Junior John Johnson demands attention and respect as he addresses his peers in English class.

Freshman Andrea Day and 8th graders, Kendra Martin and Shelley Gilpin, support the soccer team through rain or shine.

Tracy Mosley struggles through the hallways while carrying all of her many books. Tracy is a senior member of the National Honor Society.

Whew! Wow! We made it!

Students survive an explosive year.

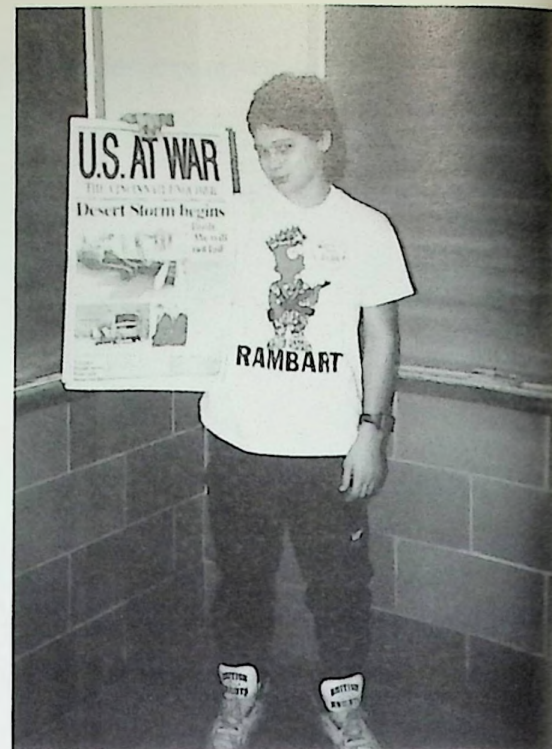

Right. Jason Malone, an eighth-grader, expresses his feelings for the Cincinnati Enquirer's major headline.

Below. Portsmouth, on the banks of the Ohio River and home to C.H.S., welcomed many stars.

Right. Many students showed their support of the war and their support for the troops in Iraq.

After the bell

Many interesting people and events invaded our leisure moments

Above. President Mikhail Gorbachev struggled to unite and reform the Soviet Union. The country is in critical economic condition and the Communist Party and the government disagree on how to achieve reform.

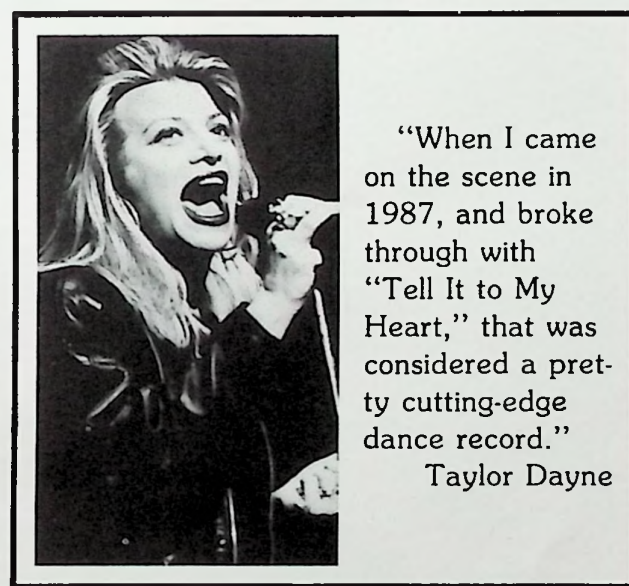

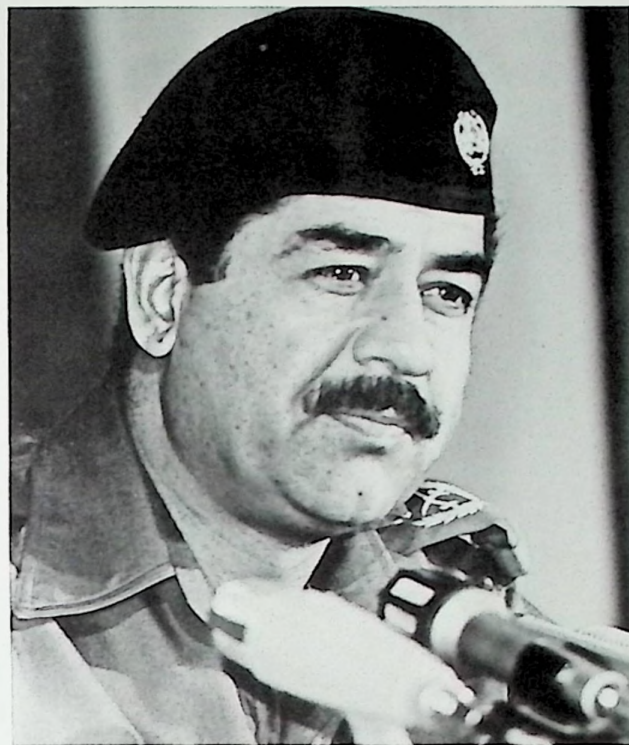

Right. There she is, Miss America. Marjoriee Judith Vincent, Miss Illinois, is a pianist of Haitian descent who wants to practice international law. Miss America 1991 is a third-year law student at Duke University.

Left. Ivana and Donald Trump may look the picture of marital and material bliss, but don't believe it. Trump's millions were slowly eroded in 1990 to the edge of financial disaster. And he and Ivana were divorced after 13 years of marriage.

Below. Saddam Hussein, president and iron-fisted ruler of Iraq, invaded Kuwait in August and most of the world became his enemy. The 53-year-old strongman closely identifies himself with war.

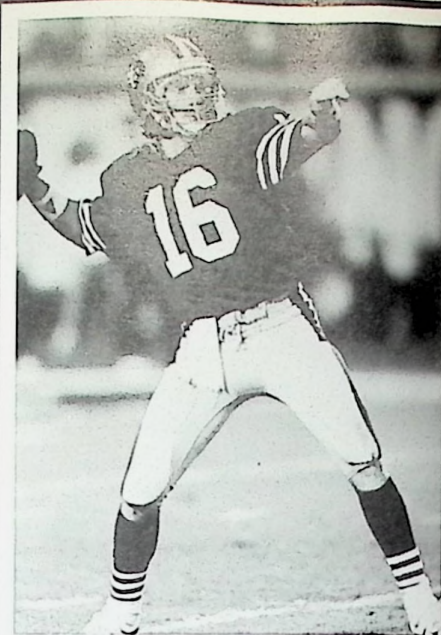

"When I came on the scene in 1987, and broke through with "Tell It to My Heart," that was considered a pretty cutting-edge dance record."
Taylor Dayne

Important People and Faces

Right. Ladd Dunham and Mrs. Vice slide into the Christmas season. Ladd is a member of the Drama Club.

Joe Montana, a 34-year-old football player, negotiated one of the richest contracts in NFL history with the San Francisco 49ers. He will be paid $13 million over four years to play football.

The three guys who call themselves Bell Biv DeVoe rolled onto the music scene this year in a big way. Their album "Poison" hit the charts near the top and their single "Do Me" is a best seller.

Above. Kendra Martin, Shelley Gilpin, and Kristi Vastine walk through the halls showing their 8th grade leadership style.

The United States sent troops to Saudi Arabia in late 1990 to prepare for a fight with Iraq. On January 16, 1991, the U.S.A. entered war with Iraq because of Iraq's refusal to leave Kuwait.

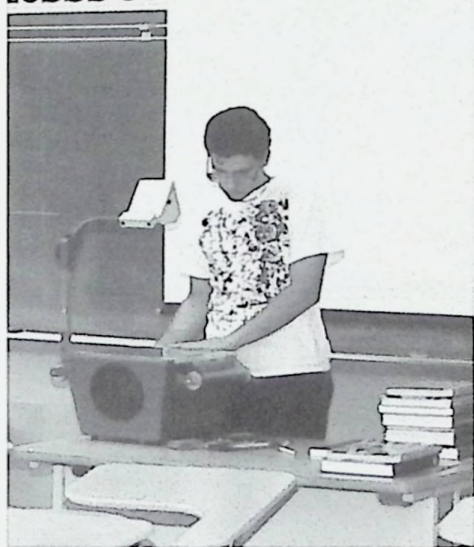

Aerosmith has been around for a long time and they have a history of good times and bad times. But 1990 may have been their best yet. Their album, "Pump," has been on the charts for all of 1990.

Below. Jeremy Smith shows his stuff as he does push-ups in class. Jeremy is always amazing his teachers.

M.C. Hammer is a 27-year-old rapper from Oakland, California. His second album, "Please Hammer Don't Hurt 'Em," sold close to 5 million copies. His concerts come complete with 32 performers.

Janet Jackson skyrocketed to the top this year. She hit it big with "Rhythm Nation 1814." In her late teens she joined the cast of the syndicated television series "Fame" and the rest is history.

Above. Senior Steve Fugate isn't wearing his Sunday best but he is dressed for success in Santaland.

Important People and Faces

1990 River Days

Right. Jennifer Martin, Debi Picklesimer, and other band members prepare to march in the grand parade.

Below. Teri Martin holds her third place ribbon and trophy. The award was given in the float competition.

Above. Mr. Billups, band director, assembles the band. The "Panther" band marched first in the 1990 parade.

Right. Teri Martin, senior, introduces herself as Clay's 1990 Miss River Days contestant. Andy Moritz marched in as Teri's drummer.

Introducing Clay High School

Below. Teri sparkles in her blue dress as she poses confidently for the judges. Her many admirers cheered wildly for her.

As the City of Portsmouth celebrated its 175th birthday, the River Days festivities were held. Teri Martin, chosen by her peers, represented Clay High School in the ever-popular Miss River Days Pageant. Teri worked extremely hard for the festival as she built a float and prepared for the pageant. A lot of tiresome work by her family and friends was given.

As always, the band, under the direction of Mr. Gary Billups, marched through the annual parade. Also, the cheerleaders and other "blue and gold" participants helped make Clay's mark in the grand parade.

Above. Mr. Billups directs the band on the parade route. Field Commander Teri Martin was aboard her float and couldn't lead the band.

Robert Pridemore, Class President

Friends, Panthers, and Dogs —
We've finally made it!

After all the pain and misery — pizzas, stolen tests, two liters, and practical jokes — we find ourselves at the end of our high school adventure. But the end of this phase of our lives serves as the beginning of another. Together we have laughed, cried, experienced, and learned. We have touched each other's lives forever.

We, the Class of '91, are a different and unique class! We have remained close and supportive of one another through all these years. I am proud to be a member of our class, proud to be your friend, and proud to be a graduate of Clay High School. Although we must part and go our separate ways, we will always be together in our hearts and memories. The times we have shared during our high school years will be something to cherish forever.

Sincerely,
Robert Lynn Pridemore

Queen For A Day

The night of homecoming was one to remember. Billi's court consisted of Jennifer Brown, Senior Attendant; Amy Chapman, Senior Vo-Tech Attendant; Missy Newman, Junior Attendant; Nelia Partlow, Junior Vo-Tech; Jennifer Martin, Sophomore Attendant; and Tracy Vulgamore, Freshman Attendant. The colors for the evening ceremony were turquoise and silver. Billi wore a beautiful white gown while the attendants wore shimmering turquoise.

The gymnasium was packed with excited and spirited fans eager to see the festivities of the night. After the crowning of Billi Smith as Homecoming Queen by senior Jay Vastine, the varsity basketball team took total control of visiting South Webster. Avenging an earlier defeat, the Panthers clawed the Jeeps by defeating them by over thirty points.

Below. Juniors David Brown and Jackie Hines make an attractive couple. David and Jackie were both members of the Prom committee.

Left. The C.H.S. "Men of the 90's" include Andy Moritz, Jay Vastine, Jason Artis, Robert Pridemore, Jeff Kelly, Ken Kelly, Anthony Malone, Dustin Ruby, and Chad Phillips.

Below. Juniors Jason Cottle and Jenny Sayne look the perfect couple image. Jenny was the President of the Junior Class and both were Prom Committee members.

Above. Seniors Kristi Harris, Anthony Malone, April Canter, and Jeff Kelly are dressed for success.

Left. Where are the guys? These girls seem to be having fun without them!

Once upon a time, we were young enough to get up and dance at the prom. Using the theme of different time periods, the Juniors organized a very exciting 1991 Prom. With the guidance of Mrs. Brammer, Prom Advisor, the Juniors created a mood which fit the different time eras. The hosts and hostesses were all decked out in their appropriate costumes and the Juniors and Seniors came "dressed to kill". The After-Prom was held at the Sunset Bowling Lanes. There, we all ate pizza and bowled till our hearts were content. All in all, we enjoyed and experienced the 1991 Junior-Senior Prom.

Extra! Extra!

Read all about it!

Let's break from advertising. What was our world like in 1991?

Fifty years from now I want to remember what the year 1991 was like. Now, when I talk with my grandparents, they tell me of when they had to walk to school and when gasoline was only 10 cents a gallon. I also hear "get your hair cut" and "this world today!" I look at my parent's old yearbook and laugh when I look at what they're wearing and that funny-looking hairdo. Mom and dad were such nerds!

However, I have this feeling that when my children and grandchildren pull out this 1991 Panther Yearbook they are going to do some serious snickering about me. Also, they are going to look at my favorite singers and probably compare them to Perry Como. Can you imagine comparing Don Dokken to Perry Como? My hair and my clothes, which I think are pretty radical, are gonna be ridiculed.

Oh well, here's to 1991, may my memories never be forgotten. If I'm driving in a space car or if my kid wants a new space car for Christmas, you better believe that I'm gonna tell them the current Glockner Chevrolet prices!

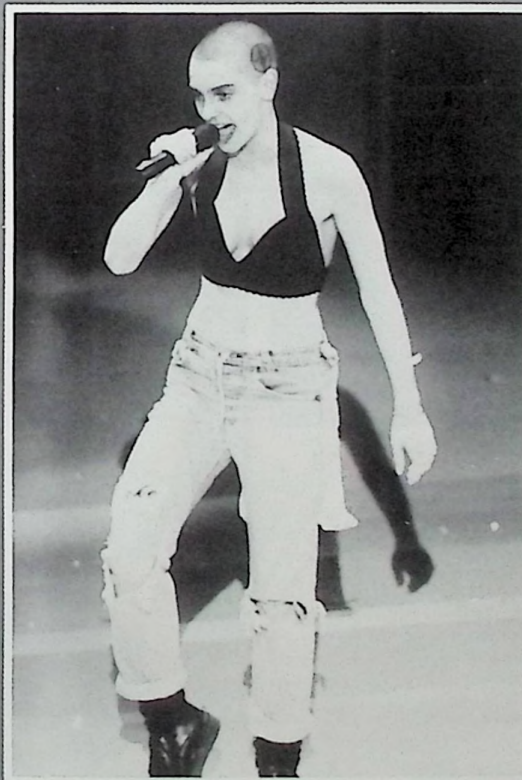

Above left. A lot of radio stations have been playing Johnny Gill's music. So much so that 1.2 million people went out and bought his latest album and pumped it upward to top of the charts.

Above right. When Billy Idol is on stage, he's like a big, new action toy. He is full of theatrics and full of action. His latest single hits are "L.A. Woman" and "Cradle of Love."

Right. In grade school, Michael Bolton played the guitar and took requests from classmates to perform their favorite songs. And now he is a Grammy winner. Bolton poses with the award he won for best Male Pop Vocal Performer.

Male Rockers

These guys are good, but my favorite male performer is listed below.

Below left. When you're hot, you're hot, and the golden girl Madonna has been hot for a long time. As the 1990-91 school year began, Madonna's latest album, "I'm Breathless" was high on the list.

Below right. Sinéad O'Connor is something else. The 23 year old Irish singer with her shaved head and immense eyes has been topping the charts all year. Her "Nothing Compares 2 U" was a huge hit.

Female Rockers

These gals are good, but my favorite female performer is listed below.

Musical Groups

These groups are good, but my favorite musical group is listed below.

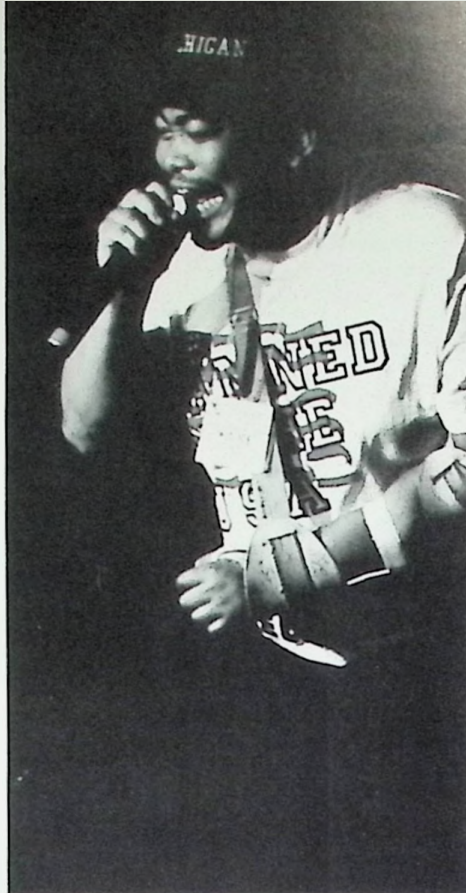

Above right. 2-Live Crew is a group that made hit songs and big headlines this year. The police in Florida considered their album "As Nasty As You Wanna Be" to be obscene, and a record store owner was found guilty of selling it.

Middle right. The B-52's weren't doing much since one of the members of the group died in 1985. Enter record producer Don Was. The group was looking for and found a producer who was sympathetic to goofy dance music.

Above. Back in the early 1970s, when Heart was forming in Seattle, there were not very many women in rock 'n' roll. But they helped change that. Here they are, about 15 years later, and they are still banging out the hit records.

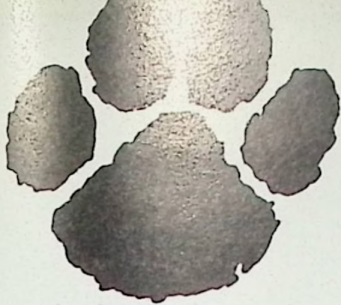

Right. The group Roxette might still be playing exclusively for Swedish audiences if it hadn't been for an exchange student from Sweden who brought their album to Minneapolis and it became a local hit. The rest, as they say, is history.

The Year Is 1991

Below. Do you think we could ever forget such a bunch of characters?

Right. Nelson Mandela was given a life sentence in 1962 for plotting to overthrow the South African government. He became one of the world's most influential prisoners. But in 1990, at the age of 71, he was released from prison.

Far right. President George Bush and President Mikhail Gorbachev of the Soviet Union met several times. Both leaders joined together in condemning Iraq's invasions of Kuwait. The Cold War between the two super powers has ended.

Below. David Souter became the latest member of the Supreme Court in October. He is known in his adopted state of New Hampshire as a brilliant legal scholar, a diligent judge, and a private man who never married.

President Bush is a good President, but when I was born the President of the United States was:
