FOREWORD

"Give me liberty or give me death," said Patrick Henry. These famous words were not just mere utterings. Mr. Henry cared so much for liberty that he was willing to give his life for what he believed.

President John F. Kennedy was assassinated. Astronauts Ed White, Gus Grissom, and Roger Chafee were burned to death while trying to keep our nation free. Thousands have given their lives in Viet Nam for the same things--Freedom!

To these people and all others who have given the last full measure of devotion to the American people and the land that is held so dear, we dedicate this yearbook.

1967 CLASS HISTORY

We entered East High School in the fall of 1963 with 136 members in our class. Our first class election saw John Schwamburger becoming president with Becky Shoemaker, vice-president; Karen Arthur, secretary; and Rod Millhuff, treasurer. Toka Holland was homecoming attendant, and Mike Schomburg and Barb Garlinger represented us as Tartan King and Queen candidates. Kathie Clausing was a majorette for the freshman band and Malcom Haywood won the freshman band award.

Our sophomore year began with an election of new officers. Mike Schomburg became president with Edith Young, vice-president; Kathie Clausing, secretary; and Jeannie Hieneman, treasurer. These officers along with our student council members Bill Basham, Mike Leesburg, and Ken Wadkins, designed the new school ring. Donna Skinner was our homecoming attendant. Jim Hartlage and Jeannie Hieneman were our Tartan King and Queen candidates. Diana Bennett and Patsy Kayser became majorettes, and Jean Born, Sandi Chamberlain, Barb Garlinger, Jeannie Hieneman, and Jamie Secrest were reserve cheerleaders. Jean Born, Patsy Kayser, Becky Shoemaker, Donna Skinner, Elaine Stone, and Edith Young served as prom waitresses.

We came into our junior year working hard for funds for our main event--the prom. With newly elected officers--Kathie Clausing, president; Barb Garlinger, vice-president; Becky Shoemaker, secretary; and Karen Arthur, treasurer--leading us, we made our prom "Polynesian Paradise" a success. Sharon Spaulding was our homecoming attendant, and Dan Figlestahler and Jamie Secrest were runners-up in the Tartan King and Queen contest. Inducted into the National Honor Society were Kathie Clausing, Barb Garlinger, John Schwamburger, Becky Shoemaker, and Edith Young. Neva Dodge represented us in Youth-in-Government, while John Schwamburger and Barb Garlinger attended Boys' and Girls' states, respectively. Jim Hartlage won honors as a SOC football standout. Jean Born, Sandi Chamberlain, and Karen Arthur became Varsity cheerleaders. John Schwamburger received the Junior Cup.

Our senior year found us working for funds for the yearbook. Our big project was the selling of Ads for the annual. President Ted Adams, Vice-President John Schwamburger, secretary Kathie Clausing, and Treasurer Karen Arthur, were chosen to lead us through our last year. Karen Arthur reigned as our Homecoming Queen with Edith Young as her senior attendant. Phil Liles and Kathie Clausing were Tartan King and Queen. Phil Liles and Diana Bennett led the band as drum major and Head majorette. Ted Adams, Karen Arthur, Helen Brown, Neva Dodge, Jim Hartlage, Mike Leesburg, Mary Montavon, Jamie Secrest, Linda Weaver, and Teresa Yerardi were tapped as new National Honor Society members. In sports: Jim Hartlage won a position on the SOC football team with Dan Figlestahler and Mike Leesburg receiving honorable mention. Honorable mention went to Mike Schomburg and Steve Williams for SOC basketball play. Track was added to East's sports agenda. Kathie Clausing, Barb Garlinger, and Becky Shoemaker became our Tri-valedictorians and Linda Kennedy became our salutatorian. On senior day Dan Fetty received the Sandi Pence Award, Becky Shoemaker the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award; Vaudeen Artis the Sterling Silver Award; and Karen Arthur, the Betty Crocker Award.

We would like to thank the faculty, especially our advisors, for making our high school years a memorable and worthwhile experience.

LEADING THE SENIORS

Senior class officers Ted Adams, president; John Schwamburger, vice-president; Karen Arthur, treasurer; and Kathie Clausing, secretary form a pact to make their class go.

With their leadership, class sponsored activities such as the New Years Eve party and the making of the yearbook proved successful.

Get 'em while they're hot! 99 cents a pair.

Would you believe Napoleon?

You're lookin' good, Karen, mighty good!

Ringo will soon be out a job.

Ted Adams, Senior Class President, presents an award to one of the members of the great Class of '67.

Here John Schwamburger gives his explanation of the Junior Cup before he presents the award to Beth Torges.

SENIOR DAY 1967

("FAKE 'EM OUT")

The Senior Class Officers were in charge of the program. Karen Arthur was the treasurer of the Senior Class.

Kathie Clausing presented the Honor Roll certificates to some of the outstanding Seniors.

This year's Senior Class was very different from any other in that it had three Valedictorians. Here Mr. Roney presents Barb Garlinger, Kathie Clausing, and Becky Shoemaker their trophies.

BEST ALL-AROUND

Every day in every way Edith Young and Jim Hartlage are tops. You had better watch out, Jim, because Edith is running out of tape.

CLASS CLOWNS

If you ever wondered what all the commotion was about during our high school days, you can be quite sure that Pam Robbins and Danny Figlestahler were the leaders of the clowning pack.

SENIOR

BEST MANNERED

Jamie Secrest and Mike Schomburg are constantly heard saying "Excuse me," "Thank you," and "Please." They are always considerate of the other person's feelings.

BEST DANCERS

If you want all the tips on the latest dances, get in touch with Penny Mershon and Greg Stamper. They can be seen almost daily trying out new steps and routines.

BEST DRESSED

Donna Skinner seems to be wasting her time by straightening Rod Milhuff's shirt. Actually Donna and Rod are the two toughest dressers day in and day out.

SHIEST

Cheryl Sturgill and Paul Gilpin may seem shy, but everyone who knows them can tell you that they are two great people to be around.

PERSONALITIES

MOST STUDIOUS

Whenever and wherever studying is done, you can be sure to see Kathie Clausing and Ted Adams. They are always tops in every class.

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

Becky Shoemaker and John Schwamburger will, of course, obtain occupations much more fitting to their IQ. Both will be hitting the books again this fall in hopes of achieving the greatest success.

BEST ATHLETES

Jeannie Hieneman and Mike Leesburg are such great sports enthusiasts that they are now trying to "stuff" the cage ball. Keep at it and you surely will win out.

BEST PERSONALITY

Fun, laughter, and friends surround Sharon Spaulding and Ken Wadkins in their everyday lives. Do you need a friend? Get in touch with them because they never leave a friend out in the cold.

PEPPIEST

Karen Arthur and Phil Liles do not know the meaning of the word idleness. "Always on the go" and "forever pepping people up" are good descriptive terms for these two seniors.

MOST POISED
 "Stand tall" is the motto of Pam Allard and Malcolm Haywood. You never see them when they are not at their tallest.

CLASS CHATTERBOX
 Tape is the greatest invention ever when used to shut the mouths of Rita Coriell and Danny Fetty. They can talk forever and never say anything worth hearing.

MOST INQUISITIVE
 Barb Garlinger and Brad Martin are always trying to find out some new method of doing something whenever there is an experiment.

CLASS OF

With the thoughts of the prom never leaving their minds, the juniors went to work trying to think of money-making schemes. They sold programs at the basketball games, ran the concession stand at the games, had a style show, and presented a class play. They also published the school newspaper.

Kay McCardle was treasurer; Rhonda Curtiss, secretary; Janet Sylvia, president; and Bruce Martin, vice-president. With these very capable students leading them, the juniors were able to host the prom successfully.

CLASS OF '69

The sophomores, having elected as their president Kathy Buchanan, vice-president Ede Ashworth, secretary Pam Nelson, and treasurer Joanie Hartlage, adjusted themselves completely to high school and got down to work earning money to put in their treasury.

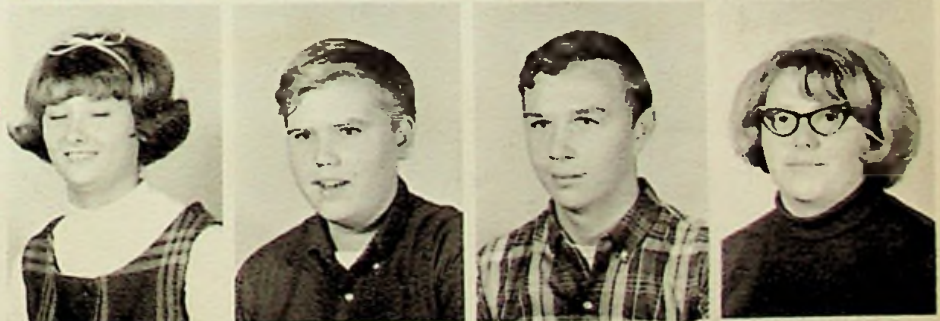

The principal money-making projects were selling doughnuts and washing cars. Having become accustomed to high school life, the sophs are now going through the daily routine of study, work, and play.

CLASS OF '70

The freshman class under the leadership of Sim Martin - president, Terry Shuter - vice - president, Dave Schwamburger - treasurer and Dennis Stevens - secretary held a dance as its main money-making project.

Like most students entering East for the first time, the freshmen had to adjust themselves to the hustle-bustle of high school. Their behavior in grade school was not quite as commendable as it is now.

ORGANIZA

TIONS

The East High Band participated in many activities this year. Not only did it perform at every football game but it also marched in parades, including Jackson's Apple Festival parade, and Marshall University's Band Day. Other activities included winter and spring concerts. Here are the members: First row - Linda Kennedy, Edith Young, Ruth Ervin, Jennifer Hebner, Vicki DeAmicis, Ede Ashworth, Kathie Clausing, Karen Patz, Beth Torges, Kathy Buchanan, and Diane Wilson. Second row - Nancy Coey, Marsha Conley, Sue Williams, Sharon Snyder, Elaine Bussler, Lila Dillow, Sue Curtiss, Becky Shoemaker, Carolyn Fitch, Penny Mershon, Rocky Bryan, Barb Chamberlin, Bev Leesburg, Penny Kilgore, Larry Turner, Sharon Sparks, and Barb Garlinger. Third row - Helen Brown, Gloria Cole, Paula Turner, Marsha Giles, Janet Sylvia, Sue Russell, John Daniels, Darrell Carter, Bill Morrison, Yvonne Whitt, and Dave Morrison. Fourth row - Mr. Abernathy, Malcom Haywood, Bill Basham, Diana Bennett, Kenny Carter, Pam Nelson, Debbie Imes, Jim Morgan, Kathy Morgan, Brett Marsh, Terry Conley, and Phil Liles.

The pep band worked to instill pep in the crowds at pep assemblies and all home basketball games.

Mr. Abernathy is caught in a cheery greeting as he exhibits his baritone skills to a few students before band practice begins.

Phil Liles was selected as drum major this year and filled the position very well. He attended Camp Crescendo, where he earned the position of field commander. He worked there all summer.

The Band Council is the ruling body of band members and also acts as a liaison between the students and administration. First row - Edith Young, vice-president; Kathie Clausing, secretary; Beth Torges, treasurer; Bill Basham, president. Second row - Sue Curtiss, senior representative; Janet Sylvia, junior representative; Phil Liles, representative-at-large; Jeri Fankell, sophomore representative; and Marsha Conley, freshman representative.

The main activity of the pep band was to entertain the crowds at basketball games. It also played at Highland Bend Nazarene Church at Christmas time for under-privileged children. Members are: First row - Bill

Morrison, Darrell Carter, and Becky Shoemaker. Second row - Barb Garlinger, Sharon Sparks, Penny Kilgore and Larry Turner. Third row - Phil Liles, Brett Marsh, and Kenny Carter.

Paula Turner and many band members danced to the music of the "Black Tulips" at the band banquet.

Everyone enjoyed the food at the annual banquet which was held at the Elks Country Club.

Dr. Raymond Carson, emcee at the banquet, entertained the guests with a magic show. Here, after a few swift motions - allakazam! - water came through Mr. Leesburg's arm from his head.

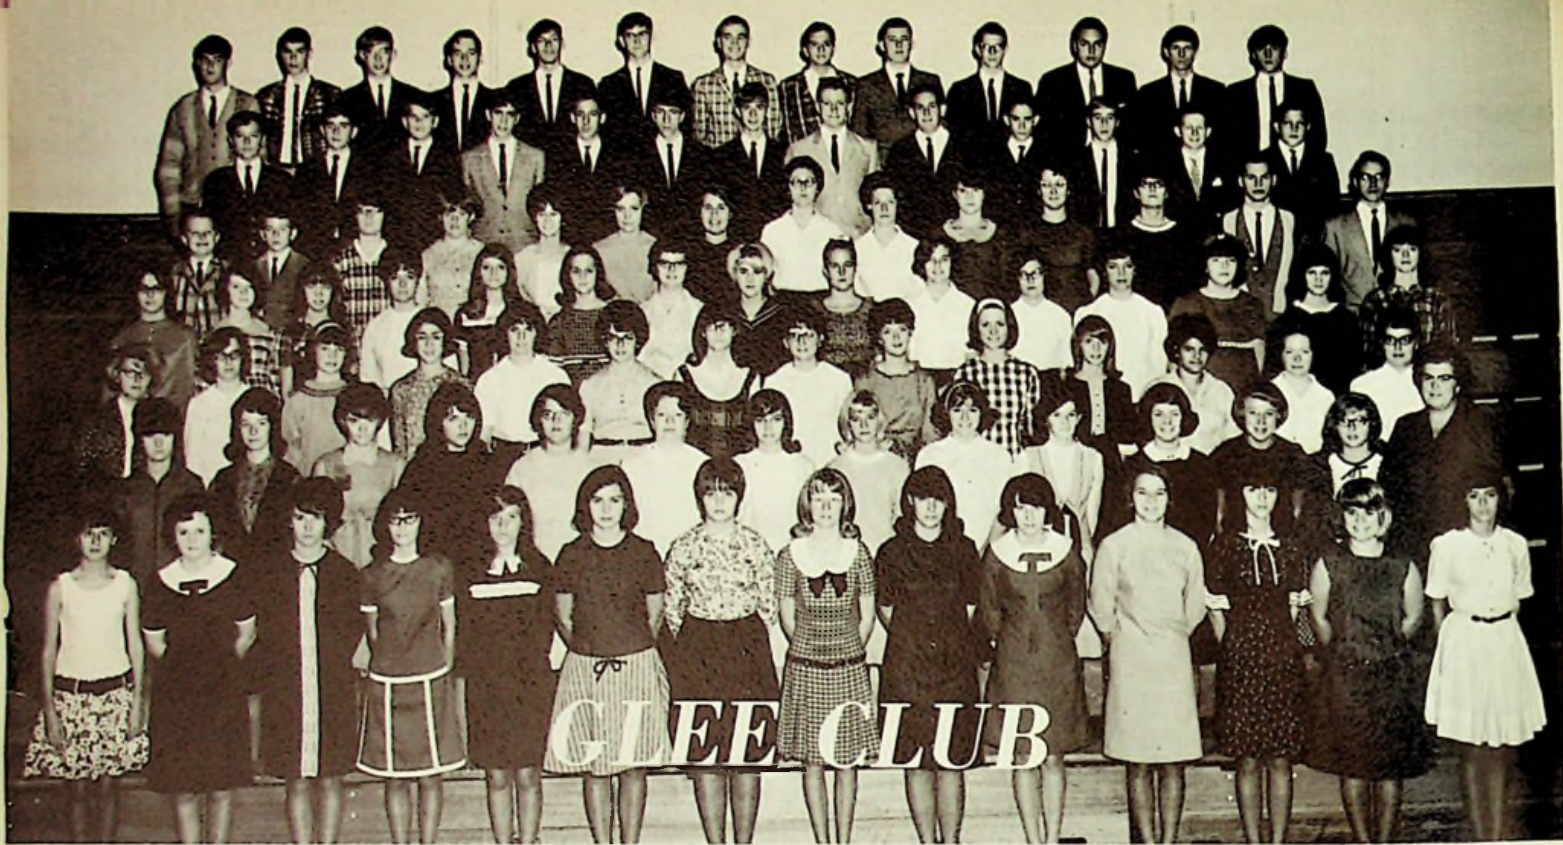

Our first-rate majorettes led the band in all its activities and added to the instrumental sections during the winter. The majorettes also won a trophy for being the outstanding majorette corps at Camp Crecendo, a training institute in Kentucky. Majorettes are Marsha Giles, Pam Nelson, Yvonne Whitt, Paula Turner, and Barb Chamberlain. Head Majorette is Dianna Bennett.

The Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. Helen Basham participated in many assemblies and also gave Christmas and spring concerts. First row - Beverly Sparks, Joyce Green, Jennifer Wietline, Sharon Wolf, Debbie Bloomfield, Sharon Mustard, Kim McCann, Cathy Elrod, Judy Holland, Mary Blankenbeckly, Rita Coriell, Sandy Hogan, Jo Ann Hibbitts, and Jane Winkler. Second row - Becky Purdy, Mary Ann Jordan, Rosemarie Darst, Jennifer Hebner, Debbie Crawford, Karen Moore, Linda Coburn, Cathy Wilson, Glenda Spradlin, Barb Purdy, Kay McCardle, Patty Phillips, Patty Chamberlin, and Mrs. Basham. Third row - Diane Blaine, Cathy Turner, Connie Filkens, Kathy Mauk, Mary Montavon, Shelly Maffett, Lisa Swick, Debbie White, Penny Kelly, Jean Ann Born, Debbie Johnson, Marilyn Stapleton, Barbara Penix, and Mae Nichols. Fourth row - Belinda Welch, Mary Hall, Janet Carroll, Gloria Cole, Suzanne Arrowood, Linda Gampp, Pam Boggs, Bette Pollard, Pam Gampp, Joan Hartlage, Neva Dodge, Diane Graff, Kathy Moore, Debbie Chamberlin, and Brenda Nickells. Fifth row - Henry Cantrell, Terry Shuter, Susan Jordon, Lila Dillow, Penny Mershon, Janice Howell, Cheryl Sturgill, Vaudeen Artis, Rita Bloomfield, Rhonda Curtiss, Karen Swavel, Marsha Allen, Charlie Horner, and Ralph Hodge. Sixth row - Ken Hall, John Curtiss, Danny Bear, Dennis Stevens, Jim Ramey, Paul Leslie, John Cooper, Dave Hart, Ken Flinders, David Dallon, Sheven McKee, Eddie Jarvis, and David Smith. Seventh row - Donald Raynard, Dave Schwamburger, Kevin Felts, Danny Stevens, John Haynes, J. Howell, John Schwamburger, John Williams, Jerry Gammon, Jim Hebner, Dave Whitt, Brett Marsh, and Jim Creameans.

TARTAN TONES

The Tartan Tones are a new and special group of Glee Club girls. This ensemble performed at all Glee Club activities and presented their own brand of music. These are Tartan Tones: First row - Barb Penix, and Glenda Spradlin. Second row - Neva Dodge, and Karen Moore. Third row - Diane Graff, and Gloria Cole. Fourth row - Mary Montavon, Joan Hartlage, Vaudeen Artis, Rita Bloomfield, and Mae Nichols.

BOYS' CHORUS

GIRLS' CHORUS

The Tri-Hi-Y hosted many activities in order to make money for the trip to New York. The club sold stationery and sponsored International Showtime. Tri-Hi-Y members are the following: First row - Shauna McKee, Sue Russell, Sandy Hogan, Jamie Secrest, Diana Bennett, Sandi Dube, Jo Ann Hibbitts, and Sandy Armbrister. Second row - Sandy Chamberlain, Rita Coriell, Barb Chamberlin, Kay McCardle, Marsha Giles, Donna Skinner, Jane Knight, Pam Gampp, and Barb Purdy. Third row - Mary Ann Jordan, Lila Dillow, Penny Mershon, Janice Howell, Connie Benner, Penny Kelley, Patty Phillips, Debbie Mershon, Glenda Spradlin, and Sharon Sparks. Fourth row - Helen Brown, Karen Etterling, Elizabeth Dodge, Neva Dodge, Mary Montavon, Karen Arthur, Carolyn Fitch, Kathie Clausing, Becky Shoemaker, and Paula Adams. Fifth row - Janet Sylvia, Karen Swavel, Beth Torges, Sharon Spaulding, Reva Lancaster, Linda Kennedy, Patty Chapman, Vaudeen Artis, Rita Bloomfield, Cheryl Sturgil, and Jean Hieneman. Sixth row - Becky Carpenter, Debbie Imes, Elaine Stone, Sue Curtiss, Edith Young, Marsha Allen, Kay Scaggs, Rhonda Curtiss, and Diane Wilson.

The new Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y members were inducted at the Sciotoville Methodist Church on October 2, 1966.

The Hi-Y boys are forming the traditional "Y" to symbolize their organization. Seated, from bottom to top-Jim Hartlage, Mike Schomburg, Bill Basham, Ted Adams, John Schwamburger. Carolyn Conley; Gloria Cole; Debbie Mershon; Reva Lancaster. Third row - Yvonne Whitt; Kay Scaggs; Debbie Haywood; Cathy Buchanan; Pam Kingery; Patty Chapman. Standing is the advisor of the F.T.A., Mr. Vergne.

The Library Staff Club sponsored a dance and sold candy in order to buy new books for the library. First row: Toka Holland, Yvonne Whitt, Debbie Imes-treasurer, Connie Benner-president, Miss Heer-head librarian, Elizabeth Dodge-secretary, Kay Scaggs-reporter, Connie Cooper, and Nellie Allard. Second row:

LIBRARY STAFF

NEWSPAPER STAFF

The Junior Class published "The Blue and White" as an annual money-making project to support the prom. Seated are co-editors Janet Sylvia, Bruce Martin, and Beth Tor-

ges. The reporters for the newspaper are Tony Sherman, Tim Shuter, Susan Weber, Diane Wilson, and Sue Russell.

Climbing the ladder of higher education are these Latin II students. On the ground - Susan Weber, Danny Stevens, and Ede Ashworth. Clockwise around the ladder - Connie Horton, Kathy Buchanan, Darrel Earwood, Scott Walker, Willie Gregory, Tony Sherman, Jim Montavon, and Myla Jones.

Third row - Pam Nelson, Marsha Milliron, Larry Williams, Jerry Scaggs, Ron Sneddon, Barbara Chamberlin, and Kay McCordle. Fourth row - John Miller, Wes Bussey, Pam Boggs, Anita Wadkins, Beth Torges, Karen Swavel, and Janet Sylvia. Fifth row - Bruce Martin, Marsha Allen, and J. Howell.

Being on their own to read books in Spanish or make speeches was the goal of Spanish II again. First row - Jim "Santiago" Hartlage, Kenny Wadkins F., John "Juanito" Schwamburger, Steve "Esteban" Little, Steve "Esteban" Williams, Mike "Miguelito" Leesburg, and Dale "Vallecito" Nole. Second row - Barb "Barbarita" Garlinger, Sue "Susita" Curtiss, Brenda McClellan K., Barbara "Barbarita" Penix, and Kathie "Catalina" Clausing.

The Nature Club took various trips, once to the Little Scioto Country Club, and another time to Shawnee Forest, and last to Kentucky for a hike. Sitting are Helen Brown, secretary-treasurer; Kathie Clausing; Kathy Buchanan; Kay McCardle; Barb Garlinger, vice-president; Rita Coriell, sergeant-at-arms; Jamie Secrest, president;

Sandy Chamberlin, and Susan Weber. Kneeling are John Schwamburger, Jim Hartlage, and Danny Fetty. Standing are Becky Shoemaker, Edith Young, Ted Adams, John Terry, Diane Thompson, Jim Cremeans, Darrel Earwood, Joanie Hartlage, Kenny Flinders, and Dave Hart.

The Girls' League officers, who sponsored the annual Christmas party and arranged the big and little sister set-up, were Edith Young-vice-president, Sandy Chamberlin-secretary, Jeannie Hicneman-president, and Karen Arthur-treasurer.

Members of the Chem-Bi-Sci had science projects in the school fair, which they sponsored, with a few people advancing the science fair downtown. First row - Sue Russell, Reporter Susan Weber, Ede Ashworth, Kay McCardle, Leon Earwood, Karen Swavel. Vice-president Elizabeth Dodge, President Beth Torges, John Curtiss, Danny Baer, Terry Shuter, Sim Martin, and Jim Montovon. Second row - Advisor Mrs. Bradshaw, Connie Horton, Debbie White, Ron Sneddon,

Susan Weber received a superior rating at the state science fair in Columbus for her project on linear programming. Before advancing to Columbus, Susan placed first at East, Portsmouth, and Ohio University.

Other science fair winners were Jim Hartlage, who won a first at East and Portsmouth, and Beth Torges and Elizabeth Dodge, winners at East, Portsmouth, and Ohio University.

Susan Weber placed tenth in the state in Latin II and Barb Hodgson received honorable mention in Bookkeeping I in the Final District Scholarship Tests.

James C. Strafford, member of the board of trustees of Ohio University Portsmouth, was speaker at the annual scholarship banquet. He talked of the ladder of success and the merits of OUP.

Here the honored students and parents eat at the banquet which was covered dish style provided by the parents.

The Senior Class proved to be highly outstanding in scholarship. For the first time in East High School history there were tri-valedictorians. Each ended her academic studies with an unblemished 4.0. Close behind these three honor students was the salutatorian who ended her studies with a high 3.95 average. Pictured here are Valedictorians Kathie Clausing, Becky Shoemaker, Barb Garlinger, and Salutatorian Linda Kennedy.

OUTSTANDING UPPERCLASSMEN

The Sandy Pence Memorial Award is given annually to a Senior that shows excellence in fields other than scholarship. This year the coveted award was presented to Danny Fetty

Each year a junior is honored with the Delphic Society's Junior Cup. This award is based on the same qualities as the Sandy Pence Memorial Award. The recipient of this prized cup was Beth Torges.

LEARNING BY DOING

Each year at the beginning of the summer a Buckeye Boys' State convenes at Athens, Ohio. The convention is held so that teenagers may learn about their government by actually taking part in a mock form of the governmental organization. Our representative was Bruce Martin. Here Bruce is greeted by Governor Rhodes.

This year the Tri-Hi-Y sent two delegates, Sue Curtiss and Elizabeth Dodge, to the Youth - In - Government session. Elizabeth was a candidate for State chaplain but failed to get the nomination. The program is sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. and is proposed as a mock form of state government.

Kathie Clausing, Becky Shoemaker, and Karen Arthur (not pictured) were on every honor roll while attending East. To achieve such a honor, the girls had to earn at least four A's in academic subjects each six weeks grading period.

Karen Arthur was the recipient of the Betty Crocker Award on Senior Day. Karen scored highest on the Homemaking Test.

CLASSMEN ARE HONORED FOR

Becky Shoemaker received the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award. This award is presented annually to an outstanding senior girl!

Vaudeen Artis was this year's Sterling Silver Award winner. Vaudeen ranked tops in home economics.

Kathie Clausing, Barb Garlinger, Dale Nole, John Schwamburger, Jim Hartlage and Ken Wadkins and Mike Leesburg (not pictured) were State Board Certificate winners. These seniors had four years of English and foreign language, three years of mathematics and science to receive such a honor.

Nellie Allard and Malcolm Haywood were recognized for perfect attendance all four years of high school. Neither rain, sleet, or hail could keep Nellie and Mal away from the halls of East.

ACHIEVEMENTS IN MANY FIELDS

The Home Economics girls received recognition for their labors at the annual Home Economics tea. Their works were displayed for the proud parents to admire.

Mr. Pogue has been head football coach at East since 1953. During these fourteen years, his overall record is sixty-three won, fifty-three lost, and twelve tied. Mr. Pogue's most successful season has been 1960, when his team went undefeated through the games. The defense that year yielded only six points.

The freshman football team faced opposing schools whose members consisted of sophomores and juniors and still had a 4-5 won-lost record. First row - Terry Colett, John Curtiss, Sim Martin, Jerry Green, Tim Williams, and Herman Ball. Second

The talents of many offspring were unveiled before the eyes of their parents during the football game in which the Moms and Dads were honored.

After being injured in the early part of the football season, Wes Bussey is having his daily ankle taping by Coach Pogue.

Jim Hartlage, at left, is receiving his trophy for being named Most Valuable Player of the football team. Also selected Honorary Captain. Jim made the most points of the entire squad and ranked with the SOC leading scorers.

Jim Hartlage, Mike Leesburg, and Dan Figlestahler were East's representatives on the SOC All-Star team. Jim was named to the defensive team and Mike and Fig were chosen as honorable mention. All three were honorable mentions last year.

Our varsity basketball team was in the experienced hands of Head-coach Mr. Herman Schomburg. Mr. Schomburg retired from coaching after this his seventeenth season. He is a member of the Ohio High School coaching Hall of Fame.

Mr. Edward Pogue coached the junior varsity team to a very successful season, ending with a 12-5 record. During one stretch the team won eight consecutive games. Next year he will take over the varsity helm after Mr. Schomburg's retirement.

Rebound, Rebound! Be there! Ted Adams goes up against two New Boston Tigers to pull down the ball.

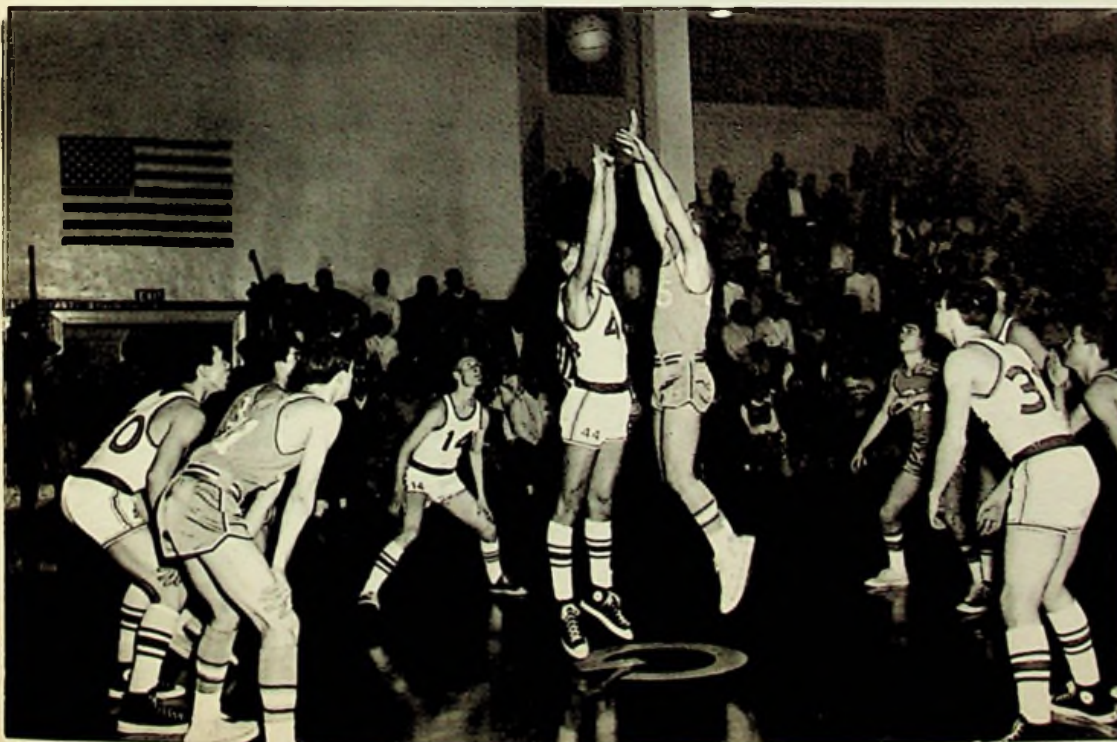

Bob Craft and Ted Adams are both in the air to bring down the rebound.

Here comes the Mighty Tartans as Danny Fig breaks through the victory hoop. Everyone stand up and cheer.

Jump, Fig! Jump! Another quarter is underway as Dan Figlestahler taps the jump ball to a fellow Tartan.

At right, Coach Herm Schomburg presents the Millhuff Most Valuable Trophy to Steve Williams and Bob Craft. These boys were secretly voted on by their fellow players.

Below, Bob Craft, a sophomore, also received the trophy for being elected Best Defensive Player. Bob has played varsity ball for two years.

Below, at the basketball banquet, Bill Davis receives his award for being on the reserve team.

Under the direction of Coach Lou Carson, this freshman basketball team won eight games and lost six for a very profitable season. First row - Dave Hart, Sim Martin, Denny Stevens, Tim Donley, John

FRESHMAN CAGERS

At right, in the same freshman game, Dave Schwamburger executed a fine lay-up over the head of an opposing team member.

Our varsity baseball team was in the very capable hands of head coach Lou Carson.

Here Mike Schomburg show the form that made him a regular starter. Mike was the only player to make the team all four years.

Dan Figlestahler demonstrates the hustle that helped the team to a winning season. Fig was our first string catcher.

TARTANS HAVE 6-4 LEDGER

One of the main improvements this year was the over all hitting. Here Mike Leesburg takes a swing in the pre-game batting practice. Of course, Mike missed.

The football players lead the student body in the pep assembly before the final football game of the season. Unusual, but not bad!

The senior football players were honored at one of our pep assemblies. The players are Dale Noel, Larry Wellman, John Terry, Mike Schomburg, Mike Leesburg, and Bill Morrison.

The varsity cheerleaders try out a new jump which they had practiced for a long time. The new move was extremely successful as you can see Sandi Chamberlin and Marsha Milliron maneuvering it here.

This was one of the favorite cheers of the reserves. It was well accepted by the students because of the proficiency with which the cheerleaders performed it.

PEP ASSEMBLIES HIGHLIGHTED

This is what a crowd of people concentrating on a basketball game looks like. Studious, aren't they?

Diana Bennett presents the trophy to Mr. Roney that the majorettes won at Camp Crescendo.

Mr. Jim Smith had a very successful season considering that he was coach of a first-year team. The Tartans finished in the top spot two times in four dual meets and earned second place in both of the triangular matches. The team also finished fourth in the S.O.C. meet.

Steve Williams hurls himself over the high jump bar in rough competition.

For the first time in many years, East was represented by a track team under the leadership of Mr. Jim Smith. Members of the track team are: First row - Manager Don Chamberlin, John Cooper, Bane Sylvia, Wes Bussey, Randy Chamberlin, Roger McGraw, Danny Baer, and Manager John Hayes. Second row - Jim Hartlage, Steve Willi-

TRACK TEAM HAS GREAT START

Wes Bussey was by far the top point-maker for the Tartans. He had 92 $\frac{3}{4}$ points. Wes holds the school record in the 100-yard dash (10.5 seconds), the 220-yard dash (23.8 seconds), the broad jump (20 feet, $\frac{2}{4}$ inches). Wes also placed first in the S.O.C. track meet in 220-yard dash.

CHEERLEADERS INSTILL SPIRIT

The varsity and reserve cheerleaders, who had to pay for their own clothing, pom poms, and yearbook picture, made money by sponsoring dances and having candy sales. Long hard practice enabled these girls to conquer the act of performing the various jumps and putting all the necessary actions to their maximum use. Cheerleaders are Kay McCardle, Marsha Milliron, Rhonda Curtiss, Sandi Chamberlain, Karen Arthur, and Captain Jean Born.

The Pep Club was in charge of all pep assemblies and the skits. These enthusiasts also helped the cheerleaders with new cheers. These are the Pep Club members: First row - S. Chamberlain; K. Arthur; K. Mc Cardle; J. A. Born; R. Curtiss; and M. Milliron. Second row - C. Jordan; S. McKee; J. Green; B. Sparks; B. McClellan; D. Bloomfield; J. Secrest; S. Wolfe; D. Johnson; C. Turner; P. QUEEN KAREN REIGNS

Senior Edith Young, escorted by John Schwamburger, and Kathy Buchanan, a sophomore with John Daniels as escort, comprise one half of the Queen's court.

Connie Filkins, a freshman, and Kay McCardle, a junior, escorted by John Curtiss and John Miller respectively, fill up the other half of the court.

The Queen and her court enjoy the game.

The Tri-Hi-Y members who worked on decorating the gym and stage for the dance are shown here.

The 1965 Homecoming Queen, Penny Born, crowned Karen. Hail to Queen Karen!

Karen and her court, along with all the escorts, got the dance going with a dance of their own.

The Bare Facts provided music to dance by and everyone liked it.

"He Was a Gay Senorita" was presented by the senior class in November. The three-act comedy was concerned with a young heir trying to persuade his father to let him marry the girl of his choice instead of the Brazilian senorita his father had already picked out for him. Here are the members of the cast: Seated - Phil Liles,

John Schwamburger, Brad Martin, and Danny Fetty, Standing - Barb Garlinger, Steve Williams, Mrs. McNamara, Sharon Spaulding, Vaudeen Artis, Helen Brown, Ted Adams, Greg Stamper, Jean Born, John Haynes, Kay Scaggs, Kathie Clausing, and Becky Shoemaker.

"What do I do with my hands?" Practicing a love scene are Phil Liles and John Schwamburger. Johnny, what pretty legs you have!

"What does it mean, I am a polar bear?" Greg Stamper is telling Steve Williams he is to be a pall-bearer at his brother's funeral.

"HE WAS A GAY SENORITA"

Jean Born is trying to talk Phil Liles into letting his son marry her. Helen Brown is giving Jean moral support.

"There, my little coffee blossom! Snuggle up close in the arms of your seniorita." John Schwamburger is giving Phil Liles the old run-around.

Before vacation the Speech Club gave a one-act play entitled "Home for Christmas."

The actors in "Home for Christmas" are Rhonda Curtiss, Dennis Burgess, Sandi Dube, Becky Shoemaker, Roger McGraw, and Jim Cremeans.

This Christmas tree stood in the furnace room in lonely simplicity. Our janitors decorated it with such things as milk cartons and crackers.

Gathered around the bedraggled-looking tree are Mrs. Musser, Mrs. Brown, and Mrs. Horr receiving gifts from Mr. Cabiness.

The Nature Club also had a Christmas tree but this one was set in the lobby for the benefit of the student body. Helen Brown is making some final adjustments.

Jim Hartlage, masquerading as Santa, is preparing for the Christmas pep assembly.

Santa Claus is with the "in" crowd as he "jerks" at the party with Becky Shoemaker and Jamie Secret.

Santa Claus reigned over the excitement at the party. He gave each girl a gift and told a few what they would find under their tree on Christmas morning.

HOLIDAY FUN

Telling Santa Claus their secrets are Nancy Coey and Sue Williams. Wonder what Santa's going to bring them?

For the first time, a New Year's Eve party was given by the senior class. Ringing in the New Year are Pam Payton, Kathy Mauk, and Dave Schwamburger.

Pool was one of the many activities going on at the New Year's Eve party. Here Scott Walker is lining up the eight ball for the side pocket.

Guests at Hartlages' Christmas party spent a good deal of time with the Foo Chu book, which told fortunes.

The Black Tulips provided the music at the Hartlage party. Here Jim and Phil do their part.

Dancing was one of the chief entertainments.

With Fig and Rod on guitars, and Bill Davis at the microphone, the Black Tulips played enjoyable dancing music for a part of the evening.

Some people played "spoons," a different kind of card game.

The Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y went together to have a hay-ride at the Little Scioto Country Club.

On the return trip from Cincinnati, most of the people were sleepy and so caught their forty winks on the bus.

Here are some of the girls who went to Cincinnati and stopped in at a restaurant for a bite to eat.

Looks as if Bill Morrison is ready to bring on the wienies. Go to it, Wild Bill!

Randy Jones was the victim of chewing gum in the hair, and so Sim Martin tried to cut it out.

Plot and counter plot was the main theme of the hilarious junior class play. A widow and a widower fell in love but wanted to see if their children approved. The children all thought their prospective step-parent was marrying for money. The play was a success in every way.

CAST AND CHARACTERS

Nicodemus, a colored handy man
Randy Chamberlin

Marsha Giles is calling her stock broker to lay the groundwork for proving her love of J. Howell to her children and those of her prospective husband. She first makes everyone believe she is rich and in turn poor.

JUNIORS

PRESENT. . .

Marsha's three children, Jo Ann Hibbitts, Marsha Milliron, and Paul Johnson, are trying to discourage their mother's love affair by making the new father believe that Paul has epileptic convulsions.

Jo Ann Hibbitts is out to play as many tricks as possible on her stepfather-to-be so he will not marry her mother. Here she is putting a pin in the chair in which he is about to sit.

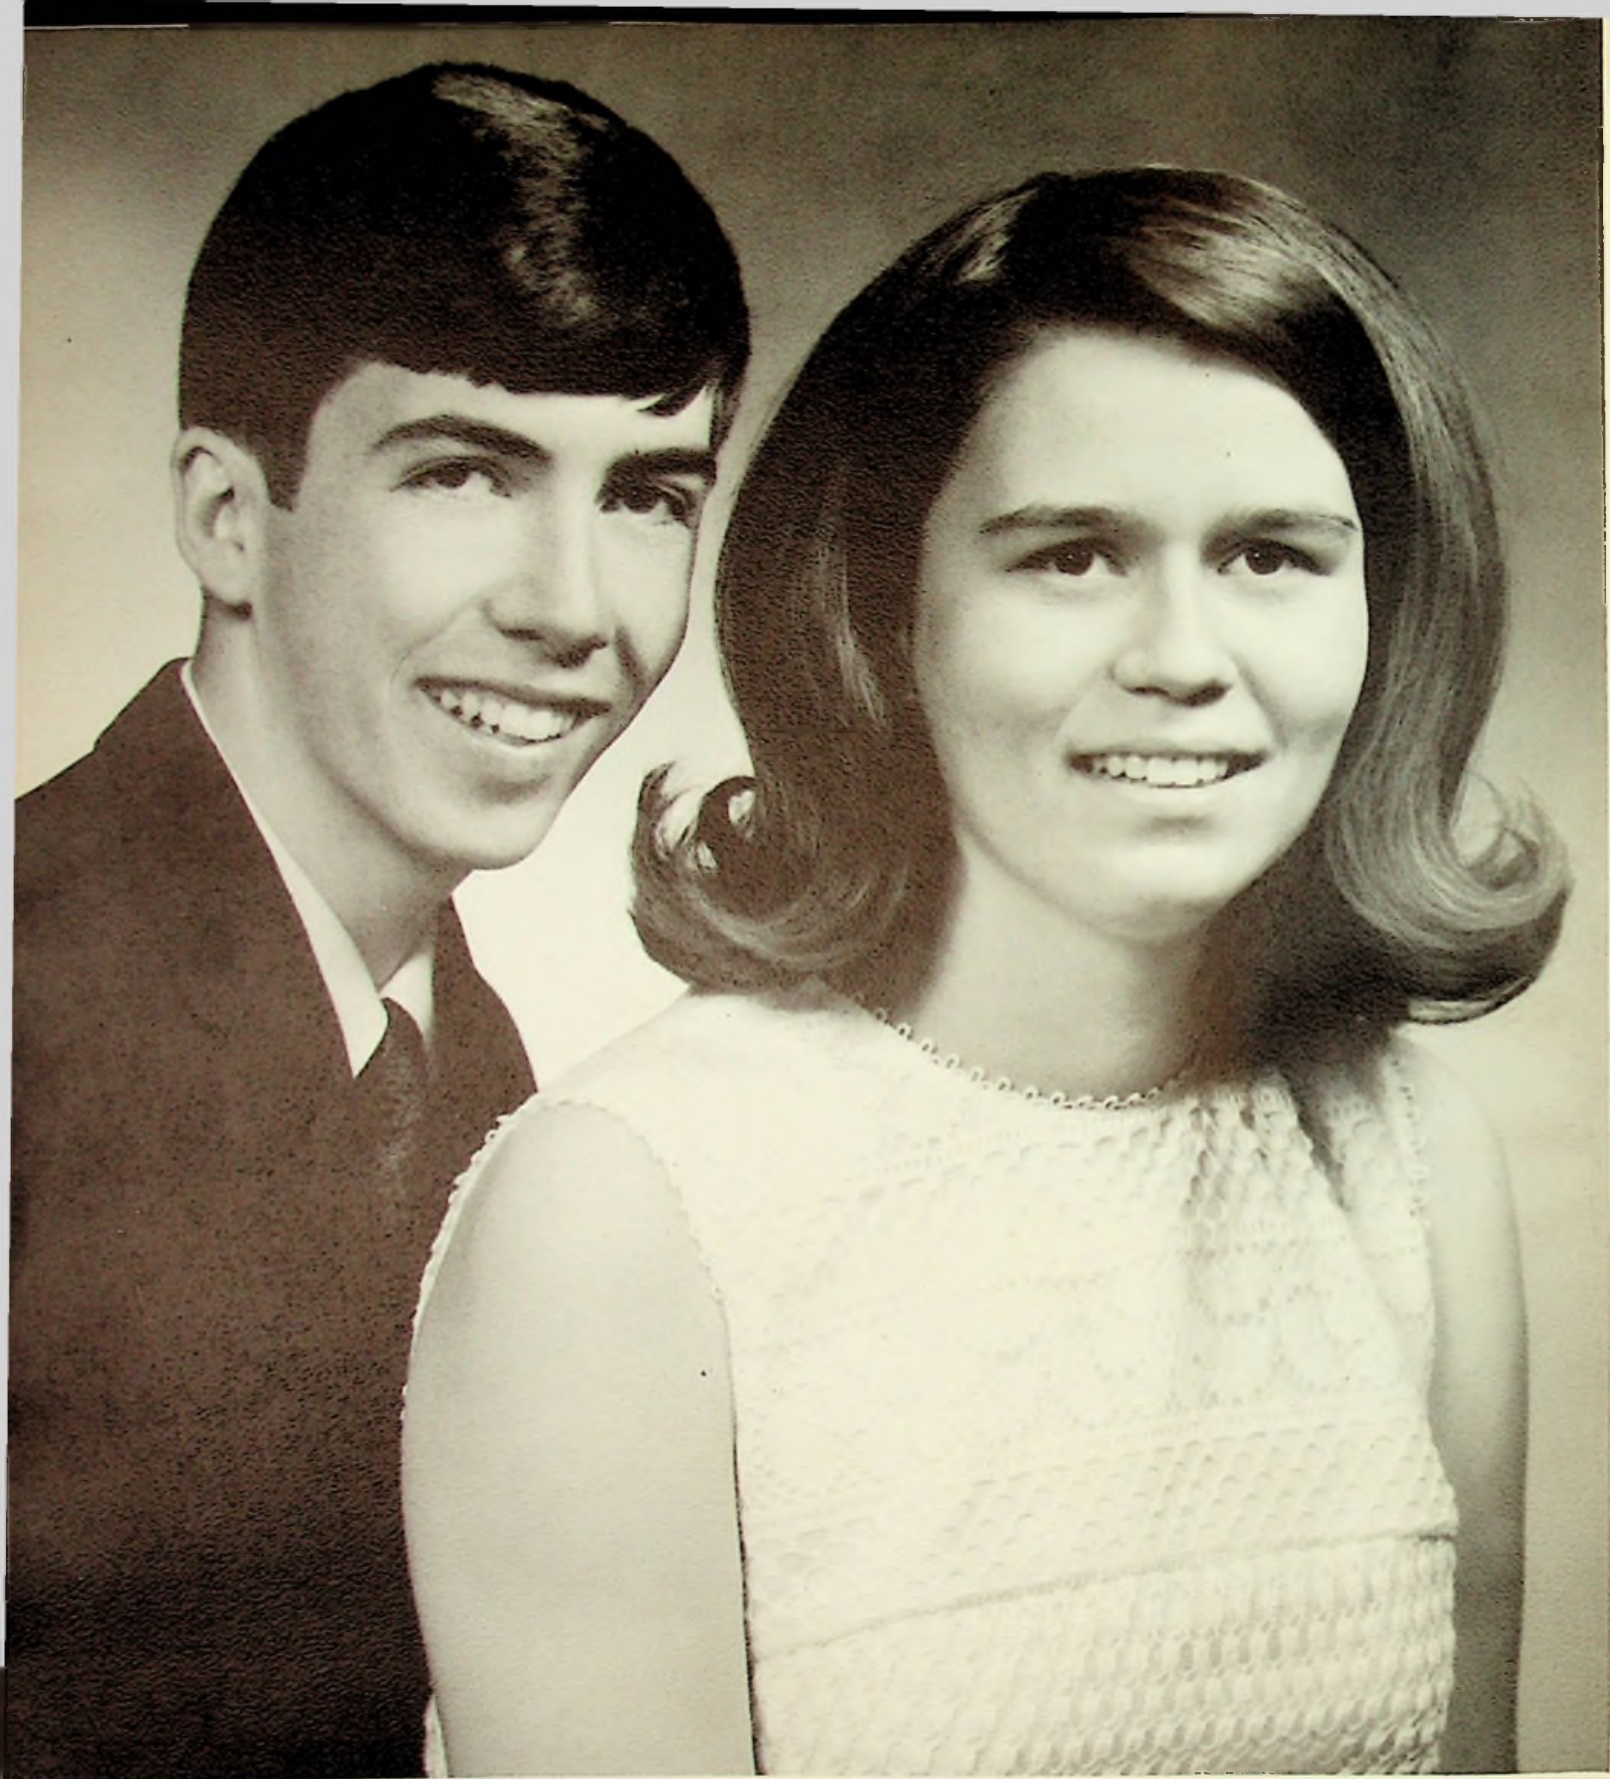

“A READY MADE FAMILY”

The father's children, Barb Chamberlin and John Coriell, try to make their new mother believe that John is a kleptomaniac as he steals everything in sight.

Beheaded Randy Chamberlin and Patty Phillips are working on a clean-up detail, after which Randy thinks he is hearing ghosts and does a wild interpretation of a Negro man scared to death.

KATHIE AND PHIL ARE CROWNED

The freshman candidates Sharon Mustard and Dave Schwamburger lead the royal march.

The members of the court enjoy the first dance of the evening.

AREA OFFERS MUCH TALENT

Here Bill Davis of the "Black Tulips" sings "Happy Together," a song which won them second place in the annual talent show.

Pam Nelson entertained the crowd by singing and playing an accordion while accompanied by Jim Morgan on guitar.

The fans enjoyed the rock 'n roll sound of the "Undecided Souls" featuring Brett Marsh as lead singer.

Jim Cremeans and the others of the "Shock Waves" gained much applause from the audience.

Karen Moore captured first place in the talent show with her singing of "Born Free."

RIVER DAYS CANDIDATE CHOSEN

The talent show also featured a beauty contest between acts. Kay McCardle was chosen to represent East in the annual River Days festival. Diane Wilson was chosen as alternate.

This year tradition was broken and a rock 'n roll band "The Seven Coachmen" from Ashland, provided the music for the prom.

“RENDEZVOUS

Helen Brown and Danny Fetty look as if they are really enjoying the dancing.

As always, the food line was one of the busiest and most popular places at the prom.

Both hosts and hostesses greeted and escorted couples to their tables and also served the food. Hostesses were Kathy Buchanan, Ede Ashworth, Diana Thompson, and Debbie Haywood. Hosts were Bane Sylvia, Tim Chamberlain, Scott Walker, and Tony Sherman.

Brett Marsh of "The Undecided Souls" sings at the after-prom, which was held at Dreamland Pool.

AT THE STARS ”

Bev Stiltner, Mike Gilliland, and Randy Chamberlain are exhibiting their skill. Dancing was the main activity at the pool.

Toward the end of the after-prom the crowd became less energetic with thoughts of various breakfasts and the Coney Island trip filling their minds.

The Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y worked hard all year for funds for their annual trip to New York and Washington, D.C. Pictured in front of the Capitol Building are: First row - Mr. Smith, Mrs. Smith, Connie Benner, Sandi Chamberlain, Karen Arthur, Carolyn Fitch, Diana Bennett, Linda Kennedy, Cheryl Sturgill, Helen Brown, Becky Shoemaker, Roberta Chamberlain, Lila Dillow, Kay Scaggs, Sharon Spaulding, Sue Curtiss, Edith

The New York gang paid respect to the late President John F. Kennedy at his graveside in Arlington Cemetery.

Mike Schomburg and Bill Morrison are having a great time as they play cards in their room. What were you guys betting with.

John Schwamburger and Becky Shoemaker were caught snoozing on the way from Washington to New York after a busy day of sightseeing in our capital city.

NEW YO

Mr. Smith shows his cowboy and musical talents by donning a hat and wig on the train home.

Jim Hartlage and Dale Nole, (feet showing), are really worn out from having a great time in the big city.

The travelers returned home with smiles and memories of their good times in Manhattan.

Mr. John Stevenson our annual advisor proofread our work throughout the year.

Annual staff works diligently winding up the 1967 Tartan.

Ad salesmen for the annual were seated: Janet Sylvia, Becky Shoemaker, Helen Brown, Barb Garlinger and Kathie Clausing. Standing: Ken Wadkins, Bill Morrison, Beth Torges, Ted Adam, Sandi Dube, John Schwamburger, and Karen Arthur.

CLASS OF 1967
GRADUATION JUNE 6
ALLARD PARK

Dr. Sheets presents Kathie Clausing with her diploma.

Barb Garlinger receives her diploma from the president of the school board.

At the senior banquet held at the Lake Margaret dining room, Phil Liles looks on as Theresa Yeardi struggles with her piece of chicken.

everyday Detroit Steel proves its metal

DAY AFTER DAY . . . FROM SUNRISE TO SUNSET . . . DETROIT STEEL PROVES ITS METAL

DSC WIRE PROVES ITS METAL by meeting the most stringent demands of wire fabricators. DSC wire-working innovations . . . LPR Coils, Coiltoter-Paks, and Vertøjex . . . yield additional money-saving benefits.

DSC PIPE AND TUBING PROVES ITS METAL through advanced fabrication techniques—assuring consistent uniformity and high quality. Whether it's line pipe, mechanical or structural steel tubing—rely on DSC to meet your exacting product requirements.

DSC JOB-FITTED ACCUTRONIC STRIP PROVES ITS METAL by meeting your product needs—right on the button. Consistency is the by-word in DSC's Accutronic Strip.

DSC WELDED MESH PROVES ITS METAL by conforming to rigid ASTM standards. Pipe, paving, and building styles are produced in a complete range of sizes and specifications.

DSC HOT AND COLD ROLLED SHEET PROVES ITS METAL . . . produced on one of the world's most highly automated hot strip mills, improved DSC sheets are rolled to exacting standards of tolerance, surface finish, and metallurgical specifications.

Whatever your product—let DSC Prove its Metal to You! Call your nearest DSC steel representative or write Detroit Steel Corporation, P.O. Box 7508, Detroit, Michigan 48209.
