GRADUATION 1993

On May 28, the class of 1993 could not believe that after thirteen long years, this day had finally arrived.

The day started out nice, but rain was in the forecast. The Senior Awards Assembly started off the day. After the assembly, practice was inside. We all hoped that the graduation would be outside because it would be so crowded in the auditorium. Practice then moved outside to the stadium. It was quite muggy, but we did not mind that.

After practice the majority of the class got together for the last time at Pizza Hut.

At six o'clock the sun was shining brightly which was a big relief to all of us.

Graduation went smoothly. Reverend Barth spoke to the class of 1993 about "When it is Finished, Will it be Right?" After he spoke, salutarian, Jeff Gulley delivered his speech about friendships. Following Jeff was Deanna Potts, valedictorian, who spoke about doors opening and closing. Her message was that if one door does not open, follow the wall of life until a door does open. The next speaker was county commissioner Vern Riffe III, graduate of Glenwood High School in 1978. His speech was entitled "Your Turn is Coming".

The moment that we had been waiting for finally arrived. Our diplomas had been presented, the caps had flown. The class of 1993 were now Glenwood High School Alumni.

"THE CLASS OF 1993"

CLASS OF 1993 CLASS WILLS

I, Neal Fannin, being of half a mind to get a body leave my spleen to Mark Payton, but I've no idea what you're going to do with it.

I, Crissie Carr, being of sound mind and body, leave to my sister Tammy, the ability to have a boyfriend whom she can get along with — Good Luck, Tam.

I, Brian Hickman, being of sound mind and hilarious body, do hereby leave my favorite parking space to Tommy "Blah Gill" Stone. And I also leave Tommy a good car to park in it. Lord knows he needs it.

I, Deanna Potts, being of sound mind and body, leave to Shellie Clark my ability to run certain items up the flag pole.

I, Anthony James Maynard (Pup), being of sound mind and body, leave the New Boston cheerleading squad my spirit and enthusiasm. And to Tommy Stone, my keys to the smurf. Drive it well my friend.

I, Jason Risner, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave my ability to dent soccer goals with my head to Chris Rees my school spirit to the cheerleaders; and to my darling Tracy my love and affection so it will always be with her.

I, Jeff Gulley, being of omniscient mind and body, do hereby bequeath my ability to hate stupid people with a passion hereby unknown upon this earth to Brian Gilliam. Hate 'em all Gill!

I, Leanne Lemaster, leave my tremendous wisdom to realize that Democrats are better and my wonderful taste in meditation music to Brian Gilliam.

I, Shay Whitaker, being of sound mind and body, leave to Keri Hamilton another car that doesn't run all of the time — the Barbie Mobile. I always knew that there was a need for a pink hot rod in someone's life!!

I, Chad Elliott, leave to Brian Gilliam my rebelness for next year when he will be all alone. And to stay natural forever. And to Tommy Stone, the ability to someday be able to get into something.

CLASS PROPHECY

Ten years after my graduation from Glenwood High School, I, Neal Fannin, drove my solar-powered car into the combination gas station-fast food restaurant that was run by Larry Hamilton and Jeremy Truitt.

After a failed career as a sit-com writer and a brief fling with Cher, my class reunion was a welcome distraction. I knew Jeff Gulley wouldn't be at the reunion because he was currently serving sixty years in prison for faking his death to avoid paying taxes. I understand that he is sharing a cell with Dr. Jack Kevorkian, who is currently very old.

I picked up a paper and read the news that through a series of unlikely accidents, our old foreign exchange student, Helle Knudsen, had become the Queen of Denmark. This must have been of particular interest to Becky Porter who was the new ambassador there.

After an oil change and a hamburger, I headed toward New Boston. On my way I passed Shawnee State University, the third largest university in the country, where Eric Goddard was currently teaching his cultural anthropology class which kept him from coming to the reunion. As I passed the floodwall I noticed David and Gary Atchison painting murals.

As I entered New Boston, I noticed construction of its fourth major mall, owned by Ruby Scarberry. She owned all the malls in the area. In fact, she was in Indiana now, starting on her fifth mall. I had some time to kill, so I went in and watched some television in the electronics department. I was surprised by how many of my classmates were on TV. Chad Elliott was in Hollywood filming his home improvement show "This Ancient Building". Deanna Potts was a TV evangelist in Nashville and Melissa Kitchen was on the David Letterman show doing her stand-up comedy routine. I also saw a newsclip about Mandy Page who was in Austria filming a documentary about Dr. Ruth Westenheimer called Ruth or Dare.

I left the store and drove for the heart of New Boston. Where the American Restaurant once stood, there was now the Sports and Sports and Sports sporting goods store owned by Jason Risner and Anthony Maynard. I'd received a letter the week before saying they were at a shoe convention and wouldn't make the reunion.

I entered the school and to my minimal surprise, no one was there except Mr. Duncan. He was the only one of my teachers still working. Dejected, I walked into the parking lot and was surprised to find a battered green Monte Carlo. Inside I found Brian Hickman. He explained to me that he had been fired from his job in Dale Earnhardt's pit crew because he was too slow. Now he was living in his car. Brian told me that Crissie Carr disappeared shortly after graduation with a man who looked like Elvis and had never been seen again. I asked him what became of Leanne Lemaster. Apparently Leanne had married a mobster, turned state's evidence on him, and was now in the witness relocation program. Last, I asked about Angie Montgomery. He told me that Angie and her brother had gone to mine gold in the Klondike, unaware that the gold rush of '49 was over. With that, he drove off to Mildale.

I didn't need to ask him what Leslie Reeder and Brian Glenn were doing. I knew that they had been contracted to decorate the interior of the White House. Cindy Pierce had gotten them the job since she was now an aide there. She wasn't the only one from our class to get to the White House. Why, just today, Shay Whitaker was appointed as Surgeon General thanks to the recommendation of Vice President Tom Branham.

And, imagine our surprise when John Flannery was elected President.

And so, with tears in my eyes and heartburn in my chest, I left New Boston vowing never to return.

ACTIVITIES

Honor Society Induction

On November 8, 1992, 14 hardworking students made the grade, and were inducted into our vastly growing Honor Society. You can definitely say all their hard work finally paid off.

This year's guest speaker was Anthony Taylor. Mr. Taylor gave an inspiring speech on making your goals a reality.

Following the induction the new inductees, current members, parents, and guests were invited to a reception in the home economics room.

Everyone seems to be having fun at the reception held after the induction.

River Days

River Days began as a dream for publicity, but only contestants know how it grows into an obsession. Preparation magnifies into a world that leaves all else behind. You learn to live for the moment - Pageant Day.

I was not nervous for any phase of the competition. I had chosen all my outfits and was confident in my ability. The most important part of the pageant was the interview. However, the most important part of the day was the parade where everyone lined the streets to see who is vying for the title of River Days Queen.

The pageant is quick and glamorous. The stage is an experience of dazzle and glitz; every young girl's dream. Throughout the pageant I made no enduring friendships, but reinforced those with my student body. I am ever grateful for the support received from school and my family.

I have reflected on my River Days experience several times. Each time I remember another personal triumph. I have learned that you never really win or lose anything. Just live life for the game.

The Competition Pep Rally once again proved to be a success. Everyone played hard and had fun. The seniors won followed by the faculty and then the sophomores came in third place. Even though the rally went pretty smooth it did have some follies while people were slipping and sliding after the egg blowing contest. But between the follies and the goofy games this was a day no one should have missed.

STUDENT TEACHERS

This year Glenwood High had two student teachers from the Ironton Branch of Ohio University. Kesha Pelphrey(left) and Beth Sayers taught English. They taught in the classes of Mrs. Cablish, Mr. Tevis, and Mrs. Wessel.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS

This year Glenwood High School played host to two foreign exchange students bringing the number of students hosted to 10 in the past few years. Previous students have come from Denmark, Germany(2), The Netherlands, Spain(2), Austria, and Japan. Our students this year came from the Scandinavian countries of Denmark and Sweden.

Helle Knudsen came to us from Lyngby, Denmark. While at Glenwood Helle was a member of the Honor Society and Yearbook Staff. She also played basketball and tennis. While in the United States Helle visited Florida, Washington D.C., and The Smoky Mountains. Helle was hosted by New Boston teacher Nancy Clever.

Karolina Osterblom came from Balsta, Sweden. At G.H.S. Karolina played soccer and tennis and was a member of the Honor Society and Drama Club. While here Karolina was able to visit Washington D.C. and Kansas City and went white water rafting on the New River in West Virginia. Karolina was hosted by the Bishop family in New Boston and Lisa Brown in Portsmouth.

For the first time in recent Glenwood High School history a golf team was fielded. The team consisted of six players: three seniors and three freshmen coached by Mr. Robinson. Since the team was inexperienced they were not as successful in competition as they hoped to be. With three returning players the Tiger golf team looks for improvement next year.

Varsity Volleyball

The Lady Tigers had another great season. In spite of being a young team and overcoming various injuries, they finished second behind Eastern in the S.O.C. with an overall record of 13 — 7.

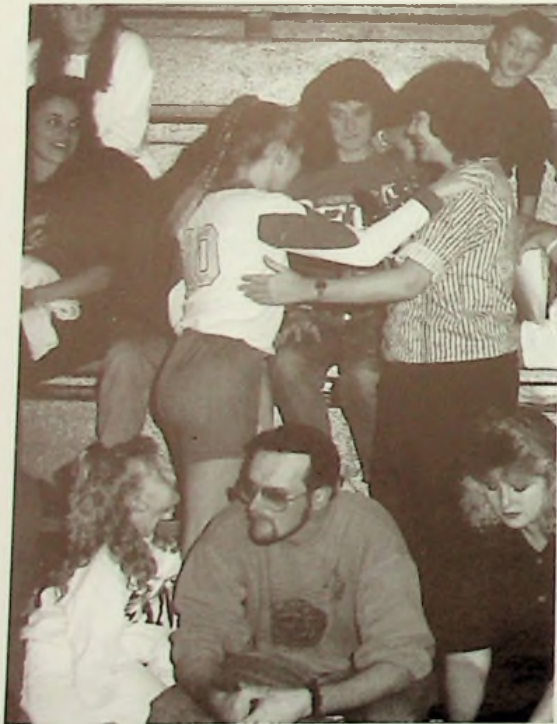

In sectional tournaments the Lady Tigers had to claw their way to the sectional title. In the first match against Clay, all three games were close: 15 - 12, 12 — 15, and 15 — 13. In the second match against Notre Dame the Lady Tigers won in two exciting games. In the first game they came from behind (7 — 14) to win by a score of 16 — 14. The second game was also evenly matched with the Lady Tigers coming out on top 15 — 13.

In the district tournament the Lady Tigers faced Adena (21 — 0). Going into the match the Lady Tigers knew they had a hard task ahead of them. They did their best, but still lost 8 — 15, 7 — 15. The loss to Adena gave the Lady Tigers the District runner-up title. Overall they had an exciting and successful year.

Practice began in early August in the hot sun and humid weather. Players willingly gave up part of their summer to show their pride and ability to play soccer.

Their dedication was obvious when they won their first game against Wheelersburg. But, throughout the season, they learned that the old quote, "You win some, and you lose some," is quite true.

Even though they did not have the best season, they never gave up. They used stamina and hard work to show people that they can leave their mark.

They are saying good-bye to three talented seniors. Hopefully they have passed on their experiences to those who are just beginning their climb up the high school ladder. With their help, they can strive to achieve what was out of their grasp this year.

Spirit and pride are the key to victory in tiger soccer. It is a tradition.

The Tigers take time out to discuss the game and get some water.

Some members of the team head to the sidelines before warm-ups.

During Parents' night, Ryan was proudly escorted by his mom, Connie, and his dad, Bob.

Karolina Osterblom, our exchange student from Sweden, is escorted by her host mom Donna Bishop.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball team, coached by Mark Robinson, had high ambitions for the season. They started out quickly with three wins before suffering their first loss to long-time rival Eastern and then again to Manchester. They rebounded though with three more wins followed by two losses. This seemed to be the pattern for much of the season. The Lady Tigers went on to win the Sectional Tournament and advance to District Tournament where they lost to Green.

Coach Robinson gives the team some important strategies for the game.

BOYS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

The team returns on the offensive.

Vaughn jumps for the ball.

The 1992-93 Varsity Basketball Team was coached again this year by Tony Piguet with assistance by Chris Porter. Three of the eleven players who started the season were seniors Tom Branham, Anthony Maynard, and Jason Risner. Four juniors, three sophomores, and one freshman rounded out the squad. The team started out of the gate slowly with 2 straight losses, but regained their composure to end the season with a respectable 12-10 overall record. They ended 8-4 in the S.O.C. which was good enough for third place.

Jason, Ryan and Tommy talk to the referees prior to the game.

TIGER TENNIS TEAM '93

Carrie reaches for a wide shot.

As was the case with many of our teams this year, the tennis team was very young with little experience. The team included 3 seniors, 2 juniors, 7 sophomores, and 1 freshman. Prospects for the future are good as the team gains experience.

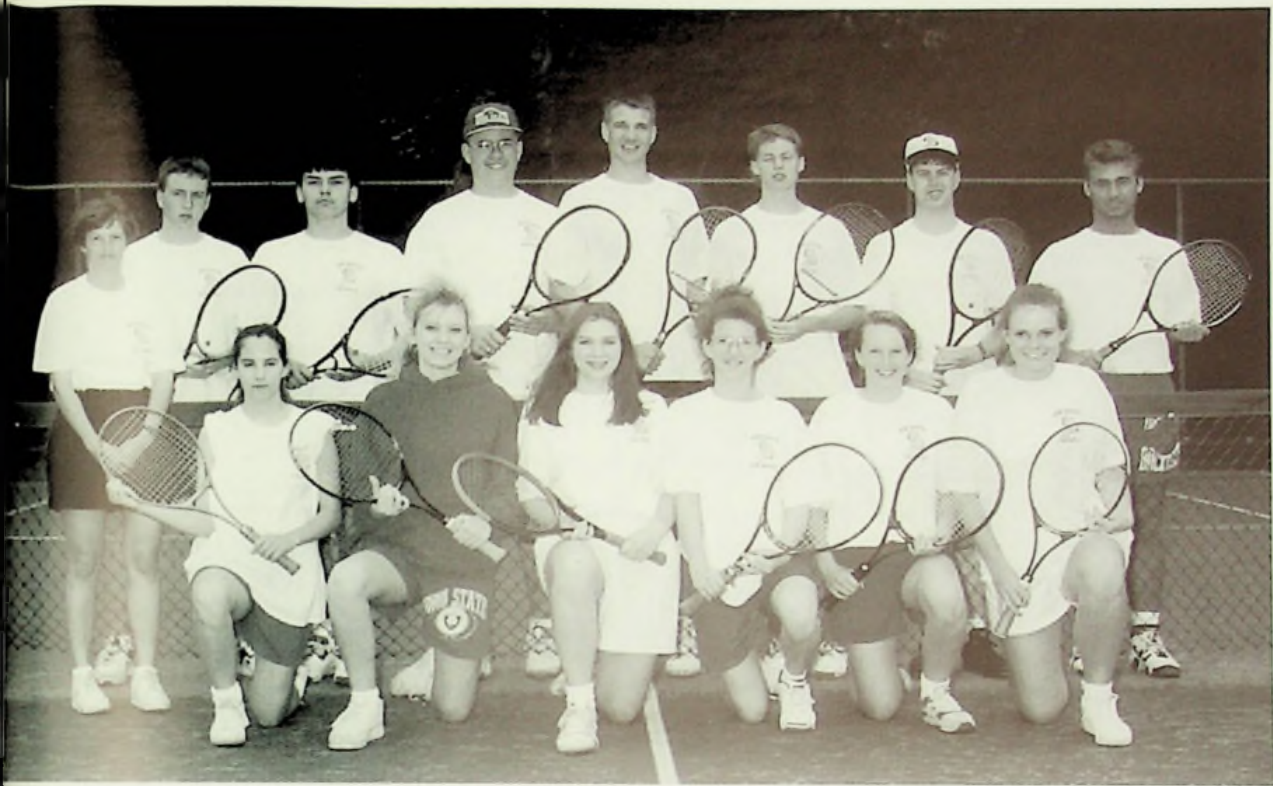

Kristie warms up for her match.

Brent follows through on an overhead shot.

Rachel watches the flight of her serve during a match.

Brian reacts to a close shot.

Jim has a problem with a high bouncer.

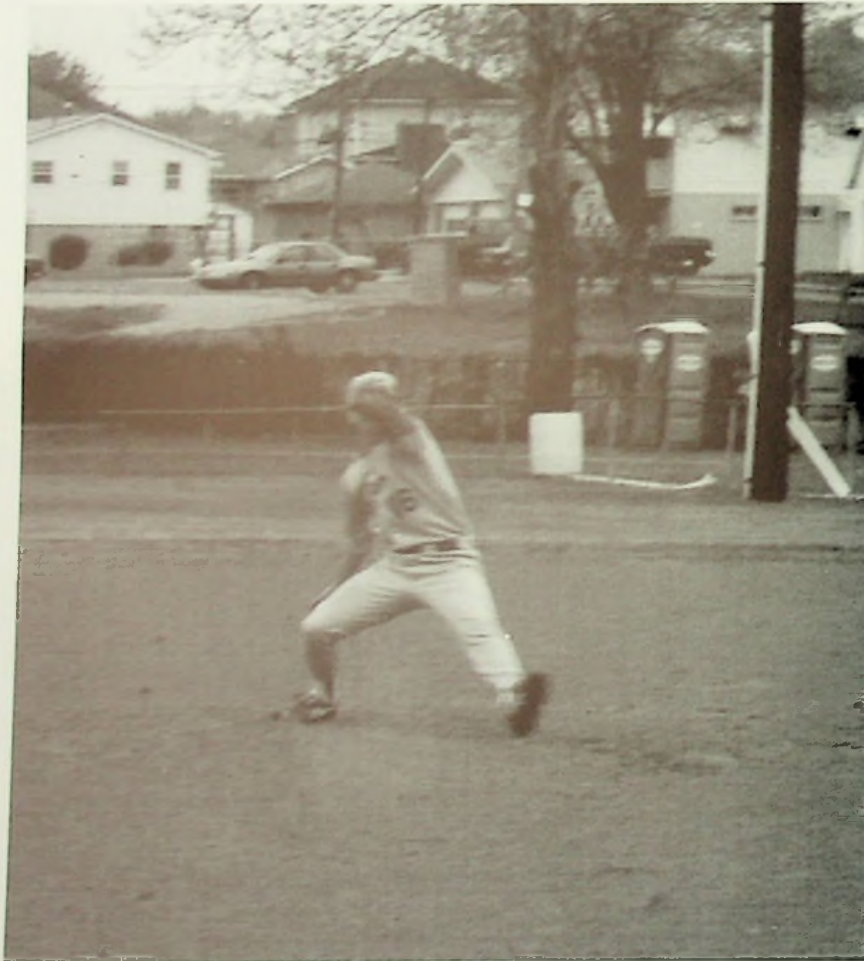

Karolina contemplates where her shot went.

BASEBALL

The 1993 baseball team had a good season. All members of the Tiger team worked hard to make the season a great one. Although three players will graduate, the team in the coming years should prove to be action-packed.

Jason Wolfe pitches a fast one in for a strike.

Jeff takes a look to see if everyone is ready.

BAND

The band proved to be "small but mighty" yet another year. They not only did an outstanding job at their many performances, but they also received a rating of 2, which is an excellent rating, during their trip to the Smoky Mountain Music Festival in Gatlinburg, Tennessee. They earned the right to go by raising money through many fundraisers. Being the first big trip the band has taken in a few years, this was a great experience for all of us.
