DEAN OF GIRLS

ORA MAUDE TAYLOR

The chief aim of education is "To secure the best all-around development of the child, in order that each may live more abundantly, more happily, more efficiently, more usefully through all the years of life."

The aim of the Dean of Girls is to understand the problems of the girls and to help them find a way for solving their problems. She hopes, above all, to be fair, impartial and just in all understanding. Her goal is to develop character, citizenship and ethical values, along with cooperation for working together--all to lead to a better and fuller life.

GUIDANCE-COUNSELOR

WILLIAM E. CORIELL

This program is recommended by the State Department of Education and is being adopted by the larger and more progressive schools.

We are endeavoring to assist the school personnel, students, parents and community toward a better co-operative understanding of all our problems and abilities.

Such a program must be coordinated and systematized with other existing school developments. It must be planned for a long range.

We shall initiate new services and strengthen existing ones in our school system. The following is a list of services centralized in the Guidance Counseling Program:

1. Counseling service available to all of our students.
2. Cumulative record service.
3. Occupational and vocational service.
4. Community Survey Service.
5. Testing Service.
6. Follow-up Service of School Leavers.
7. Placement Service.
8. Out-of-School Service.
9. In School Service.

DESPAIR

A great black cloud is hanging low
 Between two hills a 'listning
 For just a ring of one small bell
 That will soar high hopes a 'glistning.

The sun is burdened down with sorrow
 In the midst of chilling winds,
 For the pure and divine existence of life
 Upon its splendor now depends.

Fear and worry are locked inside
 A door of escape it seeks in vain;
 Still in darkness doth it linger
 With sadness, mirth, and disdain.

These high walls you'll encounter
 As onward through life you travel,
 But seek advice, comfort, and joy,
 And all these troubles you'll unravel.

For one small light will guide you through
 If you'll center your thoughts and mind
 Upon the present and not the future
 Nor those mistakes you've left behind.

Search for hope and glory in the darkest lair
 And you'll never, never know despair.

ONLY GOD CAN GIVE A FRIEND

by
Rosalie Cantra

I think that God will never send
A gift so precious as a friend;
A friend who always understands
And fills each need as it demands;
Whose loyalty will stand the test
When skies are bright or overcast;
Who sees the faults that merit blame
But keeps on loving just the same;
Who does far more than creeds could do
To make us good, to make us true.
Earth's gifts a sweet enjoyment lend
But only God can give a friend.

CLASS HISTORY

"The Voyage"

The class of '57 launched in 1953 to begin its sail toward success. One hundred eager sailors climbed aboard. As officers, we chose Jim White, President; Ruth Seidel, Vice-President; Sharon Bonzo, Secretary; Nadine Carver, Treasurer. Jim White, Joe White, Vernon Kayser, and Nadine Carver were selected to aid in establishing a Student Council for our school. Edna Knore represented our class as Queen attendant. Jim White, Bernard Hall, Dan Pfleger, and Pat Bennett surged forward on the reserve team to aid in many victories. Yes, who will forget that first year? Bumps and bangs from skating parties, headaches from yelling too hard at basketball games, and red eyes from too much studying. But always there to control us when we got out of hand were Mrs. Higgins, Mr. Scott, and Mr. Haney, our class sponsors.

We began the second lap of our journey with Jim Madden as President; Jim White, Vice-President; Dotty Bender, Secretary; and Edna Knore, Treasurer. Representing our class in Student Council were Jim Madden, Ruth Casebolt, Vernon Kayser, and Gary Walters. Maxine Moore, a newcomer to our class, became our drum majorette and later, queen attendant. To cheer our boys along the way, Edna Knore and Carol Sampson were chosen as cheerleaders. We were proud to have Jonnie Conkel excel in winning the Prince of Peace Contest. Guiding us through our second year were Mr. Pfleger and Mr. and Mrs. Haney.

And then came the most enjoyable year of our voyage. Work! Work! Work! Study! Study! Study! We broke all kinds of records that year. Our magazine sales soared! Ruth Deemer and John Gampp were presented watches for their top salesmanship. Ruth Weaver, Carol Sampson, and Edna Knore won top honors in the Prince of Peace Contest. Our officers were Pat Bennett, President; Vernon Kayser, Vice-President; Maxine Moore, Secretary; and Roger Hiles, Treasurer. Pat Bennett, Jonnie Conkel, Jim White, and Jim Madden were representatives from our class in Student Council. Ruth Casebolt, Edna Knore, and Jim White were placed on the Annual Staff as Junior Representatives. Our class began a scholarship fund in honor of Mr. Butcher, who passed away suddenly in November of 1956. Five Juniors: Jim White, Ruth Casebolt, Edna Knore, Ruth Seidel, and Patsy Gillispie were inducted into the Honor Society. Our sponsors helped us to present our class play, "The Daffy Dills". We ended our third year cruise in Blue Hawaii, the theme for our Prom.

At the helm for our last year were Miss Daily, Mrs. Holmes, and Mr. Huffman. Class elections rolled around for the last time. We elected Jim White, President; Ruth Seidel, Vice-President; Patsy Gillispie, Secretary, and Pat Wolgamott, Treasurer. Riding on the waves of success were Edna Knore, Ruth Casebolt, and Maxine Moore, speaking for the Prince of Peace Contest, and Edna Knore speaking for Democracy. Paul Adams placed fifth in the Senior Scholarship in the county. Pretty, blue-eyed Ruth Seidel was chosen as our Homecoming Queen with Carrol Hawkins and Patsy Gillispie as attendants. Barbara Davis and Larry Barnes were elected by popular vote as Miss and Mr. Falcon, with Carol Sampson, Edna Knore, Vernon Kayser, and Jim White serving as their court. Co-Captains for the basketball team were Jim White and Dan Pfleger. Serving on Student Council were Ruth Casebolt, Carol Sampson, Jim White, and Carrol Hawkins. Achieving top honors in our class were: Ruth Casebolt, winning D. A. R.; Margaret Blackwell, winning Betty Crocker Scholarship; Nadine Carver-Temperance Contest, winning a trip to Virginia and Washington, D. C.; Pat Wolgamott attaining two honors: the Lions Club Award and the Delta Kappa Gamma Scholarship; Donna Lee, attaining the Freshman Cadet Teachers Scholarship for the Portsmouth Branch; Edna Knore, winning the Elks Club Award, and Ferris Parker, gaining top honors in the Road-E-O Contest. We presented our Senior play, "Seventeenth Summer". Ten students were inducted into the Honor Society. They were: Lynn Goff, Carol Sampson, Paul Adams, Pat Wolgamott, Barbara Davis, Helen Goff, Nadine Carver, Maxine Moore, Joyce Lute, and Dottie Bender. We saved our money for the climax of the year--our trip to New York.

Four years is a long time. There are a great many memories involved--some that will soon be forgotten, others that will linger forever. A great deal of work went into those four years and now it is the end of that pursuit of knowledge and a beginning of a career. One by one the friends begin to fade away as the long line decreases and each of them goes his own way.

TOMORROW
Jonnie Conkel
(Class of '57)

The sun is almost down on the horizon. I stand on my porch steps, and look off across the harvested fields of grain and roughage. They look like that land of Genesis again, reaching into forever. Crows are sailing overhead, with their cries and quick daring flight. The meadow larks are singing their evening songs.

Everything is at peace with itself, so it seems.

I smell the pungent odors of Mom's apple pies, and of the wood burning in the stove. It almost makes me forget that there really is hardness, despair, and hate in the world.

But the world goes on just as always, with its pain and heartache, despair and joy. Each day brings something new for you and me.

Yes, Mom's calling now, so I go back into the house just a little more hopeful and content with myself.

HABIT
Patricia Ann Oberley
(Class of '57)

"We first make our habits, and then our habits make us." -Dryden

Any act often repeated soon forms a habit.

The longer repeated, the stronger it becomes.

A newly-formed habit may be easy to break, but every day we continue a new habit, it becomes more difficult to break.

Some habits are beneficial, some are degrading. A habit formed in young life is almost impossible to break in older life.

Man is made of habits: good and bad. When in youth, he acts by impulses.

These impulses become habits in later life.

A person who has just started smoking will probably state that he could stop if he liked, and he probably could. But as he continues, he finds that this is no longer true. He becomes a slave to this habit. The habit of being and doing good will act as your servant to benefit you.

Man must rule his habits, or his habits will rule him.

COMMENT

The above essays were composed by Jonnie Conkel and Patricia Ann Oberley, members of the 1957 graduating class. These essays were submitted to and accepted by the National Essay Association. Each student was given a merit of certification for her accepted essay. The booklet is published yearly by the Association and is open to all juniors and seniors. However, only a choice few are selected.

MAN AND OPPORTUNITY

Ruth Casebolt
(Class of '57)

In the mind of every American boy, a huge locomotive lumbering down the tracks rings out the echoing chant, "Come with me, and I will show you opportunities for your future, and important men." What men? What opportunities? Men unknown to him, but opportunities unlimited. He may raise large herds of cattle on the western plains, may be just a farmer in Kansas or Ohio, or perhaps he will drive one of those mythical machines, called a bulldozer.

His thoughts linger on in a quandary, as to what the word, Ortho-Nitrochlorobenzene, spelled in bold letters on a certain car has established.

He becomes engrossed in deep thinking, dreaming about a wonder and glorious future.....

COMMENT

The above is another of the accepted essays by the National Essay Association. Ruth Casebolt is the author. She received a merit of certification for her excellent entry.

THE HONEYSUCKLE

Carrol Hawkins
(Class of '57)

You are such a simple little blossom,
But I love you anyway
Because you have such majestic splendor
All in your own little way.

You climb along the old bent fence
And crown it with simple beauty,
And reign the countryside
In all your splendor and purity.

And breathing in your fragrant aroma
As each traveler passes along,
I believe it lightens his load a bit
And puts in his heart a new song.

For you little blossoms are God's handiwork
Placed here for the pleasure of men,
Because in you we can marvel and see
You have no spot nor sin.

The poem above was accepted by the National High School Poetry Association for publication in the booklet which contains a variety of poetry written by high school students in schools throughout the state of Ohio. This poem was the only one accepted from Minford High School.

TRI-K

The Tri-K Club is a social club with a membership which does not exceed twenty-two. Each aspirant to the club must have an average of C or better. All grades are checked from the previous year. All candidates for club membership must have high ideals and high moral standards. Each member is taken into the club by an unanimous vote of the regular club members.

The club is extremely active throughout the year. Each year they go on an educational trip to some city. This year the girls went to Cincinnati to see Cinerama. The club donates $50.00 to the school each year. Last year it was given to the library; this year to the home economics department. Each Christmas the Club contributes a $10.00 basket of groceries plus a large amount of clothing and toys to some needy family. The Tri-K combines its efforts with the Buccaneer Club to present a memorable homecoming for our Basketball Queen.

The Tri-K Club is a club in which each member is proud to wear the symbolic Tri-K pin.

BUCCANEER CLUB

The Buccaneer Club of Minford High School was organized for the purpose of comradeship, the encouragement of scholastic attainment and to promote the abilities of leadership among its members.

The membership of the club has been made up of boys from the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes. Candidates for membership in the Buccaneer Club must have an average of "C" or above on making application for joining the club.

The Buccaneers are co-sponsor with the Tri-K Club in the planning of the Homecoming festivities. The club also is a detachment of the Ground Observers Corp for this area, reporting directly to the Filter Center, Huntington, West Virginia.

An Annual spring event for the Buccaneer Club is to take a trip of educational value. Money for this trip is earned by selling soft drinks at all home basketball games, by bake sales, paper drives, collection of scrap iron, and by dues paid by the members.

The advisors for the club for the year 1956-7 were Mr. Robert Huffman and Mr. Harold Risner.

Future Teachers of America is a Club that has been organized in Minford High School for the first time this year. Its membership is limited of Juniors and Seniors who plan to make "teaching" their career. These "future teachers" have given willingly of their time this year to be of service to the school. Each one has been given some actual experience in teaching, especially in the lower grades. They have assisted in playground supervision, grading of papers and various phases of teaching duties.

The officers of the Portsmouth High School F. T. A. Club officiated at the formal initiation of our Minford Club when the following officers were installed for the school year.

President Ruth Deemer
 Vice President . . Nancy Stigall
 Secretary Myrna Sims
 Treasurer Ruth Seidel
 Librarian Barbara Davis

These girls have all done a commendable job of fulfilling the duties of future teachers. We think that the teaching profession will be honored to have people like these enter its ranks.

BIBLE CLUB

Jean Adkins, Inez Deemer, Alice Willis, Rosalee Rase, Patty DeAttley, Peggy Hutchson, Phyllis Preston, Ruth Casebolt, Adaline Collins, Billie Williams, Judy Bender, Darala Martin, Barbara Havens, Martha Potts, Norma Horner, Joyce Lute, Donna Burchett, Jan Doyle, Margaret Blackwell (Sec.), Pat Walgo-Imott (Pres.), Kay Wilson, Janet Wheeler, Connie Cretsinger, Mr. Pflugar (Sponsor), Mrs. Fisher (Sponsor), Sondra Knore, Jeanie Pflugar, Judy Kronk, Deanna Chapman (Vice Pres.), Sue Dawson.

The Bible Club is an organization of high school students who are interested in learning more about the Word of God, which will enable them to live more abundantly.

The Club meetings are held every other Tuesday after school. At these meetings the members often discuss different interpretations of various verses in the Bible. Occasionally there is a guest speaker and always there is much hymn singing by the entire group.

Mr. Pflugar is the leader of the organization which has approximately thirty members. The club is relatively new and is expected to grow in the following years.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club was organized in 1950 by Marie A. Higgins.

The purpose of the club is to create greater interest in Homemaking and to develop skills in various artistic fields. The club has pledged to leave a minimum of $100 in money to the department each year. Each year we surpass that minimum. This year the club purchased one hundred and fifty dollars worth of supplies for the department. Each year the club girls go on an over night trip to some city. The last three years the club girls have gone to see the ice show in Cincinnati. The girls earn from three to four hundred dollars each year.

They are deeply interested in the club and work very hard to make it a success.

THE FINAL NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTION OF 1957

The final induction of the National Honor Society of 1957 was held March 15. There was an addition of 10 new members into the society (5 Srs. and 5 Jrs.). The speakers on this occasion were: Carol Sampson (Character), Pat Wolgamott (Scholarship), Paul Adams (Spirit of the Torch), Jim White (President), Lynn Goff (Leadership), and Barbara Davis (Service). The inducted members bearing the gowns are: Joyce Lute, Nadine Carver, Dotty Bender, Maxine Moore, and Helen Goff (Seniors), Eleanor Powell, Larry Veach, Janice Brown, Dorthory Gilliland, and Larry Sturgill (Juniors). The members dressed in formals were inducted into the organization last year. They are Ruth Casebolt, Ruth Seidel, Patsy Gillispie, and Edna Grace Knore. The two sponsors, Miss Daily and Mr. Coriell, are standing in the center of the group.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY BUTCHER-CORIELL CHAPTER

In 1900 the National Honor Society was established to serve secondary high schools. The Butcher-Coriell Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized March 25, 1955, in honor of Mr. Paul Butcher and Mr. William Coriell. Miss Daily is now co-sponsor since the death of Mr. Butcher.

The first members of the Butcher-Coriell Chapter were sworn into office April 29, 1955, by the Amy Mitchell Chapter of Portsmouth West High School.

Members are selected on an equal basis of SCHOLARSHIP (Attaining scholarship and applying the use of the knowledge you have acquired is very important. Scholarship is something which no one can take from you.), LEADERSHIP (To be a leader you must exert a positive influence. Each person has some capability for leadership which he should use.), CHARACTER (It is the foundation of leadership, scholarship, and service. When character is lost, all is lost.), and SERVICE (Service completes the other three standards, and through humble and sincere service we fulfill the Christian school and civic duties given us.)

To date a total of 48 students have been installed in the Butcher-Coriell Chapter of Minford High School.

Period 4

Ruth Kallner, Audrey Irvin, Clara King, Miss Daily (Librarian).

THE MINFORD HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

The library of Minford High School is a busy place during the three periods that it is open. Both magazines and books are widely read and used in various classes as regular assignments. There is a variety of magazines from which to choose: Time, Life, Look, Readers Digest, McCall's, Popular Mechanics, Ladies Home Journal, Newsweek, and many others. Available also is the ever popular and useful Readers Guide. Six hundred volumes have been added to the shelves this year. Grades 7 through 12 have assigned periods each week in which to use the library. The remainder of the time it is open to the study hall. Student librarians assist with much of the clerical work, and with the processing of new books for the shelves.

A new Compton's Encyclopedia was purchased this year and is in much demand by the students. With the addition of other new reference books such as: Twentieth Century Authors and Columbia Encyclopedia, the Minford Library is growing rapidly and becoming more up to date.

The classified section, containing those books which can be used for curriculum enrichment-- in science, literature, and government, for instance--is stocked with helpful and interesting volumes. Our library is a growing and vital part of our school.
