The Years that

SHAPE

Our Lives

Different but Besties

Friends Miranda Lewis, Hope Shepherd, Rhianna Pollard, and Alysa Robinson show off the diversity in their day to day lives.

Pump Up the Crowd

Carrie Webb smiles to the home side football crowd to get them excited for the game.

What Shapes Us

SHAPING PERSPECTIVE

Every day, Mohawks are defining what it means to truly be a tribe in and outside of school: from the first victory in twenty years over the Wheelersburg Pirates in boys soccer, pep rallies for homecomings, working hard to maintain academic rigor in the classroom, or to the long lasting friendships and bonds developed between each student and staff member. The Mohawk Nation is full of hard working students and staff who are dedicated to successfulness and ensuring these years shape the brightest future.

This is My Stop

Drama club members share laughter while being "driven" by "bus driver" Abby Carroll during a team bonding activity.

Eyes on the Prize

Jordan Slack determinedly sets her eyes in the direction she wants to send the volleyball.

Day of the Decorations

Ana Howard shows off her Day of the Dead decorating skills in Spanish class.

Student Life

SHAPE OF YOU

Walking through these halls are students of every variety. We bond because we live out our dreams in and out of school, and support one another to make sure those dreams come true. What truly shapes each Mohawk is how they choose to spend their days with each other.

Molding Young Minds

Mrs. West's Current Events students wrote their own children's stories to read to a group of the elementary students.

Positive Reinforcement

Nichole Norman participates in the dizzy bat challenge during football homecoming spirit week while Mr. Amburgey cheers her on.

PERFECT MEMORIES

When the last school bell rings, Mohawks keep themselves busy with extracurricular activities. Whether it's going to concerts, doing club projects, or just spending time with friends, there never seems to be a dull moment to create picture perfect memories.

"Photos capture our memories in print, but our memories are always with us in our minds."

-Catherine Pulsifer, author

Plenty of memories take place out of school but sometimes the best ones happen during it. Making memories is easy when you are with the people you care about.

UNMASK THE NIGHT

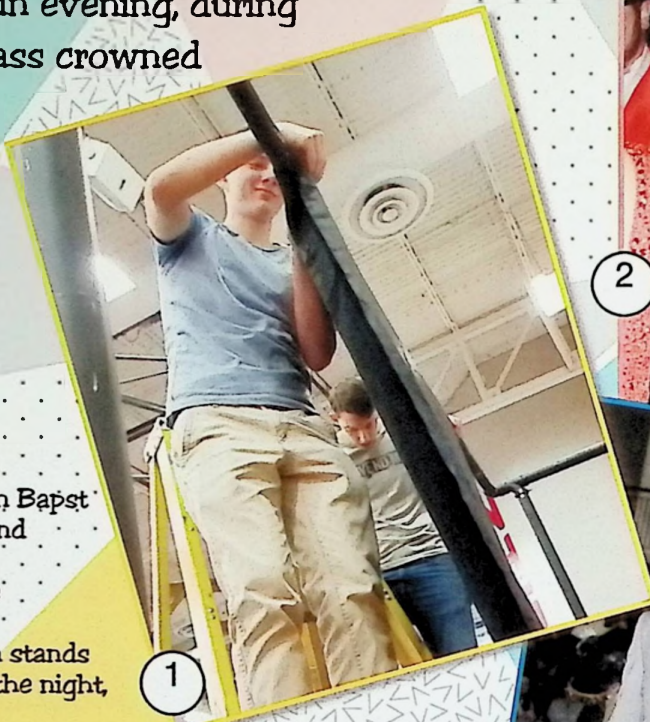

Prom was a memorable night filled with friends, dancing, and laughing. A masquerade brought class and elegance to a fun evening, during which the senior class crowned Ryan Carlson and Amber Hemming as the prom King and Queen. The seniors worked hard to put together the events for the night.

POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE

From the moment each student steps foot into a kindergarten classroom, there are only 27,300 minutes that separate them from graduation day. The fifty-ninth graduating class was lead by four Valedictorians and one Salutatorian. The day the seniors had been anxiously awaiting finally arrived May 21st, 2017.

STAYING IN SHAPE

It's the wave of pride rushing over the runner as they cross the finish line, the pounding in the batter's ears as the ball soars into the outfield. It's the exhale of the quarterback's held breath after he crashes into the endzone, and the wide grin of the outside hitter as she goes in for the spike. The effort in each team, between victory and loss, packs in the roaring crowds proudly rooting for their Mohawks.

Play Ball!

Teamwork On and Off the Track

Kayla Thornberry and Haley Shinkle make a team effort to hold up their fellow teammate, Austin Mundhenk.

It's not whether you get knocked down: it's whether you get back up.

HIT OR GET HIT

Our football team played hard through 10 games this season, enduring many trials but still being able to finish strong. The team ended on a high note during senior night with a victory over the Green Bobcats. Both the team and the crowd enjoyed the Friday night lights when the Mohawks took the field.

ALIVE AND KICKIN'

The only word to describe this season would be "successful," with 13 wins to only 6 losses. This year's team not only battled to stay close to the top of league, but ended the season with a sectional championship under their belt including major wins over league rivals Waverly and Wheelersburg. Coach Keeney stated "I'm really going to miss my four seniors, they were a huge part of this program and are what helped put us on the map again."

GET YOUR KICKS

At the beginning of the season, the Lady Mohawks reeled in 6 ties against some tough competition. The key to the team being competitive was a strong defense which made tremendous strides in shutting down opposing teams. "The injury bug hit us hard midway through the season and made it tough to overcome the loss of key players," Coach Amburgey commented, "Through it all we remained a unified team and with a lot of young ladies returning, we are looking to build upon these small successes in the coming season."

One Band. One Family. One Sound. One Tribe.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

The Marching Mohawks are directed by Christina Stephan and assistant director Callie Barnhouse with 84 band members. Their show "X" was focused around a shipwreck theme and featured solos from band members and the flag corps. The band qualified for state competition for the first time at Valley High School, then a second time at Dawson Bryant High school, and a third at Ironton High School.

Dancing during the cadence at the Riverdays Parade. Riverdays is the longest and usually the hottest parade in the schedule.

At the beginning of the show, the band starts off by laying on the ground. The show told a story about finding and stealing treasure.

Jacob Lynn

"The best time I had was when we were sitting in the stands at Portsmouth West High school and they announced Northwest for best overall percussion."
- Freshman

Jordan Piatt

"It was so fun when we marched in the parade in Florida. It may have been 95 degrees but seeing strangers cheer and record us marching felt amazing."
- Sophomore

Lexi Hubbard

"My favorite memory was when we went to Florida."
- Junior

Aaron Bapst

"I absolutely loved going to Florida with the band. Specifically, watching the Disney fireworks on the last day of the trip. Everyone watched them together as a family. They were amazing!"
- Senior

Grace Hobbs preparing to play her solo at the beginning of the show. Grace's role in the show was to steal the treasure.

Band director Mrs. Stephan, her husband, and daughter driving around the grounds of the Rock Hill competition. Mrs. Stephan was 7 months pregnant.

The percussionists were ecstatic when cutting instructor Josh Martin's hair, which was the reward he agreed to if the percussion section received a superior rating.

A mixed section of instruments march during their show at the Portsmouth West competition. The band placed second overall in the competition.

The band was combined with Eastern's band to perform a unique halftime show. One of the songs performed was the Isley Brothers' "Ain't Been Good."

During the show, Drew Hubbard and Annabelle Faulkner act out their fight scene. Only the percussion section was playing at this point in the show.

The cross country team made serious strides of improvement throughout the season. Second team all-conference runner Kayla Thornberry paced the girl's team and Austin Mudhenk was the first runner of the season to break 20 minutes at the championship. All team members worked hard to improve their times and make the team stronger.

ACTION

Competing with schools all around Ohio, the golf team worked hard to keep their heads in the game. The team this year is comprised mostly of seniors who were dedicated to golf all four years of high school. Every member of the team was proud to represent the school at each match.

Nick Golland

"I like to play the game because it's a stress reliever. I've played since I was younger and loved it ever since."
- Junior

Elijah Spencer

"I think golf is fun and it keeps my mind off stuff. It's just really fun."
- Freshman

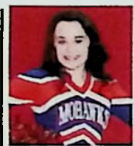

A jump above the rest.

LOUD AND PROUD

When high school sports comes to mind, no sport would be complete without its cheerleaders. Our cheerleaders are a group of hardworking girls that love to spread school spirit everywhere they go. This year the cheerleaders went to the OASSA state competition and placed 4th, held a cheer camp for elementary cheerleaders, and lead hundreds of Mohawk fans in supporting our teams.

The cheerleaders smile for a picture with a former foreign exchange student's mother during a basketball game. She loved the girls' uniforms and enjoyed watching them cheer.

UPTOWN DUNK

Both the Junior Varsity and Varsity boys basketball teams kicked off the season with a great start. The Varsity team beat West Union on the road with a 9 point victory. Kyle Leslie and Kaleb Smith made All-SOC teams while Dustin Taylor received an honorable mention for all-district. The boys fought hard for their awards and victories, which shows in the end of the season with a back-to-back blowout against Portsmouth West and Ironton St. Joe.

TAKE IT TO THE NET

Time seems to freeze as the final shot of the evening whooshes through the basket before hitting the ground. Each of the Lady Mohawks knows this feeling. This season, the girls basketball team showed great pride and put 110% effort into each game. They worked together as a team on the court and continued that pattern off it. The team feels as though they're more than just teammates - they're family.

ROCK SOLID

Trails of sweat are evident on their faces as the thunderous thud of the weight falling to the ground echoes off the weight room walls. The weight room is a place where the weak get strong and the strong get even stronger. The hours the powerlifting team puts behind the bar is evident in their successes and strength.

If you have a lane, you have a chance.

DIVE DEEPER

The smell of chlorine lingers. A competitive smirk smears across the faces of the swimmers as they prepare to beat their records. Both the boys and girls on the swim team reached higher than ever this season, and achieved even more than they could have dreamed. At the final meet, the team brought home broken records and better times.

DIAMOND DIVAS

The hurried sound of sneakers scuffing the dirt on the field picks up speed as it clashes with the motivational cheers from the crowd. This is a common occurrence for the softball team. The girls are focused on powerful pride and a want for victory. Each of them have a driving force behind them that makes their hard work pay off in the end: the goal to never disappoint their teammates.

Congratulations on your retirement!

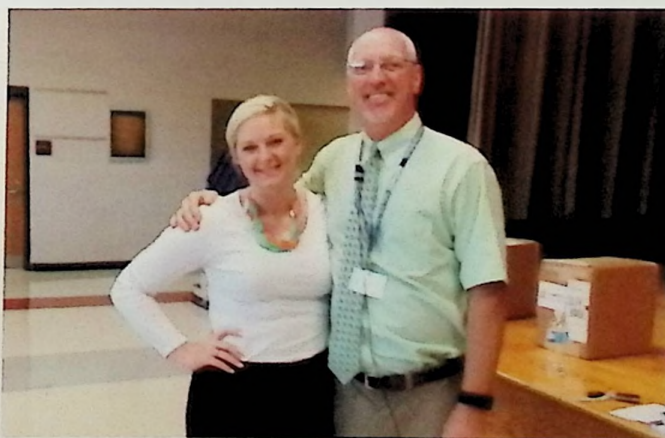

Technology teachers Ms. Patrick and Mrs. Moore pose in the hallway before the graduation ceremony. This is Mrs. Moore's last ceremony as a teacher.

One of our beloved technology teachers, Mrs. Brenda Moore, is retiring after 31 years of teaching. She has been an involved community member of the Northwest District as well as a mentor and leader to our students and other teachers. The yearbook staff extends a huge thank you to her for providing so many pictures to use to create these beautiful publications.

Mrs. Moore, you will be missed! Enjoy your much deserved retirement!

After 12 years as the principal at the high school and a total of 31 years in education, Mr. Rick Scarberry is joining the ranks of the retirees. He has been a great leader and role model for students and staff throughout his career.

Mr. Scarberry, your leadership and care for this district will be greatly missed!

Mr. Scarberry and his daughter Ms. Devon Scarberry, an elementary intervention specialist, pose on the first day of school.
