Feb 7
I have had a rough day
till about noon
then cleared off
and a cold wind set in and the weather beca
me cold I packed up the baggage and took to the

A much warmer day than we saw. I fixed the wagon and went and got a load of hay
was late
I was getting cooler

While we were eating dinner
the river started up. Tip Collet had a bus pushing in and exclaiming.
The horse was a fine which had got started in the road. The was now put out

Mon Feb 8

A cool morning
and cool all day
He began work in camp this morning.

Tom Harrison
came to go to work. G. B. Long was here as usual.

Sam Aldridge
and his boy were here by the work in the Coal bank.

Tom cut wood
till noon Sarge hauled magnets and I skinned around

Tues Feb 9.

A cool morning
but was a cold day.
Tom & I worked at the magnets
most all day Sarge hauled wood till noon
then worked in the Coal bank Aldridge gave up the Coal bank and took another
job of clearing.
He got the word
of Edith Burns
Death.

Wed Feb 10
A cold day
Ice had last night
Tom cut wood and chad
most all day
I got ready and drove the rig for Ben's taking part of the family to the church and then to the cemetery
Had not get back to a sack.

Thurs Feb 11
A cool morning
but never do Tom had two loads of
hay. And a load of grain to the Sergeant
dug coal all day.

Fri. Feb. 12.
A cold night
and a cold mist
all day.

Found a little beaver along
coast all day.
I took a load of coal up to Jim Apple.

Then hauled two loads of wood. And an load of hay.
Tom cut wood
till noon then helped me
with the load
of hay.

Sat. Feb. 13
A cool morning
but a nice day.
Beaver dug out Tom & I got wood most all
day.
Dad & his wife came out this evening.

Alban July 22
A cold wind
The wind began to blow and then it began to get colder and began to fall 40 degrees about noon. Then began to get colder and by 10 A.M. it
had reached 28 degrees. Then began to warm up. I hauled out 11 loads of manure.
Jan Cleary and stable boy. After dinner went up and got a load of hay

up and got a load of slate to be used for bank and hauled two loads of coal down

Wed. Feb 24

A cool windy day.
The roads are thawed out and terrible muddy.
We all went up home. Tom & I hailed in Pa's share of the corn and shucked some of it. and loaded up a
load of hay.
Ella & the girls
went along.
We all got dinner
at home.

Thurs. Feb 25

A cool morning
before noon. The morning
Tom & I fixed
grapevine cherries
and binned grape vines till noon. Then
He took the team up and got a load of radishes
at Sledge.

Fri. Feb 25
A cool time
A snow last night and thickening rain but did not fall. Cleaned out a table to put in the winter equipment but did not get to see my man Got several my type & gun back to the man

Sat. Feb 27
A nice day
A man made all gun
A very quiet day
I left town
I had a haircut
and all day I chatted around then got ready and went off to Sgt. Dennis to get some blacksmith done. Then I went over to Church with the boys Anderson was out back by 10 PM

From Feb 28

A nice warm day He got ready and
went over to Church to hear

Anderson preach.

I have made up my mind to open the English Bible to

after a while a little to be

in. I made that night by start and let them was hot and

and gradually
in that way and I trust to keep them in the strait path.

From Feb 25

A nice day
I went to Church and I have felt they had
I do not feel right, I am
weak and need encouragement.
