The Times Of Your Life
Good morning yesterday, you wake up — and time has slipped away,
And suddenly it's hard to find — the memories you left behind
Remember? Do you remember?
The laughter and the tears — the shadows of misty yesteryears,
The good times and the bad you've seen — and all the others in between,
Remember? Do you remember the times of your life?
Reach back for the joy and the sorrow — put them away in your mind,
For memories are time that you borrow — to spend when you get to tomorrow!
Here comes the setting sun — the seasons are passing one by one,
So gather moments while you may, collect the dreams you dream today —
Remember? Do you remember the times of your life?

This year has been the best year in a long time for our Tennis team. We never came out of any match empty handed. We also won several of our matches. We are looking forward to a great year in 1982!

In all that I've done and all that I've learned,
I've searched for a "Me," for others to see,
Upon looking up after three years gone by
I found another page of my life had turned.

The simple happenings of today
Will be great memories tomorrow,
And the fact that we can't do it again
Might bring us a bit of sorrow.

Yet the simple fact that we've live life once
Will let us think it a success
And the years to come will prove to us
This year has been better than all the rest.
