PORTSMOUTH, OHIO

INTRODUCTORY.

The fifth consecutive issue of the city directory for Portsmouth, Ohio by R. L. Polk & Co. is hereby presented for the year of 1916.

Through an arrangement sanctioned formally by The Retail Merchants' Association and the business men affiliated with that organization an important change was made in the style of the directory, in that, in addition to the information for the city of Portsmouth and the villages of New Boston, Sciotoville, Star Yards and the residents on the West Side, a Street or Householders' Guide has been added giving all the numbers on each street in Portsmouth from the lowest to the highest with the name of the occupant opposite and indicating those who were reported to us as owners, together with the street intersections as they occur.

In keeping with our desire to serve our patrons in every way possible, we have also installed a very complete directory library in the rooms of the Retail Merchants' Association.

The location of Portsmouth at the junction of the Scioto and Ohio rivers and served by the Norfolk & Western, Baltimore & Ohio-Southwestern and Chesapeake & Ohio railroads gives it all the advantages of both river and rail transportation and has been an important factor in the steady growth of the city.

The construction of the great bridge spanning the Ohio River at Sciotoville by the Chesapeake & Ohio during the past year in its extension to the north cannot but prove of great value to the future of the city.

POPULATION.

The increase in the number of names in the directory shows that Portsmouth is steadily growing. Upon this basis an accurate census of Portsmouth within its city limits should show a population of 27,872. Including its adjacent villages covered by this canvass, but which would be excluded in an United States census, Portsmouth is the center of an urban and suburban population of 31,775.

The publishers desire to express their appreciation of the support which has been accorded them in their effort to issue the much more expensive form of a directory and trust that the change will add greatly to its value to the users.

The Great New York City Directory for 1915

Issued for the first time by

R. L. POLK & CO.

Is one of the Largest Books in the World. It has 2656 pages

12 $\frac{1}{2}$ by 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches with five columns of ruby type to the page and contains 1,104,676 individual names. It weighs fourteen pounds and estimates the population of Greater New York to be 5,333,537. The canvass began in August, 1914; 800 were engaged on the work; printing began in December

1914, and the book was delivered in March, 1915. Directory experts concede that it was the greatest enterprise ever successfully undertaken by any firm.

COLUMBUS, 1914 contrasted with it, has been published by R. L. Polk & Co., since 1889. It has 1,889 pages of double column and contains 102,950 individual names. It weighs six pounds and estimates the population of Greater Columbus for that year to be 244,573.

COLUMBUS, 1856 the small volume which appears in the cut, was issued by C. S. Williams of Cincinnati. It has 211 pages, single column, contains 4,092 names and weighs fifteen ounce. The population was then about 20,000.

The directory library maintained by R. L. Polk & Co. at their offices, 403-404-405 Central Natl. Bank Bldg., contains the directories of most of the large cities throughout the country.

The Association of the American Directory Publishers is composed of reputable City Directory Publishers, organized for the general advancement of the Directory business. Any person, corporation or firm engaged in business as owner and publisher of a City Directory in the United States or Canada, who shall qualify as competent to gather information and compile a City Directory and furnish satisfactory references, is eligible to membership.

The objects of the Association are:

First. The advancement of the Directory business and the improvement of Directories by the interchange of ideas and the exchange of experienced employes.

Second. To provide protection to the public against fraudulent advertising schemes which operate under the name of Directories, and to drive unprincipled promoters of the same out of business.

Third. To provide permanent and profitable employment to competent, industrious and honest Directory canvassers and compilers.

Fourth. For the mutual protection and advancement of the established and prospective interests of all who may become members, by personal advice and assistance of members as may be mutually satisfactory, desirable or advisable, and by such other means as may, from time to time, be shown to be wise, proper and lawful.

$100.00 REWARD will be paid by the Association for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons engaged in publishing, collecting or canvassing for any fraudulent or fake Directory.
