchanging. Even our entertainment is fast-paced today. Television, music, video cassette recorders, computers and compact discs are all forms of '80s recreation.

We use the new technology daily. It is no longer unique, unusual or frightening as it might have been to our parents or grandparents.

And yet despite the speed with which we race through life, we take time to appreciate the traditional, the established, the small town and close community in which we have been born, grown, and from which we will stretch to explore new worlds, new paths, and new experiences.

Ready to march on the field, band member Dale Bush checks out the fans.

Football team members Jim Oakley, D. J. Horsley, Tony Raika, Rick Messer and Rick Ryder survey a rowdy pep assembly prior to the St. Joe game.

The value we place on tradition and the family can be seen in our favorite TV programs, such as: The Cosby Show, Family Ties, and Growing Pains. But new technology, new relationship styles, and new 80's values are explored in our other favorites: Alf, Miami Vice and Moonlighting.

Relationship styles have changed significantly since our parents' day. Today girls can ask out guys and make all the arrangements. It's not uncommon to see fourteen and fifteen year olds out on dates. Girls and guys communicate better with each other than our parents' generation did. They enjoy each others company more casually; often, as friends. We tried to demonstrate this with our football Homecoming theme: "Friends and Lovers."

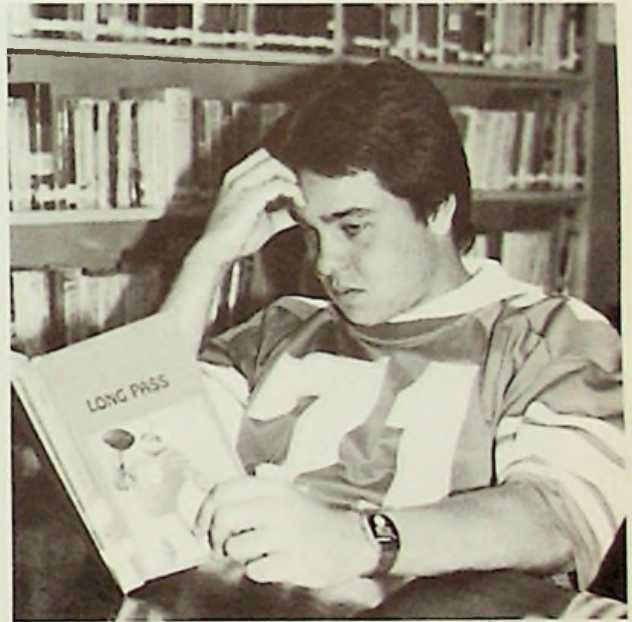

"YOUR MOVE". Taking a time out in the library, Tony Raike and Kurt McGraw practice strategy over a chess game.

Nationally we have experienced a resurgence of patriotism seen in the hit films Top Gun and Rambo. Before our eyes the space shuttle Challenger exploded killing seven of our astronauts and our leaders are rocked by the revelations of Irangate, all the while we celebrate the 100th birthday of our Lady of Liberty. All these events bind us as a nation.

Together we at East unite behind our football team's valiant struggle for an SOC victory and cheer as our lovely contestant becomes second runner-up in the Miss River Days pageant. We pull together whether as a class, a school, a community or a nation to face the challenge of tomorrow as representatives of "The New Generation".

A congratulatory hug from senior cheerleader Becky Stapleton is welcomed by our Football Homecoming Queen Tammie Schouster while Tony Raike helps out with the roses.

"Beat the cats, Victory tonight," shouts football cheerleaders Laura Imm, Kacy Gilliland, Brooke Pauley and Lori Chamberlin as they lead a crowd of cheering students at the pep assembly for the game with Green.

Anticipating a possible 'long pass' from the Notre Dame Titans in the upcoming game, Kyle Chamberlain savors a quiet escape in the library.

River Days 1986 was an exciting and funfilled experience for our Miss Riverdays candidate Tammie Schouster. Tammie, the daughter of Charles and Maudie Schouster, was selected in the spring of 1986 by the student body from ten potential candidates. Tammie worked all summer raising money for her float, "Down by the Old Mill Stream" following the theme of the parade "Those Good Old Days". The Labor Day weekend held a flurry of activities for Tammie from appearances around the area to the large parade on a beautiful Saturday afternoon to the suspenseful pageant that night. "All day I was scared I'd fall or trip on my dress! I was so nervous!" Tammie recalled.

Along with twelve girls from other area schools, Tammie competed for the title. We at East were proud and pleased when Tammie was announced second runner-up. Clay's Crystal Meyers was first runner-up and Miss River Days 1986 was Beth Garthee from Greenup. Thank you, Tammie!

In the evening gown competition, Tammie models an exquisite white creation.

During the swimsuit competition at the pageant, Tammie cuts a stunning figure in orchid.

A dazzling trio, winners in the pageant were Tammie Schouster second runner-up, Miss River Days 1986 Beth Garthee and first runner-up Crystal Meyers

Tartans Undefeated In S.O.C. After Win Over St. Joe

The Tartan boys battled to bring home a 20-0 victory over the St. Joe Flyers in the 1986 Homecoming game, played Friday evening, October 3.

The Tartans' first score was the result of a blocked punt in the first quarter. This set up Rick Messer's one yard touchdown run. Rick also kicked a field goal for the extra point.

East set up their second scoring drive after capitalizing on an intercepted pass during the second quarter. Jim Oakley rushed for nine yards making the score 13-0 as it was until the final minute of the game.

With nineteen seconds left, Chris Jennings ran five yards for the Tartans' final touchdown. Messer made it an even twenty points with a completed field goal.

1986 Football Homecoming Queen Tammie Schouster was crowned at the halftime of the East vs. Ironton St. Joe game which was played on Friday, October 3, 1986. For the first time in the history of East High School, the name of the Queen was not known until it was announced at halftime. Tammie was selected from a group of four senior girls chosen as queen candidates two weeks prior to the ceremony.

Homecoming '86

Escorted by senior football player Tony Raike, Tammie reflected, “I’ve been attending the homecoming since I was a freshman as a cheerleader and I’ve always dreamed about someday being the homecoming queen. I am so excited and happy. I can’t believe it! This is one of the greatest nights of my life!”

The theme for the 1986 Homecoming celebration was "Friends and Lovers", a favorite for East students. Two weeks prior, four senior girls were selected as candidates for Queen: Laura Imm, Nancy Jenkins, Tammie Schouster and Tina Wells. Each class nominated four girls from which one was chosen to represent each class. Senior attendant was Michelle Pringle. Vo-Tec attendant was Nancy Ruark. Junior attendant was Brooke Pauley. Sophomore attendant was Wendy Greene. Freshman attendant was Kacy Gilliland. Each girl was escorted by a boy from her class.

“Taking The Field”

On Saturday, October 4, 1986, the Portsmouth East Marching Band, under the direction of Ken Henry, held their fourth annual Blue and White Invitational at Portsmouth's Spartan Stadium.

The afternoon was filled with exciting performances by thirteen bands from all over Ohio. When the competition concluded the East band performed in exhibition for the slightly damp but enthusiastic crowd.

Following the East band's performance the awards ceremony took place. The trophies were presented by senior band members and squad captains of the East Band. The Grand Champion trophy was awarded to Lancaster. As the competition was sanctioned by the Ohio Music Education Association, several bands were able to qualify to compete in the State Finals which are held in Columbus, Ohio.

This fall students and faculty at East High were pleased to welcome Michael Flaig as our new principal. Mr. Flaig, a graduate of Minford High School and Miami University, was recently Principal at Grant Middle School and also served as Assistant Principal at Portsmouth High.

Mr. Flaig remarked to reporters Stacy Montgomery and Chad Phillips, "I had some apprehensions about coming to East. I didn't think I would have time for all the activities and my family too. I now feel more comfortable with all the events and still find time for my family affairs."

"The faculty at East has helped me tremendously and I think the people at East do a remarkable job with the limited facilities. East has good students and a good faculty."

From One Generation . . .

East is pleased to welcome Mike Welton as our new Dean of Boys. Mr. Welton received his B.S. from Ohio University and his M.S. from Xavier University. He taught at East from 1968-1971 then returned last year to teach math. This year he became our Dean of Boys. When asked how he feels about his return to East, Mr. Welton comments, "It's good to be back."

Endings and Beginnings

Seniors cap final honors

As "Pomp and Circumstance" grandly played, the large crowd in the stifling hot gym fell silent and the 67 graduates filed into their assigned seats. The seventy-fourth annual baccalaureate and commencement of Portsmouth East High School was about to begin on Sunday, June 7th at 1:00pm.

Guest speaker Linda Swick,

Minister of the Sciotoville Methodist Church delivered the baccalaureate address and the East High combined chorus performed with the graduating seniors for the last time. Mrs. Fuller presented best wishes from the Board and Mr. Collins introduced Valedictorian Nancy Jenkins and Salutatorian Pam Keeton. The audience was moved by Nancy's 'goodby' to the class and Pam's 'thank you' to her hospitalized mother. The seniors were then presented with their diplomas. Arthur Marcum, Minister of the Sciotoville Church of Christ gave the benediction. Graduates followed the ceremony with a group picture and the customary tossing of hats.

We face tomorrow

Tammy Schouster

Seniors. We finally made it. We'll never again be together as a class. We'll be going our separate ways. Some of us will be going to college while others will get married or get a job. We'll never again be a part of East High. And East High will never be the same without us. Our laughter will never again ring in the halls or our cheers in the gym. There is a big change ahead of us. It will be scary but we look forward to our independence. Although our goals may be different, we all share so much; the Class of '87.

Experience leads Tartans

The football team had a very successful season this year finishing 6-4 over all. After the loss of so many seniors in the 1983-1984 SOC Championship Team, the Tartans proved that they have, indeed, been rebuilding.

Senior Jim Hadinger stated, "We could have done better but we lacked size."

An enthusiastic student body and community helped the Tartan boys instill pride back into the halls of East High.

We would like to thank Head Coach Davis, his staff, and the team for a successful and exciting season.

Three of our girls were also accepted to compete in a National Cheerleading Competition held at Heritage U.S.A. in North Carolina. Representing East High School were Tammie Schouster, Julie Little, and Kacy Gilliland. Although they didn't win, they gained experience and knowledge and we are very proud of them.

"We learned alot from this competition and we really had alot of fun", stated Tammie Schouster.

1987 Sectional Champs

The 1987 boys basketball season was both exciting and surprising. Although our boys weren't expected to have a winning season, the Cinderella team of East High School ended the year with a Sectional Championship. Completing the season with a 17-6 record, they earned the ranking of 19th in the state of Ohio.

In recognition of a successful coaching season, Head Coach Rick Hopkins was named Co-Coach of the Year. Josh Welch, senior, was named to the 1st team All SOC, the 1st team All Southeast District, and was awarded Special Mention All State. Senior, Bill Harmon, and Sophomore, Brett Osborne were named to the All SOC 2nd team. Congratulations to Coach Hopkins and his winning team!

Basketball

On February 6, 1987, Maria Bonzo was crowned our 1987 Basketball Homecoming Queen, between the J.V. and Varsity games against Clay. She was the Yearbook Staff candidate and was escorted by Stacy Montgomery.

Nancy Ruark, Vo-Tech candidate, was the first runner-up. She was escorted by John Coriell. The freshman class candidate, Tracy Risner, was the second runner-up. Tracy was escorted by Ryan Carter. The third runner-up was Julie Workman. She was the Glee Club candidate and was escorted by Chad Phillips. Tracy Price was the fourth runner-up and was escorted by Mike Belveal. She was the Spanish Club candidate.

The 1986 Homecoming Queen Brooke Pauley, escorted by senior co-captains Josh Welch and Bill Harmon, crowned our new queen. The flower girl and crown bearer were Heide and Brett Bowen, grandchildren of Gib and Helen Bolton.

A New Tradition

This year the Homecoming ceremonies were changed with the crowning of a Homecoming Princess from the 6th, 7th, or 8th grade. This year's Princess was Jennifer Pauley. Jennifer was the 7th grade candidate and was escorted by Justin Jenkins. She was crowned by last year's Queen, her sister, Brooke Pauley.

The 8th grade candidate was Stephanie Henry. She was escorted by Ray Bear. Jessica Chamberlin was the 6th grade candidate. Her escort was David Martin.

for the Lady Tartans

The 1987 Girls Basketball team had the first winning season in several years. The Lady Tartans had an 8-5 regular season record but they lost to South Webster in the first round of tournament play.

Three of the girls were named to Division I, SOC teams. Sophomore, Rhonda Bennet made the 1st team All SOC. Cindi Shonkwiler, Senior, and Brenda Marcum, Junior, were named to 2nd team All SOC. Head Coach Jim Smith was chosen to coach the Ohio girls team in the Ohio-Kentucky All Star game at Shawnee State University. Seniors Cindi Shonkwiler, Tina Wells and Lana White played in the game.

Taking the Bases —

Tartan baseball got off to an unusual start this year when a freak blizzard the first week of April delayed several games. Following the snow came weeks of monsoon-like rain and more were cancelled. Therefore the regular season continued well past tournament time as missed games were made up. But at least there was no more snow!

records. In the 3200 meter relay, Sam McGuire, Johnny Wright, Roger Jones and Tim Pruitt ran 8:48.6. For the shot put record Rick Ryder hit 46'10". The relay team of Tim Pruitt, Rick Messer, Chris Jennings and Sam McGuire ran the 400 m in 45.3, also a school record and this team advanced to the regional finals. Rick Messer also ran the 100 m and 200 m at regionals. The many track victories and additional tournament meets drew large, cheering crowds from East and prompted much Tartan pride.

I Came To Run

It was a cool autumn day
In the small Ohio town
A day meant for running
Under leaves of brown.

And in the middle of the town,
On the surrounding streets
You could hear the sound of sneakers
Pounding out a winning track team beat.

The steps belonged to a small
But stocky student.
He walked up to Coach Gullion
And said, "Hi, I'm Tim Pruitt."

The coach looked up and said
"Can I help you son?"
Tim just smiled and said,
"Well, I came to run."

And run they did, everywhere
and every way
Mile after mile
Day after day.

It was the last race
Score tied, the whole S.O.C. at stake
If East was going to win
A miracle it would take.

The gun went off
And so did Sam, from the Bend,
Running like a cross between
A Ferrari and the wind.

Next came Rod and Johnny
The middle leg they took
But when Tim's turn came
He was going to have to cook.

Valley was ahead too far
No one thought we could win
Then in the midst of doubt
Here comes Tim.

Running on heart
and team devotion
Passing up Valley
A dream in motion.

The place went wild!
The S.O.C. had been won!
Just because Tim Pruitt
Had come to run.

Written by senior Kyle Chamberlain, a former member of the track team who was unable to complete the season due to illness. But Kyle was in the crowd the day of the S.O.C. win and he composed this poem.

MADRIGALS EXCEL

This year the Madrigals were composed of nine boys and ten girls who each put in hours and hours of practice for an almost perfect song and dance routine. The 1987-1988 Madrigals were chosen to attend competition in New York City in May. However, due to many conflicts the Madrigals were unable to make the trip.

STUDENT LIBRARIANS

Keep the Library in Top Order

The library staff has been an active part of the school since its first beginnings at East. Under the guidance of Ms. Masters, the twenty-three librarians are required to know library science because their knowledge is tested at various times during the year. President of the Library Club, Kyle Chamberlin remarks: "I enjoy working in the Library because I get to experience many new things such as Herbie Mowery perfecting his 'Ninja maneuvers!'"

NEWSPAPER STAFF

Keeps Students
Aware

This year the Newspaper Staff made sure the students were informed of what was happening around East High. The eleven members worked non-stop all year to get the Tartan Trib to the presses on time. Each member of the newspaper staff worked on a different section to insure that every aspect of Tartan life was covered. Mr. Williams is the newspaper advisor.

The tasks range from distributing the daily absence and tardy lists, going to the bank or post office, collecting correct grades and running various other errands. "It's fun and I sure get a lot of exercise running up and down all these stairs!" said Kacy Gilliland.

The Pep Club and the Spanish Club Have Got What It Takes

This year the Pep Club was active in many activities: with the success of the football homecoming and the basketball season, they were able to take many pep buses for the most important games.

The Spanish club this year consisted of a number of experienced students who have been active in Spanish for a number of years.

All in all, both organizations do have what it takes to make anything they are a part of a success.

Quiz bowl gained the experience to be first rate

Often competition between high school students is limited to the areas of athletics. However, quiz bowl brings a welcome change.

The Portsmouth East quiz bowl team, under the supervision of Mr. Bruce Logan, consisted of 10 students. Quiz bowl involves team competition between local high schools. In the competitions, the teams test their academic knowledge over a wide range of questions making every match an educational experience. Bill Bumgardner remembers, at the tournament at Shawnee State, "I'll never forget falling over the trash can when everyone else was so dignified. Mr. Logan enjoyed the laugh. But really, the friendships made while on the team are the best part. We've become really close."

Throughout the year chorus supplies entertainment.

The vocal music department went through quite a change this year with the number of people in the choir being cut down considerably due to scheduling conflicts, but the group still excelled. Mr. Williams, director of the chorus and the musical, was in his ninth year at East and since his arrival has made the Glee Club a big part of East tradition.

East's Educational Elite

On the first Saturday in May, a select group of students represent East in the Ohio Tests of Scholastic Achievement. This year fifty-three students accepted the challenge to compete with high school students all over the state. To be eligible to take these tests, the student must maintain an A average in the subject that they are taking the test in. This May, East was honored by having sophomore Mark Sherret place 3rd in the state, 1st in district by division and 1st in district regardless of school size, in Geometry. Several other participants placed well also.

National Honor Society:

the select few

The 1986-87 Chapter of the Pauline Walden National Honor Society induction was held on February 20, 1987 with nine juniors being added to the twelve incumbent senior members. Scholarship, leadership, service and character were the criteria for selection.

This year the guest speaker for the ceremony was 6th District Congressman Bob McEwen. He addressed the faculty, students and many guests on the importance of having an education. Students got a chance to meet Congressman McEwen at the reception afterwards.

Other activities this year for the National Honor Society included the canned food drive at Christmas, reading to the classes at Harding Elementary during Right-to-Read Week in April and assisting with the city-wide Special Olympics in May.

Congressman McEwen addresses a large audience concerning the importance of academic excellence and service to our community.

Seniors Annamarie Bradley) and Cindi Shonkwiler 'tap' new member, junior Chad Phillips. New members are not aware of who is chosen until the moment they are tapped in the solemn ceremony, although parents are secretly notified so they may attend.

'SPIRIT' More Than A History Book

East High's 1986-1987 yearbook staff decided early in the year that this yearbook would be more than just a scrapbook of pictures; it would reflect the true spirit of what our generation is like. Four staff members, Editor Annamarie Bradley, Copy Editor Nancy Jenkins, Magazine Editor Laura Imm and Classes Editor Maria Bonzo accompanied new adviser Liz Masters to a week-long Publications workshop in June at Dennison University offered by Jostens. It was difficult work and long hours but everyone gained valuable experience and a lot of enthusiasm.

During the year, staff members raised money by selling ads in the community, old yearbook pictures and holding the 1987 Tartan Basketball Homecoming which was a success. Maria Bonzo, the yearbook candidate, won the title of Queen by raising over $700.00 to aid in the publication of the SPIRIT. Senior staff members worked until their last day to complete as much of the book as possible. All involved hope the 'SPIRIT' will hold many treasured memories for all East students.

The Marching Tartans Strive for Perfection

While most of us were still enjoying the last few weeks of summer, the Portsmouth East Marching Tartans were already hard at work. Band practice began on the first of August and continued until the end of October.

However, the many hours of practice certainly did not go unrewarded as the Marching Tartans attended many competitions and received many honors. The percussion section, under the leadership of senior Jeff Lewis, consistently outscored many of the larger bands. The Flag Corp, led by Pam Keeton, and the Rifle Corp, led by Julie Workman also performed superbly throughout the season.

The field commander this year was Annamarie Bradley. Anna served as field commander for the past two years. She did a fantastic job and she will be missed when she graduates.

ACTIVITIES

Voices in Harmony

Select Choir

Participate
In Many Activities

Members of Hillview Retirement Center take a moment to enjoy a Christmas presentation by East's select choir. Residents were very pleased with the special program.

East's choir joined those from other area schools in the Portsmouth City Music Festival at Shawnee University in April.

The select choir, led by Music Director Mark Williams, (above) entertain at East and (below) out in the community.

And That's Show Biz . . .

The Vocal Music Department presented the musical "Annie" this year. The musical, directed by Mr. Williams, ran from April 2-4, and was made up of students not only from East but also from Harding.

During Thursday afternoon, the cast performed the long-hearsed musical for the entire Harding student body. Thursday evening "Annie" was given before the first paying audience with rave reviews for the entire cast, and especially for fourth-grader Leslie Cook, who starred as Annie.

On Friday morning, though, Leslie was admitted to the hospital suffering with appendicitis, and was operated on that evening. True to show biz, "The Show Must Go On", Jesse Waddell, a fifth grader who had previously played Duffy was able to deliver an entertaining performance as Annie. She needed help only with the solo songs which were sung backstage by seniors, Annamarie Bradley, Student Director and Michelle Pringle, Production Manager.

Saturday's performance was cancelled, unfortunately, because of unseasonable and extremely heavy snowfall.

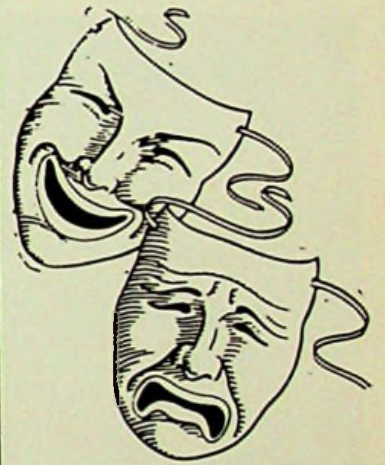

The main cast consisted of Chris Oiler, Daddy Warbucks; Tammie Schouster, Miss Hannigan; Robin Mason, Grace Farrell; Julie Workman, Lily; and Michael Foit as Rooster. The orphans were Harding and East Middle School students.

Superior Efforts Rewarded

The award winning Tartan Marching Band held its annual award banquet on a hot night in May in East's gym. Band members were presented with certificates and trophies by band director Ken Henry. Students and guests enjoyed a delicious meal and many awards.

Maria Bonzo receives her senior award.

Award winning field commander Annamarie Bradley holds her trophy.

Steve Workman helps Band Boosters set up feast.

Jeff Lewis receives the John Phillip Sousa award for outstanding band member.

Mr. Welton and Superintendent Dr. Larson enjoy the festivities.

On a hot night in May a crowd of proud parents, students, faculty and administrators gathered in the gym to enjoy a variety of desserts and watch the presentation of many awards. What had once been Senior Night Awards was expanded to include honors to all high school students. Highlights of the night were the awarding of the Junior Cup and the Sandy Pence Award, named after a former student of East, to the senior who best personifies her willingness to participate and help in all school activities and be a good student, decided by faculty vote.

Junior John Coriell received the Junior Cup, awarded to an outstanding member of the Junior class.

Carrying her many awards and honors, Valedictorian Nancy Jenkins is a senior East High is very proud of.

The salutatory honor was presented to Pam Keeton by Principal Mike Flaig.

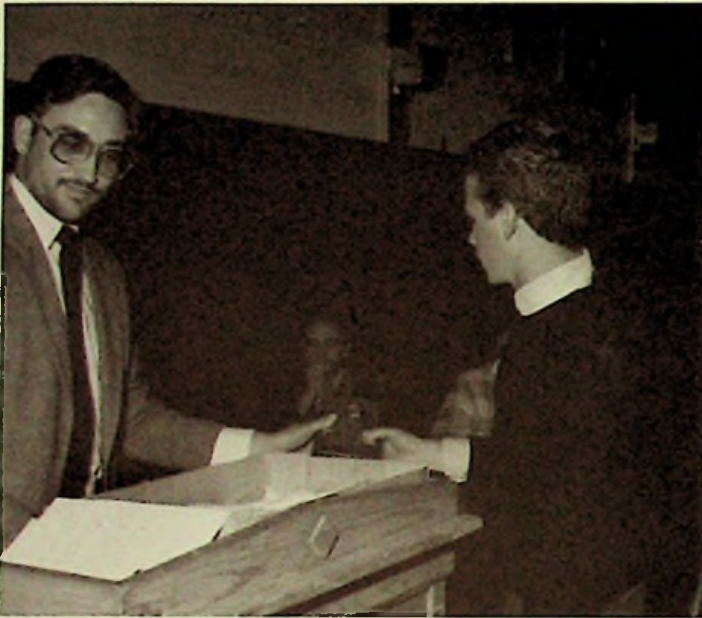

The prestigious 'Sandy Pence' award is given to the senior displaying the character, good citizenship, high scholastic standards and constant willingness to help with all school activities that Sandy possessed. This year's winner is Bill Marcum who is presented the award by Mr. Smith, while Mr. Flaig looks on and the audience gives Billy a standing ovation.

Art teacher Sharon Forsythe presents the award for the most outstanding art student to Roger Jones.

Many Honored At Basketball Banquet

A sad moment for senior Cindy Shonkwiler as she accepts her last award from girls' basketball coach, Jim Smith.

"Last Time Around"

1987 Junior-Senior Prom

Ties and tuxes, sequins and lace, all made for a dazzling enchanted evening, May 8th, at the Meeting Place, the scene of the Junior-Senior Prom. After many hours of planning, fund raising, and decorating, the Junior class presented the "Last Time Around" where for one night students donned lavish attire and swirled and boogied on the dance floor. Students spent many afternoons in tanning beds and trying on rented tuxes but it all paid off. Tradition was followed when faculty members present voted for the King and Queen. The winners were Chad Phillips and Cindi Shonkwiler who shared a solo dance to the night's theme song.

Music was provided by J.D.'s Music Machine who also videotaped the evening. A highlight was the conga line of all students who swayed out into the night. Refreshments were furnished by the Junior class, while Sophomores acted as waitresses and waiters.

King Chad Phillips and Queen Cindi Shonkwiler share a special moment gliding along the dance floor.

While King Chad Phillips assists with the trophy, Junior Class President Barbara Bonzo crowns Queen Cindi Shonkwiler. Faculty members chose the two as the couple having the most fun.

Sampling the waterfall of punch at the refreshment table, waiter Kurt McGraw enjoys the extra benefits of working at prom.

Observing the gyrations on the dance floor are faculty John Little with wife Sandy, Liz Masters, and Helen Bolton with husband Gib.

Swaying to a slow beat and appreciating each other's company are Juniors Julie Little and Clay Risner. Some students could have danced all night.

Jim Oakley sports casts which cut short his varsity career late in the season.

Teammates J. Welch, J. Oakley, K. McGraw and K. Monroe watch an intense tournament game.

It's been quite a year — one preserved here with words and images and in our hearts with indelible memories. We are the new generation with ties to the past yet ready for tomorrow. We can face the future secure in the knowledge that we are strong, prepared and ready to build our own world, our way, with the best of our past but also with a vision of a new day. We will always remember 1987 as the end of our childhood and the beginning of the new generation.
