SONNET

WHEN THRILLED BY NATURE'S EVER BEAUTEOUS LOOKS,
I SEEK THE HILLS AND REST IN LONELY VALES,
LISTENING TO STRANGE AND LONG FORGOTTEN TALES
OF WHISPERING TREES AND SOFTLY MURMURING BROOKS,
SUCH TRAGEDY CANNOT BE FOUND IN BOOKS
AS TREE AND BROOK TO ME, IN AWE, BEWAIL;
NOR CAN THE SAVAGE RESTING IN THIS DALE,
RETURN TO TESTIFY WHAT WE FORSOOK.

THERE WHERE THE INDIAN STROVE TO SEEK HIS FOOD,
NOW SOUNDS OF HUMAN PROGRESS FILL THE AIR,
MAN'S GENIUS HAS REPLACED INVENTIONS RUDE,
AND AVARICIOUS GAIN HAS FOLLOWED THERE.
HE IS GONE. BUT, THOUGH HE ROAMS NO MORE THESE PARTS,
WE CHERISH STILL HIS MEMORY IN OUR HEARTS.

PORTSMOUTH

Between two rivers, one large, wide, and placid; the other swift, winding, and treacherous, amidst miles of rolling green lands, enclosed by high rugged ranges of forested hills, lies the Scioto Valley which was, indeed, the paradise of the Redman. Here he fished and hunted unmolested. Here he worshipped in his primitive fashion in unrestricted fervor.

But fate decreed otherwise. His days were numbered, for with the approach of the white man, the Indian was forced to withdraw from his Elysian fields and seek safety in a less ideal spot.

With the passing of the Redman, a new epoch in the history of Scioto County began. Hills and valleys that rested in quiet peace, save for the occasional war whoop or the dull beating of a tom-tom, now reverberated with an adventurous race of humans. Home was their first consideration, but industry followed swiftly, and, perhaps, even then, a farseeing eye could have easily discerned that in less than one hundred years these hills and valleys should mark one of the busiest industrial centers of Southern Ohio.

Five families constituted the first band of pioneers who, in 1796, emigrated from Kentucky to the west bank of the old mouth of the Scioto. This settlement was called Alexandria and, for a time, was the county seat of Scioto County.

In 1803 Henry Massie, a brother of Nathaniel Massie who had laid out Chilli-cothe, made the plot of Portsmouth, and named it for his former home in Virginia. In order to get it settled as soon as possible, he made very liberal offers to people of Alexandria; but only a few took advantage of the liberality, preferring their, thus far, happy life, to that of the forest, or the swampy, dreary-looking site of Portsmouth. But such was not the case for long. Flood followed flood; but these hardy pioneers battled bravely. In 1803, however, a most severe rise forced them across the river.

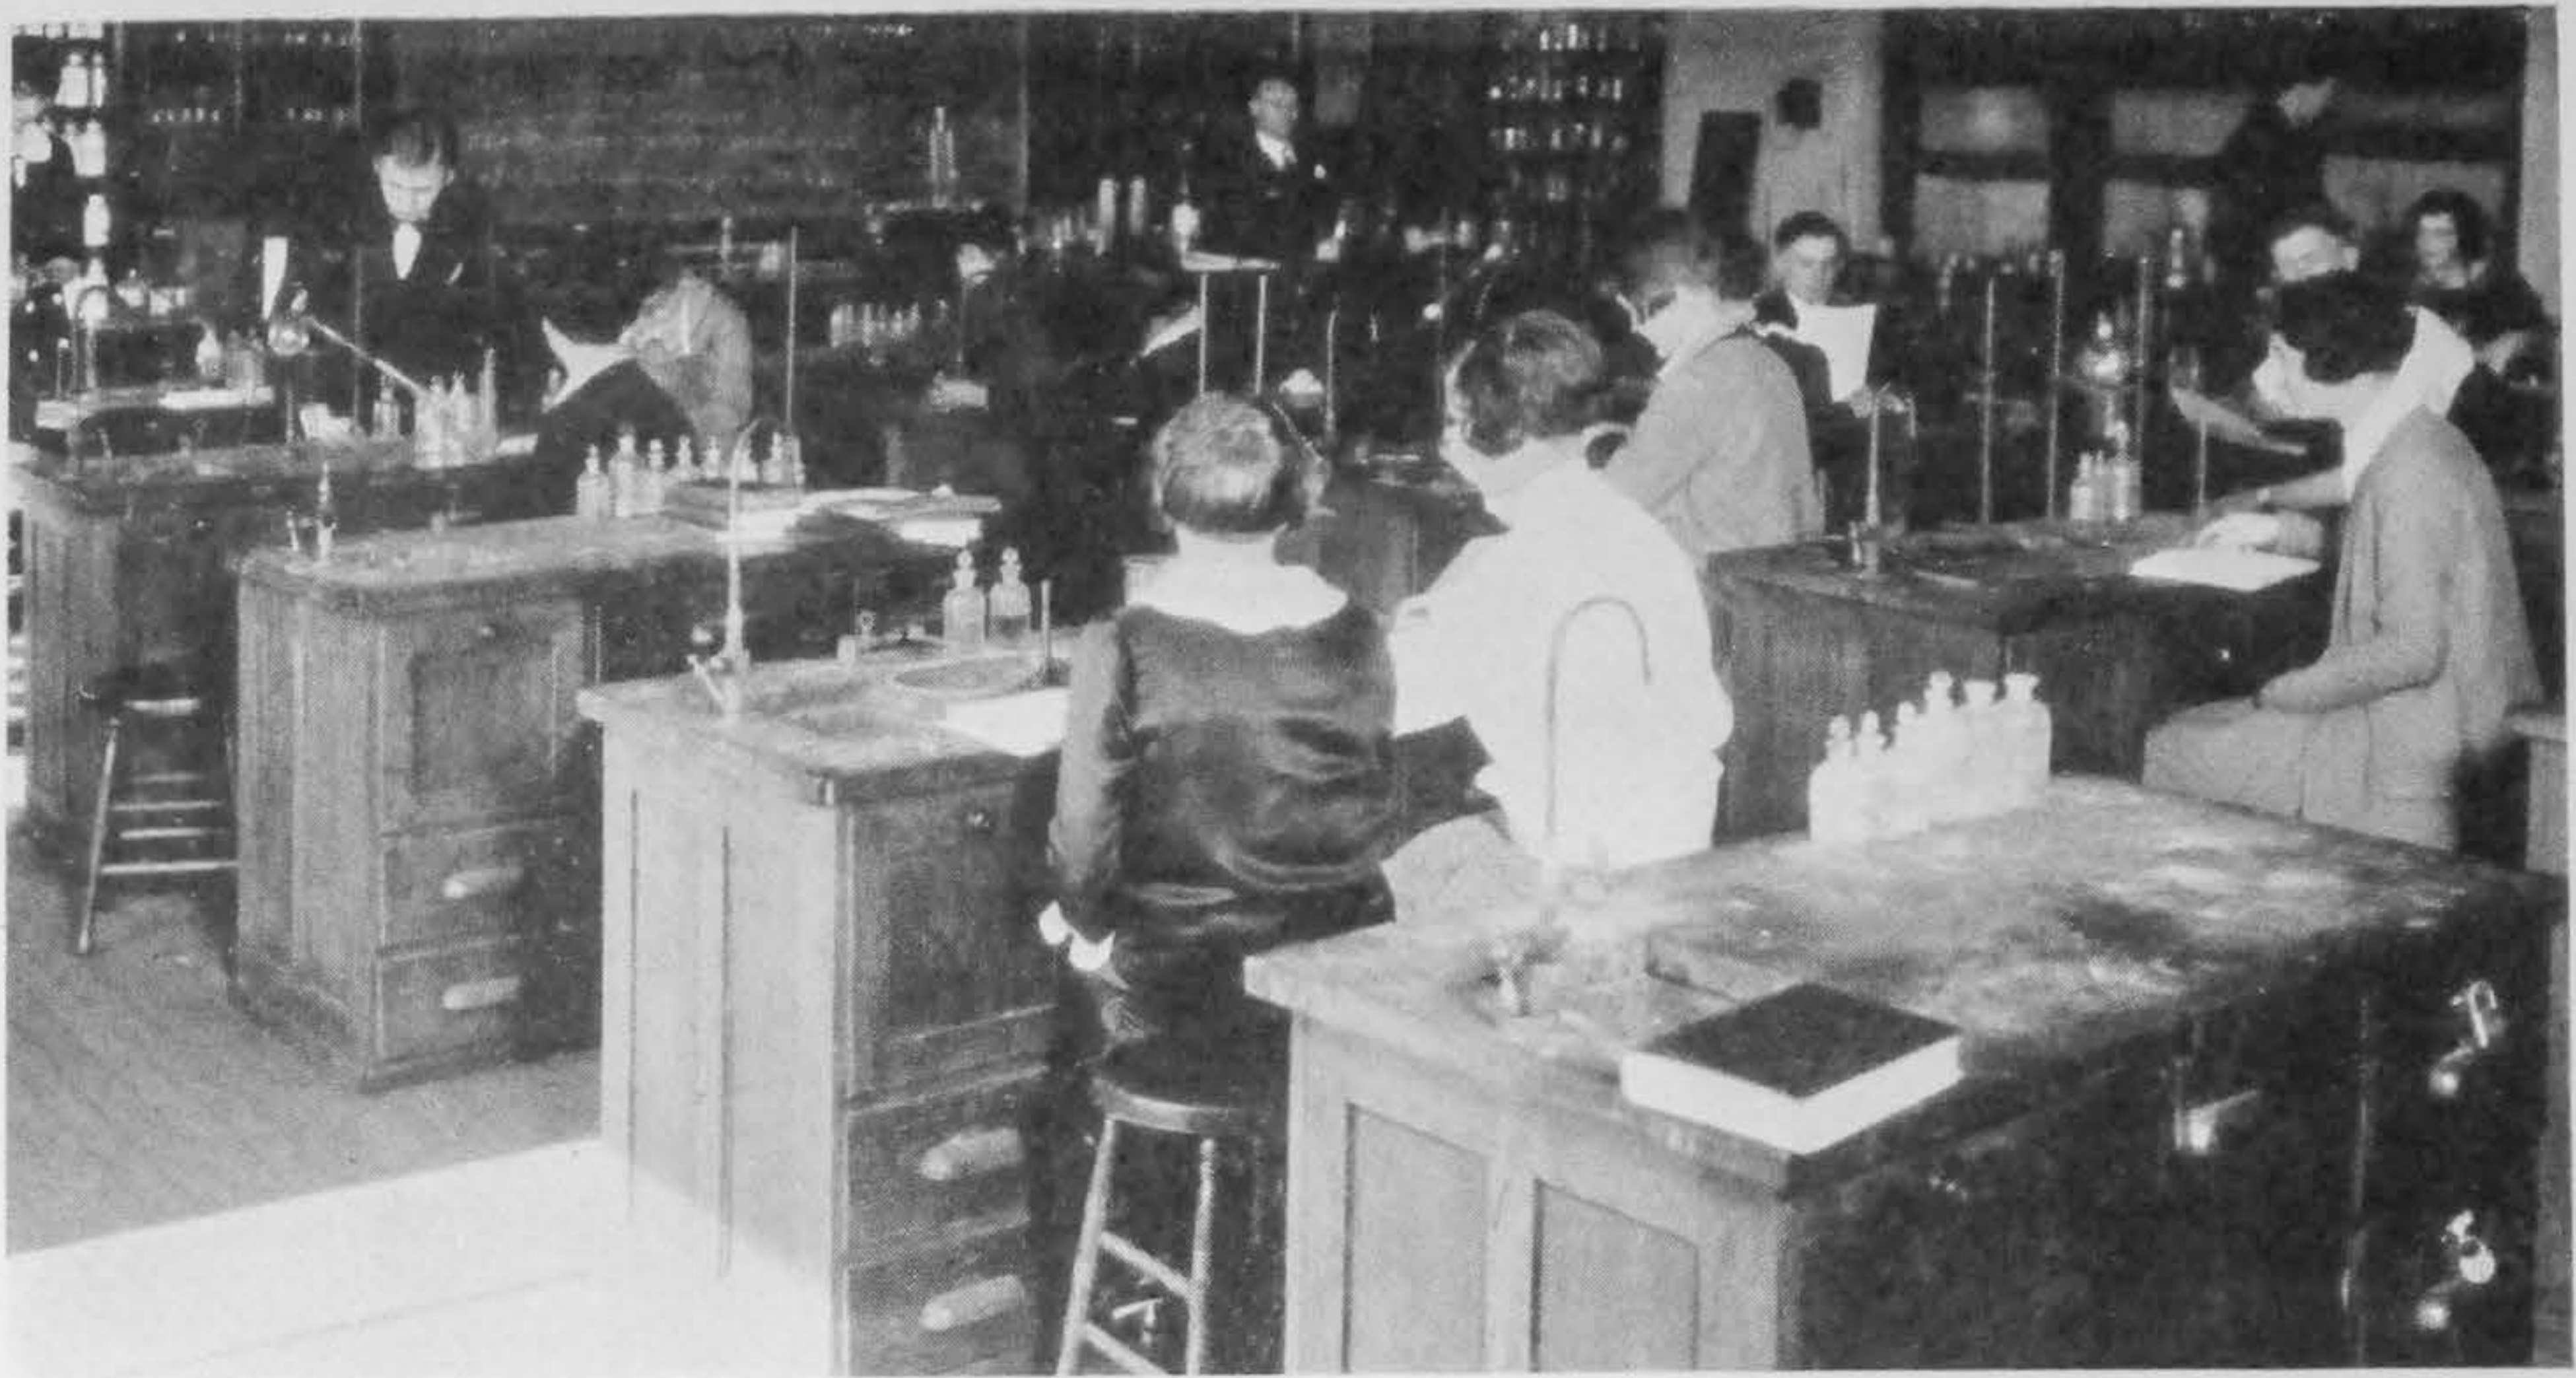

The beginning of Portsmouth was the end of Alexandria. Each building abandoned in the first settlement meant a new one in the second; each citizen leaving made a gap which no incoming citizen filled.

The first settlers of Portsmouth built in the very southwest corner near the isthmus. Here bustling old Elijah Glover erected and kept the first tavern, one end of which later became a bookstore and printing shop. Nearby was the first village store. The court shifted from place to place. At one time it was held in the room of a private home; at another in the warehouse, and sometimes in the copper shop of David Gharky. The business of the entire town was transacted in this southwest corner; and, when, a few years later, an enterprising far-sighted man erected a business building on what is now the corner of Market and Front, he was pronounced a fool. Little did those people realize that, in a comparatively short time, Portsmouth would stretch for miles along the Ohio River.

Portsmouth was incorporated in 1814, by an act of the State legislature. Councilmen and the town marshall were elected, necessary rules and regulations were drafted, and Portsmouth started on its never ceasing advance.

Buildings sprang up with ever-increasing rapidity. A courthouse, a jail, a huge three story brick building—the upper story of which was used as an amusement hall—were followed by a large frame building which was soon converted into a hotel.

In the meantime industry was exerting itself and factories were springing up. The first cotton spinning factory, established in 1818, was followed by a flour mill during the same year, and a little later came a banking establishment. Today Portsmouth has such large corporations as: The Wheeling Steel Corporation, The Vulcan Last Company, The Solvay Coke Company, the Selby, the Drew, and the Excelsior Shoe plants.

BUILDING AND EQUIPMENT

Our school system is one of which Portsmouth may well be proud. From a small single building, it has grown, until at the present time, there are fourteen grade schools, two rural schools, and two high schools, with an enrollment of approximately nine thousand students.

The present Portsmouth High School is a three story building. In the basement of the school are located: the cafeteria, which accommodates over two hundred and fifty, the old gymnasium, the machine shop, the engine and boiler rooms, a locker room, and two rest rooms.

On the first floor, there are nineteen rooms, twelve of which are home and class rooms. The others are the athletic director's office, the office of the superintendent of schools, a boys' rest room, a girls' rest room, and a girls' locker room, containing two hundred and ten lockers. The auditorium, with a seating capacity of one thousand, and the fine new gymnasium are also found on the first floor.

The library, the principal's office, the print shop and two class rooms occupy the south side of the second floor. Nine other classrooms, five rest rooms, the woodshop, the balcony of the auditorium, and a study hall with seating capacity for two hundred and twenty-five students take up the remainder of the second floor.

The third floor of the building contains sixteen classrooms, one rest room, a finishing room for woodshop work, and a study hall with the same capacity as that on the second floor.

SCIENCE AND MATHEMATICS

The courses in science at Portsmouth High School consist of general science, physics, and chemistry. The aim of all three is the same; namely, a search for truth. Two types of scientists are in the profession today. The first is the true scientist, who searches for new truths; while the second is the industrial scientist, who applies these truths. The science courses of the school endeavor to blend the two types of scientific work so as to give the greatest value to the students.

The mathematics courses of the school are: elementary algebra, advanced algebra, plane and solid geometry, and business arithmetic. These subjects are taught, not solely that the students may learn the principles of each, but that they may train their minds to solve some of the problems of everyday life.

HISTORY AND LANGUAGE

HISTORY: The history course consists of ancient, modern, and American history, and civic government. The course is taught with the idea in mind of comparing past events with modern problems and of obtaining various points of view. The advantages and the disadvantages of earlier generations are emphasized in such a way that they may be an aid to the present generation. The sources for study and observation are reference books in the library, map books, wall maps, scrap books, in which the contributions of the students are placed, and relics, which are put on exhibition. As history is a basis for all other subjects, it must be studied with interest and precision. American history and civics are required in all courses.

ENGLISH: Rhetoric, composition, literature, grammar, and the classics are studied in the English course. Literature is made use of in developing the moral life of the student, in arousing his intelligence, in appealing to his emotions. Scrap books are prepared to incite a spirit of co-operation, projects are made to create individuality, and bulletin boards are established to give information pertaining to English and the makers of English. Four years of English are compulsory in all courses.

LANGUAGES: LATIN: Four years of Latin, or two years of Latin and two years of Spanish or French may be taken. The subject matter and mythology are closely studied in order that the student may get a clear idea of the lives and habits of the ancients. The teacher strives to have the pupil compare and contrast the government of the times of Caesar and Cicero with that of the present day. Caesar's account of the conquest of Gaul is the most complete view of the life of the military man. Latin is an excellent background for literature and makes us realize our great debt to Roman civilization and the Roman language. The study of constructions inculcates good habits, especially of accuracy and close application.

FRENCH AND SPANISH: A two years' course in French and Spanish is offered. These languages are studied with the idea of developing an interest in France and Spain, and to aid the pupil in possible future travels.

Latin, French, and Spanish Clubs have been organized in our school to arouse interest and co-operation.

VOCATIONAL ARTS

The three principal departments in the Vocational Business Course of Portsmouth High School consist of stenography, typewriting, and bookkeeping.

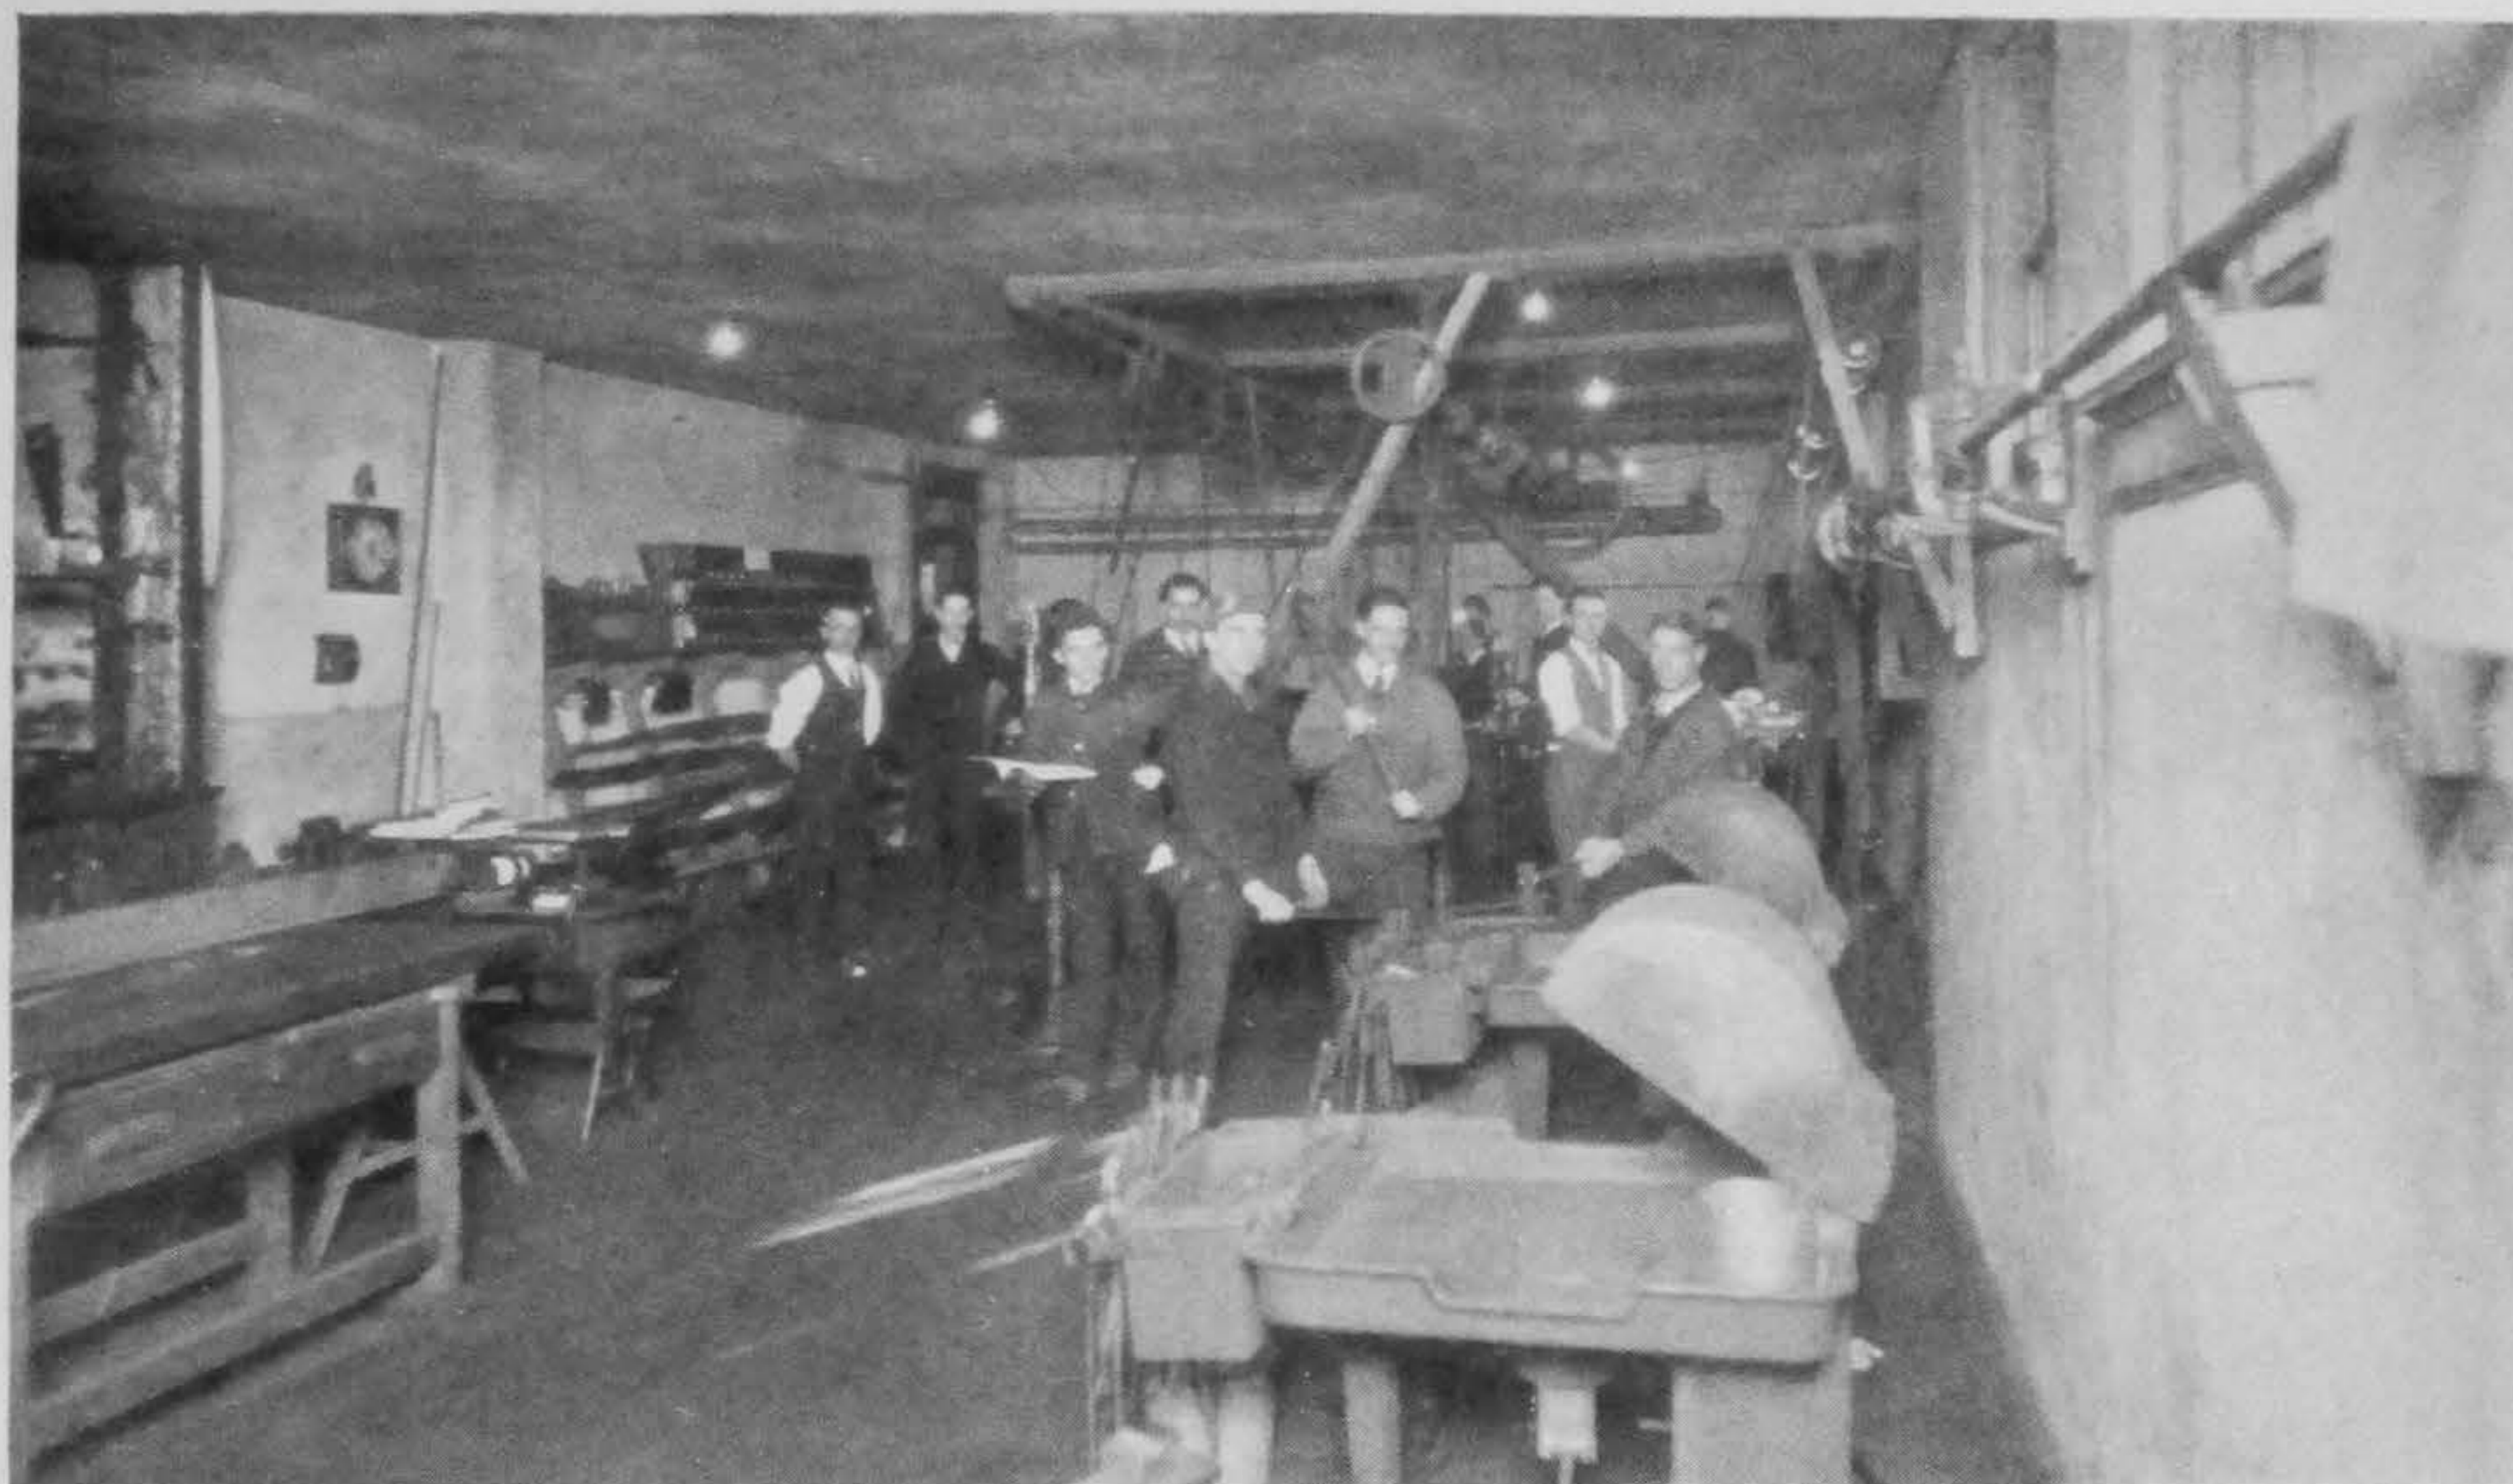

Stenography is in charge of Mr. Leach. The best known organization in the stenographic world is that of the O. G. A. (Order of Gregg Artists.) A number of students have passed a membership test and are members of O. G. A. The required test consists of transcribing a certain amount of reading material into shorthand. The transcription must be perfect, in every way, before one receives a certificate.

Typewriting is carried as an extra by more of the students than any other subject. In studying typewriting, one learns to use all kinds of typewriters, to properly compose, punctuate, fold, and address business letters; and to use speed and accuracy with great advantage.

Bookkeeping is taught by Mr. Diehl. The leading requirements are neatness and accuracy. The modern method "Twentieth Century Bookkeeping" is taught. At the end of each term, the pupils who make an average of seventy are given certificates, those who have an average of eighty-five or more during two years are given a certificate of proficiency. All certificates are obtained from the state.

HOME ECONOMICS

The general idea of the Home Economics Course is to present to students, not going to college or intending to teach this course, a general knowledge of home making. College credit is allowed for this part of the high school work. This course includes not only sewing and cooking but also study of foods and real planning and preparation. The clothing work includes the study of textiles, the selection and purchase of materials, the study of costume design, the actual dress construction, and the principles of art. During the second year, the problems of house furnishing are studied. These include decorating interiors, house planning, and arrangement of furniture to the best advantage. Home economics further teaches the business of the household budgeting and disbursement of finances; that is, the purchasing of equipment of all types for the home. When one finishes the course, one is supposed to be able to care for the home, both economically and aesthetically.

MANUAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

MECHANICAL DRAWING: This is a subject that affords four years of interesting work in the mechanical line of drawing. The first two years are used for the purpose of teaching the pupil the fundamentals of the work. These include lettering, projections, revolutions, isometric and oblique views, the cabinet type of drawing, and the use and care of drawing instruments.

The third year is devoted to the truly mechanical phase of the subject. Surface development, machine details, tracing, and the making of blueprints compose the work for this year.

The fourth year is given to architectural and classical drawing, respectively. During this year, the pupil is permitted to select his own project, providing it be within his scope of actual experience.

WOODWORK: This is a two years' subject, and along with machine shop, makes up the other division of the Manual Arts Department. It is the first type of work taken up, and runs along alternately with the drawing. The first year deals with the use and care of tools, a course in joint making, a course in spindle turning, and a certain amount of work which is devoted to the school.

During the second year, the details of finishing are taken up. An extensive course in the use of machinery and tools, a short course in carpentry, and a course in fiber weaving are also given. The pupil selects his own project which, when completed, he is allowed to keep.

MACHINE SHOP: This subject is given for students of the last two years of high school. Like woodwork, it is run alternately with drawing. The first year is taken up with the use and care of machinery, with a course in forging, and with a course in the making and sharpening of tools.

The second year is devoted to projects. The student may make anything that can be turned out in the shop. A course in bench work is also given, including filing, soldering, and thread cutting. The work done here, as well as in the Woodshop, is vocational.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

The Social Sciences taught in the Portsmouth High School are: economics, civics, industrial history, commercial history, and business law.

Civics is a major subject in all courses, as it is a state requirement. Civics is considered essential, for its principles are useful to the student, not only after he goes out into the world, but also during his school days.

Economics, a minor subject, tries in a scientific way to explain the activities of mankind in securing a living; to study man as a wealth-getter and a wealth-user.

Industrial history is a major subject in the Commercial Course. It deals with the production of the necessities of life and provides a very necessary knowledge for those who are contemplating entering the business world.

Another social science taught in the Commercial Course is commercial history. It deals with the addition of place and time utilities to goods—the transportation of necessities to the places of consumption.

Business law, a major subject in the Commercial Course, is of great importance to those students who will later enter the business world, as it deals wholly with that section of the law which governs business relationships of all kinds.

TO '27

Sitting alone I think of you. My thought,
 Like the first venturesome bluebird of the spring,
 Leads on a train of others, and they sing
 Themselves into my soul till there is wrought
 A vision not less glorious than unsought.
 Because of mercy and of ministering
 That ardent hearts and hands like yours can bring
 I see the dizzy world grow less distraught.
 From monad upward, long and wearily
 Groped life; till man uprose and spoke, and long
 Wrought lever, hammer, wheel and keel and plow.
 Justice and peace he knows but fitfully;
 Our lances splinter on the shield of wrong;
 Outdo us dotards, you who challenge now.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Junior Class Colors: Green and Silver Flower: Violet
 Faculty Advisor: Mr. Queener. Motto: "Actions speak louder than words."

Our present junior class enrolled in P. H. S. as freshmen in September, 1924. After having the usual freshman difficulties, we elected the following class officers: President, James Bannon; Vice-President, Esther Reeg; Secretary, Louis Baker; Treasurer, Wayne Donaldson; and Faculty Advisors: Mr. Queener and Miss Nourse. That year our class held two parties, one each semester, which were both very enjoyable and memorable occasions. Our freshmen girls' basketball team showed their spirit and won each of a series of nine class games, thus making themselves champions of the school.

As sophomores we elected early in the year: James Keever as president, Richard Zoellner as vice-president, Samuel Adams as secretary, and Edith Dopps as treasurer. Miss Nourse did not return to school this year, consequently Mr. Queener took charge of the class himself. Most prominent in our sophomore achievements was our debate team. Nellie Aills and Wayne Donaldson were chosen to compose the affirmative, and Clara Shaffer and Carl Tucker represented the negative team. We enjoyed a class party the last semester, when the sophomores turned out for their one social affair.

Now we are juniors and our class has had many problems confronting it. We elected our officers as the first work of the season. President, Donald Porter; Vice-President, William Meixner; Secretary, Clara Schaffer; Treasurer, Paul Hamer. Our class jewelry was selected next and everyone was well pleased with the choice. On December 3, we held a dance in the gym which was open to the whole school. This was given in order to reimburse our treasury for the event of the spring, the Junior-Senior banquet. This dance will linger long in the happy memories of all. Our next act was to revive a news sheet in our school. Instead of being in magazine form, it is published in newspaper form. We named this paper "The Echo," and it truly proved to be an echo of the school and its affairs. We are planning also to give a play this year. Our class is again well represented in debate. Nellie Aills, Wayne Donaldson, and Ruth Zoellner are on the Varsity team this year.

We are now looking forward to our next and last year in P. H. S., which we hope will be bigger and better than any year so far. K. KELSO, '28.

HISTORY OF '29

"Tempus fugit"—time flies. So says Al Jolson, the world's greatest philosopher, or was it Harry Lauder—? Some foreign nobleman, anyway. And so say the Sophs of P. H. S.

One damp, dark, dreary, desolate day, one flaming, fussy, fuming day just one—well, almost two years ago, a multitude of brilliant young people representing the rising generation of Portsmouth entered the open arms of the then Sophs, Juniors, and Seniors. Did I say open? You bet I did!

Our class consisted of a group of fast and furious workers, and soon Mr. Eccles, our never-to-be-forgotten ex-principal took charge of the class and called a meeting. Here we elected our class officers (President—Richard Marting; Vice-President, Reese Lloyd; Secretary, Richard Taylor; Treasurer, Virginia Nye) and adviser, Miss Bell. These led our class through a successful year.

Coming to September 7, 1926, we find ourselves Sophomores. Mr. Hidy failed in his listing of important dates in Ancient History, to list this one, and has thereby committed an inexcusable error. For it is an ancient date, isn't it?

We started our second year under the new officers of our class, who were: Arthur DeVoss, President; Harold Whitlatch, Vice-President; Ruby Johnson, Secretary, and Russell Saxby, Treasurer. At our first meeting, it was announced that we had thirteen dollars and a large number of pennies in our treasury.

"One social affair a semester," said Mr. Lamport, and we immediately set an early date. It was a dance, the first one of the season, and from reports a very enjoyable one, indeed! A gay little tinkle was heard as Russ carried the clinking-clammering coins in a big bag to Mr. Diehl's room. All Sophs heaved a sigh of relief after Mr. Deihl wrote down in the big black book a much larger figure than previously presented by the Sophs.

In January, the latter part, a little book with hints for the students, was published by our class. From this, we did not expect to profit, as it was only done for the good of P. H. S. Only fifteen coppers were charged—just enough to cover the cost of printing.

In February—the twenty-fifth—the Sophomores presented the entertainment for the chapel period on that day. It was a clever little skit laid in a gypsy camp; costumed as gypsies and our class revealed its talents in songs, dances and acting.

Freshman Class

On the first day the Freshman came,
 Two hundred strong to make a name,
 That gallant class of '30;
 Elected officers true blue,
 Had their own song (that's something new)
 That noble class of '30;
 Had their newspaper every week:
 (Why oh why are they called meek?)
 That energetic class of '30;
 Boosted Sinhioto and Echo too
 (Without them what would those sheets do?)
 That loyal class of '30;
 Soon they'll go higher and sophomores be:
 You'll hear more of them: just you see.

320

In February of this year one hundred and ten new students entered the High School as members of the Freshman Class. This entire group has shown a great amount of school spirit, during their first semester with us and the reports of teachers as to their work are very favorable. In school activities members of this group are also to be seen. Eight or nine are members of the orchestra, having been in the orchestra of the elementary schools. As to basketball, the girls have a class team which shows more real organization than in some of the upper classes, while one boy was on the varsity squad. In short this group of students, in 320, is a very good nucleus for the class of 1931.

ORGANIZATIONS

THE ARTS CLUB

The end and aim of the Arts Club is to create and to perpetuate an interest in things artistic. Music is taken care of in the curriculum. Literary appreciation and expression are fostered in the English classes; there, too, as well as in their clubs and class plays, the devotees of the drama are able to worship at their chosen shrine.

Some day, perhaps, the existence of the other arts may be officially recognized. Speed that day. The present members of the Arts Club hope that they yet may dodder rheumatically into a P. H. S. Art Class, and with their age-dimmed eyes behold happy students doing what they themselves would like to do.

Half a loaf is better than no bread, and, even without a half-loaf, starvation may be fended off. "And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, and desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table." The Arts Club does its crumb-gathering in Room 217, the room of the blunder-headed art-lover who lends his adult dignity to their conclaves.

The membership of the club is made up of the following future movers and shakers of the world: Edward Doerr, Thomas Lloyd, William Faivre, Denver Lawson, Vernon Barton, Robert Newman, Howard Berndt, Richard Taylor, Russell Saxby, Wayne Clark, Carl Suter, Shirley Thompson, Claude Glass, Carlous Suter, John Glass, Arthur Hunter, Mitchell Hager, Paul Hilbert, Stanley White, Edward Adams, Frank Allen, Karl Williams, Elray Whitehouse, Jack Davis, Spencer Sprague, James Sprague, Bert Leach, Richard Zoellner, Robert Fuller, Albert Partlow, Gordon Fessler, John Albrecht, Stanley Randall, Homer Albrecht.

NOTE—Members of the Annual Staff wish to express their appreciation to Mr. Leach and members of the Arts Club for their aid in editing this Annual.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

On April 1st, 1927, the installation of the Portsmouth Chapter of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools took place and a long-felt need was at last realized: that of an organization to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in the pupils of Portsmouth High School. National Honor has all of these qualities. To quote the Constitution: "Membership in this chapter shall be based on scholarship, service, leadership, and character"—the four attributes of good citizenship.

BOOSTERS' CLUB

An organization needing no introduction to the high school is the Boosters' Club. Organized several years ago, it has chosen and upheld high ideals and aims. The organization takes for its members the letter winners, class officers, highest distinction pupils, and those students doing some outstanding act for the high school. The Boosters aid the various drives carried on in the high school and try to stimulate school spirit and good fellowship among the students. Not only have the Boosters helped in the Lyceum and athletic drives but acted as guides at the Southeastern Ohio Teachers Association, which activity caused much favorable comment. An organization with such high ideals and standards cannot die and its success in the future is assured to an even larger extent than in the past.

The officers for this year are: President, Hillborn Lloyd; Vice-President, Helen Stewart; Secretary and Treasurer, Robert Fuller; Sergeant, Catherine Knowles.

THE LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club consists of all those fortunates who have struggled through at least four semesters of Latin, maintaining an average of eighty in all their studies, including Latin. Now this club was not created for pastime but for a definite purpose—"to create and stimulate interest in the study of Latin and to better our knowledge of the customs and lives of the Romans."

At the first meeting of this school year, Virginia Taylor and Ruth Staples were elected as Consuls while Miriam Hartledge was elected as Secretary-Treasurer. Our first real social gathering was a Christmas party held one evening after school. The fun, the games, the passing-party, and the refreshments will long be remembered by all who attended.

Although our club has not yet done anything spectacular, we hope, under the leadership of Miss Ball, to do something noteworthy for our school in the near future.

FRENCH CLUB

Last November some of the members of the French classes met together, under the supervision of Mrs. Kyle, to organize a club. It was decided that this new organization should be known as the French Club, its purpose being to create and foster an interest in French and, so far as possible, make practical use of it.

We had only one meeting, due to the death of our beloved teacher, but at this one, great plans were made for the future and the following officers were elected: President, Marianne Moore; Vice-President, Alma Fraser Howerton; Secretary, Jean MacDonnell; Sergeant, Robert Hopkins.

The French Club was reorganized by Miss Kauffman, who took charge of our class at the beginning of the second semester.

SPANISH CLUB

"La Sociedad Espanola" was the name given to the recently organized Spanish Club, which is an organization in the High School consisting of those pupils who have successfully completed one semester of Spanish. The purpose of this club is to increase the knowledge of Spanish and to stimulate an interest in that subject. The first meeting was held in October, at which time the following officers were elected: President, Albert Burns; Vice-President, Thomas Lloyd; Secretary, Helen Bradshaw; Treasurer, Helen Stewart. At the meeting in November, a Constitution was drawn up and a name given to the club. Although the club has been inactive for some time, it has, under the supervision of Miss Canning, begun to pick up and is now progressing nicely.

NATURE CLUB

Due to many requests of the students and due to the interest shown by them for nature study, a Nature Club has been organized. This club has an enrollment of eighty members.

To every meeting the members are required to bring a specimen for study. The club takes a very interesting hike once every month.

The purpose of this organization is to further the interest of Portsmouth High School students in nature study; to create a museum for the school; and to stock and maintain a wild flower sanctuary on the Roosevelt Game Preserve.

Miss Cramer, Miss Rickey, and Mr. Leach are the faculty advisors. The officers are: President, Robert Fuller; Vice-President, Jack Bush; Secretary-Treasurer, Ruth Hopkins; Librarian, Louise Anglin, Curator, Enid Thirkettle; Corresponding Secretary, Elza Cook.

Edward Adams, Paul Adams, Elizabeth Alexander, Frank Allen, Fay Adkins, Robert Barr, Forest Berry, Helen Berry, Lillian Bond, Mildred Carr, Avonelle Carr, Phillis Clark, Ruth Flowers, Leila Gordley, Rebecca Gillespie, Howard Grisson, Herbert Green, Charlotte Gilmore, Byron Hannay, Grace Keifer, Katherine Kelso, Denver Lawson, Elmo Lilly, Burlynn Latham, Elza Cook, Silvia Copeland, Evelyn Densmore, Oscar Dempsey, Wayne Donaldson, Herman Doll, Freda Darragh, Jack Davis, Donald Elwell, Pauline Steahly, Edward Doerr, Kathryn Heath, Aubrey Osburne, Esther Pennywitt, Margaret Dehner, Don Stewart, Chester Allen, Donati Wakefield, Hillburn Lloyd, Bernice Martin, Phillis Russ, Stanley White, Helen West, Jane Pressler, Carlous Suter, Russell Saxby, James Thomas, Mary McGuire, Ruby Multer, Virginia Philips, Genevive Rambo, Charlotte Smith, Clyde Rousch, Nell Stewart, Richard Cunningham, William Young, William Faivre, Mary Alice Colburn, Evelyn DeVoss, Virginia Taylor, Helen Louise Nunley, Shirley Thompson, Margaret Thomas, Jean MacDonell, Imogene Stalder, Virginia Nye, Donald Elwell, Helen Bradshaw, Jean Cissna, Anna Hoop, Nell Stewart, Richard Taylor, Charles Moore, Ralph Hobstetter, Paul Williams, Albert Lilly.

HI-Y CLUB

To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian Character.

This creed along with the fourfold platform of: clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living have made the Portsmouth Hi-Y Club not only widely known and respected at home but also throughout the state of Ohio.

The club is directed under the leadership of the faculty adviser, Coach Hopkins and the Boys Work Secretary, Mr. E. M. Kauffman, of the Y. M. C. A. The officials and members of the club are as follows: President, James Sprague; Vice-President, Albert Lilly; Secretary, Spencer Sprague; Treasurer, Walter Matthes; Press Reporter, Lilburn Payne.

VARSITY "P" ASSOCIATION

The Varsity P Association is an organization composed of all letter winners in Portsmouth High school. This club, although not organized for the purpose of being active, gives a banquet at the end of each school year at which time the captains of all teams are elected for the ensuing year. The membership for this year was as follows: Evelyn DeVoss, Kermit Pack, William Young, Jean Cissna, George Reinhard, George Randall, Virginia Taylor, Edward Waller, Count McConnell, Myrtle Watrous, Robert Hopkins, Wayne Donaldson, Nellie Aills, Howard Doll, Hillborn Lloyd, Norma Massie, Richard Cunningham, Albert Partlow, Robert Fuller, Katherine Blake, Albert Lilly, Glen Marshall, Helen Stewart, Arthur DeVoss, Edward Brisker, Carline Hazlebeck, Jack Bush, William Myers, Dorothy Gerlach, Spencer Sprague, James Sprague, Ruth Hopkins, Chester Allen, Robert Hurth, Helen Bradshaw, Mooner Lewis, John Anglin.

The "Echo," a high school paper of this year, superseded the "Kaliko Kat," last year's magazine. It gives up-to-the-minute news, all the latest adventures, jokes, and misfortunes of P. H. S.

The "Echo" is published every other Wednesday by the Junior class, and is sponsored by Mr. Queener.

After the first two editions, a staff was chosen, which has certainly done a good job and has made the "Echo" a paper that every high school student wishes to read.

THE GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

The Girls' Athletic Club was formed for the purpose of encouraging bigger, cleaner and better athletics. The girls have made it possible for the girls' class teams to have a coach who will really teach the girls how to play. They are also planning to have tennis games with other schools.

The officers of the club are: President, Evelyn DeVoss; Vice-President, Helen Stewart, Secretary, Dorothy Gerlach; Treasurer, Esther Pennywitt.

Virginia Taylor, Ruth Hopkins, Helen Bradshaw, Kathryn Heath, Enid Thirkettle, Nell Gableman, Imogene Stalder, Helen Armstrong, Alma Howerton, Rebecca Gillespie, Mildred Carr, Carolyn Nye, Marion French, Louise Anglin, Phyllis Clark, Marion Smith, Evelyn Densmore, Virginia Nye, Norma Massie, Catherine Blake, Jean Cissna, Myrtle Watrous, Helen Berry, Marianne Moore, Jane Pressler, Aston Portis, Mary Coe, Frances Rickey, Avonell Carr, Hazel Cole, Marjorie Stevens, Helen West, Margaret Thomas, Kathryn Kugleman, Catherine Kelso, Martha Frederick.

BOY SCOUTS

This year a new Boy Scout troop, Troop 7, was organized in the school, under the leadership of Mr. Leach. At the time of enrollment, there were but twelve boys. This number grew until there were three patrols, or twenty-four boys. The troop holds its meetings at the High School building every Tuesday night.

Socially the scouts are making themselves prominent also. As yet they have taken only two hikes. Their first public appearance was in a small stunt which they put on before the school, during anniversary week. This was received with enthusiasm by the school.

Under the capable leadership of Mr. Leach, we hope to hear of more, and bigger things from the troop. Members of the troop are: Bert Leach, Scoutmaster; Carlous Suter, Assistant Scoutmaster; Norman Valodin, Assistant Scoutmaster; Richard Taylor, Senior Patrol Leader; James Thomas, Patrol Leader; Sam Kenyon, Patrol Leader; Herman Doll, Patrol Leader; Mitchell Hager, Scribe.

THE GIRL SCOUTS

What's happened to the Gypsy Vagabond Girl Scout Troop of Portsmouth High School? Why, haven't you heard? They've reorganized!

Under the able leadership of Mrs. Chappellear and Mrs. Lewis Bannon a new and different type of troop has been started. Instead of an ordinary troop with its childish pastimes, the girls are organized into a social troop. A tea was successfully staged in January. A banquet and many other social affairs are being planned.

Meetings are held every Thursday evening at seven o'clock either in the girls' gym or in the dining room.

Christine Heer, Katherine Heath, Bess Wear, Virginia Blagg, Kathleen Thomes, Gladys Alcorn, Evelyn Densmore, Mary Jo Drake, Rebecca Gillespie, Katherine Wear, Virginia Pray, Enid Thirkettle, Margaret Kelso, Margaret Thomas, Martha Grice, Buriynn Latham, Ruth Putenny.

REVELERS

There is no dramatic course in Portsmouth High School, but for those students who are interested in any phase of dramatics, a club was organized and given the name of "The Revelers." This organization is successfully sponsored by Miss Fleming, who coaches and directs its different activities.

Associate membership of this organization is determined by tryouts and active membership may be gained by some service rendered. In this way we get the best talent in the school for associate members and willing workers plus talent for active members.

This year The Revelers presented "Charley's Aunt;" and with the proceeds of this play a cyclorama, a ground cloth, a velour curtain, and other smaller details in scenery were purchased. One of the aims of this organization is to make the high school stage as modern as possible so that the plays produced can be more professional in every respect.

The officers are: President, Paul Williams; Vice-President, Robert Fuller; Secretary, Robert Oakes; Treasurer, Evelyn DeVoss. Executive Committee: Helen Stewart, Recording Secretary; Ralph Herms, Richard Cunningham, Bernice Lozier, Clover White, Jean MacDonnell.

Dolly Alger, Elizabeth Alexander, Mary Barr, Lillian Bond, Arlene Burton, Jean Cissna, Evelyn DeVoss, Louise Anglin, Mary Katherine Baker, Mary Louise Berndt, Helen Bradshaw, Emily Bush, Mary Alice Colburn, Beulah Diffin, Katherine Donohoe, Elizabeth Dunn, Martha Frederick, Margaret Gannon, Carline Hazelbeck, Ruth Hopkins, Mary Krausz, Jean Leach, Jean MacDonnell, Virginia Nye, Esther Pennywitt, Jane Pressler, Esther Reeg, Imogene Stalder, Pauline Steahley, Helen Stewart, Enid Thirkettle, Margaret Thomas, Helen Warren Clover White, Ruth Zoellner, Vernon Barton, Howard Berndt, Edward Doert, William Faivre, Paul Hamer, Robert Hopkins, Albert Lilly, Hillborn Lloyd, Virginia Donaldson, Mary Jo Drake, Marguerite Graham, Mary Hazelbeck, Katherine Heath, Matilda Kline, Katherine Kugleman, Bernice Lozier, Melba Moots, Virginia Pray, Martha Poffenberger, Elizabeth Powell, Janie Smallwood, Marion Smith, Marjorie Stevens, Virginia Taylor, Kathleen Thomas, Mildred Turner, Florence Wawsaw, Helen Whitley, Chester Allen, Jack Bush, Arthur DeVoss, Richard Cunningham, Robert Fuller, Ralph Herms, Robert Hurth, Elmo Lilly, Reese Lloyd, Thomas Lloyd, Richard Marting, Robert Oakes, Lillburn Payne, Don Stewart, Lafayette Taylor, Paul Williams, Nellie Aills, Marguerite Dehner, Norma Massie, Norma Macomber, Frances Rickey, Virginia Selby, Richard Taylor, James Thomas, Russell Saxby, James McElhaney, Walter Matthes, Aubrey Osborne, George Randall, James Sprague, Carl Tucker, William Young, Mary Coe, Anna Hoop, Bernice Martin, Helen Nunly, Phyllis Russ, Ralph Hobstetter, Beverly Horr, Robert Newman.

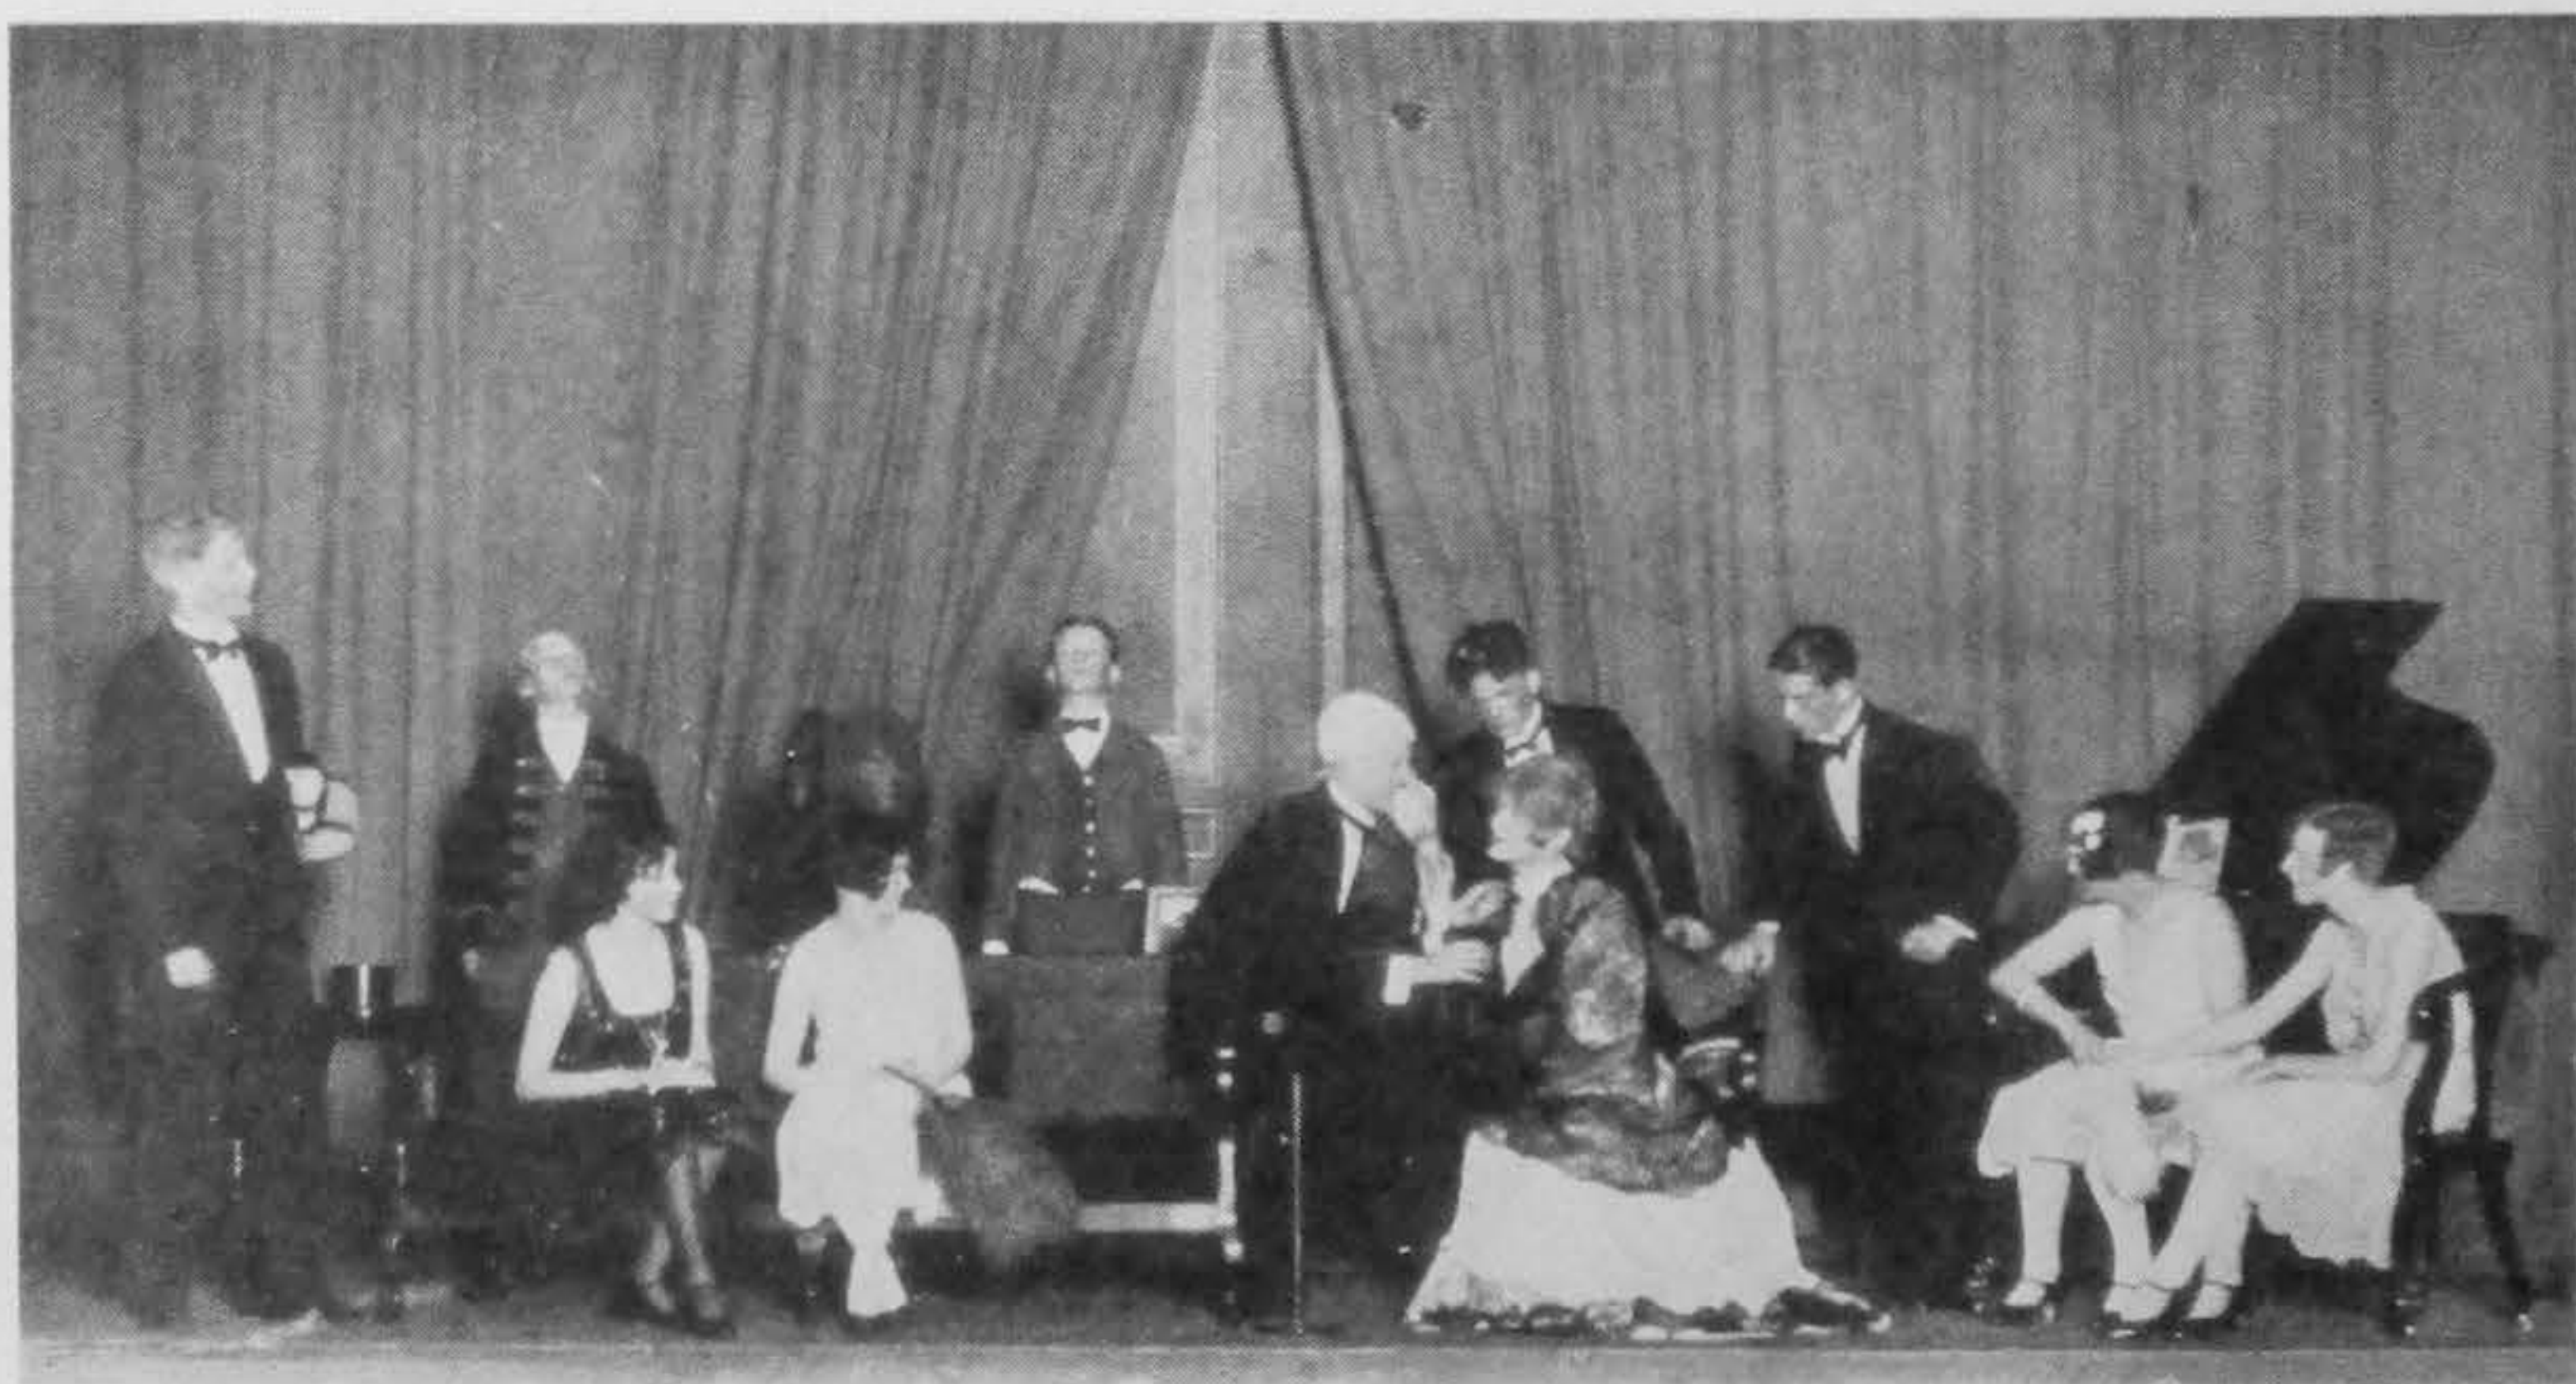

CHARLEY'S AUNT

On November 26 and 27, the Revelers Dramatic Club of P. H. S. presented Brandon Thomas' three act comedy, "Charley's Aunt." The play, one of the best comedies ever produced in our High School, was a great success. As a result, we have our beautiful velour curtain, which everyone greatly appreciates.

The play is involved in the failure of Charley Wykham's Aunt, from Brazil, to appear, arrangements having been made for a luncheon party with Charley's chum, Jack Chesney, their two friends, Amy Spettigue and Kitty Verdon, and "Babbs," the Aunt's escort. At the last minute "Babbs" is forced to play Charley's Aunt. Sir Francis Chesney appears, and later Mr. Spettigue, both of whom are entranced by the widow's many millions. After many screams of delight the real aunt appears, accompanied by Ella, a young girl whom she has befriended, and who, quite incidentally, is in love with "Babbs." The true Aunt conceals her identity until in the last scene, when all are made happy, the Aunt being a former sweetheart of Lord Chesney.

FRESHMEN

SOCK AND BUSKIN CLUB

The "Sock and Buskin Club" was organized in September, 1926, by the class of "30." The original name was "The Freshman Dramatic Club," but it was later changed. We are directed and coached by Miss Rickey and Mr. Leach. During our first meetings the club drew up a constitution and organized themselves into five groups, each having a chairman under whose guidance was to be given a little play or stunt. The officers are: President, Helen Jordan; Vice-President, Anna Grace Spencer; Secretary-Treasurer, Edward Adams; Corresponding Secretary, Eileen Ray.

Lyda Anderson, Marian Bremer, Forrest Berry, Lloyd Dodds, Oscar Dempsey, Donald Elwell, Esther Gableman, Herbert Green, Howard Grissom, Byron Hannah, Frances Krausz, Mae Lunnon, Elizabeth Lehman, James Manning, Reba Menafee, Martha Peebles, Charles Scudder, George Spreehor, Doris Staker, Frank Allen, Edna Bache, Eloise Covert, Edith Dudleston, Alice Denton, Richard Fowler, Harriet Gilmore, Alberta Guiloy, Paul Hilbert, Virginia Gunthor, Charles Kies, Earl Halstend, Eloise Martin, Mildred Multer, Kinloch Nelson, June Stetzing, Marian Schirman, Katherine Smith, Mary Taylor, Jean West, Karl Williams, Philip Millor, Geneva Mann, Clyde Rousch, Eileen Ray, Helen Bradley, Miss Frieda Beltz, Richard Fleming, Pauline Grimes, Bill Wertz, Ruth Hannah, Howard Webb, Kathleen Conroy, Estelene Widdig, Stanley White, Jean Hartley, Edith Hill, Miss Marjorie Rickey, Mr. Bert Leach, Harry Schirman, Val Heisal, Richard Beatty, Ruth Snedaker, Doris Marshall.

THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The purpose of the Girls' Glee Club is to stimulate a desire for good music in the school.

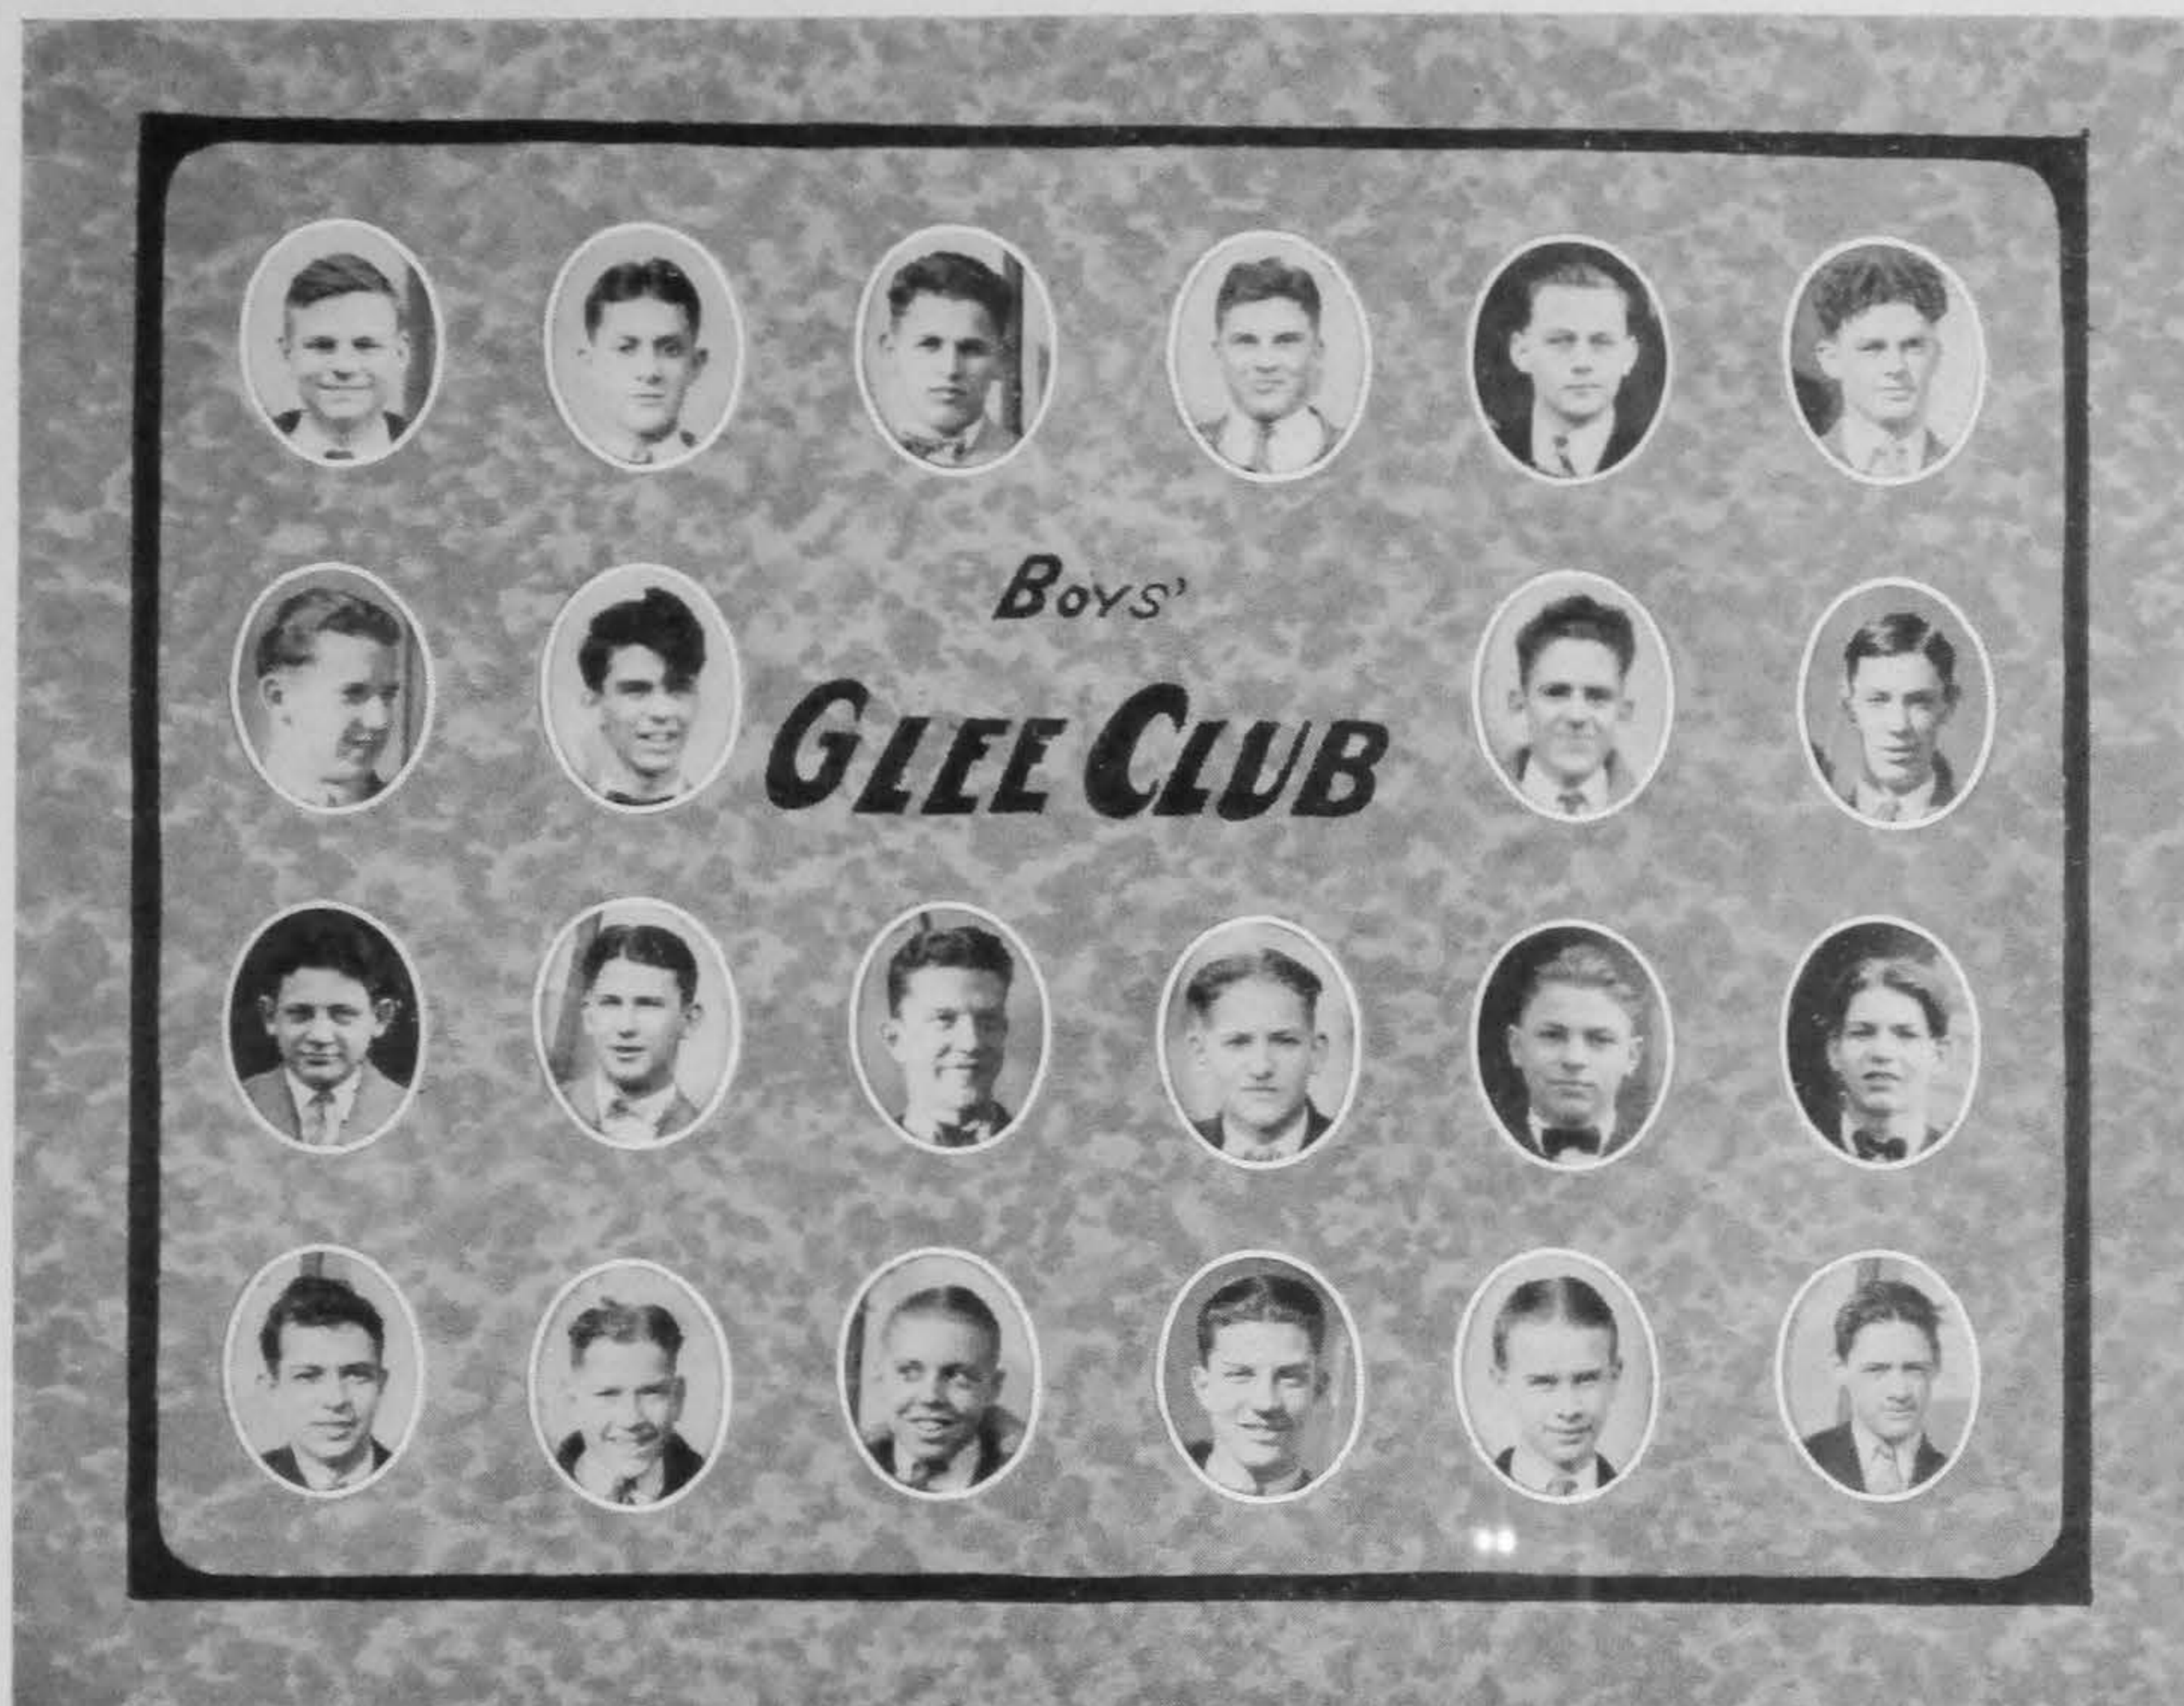

Membership of the club is determined by tryouts. Girls who take an active part in the organization are the only ones who are given the privilege of participating in the musical comedy, which is sponsored by the club.

Periodically in Assembly the combined Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs sing for the entire student body. Every year a musical comedy is presented, on two consecutive evenings. A dance is customarily given on the evening after the second performance.

"Romany Rob," coached by Miss Severinghaus, was given in '22-'23. "The Wishing Well," '23-'24, was begun by Miss Severinghaus, but because of her illness it could not be continued. "Once in a Blue Moon," coached by Mrs. Von Puffelen, was given in '24-'25. In '25-'26 "The Maid and the Middy" was given very successfully by Mr. Ende. This year "The Wishing Well" was presented February 9 and 10. With the money realized from these productions the music department has been able to purchase musical instruments including: a French Horn, Tympani, Double Bass, Musical Bells, Harmonium and Piano.

The officers of the Girls' Glee Club are: President, Helen Berry; Vice-President, Norma Massie; Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Joe Drake.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

This year the Boys' Glee Club was reorganized under the direction of Mr. Ende. During the first part of the year, this organization was rather inactive, but about the middle of January interest ran high when it was announced that the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs would give an operetta, "The Wishing Well." The main boys' parts were taken by Arthur DeVoss, Wm. Young, Albert Lilly, James McElhaney, and Hillborn Lloyd. Jim and Al certainly proved themselves to be good Irishmen on the nights of the play, February 9th and 10th.

THE ORCHESTRA

Under the supervision and direction of Mr. Elmer Ende, our orchestra has progressed markedly in many ways and with the assistance of outside players has reached a membership of forty. As this "dormant talent" was more and more developed, musical selections of a more difficult nature were attempted. The entire season and work of the orchestra will culminate in the concert to be given by the orchestra on May 13.

In instruments the orchestra is very well balanced at present except for the need of a trombonist, several violinists, and a celloist. It is made up of seven first violins, four second violins, mandolin, banjo, the bass viol, three clarinets, almost too many (nine) saxaphones—it would help all around if some one took up the oboe, five cornets, the French horn, the kettle and trap drums with the bells, the harmonium, and the piano.

Of course the part of the orchestra in the musical comedy, "The Wishing Well," is now history, and the monthly appearance in general assembly for the purpose of showing the progress made each month have become quite common. Here's to an even better orchestra season next year.

“THE WISHING WELL”

“The Wishing Well” was the name of the musical comedy given on February 9 and 10 by the combined Boys’ and Girls’ Glee Clubs of P. H. S. This operetta, which was coached by Mr. Ende, is an Irish play in an eighteenth century setting.

Money realized from these performances is used to finance the music department for the year.

The following is a synopsis of the story:

Lady Mary Donnell is the last of an old, but impoverished family. Lady Mary has paid some of her debts by mortgages which she has placed on her land. Terence O’More, who is really Terence Fitzpatrick O’Grady, the scion of a wealthy Dublin family, saves her from the plot of an evil-minded gentleman by the name of Squire Matthew Saxby. Incidentally, while saving Lady Mary, Sir Terence falls in love with her and marries her.

THE ORCHESTRA

Under the supervision and direction of Mr. Elmer Ende, our orchestra has progressed markedly in many ways and with the assistance of outside players has reached a membership of forty. As this "dormant talent" was more and more developed, musical selections of a more difficult nature were attempted. The entire season and work of the orchestra will culminate in the concert to be given by the orchestra on May 13.

In instruments the orchestra is very well balanced at present except for the need of a trombonist, several violinists, and a cellist. It is made up of seven first violins, four second violins, mandolin, banjo, the bass viol, three clarinets, almost too many (nine) saxaphones—it would help all around if some one took up the oboe, five cornets, the French horn, the kettle and trap drums with the bells, the harmonium, and the piano.

Of course the part of the orchestra in the musical comedy, "The Wishing Well," is now history, and the monthly appearance in general assembly for the purpose of showing the progress made each month have become quite common. Here's to an even better orchestra season next year.

"THE WISHING WELL"

"The Wishing Well" was the name of the musical comedy given on February 9 and 10 by the combined Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs of P. H. S. This operetta, which was coached by Mr. Ende, is an Irish play in an eighteenth century setting.

Money realized from these performances is used to finance the music department for the year.

The following is a synopsis of the story:

Lady Mary Donnell is the last of an old, but impoverished family. Lady Mary has paid some of her debts by mortgages which she has placed on her land. Terence O'More, who is really Terence Fitzpatrick O'Grady, the scion of a wealthy Dublin family, saves her from the plot of an evil-minded gentleman by the name of Squire Matthew Saxby. Incidentally, while saving Lady Mary, Sir Terence falls in love with her and marries her.

THE BAND

For several years Portsmouth High School has wanted a band composed of high school students. This ambition was realized this year when Mr. Ende, the musical director, managed to organize thirty-eight enthusiastic students who played band instruments into a first-class band. This organization was hindered by lack of finances, but this fact did not lessen the interest in it.

The band played at several of the football games this year. "Pep" was instilled in the players and crowd by it. Several alumni players were added to the band and they increased the band in volume as well as in quality.

The great hope of the organization is uniforms, which they may expect next year. A better outlook for the band is seen for next year. It's up to us to boost it.

DEBATERS

Nellie Aills—Nellie was a whiz. With her "harvest moons" and her "new mown hay" she tore 'em up.

Wayne Donaldson — Wayne surely told 'em when it came to cows in popularity contests. He was great.

Chester Allen—"Chet" was an all round debater. He was good both in constructive and rebuttal.

Robert Fuller—Bob was a wonder when putting over some fast argument. We're sorry to lose him.

Kermit Pack—Kermit was a speaker on the negative side and he easily convinced the judges that the negative was positively right.

Ruth Zoellner—When it came to tearing down the opponent's argument, "Z" was right there. She'll be with us one more year.

CHRISTMAS CHAPEL

According to the custom of our school, the Senior Class presented a Christmas entertainment in assembly on December 23rd. The play was a result of the unique originality of our sponsor, Miss Fleming.

It opened with the appearance in Santa Claus' shop of two children, who ran from one toy doll to another. Just before leaving the shop, the children wind up the Fancy Dancer, who in turn awakens the Singing Doll, and then the others are brought to life and join in on the final chorus, wishing everyone a merry, merry Christmas.

The bustle of Santa, his wife, and his helpers, the hilarity and joy of the children, and the holiday decorations quite well expressed the Christmas spirit.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

One of the oldest and most beautiful traditions of our school is the annual Junior-Senior banquet. It is a time when the two rival classes unite to proclaim peace and good feeling. Last year the Juniors went to unusual trouble and expense to properly entertain the Seniors.

The banquet was held in the gym rather than in the lunch room as in previous years. The whole idea of decoration was that of an old fashioned garden. Lattice-work of scarlet and grey, the Junior colors, surrounded the room. Flowers were placed everywhere in attractive designs, lending the fragrance, beauty, and romance of a colonial garden on a June night.

The following menu was served to the guests who formed a merry assemblage on this state occasion.

	Fruit Cocktail
Chicken Croquets	Pea Patties	Mashed Potatoes
Apple Salades	Buttered Hot Rolls
Celery	Olives	Pickles
Ice Cream	Cake
Coffee	Mints

Then the toasts were given in the up-to-date form of a radio station. The program was:

Announcer, Albert Lilly, President '27
Our Guests of Class of '26	Voice from '26 F. R. O. S. H.
Albert Lilly	Chester Allen
Voice from '26 S. O. P. H.	Lilburn Payne
Voice from '26 S. R. S.—“As We See Ourselves,	James Wilhelm, President '26
Voice from '27 J. F. R.—	Voice from '26 S. F. R.—
“As '27 Sees '26	“As the Faculty Sees '26.”
Miss M. Estella Welty	Miss Lucile Graham

After the banquet the tables were removed and dancing became the chief entertainment. Jollity ruled supreme until eleven o'clock, when according to custom, the affair came to a close.

TRACK

P. H. S. in '25 had a champion track team, but with the class of '25 most of this team graduated. Portsmouth came to the Ironton meet with almost an entirely new team, which struggled valiantly to overcome an early lead by Logan and Ironton, but were unable to do so. Portsmouth came out in third place, ranking above Athens, Jackson and Wellston, but a poor third to Logan and Ironton.

The team which Portsmouth took to Ironton was as follows: Barringer, Berry, Brisker, DeVoss, Cranston, Fuller, Gose, Lilly, Miers, Ogg, Partlow, Randall, Tracy, Wilhelm, Sprague, and Mitchell.

The following men made points for Portsmouth:

Barringer, 4th in shotput	2	Miers, 5th in 440 race	1
Brisker, 5th in shotput	1	Tracy, 2nd in 100 yd. dash	4
DeVoss, 4th in 440 race	2	Tracy, 3rd in 220 yd. dash	3
Fuller, 3rd in 880 race	3	Sprague, 3rd in 100 yd. dash	3
Gose, 1st in Javelin throw	5	Mitchell, 4th in high jump	2
Gose, 1st in Broadjump	5	Total number of points, 31.

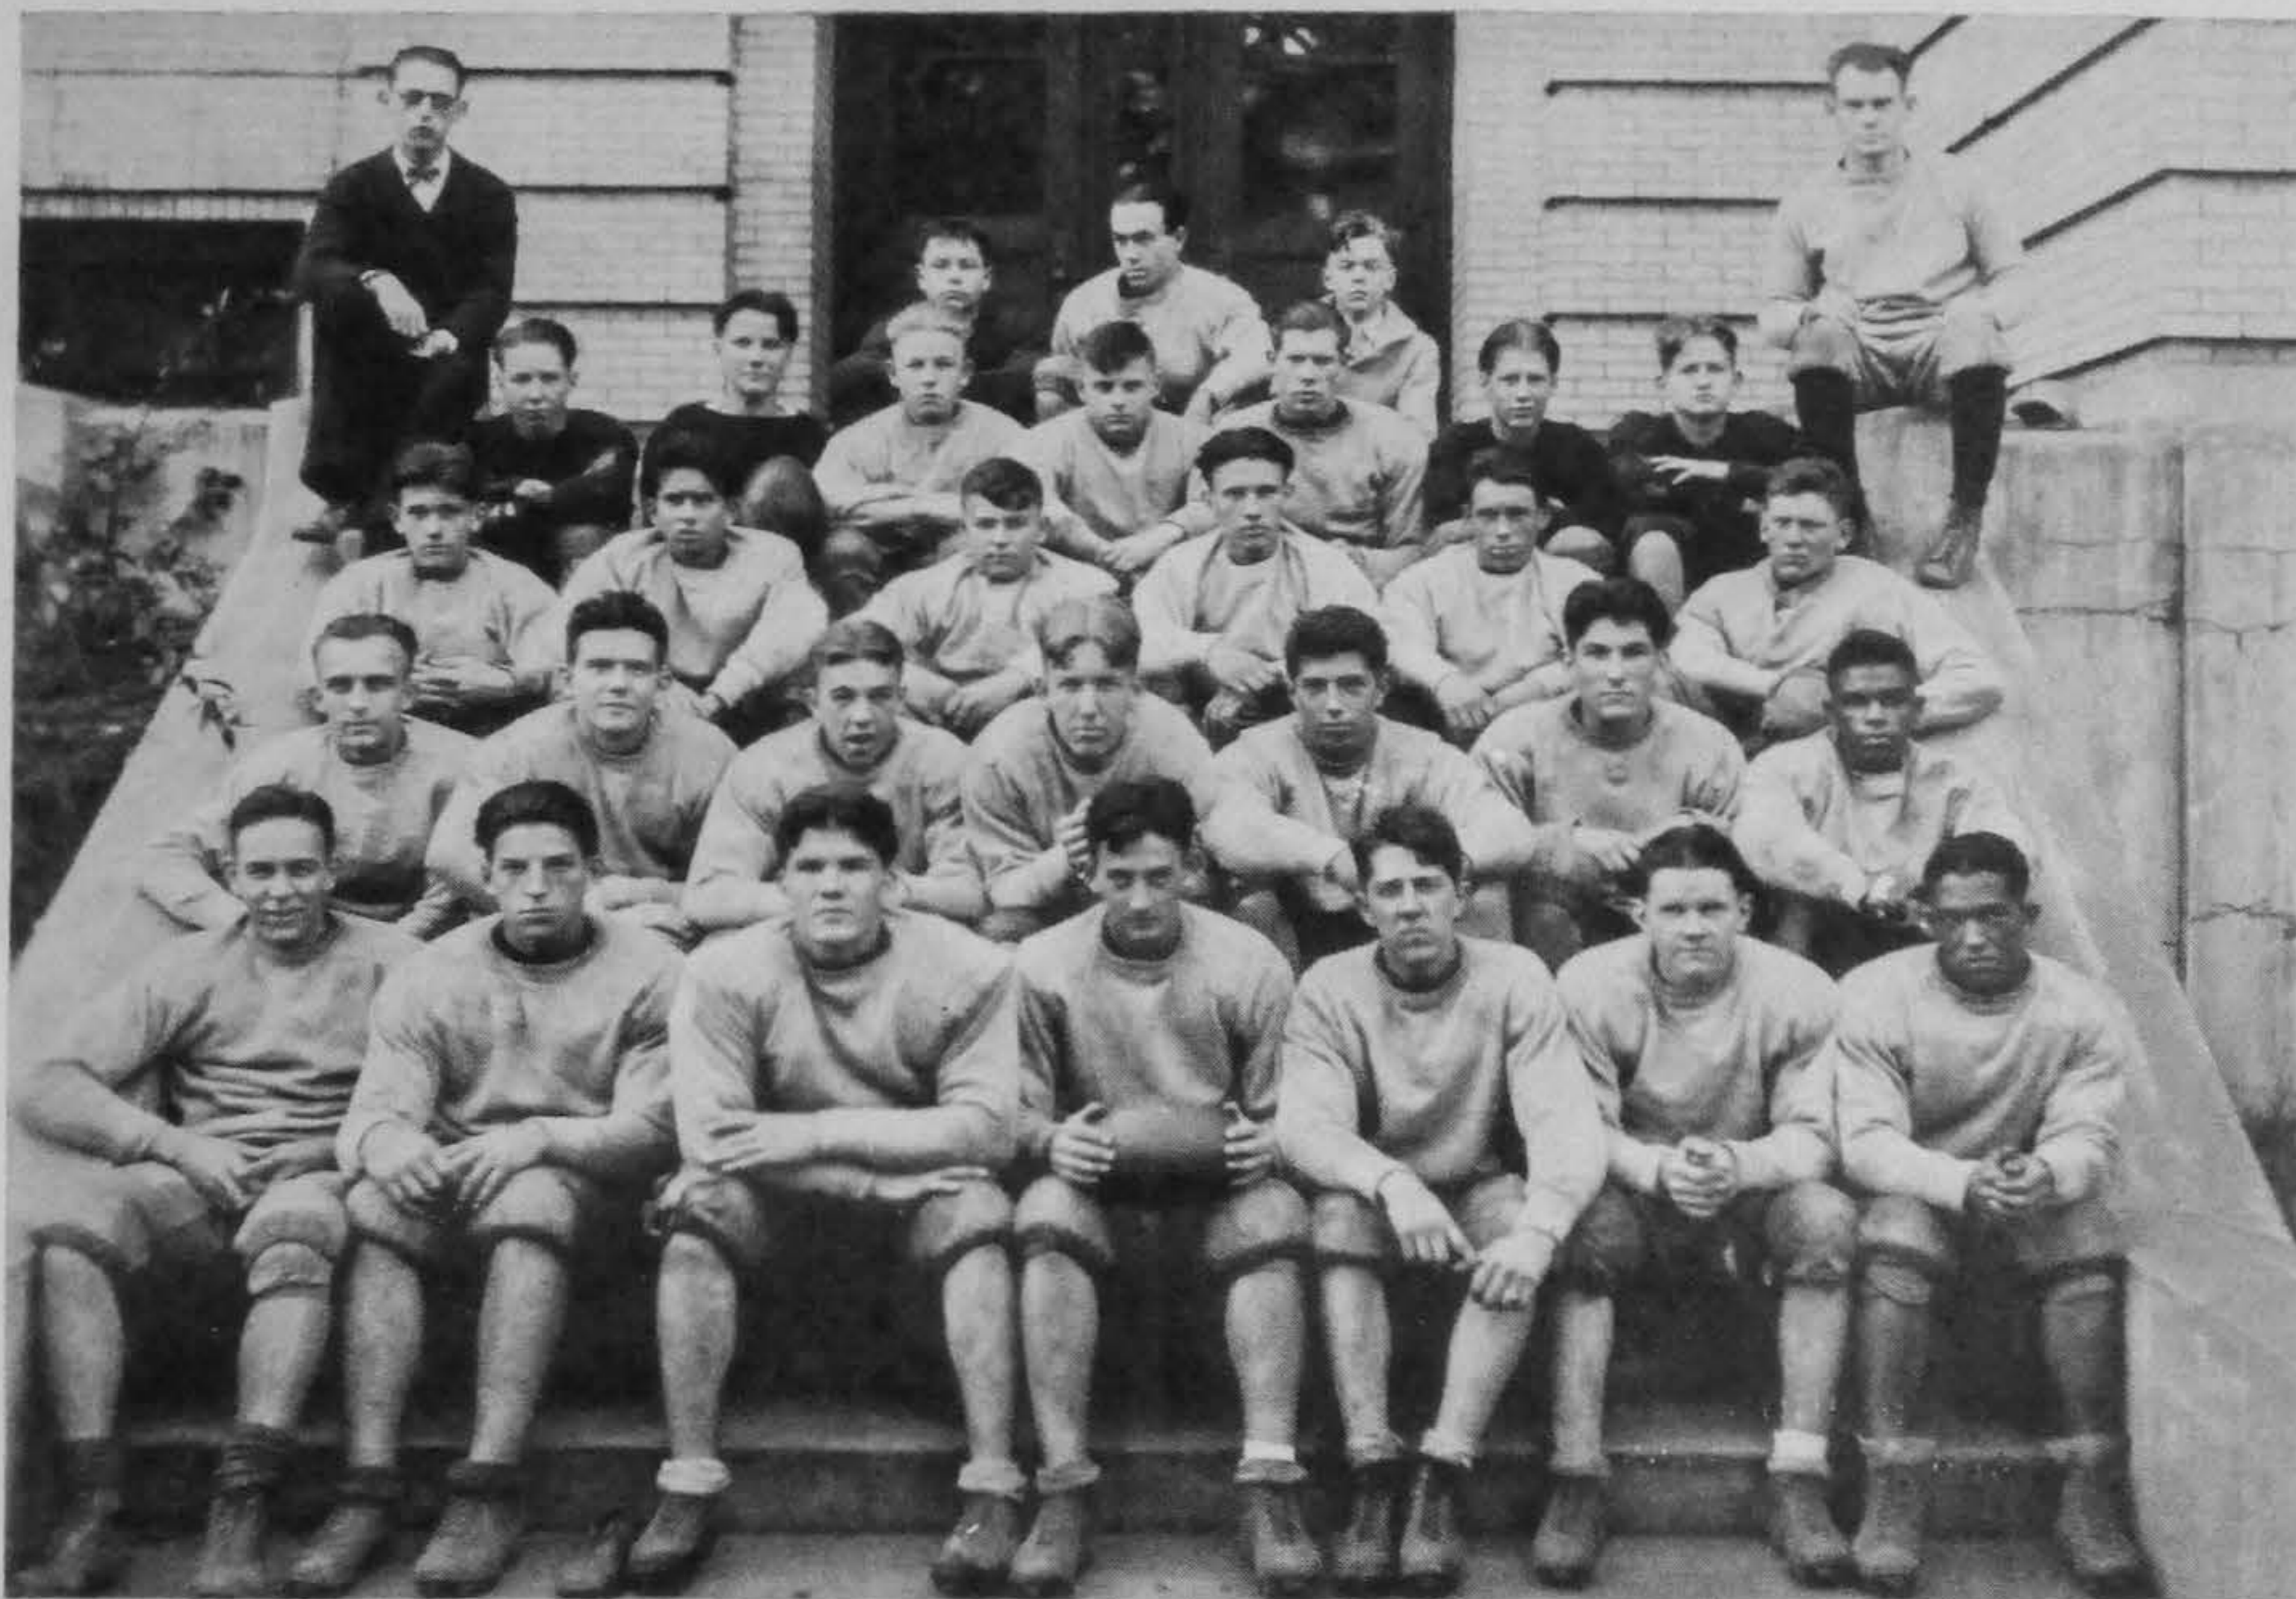

At Chillicothe, P. H. S. met all the other South Eastern high schools in a track meet to qualify for the state tournament. Competition in this meet was much stiffer, Robert Hurth being the only Portsmouth entry to qualify. Hurth won first place in the high jump. Portsmouth was fourth with 28 points. The point winners for Portsmouth were as follows:

Wilhelm, Discus	3rd place	Lewis, 100 yd. dash	5th place
Sprague, 220 dash	4th place	Gose, Broad jump	5th place
Hurth, High jump	1st place	Partlow, Broad jump	4th place
Lewis, High jump	4th place	Cranston, Hurdles	4th place
Barringer, Shotput	3rd place

Portsmouth and Ironton held for the first time what is known as a novice track meet. In this meet all competitors must be men who have not won letters. P. H. S. easily won this meet, tallying 59 points to Ironton 41. The point winners were as follows:

Tracy, 100 yd. dash	1	Fuller, 880 yd. dash	2
High jump,	1	Price, Mile	2
220 yd. dash	1	Randall, Mile	3
Lewis, 100 yd. dash	2	Partlow, Broad jump	2
Broad jump	1	Shotput	2
High jump	2	Berry, Pole Vault	2
Cranston, 220 yd. dash	3	Dunn, Pole Vault	3
Low Hurdles	1	Brisker, Javelin	3
Wilhelm, 440 yd. dash	1	High jump	3
Discus	1	Barringer, Shotput,	1
Miers, 440 yd. dash	3	Freshman relay won: Delaney, Fugitt, Price and Thompson.

FOOTBALL GAMES '26

Wellston—Our green team certainly showed Wellston that the red and blue were on the field, for they looked black and blue after the game. We won 21-0.

Ceredo-Kenova—All silver clouds contain rain. Kenova didn't play fair. They threw dust in our eyes while they made touchdowns, beating us 13-6. We'll see them next year, maybe??

Logan—Logan got out their rubber pants and swimming suits, took the ball right away from us and went on. But the brutes were ineligible and we won 1-0.

Athens—Our boys were mad. They could have beaten Ohio State that day. Poor Athens, the highly tooted team from the city of nuts, was the victim. Our boys tried hard to keep from killing them but it was useless. Athens went home licked, 6-0.

Jackson—I guess we were still mad. It seemed that the officials had to rush an adding machine and an extra bale of paper to keep track of the score. We of the sideline certainly were sorry for Jackson, and Oh! such nice mud! The boys seemed to like the taste of Labold Field, for every chance they got, they were down licking up the mud. Score 33-0.

Nelsonville—Still angry. Our boys journeyed to Nelsonville and showed the small-town boys how the game with the pigskin is played. They gave us a hard fight, but we managed to come out on the long end of a 29-6 score.

Ironton—Gee! we wish Ironton could put up a little competition at least. It was a glorious day for the red and blue. Score 47-0.

Hillsboro—The Hillsboro game was played on one of the coldest days of the year, but it didn't bother P. H. S a bit. The boys fought away with the same old fight and determination. Hillsboro played their best, but were not to be compared with our team. Score 43-0.

Columbus—We went into the South Hi game with our backs to the wall, but the old spirit kept us up. An unlucky penalty gave South Hi a touchdown and lead which we could not overcome, but it was one of the greatest moral victories the school had ever won. Score 7-0.

—R. H. S., '27.

"Jimmy" Sprague, our Captain. Jimmy is one of the fastest backs in Southern Ohio and gave a very good account of himself this season. He was kept out of several games on account of injuries. The team certainly will miss him next year.

Howard Doll, our little quarterback. "Dolly" is one of the best all-round athletes in school and football is his "big dish." He was all Southeastern Ohio quarterback. Dolly is a Junior.

"Ed" Goetz, our stellar half-back. Ed was one of the best football men ever turned out by P. H. S. If we ever needed a touchdown, the ball went to Ed he never failed. This is Ed's last year.

"Mooner" Lewis, Half back. Mooner was our fleet-footed colored lad, who never failed to gain. He was a consistent player, and his place will be hard to fill next year.

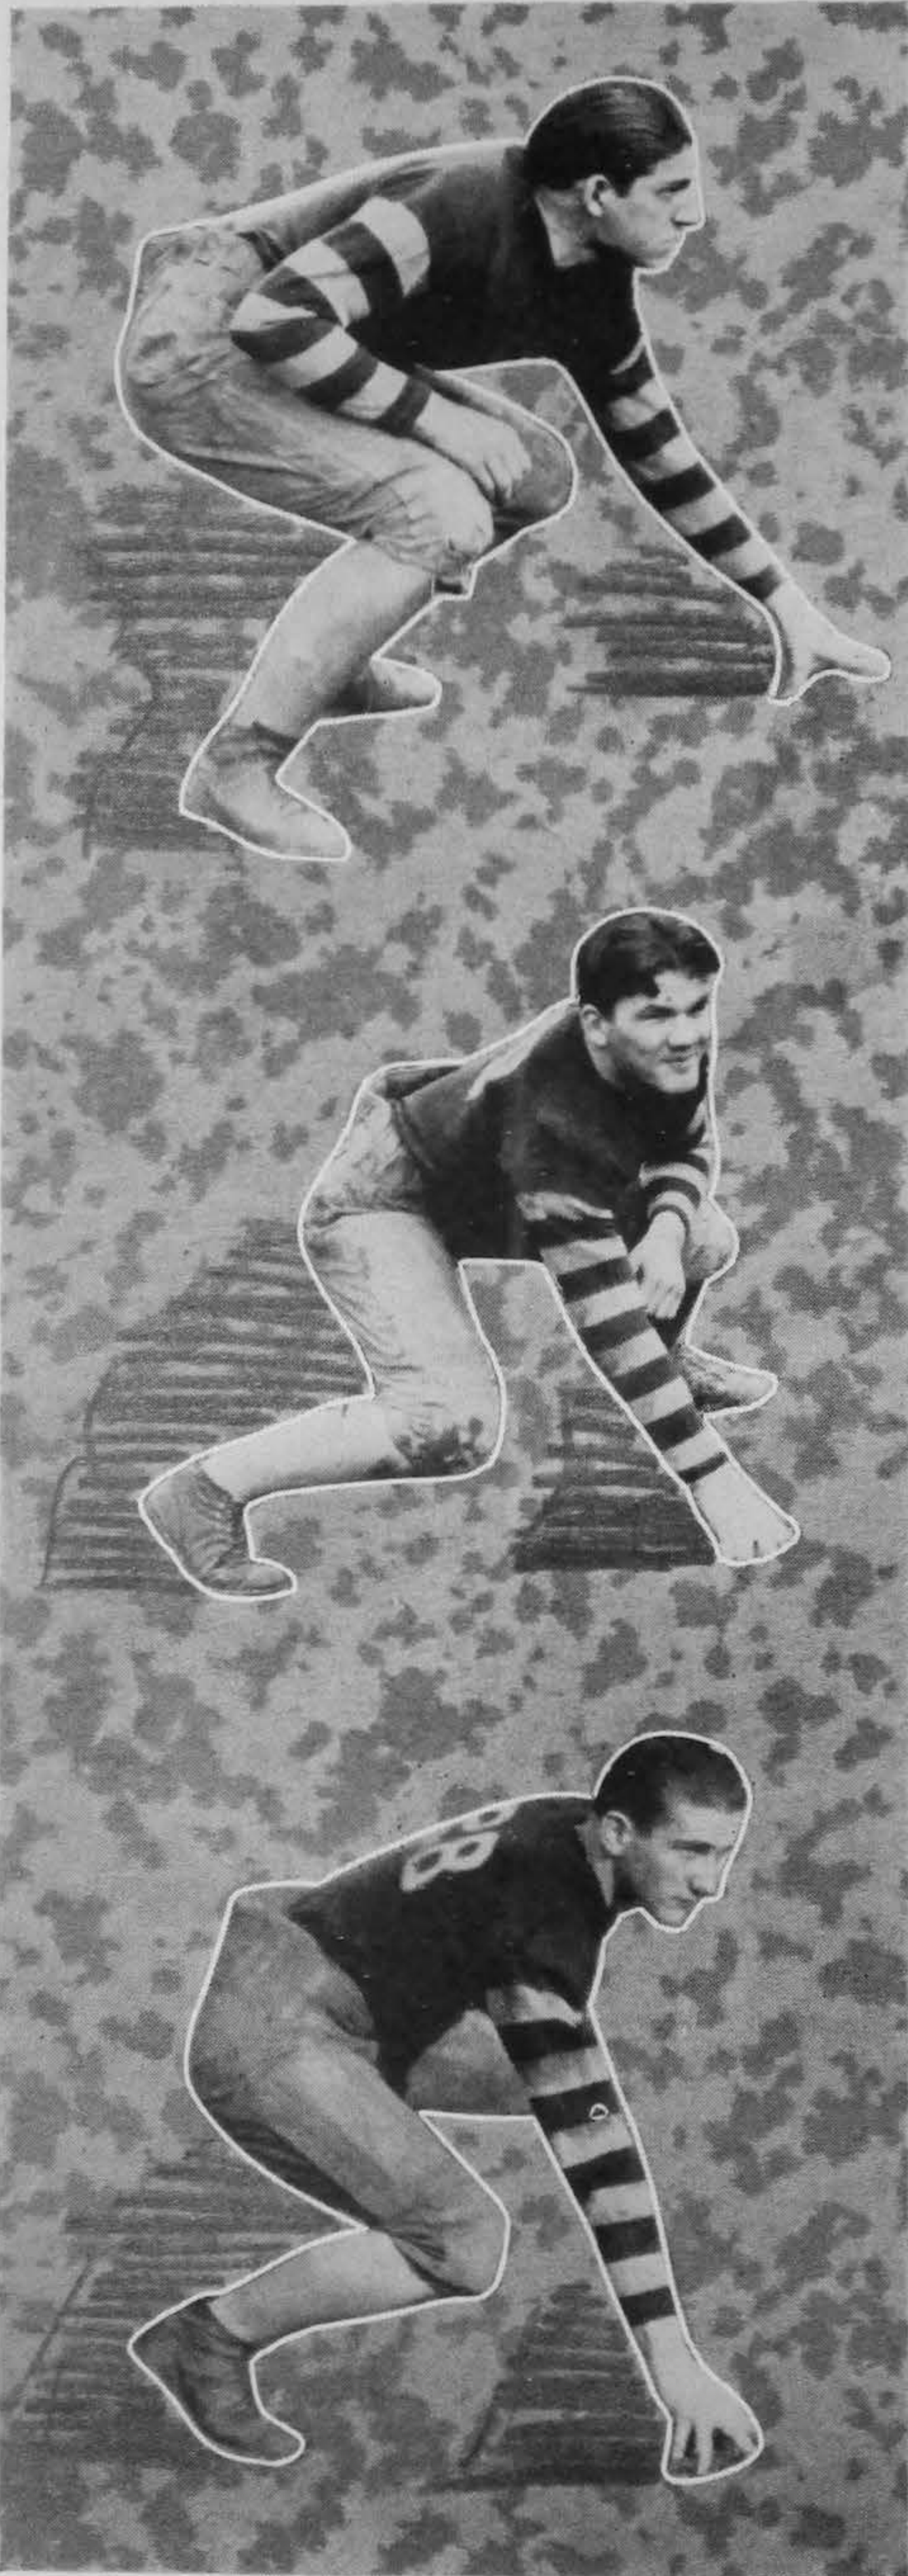

"Ox" Reinhard, our center. The best center in Southeastern Ohio was none other than our own "Oxy;" he stands six feet four in stocking feet. And tackle—say, how that boy could tackle! No team ever made anything through the center of the line.

Paul Wagner, a guard. Paul was one of the hardest fighting and hardest working men on the team. He did his share of the team's good work. Paul is a Senior.

"Pat" Mitchell, full back. Pat was our "mud-hen." He had his big days on muddy days. He was the highest scorer of the team and was half-back on the all South-eastern team. Pat will be back next year.

"Jawn" Anglin, our tackle. Johnny frightened our opponents to death when he showed his tiger face. He received a broken collar bone in the Ceredo-Kenova game which kept him out of the game for just three weeks, but when he again appeared, many subs and opponents were "carried" off the field. John is a Senior.

"Al" Partlow, our guard. If you think this lad can't guard just ask Athens. He certainly kicked up a terrible row when they tried to come through him. This is Al's first and last year with the team.

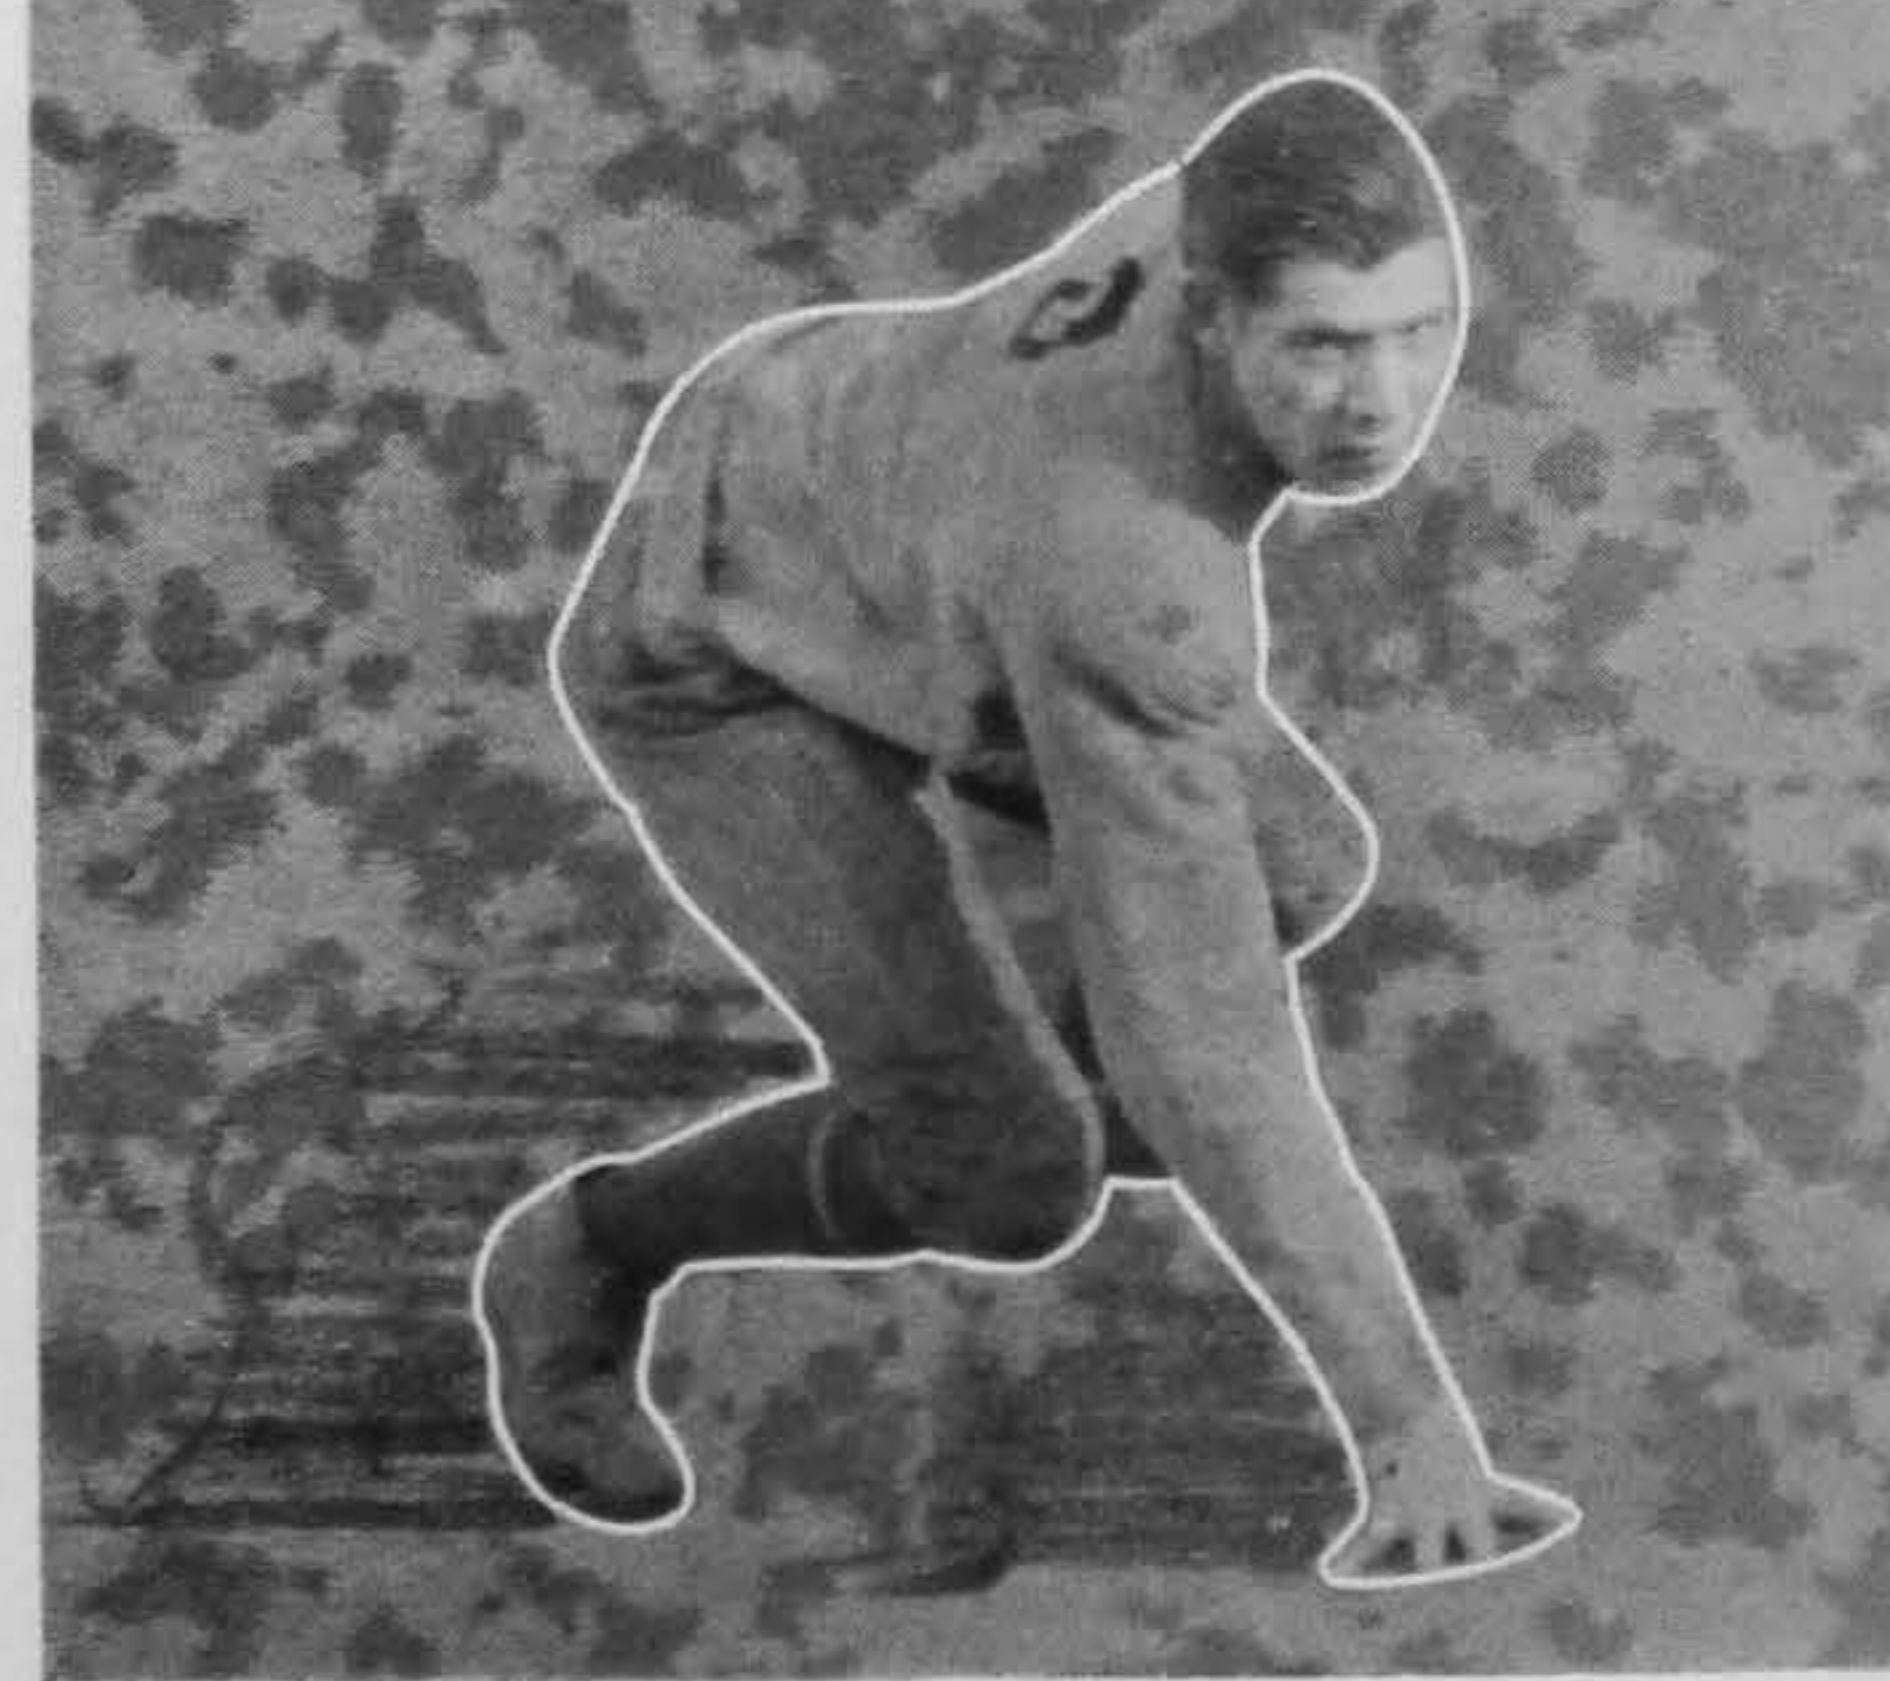

"Red" Patterson, our fighting guard. Red was one of the best guards in Southeastern Ohio. He certainly showed the opposition what a man he was. He will be with the team next year.

"Count" McConnell, another end. This lad certainly could give any end in the state a run for his money! He made some of the best tackles ever seen here. He is a Sophomore and will be with us two more years.

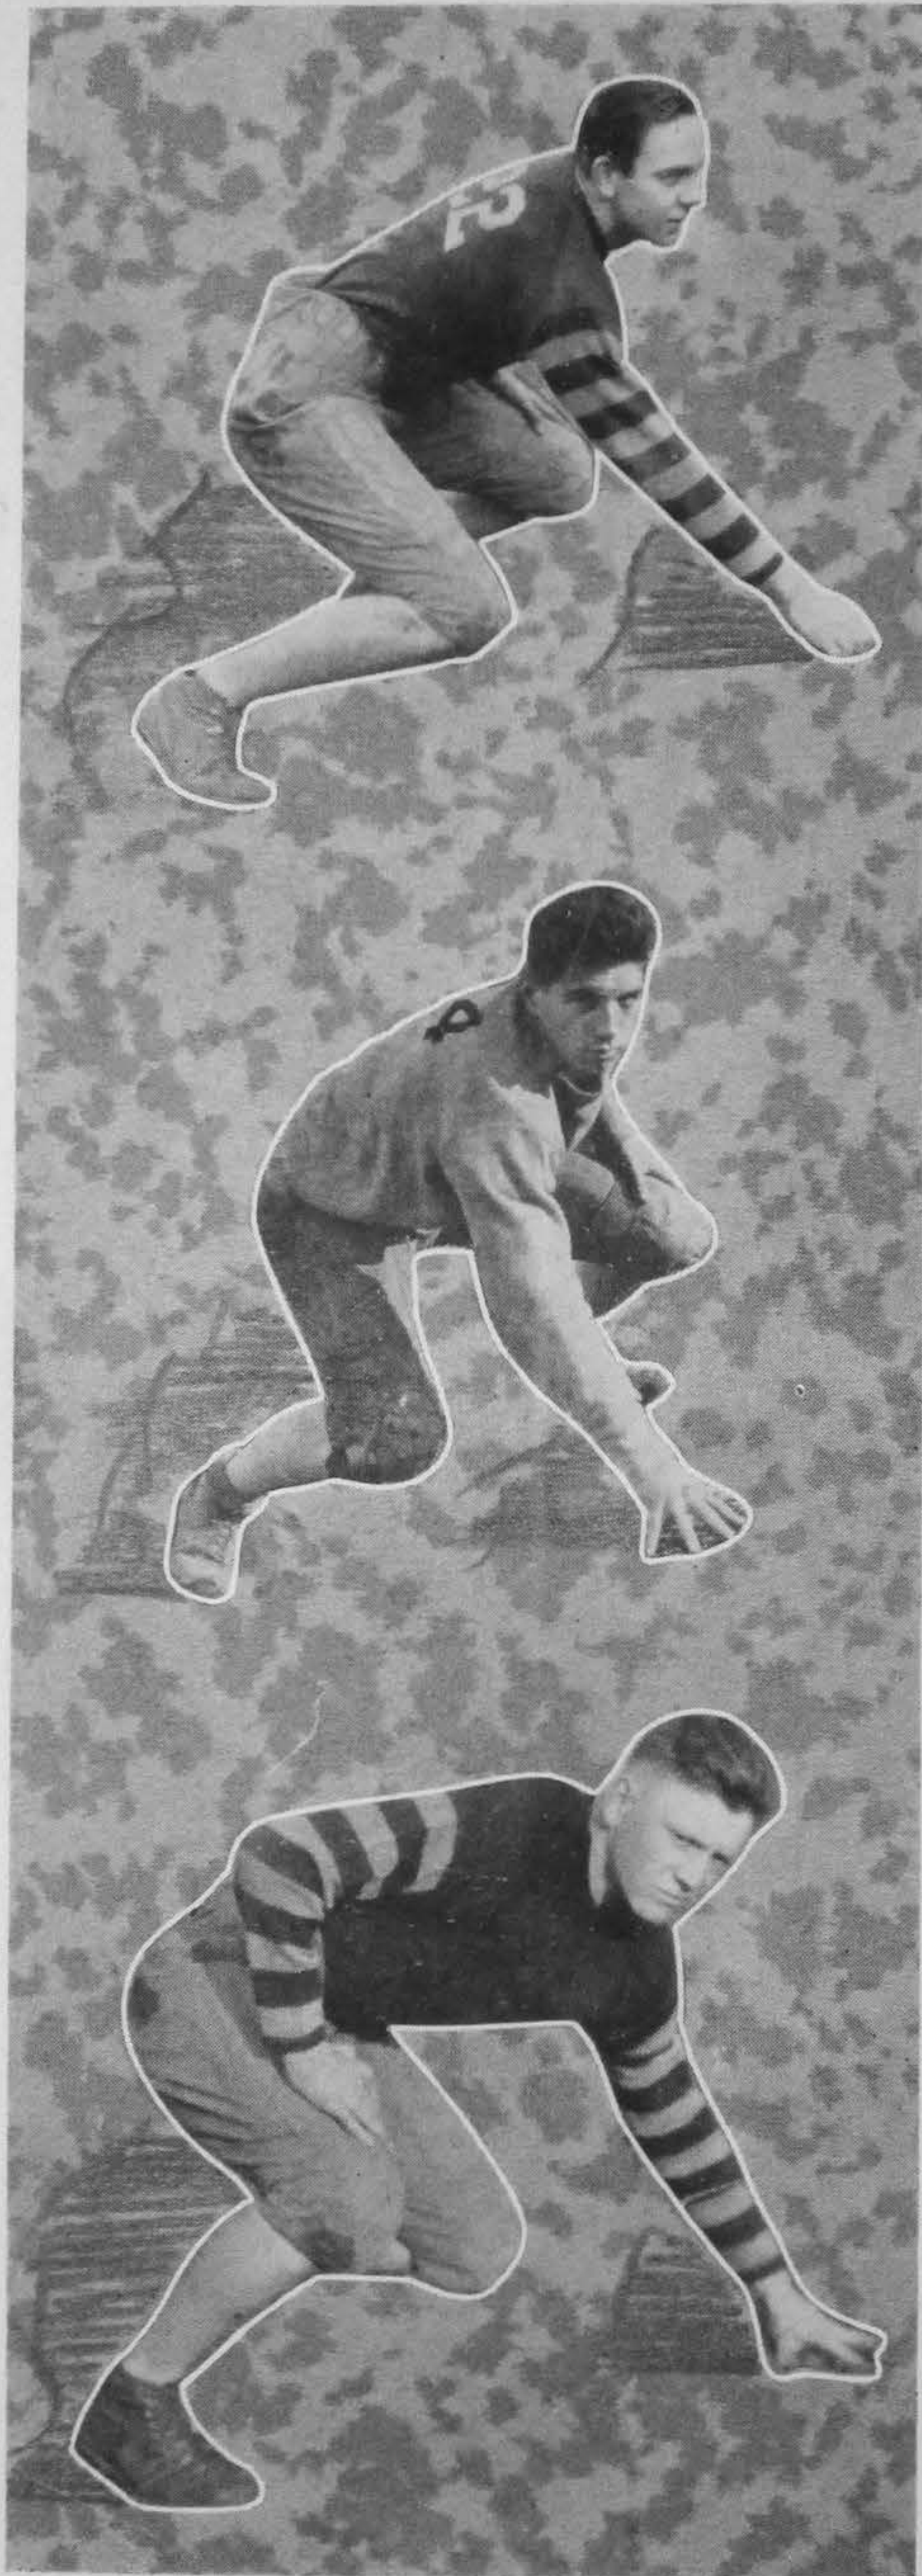

"Red" Marshall, a lineman. Marshall has the old fighting spirit that a player needs. He made many opponents look sick with his charging and tackling. He will be back next year.

pp

cc

"Blue Jay" Goetz, our tackle. Jay got "hot" this season and made several touchdowns himself. He certainly could recover the ball on a fumble. Any man that had the luck to play beside Jay never had to worry about having to work. He is a Senior.

"Curly" Waller, our end. This boy certainly gave opposing teams trouble when they tried to get around end. You couldn't hurt him. Curly with his extensive mop of hair could down anyone, anywhere, anytime. He is a Senior.

"Red" Barker, the last of our trio of redheads, played tackle and guard. "Red" certainly had plenty of fight and played a good game all season. He will be back next season.

BASKET BALL SQUAD

SECOND SQUAD

P. H. S. not only had a good first team, but also had the distinction of having a second team that trounced the first team at least one time a week. They met all the nearby class B schools and made an almost perfect record. The personnel of the team is as follows: Barker, guard; Baker, forward; Ferral, forward; Ferris, center; Thompson, guard; L. Ogg, center; Miller, forward; Hamer, guard; Lawson, forward; and Gammon, guard.

Here is their record:

HOWARD DOLL, our forward and acting captain. Dolly is a real basketeer. He piloted our team as a veteran and brought home the Southeastern Ohio title. Dolly will be back next year.

"OX" REINHARD, our center. He can play center in basketball even better than football. He got the tipoff on every opposing man. He was leading scorer of the season. We will miss "Ox" next year.

"JIM" KEEVER, a hardworking guard. Jimmy played a good game all year. If we ever needed a couple of extra points, Jimmy came through with a "dead one." Jim is a Senior.

"MOONER" LEWIS, the fastest basketeer in Southern Ohio. Frank played a "bang-up" game all year. Portsmouth certainly did go with "Mooner" in the game. He will be ineligible next year.

"SKINNAY" OGG, our six feet five guard. Ogg could jump up to the basket and knock 'em out. He played a real game all year. His only trouble was playing too rough. The opposition could not stand it. He graduates this year.

"AL" PARTLOW. Al was ineligible after the beginning of the second semester, but the first of the year, there was no better playing guard. (He had a good temper, too.).

"FLAT FOOTED" FELTY is the "John Henry" of this boy. He played a guard and played it well. Although his feet lie on a horizontal plane, he is on his toes in the game. He will be with us again next year.

"JOHNNY" FUGITT. Little Johnny played regular forward at the beginning of the season and utility man later on. It's sure a cure for sore eyes to see this boy tear down the floor. He ate 'em up alive. We will have him next year.

MURRAY SMITH. Although he is the smallest man on the team, Murray played the game of a man twice his size. He was always ready to go. He will be a great help next year.

"CHARLIE" BICKETT played a guard for us this year. He did not break into all the games, but when he did the opponents were sorry. He is a Junior.

The Portsmouth boys had another most successful season. Most of the games were hard fought but with the old pep and spirit, Portsmouth usually managed to come through on top.

May eleventh saw the boys in Athens, eagerly waiting for the Southeastern Ohio Tournament. Nor did they wait in vain. The trophy was a beautiful loving cup, which certainly looks well in our over-crowded trophy department.

The following week they went to the state tournament, and, after advancing to the semi-finals, were eliminated by Dover, the State Champions, in a close and hard fought game.

TENNIS BOYS' TEAM

P. H. S. decided to try their luck at tennis this year and under the leadership of Coach Hopkins, it proved a great success.

The first match was played at Portsmouth on April 25. The opponents were Huntington. They didn't have a smell. Everything went for Portsmouth. All four of our men won their singles, and our average was 100% in the doubles.

We again met Huntington there the next week. The results were exactly the same.

Next week came the state tournament. Moskivitch of Hughes Hi, Cincinnati, eliminated Johnson in first round 1-6, 6-4, 6-2. Ball of East High, Columbus, beat Keever 2-6, 8-6, 7-5. Keever and Johnson went to the finals and semi-finals respectively in the Consolation singles tournament, being eliminated by Harding Hi, of Marion.

Johnson and Bush eliminated Dayton Steele in the first round of doubles by 6-2, 6-1, 6-4; but were eliminated by Youngstown Rayan 2-6, 7-5, 10-8.

GIRLS' TEAM

Last spring an intra-mural tennis tournament for girls' doubles was held at York Park Courts.

Many teams were entered and some very thrilling games were witnessed by tennis-followers.

The tournament lasted a week, when all teams except two were eliminated. The finals were held June 3rd, when the Gerlach-Dopps combination combined defeated the Taylor-Hopkins team 6-3, 4-6, 10-8.

Much interest was shown in this tournament and a bigger representation of our tennis players is expected this year than ever before.

GIRLS'

This year was the most successful one for the girls that P. H. S. has ever had. Although the girls lost one game, which was played boys' rules they made the best record in the Southeastern Ohio district. Out of 535 points to our opponents' 99, Myrtle Watrous made 315 points and Jean Cissna 206.

Four out of the six girls on the team graduate this year. In spite of this loss, we feel confident that Miss Bell can shape another winning basketball team next year.

The Second Stringers played several games this year, being successful in winning them all.

THE TEAM

VIRGINIA TAYLOR—Captain: Center. Jinny was the center of the team, both literally and figuratively. She was never lacking when it came to swift pass-work. Jinny has won three letters. She'll be missed greatly next year.

EVELYN DEVOSS—Guard. Hecky was declared ineligible, on account of the eight semester ruling, in January. She played six games and did some good close guarding. Hecky has two letters. Portsmouth High School has lost a good player.

JEAN CISSNA—Forward. Jean is a speedy player. Jean and Annie working together couldn't be beaten. Jean's prowess is shown by the fact that she stepped into Doppie's shoes capably. This year she made 95 field goals in eleven games. She has two letters and Portsmouth High School will lose her this year.

NORMA MASSIE—Guard. Norma was a sub last year but she became a regular this season. Massie was a "whiz" when it came to intercepting balls. She will be able to play another semester.

HELEN BRADSHAW—Center. Diana also was a sub last year but she surely "stepped out" this year. Diana was always right there when she was needed. This is her first letter year. Diana is a Senior.

MYRTLE WATROUS—Forward. "Annie Oakley" lived up to her nickname and very rarely missed to shot. In the Nelsonville game she made 27 baskets. In the whole season she made 316 points out of a total of 563. Nine rahs for Myrtle Annie! She received her first letter this year and she gets her diploma in June.

CATHERINE BLAKE—Guard. Blakey might be called a “dark horse.” We always knew she was good but she never got a chance to show it until this past season when she took DeVoss’s place. Blakey has one letter. She’ll be with Portsmouth High School team another semester.

RUTH HOPKINS—Little but mighty. Hoppy has certainly given Myrtle and Jean a race for first place on the team. Even though they won out, Hoppy was a dandy little player and filled their positions when it came to substituting. Sorry to lose her—but the best of players must part. (C. J. B.).

DOROTHY GERLACH—Gerlach was the “curer of all aches and pains” this year. In other words, she was manager. Dot wrote for all games scheduled by the Girls’ teams. She was a good sport even when the cry of “Manager!” came from every direction. Dot was declared ineligible by the eight semester ruling. Her place was filled by Helene Secrest and Christine Heer, both of whom will probably receive a letter next year.

CLASS

The class basketball games for girls met with greater enthusiasm this year than ever before. Thanks to the Girls’ Athletic Club, Mr. A. K. Wheeler was hired as coach for the girls. He was an able coach and he trained the girls well.

Due to the fact that there was no Junior team, two freshman teams were organized. The season came to a close with the Sophomores and Freshmen teams tying for the number of games won. The tie was played off and the Freshmen became champions by a score of 8-6.

Some good material was discovered this year and next year’s varsity team will probably be composed of girls who played on class teams this year. R. E. H., '27

CLASS OF 1850

I have the most pleasant memories of my school boy days at Portsmouth from 1841 to 1850, from five years old to nearly fourteen.

I well remember many old teachers—Mother Carr was one of them. Our Superintendents were then Mr. A. J. Rickoff, followed by Mr. Wilson. Mrs. Rankin was teacher of the highest grade of girl students. Boys and girls were all in separate rooms, but in some classes they recited together.

For those days, we had a fine school course. There were, besides the common branches, classes in Latin, geometry, trigonometry, and surveying. I completed it.

I remember well my school days, of eighty-five to seventy-five years ago very distinctly, and many of my old schoolmates, male and female. Few, if any, now living. Nearly "all, all are gone, the old familiar faces."

I wish to be remembered very kindly to the pupils of today. My kind regards to all of them and the best wish I can express for them is—that they may all have as happy school days as I had, with as pleasant memories of them hereafter.

And, that they may live to my good old age of ninety years!!

GEORGE O. NEWMAN.

P. H. S. ALUMNI

In 1869 the Alumni of Portsmouth High School was organized and since then has held an annual meeting at which a banquet is given in honor of the graduating seniors. This year's officers are: President, Selby Dillon; First Vice-President, Ruth Lockhart; Second Vice-President, Howard Kress; Secretary, Ethel Musser; Treasurer, W. C. Hazelbeck; Executive Board: Anna S. Ball, Eleanor W. Cookes, Richard Anderson, Lynn Padan, Charles Storck, Lucy Hall.

The unusual enthusiasm of our Alumni is shown by their ready response to the letters sent out by the Sinhioto Staff. Due to the size of our annual we are printing only excerpts of the contributions.

THE PIONEER CLASS IN ACHIEVEMENT

Class of 1902

The class has lost but one member, Major Wiley Dawson, who died in San Diego, California.

Of the sixteen living members of the class, their geographic location is as follows: Seattle, Washington; Bluefield, West Virginia; Hamilton, Ontario; D. of C.; Naples, Italy; Cincinnati, Columbus and Portsmouth, Ohio.

This is the only class on record to have held a reunion each year for twenty-five years. Despite their widely scattered residences, the members of 1902 will hold this June their Quarter-Century Reunion on a scale surpassing all others.

The class of 1902 gave to the High School its first permanent colors, the Red and Blue, continuously in use ever since; originated the present unbroken line of football teams; was the first class to organize before their Senior year; originated the Junior-Senior Banquet; originated the Junior-Senior Debates; was the first to give a Class Play; was the first to publish an Annual worthy of its name; donated extensively to the High School Library; furnished an entire set of new song books to the High School; donated one of the cups now in the trophy case.

—KARL ZOELLNER.

MEMORIES OF THE CLASS OF 1903

Down through the Village of Yesterday, I walked, a pilgrim lone, O'er Memory's Street With its houses neat, A moss-gross cobblestone. Through the misty fields that about me lay Wrapped in the purple of closing day. And here and there as I passed along I caught the echo of a song. A rounde-lay Of another day, Of a year that has long since gone. Nor words nor music of song can be, So sweet as the music of nineteen three.	"Thinking of old friends, hopes ne'er to be," Distinctly the strain was borne to me, Miss Lucy leading, The tenor reading, "Thinking of old friends far o'er the sea." And voices I never shall hear again Were blended in that old refrain. I saw them again as I saw them last, E'er over the portals to life we passed. Those girls and boys, Hopeful of joys That the world would give if we but held fast To the motto selected, it was the best, "Carpe Diem," we knew it would stand the test.
--	---

Doctors and lawyers, and merchants too,
Singers and teachers and mothers true,
Each fills with grace
His self-made place
As only those girls and boys would do.
And none that knew them but would agree,
'Twas a wonderful class in nineteen three.

—WINNIE STEWART

CLASS OF 1905

We claim Dr. Henry Wise, a very successful physician and partner of Dr. Reisman of Philadelphia; Judge Stanley McCall; Willis Seymour Pixley, vice-president of the Sorority Coffee Company; Walter Pick, who does such splendid work as an engineer for the Harbison Walker people that he is sent to lay out all new plants for them; Dr. Walter Biggs, a successful colored dentist; Mr. Pearl Milstead, a steel man; Mr. Charles Gillilan, a very big man with the Goodyear Rubber Company; and J. Edson Tener, who, you know, made such a real success of the Peerless Ice Cream and Bottling Company; Crawford Anderson is now president of a large wholesale drygoods concern in Seattle, Washington.

The women of the class do not shine outside their homes or offices. I speak of all the women excepting Mrs. Pearl McKerrihan King who shines as a golf and tennis expert in Cincinnati, Florida, California, and now is golfing in Europe. The rest of us are either raising a new crop of boys and girls to take your places, or else teaching other peoples' boys and girls how to study.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF 1911

In writing the history of 1911,
Whose students numbered just thirty-seven,
Let us dig out our annual on their past get a line,
Write up their present, and burst into rhyme.

MARGARET APPEL

She may have been fickle, as the annual writes,
Now is happily married and gone on her flights.

IRMA BAUER

Dan Cupid spun his little web
And caught her in his net.
In Wheeling she lives
With a family of three,
And they are her best bet.

ARTHUR BEUMLER

In the rural climes, a doctor he is,
He pegs away, and success is his.

HARRY BRANDEL

Along the line of chemistry
His thoughts just seemed to trend,
And now he has a pharmacy
Down in the West End.

LAURA BRAUNLIN

As a teacher of grade school
She began her career;
But a man entered in,
So it's housework, I fear.

OSCAR BROWN

Back in the old days, he was famed as a flirt;
Now a dealer in drugs, he is keen and alert

LOUIS BROWN

Uncle Sam has claimed this man
He sells his stamps as best he can.

JOHN BURT

In Cincinnati he peddles his ware
Of plumber's supplies, he takes good care.

CLIFFORD CHINN

He followed right in his father's mood;
In New Boston, sells groceries to the multitude.

FLORENCE CRAWFORD

She formerly lived in D. C.,
The capitol of our fair country;
Then packed her bag, became a bride,
And since, has traveled far and wide.

EDNA DAWSON

She gave a shy glance, made the boys feel queer,
And then settled down as Mrs. Dana Chapplear.

ETHEL DOERR

As a typist she excels,
And her secrets never tells.

LOUISE EGBERT

Elemental work, her line,
All the children say she's fine.

LYDIA GIESLER

She sang in the Glee Club at Portsmouth High
And now she is singing a lullaby.

CARL GRAF

As a doctor he went to a western state,
Success was his at an early date.

EDNA HERMANN

She was jolly and of studious miens,
Is married now, and happy, it seems.

HELEN HOSZ

With downcast eyes and modest grace
As a business woman she sets the pace.

ARTHUR LYNN

His interest is corporation law,
In Deland, Florida.

MARGUERITE MAHONEY

Quiet and with the sharpest wits,
She helps her husband in politics.

MARY MCGREGOR

A valedictorian of the class was she;
At Selby's now she receives her fee.

GENEVIEVE MOTAVON

Married and in Cleveland she lives;
All her devotion to her family gives.

MARY PURDUM

Silent, but a thinker made
Her work in elemental grade.

CLARA ROWE

In an Ohio town, a school teacher she,
Drilling the children in A. B. C.

RALPH PEEL

Authority on steel
Is Ralph Agnew Peel

MILDRED THOMAS

As a student she was one of the best;
She became a war bride—we don't know the rest.

LEIGH WATKINS

As a salesman of autos, he is away up;
He handles the Cadillac and the Hup.

GILBERT WAITE

Gilbert Waite of surgical fame,
On Mercy's staff he has made his name.

JAMES WILLIAMS

A prominent officer in Excelsior Shoe;
He is steady, earnest, and his work rings true.

CARY WILLIAMS

Cary Williams, a brave soldier is he;
A ranking officer in Battery B.

JAMES WOOD

A popular salesman with Joseph G. Reed;
He supplies his customers with all they need.

EMILIE WILHELM

Cleveland now is her home town;
She is a teacher of renown.

CHARLES ZULL

A civil engineer in an Indiana town;
He surveys and figures 'till the sun goes down.

Thomas Cuney, Robert Padan, Arthur Copeland—whereabouts unknown.

IN MEMORIAM

Beulah Eason and Elsie Smith

CLASS OF '18

In the class prophecy written by Mary Pusateri for the Annual of '18, many are following vocations predicted by our class prophet. For instance, Selby Dillon is an attorney in this city, probably on his way to become "Judge of the Supreme Court." Catherine Hendrickson is teaching in Cleveland instead of "Chicago." Reba Kennedy had become Mrs. Henry Burton, true to prophecy. George Blume has really become a doctor, practicing medicine in New Boston. Paul Noel is teaching English in the High School in Bonora, Pennsylvania, instead of "teaching in a business college." Again, Mary Pusateri and Martha Moritz are "instilling the germs of knowledge in the young heads of the rising generation"—Mary teaching Spanish in Akron, Martha in the city. Dorothy Kinsey, now Mrs. Clyde L. Knost, is still "tickling the ivories."

Many of our girls are happily married and keeping house. Hazel Appleton is Mrs. Philip Jeanguenat, located at Youngstown. Pauline Artburst is Mrs. Guy Rush of this city. Elizabeth Blackburn is Mrs. Walter Dressler of this city, a graduate nurse, who continues to follow her profession. Catherine Burns is now Mrs. Earl Brandel, city. Ruth Butler is Mrs. George Metzger, Cincinnati, Ohio. Georgia Chabot is Mrs. Arnold Gore of Cincinnati. Both she and her husband are doing home missionary work. Freda Chandler has become Mrs. George Carver, city, while Ethel Clausing is Mrs. Alfron Hall, city. Helen Cross is married to Mr. Virgil Akers. Helen Dawson, also—having changed her name to Middleton of this city. Clara Dorman is Mrs. A. Anderson, city. Garnet Donley is Mrs. M. W. Morrow, city. Helen Ferree is Mrs. Carl Morton, Greenup, Kentucky. Mary Gower, now Mrs. O. W. Harer, is doing missionary work in Boydstown, Tennessee. Elizabeth Gulker is Mrs. Leslie Cowdry, city. Katherine Hall is Mrs. Varner Altman. Frieda Hensge has changed her name to Mrs. W. K. Adams. Hazel Holmes is Mrs. Charles Baggs. Olive Meadows is Mrs. Oscar Harris. Margaret Morrow is Mrs. Donald Blair, city. Alice Mathiot is the wife of a dentist, Dr. Eugene Fiel, of Dayton, Ohio. Alma Miller is Mrs. George Fisher, of Washington, D. C. Della Oakley is Mrs. John Kilgallen, city. Martha Phillips is Mrs. Clifford Zuhars, city. Ruth Reinicker is Mrs. John R. Corson of Crewe, Virginia. Florence Riley lives in St. Petersburg, Florida—she is Mrs. Harold Shumway. Mrs. Andrew Glass (Dorothy Varner) lives in Wheeling, West Virginia. Mary Taylor is Mrs. Forrest Gordon. Laura Warden is Mrs. Luther Smith, city. Atlanta Willis is doing clerical work in the office of Current Events Publishing Company, Columbus, Ohio. Avis Smith is a stenographer for Mitchell Manufacturing Company, city. Cleo Resler is a teacher of voice at Defiance College, Defiance, Ohio. Eva Obrist and Ruth Graf are at home. Ilene Oursler is located in Columbus. Dorothy Nutter is attending business college in Cincinnati, and expects to locate there. Jennie Heid is a clerk in Bragdon's Dry Goods Company of this city. Helen Dupre is a very successful teacher in the public schools of this city, while Marvel Galford is also in Portsmouth as bookkeeper for McNeer Nash Company.

Harold Adams is practicing law in Columbus. Charles Baker (by the way, the date is set!) is at Selby's. Arthur Clendenen is a bacteriologist, located at Ann Arbor. Harold DeVoss and Franklin Dever are in the city. Donald Dillon is secretary and treasurer of Waite Furniture Company. Harold Dunn is a salesman for Harbison Walker, city. Arthur Doll is working for Bauer Lumber Company. Stuart Gims is owner of a grocery, city. John Imboden Hudson is cartoonist on "Columbus Citizen." Dana Jones is located in Indianapolis with the Farmers' Insurance Company. Charles Lawson, Albert Wood, James Taylor, and Clyde Strickland are with the Portsmouth Steel Company. Orville Wolff is a clerk at Gilbert Grocery Company. Joel Meyer is a clerk at the Post Office. Arthur Rau is bookkeeper at Williams Manufacturing Company. Ralph Riddlebarger is a clerk at the N. & W. James Throne is associated with Breece's. Corwin Knowles is in the dairy business. Kenneth Fox is an electrical engineer with General Motors Company, Cincinnati.

CLASS OF '20

It seems strange that seven years ago I was helping to arrange material for old '20's "Annual," and now after the years have rolled along I'm answering a letter from you giving you some account of our classmates. Dick Anderson looks hale and hearty. He is with Anderson Brothers' Company and is making a fine business man. Lena Appel didn't marry "Pinsey," but has decided to trust her fate to a Navy man. Think of that! Louise Beatty is Mrs. Bill Henderson. Bill finishes his medical training this year. Florence Bein is Mrs. Herbert Eskind, of Nashville, Tennessee. Harold Bierley has made his fortune, so they say, in real estate in Miami, Florida. As for our bashful Paul Carl Bode, he is in the Purchasing Department of the Proctor and Gamble Company of Cincinnati. He always could soap things up. Dorothy Duis still holds old '20's standard up. She is a teacher of languages in the Athens High School. I hear from Madeline that David Grimes is way up there. Yes, sir. Old "Pinsey" is Assistant Manager for the Firestone Tire Company at Detroit, Michigan. Address—Woodward at Canfield. Lee Hamner married Marg Maupin and they live in Portsmouth. Richard Hopkins is married and living here. He had to come back to help old P. H. S. in Athletics. Lorena Marr married Charles Crabtree and they live at 2377 Wheeler Street, Cincinnati. Helen Matthews is still enjoying single blessedness and is teaching music. Lillian is with the John Rogers Musical Comedy Producers. Our old depot still remains the same with the exception of a few more layers of dirt and a few more missing shingles. Alf Millard hasn't yet built a new one. I hear he's still studying hard at Miami. From reports I 'spect old Alf will have to build a home first. Oh! Oh! You know, of course, that Helen Scott married Edward Carlyle and lives at Portsmouth. Howard Moritz went all the way to Cleveland, Ohio, and is Director of Athletics at Shaker Heights High School. Madeline Revare is at Ford Hospital, Detroit, Michigan, as assistant dietician. Old "Beckie" has some position. I hear, however, her diet is going to be prepared for two instead of two hundred. George Staten is assistant coach of Athletics at Ohio Wesleyan. Gene Turley lives on Banner Avenue, Winston-Salem, N. C. Goldie Young is head nurse of the Selby Shoe Company's hospital at Ashland, Kentucky. Issas Kelby is married and lives at Columbus. Tom Crabtree is doing well as an architect in the same city. Harold Clendenen is an electrical engineer and lives at 1417 Roier Avenue, Roanoke, Virginia. He is still single. Let's see—Mid Zucker is Mrs. Ben Trott; Ruth Patton is Mrs. Carwin Knowles; "Maggie" Warden is Mrs. William Kemp; they all live in Portsmouth. Oh! yes. Paul Hobstetter is traveling for a large firm at Buffalo, New York. William Scaggs and Raymond Jones haven't as yet finished their college work. They are both studying medicine.

"BOOTS" D. BAUGHMAN.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF '21

September, 1921, found fifty members enrolled in various colleges. Of these, twenty-nine have received degrees, and we still find two in Seminaries, five in Medical School, and one in Law School. Five of our number are graduate nurses, four established in business, two in government work, three in the banking industry, seven working in offices, twenty in the school-marming profession—and our marriage circle. Thirty have already joined this circle and we could tell some secrets; but we mustn't. Only six years have passed, and yet how scattered we are. Thirteen states claim our members—from California to Maine, from Michigan to Louisiana. It is, indeed, with pleasure that we know that Death has not broken our ranks.

RUTH LOCKHART, '21.

CLASS OF '23—SINCE GRADUATING

Since graduating, the class has had two reunions; one in '24 and one in '26. Both were quite successful and we're hoping for more.

Many of our number have succumbed to matrimony. Among these are: Lela Atkinson, Paul Brunner, Helen Bussey, Glen Coe, Nina Compton, Russell Cunningham, Lela Davis, Corrine Dearth, Faith Garrett, Evelyn Geis, Julia Hemphill, Agatha Higgins, Mildred Hughes, Edith Kapps, Muriel Leichner, Howard McNamara, Bertha Moore, Myrtle Pease, Raymond Russell, Mabel Seeley, Valeska Seiling, Dorothy Smith, Audrey Wilson, and Marjorie Slye.

A great number of us have joined the ranks of instructing America's youth. Among these are: Clara Bender, Ruth Burton, Garnet Case, Thelma Chabot, Bonnylin Copas, Gaynelle Crookshanks, Bertha Davies, Gertrude Essman, Charlotte Hicks, Genevieve Hicks, Mildred McElhaney, Marjorie Mann, Stella Martin, Beatrice Moore, Ollie Morgan, Mabel Oakes, Helen Zeisler, and Jeannette Winkel.

Quite a number of '23 are yet in College: Clifford Ackinson—O. S. U, Carson Barklow—O. S. U., Thomas Brock—O. S. U., Clarence Carter—Cleveland Art School, Olin Mannina—O. W., Sidney Cooper—O. W., Frederick Deuschle—W. C., Lowell Dever—O. S. U., Kathryn Flood—John Hopkins Hospital, Charlotte Frowine—O. W., Virginia Geisler—O. S. U., Paul Graf—O. W., James Ray, O. W., Roberta Hennessy—Geo. Washington University, Louise Jones—Guilmont Organ School, Ruth Lloyd—O. S. U., Dorothy Manning—Randolph Macon, Martha Morgan—O. S. U., Joanne Pursell—N. Y. Art School, Raymond Moritz—O. S. U., Sylvan Jackson—Georgia Tech., Gordon Meixner—Miami. Regina Reitz—O. S. U., Lowell Sampson—O. S. U., William Tripps—O. S. U., Hortense Williams—Miami, Vivian Searles—Okla. Osteopathic School, Don Warner—O. W.

The remainder of the class are employed locally and otherwise—Geneva Berry, Frances Hicks, Virginia Blake, Dorothy Brunner, Virginia Carroll, Julia Clark, Martha Cook, Lucille Daniels, Thelma Hopkins, Aletha Jones, Louise King, Muriel Leichner, Dorothy Patton, Ruth Spence, Christabel Thirkettle, Katherine Hahn, and Mildred Worman are local stenographers.

The rest, here and there, are: Sidney Brown is managing the Brown Clothing Co., Carvel Crawford and Irving Knost are with the Fry Candy Co.; Christopher is employed out of town; Russell Goddard is with the N. & W. R. R.; Virginia Goetz is with the Times Publishing Co.; Helen Hawkins is in nurses' training; Holmes Hemphill is a paper-hanger; Donald Jordan is located with the H. & S. Pogue Co. of Cincinnati; Russell Kapps is with the Peebles Paving Brick Co.; Verlin Copas is with the First National Bank; Margaret Lauffer is at The Royal Savings and Loan; Howard Kiebler is with the Mohl Meat Co.; Ralph Miller is confined to his home with paralysis; H. Clay Mitchell is at Selby's; Irma Monroe is one of Portsmouth's nurses; Grayden O'Brien is located with the Sand & Gravel Co.; Ruth O'Leary is employed at the Times Office; Irving Pickering is back in Maine; Harold Spence is Pressler's pharmacist; Paul Steahly is with the Steahly Dry Goods Co.; Carl Torges is pharmacist at Fisher and Streich's; Leo Waller is at the Stone Quarry at McDermott; Clarence Yuenger is with the Yuenger Electric Co.; Marie Workman is with Marting's.

The writer of this article is unable to speak for: Mary Sloan, David Tipton, Richard Stanley, Russell Hobbs, Robert Spangenburg, Julius Wilson, and Lawrence Foster.

—BONNYLIN COPAS, '23.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF 1924

Approximately half of the members of our class were privileged to enjoy some college training. Many of the graduates of 1924 are still fitting themselves for their chosen professions in various colleges and universities where they are leaders in social and scholastic activities. During the present year, ten members of our class have been teaching in the elementary schools of Portsmouth, and a large number of our young men and women have found employment in the business life of our city. Already thirteen of our class have chosen help-mates to "love, honor, and comfort" them along life's rugged path. Moreover, several maidens have admitted that they are perfectly willing to increase that to a less superstitious number. Already, too, Death's Angel has chosen one of our number, T. J. Coe, who is sincerely missed by every member of the class.

—GEORGIA WEST, '24.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF '26

A number of the students went away to college—among them: James Wilhelm, John Kah, Richard Fuller, Pauline Ruhlman, Charlotte Knost and others. James, an honor student, has already made a name for himself in Ohio State University, being a member of the Glee Club and chairman of one or two committees. John and Richard, although nothing pertaining to them has been brought home, are, no doubt keeping up their past scholastic records. There will be but one physician of the group, Russel Dulin. Yet there is another student, and an honor one at that, who is studying along that line. She is no other than Mildred Liter, now a student nurse at White Cross Hospital, Columbus. Paul Peed, our renowned jazz pianist, is attending Ohio Wesleyan, and I presume he is making it as lively for those students as he did for us. His gift of fluent speech has won him a place on the debate team, which is not at all surprising. Elizabeth Clar, Abigail Bradford, and Katherine Blazer are attending Ohio University. P. H. S. is quite well represented at Miami University, among those attending being Margaret Roth and Charlotte Knost. Mary Frances Crawford is a student at the Columbus School for Girls, and Pauline Ruhlman is at National Park Seminary. There are a few who are taking the teachers' training course at the Wheelersburg Normal School. Those students referred to are Clara Randall and Martha Gould. Jack Bridges and Donald Ruhlman have enrolled in the University of Cincinnati, while Edward Pursell and Nelson Lukemire are students in the University of Pennsylvania. The ambitions of a few of the graduates tend to soar higher and seek a level in the musical world. Vola Cook has enrolled as a student of Piano in the College of Music at Cincinnati. Rosalynd Clark will very soon take up voice culture for the concert stage. Then there are several taking post graduate courses, among them Helen Warren, Carolyn Nye, and Rosalynd Clark. Quite a number of the class have remained at home accepting clerical or office positions. The more prominent of them are Laurelena Heinisch, Business College student and stenographer, and Alyce Lynn, stenographer.

—R. M. CLARK, '26.

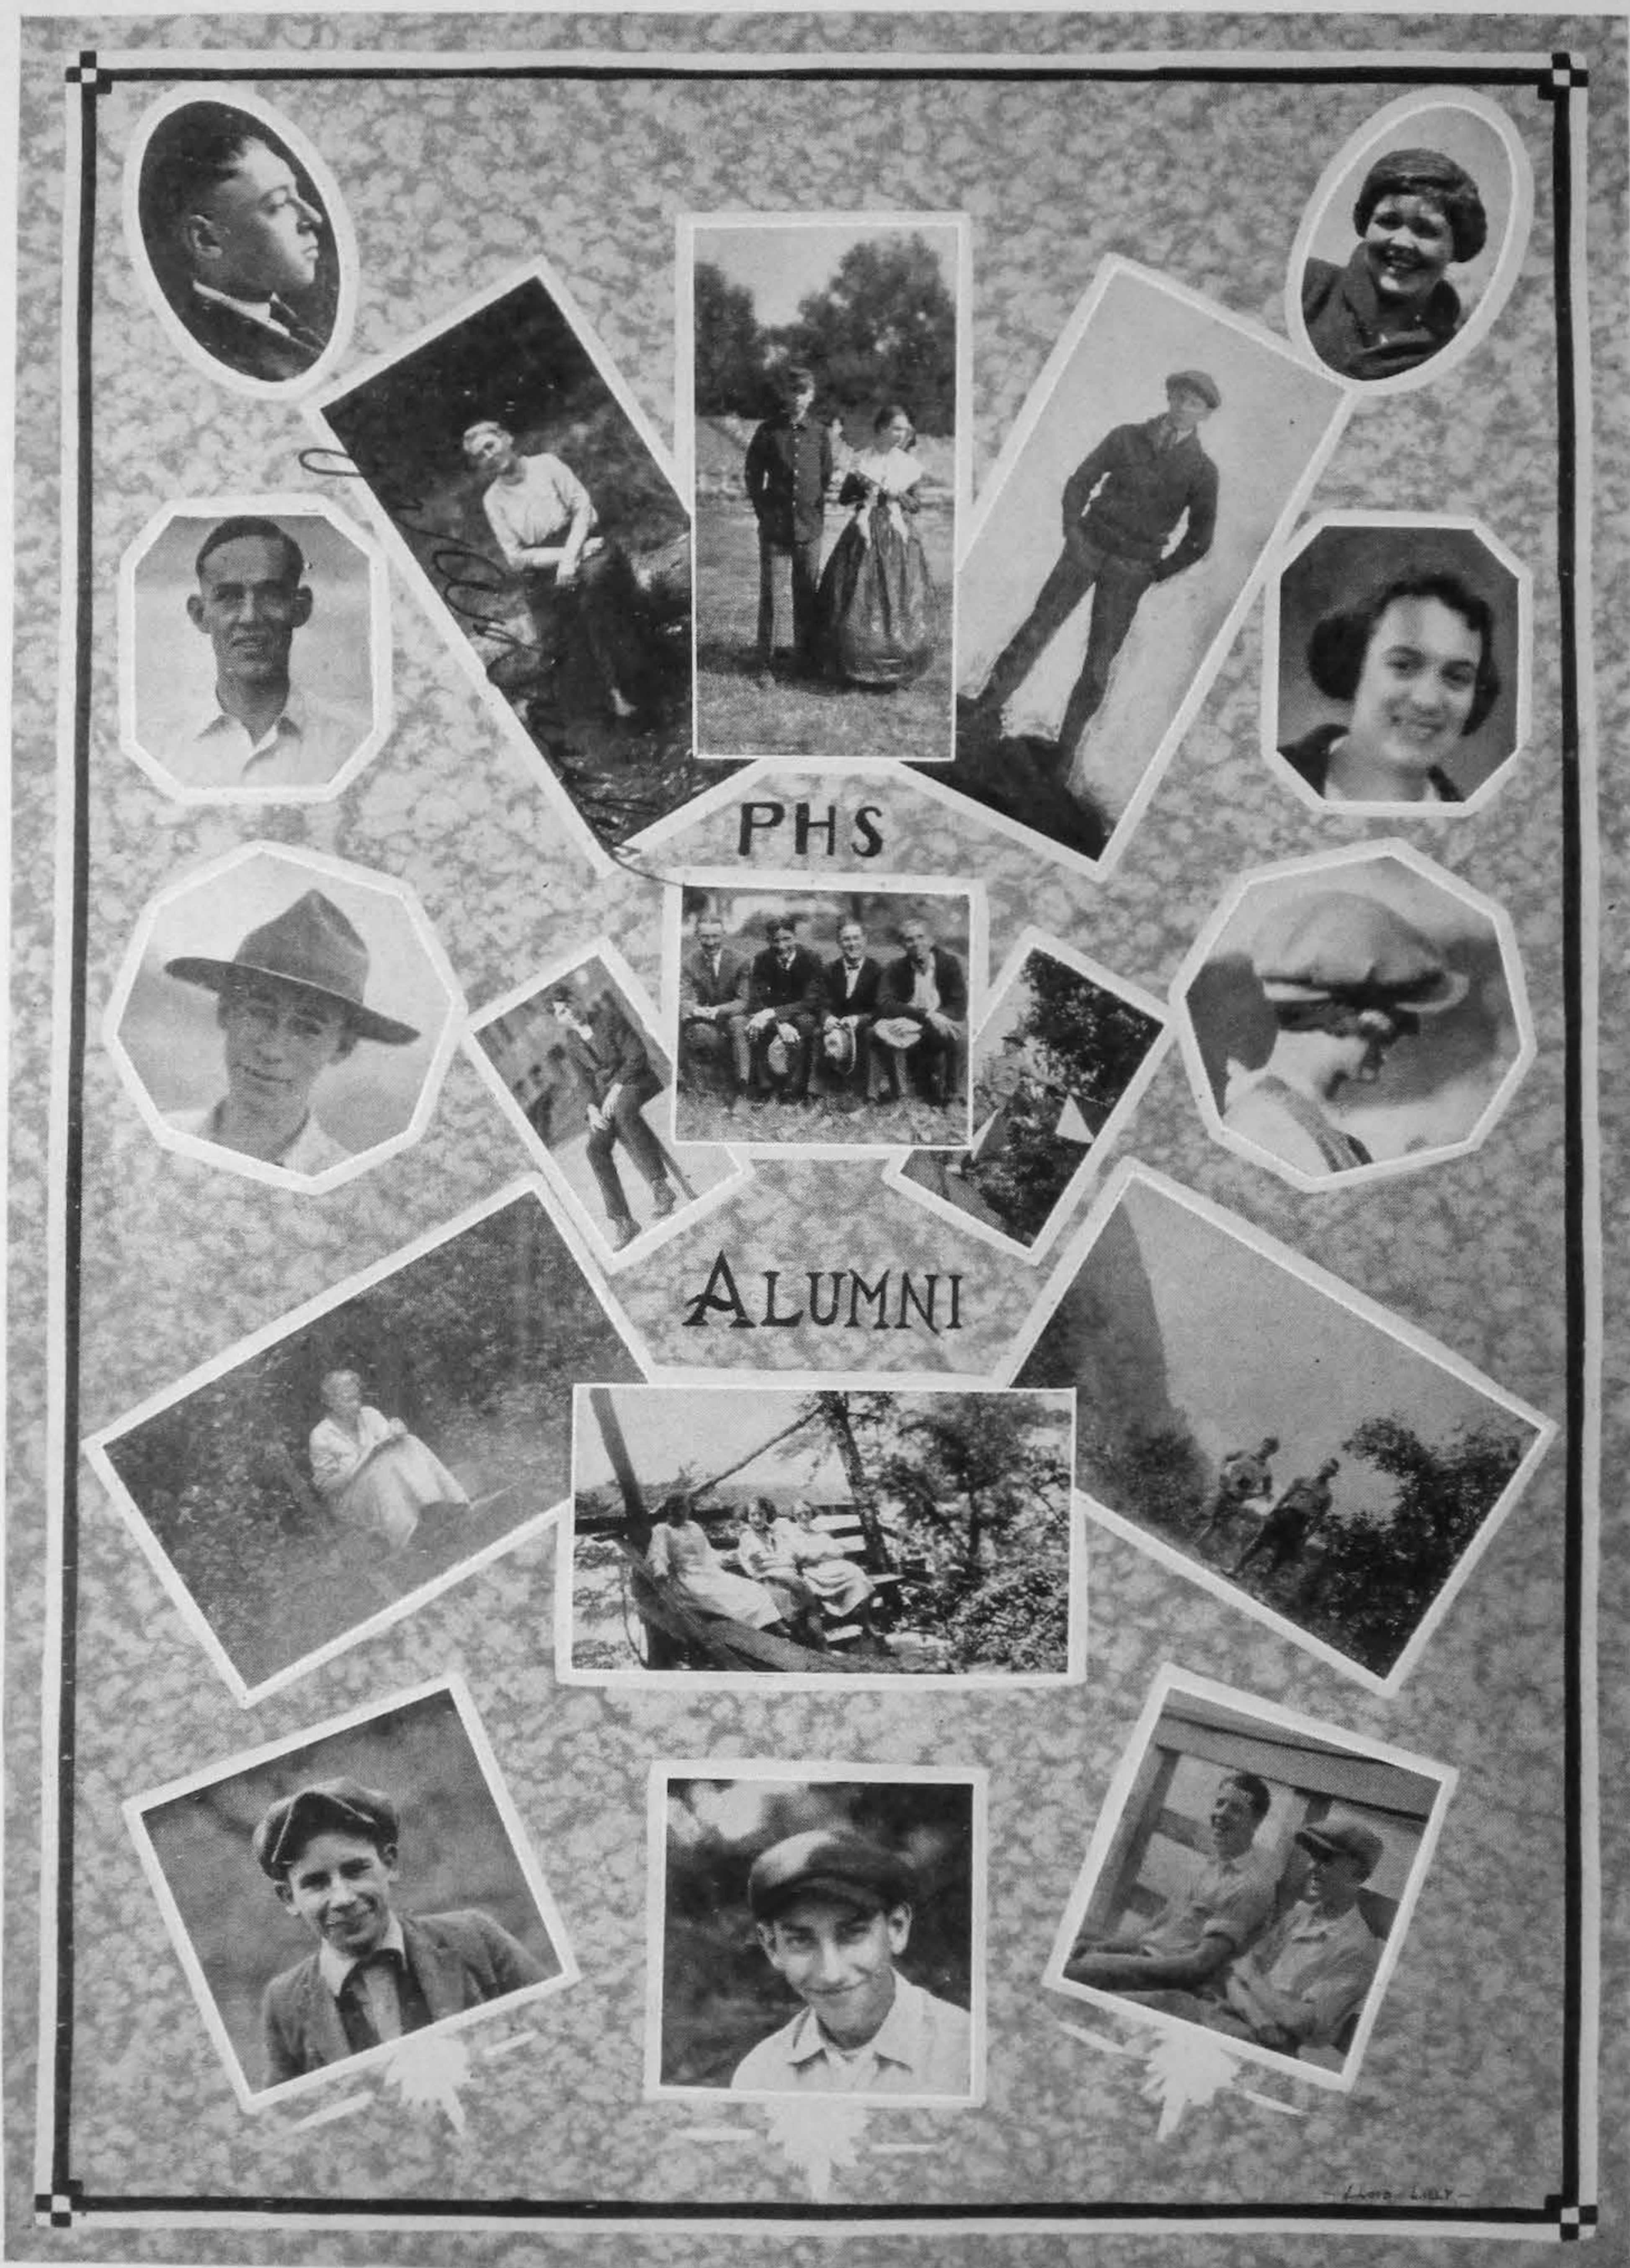

Among our many visitors this year was Mr. J. W. Mougey, Principal of Portsmouth High School, 1882-1887. His interest in the school and its publications caused him to write the following note to the Annual Staff:

Someone has defined education as the development in due order and preparation of whatever is good and desired in human nature. This, it seems to me is the summum bonum of all that is implied in the term "education." Man is a trinity in unity and hence the intellect, the sensibility, and the will must be unfolded to their highest and fullest capability. Whatever contributes to this end in the training of an individual is worthy of a place in any curriculum of study that the student is required to pursue before he can be said to be truly educated—this requires a lifetime of faithful endeavor. The task when consummated is worthy of all the time, money, and effort expended in its completion.

—J. W. MOUGEY.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Mr. Perry Smith walked gaily down the street. He was feeling fine. Beneath his brown kid belt peacefully reposed a half slice of grapefruit, a soft-boiled egg, a piece of toast, all in perfect harmony with their surroundings. Now I ask you why shouldn't Mr. Smith feel happy and light-hearted? He had just paid his month's rent and the landlady had given him a benevolent parting smile as he trotted down the front walk. Business was booming, and today was the day he was going to sign a contract for the building of a new dance hall on Forty-second Street. What fools men are, thought Mr. Smith, to spend their spare and leisure time going through strenuous gymnastics on a slippery dance hall floor, when they could be home reading an interesting book on zoology.

At the corner of Fifty-first and Winchester Avenue Perry Smith hailed the bus, and, after climbing in, composed himself for a pleasant ride to his office. Suddenly his roving eye lit upon a glaring yellow poster on the opposite side of the bus. In green headlines it insiduously hinted:

"Four Out of Five Have It. "Are You The Fifth? Have Your Teeth Been Loosening? Have Your Gums Been Itching? Have You Had an All-Gone Feeling in the	Pit of Your Stomach? IT'S PYORRHEA! Use Killum's Pyorrhoea Powder for Your Molars."
---	---

Mr. Smith stirred uneasily; he really must see about havng his teeth cleaned. Yes, he would make an appointment with Dr. Payne this week; he dared not postpone this fatal issue too long. You never can tell, you know, you never can tell—

Hoping to find solace in some other advertisement, he observed from the corner of his eye, the next poster, a blue and pink marvel advertising Nonen's non-slip sock supporters, and, in glaring type he read:—

Where are your socks now? Down around your ankles? Fie, for shame!	Use our Non-Slip Supporters and avoid this embarassing predicament.
--	---

Mr. Smith dared not look down. Even now he could feel his socks slowly sliding down his legs, and he remembered with horror that there was a hole in the heel of his right sock. It is a sloppy fashion, he admitted to himself—nothing attractive about a loose flopping sock, and, after all, not so much comfort either.

Searching for relief from the numb misery that was gripping him, he saw a lavender poster wherein purple violets grew in mathematical exactness. Timidly he read:—

Do You Use May Breath?
Ah, maybe that is the reason you can not win her.

Glancing out of the corner of his eye, Mr. Smith saw the young lady on his right, her face turned in the other direction. Now he understood. That was the reason. He hastily jerked his head in the opposite direction. Oh, why hadn't his mother told him that treacherous secret? Why had she let him suffer for twenty-nine years with—was it halitosis?—Yes, he felt himself almost past hope of recovery, as he thought of the people he must have offended.

Once more he eyed the condemning posters, and this time a new one caught his eye:—

"Can You Charleston? Hey! Hey! Take Lessons From Professor Pretzel, Or are you an old timer? 113 Alabama Ave."

Mr. Perry Smith was conquered. The tears welled into his eyes as, with a dazed expression on his face, he pushed the bell, rose from his seat, and got off the bus, determined to get as quickly as possible to a drug store (any one that carried May Breath and Non-slip Garters) and from thence to Professor Pretzel.

And Mr. Leach replied: "Oh, no. That's just a "still"."

GOOD

Here is the reason for delicious SORORITY'S goodness. First, the taste is there to start with for the finest coffees grown are used. Then they are blended to give the distinctive SORORITY savor. Next, they are roasted to just the right crispness. Result: Inviting in aroma; rich golden appearance; a wonderful smoothness; a pleasing tang in taste.

YOUR GREATEST PUBLIC
SERVANT

ELECTRICITY

WHAT more could the modern housewife wish for—an ever ready and untiring servant at the push of a button! That, in short, is the advantage of having electricity in the home. For light, warmth, for energy to run the sewing machine, washing machine, ironer, vacuum cleaner and even wash the dinner dishes, if you wish—just push a button and the drudgery of these tasks is removed, the work made quick, easy and efficient. Just to have electric light is only half using the great benefits of this service.

The Truth Hurts

Mr. Lamport: (Leaving Miss Gorsuch and Miss Fleming in the office one night) "Don't forget to put the cat out, Miss Gorsuch."

Mr. Queener (in Civics): "You can look that up in Hebrew, the 18th chapter, the third verse."

Marion French: "Is that in the Bible?"

Training For Success

Many people have the false impression that success comes unsolicited to some, when in reality men reach out for it and earn it through hard work.

The lesson thrift teaches is necessary to success.

It takes real, persistent effort to spend less than is earned and to make regular deposits on a saving account. The training gained by following this practice is valuable to any man—and the money thus accumulated enables many a one to grasp some opportunity that means success to him.

The 6% interest we pay will help your account grow.

YOUR DREAMS

Your Dreams of Wealth can come true

The rule to follow is simple; Save Money. For money saved is the true foundation of wealth. The dollar you spend foolishly will eventually find its way into some one else's savings account and HELP TO MAKE HIM RICH. Think of that!
