A Special Message to Clay High School

from the President of the United States of America

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

One of the greatest challenges facing America today is the struggle to make our nation drug-free. Drugs are poison, and they damage the mind and body, eroding the very foundation of society.

My goal is not only to eliminate drug use but also to prevent the friends and loved ones of users from experiencing the pain and suffering associated with drugs. This is why I need your help. I am counting on you to make a commitment to remain drug-free and to assume a leadership role in confronting this problem. It is up to you to personally take the anti-drug message to your friends, your school, and your community.

Your courage and commitment, plus our government's national strategy, will combine to form a united, determined America where drugs are not tolerated. It will take hard work and require time, but with your efforts and our country's resolve, we can win the war on drugs.

George W. Bush

Seniors Reign Supreme

Jay Prosch reached a milestone this year as he scored over 1,000 points in basketball.

Senior Class President Sean Maynard smiles under the lights after the Drama Club play.

I can remember the first year that we were together in Ms. Horsley's kindergarten class. We used to sit around that big piano singing those songs that we all dreaded. From Rosemount Primary to Rubyville Elementary, we picked up other new classmates with whom we became good friends. During our four years at Rubyville we developed in many ways. Entering Junior High, we were timid, but curious. Next came the end of our immaturity, we met high school at its best as we were introduced to Mrs. Beaumont and her fury of history, Latin, and Psychology/Sociology. We also progressed and learned from such teachers as Mr. Pelfrey, Ms. Pflieger, Mr. Leive, Mrs. Little, Mr. Lemaster, Mrs. Phillips, Ms. Rice, Mrs. Deal, and Mr. Buckler. Then came our Senior year, the year of glory, in which we could rule the school from August 'til June. After thirteen years of education, we made it! The Class of 1990!

— Scott Stidham, Yearbook Co-Editor

Julie Bramblett and Jennifer Zeune prepare to cheer.

Super Seniors!

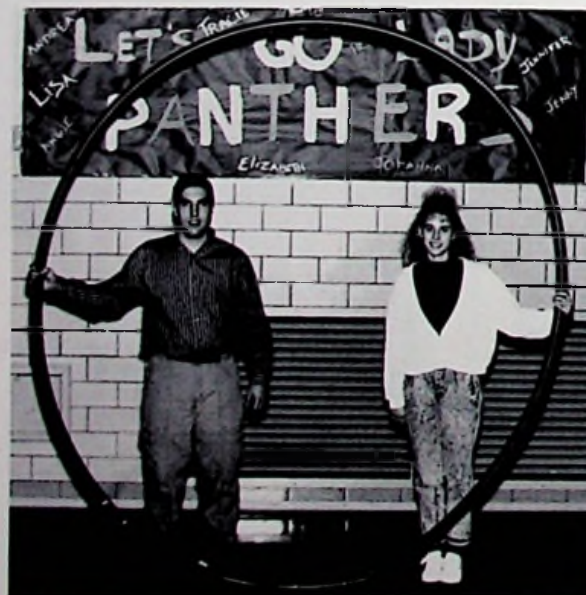

The most athletic in the class were Elizabeth Blevins and Jay Prosch.

As pictured, Tina Murta and John Mills show their "Friendliest" traits.

Tracie Erwin and Jeff Whitley practicing their likiness to return to Portsmouth.

Obviously, Scott Stidham and Mindy Powell are the best all-around.

Laura Montgomery and Duane Skaggs sharpen their intellectual skills.

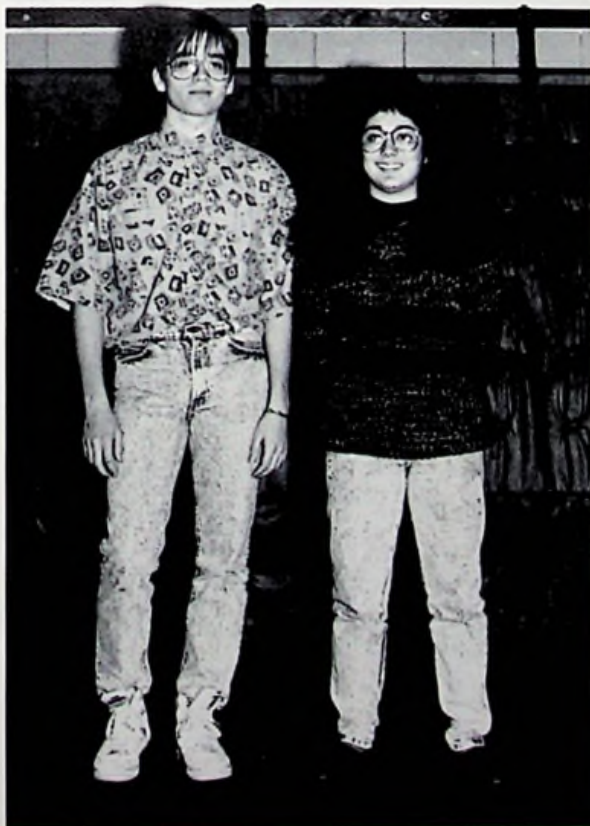

Joe Wright and Jennifer Zeune, class brownies, caught in action.

Erica Goodballet and Sean Maynard try to clean up their clowning ways.

At 7 feet and 6 feet respectively, Duane Skaggs and Tina Murta are certainly munchkins.

Super Seniors!

Class of 1990: Never Say Goodbye

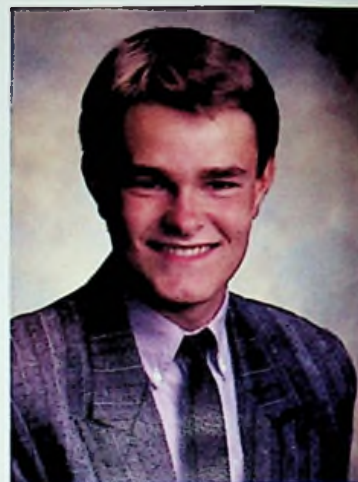

Dear Seniors:

Well, here it is, graduation is upon us. Congratulations! You made it. Now comes the real challenge . . . leaving our friends to get on with our lives and face the challenges of the real world. But no matter what happens to us we will all have the memories from our high school years.

I think we owe a lot to the teachers and all of the faculty members that have taught us so much and prepared us for the future. I also want to thank all of my classmates for the fun and good times we had and to wish them success and all of the best in the future.

Always remember . . . There is only one of you for all time — So fearlessly be yourself!

Sincerely,
Sean Eric Maynard

The marching band, directed by Mr. Gary Billips, struts their stuff during the annual River Days parade.

Senior cheerleaders Julie Bramblett, Jennifer Zeune, and Tina Murta are posed and ready for the beginning of the River Days Grand Parade.

Our River Days candidate, Amy DeLotelle, waves to her many admirers. Amy's float, entitled "Jungle Love," followed the band through the parade route.

The new school year started with a bang as Clay High School students prepared for the 1989 River Days Festivities. Representing Clay High School in the annual Miss River Days Pageant was Amy DeLotelle. As seen in the Grand Parade and pageant, Amy represented Clay well as she beautifully displayed her friendliness.

Clay's blue and yellow colors were proudly displayed by the many student and faculty participants. The marching band headed the Clay entourage, followed closely by Amy's float and the high school cheerleaders.

The Festival once again proved to be fun and exciting for the Clay High School participants!

Tina Murta grimaces as Julie Bramblett and Jennifer Zeune discuss the hot, piercing sun. These three Seniors are members of the Varsity cheerleading squad.

Amy holds on tightly as her "jungle" prowls down Chillicothe Street during the River Days Parade. Amy is also a Senior member of the National Honor Society.

1990 Homecoming Festivities

The show must go on!

Following several cancellations due to the many inches of snow received, the festive Homecoming ceremonies were finally presented in early January. The high school gymnasium was decorated in shocking pink and black. Hundreds and hundreds of family, friends, students, and competitors were in attendance as Clay hosted the Eastern Eagles of Pike County.

Months earlier, the student body at Clay High School chose the beautiful young ladies to fill the Homecoming Court. The Freshmen class of 1993 chose Andrea Hempill as its Homecoming Attendant. Chrissy Miller was selected to be the Sophomore Homecoming Attendant. The Juniors, class of 1991, chose Keri Gable as Homecoming Attendant. Also from the Junior Class, Brandi Moore was selected as the Junior Vo-Tech Attendant. The Senior Class chose as its Senior Attendant, Tracie Erwin. From Vo-Tech, Missy Hafer was chosen as the Senior Vo-Tech Attendant. The 1990 Homecoming Queen, chosen by all students was Erica Goodballet.

The Varsity basketball team lost a close contest to a tough Eastern squad. The team, fueled by a Homecoming spark, nearly handed one of the top teams in our conference a big defeat. The basketball game certainly added to the enthusiasm of the night.

Following the game, a homecoming dance was held sponsored by the Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleaders.

Members of the Varsity team try to guide the crown bearer to his spot. With this help and a few throws of the crown, the little guy made it!

Senior Attendant Tracie Erwin explains the homecoming procedures to Senior Jay Prosch. Jay, of course, was more interested in the game as he became one of the county's leading scorers. Also shown, Senior Sean Maynard, Keri Gable, and Chrissy Miller.

Queen Erica Goodballet smiles for the photographer after her crowning. Erica is the second from her family to be chosen Clay High School's Homecoming Queen. Congratulations Goodballets!

Hurricanes and Earthquakes lead to Rolling Stones!

The World According to Clay

Our school year, 1989-1990, proved to be very newsworthy. Not only did we see many shining Clay High School events, but we also saw many stunning international activities. Flag burning was a major issue in the United States. The Supreme Court limited the power of states to outlaw the desecration or destruction of the American flag. Justice William J. Brennan, writing for the court, said, "We did not consecrate the flag by punishing its desecration, for in doing so we dilute the freedom that this cherished emblem represents."

The Voyager spacecraft capped its historic 4.43-billion-mile, 12-year tour of four planets when it skimmed 3,048 miles over Neptune's north pole in August, then dove past Triton, the planet's largest moon. "If you want to understand Earth, go look at other worlds," said astronomer Carl Sagan, a member of the team that analyzed about 81,000 photographs taken by Voyager 2 and its twin Voyager 1.

On November 9, East Germany lifted restrictions on emigration and travel to the West, and within hours thousands of Germans celebrated on and around the Berlin Wall. This wall, which has divided East and West Germany since 1961, had finally begun to crumble.

There was news very close to our area. Cincinnati Reds Manager Pete Rose, one of the greatest players in the history of baseball, had been banned for life from the game for betting on his own team. "I've been in baseball three decades and to think I'm going to be out of baseball for a very short period of time hurts," Rose said at a press conference in Cincinnati.

With the strength of his arm and the power of his will, a paraplegic completed a weeklong ascent of El Capitan and said his 3,200 foot climb proves the disabled can accomplish great feats.

The Exxon Valdez, a 987-foot tanker owned by Exxon Shipping Co., struck Bligh Reef about 25 miles from Valdez, Alaska, ripping holes in its hull, gushing millions of gallons of thick crude oil into Prince William Sound. The result was the largest oil spill in U.S. history.

In 1989, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar gave us his last performance. At the end of the night fans cheered him while teammates hugged him.

Leaving a trail of death and destruction across the Caribbean, Hurricane Hugo smashed into the coastal city of Charleston, South Carolina on September 22, 1989.

A catastrophic earthquake rocked Northern California on October 17, killing at least 62 people and injuring hundreds, caving in bridges and freeways, and causing widespread damage.

The Rolling Stones launched their 1989 tour August 13 when they pulled into a tiny New Haven, Connecticut, nightclub for a tuneup that thrilled 700 fans who paid $3 a piece for the impromptu gig. Members of the band are (l/r) Ron Wood, Mick Jagger, Keith Richards, Bill Wyman, and Charlie Watt.

Miss Missouri Debbye Turner, a mirimba-playing veterinary student from the University of Missouri, was crowned Miss America 1990 this September. Miss Turner is the third Black woman to become Miss America in the pageant's 68-year history.
